average house, per hour, and if a house 5000 times more expensive, he can make half a million times more per hour. Equal pay for equal work indeed. Check out the huge waste of materials that would enable all Americans to have good single family housing, but they can't because the palatial aristocrats need useless businesses, to keep the poor short lived and addicted to alcohol (3 million dead a year, a Holocaust), tobacco (6 million dead), drugs, violent music, etc. Check the houses in Hidden Hills, many waste the materials for 1 Immortality city center where 40,000 Americans check biomarkers and prevent disease and live to 120. They get some fake Demon-crats proposing some unethical thing (sexualizing children, etc as with Disney as DeSantis says, or etc – things that an immortalist culture would never have to begin with at all with Immortality for All Party), to have pretext for Re-pub-licans to be against it and appear as the moral guys who also pass the stuff that shields the aristocracy (but is never talked about). It's a very clever system of controlling both sides to achieve 0 change for the rich: always fabricate nonissues (which by default would be illegal anyway in an Immortality for All society, such as allowing illegals and having no border wall) to distract the people from the elephant in the room: the parasitism of the real estate and many other industries that is totally against democracy, the feudal system of subjugation. The big issues are always not so big at all. Like in magic tricks of prophets, distraction is the game. First of all, with one system housing.gov it becomes possible for the 1st time in history to know who rents a room and have one national ID system and find exactly what's going on instantly, to implement the rule of law, that Re-pub-licans claim to defend, the order, so to rent a room one needs an ID to get preverified on .gov site instantly, so landlord won't waste 3 days to do that, one needs to be legally in USA, etc. So, when you treat people like humans, instead of like pigs to be worked to death, you create border wall and give visas for those you want to work at the minimum wage for that visa, ideally same. Rule of law and "Christianity" they claim to uphold. Demon-crats are Re-pub-licans in disguise, who're against border wall, to facilitate slave labor: those with no visa would always work for way below minimum wage, and ask for nothing. This enables then the greedy aristocrats to amass big palaces, money by enslaving millions.☺☺☺

But with this aristocratic feudal system of subjugating 99.9% of Americans, it's not possible. Hidden Hills is one of 2000 similar "small enclaves" of the aristocrats in USA, add it all up and we get 300,000 Immortality Centers near City Halls, etc. Check out the 9 million mansions in USA, space and materials for so much public good. Let people be free, in practice, not slogans, why are the average Americans so incredibly "low IQ"? Can't they realize both parties are owned by the same conmen? Check out the mansions in each state. Nothing to worry, Hollywood parasites create the most uplifting music and movies, to keep the slaves paying their tribute. Then you understand why the Tsar bomba was tested in 1961 perhaps, one is enough to cover 60,000 mansions of the aristocrats, check out the 50 mile radius. Check out how all of a sudden, 4 fires erupted on January 7th 2025, Russian Christmas day, in 4 areas with rich Jewish celebrities (Pacific Palisades (before and after), Hollywood Hills (fire movie a guy called Israel fights the fire) near Beverly Hills Jewish enclave, see entire streets burned, see the Palisades and PCH highway homes, of 5 million each, all burned, as the Light of God punished the satanists who destroyed humanity with their depraved content of murder, rape and violent yelling for 100+ years) who have caused via music and movies 9000+ cities to be wiped off the map last 100 years, such as Syria and Ukraine. 2 days before fire broke in Hollywood Hills, etc they voted (See 30 second at 82nd Golden Globe awards, video about smell, stench, fire and 3-11) 3 for moms, 11 for cast and crew and 0 for God, referring to 3 agencies and 11 companies replacing the 33 million companies, the immortalist spiritual society that replaces talk of genocidal Bible God with real kindness of the real God. The fires were staged, all knew they come. 82nd award, joke about 88, HH, Heil Hitler, anti-genocidal Jewish Bible. Jewish Resnick couple (both Jews) agriculture Billionaires took over the California water supply, billionaires who sell useless products, nuts (pistachios and almonds, 9000 times less healthy than walnuts, deadly nuts, ω6 to destroy gentile brain, pomegranates, less healthy than blueberries, hard to eat fresh, mandarines – waste of land use versus other fruits like berries, plums, etc wine to cause 1 billion dead and destroy gentile brain) and fruits that are not healthy. Guardian calls on ending the billionaire class, like this book does in the credit section. Immortality Food Inc needs to fine this couple 10 billion for cultivating deadly nuts and causing 9 million heart attacks via such nuts, take over their farms, destroy all grapes, pistachio, mandarine and almond crops and cultivate much healthier kale, blueberries, black plums, red cabbage/cauliflower, walnuts. A strategy of the rich (or bad type of Jew) is to give poison to workers/gentiles, eat good food themselves. Steal all California water to cultivate the worst nuts to destroy brains, take over USA.☺☺☺ Isn't it about time for infernal movies creators, music to experience the inferno, war images eternal they created in the minds of billions with Mel Gibson movies of Jesus torture and bloodshed? What about the pastors, rabbis, imams who use their "places of worship" to promote genocide, burning entire cities to the ground, raping all virgins after Mohamed killed their husband or dad, etc, why can't the real God send little fires to these Avatars of Genocide-Looting-Rape homes and "worship temples"? Well, God already did, 15 places of worship were burned at least.

The fire that wiped out the famous Pacific coastal areas, started on Russian Christmas day, on Piedra Morada Drive, as Aussie news explains, and as described in detail via videos taken at 10:30 am by Stephanie (age 26), Nicolas & mom Libonati family for NBC News (they knew this is it probably judging by the body language, everyone knew almost the "God sent" (military?) fire is starting now, watch Nic Libonati (Italian last name, boot salesman per some reports, age 21) use buckets to put out fires), while Anthony Marrone (tone of music, tone of movies, tone of lyrics, MARO, like Mora, Immortality, Roma, Vatican, Italy) was LA Fire Chief (see Anthony speak), like in The Rock of Immortality Drive, not a coincidence perhaps. Italy shape is like a boot, here we go: boots on the ground, war. Beautiful tone music is here, for the Evolution of All, celebrities get new houses, this was all staged. The investigation also happens on other streets, such as Via La Costa Street (see ABC7 news), in the Palisades Highlands community (Highlander like the Immortal) Life or Money, what is the focus of our civilization: $$$ or Life via healthy longevity? Pali is the language of the Buddha. No Buddhist temples burned, only about 15 churches, 2 synagogues, 1 mosque of the Trio of Israel religions. Residents claim the homeless caused it, but it's FBI. Check out mobile home park burned remains in Pacific Palisades. On the same January 6-7th day of Orthodox (religion of Nikola Tesla) Christmas eve and Christmas, Mecca, the place of Jewish Quran Islamist Violence spreading, was hit by God or Tesla tech caused artificial floods. Medina was also hit, besides other cities. At 9:05 am local time (9 times 5 is 45, China has only 1 time zone, 6 miles from a key religious Buddhist center, like 1945 Nuclear Attack and chapter 4.5 on immortalism), on Russian Christmas day, 2025, a huge earthquake rattled China, Nepal and India, with epicenter in Tibet, using Tesla tech to generate earthquakes or perhaps an atomic test. These 3 events, seemingly natural, may be God's warning to Violent Scriptures and Movie makers and spreaders: you shall not defile God by atributing such genocidal Bible Quran quotes to God. Rather, God is Love as the Immortalist Anthem explains. The Russian President said in December 19th 2024, weeks before this arson, that Jews attack the Church and now on Russian Christmas, fires burn, with help from Mexican arsonists who're illegals looking for construction work, so they can install 5 million mind control and listening devices in the houses for the KGB. God is not happy with Hollywood Jews and all Hollywood celebrities, so God uses "natural events" (probably arson from satellites or drones by US or foreign actors using wind of 100 mph generating tech) to cause peaceful movies/music. 50% of aristocratic Palisades was burned by Jan 8th. This was no accident, since some insurance companies canceled policies months ahead. See Altadena fire. Odd how on 3 continents, on Jan 7th, we have on Orthodox Christmas day, disasters happening to the enemies of The Gentle Way of 0 Mutilation, 0 War, 0 Terror, 0 Torture…: 1). Mecca Quran Terror Mutilation Violence promoters got floods, 2). Bad Music-Movies Makers and Aristocratic Parasites got fires and 3). Chinese torture lovers got quakes.☺☺☺ Violence Met with God's Tesla device? The weather wars have started? Tsar Bomba is nothing compared to quantum weapons that can kill all humans on a planet only and do no damage to any building. The vampires kill 9 million globally by alcohol businesses and tobacco ones, programming everyone to smoke and drink. Millions more are killed each year thru Eternal War, as World Peace in 3 months is forbidden in media, politics, songs, etc. War is the way to beat to death any disobeying slaves. Media is controlled by generals. So, if they kill 9 million each year, for decades, what is a just action in the minds of the less peaceful mortalists? Some will possibly say that the only just action is the death penalty or lifetime labor. Russia warned USA by tweets. All 3 could have been done by the military though using homeless thugs, to frame the Russians. 1 fire is arson. Hydrants dried out since they started repairs on a reservoir, just as strongest winds in 3 years came about per FBI weather predictions or Tesla UFO motherships making winds. This was an orchestrated event, by CIA-FBI probably, with 100 house fires started at once to get 6 huge fires spreading so fast, in order to achieve a certain goal, population shift, increase of insurance rates in California, rebuilding of structures with new transformers and electric panels to enable EMP nuke attack resilience, aristocrats kicking out poorer people from their exclusive neighborhoods by insurance premiums, Mexican illegals wanting work so setting houses on fire as all their work is construction usually and KGB/CIA being happy to help them set fires up with small devices, lasers. This is too odd to be natural. It's a false flag by the US government. Jewish Center near NASA JPL burned to the ground, too many spies there perhaps.

Fires can be targeted strikes against various gangs and spy networks run by various nations. The people obviously were aware and left, instead of watering lawn and house and keeping watch with a hose, these "evacuation orders" enable billionaires in construction business to get very rich, while if people used tap water, they would have watered lawns etc and put out fires. Many used generator pump and a pool to fight it, wet lawn/trees and saved the house. Once you're low IQ enough to leave house (if you got 100 gallons of water in tubs etc you got enough to put out a lot if fires, if water works, a generator pump can pull water from tub or a pool or inflatable swimming pool you create to have water to attack fire), it will be 100 times more likely to burn, as criminals set it on fire with drones or lasers or embers reach the house from the strong wind. If water doesn't run and you don't have pump and hose and 100 gallons, then it's hard to put out any ember fire…, or water embers before they burn the house. If water works you can put out neighboring houses too to prevent embers flying into yours. Don't be silly, but many are spies and knew it was staged, while others may be into insurance fraud happy to get new house. You see in areas with few trees, people who stayed and watered house didn't lose house. Only ☺low IQ home owners leave during a fire, if you live in an area with concrete mostly, as a hose or bucket can put out any ember, plus the Immortality Building Inc can make 15 minutes to deploy tents that never burn to protect a house, instead of 1.4$ trillion/year of useless products, so no embers reach the house. The fires expose the predatory nature of the insurance industry as this video explains so well. It's time for the Immortality Building Inc to replace all realtors, contractors, insurance companies, Eterni Bank to replace all 4500 banks to bring the end of hooliganism and predatory aristocrats. The fires happen and people die because our society prioritizes money, evil music, not Life. 35 million mansion is now ashes, no more aristocratic terror for a few months as they're busy rebuilding imperial palace for realtors from middle hell, landlords from low hell. God hates war and genocide, and not everyone adores the God calling for 8 billion gentiles being killed when Jews desire. It's never too late for Jews to abandon satanism, the Bible, and to embrace Immortalism, to give legitimacy to Israel, as it dissolves into the One World Nation, Eternia of 11 companies. ☺☺ Altadena mosque was also burned, as a Thank You to Islam. ☺ 15 churches were obliterated by the fire, because their message of raping all virgins, burning cities to the ground, killing 8 billion is so 'important' to God, God didn't care to protect them. Odd how people think such "religions" can build a democracy: rape, genocide, slavery deified. Canada burned 33 churches, many insurance firms no longer insure churches, enabling USA to use fires (Joe Rogan) with lasers to get rid of churches, mosques, synagogues. Thank God? Anyhow, Trump talked of fires 2 months before the fires, with Joe Rogan, who uses a cover of a Jesus believer, like others. See HAARP weather engineering, create fires, storms. A car dealer emailed/texted/called me 20 times, Kaden (warrior in German) Wilson, like Mt Wilson where Pasadena fire was, phone ending in 737, Boeing 737. 316-633-7307, Don Hattan Ford near Wichita Kansas, that produced more airplanes than any other town in the world. The guys who had my car search lead to a car dealer and who replied about this indicates that actually they knew it was coming, as other guys were having inflated airplanes at the dealer, signifying the air quality, related to a truck, a lorry, like Lori, some girl who lives in near the fires.

Russia hit Ukraine tobacco company, the official cover story is a "drone fragment caused it to catch fire", or maybe Ukraine set it on fire on Kiev founding day (482 AD) to help its people smoke less, vampires to make less $, or steal market share from competing vampires. Critics of the conspiracy theory will say that they don't push it, but they do, they spend billions on tobacco ads, wine studies, etc. Look at Japan Tobacco Inc, 40% of Russian tobacco market, all companies almost tried to exit Russia, tobacco did not, "keep killing and call it World Peace for all". US (Phillip Morris founded in London, 26% of market share) and British (bat.com + imperial tobacco 29%) companies hold 55% of the Russian tobacco market share in June 2023, ethics in action, Life for All, united with Japan (37-40%) in delivering Immortality for All, interdimensional immortality in this case, like Jesus the con. Hybrid war of extermination? In the EU 20% smoke daily. Russia is only 2.5% of revenue for Bat.com, so BAT were the first to exit Russia in September 2023. Phillip Morris doesn't care, cause 17% of US high school students smoke, about 15% of Americans smoke some tobacco, brainwashed Americans spent $82 billion in 2022, on tobacco suicidal products. Aristocrats don't just own banks, they own all intelligence services, so the state is their repression apparatus. The military owns every world government, so instead of 1 million ads about free mp3 players for the poor and free meditative music, free bliss via meditative breathing, better sleep, etc we get 1 billion ads about buying tobacco, alcohol products each decade: pure murder of tens of millions for CORPORATE PROFIT. In 1920s & 1930s Germany, these same aristocrats financed Hitler's rise and led to 80 million dead in WW2. Russia's Putin sells Putinka vodka, no polyphenols in it. A recent analysis suggests the same families that controlled business in Nazi times control it today, so only 46% of Germans owned their homes in 2022, while Europe's highest % are all former communist. Only Switzerland, the land of unethical bankers and aristocrats, has a lower % of home ownership. So, while Germany seems a republic on paper, it is actually a monarchy in disguise. Check out the Ukraine lady allegedly tortured by Putin disciples. Putin lives in a nice palace, while the people live in these smoggy areas of Moscow, where people often go without water for weeks or days at a time. Reminds us of Turkmenistan, no water for weeks. Putin encourages people to "drink industrial ethanol (kills 3 million a year, a yearly Holocaust) poison, be merry and torture Ukrainians to damage the quantum field"?, like the CIA. 51% of Russian males over 15 smoke, congratulations to USSR? Putin ruled Russia since 1999, so how come so many are alcohol and smoking addicts still? 330000 Russians dead yearly from tobacco in 2020s, way more than Ukraine 2014 Donbas war. 89% of 13-15 year olds in Russia are damaged by 2nd hand smoke.

In the law that only applies to slaves, murder is met with capital punishment. What does yearly genocide call for? Immortalists would say for more universal gentle tender soft nurturing loving kindness that melts hearts of steel. If you own all media and everything in USA pretty much and you kill 9 million each year on the planet (since everyone copies USA), what is a correct action in the minds of some hawks? For mortalists death penalty is fine, but not for Immortalists, since Immortalists are against killing, only healing center education (3 months, every weekend for 12 hours, so maybe 154 hours for small crimes and 15400 hours for serious crimes) plus some fine for bad aristocrats. In a just world, we need to be real and realize the blame goes to more than 1 owner or CEO, it's often an octopus of the mafia of extermination of the working class. So maybe 500 people get some fine, even if some may get a higher fine, maybe $900 million to fund a new Immortality for All center, where the 1 million average people can monitor lung health, arterial plaque, each year with automated machines, like we check blood pressure at Walmart, etc. Have you ever seen an American (Jewish?) made movie where they use this tone to say "World Peace in 3 months is important to all humans. We could appeal to people's compassion, to drink 1000 times less alcohol, because a lot of gentile domestic violence and crime, car accidents happen due to Jewish owned stores that sell alcohol and alcohol ads on TV. Let us see all gentiles as trillion old shimmering Immortals in disguise, not slaves whose blood is to be sucked dry via weed, alcohol, casinos, lotteries, tobacco. We can make profits by doing something ethical that enhances the human quantum field, for even though some Jews think of gentiles as of animals, the quantum field of Jews is affected by gentile events, so if gentiles live to 100, we can't live to 200, so we need to bring gentile lifespan to a trillion to enable ourselves to live to 2 trillion. We need to tell all Latino, Asian, Black, White Jews and other subjugating non-Jewish groups to stop leading the gentile into oblivion and start behaving. Enough fake papers about wine benefits have been produced, we need promote papers on the other 500 foods with 5-700 times more antioxidants and etc". Many are moving out of Los Angeles, like I did in 2023, since it's clear what may happen sooner or later, instantly☺☺☺ maybe once quantum weapons arrive. A 100 megaton bomb exploded underwater would cause allegedly (some doubt it, they say it would be only 50 ft if far from the coast) 1600 feet tsunami that could kill 5 million in theory, see what to do in case of big white flash (nuke explosion nearby). The "ever uplifting" Hollywood music and allegedly partially Jewish film industry may instantly vanish like Hiroshima did, Iran is always calling for 'wiping Israel (Intel invested 25 billion to build new factory there, not in USA, now they can recruit spies and use that as cover for spies) off the map', that includes the mini-Israel in Los Angeles County and NYC too? However, they're against nukes and nuke use, so they may try discover stuff that only affects people. Insider wrote all big cities are safe from Russian attack. Nuclear radiation drops 10 fold after 7 hrs, 100 fold after 2 days, 1000x after 2 weeks: stay inside for 2 days and read here on how to be prepared, maybe buy or sew some disposable coveralls that you can dump after buying food, 'hands-off wash only' with plastic rod, trash water; no wash in washing machine as particles could get stuck. Every military controls the 'culture', celebrities, democracy doesn't exist, it's a fiction used for propaganda as a French general explains so candidly. The military rulers of Earth's nations inspired every country's movie and music industry to promote the worst type of vibes and helped turn the whole planet into a living hell, when they could have promoted for 100 years World Peace in 3 months types of songs and movies: look at the content, all about war, sex, lust, violence, bad tones (nothing like eterni tone) that raise anxiety and negative emotions.

Where are the workers' rights, when 33% of world's smokers are Chinese and China wastes huge tracts of land (2.5 million acres in 2021, or 96 times the size of Paris, almost half the size of Israel) for tobacco, instead of meditative better housing for the people? Is China run by Asian and Ashkenazi (European) Jews who were the pioneers of communism? What kind of "socialism" is that or Buddhist compassion or Confucius ethics? The leaders use the wine toast to tempt 1.4 billion Chinese to alcohol drinking, that is a waste of time and hurts workers beaten by drunk Chinese, is this true Buddhist or communist virtue? It's a bourgeois sinful selfish behavior, not altruist or communist by any definition. Millions of acres wasted for tobacco, and look how these villagers live in China. What kind of Confucian virtue is that? Too many world leaders are raising the toast, to tempt the people to ever more alcoholism, in a blatant display of lack of compassion for the beaten victims of alcoholics and those killed by drunk drivers: this is not what an allegedly "Christian, communist, ethical" President needs to teach. Check out the homeless in China, that the Chinese drinkers and smokers don't care about. It shows you the side of China you rarely see on Chinese government websites or youtubes. China allows nightclubs, like all corrupt nations do. So, we see a moral collapse of China, away from the man of Tao Te Ching into the Western depravity of The Zion Elders protocols. Instead of drones to transport veggies, we get these enslaved farmers carrying them, in a decentralized chaos of selfishness. Why not a truck to pick it and transport it, instead of everyone going there? Why not a central company buying everything from farmers on their own farm? Likewise, the corrupt US politicians follow the mob and toast with no thought. The Immortal, the Buddha, the Tao, is full of everlasting infinite compassion for all beings, so how can China not prioritize eterni food instead of torturing and killing living beings like pigs? Let us take the best of China's ethics (universal loving kindness, altruistic Tao Te Ching sage gentle tender soft nurturing healing grace) and use it to bring world scientific progress in the Neolithic food industry. Let all nations sing ""May all live to a trillion"☺☺☺. Why replace China's great ethics with the less known genocidal quotes of Engels (calls for annihilation of 'pig headed nations' and Marx is the chief editor of the journal where this appears) approved by Jewish Karl Marx? He who doesn't kill animals is far less likely to kill humans, who're 'higher value' in people's minds. So vegetarians and vegans especially, since dairy cows are also tortured and killed, can contribute to a better vibe and faster World Peace (more money for decent housing instead of bombs) by pushing for food industry high tech innovation. Veganism uses far less water and land☺☺☺ (so more have decent housing), and immortalism even less, though that will take 100 years or more to materialize. Let the Light of science rejuvenate and free the Chinese nation, blessing it with universal loving kindness. US wastes 0.2 million acres on tobacco and 1.1 million acres on wine grapes, when blueberries and others are far more brain protective, see the list of foods with 10-1500 times more polyphenols than the 10 wine has, to understand how brainwashed everyone is by the wine industry. They already got billions of mp3s produced, they just need create a few meditative mp3s to help people quit smoking, alcohol, drugs, by finding a happier replacement: quiet sleep to destress, meditation, serene music, etc. Beautiful mp3s about the effects of meditation, how to do it, etc, besides the simple relaxing music with subliminals. The Chinese, etc have created a state capitalism that doesn't promote "Immortality for All"☺☺, so they're just copying USA, like all the other countries where the military controls the 'motion pictures'. Youtube has 100s of videos about world's ammunition factories and everyone is happy and proud to make weapons that kill others, thinking no differently than Hitler and rats known to cannibalize each other when hunger strikes. It's horrific to watch with how little indifference the people assemble weapons that destroy houses. It's like they're serial killers, bloodthirsty demon possessed people, and yet everyone thinks nothing about it, posts it on youtube with ecstatic enthusiasm. No surprise, after the ever torturing militaries brainwash all to kill, instead of working to bring World Peace in 3 months, Eternal Universal Peace.☺☺☺

Housing.gov could require more concrete etc domes, to withstand tornadoes and nuke blast 100 times better, since 80 people die yearly from tornadoes, due to lousy housing codes, not to mention 1500 get seriously injured. FEMA gives grants to build dome shaped buildings, since domes are the safest, see pics of domes, and the first company making strong concrete domes.

Domes last 1000 years, possibly longer with future tech changes. They resist fires, lightning strikes, termites, earthquakes, category 5 hurricanes, nuclear blasts that demolish everything else fast. CDC explains in nuke attacks, the all known today mask would be ultra useful if wet to protect nose and mouth, so the whole mask thing may have been also a rehearsal for all out nuclear war. Nobody in China teaches meditation to be happy, peaceful music to be happy and not need tobacco, alcohol and drugs; all we hear is 10% ancient Chinese music and 90% Hollywood style music: pop, rock, metal, rap, void of any gentle tender soft nurturing loving kindness, compassionate grace for All etc. Check out the 70% Jewish ☺ Beverly Hills mansions. We can't make the mistakes of the France, US, Russia revolutions, meaning, violence never leads to the best outcome in the long run. The extreme violence of 1917 led to 120 million dead next 70 years, so we need to think about peace. The less aware, manipulated or ☺filif pitbull IQ☺ people chose violence; today, however, we know there are 1 trillion ways to any outcome, that don't involve violence/torture in any form. Most aristocrats don't even realize they're aristocrats and that they perpetuate the status quo of 0 IQ and short lives, eternal war and violence. Boycott all movies, music they fill with smoking, alcohol, drugs, violence to enslave us, don't go to the cinema created by these conmen, don't buy alcohol they use to lower IQ and enslave us, to put millions in jail and use them as slaves, don't buy drugs and tobacco they use to exterminate us. We can do nonviolent actions that will dry their profits. Listen to peaceful music and discover the peace. So, inspired by God, we will ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ find the most healing way to a world of gentle tender soft nurturing loving kindness, compassionate grace for All. As the Immortalist Anthem says, we love the worst 1 trillion times more than the most loving mom loved her infant baby, because we realize some 'aristocrats' are baby souls. We go beyond the old historical inertia of the fake religions of hate and punishment, to healing all for World Peace in 3 months, ending all jails, & giving all decent single family housing.

How did Trump become so rich so quick? Casinos and real estate speculation, the worst kind of economic activity that ruins the planet, unless you do that to catch big mafia leaders, but even then it's not ideal due to many people wasting time going to casinos. He seems to be role playing, a fake billionaire perhaps?, like many online articles claim he's worth less, if not an FBI agent worth just 9000K. Why not create the Immortalist Party? Let people major in STEM, not theft, tricks, and middle man methods via real estate flips and speculations. The realtor realty companies middleman now makes trillions of dollars over a long period, and employs an insane amount of bureaucratic businesses and systems, being ultra inefficient, keeping us backwards. He has become more powerful than the biggest states in the nation, like an organized mafia. FBI has to check 90000 brokerages if 0.1% of realtors are not FBI agents (real estate agent), cops, CIA, etc. With one system that takes detailed videos of the house, 100 times better than the ones today, with real sound of the street, etc, 15 min small house, 15-25 most houses, 40-50 min big ones, 2-4 hr huge ones (commercial, or lots of rooms, acres, etc), everything can be truly efficient, because we can see it's a house we don't want and won't drive, kill people with tire particle smog to waste everyone's time. Let AI ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently☺☺ replace these 1st century selling systems. Automation has replaced jobs, realtors are next. Want fast, fair selling? Vote for the Immortalist Party. What we have today is so "wasteful" that if one seller fails to sell or buyer to buy, he has to start all over, fill 10 different profiles, upload everything on 9 sites that use a different system, instead of taking care of living to 100, sleeping well. He changes realtors sometimes, going from one parasite to the next. It's unbelievable. It's a system of sucking dry the life out of all, we got transport 9000 times faster, but selling/buying is the same.

Immortalism focuses on tripling human lifespan, instead of wasting a year with selling a house or renting it, rewarding science, instead of paying 60K for commission to a realtor while scientists make 45K for a year work☺☺☺ (or some guys moving a ball get paid millions, or options traders make 180 million a year, CEOs 50 million, for some junk food company, while scientists working on eterni food ideas make 50K, unethical lyrics singers a lot of $ etc, vs 1 week sometimes for a house sale; a centralized immortalist society can thus soon surpass 'capitalistic' societies in every area of endeavor, as everything is 2-100 times more efficient. We can create a society that incentivizes people to do a really good job and work towards lifespan increase, developing higher nature not physical muscles fitness to kill others. We have the 'God or universe' given free will to ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ let higher emotion and nature be the focus not the chimp nature lower nature in sports, yelling as in the jungle and wars, hollering, improper tone, preparation for fitness for war and killing that recreates those wars; we can't turn everything into a simulation for war; or else we recreate wars and short lifespans forever; let physical fitness simulate peace and healing?

Back to housing.gov, for rooms, once inspection is passing, it's listed for all Americans to see, and landlord can add (Immortality Credit Score higher than 95% of your score is a legal choice*, to prevent conflicts, even asking for people with* dog barking subscore or loud music listening subscore to be same as yours or higher) or subtract from the default checklist of items to be sent or typed by applicant, like drivers license, pay stub, credit score, etc and this would be free financial and immortality credit check and all are instantly checked, to make sure no fraudulent docs are used, using the FBI databases for such photo IDs, pay stubs (all companies paystubs become part of Immortality Payroll Agency that creates one format for all to prevent reinventing the wheel 5 million times, inventing how to live to 400 instead*) and* State Department for visas, so as to ensure instant check. This saves the time of the landlord 500 times fold, so he spends 500 times more to clean the house and room, repair it, instead of talking on the phone and listing on Neolithic websites ads. Today, it's 'spend 10 times more to find a tenant", thanks to the "genius" of conventional capitalism. The end result is a ☺☺☺ much better customer product, the ideal of capitalism that never comes true when every mom and dad garage company is the one doing it. When you rent, tax is subtracted from rent amount (based on average expenses for cleaning, etc), and for wages too, so only those with big complex businesses need file taxes. In fact, for reasons we explained in the 11 companies section, all taxes will be abolished as all rich people disappear. We can gently let people think of longevity, Immortality, not taxes, all the time? Simplify, centralize, improve efficiency 100 fold? Forget about Schedule E for tax for renting a room, having to send paper forms for federal or California for that, with no way to upload the fillable PDFs you printed for California (which requires paper) directly, in the 21st century. California requires you to make a paper copy of what you already sent IRS. Why can't they see the PDF you could upload directly? A waste paper, polluting the environment, the 'green' state. USA is so backwards. The freefillableforms website doesn't even fit the PDF on one page if using Chrome browser (Firefox is fine), you have to reenter everything no matter what browser you use, takes 50x longer with Chrome than if you already did it on IRS.gov site PDFs and just uploaded those (not possible now). Even with Firefox browser, it's just a waste of time to reenter, since you need the regular IRS PDFs for California anyway to print them, save them as a PDF for your own use, etc. We can only imagine how 'advanced' the American military is, thanks to decentralization. Mostly hot air and psy ops to make enemies believe they're the big boys? Well, who cares? As society is, ultra backwards, so is the military and its national security. In 2024, IRS will allow direct file in 13 states to try to take 1st step towards ending 10000 tax firms (charging Americans $11 billion) who rip people off to file their taxes, when it could all be automated via IRS site, and done with 50 times fewer people, allowing more science majors, not tax ones. Immortalists won. Behind the scenes, the immortalists are at work centralizing things, one step at a time.

Landlords can create a profile to allow only renters who don't smoke, or drink alcohol or eat meat or whatever if they want a house with none of those, since housing.gov has all FBI data and can automatically deny (during the ROOM-HOUSE search for rentals), access to view the houses with criteria tenant doesn't meet: being free from weed, alcohol, smoking that kill 9 million a year, i.e. from those complicit in genocide. This ensures an instant check and the landlord gets an update when tenant applications were submitted, every 1 or 50 hours a new app is sent, depending on what he set for text or email update, instant, hourly, daily, depending on how busy he's with his next 'Immortality for All' (focus of everyone's life) project in science and engineering – not wasting time texting and phoning with what a computer can do for him; there is no need for tenant to visit house to see room until just the moment of signing rental agreement in case he needs change his mind; a 15 min phone video upload, inside, outside would do it all, since the drone and inspector or person who rents it (until inspecting rooms for rent becomes law) until drones do it, filmed/saw the entire house, in fact since every person has an Immortality for All ID number, this links to all their docs and they become uploaded instantly without the person even having to scan or picture them as today send it thru stone age texting, etc. The sale and buying of a house would be instant, and the house or room rental much more professional, quick, saving the time of people – replacing 5 million sites with 1; on craigslist.com you can't even list more than 2 ads (per category, like rooms, etc) at once. The house is on 1 single website, not 2 million, of real estate, that allows true democracy to emerge, and openly informs everyone on what's available at what price in the Land of Immortals,☺☺☺ USA. So if someone wants to move to another state, they know, without having to call 500 realtors, each telling 500 lies about what is available at what price, depending on what they wanna sell or is listed twith their friend. No more 5 million newbies making 5 million Neolithic websites for displaying their house for sale, we have one mind blowing website offering 50 times more info about every property with devices checking for parameter nobody checks today.

housing.gov makes the house selling 1-4 days and reduces amount of realtors 20000 fold, as we only need maintainers of the software where all info is entered. Fixed price, direct to consumer, no mark up and rip off, EV sales by Tesla and Ford are the start of eliminating useless jobs like car salesmen, realtors. Flipping could be illegal, unless the price offered is reflecting true property improvement, as only activities that are proven to enhance someone's lifespan without shortening others' lifespan are allowed. Now, if we eliminate realtors, we increase fairness dramatically, quality of housing cleaning, repair, inspection and we allow 1 million people to major in chemistry so we discover proteins to replace animals and plant Neolithic proteins and give us 800 year lifespan. Tesla (only 22K in California, or 19 in some areas) eliminated dealers, people bought cars online; likewise, USA eliminates realtors, provides far better house buy-sell experience, housing.gov no longer allowing sharks to exploit the uninformed, subjugate the poor, defraud the naive. Until Immortality Building Inc does all maintenance, housing.gov can send reminders to new home owner, to do this and that maintenance, like flush water heater, check faucets with moisture detector, nearby areas, etc, check for leaks after running shower 10 min, etc. One amazing termites.gov can have a really good service with 20 techs to wipe out and scan for termites, unlike the mom and dad garage companies that have only 1 or 3 techs; with one big company or 4 instead of 4000, you get a much better service, way higher tech, as you can do 100 times more R&D, develop new products, scanners for termites, etc. In condos, town homes, etc often times, AC vents etc are shared, so are pipes and lots of issues can emerge when they don't do maintenance and you got 2 million types of condo building techniques; when you have fewer and everything is more centralized, the service and tech to maintain it is better, as you got 100 times more R&D, instead of just doing the maintenance.☺☺ USA got 4500 banks, and millions of small and medium businesses that require enormous number of individual HR, accounting, etc payroll people - leading to a shortage of longevity sciences, chemistry, physics majors and an abundance of the most useless majors. Why can't Eternia/USA government incentivize the mergers and acquisitions, retain products, unify them, rebrand them etc if proven to extend lifespan, etc, and make space for 1 million science jobs, instead of accounting, HR and payroll, admin jobs that keep USA in the 1st century. If you really want longevity progress, you prioritize that and not having millions of redundant businesses, when with 10 banks we're fine, just have them regulated well, so they don't abuse the people (see abuse here). Every bank reinvents the wheel, wastes huge amounts of time with their own software, system, etc instead of innovation. With cashless society, who needs to go to a bank to cash a check or money, when an app can take pics of checks and cash them? Reduce branches and instead build Immortality labs, physics, materials science labs, chemistry, eterni food centers, etc. Like with our 1st century mythology called religion, much of our society, including food industry is in the 1st century. We eat pretty much like people did millennia ago. Well, capitalism can keep people very backwards, thru redundancy, is that what we call progress? Because we compare ourselves with stuff worse than somewhat ethical capitalism, we often live in the self made illusion that it is the best as it is now, just as people thought horses allow you to travel fastest until Dragon rockets transported people 1000 times faster than horses.☺☺☺

Companies, contractors design things imperfectly, since every decade we discover new things, for example, doors made of wood on the outside of houses in tiny 3 by 2.5 closets that hold the water heater have vents (with 1 cm metal fins at an angle to make it harder for rain to get inside) that allow air in, and when it rains with strong winds the water can splash inside on the heater pan and lead to moisture going up via the foam oxidizing the metal parts and reducing lifespan; the moist wood expands and if the plastic 5 cent piece below the grating doesn't exist in design for closet stucco vents or the door vents, it will cause water seepage, mold and wood, fiberglass, expansion issues, door won't close easily, and can cause water to get outside of the pan or inside the wall for the vent above the door in the stucco; all these design issues that lead to water in the pan, oxidation of the parts etc need to be sent to Immortality Building Inc so they upgrade their door and grating design to prevent mold, and damage to water heaters by rain. With decentralization this is impossible to do. All complain to one out of 5 million contractors, nothing is notified to all 10 centralized contractors by the government of the immortalist nation. Decentralization thus leads to extremely inefficient millions of calls/year to water heater companies, due to not fixing design issues 45 years earlier, wasting everyone's time, as people think their water heater is leaking, but it's just some rain getting into the pan or the foam as the vent is above even the plastic cover and water drops fall into the burner holder and foam area (can see scale from the rain water, on the grey water heater, how it splashed there, etc), causing moisture oxidation of various parts, electric contacts, etc and wasting lives with this, instead of immortality techs for all: this is all due to a government of decentralization.☺☺☺ When product complaints go to the Immortality Nurturing Agency, INA.gov, they reroute it to the department that notifies all companies in the right industry to upgrade the product design (door & wall (above door) vents with the angled fins being too short, too straight (need small angle), allowing way too much rain in) to avoid 1 billion water heater company calls that do nothing except waste time. This design that adds 0.02% to product cost, then becomes part of the code in areas with high wind during rains, or it becomes the only legal type of door vent nationwide if rains without win causes issues too or it's saving $ to have only 1 vent design mass produced and no other disadvantage. As gas heaters disappear, the need for vents will disappear, but this is an example of how billions of water heater calls were a waste of time due to poor door vent design. Likewise, the nation suffers enormous damage when product reviews are done for a company, not a central gov website reviews.gov used by INA.gov staff to require all companies to upgrade design to the ideal one, once an issue exists; thus, we avoid millions going thru the same ordeal with a clueless mom and dad garage company making "products from hell" like some attic vents that allow too much water in and lead to mold in various wall or attic areas. We need efficiency, longevity: that is only possible thru the strongest federalist centralization.

We design new building materials to replace wood, drywall, etc with superior properties (sound proof, mold-rot proof, fire proof (like AirCrete), water proof like vinyl maybe, not heat trapping like wood houses, cool like concrete (some concrete can last millennia, so if we live to 3000, it's nice to not rebuild house every 30 years), dome like to resist hurricanes and nuke blasts, light-rubber like for areas with sink holes (permafrost) and sinking in mid during mudslides to avoid house breaking and killing people (whole house is one 'rubber' piece that floats on mud, 1 story only, since 2nd floor would shake too much when walking, instead of sinking at the bottom and drowning people during a flood, that can't break during highest earthquake), no breaking during earthquakes, more like bending rubber, etc, like 5 big companies that make modular housing that unpacks in one hour, like the Boxabl one Tesla CEO likes, (more details here, 70,000 people on the waiting list (will take 10 years to fill that demand), this one is not ideal for 30 US states and 150 nations with storm/tornado risk, since it is destroyed by earthquake, tornado, gas explosions, etc far faster than a concrete dome, that could be also shipped via truck, made of 3 parts that are joined on site with fresh concrete that dries in 24 h and allows the placement of domes, which look same from any 'angle', just windows may be not always facing the street the same way, in any position to maximize ventilation based on most frequent wind direction, so streets don't have square boxes aligned at different angles making it look odd. The US issue is that apartments can't have windows on both sides of the building sometimes, due to the requirement for 2 staircases and the silly idea of making the hallway in the middle, not the side. If people will live in single family houses, there is no need for 2 staircases.

A well designed dome can be 10 degrees cooler than a typical square California wood house that

rots and come preassembled with Tesla curved built in solar exterior and white 100% heat reflective paint for any part not covered in solar 'panel'; future domes will last 7,000 years, not 20 like wood houses hurricanes destroy over and over in Florida, if we live 8 millennia, let's build houses that last 8 millennia; our current houses usually last 80 years, our lifespan; with 2 million working on a replacement for concrete that is cheaper, better, etc – we will house all in amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ domes, all 8 billion; we see millions of houses on lots of 5000-20000 ft², built as a 2 story super hot wood box on 1300 ft² (2600 total), when they have space for 2-3 one story domes that are 12 degrees cooler and nicer, can be even connected domes by a domed hallway, need no AC, and neighbors are not tormented by AC kicking on all the time at 1 am, 4 am, etc; AC noise, EMF, moldy or dirty AC vents that get replaced only every 30 years, etc, etc also destroy us and shorten our life, gives us dry eyes; the goal of life is living to 900, not having doors, windows face the street and everything look so perfect; can look amazing but die at 50, or look OK and die at 900: which one we focus on upon as a society? House looks? Also, some huge rooms and houses keep window closed and have far more toxic air than houses with small rooms that have an ultra quiet, 1 watt, no dirty electricity 5 inch fan in the window; so one can live longer in a smaller house if the brain is working in 400 ppm CO_2, since at 2000 ppm we start having 20% of cognitive ability in some areas; but how can you open window and ventilate when so much noise from neighbor AC and parties, 0 IQ fireworks that spew carcinogens in the air, etc?); of concrete for stable ground, not wood and drywall that gets moldy, they can standardize it and make it always the same, like a Tesla car made by robots, with 50 floor plans each, solar panels, etc, all electric appliances), to create decent housing for all students and kids crammed in tiny rooms without oxygen trying to learn remotely or do research in school/college classrooms with toxic levels of CO_2; how much mental energy is used to vocalize same mass, instead, priests could focus on real improving of towns, chemistry RESEARCH like teachers above ("when I was hungry, you gave me eterni food that made me live to 700, when I was crowded, you gave me decent housing without leaks"), meditation, achieving happiness, nice tone. 5000 US colleges, 5000 courses on English for each year, level, other non-lab subjects, causing a huge redundancy, waste of human capital as each lecturer reinvents the wheel, while RESEARCH and what is important, creating an eterni simpler mathematical English or living to 900, stuff above, is sidelined, or a dream for 'millennia from now', that never comes, like with 'World Peace'.

We see in the construction business 1 million contractors, some with 1-2 employees, which creates poor training, low quality execution, etc. Pay at Immortality Building Inc would depend on how well the job was done after inspector checks it, to motivate people to do a great job and get 20% bonus etc sometimes, just like in having your own business you get paid more for a better job. We can prioritize Immortality for All, immortality tech progress instead of "be your own boss and create such redundancy that it takes 4 millennia to achieve what smart incentivized centralization (not like communism) does in 40 years". Each small business has to fill out endless different tax forms, waste too much time with taxes, thinking about them, making every decision in life with respect to taxes and money instead of longevity, hire tax experts, etc when it could all be automated in a big company and subtracted; let the AI do taxes, subtract them automatically, humans can do R&D, meditate, relax and be happy, live longer by R&D.

Housing.gov will eliminate flipping and a lot of improper work, vampirism, astronomical rip offs. We got 1 million permits rules and city clerks and regulations, redundancy at the extreme (1000s of cities have online pdfs that are not even editable sometimes, or if editable, that you need to print, then present in person at the city, like in the 18th century, wasting fuel, paper, that's the 'greatest' nation on Earth permit process, my fellow Immortals to be, USA or United Stone Age, no centralized easy online thing; city fee 42$ for a water heater, the installer will charge you $400 to get permit themselves), when we could have a general template and permit for the 500 types of houses or appliances installed sold, prefab for steep/flat ground, that we install, all on housing.gov, and each city only issues extra permit add-ons for unique thing like quiet AC units in hot areas, due to more AC units, or etc, so at housing.gov you type zip code and the permit application appears for type of house, building, etc and the add-on from the city, no need to memorize 30,000 city names and websites. We got no central approval by the federal office of INA.gov in every city of major works, zoning location to make things more double checked for ethics and adherence to the lifespan maximization based on all gov data.☺☺ This would make it easy to add a little studio, guest house, 1-2 bedroom ADU. California offered a 40K grant to build ADU (extra house in the back, or take a loan to build it, low cost loan, nonprofits offer loans for low medium income families at far lower rate than banks, 100 ft^2 studio is about 10K or less if no bath) rent it, use money to increase lifespan of more and allow someone to live in a nicer place than ultra noisy condos where bed shakes when people walk. It strikes me how people claim to be spiritual and their house is 10-50 acre lot, 90 million dollars, while others live 200 families on a 1 acre lot, in 25k condos. We have these city policies of huge lots, while others are crammed into condos. Can't demolish all houses now to shrink lots, but we can kindly build, on quieter lots, ADUs. Or simply city will ask owners if they want to sell half lot so they can build a new unit there. Perhaps, one day many cities in very congested areas at least, where the condos are everywhere will ban: lots over 3000 ft^2, most stuff on this huge list, churches, strip clubs, casinos, to defend the human right to a decent place to live.

USA has 22,000 zoning codes, Japan 12, housing is centralized in Japan, so they have no shortage of houses: mostly new houses for home sales, while in USA, it's mostly old houses. Video claims after 38 years houses are worth 0, so they build new ones while others are homeless: this can spur new techs for housing that make recycling an old house instant, due to a centralized modular design for the 900 models out there, advancing new materials and making concrete, wood obsolete. Japan has 8 million free houses as a result, well, USA has tons of terrible abandoned houses too you can get for 700$ in many cities. Due to centralization, Japan is the only world economy with so many new houses as a % of new home sales, so homeless people are 3500 vs 600000 in USA, with only 2.5 times the population. However, 3500 refers to STREET PEOPLE in tents, in reality, about 100K are living in 40 square feet Cyber cafes and hotels and are homeless too, even if 8 million houses are empty: this is due to a cruelty and lack of concern typical of all nations. Japan youth makes violent metal music, instead of helping the homeless 3000 people on the street. Finland may have a better solution than USA. Some US cities offer free land to build a house, or ultra cheap land, so it may help as an idea, if they made 3d printed homes mass produce 1 million in 1 year, move them in areas of need: no such company exists.

In future USA, if you build a house in a city, if another city nearby has similar issues, then all is identical, so no more wasting time to create your own template, website files, etc – just copy federal and make a small extra note and all contractors, etc, home buyers of prefab etc will know it. Simple or complex permits can be prefilled with the amount required etc for most common permits, or when you go to housing.gov, tell the AI robot, like to Amazon chat AI for refunds or issues that are solved in 4 seconds, that say you want to change water heater, when you check out they pull permit for you in 2 seconds automatically once you selected a contractor within a few miles among those choices provided, so you save time; etc, plus ban all paper advertising for credit cards and coupons, make it all by email so people can block sender in 1 sec, instead of receiving so much spam and having 0.1 million waste time cutting trees, making paper, printers to print everything that gets into landfills in 2 seconds.

Businesses (until we have only 11 companies) don't need city business license, since licensing fees are included into the centralized payment system, when a contractor does business in a city, what they make is adjusted to pay for that city, when a landlord gets rent, he gets less, that way nobody has to renew business license and we use 1000 fewer people with these licenses, using them for longevity science instead. With efficiency of automation, 99% of smart eterni ultra high tech houses may be modular prefabs, being way cheaper and higher quality than on site building, so permitting will be 100 times easier, since it's already approved sort of.

Why can't we centralize and increase efficiency 100 fold, expand RESEARCH 100 fold, and move beyond the stone age? Is it really that important to create 5000 different courses for freshman year, etc? Equal access to youtube lectures also is more democratic. The obsession with individual choice of class can lead to a capitalistic society falling behind one with more federal centralization for Immortality for All, as everyone is busy wasting time reinventing the wheel and making redundancy infinite, efficiency infinitely low. People waste time with nonsense, while RESEARCH is way behind, falling decades behind: how would Microsoft Windows operating system be, if instead of one we got 5000 such operating systems? How would our society work? It would be lower quality, as 5000 times fewer programmers exist for each system. Likewise, to create a smart house that maximizes longevity and then have more energy for other stuff, you eliminate redundancy and living to 500 is more important than having 1 million house builders, you create automatic house building, via Immortality Building Inc, with 50 floor plans each, and the individual uniqueness can be in some "Immortality" quotes painted on outside sometimes, when they're more identical, and gardens, the priority being immortality, longevity, happiness, living to 7 trillion, not unique big house, big car, having 1 million courses of freshman English. What we focus on, we achieve: 7000 languages or 7000 year lifespan.

Centralization has huge advantages for lifespan enhancing, instead of updating 1 million permits and rules and PDFs, we update the few on the federal site, same for restaurant rules that impact lifespan via diet, etc. On top of that, cities have the ☺☺☺"immortalism undermining" rules about dining room and living room size, which are anti-immortality, because we need to move beyond cave men cooking stage to eterni food, which requires more citizen scientists who have a dedicated immortality room in the house with a closed door, a lab, so they would be allowed to convert dining and part of living, maybe even 70% of living into a big immortality lab or extra rooms – to run RESEARCH projects, this needs a door to prevent kids into the molecular biology or chemical or biophysics gadget lab; people can relax on living room couch or their room to eat and dine, no need to waste space and also cram 2 kids per room in tiny 100-150 ft^2 rooms. We see the Chinese building empty cities that rot and sit unused while college students are 4 or 6 in a room. We see architects, etc city officials (commonly called vampires by some, giving themselves salaries 5-15 times the average) in areas where great students live 2 per room, since university housing is lacking, allowing the building of houses with gigantic living rooms and dining rooms, that would otherwise enable 3 or 4 extra rooms being built in that house for students to rent out and get better sleep, create more inventions, and in families kids to fight less and sleep better. We see gigantic living rooms in houses where there are 2 people per room and the decentralized room addition and permitting, unlike housing.gov system of the federal Immortality Nurturing Agency, leads to things taking forever and no remodeling being required to add rooms when a house is sold in areas with overcrowding. They also make these huge sofas that promote low IQ: why can't they use same materials to create a bed like 'sofa', for people to relax and meditate using a pillow: it would take 50% of materials since there is no need for the 3 sides, only the support, so 2 meditation beds can be made, so that people can transform themselves from restless talking locomotives using trash war creating tone into tranquil happy meditators: ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ use an mp3 player in the living room (kitchen, baths, etc, 1 watt, 4 is 4w, far less than many idle devices), ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months starts at home. The psychotic Bible "culture" would be replaced by the culture of Immortality for All and Eternal Bliss. Low stress, good sleep, small naps, relaxation are key to innovation and health, so you can think clearly and free yourself from the Age of Aristocratic Terror that chokes all souls. Due to such huge living rooms that are mostly unused, the AC is wasted cooling the big living room... the tiny room made tiny to make a huge living room gets hotter, and people have poor cognition due to tiny oxygen per person in the tiny room, poor air quality (air gets bad twice faster in 100 vs 200 ft^2), and poor ventilation because sometimes it's too noisy because of traffic or music or dogs to open window or too too cold or hot, etc. The living rooms got tall ceilings and 7-8 times more air than small rooms: pure insanity. Why not make the small rooms 2-3 times bigger in an example of centralization to increase our lifespan? They sit in rooms 95% of the time, not in the living room. Mouse IQ again: USA.☺☺☺ Decision by filif alligator IQ architects getting pompous useless degrees from MIT: not 1 requirement for taking care of self, nutrition and longevity @ MIT, slaves are to die fast after building bridges later demolished in wars, toil slaves to make weapons and build more stuff to be demolished. Let the master and 2nd biggest room have tall ceiling, not the living room for single story homes. Every rooster IQ guy☺☺☺ is an architect and city code designer. Why not have 1 federal code? IQ here refers to Immortality intelligence Quotient, not the academic IQ test. Chicken and apes don't understand they could live to a trillion years old, but humans finally comprehend that. So, chicken and apes don't really try to live longer, they're happy to eat, have fun in living rooms. Nobody is taught Eternal Universal Peace and Trillion Year Lifespans in school or college. Why? Are slaves just meant to die in wars and drop dead after building big buildings demolished by other slaves who're soldiers? Where is the so called spiritual ethos and centralized education?

This lack of room additions is an example of city and state power that undermines the American people, keeping them short lived via decentralized policies. Allow any existing home owner to add, expand a room that was made very small etc easily. ☺☺☺This is the age of internet when everyone can have online meetings, and such and can have a TV in their room, their computer monitor or tablet or laptop, desktop, etc - so the need for big living room, TV there to harass with noise everyone in rooms, in this age is not there anymore, people can meet virtually too and listen to TV on headphones or low volume in their room at the PC; we got pressure cookers that are 10 appliances into one and the need of gigantic kitchens is not there anymore, nor of dining rooms, so we can have more rooms for better sleep and immortality labs in every house. Why can't we update 12th century city codes to the Age of Immortality for All? Let people build more rooms and make living rooms small, make this process federal and 100 times faster than today, and 5 times cheaper? ☺☺☺ Often times, contractors don't do room addition in place of a wasteful huge dining or living room due to the hassle involved, even if it's a house or condo, etc that was used for renting to college students and even if it would increase landlord net income by 10% or more, but it's not done, everything is inertia. Who cares about students? "Let the big

Centralization allows us to start a firing wave, 80% of city officials fired over 20 years, to shrink local government 5 times initially, by gradually eliminating all state and local governments as they become offices of the federal government, federal employees for tasks not done by regional centers of Immortality Nurturing Agency and the 11 companies, and make everything replaced with the 11 mega state owned companies that achieve same thing without duplication by the 20000 principalities, kings, queens and nobility of each city. They can get part-time free education to do other things, at the 11 companies, far more useful for helping all live to 4000. These aristocratic vampires often give themselves 5-15 times the average salary, illegal in immortality capitalism, and entice all private sector people to simply work a little in a company to do some resume building, not care much and then go to the city job to slack and DO NOTHING. Then 80% of the 'local government' jobs lost (that don't become federal by reassigning) are created for federal government jobs who do RESEARCH as part of the mega STATE☺ COMPANIES, so whoever wants them, takes fast pace college degree in 2 years instead of 4, paid by the Federal Transition to a Corruption Free America team, to work in a field that is related to INNOVATION instead of 'acting busy' and creating files and rules similar to other cities, reinventing things, torturing citizens with their gangster like police state departments that need huge reforming too, like the War Dept is dissolved and replaced with Eternium and CIA, FBI are dissolved, together with other things to create the mega Immortality Nurturing Agency. All templates, permits, etc are similar, on housing.gov, with a few minor changes for different terrain, climate, etc, you get everything in one website, type in zip code, street, etc, all 'city' permits issued by the FEDERAL GOV, faster and better, for example from the federal building of Immortality Building Inc responsible for that 150 mile radius area. When every "nutcase" is a contractor, we have 200 million plans and 0.25 million architect jobs, everyone designs houses and dies at 80. Why not have a high tech Tesla like robot based factory to produce 500 types of modules and stuff for everyone offering tech 1000 years in the future with the current capitalism model? When we move out of our ☺abysmal IQ☺ first culture of Jesus the Fake, we finally prioritize Immortality (health, longevity, living to 5 trillion) in this world and have some physics and chemistry majors to help us live to 9000 instead of designing 1 million house blueprints, so fancy and having endless jobs in cities as "plan approver" etc. Today, the government priority often is torturing people to death if they don't accept the fake Jesus miracles as genuine. Everyone would rather be free of their diseases (have a longer perfectly healthy lifespan at least) and live to 100 or 200 in a world of peace and 0 violent crime, than have 200 million unique house designs. Our bliss doesn't depend on the house design that much, if your car works, you don't care if the shape is this or that, if it doesn't pollute, and makes no noise, it's reliable, etc. Our priorities are totally insane. The idea of 500 modular designs and types of houses, mass produced with tech 100 times more advanced eliminates the very low IQ job of "fancy useless design approver", "architect" and all these parasitic realtors, contractors. When you design something super intelligent, the approval time for a house plan based on the 500 modules and premade house and commercial building template takes 500 times less, so we spend 500 times more resources to live to 500. It's all about efficiency. Why do we need reinvent everything? Don't we have internet and email to share plans and optimize them by the 10 types of climates in USA and terrain? Local federal agents inspect things. Housing.gov 900 times more amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ than any city website today. Nobody can own 2 houses. Everyone must sell all houses, except 1, until all are housed. Democracy. This enables us to achieve efficiency and low corruption on a scale never before known in world history. Crime happens due to bad sleep, loud city codes (we need some federal city codes that no city can override to give sleep to all, good sleep is the most important factor for longevity and end the anger, irritability that drive up crime), poor housing, no free central education, genocidal nutrition. If we have centralized education, all get their ethics emails daily, crime is prevented.

With unified federal codes, we get a lot more windows installed, to avoid so much AC that spreads flu, COVID, cold, etc from one room to the other, one condo to the other. In the age of solar panels, central heating is pure insanity and genocide, given that small electric silent heaters provide much cleaner air, much wetter and less toxic. Why on Earth does anyone have to reduce national productivity by 30% via central heat and AC? The boss of the house sets thermostat at one level that makes it too hot or cold for some, who, fail to repair the body at night as a result, doing a lousy job at work next day. With Immortality Building Inc, we create world's most advanced room window AC, so quiet and clean, none of the crap in central AC vents exists. This is mass produced (200 million at least, 3 billion for export too) and enables us to get rid of 250,000 heating/AC contractor companies of 2-20 people who reinvent and waste time, spread flu, COVID, cold, and endless bacteria related to cigarettes, meat eating, alcohol, etc. Why do we need these lethal noisy (body damage from noise and burning chemicals in the air) radiant heaters, instead of silent oil heaters, scientifically proven to be much safer? We make world's most advanced silent heater too for rooms. Natural gas explodes, kills people and gas kills via toxic gas emissions, incomplete burning compounds, so gas furnaces and gas stoves ought to be banned federally immediately: central heating makes no sense if you want maximum lifespan: the vents grow bacterial films so fast, people replace them every 20-30 years usually. This mind blowing window AC (we already have amazing sealed oil heaters, just make them more advanced so touch temp is lower and free radical forming compounds are fewer in the room air tests) is so QUIET (quieter than a central AC vent of the Age of Aristocratic Terror), today it would cost $7000, but with centralization, instead of "Acting busy" local government city or private sector employees, we get $100 cost via amazing discoveries. Today we already have some alternative to central AC, the mini split ductless system with compressor outside and 4 units for each room, living room, etc. However, this is expensive and the outside unit is noisy, unless it's a good brand which is way quieter than the central AC compressor, 32 dB vs 70 dB. Each unit is remotely controlled, since the remote for that room is the thermostat for that room. When you hear these sounds, inside and outside, you wonder why on Earth would the normal central AC be even legal in the United States given the destruction ducts and noise do to health? These split systems are way more efficient, 30 Seer, vs 15, wasting far less electricity (no ducts).

If people feel all help all, they're motivated to do a great job, to volunteer with Eternia Volunteer Network☺☺☺ to install windows, etc for people who need it, instead of wasting time on the net at work. The small business aristocrat would be very mad if employee went off-site to help increase lifespan of humanity a LOT more that gossip or browsing random sites via a window that makes sleeping temp very comfy for someone: wind blows in every city from one or two directions most of the time, so you need 2 windows for a really cooling draft in some areas to avoid AC use that causes dry eyes, EMF, germ spreading, noise, killing people via coal fired electricity (heavy metals, acid rain, etc), huge transmission lines, and poor sleep from noise for neighbors sleeping with window open, etc) or 20 hours playing soccer or basketball. The same acting busy in USA is found in EU, etc where decentralization means EU never checks well how money is spent locally. With immortality capitalism, since most are state employees, if work is done, he can volunteer and increase his Immortality Credit Score because he enhanced sleep quality of folks. He would still be paid, he just gets permission from his boss to go there. The government needs to signal that the age of "everyone loots and cheats everyone else" is over. The federal law is any living room has to have 2 parallel windows (north-south, or west-east, or etc), from one side of the house to the other, on a straight line (that is parallel to the other 2 sides, all houses have 4 sides, unless they're domes) that enables the wind to blow and cool the living-dining-kitchen area and the maximum number of rooms, so house/windows placed in the direction of maximum wind flow. For big living rooms, 2 such sets are needed, to avoid the problems with AC: stale air (not fresh as from window AC), plus the ones above. Window AC can filter air better, with no microbe films, mold, etc from the vents, or the attic or inside of walls (due to decentralization, lousy contractors, no sensors, the amount of undetected water leaks is huge) that can leak into the vents if the AC contractor did not do a good seal, and let's face it, today their seal tech is pathetic, very poor performance at times. In warm areas, people can paint houses and roof with heat reflective white to remove AC needs. By federal law, on high traffic streets, only commercial buildings will be allowed, unless there is a 10 ft sound barrier for 1 level and 20 ft for 2 level houses. No houses allowed near industrial areas with smokestacks that don't have the most stringent filters. In the new America, all live in houses. This allows all to open window and not be killed by smog and noise. Immortality for All.

Decentralization can paralyze longevity progress and, when beyond the minimal needed (to adapt to local conditions), can lead to 'nothing getting done' as wheel is reinvented, redundancy is extreme and what is important, good sleep, decent housing for all, etc are second to the huge list of junk businesses here... Don't we need efficient immortalist centralization? That places Immortality, health longevity above GDP?☺☺☺ In July 2022, China got 20% of new cars electric, Europe only 11%, due to a dysfunctional decentralization, aided by 25 languages. Why on Earth do they need 25 languages when they could have just English as common language? In Eternia, the hypothetical 1 language country with 20 different languages now, they got maybe 3% electrics in 2023, showing the need to centralize, unify and become efficient. This is not surprising, since in Eternia, which desperately needs English as common language to move out of Neolithic, we got about 7 million people per language on average, while in EU it's less, China 1.4 billion per language. The more languages, the lower the efficiency. ☺☺

We don't want to be like Chinese building cities sitting empty (though in some areas they're more efficient than inefficient EU, so we can learn some things from China), useless Beijing Olympics stadiums and facilities barely used while Chinese students live 8 in a room. But not like USA with 10 trillion rules for every village and street. For those who didn't know it, "moving balls and jumping etc will increase lifespan 50 times, it's not thru good sleep and decent housing for people and students, Immortality universities, science and tech, that we increase lifespan, it's thru soccer and "ultra low IQ for Immortals living to 1 million who don't practice them" Olympics sports". A simple chamber can rejuvenate cells and we would live to 2 million without sports. If there is a shortage of rooms in an area, near a college or whatever, the county office of the Immortality Nurturing Agency INA via federal housing.gov requires all nearby houses with huge living/dining rooms at sale, to be remodeled and have 1-2 rooms added, as that is ultra easy, plus make everything green, add more windows, insulation, etc to minimize AC, etc. AI notifies the INA officer that an area with shortage of rooms is there and a house with a crazy floor plan from 1900-2022 is on sale, the AI has all floor plans in its national database, the federal contractor is allowed to offer low bid to remodel it if all sales of housing are done via housing.gov one site, low bid money comes from 700% tax on vape/liquor stores, strip clubs, sports stadiums, cinemas and other useless things. Or the government simply buys it and remodels it to sell later, making sure it's super student, geek, immortalist friendly. This would also bring down room prices which would then lead to higher occupancy rate, as more can afford a room. To ensure rooms don't get too pricey, they can have some max price level, rent control, so students/employees can rent them and not commute 0.5-2 hours to classes/science-tech job. Everyone suffers, rich or poor, when we have no real science of food, because US is in the stone age; look at the huge number of useless businesses whose land could become Immortality Centers to test 100 biomarkers for free. Most federal employees will be in the local

11 companies offices, only 1% in DC metro area of 6 million. The centralization means no more local governments exist, no more 18K city police departments, but one. ☺☺☺

All residential house loans are paid thru housing.gov ('my mortgage' link) or immortality.gov that has the immortality ID of every citizen and the links to the immortality ID (or social security number), then it brings auto login to all other websites (electric, gas, etc); no more wasting so much time calling to setup new auto payments, we need focus on living to 800 not on having to call banks all day. If banks change, they would automatically transfer anything and setup every feature the same way, auto pay etc, without you having to do anything. This ID has your measurements even, your waist, sleeve length, etc so when you login to a site, it will give you clothes for your size too. Go to any clothing store, 30 years after the Internet, and it is impossible to find one with a decent search engine within an online store where you state the length of a cloth, its sleeve, etc, waist etc, color, price etc and get it. Due to decentralized searching, all websites not unified to categorize by sleeve, etc length, etc, everyone gets poor service. Go to non-Amazon sites and the search results are far poorer for many items. Even if you search on google and get many stores, few results. We could use the Internet to make fewer trips to physical stores. You would think we could do better. Housing.gov would allow anyone to get a service plan, maintenance, for appliances, anything in the house (plumbing, etc) so as to create true competition of ideas (odd if capitalists would scoff at this, when it creates more competition and new R&D due to efficiency; we want a country run by the people, not a few crime families like in some countries in the past; our nation depends on our efficiency and RESEARCH, without that, we would be dead), instead of 20000 mom and dad companies (with 0 R&D and all execution) and a few big ones only, we would also have USA's first really big company, 100 times bigger than present maintenance companies, to prove centralization works, provide freedom of choice; to prove nonprofit works too or immortality works, an Immortality organization is a nonprofit who pays no taxes due to focusing on extending human lifespan.

Housing.gov would also allow people to find a part number and order it from there, by simply entering the serial number, model, make, etc, instead of wasting 5 hours online going thru google searches and making 30 phone calls to see who has the part: one CENTRAL DATABASE, linked to all databases of all USA AC/heating/plumbing etc stores will tell you in 1 min the closest store that has it and fastest shipping if you can wait a day or two. Why waste eons to go thru calling 30 stores? The site would have the manual and correct diagram and part numbers for every device, and most common reasons for failure and how to check it, etc, just like today we got youtube "how tos", but, disorganized. Every product sold in US/Eternia gets an Immortality ID to be immediately found by that or by the picture of the product label entered at food.gov, housing.gov, etc, like the barcode. This saves so much time, no longer googling days to find which store has a product and never being able to find it after one store doesn't have it anymore; food.gov and products.gov would list all ingredients, parameters, etc and show also which store closest has it.

Centralization will eliminate redundant jobs, so we create new jobs and can improve the quality of every aspect of life, such as sleep, by reducing barking sounds. Police could temporarily install on street poles noise detectors (which show average decibels for every property listed on housing.gov) to recognize dog barking and measure it over 2 months to get an idea which houses, condos have dogs that bark a lot from 9 pm to 8 am. Then, they can notify owners to bring dogs inside or do something about it, to create civilized cities where people can actually sleep with window open and not be annoyed by the barking and save on AC use, keeping AC noise lower too for neighbors. It's genocidal to have dogs bark for hours after 9 pm in so many neighborhoods. It's pure terror, but people say nothing, one other thing to get used to in our anti-immortality anti-meditative gentleness culture. Police can give anti barking devices, or offer to exchange dogs for a new breed/dog that barks 20 times less, or, ideally, a free alarm, text to phone when intruder detected, video cams to remove owner anxiety about intruders, without the need for dogs. Nations can ban breeds that bark nonstop. This will make everyone so happy, silent video. We need good sleep for longevity, and livable cities, not infernos. The pet section explains the emotion details relating to why we can't have dogs as alarms, as that destroys humanity and the owners - owners don't get benefits of affection for dog, only the negatives of devolving their tone of thinking, emoting and speaking. List on MLS the noise decibels over 3 months measured by the police at the nearest street pole, plus frequency of dog barking. It's our culture's rudeness and aggression that leads to such complete disregard and disrespect for neighbors to allow dogs to harass entire neighborhoods until 3 am. Free alarms money come from new fines imposed for loud parties and excessive (after complaints) dog barking after 9 pm. After 9 pm loud parties fines would be 4 months average national salary.☺☺☺ We need centralization and unification of all police forces, all police departments get one federal training and then a little extra training for dealing with specific things that are 20 times more common in their city or within 5 miles if cities merge into megacities to increase efficiency, reduce 100 different rules and make them 1 and rename the cities to some eterni quality; all police cars changed from 10,000 designs with "City name police" to "Immortality Nurturing Agency" on all cars, to remind people of Immortality for All, the logo on every car too, and to establish a unified amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ colorful design to save time and increase efficiency, as one design for all exists and we're one country, one police force that works to help people get good sleep, food and housing, jobs for all. Soon the nation will be so efficient, advanced and loving, it will help unify all planet under one Eternia and end all wars forever, as all cop cars worldwide have that same logo "Immortality for All, Immortality Nurturing Agency" INA. Let the negative perception of police change to one of the reformed helper of the people, whose aim is to increase healthy lifespan of all and make everyone happy.

Housing.gov can allow anyone to call plumbers or techs for whatever issue, all employed by the gov Immortality Building Inc. If we had 5 million companies making 10 cars each, we would get lousy cars; ☺☺☺ so if we have one standard of training and few companies, instead of 1 million for plumbing, etc and that, we can create a much better product due to R and D and less admin jobs and reinventing the wheel. Plus, we avoid having 20,000 plumbing companies charging 100 for one family, 400 for another for doing the same job; they look at the house, think the person is better off and charge higher price or use other scam method (or pure discrimination). Housing.gov lists the price for everything, no more scams of having to invite for a visit 10 people, from 20 companies, to give their quotes in person only and refusing the give estimate over the phone. No more scams of yelp etc reviews, paid reviews, all employees, gov or private, are reviewed at reviews.gov and get bonuses based on customer reviews too, unfakable reviews. One central review, monitored by FBI, etc for hackers, not 5 million sites offering fake reviews.

reviews.gov is the beginning of honesty, since it affects Immortality Credit Score, the most important thing people have almost (more important than net worth): right now, con men companies can rip people off easily and police has no resources to do anything, but with centralization and 9,000,000x more data, we get common SOP (standard operating procedure) of what to do when doing this and that house building or whatever maintenance and it's done, as a company has 1 million plumbers or builders, not 2 and it's really high tech, they follow the 50 point check after work done to make sure all is complete, etc and done well. If a bad review says something and it's true, a Corrective Action Procedure and Report are initiated, often leading to adding a check to all 2 million employee routines after building or remodeling a house, so their vaster experience gives them the ability to provide a far superior service, quality vs a 2 men company. Forget about social media, ☺☺☺ reviews.gov profile is 5 million times more important. All these .gov sites display clearly the Immortality Nurturing Agency logo, which is "Immortality for All, Immortality Nurturing Agency", INA the super agency, like NIIA, National Immortality intelligence Agency, easy to recall, more important than any cabinet department, defense or anything, as it deals with the life of everyone, not just defense from foreign invasions, works to prevent lifespan shortening; INA is made of people from all kinds of agencies, police, FBI, CIA who can work part time as INA too if they wish, or not wish, due to the need of national life defense. Director of INA is above DNI, Director of National intelligence. Of what use is intelligence without longevity and Immortality? For eons, intelligence was used to shorten lifespan, create wars that bring short lives, why not use it to triple human lifespan and end all wars, violence and torture? Only those with serious proof, that they got a service, as verified by Universal Eterni Bank who monitors all money exchanged, and that it was done, etc, can make a review, and since gov knows everything, relatives and closest friends can't make reviews to ensure fairness. It's statistically unlikely out of 1 million techs, your brother will come to fix your gutter anyway. The AI can assign someone who is not your relative or friend also, to have better objective treatment, etc. One can type on the search "this and that happened to my house etc" and get suggestions: buy a little thing do it yourself or hire the/gov tech to fix it and this is price range, depending on size of carpet, etc to be cleaned, replaced, etc. Small companies ask friends etc to give fake reviews, and they often charge 8 times more, if they feel they can take advantage of a nice clueless guy (had that experience myself). When housing.gov has rented a room for someone and income went up, they automatically know that person may not qualify anymore for a government program, so it's adjusted automatically, without the person having to spend eons to notify about the change. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

4.5.3. 0 TAXES and OTHER forms of Centralization urgently needed

Aristocrats are above the law and they pay 0 taxes, they suck the blood out of the 99.9%. The ultra wealthy pay 0% inheritance tax via trusts, while the rest pay 40% to the state or whatever the rate is. Jeff Bezos, soon a trillionaire who has 12+ estates worth $0.7 billion, paid 0 in taxes in 2007 & 2011 and 1% between 2014-2018, all after committing genocide against the American people with rotten foods and supplements kept at 120-160°F during ocean or highway transport in the summer, plus billions of products on Amazon that don't match the description and images due to a terrible quality control. This is called the subjugation of all world governments and people by the ultra rich, or the return to Feudalism: 2026 wealth inequality is same as 1340, 3 people own more wealth than 165 million in USA. Check out how billionaires pay 100 times less property taxes. How the top billionaires pay 1-3% tax rate, vs 10-16% for the rest of us. Because everyone's income will be from wages only, taxes are subtracted and taken into account in salaries and nobody will file taxes, as aristocratic class, hedge funds, investment funds, banks (except one bank) disappear and everyone is a wage employee. If Stock market has the 11 companies, the only companies left, then so be it, taxes automatically taken out. Trump (under the guidance of Elon Musk who committed genocide via Radio Frequency levels 20000 times higher than other cars) decided to end the Free Direct File to IRS that takes 0 paper and is so much faster (use Firefox for best performance) than the company based ones. Again, Trump decides to destroy the poor and help the aristocratic vultures, like with FDA. Waste in America happens 1% within the federal government, 9% within the city and state governments and 90% in the private sector. Check out also the property taxes waste due to school boards giving themselves big salaries, when with centralized education, we would need 3 times fewer school teachers, staff, etc and achieve better outcomes, 50 times more research. To really become efficient, you need to tackle the waste of trillions of stolen taxpayer funds by the rich who pay half the tax rate of the average people as shown below. Most of the waste comes from the federal government being duplicated 50 times via 50 states and 20000 times via 20000 city village governments and via 33 million companies, instead of 11 companies. That's where the biggest waste, 100 times bigger, happens, that Billionaires never talk about. It's not efficient to have 40000 companies to file taxes, instead of government ending taxes or accepting all taxes online at irs.gov. Elon seems at times a fraud who only helps the Rich people become richer. Let's hope that's not the case. It's time to take America back from the Jewish Wall St. and banking gangsters and their tax mafia allies, their ultra violent music celebrities, Violence Deifying movies celebrities, who claim to sing "normal pop, rap, rock music", and even their "religion of human sacrifice (see ritual Republicans and Democrats like)" allies who get no tax while spreading violence and genocide thru the human sacrifice deifying Jewish Bible. Texas millionaires pay 8% or half the average tax rate of 15%, US billionaires pay 8% or half the average rate of 15% in many states. In USA and most nations we have taxation without representation, MEANING THE RICH WHO PAY HALF THE RATE BUY ELECTIONS TO INSTALL THEIR PUPPETS WHO LOVE TO WATCH Demonic Voice HUMAN SACRIFICE RITUALS each year as Wikipedia shows. This satanism (disguised as Christianity) will disappear with the advent of immortalism. The USA fake 1776 revolution happened due to taxes (colonies paid taxes, but were not represented in the British parliament), let's write the "Declaration of Immortality for All, of Universal Independence" and end our slavery to palace dwelling aristocrats, not just the UK Royal 10 centuries of cruel laws and execution by blowing people (in their native lands) to pieces with artillery guns. The fake revolution was done by British spies (revolutionaries) in order to triple their colony size by taking French Louisiana and Spanish areas, but the people never realized the trick. The freedom was all in words, not in reality. Today, in the military-spy agency infinite abuse goes on, as if we're under UK control. We see endless trooping of color and other festivities, where sometimes 100 people use trumpets, shout like Hitler, march and waste enormous resources that could be used to build homes for the homeless families in UK. The monarchy mismanages national resources in pompous ceremonies that amplify the macho nature of men, its orangutan tone and makes Eternal World Peace and eterni tone and vibe all but a science fiction distant future. So, the poor get paid 50000 times less, yet they pay a higher tax %. The poor also have to waste a lot of time, to file Schedule E, etc if they just rent a room, Schedule C if they give some rides to people using Uber, etc, when with housing.gov any tax would be automatically subtracted from the rental price until all taxes are 0, with Eternal Travel Inc, all is subtracted automatically. The rich don't have to do anything, as they hire experts to file their taxes. From the get go USA was a country OF rich aristocrats, FOR the palace dwelling rich aristocrats, who used clever games and fraud to create the illusion of real elections and democracy, it's all fake elections. There will be no more voting districts or redrawing of any maps, there is only one district, USA, and everyone elects the 70 senators who help shape how immortalism or eternism is implemented. All local services are done by the national 11 companies plus the 3 agencies, the education, nurturing and Eternium. Thus, local elections don't exist. Today, they waste eons at elections with this or that district reporting, none of it, all votes get counted and reported to the national elections, no individual reps, the National Elected choose the locals based on the Immortality Credit Score and test result for that position of manager or employee within the 11 companies or 3 agencies. There are no local elections, only federal (actually only 1 state, so federal word vanishes, as only national exists) and then everyone with high skills and Immortality Credit Score is invited to take the test, as the 70 elected Senators (whatever party is selected, if we still choose to have political parties) knows anyone's skills, it's all in the 11 companies and nurturing agency records. No more lies based elected officials who lie all day, everyone takes a TEST (SAT like, plus speech, etc) to see who scores the highest. Merit, not lies based local federal office officials, all local offices are federal, and those guys are selected centrally via TESTS. ☺Abysmal IQ☺ is replaced by Scientocracy. Criminal British gangsters and Jewish ones torture people, use them as puppets who can't pass any test to pass criminal policies. The genocide by the ruling military class who runs everything in every nation is pretty pathetic, they destroy/puppeteer everyone and lie to all that elections exist. No political appointments, everyone takes a test to be appointed to any position to ensure proper cognitive function and no torture was done by the military thugs. The winner of an election only decides a slight focus of how immortalism is implemented, until we abolish political parties and the time they waste for society. We're one nation with Immortality for All. The way militaries loot the planet is thru sleep deprivation and covert invisible attacks on 200 nations officials and other puppets they use to enslave those nations or regions of a nation.

Due to the genocides by palace dwelling aristocrats, 0 Taxes ensures 1 law for all USA, from the aristocratic blood sucking bandits and "peaceful" genocide promoting 0 taxed "religion" Hitler tone clones (watch their tones: rabbi, Buddhist monk, imam, Hindu preacher, pastor) to the poorest folks. Initially, since it takes some time to merge 33 million companies into 11, there may be a flat tax for all until all is ready for 0 tax regimen, since incomes will be wages only and with max income 3 times the lowest income. The road to 0 tax also begins the 1 year dissolution of all state and city governments who're replaced by federal offices of the 11 companies and 3 agenciess, followed by the creation of 1 single law, not 20000 city ordinances, often created by gangster hooligan city officials in 20000 towns/villages across the country. This remake of USA is due to the global and national state of emergency to prevent the 10 second end of all humans. Initially, all payroll is taken over by the government to ensure nobody gets paid more than 3 times the minimum wage, since all citizens will get a credit equivalent to a basic house of their family size, per policy of each 18 year old plus gets a free single family home. Aristocratic gangsters won't be able to pay the mortgage for their palaces and need to sell them, so research centers are created in those areas for the benefit of We the People.

The current Feudal Terror system of IRS discriminates against most Americans who have to file the taxes at a higher tax rate than the rich thieves of 500 trillion from the USA. This is while the rich have their tax experts do it for them, 20 of them sometimes, knowing how to report everything to milk out every tax dollar from the government, so they have time to plan the next financial crisis to loot more workers, next war to amputate more slaves who fight on the frontlines (aristocrats don't fight wars, they only finance them) so they steal their houses, flip them as we don't have housing.gov to forbid that and create as much chaos as possible thru their criminal 4500 banks used to terrorize the planet and the American people. Recall endless crises caused by bank failures? The average American on a wage, renting a room, having a stock or selling a house shouldn't have to file any taxes, just like they never have to in most nations, as income can be computed automatically and taxes deducted accordingly, before you receive your rent, your stock dividend, your wage, etc, as all rents are paid via housing.gov ☺. In a centralist state with 11 companies, we don't need the tax profession anymore, so instead of 2 million people wasting their entire life hallucinating taxes and memorizing tax codes from hell, we discover how to live to 300. In our charlatanism first, fraud second, 'paltering' third, marketing 4th, sales 5th, science 98th society, 'everyone' majors in tax preparation, as the DOLLAR is the Supreme Almighty God of all parasites and looters, and no majors for chemistry or physics are possible, so then they import scientists from outside who often come with genocidal intent. This is the gift of the aristocrats for USA: genocide. Everyone is in fear, stress about April 15th, instead of being excited about May 15th when it's the World Immortality Day, when everyone submits to their friends and family and the entire world, their plan for making all live to 500 in the fastest time possible. Stress kills, let's kill April 15th tax day and free the workers of the USA, free the slaves now, the 90%. This new famous day, holiday too, can be a wonderful exercise in creative thinking and noble resolution for better sleep, nutrition and innovation, instead of the torture of tax filing that any computer can do automatically for most slaves of the aristocrats who live off wages, plus maybe renting a room or more. It's as if the aristocrats made the TAX day to terrorize everyone, while they play golf and their slaves file their taxes for them. The main problem we have is a few aristocrats hold hostage the entire planet, keeping development hostage to their desire for 4000 to 4 million businesses that give them the right to subjugate the masses. Think about it, we have endless rules about taxes, entire volumes about how to compute and endless staff, etc, when we could instead have some rules on safe humidifiers, electric heaters, pressure cookers, food processors, safe infrasound, normal sound of appliances and car tires, cars, aircraft, safe dental fillings,☺☺☺ safe food/vitamin colors, safe ultrasound levels of appliances, cars, etc, dirty electricity, AGE content of food, legal cooking methods (no dry cooking), low RF to protect everyone's health, and other rules about vitamins, storage, labels, content, testing, ads on TV, honesty in ads, honesty in business (fraudulent deceptive marketing disguised as religion too). The USA has 3 million rules about local/federal taxes we don't need and 0 rules about some very important health and longevity parameters of common consumer products everyone uses mentioned in the previous sentence.

California, like all states, cities, and villages, is a semi-PARASITIC ENTITY. They get protection from US, so they can create pure evil music, movies to poison every street worldwide, prevent border security and immigration enforcement so they make big profits and poison every US-Canad a street with drugs, enslave illegals for aristocrat profits, fighting border wall for 50 years so they get endless drugs and cheap labor. The Chinese, Russian, etc Spanish Mexican spies work overtime to split Satanfornia, California, from USA, so they write "Made in California" on products. The Bohemian Grove demonic voice human sacrifices happen in California, in the Cremation of Care, in accordance with the demonic Word of Satan, the Bible (see 25 quotes). It takes 30 phone calls over 4 months to get a replacement title (even if I paid 15$ for rush 8 business day delivery) they intentionally didn't mail to my address, they purposely avoid the calls when you call or call when you're not around the phone, and then tell you to call back the special office several times, etc, they pretend they don't know who you're and ask for extra documents not listed on their website, which is as disorganized as that of a 3 year old room, the DMV low IQ staff didn't email to ask for the electronic copy of the doc, instead mailed me to waste more time, when they got hard copy, they took 3 months to send title, and only after I submitted everything electronically to some Guadalupe lady at DMV and the electronic title replacement too. It's a criminal mafia gang who wants to secede from USA, so it needs to be dissolved like all other states. With the 11 companies, we get one license for all USA, for driving, and any other licensing profession. No federal funds until immortalist capitalism is taught in all schools and universities. They duplicate too much, we need one city code and city template for everything universally in USA, with only tiny changes that are absolutely needed to be different for human lifespan and health. Time is running out, if we don't centralize, we will disappear. Not 200000 types of trash houses, but 500 types of ultra high tech lifespan doubling houses. Same for every other decentralized stone age industry where rednecks rule and research jobs are 50 times lower than they could be with the immortalist system. In California, like all other states, it took 7 years for me (2023, since 2016) and others to see even a picture of my Nissan Leaf 2012 car title, after endless calls, more than 10 over 4 years, to the small aristocrat company from hell, the parasitic car dealer that sucks the blood out of everyone worldwide. Look at these bandits, the houses they don't need, that explain why there is no innovation in USA for decades, why China is way ahead of USA in many industries and has entire industries we lack (silicon ingots, etc that we import etc), even EVs, when we could have had 100% EVs even 50 years ago when Nixon wanted it, but the Bush Mafia gang (family owned Standard Oil of Rockefeller, precursor for Big Oil companies, rumored to have financed Hitler) stopped it and even named CIA headquarters Bush Center of intelligence. Bush and Re-pub-licans promote Bible ☺abysmal IQ☺, while we become a third world nation. If you try sell a car with Carvana etc you need pic of paper title in many states, since they're in the stone age and they don't have electronic title yet. Only some dealers accept buying a car without a paper title, since they have to do extra work to get the title themselves. The regulations for a simple car sale are huge, due to 50 states with their own rules. Car buying/selling will be 1 million times easier with one national company doing it all, Eternal Travel Inc. The amount of time dedicated to going thru bureaucratic loops for such a simple transaction is astounding and a testament to why nothing gets done in USA in many fields of research, except empty talk. Everyone fills forms that are not needed with centralization and 1000000 times fewer forms. Just like with the taxes. Who needs taxes? If we got 11 companies employing all and a few federal government agencies, 100 times less local officials? County sheriffs harass endless people and kill them 3 times more often than cops do due to decentralization, there ought to be one police department in the whole country with one single training. The picture is the electronic version and yes, that one needs endless forms to fill out and mail to California low IQ bureaucracy, to get the hard copy, without which, you can't sell or donate your car. Remove black cartridge from your printer, if empty, (select color for the print in the popup window, not black and white, if your printer doesn't print with the default black and white or grey scale setting) and it will print your application forms and endless paper copies of taxes with the color cartridge that it came with, if you ran out of black ink, the color will be a mix of the colors rendering some grey purple pink mix that imitates black ink. This way you save the environment that California claims to protect and not buy so many cartridges. Hear that, we're in 2023, and the California parasites, like in all states but 2, require hard copy and endless forms: 227, 256, 343, etc mailed physically, instead of just electronically filled and PDF sent. Is this what we have states for? To keep us in the 18th century? Why have 50 dysfunctional systems of title release, when 1 that is modern, instant and secure allows us to create new high tech jobs to innovate, not replicate? We can softly gently centralize, as Alexander Hamilton wanted. Let manufacturers sell directly and remove the middle man, like Tesla does. All those car dealer vampires need to be fired, given a real job instead of "4th grader sales job", to raise the national IQ, with all sales done by Eternal Travel Inc, the only company that delivers title instantly to everyone's immortality.gov account. With a unified "hooligans out" centralist immortalist government, this state bureaucracy and car dealer banditry would be wiped out and we get instant title, like DocuSign, electronic form, in 1 minute, no paper, no crap, via the central immortality.gov site where all IDs and utility accounts, etc for everyone are. If you ever need to sell a car and need a title, the Eternal Travel Inc simply scans its database or immortality.gov for your immortality ID, license plate (easiest) or drivers license (electronic one, on phone, like in Australia, issued by this company, not by 50 states), finds there your car titles recorded in the car section, without you even having to email anything or receive any "email with title in signed secure PDF form". Same for house, etc title, etc. USA is a nation of 0 IQ brainwashed slaves who waste time with Halloween instead of solving real issues (pollution and short lives from endless trees cut, paper made for useless ads nobody reads, car titles, etc, phone calls wasted, etc), are wasteful, inefficient, don't recycle anything, trash everyone's body and lungs, brains and hearts with gasoline car smog, we mainly do sales, marketing and fake ads, violent concerts, pretending we're the great managers of crap, bringers of "peace & democracy", meaning "war and torture, inefficiency & ☺abysmal IQ☺". Here and there, some research jobs exist, 1 out of 50. We're a pathetic bunch of phonies. Can't even get our country in order and end all violent crime, and we lecture others on World Peace, or democracy, since World Peace in 3 months is a forbidden topic. We got millions of tiny stores, selling various items, like clothes or shoes, etc that are 10-50 times smaller than others and are just wasting people's lives since all that stuff is found at the big store. We see clerks wasting time, nothing sold. It's a cover for spies. The same small business sick mentality causes parents, teachers to go with kids and harass 100s of passers by to sell chocolate to raise $$ for sports fueling violent crime. Nothing could be lower in IQ than knocking on doors to ask them to buy toxic chocolate, sponsor toxic sports.☺☺

The idea of 50 states with 50 laws for income tax or etc is national suicide, and wholly inefficient, as we lack science and tech jobs and have admin, law experts jobs for folks who fool around all day. State and city governments need to be dissolved and turned into offices of the feds, with one regulation, not 20000, for all areas of USA and their tax rates equal, one federal tax or 0 tax, subtracted automatically. The idea of any ANY tax makes no sense if government owns all companies (11-20 TOTAL), since it can include 'tax subtraction' in the wages or simply divides money supply (wages) according to the needs of all to buy stuff. Why can't we gently increase federal tax, make a central site for renting, etc, and have same income tax law in every state included in the new federal tax code? Equal opportunity for All? And also allow most people to never file taxes (few have complex business activities), making everything more central for easy deductions of every wage, rental or stock trade, etc by AI, so we think about Immortality for All, not taxes. Plus, honestly, if we had 11 companies, all are on wages and help all to live to 1 billion years old and we have 30 times more research jobs, then obviously, all taxes are deducted automatically, as it's so simple and USA finally graduates from aristocratic infantile IQ of 80 to a grown up adult stage of IQ 140. Aristocrats keep the whole planet in the stone age, due to their need for 100 million tax professionals, 500 million sales and resale of insurance, etc… endless clerks for stadiums, strip clubs, casinos we don't need, and the list is endless. Why do we need tax professionals instead of scientist, engineer jobs to build amazing single family housing for all? WE ARE A NATION OF TAX ENFORCERS FOR ARISTOCRATIC MURDERERS, while the poor are homeless and Realtors, Stock Traders, Financial Experts, Charlatans, Tax Folks, Sales, Middlemen, outnumber Building Inspects, Construction Workers needed to remodel, maintain best housing conditions. Our whole country revolves around selling, reselling and calculating taxes: THE PARASITIC BUSINESS OWNERS ARE ALWAYS

THINKING ABOUT taxes, HOW TO MINIMIZE THEM, not how to make people live to 9000. It's a criminal mind, a demonic mind born out of the Depraved Feudalism. The whole nation sinks ever deeper into the black hole of Money-ism. That's why Immortalists will ban all banks and DISSOLVE ALL BANKS into the no more green dollars Eterni Bank. With housing.gov we eliminate so many parasitic redundant jobs and bring high tech undreamed of in every field by using similar centralization. We got millions of redundant contractors, realtors, insurance resellers, dealers, etc, an insane level of service, admin, sales jobs, and nothing gets made in USA, nothing gets done, except sales over the phone almost. USSR gave all a free house, here in America, millions calculate property taxes and all kinds of things. Why are taxes even needed if government pays everyone? Everyone pays government thru their job and hours.

Why can't we have WORLD'S FIRST TAX FREE COUNTRY? Foreign companies will be subject to such strict standards for product safety, that they have to make it so different to sell it in our country, it is a tax unto itself. Any product made by foreign companies or their US factories has to be of much higher quality than local ones to be sold or imported. Otherwise, imports are illegal. Every company pays Americans and that's it. The people are the government, no salary can be too high, say 3 times higher than minimum, as all are saints who work to live to 3 billion. Gone would be the 200 software packages in USA and sites to make you fill out your taxes, redundancy to the extreme. Oahu has a 0.3% property tax, Big Island County 1%, vs 2.21% for New Jersey. 0.31% is the lowest of all states, and people complain that Hawaii is 'expensive', due to property prices being very high on average (these rankings can be easily confirmed on city-data.com, census.gov and many sites) (there are cheaper properties on Big Island, not Oahu). Many pay 20000 a year in property taxes alone, for a 3 bed house. Why do we need so many different taxes, when there is only one Immortality Building Inc and one federal property tax of 0.3%? Everyone is an IRS tax expert and "rules expert", instead of a scientist. The criminal spy agencies who're defending the ancient aristocracy and their Big Corporations exterminate anyone who would even propose such a thing, as we saw CIA torture to death millions in many nations who wanted the people to have a say not a puppet government supporting the beatings loving (see quotes of the 'Word of God' 'Bible') ☺filif skunk IQ☺ ritual loving Catholic Church. (to be fair any church that promotes Bible as Word of God deifies beatings: in the Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives).

As you recall from history lessons, the royal families and the palace dwelling aristocrats put their puppets in charge of the military and spy agencies and these relationships between business and spies remained. CIA is simply an arm of the Inquisition, their job is to promote the genocidal quotes of the Bible. Why does Europe need endless horses that injure people, stone age rituals, royal families and ancient outdated traditions, redundant governments when all could unify as one bigger country, like China is one country, with one English language for all, a super efficient

EU, like USA could become with immortalists in power? Why do we need 400 political parties (shouting, fist fighting, removing bills from the parliament during session and causing lawmakers to fall on their head?) in Europe, instead of just Immortality for All Party to get the job done instead of talking nonsense all day? All elections are fake anyway, why do we need so much fraud and national energies spent to deceive the working class, to incite a part of society to hate and work against others, to create division in every town, family and state? Isn't this aristocratic terror disguised as democracy? All debate can be civil, within the same party or with no parties, and discuss ways to give single family housing for all, healthy food, secure borders, trillion year lifespans, universal healthcare, bigger families to stop importing immigrants for labor, who often are soldiers trying to destroy your nation. People may disbelieve "millions" died, forgetting that Iraq war led to millions dying early, and even in USA millions die early due to torture civilians endure or cops, spies, soldiers go thru as part of their "training". The Inquisition was a cover for aristocrats to torture all who opposed their looting. Italians (or Jews pretending to be Italians) knew how to crucify 6000 at once needlessly, and had ☺some scorpion IQ☺ to make up Jesus to loot everyone, but in this day and age when all read 500 science papers or abstracts every year, the people know miracles were staged to fool. The "holy" Jewish Torah (part of Bible) promotes slavery Lev 25:44-6 and torture/beating of slaves Exodus 21:20-21. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Another thing that is highly redundant is lawyers, judges, city clerks. Today, to prevent also attacks on judges and lawyers that happen in courts, where inmates run and jump, punch judges, etc, it makes more sense to do it via teleconference, where the inmate is in a different room, especially for violent crime cases. This reduces the need for courtrooms, as a little office is enough. Due to the new system, all sentences are replaced with fines and 1 to 800 months weekend online classes for nonviolent crimes, and jail time with labor in a healing self-sustaining sealed city for violent crimes. This will increase efficiency. Centralization will also increase efficiency: today's system of "law" education tortures young people to learn the most useless "immortality progress slowing" differences in city codes and regulations and state laws and tax laws etc, when we can have ONE LAW INSTEAD☺☺☺. All these things can be replaced by AI, once a centralization in a true democratic style happens. If there is ONE USA, then there is ONE LAW, one language, in all villages and towns, with small little changes related to factors that affect Immortality max lifespan in that area due to climate, rainfall, etc. So, if we have One software that has the basic American (later planetary, when one country exists) Law, with only small changes minimal when absolutely needed, due to our inability control mother nature yet and create one temp and climate planet wide via the planetary shield of the future, everything is super easy. ☺☺☺ Each side enters their answers to 30 or 400 questions by text or whatever, videos, etc required and the witness, defense, and etc are all AI and a human can supervise inputs of all virtual personas (judge, prosecutor, lawyer, witness, etc) that don't exist and agrees or improves the AI decision. This eliminates the insane focus on people becoming lawyers, since it's vampirism, we have more lawyers than most countries, instead of scientists to improve quality of life, triple human lifespan. Of course, it's not going to happen overnight, since this is a lot more complex than the real estate system above, which can be created within 2 months, without the drone and 30 gadgets that don't exist yet. For the first time in history, due to AI, automated websites, centralized databases, etc we can actually eliminate 100 professions and get 20 million extra chemists and physicists to create the tech of the future; we need chemical physics to create molecular synthesis in 3 minute or hours from any raw materials – bypassing the 500 step synthesis this is the basis of super fast resolution of millions of technical challenges in every field of human science, engineering, etc. that affects health and lifespan. We can create then eterni foods a million times faster than nature animals and plants. Another vampire behavior common in all countries is "become a doctor because it makes a lot of $$", (not all doctors) so yes, we see how that turns out – you go to 10 doctors and they each know only 1 little thing and idea, and check one thing that the instrument has at the office – when a lot of checks can be done automatically like we already have replaced going to doctor to check blood pressure with the little devices and the Walmart station that checks weight, etc, pulse, pressure, etc. Same way, you go to a place where it measures various parameters, takes scans of meibum glands for example, etc, as explained in the eye section and suggests a treatment with way more info and everything than any doctor knows, before you buy an eye drop recommended by the AI, you also get the huge PDF to understand better all the available options, etc.

So, as AI info section explains, the doctors would have to waste a lot less time, the new 'doctors' being more in creating the gadgets anyone can access at Walmart or various Immortality for All business parks that check parameters and things when people feel like some issue may exist. This prevents redundancy, exploitation and torture under the guise of medical treatment. It's the same unified system that prevents looting by local websites of people who want to buy a house in some areas or sell it to various gang affiliated 'realtors'. The main benefit is that if we create the perfect AI, we eliminate human errors, and treat everyone equally☺☺☺, with regard to housing, medical stuff, dating, news (see below), etc not based on their gender, appearance, gang/group membership, location. True democracy. People always scoff at the idea of one language, one currency, one law, but imagine if we had 4 million languages in USA, can anything be achieved? All day translating and not understanding what others are saying? 4 million Windows operating systems? Can any progress happen? You have 4 million less programmers for everything, so imagine how lousy the software is. It's how our society functions now in many respects, infinite decentralized redundancy, inefficiency that makes lifespan health and length increase extremely slow. Proponents of competition would say in many industries we have 99% of market owned by 4 major companies, that's true, so we can have 4 major companies regulated by the Gov Immortality Housing Agency, that can create 4 such systems and compete for innovation, etc 4 is a LOT better than 4 million realtor sites. Over time, as society evolves to Immortality for All ethics, people do their best to improve the one system and the 4 may merge into one anyway, since in some fields of human activity (that everyone needs, that is ultra basic, shelter for example) it's easier to have one website, we usually have 1 White House, not 4 million, one government, not 4 million, one set of physics laws, not 4 million sets depending on city and state; imagine 3 amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ news sites, 100x more scientific news, supported by 100x more evidence, instead of 900 fake news sites with fake videos from years ago presented as today's news. Imagine one dating.gov with 100x more info on every person, instead of 10,000 sites offering no real info – better matching, better news, better everything, like one Home Depot and Lowes, not 4000 mom and dad stores. Catholics have millions of priests repeating daily the same words at Mass (the 15 min Eucharist stuff is same every day even, 365 days a year), when an AI or prerecording could do it in much better tone, same for teachers, allow students to learn remotely, so same class, instead of 50,000 teachers inventing the language or other class all over; create more similar classes, youtubes, free 3 million people from ☺☺☺ 'IQ lowering' repetitive teaching jobs to do RESEARCH on longevity.

In the chemical industry, or environmental lab industry, we have endless redundancy, tiny companies of 5-50 people, instead of one or 5 big ones,☺☺☺ all reinventing, rewriting the SOP for the same EPA 624, FDA, etc redoing analytical method development, procedures, accounting, HR, middle management departments ad infinitum, leading to none left to develop new longevity tech, as everyone reinvents the wheel in their industry, town or county: the waste of human brains, energy, is phenomenal, instead of R&D we have redundancy. To prevent the pitfalls of big state companies where dictatorship emerges sometimes and no suggestions for improvement are considered seriously or evaluated, since there is more human capital now, they can make sure the people in charge of suggestions evaluation are a group always, with different views and training, so avoid bias and blocking innovation; salary and discounted Immortality tech would be given to those advancing humanity and company products the most – to prevent stagnation typical of communism, where salaries remain similar and nobody has any incentive to improve anything; people don't realize redundancy can be as catastrophic as communism for the society, leading to collapse and falling centuries behind; with more centralism, we can get 10 million jobs erased, these people retrained to fuel the immortality tech industry and support industries, eterni food, plus higher product quality, efficiency, in existing industries.

We see people who live for their car, they wash it and fix it and take it apart 30 times a month, etc – and die at 60, while others prioritize health, good sleep (essential), bliss☺☺☺ and live to 98; likewise, our societies have become like the computer or car obsessed guy who neglects his health and being alive and happy in the first place. We have unrestricted desire for a lot of things, without a thought about how it impacts our longevity. We have limited energy, so we can't have everything - in record time, both 8 trillion year lifespan and a quadrillion other things. What will we choose? Life, bliss or useless objects? Also, we got 5 million mom and dad restaurants, that can only produce Neolithic type of food. Many unscientific mini restaurant chains with 10 to 10,000 outlets, but with little science; imagine if we had fewer, via immortalism centralization, by requiring 5,000 tests and studies to prove food is increasing lifespan versus typical foods of past millennia, and each hired thousands of PhD to discover the best longevity formulas, etc and ship it home via Amazon, dissolve in water, save building materials too, so all have a decent house and a road without potholes every 12 inches. Amazon replaced a lot of shopping malls and we could do with fewer restaurants too? The food industry would move from the cave age to the 21st century; the age of 'me, me, $, $, $, small business, my business' first would be replaced by the age of "science-backed health and longevity, Immortality for All" first and later eterni food. From frying potatoes to 900 bio and chemical reactors making amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ new proteins that help us live to 500, quite a difference. Why waste city jobs with nonsensical redundancy, instead of making | Immortality for All | Center in every City hall area, with 200 biomarkers to freely monitor for all people once a year? This center is an office of the federal Immortality Nurturing Agency, which has scientists working there, on doing the tests, and on one of the 1 million federal | Immortality for All | RESEARCH Projects the Gov☺☺☺ assigned for that city; since this is a world of Immortality prioritized, in Immortality Capitalism those people get higher salaries than any city official, as they raise the lifespan of all, instead of looting everyone; to ensure ethics, every city decision has to be approved by the director of the Immortality Nurturing Agency (INA) office in that city hall building, who can veto any council decision if it's deemed anti-longevity.

Sports players make more than scientists, which would be illegal in such a civilization, because playing soccer increases lifespan maybe 0.01% extra versus just walking and jogging and also leads to a lot of people wasting time shouting and getting angry when a team loses (this pollutes global emotion field, shortening lifespan). We get head injuries from the ball, leg injuries from kicks by other players, but tech can increase lifespan by 3 billion% vs jogging, walking that need no expensive infrastructure; we need more science and engineering labs, not stadiums and sports facilities. Because of that, and because youtube already got thousands of videos on how to exercise from the comfort of your home (no more coaches making big $, everyone interested is a coach of the new eterni movements exercising style they create on youtube for the benefit of all, or sports.gov can host some 2000 styles of peaceful movements, besides the classical stretching, pushups, etc people may want to do 1 minute at a time thruout the day), listening to peaceful music and building nice muscles if that is the wish, it is imperative to cap to minimum wage the maximum wage for all sports players as they contribute 0 to society in the long run, doing vast damage thru traumatic brain injury and pollution of tone field of humankind. Additionally, any model or modelling company CEO, employee, etc needs to be prevented from making more than 3 times the minimum wage or so, since beauty is not important, but only living to a trillion or 800 initially, kindness and science, tech of making all healthy and able to live to 500. Medical company CEO can make more, as that extends human lifespan. It's fine to be a model and use toxic chemicals to appear younger, but we want to inspire health and beauty, inner and outer beauty and health, not just a show of outer beauty while arteries and everything inside is destroyed. Because models try to not gain weight, exercise, eat healthy to avoid pimples, etc, and appear good, they're naturally taking better care of their health and are a better role model than sports folks kicking a ball. Models are not always that kind: many post movies of boxing practice, glorify violent thuggish music on social media, try to seduce others for $ with nude pics, exposed breasts, bikini, etc, so it's important to limit the abuse of the internet and salary by models who tempt others into practicing violent unethical sports, etc. We need to also consider the banning of Internet abuse by those who post semi nude or overpost bikini pics; if people want to buy bikini, they see them there, but to over post that on a social media account would invite some hefty fines, starting with 90,000$ for more than 1 bikini pic/video a year or whatever people agree on, to help the people damaged by such a waste of time, help them learn meditation, breathing and natural healthy happiness. Likewise, need to prevent the promotion of alcohol due to its involvement in violent crime (70% car crashes under alcohol influence too), so only once a year can anyone post pics or videos of alcohol, to prevent pushing the youth towards its consumption, since World Peace lasts only when violent crime is 0.☺☺☺

The way they take over our nation is thru turning everyone into a "filif IQ chimp", they want to hook people to prostitution, drugs and etc, they want to fight meditation as that removes drug sales, 'fake miracle' sales of holy objects and blessed objects, fake miracles books, fake apparition shrines that make people dependent on locations of staged fraud, on wafers they simply don't need. With instant happiness by breathing God's light, smiling, the predators can't make billions by fake religions anymore, they can't build personal airports and billion dollar wealth, huge mansions using religious donations or drug money, controlled enslaved models, etc. We need to help people learn 24-7 meditativeness, to reduce crime happening due to anger and lack of happiness; we need to promote the free natural ways to happiness and God connection, not those depending on weed, drugs, concerts, blessed objects, cannibalistic rituals, wafers, seeing or interacting with a "gorgeous supermodel". The goal of life is to live happily, to learn to live happily, as long as possible, without depending on pics of models. All desire that is ethical is related to that stuff that would bring 900 year lifespans to all, later million year. Let that be fun, promoted, exciting, not seeing bikini. Everything else is secondary. Models, and online bitches create the wrong type of desire and addiction that cause "drastic lowering of average IQ and national enslavement", in order to help the mafia cartels who run the weapons business, the casino and sports teams, 'depraved' unethical music and modeling business, etc, the military gangs. People need to perceive others as the shimmering shapeshifting Eternals, not as sexual toys or dolls, and to cultivate universal kindness, to make all feel beautiful, not only some depraved girl who posts 400 bikini pics a year to claim she's more beautiful than others, when she's not at all, actually less beautiful than others who simply don't have the time and ☺ abysmal IQ☺ to post that. But to dupe men and brainwash them she's more beautiful, to extract money and favors, she appeals to the biological drive and posts as much nudity as possible. This is deceptive and unethical, damaging the quantum field, as people become more animals and less intelligent, rewires the brain to activate less the higher cognitive functions and to become easy prey of the vampires. To protect national security, the quantum field of national brain, etc, we need not only to ensure lyrics are kind, ethical, producing max lifespan per 5 words, but that singers also focus on the music, not on showing off their nude legs, breasts, chest, arms. It's important to realize we want to make everyone happy, serene and content, not to want them to be dependent on erotica. To safeguard the Democratic Principle of All Are beautiful, even those modest enough to not sing in bikini or swimsuit so often, we can easily ban singing dresses that are obviously more porn. These unethical (a very polite word for their actions) singers don't realize others have a much nicer voice,☺☺ character, and/or appearance, they just didn't get to be promoted by the violent cartels running 100 nations, USA.

Musicians, singers, like models, often appear beautiful melody, voice or person due to promotion, since many have nicer voice, appearance but lack microphones, dresses, a good photographer, support system, time to record (need to be free to record, not be tortured, have some time off, sleep well, etc), etc and they don't become millionaires, just having a regular job being thought of as "less beautiful" because they didn't post 400 bikini pictures and didn't shout like this to brainwash the youth to enroll in the violent military by associating a "sexy celebrity" with "nuclear explosions and military gear". I met people who would create much better music than many "singers". So it's not even a democratic system: the free spirituality for all, let all become pastor idea in the immortalism beliefs section, explains that all can create beautiful stuff if not tortured by the CIA FBI cartels. The immortalist government can encourage all people of all ages to create stuff and then it will be used to determine which ones can induce the highest eterni emotion in the listener, as measured scientifically via MRI via many AI simulations that can scan 10 billion youtubes per day, no need of anything big, just a 1-5 min song. This way, we reward that which builds Immortality for All, not war vibes. Most are not so much singers, as recruiters for the spies/militaries for more wars and no Peace, they're mere spies like actors, models, for spy agencies in need of 'gorgeous' honey traps, CIA, etc agencies that wage eternal war on the human quantum field. Let's be clear, beauty for immortalists is that which is eterni in tone, that which brings a world of Immortals, Eternal Universal Peace in 3 months, like the qualities deified in the first 2 pages of Immortalist Anthem, not the shouting yelling contests they call "music" today that only perpetuate the 10 billion violent crime incidents a year on Earth. Beauty is giving others music for free, via youtube, not hoarding millions gigantic mansions while others are cramped 9 in a condo 10 times smaller (so 90 times less space/person), because the stadium, golf course took up the space, so the unethical singer can shout and destroy the human quantum field via more war. Let us gently not become the land of depravity and violence. If we're so free, how come we have so much violent crime and 2 million in jail for example? What land of freedom? All are slaves of the Infernal Genocidal Word. The 0 IQ generals who run 90 nations, don't understand that Peace and 0 violent crime can occur peacefully without war/jails, violent music. To live longer, we need more peaceful music too.☺

We need to value intellect, kindness and the gentlest kindest professions and people, if we still want our planet to exist and USA to not become a 3rd world country that is. We need to reward selfless intelligence and science, tech, not using toxic chemicals and taking photos from a good angle by the company photographer. Millions of girls who're not models would look as good as many models, or better, they just don't get to spend eons taking pics and using industrial amounts of makeup, hair dye, etc. Also, since most models are spies, the other girls would be nicer too, as they have not been trained in deception and being cruel and mean, violent, etc. Likewise, prostitution needs be illegal, since we have hard evidence that anyone can be 1000 times happier than orgasm, with meditation, or even music, without shortening the lifespan of women who're slave labor producing pleasure for equally low in IQ men, who shorten their lifespan by visiting these places and draining their body of fluids. It's the duty of the government to inform all women of the lifespan shortening such unethical jobs bring them, and help them to find a better job that brings 800 year lifespan for all. Initially, they could raise tax 1000 times to begin with, in the transition period of educating the masses. Once men understand the science of meditation, due to the mythical "Zion Elders" like folks no longer controlling all TV, men will no longer waste their money on such ☺rabbit IQ☺ activities. The immortalist government duty is to protect every citizen, not just rich men with money to waste on human trafficking. Sex is not love, love is helping people to live in bliss 1000 times higher than sex, for 10000 years not 10 min, that is spirituality or ethics. Sex is simply the way human primates reproduce today, but later we will do it differently since we're able to materialize atoms as shimmering genderless shapeshifting Immortals. With tech and science, we will make everyone look like a model, and live to 700, so we want democracy, beauty for all, not the guru worship of unethical model, sports, music celebrities.☺☺☺

To prevent violence at sports events and the complete breakdown of family vibe when dad gets mad and shouts when his team lost, there may be a need to have no losers, everyone wins, no

place to score points and move the ball to, let all just kick the ball and pass it around while wearing '| Immortality for All |' t-shirts, all one team, not two teams and two t-shirt designs, t-shirts depicting one of the qualities to develop like 'Gentleness'. Likewise, in scientific engineering events, all win and get some prize, but only those more practical and lifespan extending techs get more mass production or development support. This soccer with eterni characteristics is played ideally in one's backyard with one or two people and making a live show of it for free, if one wants to entertain others with one's game, while listening to peaceful music (just like people have a basketball hoop in their driveway or backyard). Sports distract society from what is important: World Peace in 3 months, ending all violent crime and prisons, creating a society of infinite loving kindness, nurturing grace and gentleness: neural conditioning from many sports is pro-violence due to the violent kicking of balls with legs, bats, etc in many sports and how the brain works in triggering neural emotions via movement speed and intent, these sports make us more aggressive and that's not what we need now, unless we want to disappear in 10 seconds. We need give millions of dollars in prizes to those geeks who invent mass produced instruments that measure everyone's important biomarkers at a fraction of the price, using maybe 1000 times less saliva, blood or whatever, not to sports players). The director is thus the expression of the will of the people to place Immortality for All above city games, to unify the country towards longevity and health progress, instead of 'wealth for a few' city guys giving themselves millionaire salaries – city salaries would have to be approved by the federal director of city Immortality Nurturing Agency. This also allows the end of the organized looting of cities by top leaders, who give themselves salaries 5-10 times above country average (city council), while the city projects go underfunded, potholes are everywhere. Every city, state employee becomes federal, working from that locality.

Why is centralization so important? Well, we got a little city have 1 rule, say no fireworks before July 4th, but nearby cities don't, so everyone does fireworks and annoys the city who banned fireworks; so a lot of city policies cancel each other; if they only allow fireworks be bought from fireworks.gov on July 4th only and a chip alerts INA that a firework has not been used on July 4th, or that it has been destroyed, then nobody can store fireworks and all can be used on July 4th only. So with a national centralized police we eliminate billions of annoying fireworks outside July 4th that shorten lifespan by disturbing people's sleep. Same for dog barking, go to dogs.gov to report issues with dogs in the same way nationally, as explained in the pet section. One single law for dog licensing, dog ownership training required before buying a dog, etc.

99.5% of citizens would have taxes done automatically by the government, since centralization, cashless society means 100 times more awareness of every little transaction, everything going on, especially with centralized renting, etc and stock companies sending info. This is the beginning of civilization, instead of 24-7 thinking about money, taxes and profits, we start thinking about doing a good job at maximizing everyone's lifespan length and quality of health. Without equal treatment, transparency, equal opportunity, equal price, honest reviews, no progress exists; law enforcement is also harder with 1000 times the companies number, since the mafia uses small/medium businesses to make money, so chaos is much more likely. Right now, everything is so obfuscated, like it's run by organized crime, the mafia. Centralization gives the power back to the people of USA, instead of to mafia groups running shadowy businesses and ripping people off. It increases transparency 100 fold, so everyone knows what goes on, simplifies life, 10 companies, instead of 10,000 in many fields, offering 1000 times better service and product, as they got 1000 times more R&D staff. Government encourages mergers and acquisitions for more R&D. In 20 years, number of companies can decrease, R&D increase 50x. We got 1000 times faster change, when we want it, as it's only 10 companies, not 10,000. If a procedure, etc needs change, it's instant. This means the nation moves to 900 year life fast. ☺

4.5.3.2. Other Forms of Centralization (besides no taxes)

Another example of redundant waste of energy, that could be used to improve our lives is having too many TV stations repeating the same news using old people who quantum entangle with the viewers and age them faster. We only need a few quality stations, not 80 repeating same news. We could also have, for futuristic sci-fi inspiration some AI supermodel shimmering shapeshifting (20 appearances, races, though one can be on mostly, so people identify that AI) Immortals even with 100x better tones that educate, heal, inspire for 5 minutes a week. The old style enthusiasts will lose, since now we make cars all by robots, like Tesla does, unlike 100 years ago. Everything will change sooner than many 70 year olds imagine? ☺☺☺ Imagine instead of 2000 denominations, with so many churches sitting empty most of the time of the day, we have only a few, 10 max, and each has one online service for all, instead of the redundancy of 1 million unique services a year, much nicer than any physical service, a nice meditation with the most angelic tones and serene music, plus amazing links to 300 videos on Immortals qualities we can develop and 9000 video lessons on Immortality ethics, that help people relax/learn from the comfort of their home (as church materials are used to provide decent housing and retrofit or use the 16 million empty homes), no longer crowded, with 0.5 million homeless while there is space and material for another 50 million houses, and 100 million living in crowded or outdated city codes environments, gigantic living room sits empty, not enough or spacey rooms, people live shorter due to small room (if they forget opening the window, placing a 1 watt fan there; people keep windows shut more often in noisy, airport areas or very cold areas where heating/cooling is expensive) having less oxygen. Electric cars, solar panels, wind, allow us to expand cities 10 times and make buildings 10 times shorter, dense cities 10 times less dense, less congested. Wouldn't it be more Godly to let the AI do the talking and we could help build via Habitat for Humanity decent housing and retrofit etc for the 100 million Americans who live in bad places? Or 5 billion outside of US? Also, to meet the social function, people☺☺ can meet at the city Immortality Park where free democratic healthcare for all (UK has universal healthcare) exists, with the AI gadgets monitoring 100s of parameters, where the immortality STEM labs are, where the universal kindness, Heaven on Earth can emerge in reality instead of as a wishful thinking, empty prayer. We see today a lot of companies sell toxic cow milk in 40 types of packages in many countries, wasting enormous amounts of human energy in marketing the same product in different sizes, packages, etc, ads, on TV, etc, while R&D jobs for eterni (tripling lifespan) foods are non-existent, we pretty much eat like Neanderthals millennia ago; instead of making truly amazing new milks, we just package the same cow milk in 900 ways, the epitome of rat level IQ: this is capitalism left alone. New milk refers not to denaturing plant protein, creating AGEs in industrial production, etc and giving us a worse 'plant' protein than one by soaking and pressure cooking at home way faster than waiting in drive thru some lentils. New milks refers to R&D for real innovation, creating new proteins, carbs, fibers that are best for humans and triple our lifespan, not random junk from nature, and also create mixtures that don't exist in nature, i.e. fibers from one plant, proteins similar to 2nd plant, carbs from a 3rd plant, all in one burger in a way unachievable by raw plant mixing, with bioreactors or chemical physics reactors for peptides, proteins, etc making them way faster than plants can, up to 1 billion times faster.

The so called difference between some fast food giants is minimal at best, same toxic fries, coke and AGE filled burgers, gluten rich bread, etc. Not much diversification and innovation, except for the vegan patties, now cooked same old way of dry heat to cancel some vegan benefits by forming AGEs, since CEOs chase profits, so no changing their dry heat methods of burger cooking. This is capitalism, more of a version of Marxism communism, GDP growth, even if people lifespan stagnates or shrinks. Isn't it time to upgrade to immortality capitalism and reduce redundancy so we have real innovation going on? With fewer companies, they could make the worst drinks way healthier, add a blueberry/kale shake or concentrate or something to it, or make more smoothies, etc, grow kale in vertical farms instead of potatoes that don't provide any truly rich nutrient profile, except some cheap carbs. Like with the realtor and renting a room, finding a tenant, buying a house, everything is so redundant, decentralized and dysfunctional, like 100s of laws about EVs, instead of a few federal. It's as if states fight each other and are separate countries. Reinvent the wheel, discover nothing?☺☺

The centralization in Immortality capitalism will reduce crime, since we will be able to outlaw cash and bring a cashless society where every purchase of alcohol (implicated in most violent crime and car accidents), etc, can be monitored and quantified, so that purchase is blocked (all credit cards, ATM, etc are linked to the ID) once it exceeds a given safe level, for example, only one 8 oz beer can a week allowed per person, to prevent abuse that brings down the entire medical system as we care for alcoholics, instead for extending lifespan and families are destroyed, as well as World Peace; and one 8 oz whiskey every 3 months; any company that sells concentrated alcoholic beverages and who causes anyone to commit any violent crime or accident, mistake at work etc due to drinking a whole bottle at once, can be fined 30 million dollars by the INA, Immortality Nurturing Agency, since it's the business who needs to sell concentrated alcohol in tiny amounts to prevent drunk driving, etc; the INA goal is to bankrupt all alcohol selling companies eventually, until all humans are free from alcohol addiction, alcohol related accidents or domestic violence, and humanity creates eterni beverages that add a million years to lifespan (well, initially eterni foods, drinks will only add 50 years, then 200, 900, etc), instead of red wines that may add 1 year if used sparingly, in some cases only (many centenarians never drank alcohol). We can't have 3 million dead a year globally, due to alcohol abuse, as that is not Immortality for All, it's genocide. We can't have 30 million people globally injured and damaged severely by alcohol abuse, as that's lifespan shrinking and not extending, the most anti immortality capitalism thing there is. All 'benefits' of red wine can be gotten from other foods with 100 times more antioxidants, so why not have the benefits without the 30 million damaged people that drain the planet's longevity progress?

After reading this book, you will probably agree with me that a Civilization of Immortals can be achieved without Immortality Capitalism, if there are enough ethical laws about content created (movies, songs, etc), about products created (Immortality Nurturing Agency), etc. It's just one of the ideas that can be partially implemented. The thing is in some nations, already some banks don't provide cash and cash is used for a lot of crime. If the only money comes from the Central Eterni Bank thru impossible to fake credit cards, much crime becomes impossible, but all crime and violence also becomes impossible when the rest of the book ideas are implemented without Immortality Capitalism, which may sound harder to implement than achieving World Peace. Presumably, after World Peace and crime is very low and prisons are almost gone, Immortality Capitalism would be easier to implement. Casinos, drug dealing, black market, etc would be impossible with no cash. There are millions of possible degrees of centralization in Immortality Capitalism. As the final switch over to the Immortality system (currency name can remain the same, or maybe rename it to "immortal" or "perennial") happens, people's money has the same purchasing power. What changes is how much money they receive from the Bank monthly from that moment on. Private property, etc all these things we got today will still be. ☺☺☺ Even a few banks can exist to help people do business, etc, but to remove focus on money making and "best interest rates" etc there can be just one or very few banks with all credit cards (1 per person max) issued by the Universal Eterni Bank. This further removes money obsession as each has 1 card only. An employer can submit a report to the Central Bank of praise or criticism of an employee, if he thinks the Artificial Intelligence AI system failed to acknowledge the positive, negative influence, since the employer can see the credit rise or fall (not the total score, but only the change due to the time in that job) happening due to actions in his building and can choose to launch a reassessing of the scoring when he thinks AI is wrong and failed to catch amazing things or bad things employee did. The employer has an influence on credit score, by launching an investigation, but that doesn't guarantee that his opinion is accepted by the system or people overseeing the investigation of the AI. Thus employee evaluations still have effect, though less, since AI is far more objective, less biased, over time in very established industries and positions.

Another interesting thing is that as knowledge expands, the economics of the Immortality Capitalism changes. Right now, we have a lot of so called "laissez-faire capitalism" or "market driven capitalism", i.e. the ideal "competing companies trying to make a "better" (liked by consumers, not more lifespan extending, and consumer likes can be manipulated by the companies in the market by secret agreements) product" soon becoming a monopoly, duopoly, oligopoly company brainwashes people to buy a product that shortens lifespan, customers demand the poison products because of ads and this shifts the demand and prices. But in Immortality Capitalism, every product must be approved by the ☺☺☺Immortality Nurturing Agency☺☺☺ first, and its price determined by its contribution to the tripling (or extending) of human lifespan in order of what is the most important for the survival of humans as they age (because we try to extend lifespan the most, and risk of death increases with age). So, the price of an eterni food that triples lifespan would be higher than that of a random plant or animal food in nature that keeps lifespan about the same, being also much harder and more expensive to produce. Price of metals or any raw materials depends on their ability to make products that extend lifespan the most, not so much on their abundance only. A 30,000 page book "Immortalism Economics" can determine the price calculations for simpler products and 80,000 page one for more complex products. With more technocrat immortalists shaping and guiding the market, inflation of the planetary immortalist Global Village can be brought to 0 almost for every 100 years and Longevity made the only important thing in the pricing calculation, as demand is determined by highly sophisticated calculations of what studies and eterni (life extending, like a new water pipe that has no lead traces in PVC found today) products need to be tested and sold to generate scientific data for better products that extend lifespan. People are free to choose which among these products they want to buy, so it's still a market economy, but with extra consumer protection, i.e. consumer gets the best products to choose from, instead of products that shorten or stagnate healthy and total lifespan. The demand (production) level is determined also from the resources available and impact of using those resources on pollution and its effect on human lifespan.

100% Free market economies don't exist, since governments in all countries have regulations that interfere with that. If there are 50 food formulas that extend in preliminary studies lifespans of rabbits 80-100% and in human simulations 15-45%, the demand for them can be determined not by ☺☺☺subconscious ignorance of the uninformed or misinformed public ("market forces") manipulated by covert oligopoly via subliminal ads, but by the scientific knowledge and debate, and "longevity informed" free will of consumers about of which food formulas would better be tested in larger amounts (sold for the benefit of the whole humanity) because science predicts those formulas are the most promising for working in humans to triple lifespan long-term. This implies a high level of citizen science projects, education, involvement in knowing the differences, with the average person knowing 50 times more biochemistry than today. As the AI systems for calculating prices assist price determiners, the price is no longer determined by the chaos of the market, by the entropy and disorder of the market, by the greed and mischief of covert oligopolies (tobacco for example), but by the Knowledge of Immortality ☺☺☺ and Ethics of Extending the Healthy Lifespan of the Highest Number of People, leading the civilization to the most Lifespan Tripling Economics, where the "market" economy of the most published Ads (whoever got the money to publish or release lies full ads not backed by any scientific data or very forged science) is replaced by the immortalist Economy of Infinite Compassion of the Most "Lifespan Tripling or Longevity Enhancing Ads" with statements proven by thousands of unbiased government or truly independent studies (not paid by the company to get "study conclusions" they want). Even if inflation doesn't remain 0.1% in 100 years, as not everything can be so perfectly controlled, it will still be an economics more lifespan tripling. ☺☺

ACTING BUSY DILEMMA: outright individualistic capitalism (like all other systems) tends to often deviate from compassion which leads to employees acting busy, so when you talk about a country with 350 million people, it's like 10 million full time people wasting time 40 hours a week, when they could build 20 million houses (or vastly renovate, sound proof, etc 100 million in desperate need of in USA) and 0.1 million Immortality RESEARCH centers in that free time. Here is where Immortality Capitalism saves this stagnant classical capitalism model: managers are educated to be more compassionate and empathetic, not so cruel (like the nobles working peasants to death at times, then raising money to start a war to get more "land") and profit centered, so then employees can volunteer to one of 10,000 Habitat for Humanity like Immortalism volunteering opportunities to help 50 other people to build their house, vertical farm, City Immortality Park, install solar panel, double/triple pane window for noisy areas, dirty electricity filters,... As an individual logs in 800 hours of volunteering, he could be getting on the list to get a house co-built by volunteers (nobody can be expert in everything, but anyone can learn something well, installing windows, or solar panels, or electrical, or plumbing of some type, RF monitoring, etc to assist the professional plumber, electrician who OKs things, etc. Then, instead of the manager complaining the guy is "wasting time", the manager would let him volunteer so he gets a decent place to live (no more brain fog due to bad sleep, due to bad neighbors), where he then performs in his 30 active hours a lot better and builds 10 houses long term for others. Yet, this is such a non-no in our world, how can someone leave the building? How could anyone dare to do physical exercise in service to building immortalist civilization? ☺☺☺ It HAS to be at the gym off work hours, Immortality labs with $30 million instruments are hard to have at home, but one can exercise at home and do chores to help people around with things they need (listed on Immortality building Volunteering network).

The freed materials, land, staff, etc can then be used to build 1 million Immortality RESEARCH centers in America, we already got so much land in cities (see the list here). Today we have these amazing drivers licenses, credit cards, time clock, etc and people can clock out and use the Immortalism Building Card to scan it when they enter volunteering area and this is sent to employer instantly via email (to the employer AI which notices a longer lunch break) as proof he wasn't at a party, but actually volunteering in an Immortality Nurturing Agency Approved Nonprofit of the ☺☺Eternia☺☺ Network – he did what he had to do that morning or day (sometimes business is slow or there is nothing to do there) and could use 40 minutes of physical exercise to avoid staring at the sky and do something useful for others, not just muscle building for HIMSELF. By law, the employee would still be paid his hourly or salary as if he never left to volunteer; if employer notices there is a lot of free time (they often know anyway), he may assign more duties to the person, but he can also quit, this way there is a system of preventing exploitation by one employer who doesn't care about Immortality building, as the Central Government does. The enthusiastic employee can help 80 neighbors to build mini-vertical (15-25 ft tall, outside "glass" can be colorful solar panels) greenhouse farms in backyard (that look like shimmering temples) with geometric shapes (dome, pyramid, hexagon, etc), and amazing colors that make the vegan or eterni city look like a heavenly city from another universe – the bliss of making the city so amazing and self-sufficient, off-grid and organic, catapults his work productivity 50%, so he does more in his fewer hours than the depressed lethargic self of "classical capitalism that is neutral or indifferent to Immortality or eternal lifespan tripling just like all political and social systems now that are not pro-Immortality and repeating short lives (and a little too much focus on death and war) status quo due to historical inertia, they simply don't aim for 500 year lifespans with the dedicated compassion and enthusiasm described in this and other books" before and the employer knows this, so it allows it as it helps his profits too.

"Let the Light of Truth, of Immortality, of Eternal Life, of gentle tender soft compassion, of Scientific Discovery, of Freedom from "short lives, ignorance, fake ideologies, isms, made up religions" enable us to Live to 900 and way longer later. Let us become filled with the Electric Bliss, Perennial Joy and Exuberant Infinite Ecstasy of Immortalizing our Civilization with the Light of Knowledge Immortal.☺☺☺ Let us allow the Immortal Altruism Spirit in every employee to flourish and express so the real engine of planetary transformation can be turned on and the miracle of "Immortality" (eternal lifespan tripling) can dawn a million times faster". This change of scenery, from stuffed low oxygen hot office (no air conditioning) to fresh air building a shimmering garden or house, can also help employee build some needed skills (technical or people) that are not easy to teach at the workplace, so it can be win-win, especially if brain is oxygenated. He grows from a depressed selfish angry employee into a cheerful universally loving kindness filled immortalist who loves his life more and dislikes his boring job less. This also help people realize money is not everything, but skills, oxygen, quality working place, new friends, volunteering credits (which means maybe getting a house done by more Immortality loving people, higher vibration, not mean people who do this for paycheck only, not to Volunteer in Eternia Network). People become less grumpy, less selfish and more helpful. This limited world view, this lack of compassion for employees, their living environment, etc leads to employees acting busy and everyone losing, manager, society, people who could have been helped by volunteering, etc. Our money obsessed world is so cruel, compassion is rarely a factor, leading sometimes to the same stagnation as in communism (life expectancy: freer market economy, freer individuals, democracy South Korea 82, communist North Korea 71, former EU nations got some food shortages (sometimes they would turn off electricity a few days of the year for 5 hours a day or so), like USSR, before the 1989 fall of communism).

All countries are sort of communist, "communism for the military-spy agencies elites, ignorance, slavery for the rest"☺☺☺ (centrally planned economy disguised as free market, where elites centrally plan everyone's life, control all courts, stock prices, legislatures, celebrities, websites, everything, in a communism or "democracy" as a scam system of fake elections, where neither free market capitalism, democracy nor communism exists), in reality, it's just that they disguise the military-state (of the feudal aristocratic elites controlling the security apparatus and using torture and mutilation as the feudal lords beating and working peasants to death) control of all private enterprise very well; however, the level of kindness and terror varies, so when there is too much terror, torture, fear, nobody reports to superiors when issues exist, out of fear that a suggestion is taken as criticism of the superior (leading to 50 years of torture or early death), so then, the system will collapse over time easier under pressure from enemy spy agencies, as superiors don't see the system is dysfunctional due to 0 reports from subordinates; so, for a country to last, it needs to develop 0 torture, terror, fear; so, while being organized, focused on goals is good or efficient, when peaceful loving gentle tender soft healing☺ nurturing compassion for all are not the main vibe in spoken language, music, culture etc, long-term it leads to psychos becoming leaders who bring the civilization into decline via a reign of terror, sometimes created by spies remotely controlling puppet dictators, who want a country depopulated or eliminated from the map. ☺☺

Go to many restaurants off peak times, what do you see? Acting busy, wasting time. Same thing goes on in many businesses. Then people complain, the owner about filthy cities maybe, but employees didn't get a chance to make them nice, not allowed by the owner. There is no higher calling for the entire town, county, state, country, planet, everyone for himself like a jungle "as long as I get my paycheck or profit, nothing else matters, everything can collapse around me, it's my paper money that matters". This thinking makes living to 200 or trillion (like Immortalli did) way harder, maybe it takes 500 times longer, well after year 5000. Since many don't believe in organized lies of sometimes made up religions, the ethics void can be filled by the logical realization that to live to 200, we need 8 billion people to work together, this is not a project 3 or 3 million people can do easily in 25 years, it's a technological challenge unlike any other. All would allow employees to build workplace meditation room too. ☺☺☺

Finally, the acting "good believer" and busy dilemma is edging into a controversial aspect of our life, that of man made religions that lower IQ, increase gullibility and propensity to believe without any evidence, increase national security risks by making citizens extremely naive and unmotivated to develop high tech, being happy to just believe in fake miracles, remove any incentive to discover anything about living to 200 or much longer, since after all "all it's needed is to accept made up miracles of Jesus, Buddha or others, Mohamed, etc and all is good". Oddly, we have in France and USA, etc separation between church and state, yet churches, often being antiscience and anti life extension, get tax free status, and enrich the mega church pastor who doesn't really teach anything, except 1st century violence concepts and fake miracles for which no evidence exists. If church and state are separate, in Immortality capitalism, the tax free status of religions would be valid only when religions adhere to teaching how to achieve World Peace within months in every service for 30% of service duration (since we have not even reached kind animal stage yet, and we can kill 5 billion persons in minutes versus 1 person millennia ago when these religions were invented, so the need to transcend animalism is higher than ever to prevent extinction of humans) to help humans attain the kindergarten level of spirituality attained already by 500+ mammal species that don't kill their own, a minimal code of Immortality for All ethics, to prevent the lowering of the population IQ,☺☺☺ the subjugation of the naive, the destruction of the country by foreign agents using religion to bring national IQ to 0, inefficiency to infinity levels so we fall behind and our healthcare system is so primitive.

Besides 30% of service dedicated to World Peace, 20% of service is dedicated to qualities and methods (music, etc) that end all violent crime, 5% to the use of technology, video editing, lies and attention misdirection to fool people into believing miracles happened, to help people be less gullible, 10% to methods that end all covert torture, since violent crime and torture are the first step towards war and species extinction; there is no morality or ethics where violence and torture exist, so we start with the basics of spirituality, without ethics the country can't last. 10% dedicated to developing empathy for other humans suffering, so all work to help all be happy and achieve trillion year lifespans; 10% meditative states of happiness to reduce dependency on rituals of "wafer eating, water sprinkling, wine sipping, object worship, pills", etc..., 10% science of astral travel (via technology) and interdimensional and physical Immortality (physics, chemistry, etc), and 5% other free to choose by pastor topics, such as creating a culture of Immortality for All, gentle tender softness. Within the other %, the pastor has some freedom on which quality and method to focus, among the 80,000 approved educational topics for national IQ raising, instead of national IQ lowering by Sunday school brainwashing. These topics are in the Ethics of Immortals book, of half a million pages☺☺☺ at ethics.gov, which can be browsed by chapter online in html form, so pastors have no need to repeat it all, just refer people to their new Bible, ethics.gov, way more intelligent than 8 BC renderings of science illiterate men. We're close to the end of our species via WW III, see possible nuclear strike scenarios, due to bad scriptures, unrestrained media and historical inertia, as well as the mass brainwashing of 9 million soldiers to simulate killing other humans (kill viruses, aging, disease, not people; prepare to defend against natural disasters or aliens, not to kill people; make international agreement to stop all wars now, stop all violent military music and civilian music, all violence causing tones, etc) and degrade human quantum entanglement field, due to the world dictatorship of the military top brass who don't make World Peace in 1 year the priority of all media they control; so in a situation of emergency, we need to take bold steps to preserve humanity, or at least our country from the big military general bullies enslaving and terrorizing humanity. Actually, many nuns, staff in many religious places will love this, since Christianity talks of the New Earth where people live forever physically, so via technology this New Earth emerges, and via technology the New shimmering genderless shapeshifting Immortals Bodies emerge that live forever, so it's not anti-religion if you think about it, because to give trillion lifespans to all is the essence of spirituality, universal loving kindness, giving people more time to meditate, contemplate, pray, discover the true nature of God and avoid "hell". The truly spiritual will love this gradual peaceful loving gentle tender soft healing☺☺☺ evolution (no violence, no revolution) liberation from death focus, inefficiency, towards the Light Eternal of Immortality for All. We got Internet, we know Immortality has been way before Christianity as a dream and it doesn't belong to spiritual body only, nor is immortality given only thru Jesus, it can be created via technology we discover or God shares with his children.

On July 4th 1776, USA became, on paper at least, an independent country, not a slave colony of the Vatican and any organized religion group that undermines the very concept of intelligence, discernment, the scientific thinking that gave us all inventions that reduced mortality 500 fold or 1 million fold for many diseases. It was the lovers of reason and evidence based belief, like the Galileo the Vatican jailed and Bruno the Vatican killed, the lovers of the scientific method that led to these scientific discoveries, not the formal rituals that lower IQ and brainwash people that God needs physical matter, like gluten (in wafers) that causes diabetes in some or water to act as an intermediate to God's infinite energy to bless people, so as to make the population dependent on the priests who act as Italy's (or whoever controls Vatican today) agents in America. The present brainwashing going on for example in every daily Catholic service, with 15 min out of 30 being the ceremony of the eating of body and blood of Jesus (an America of cannibals? at least some Protestant denominations do it 3 times a year, not 365☺☺), the Nicaea creed where people repeat like parrots without any scientific (not faked by Vatican paid spies) evidence the most fantastical beliefs in Jesus having died, ascended, performed all miracles now we know can be easily staged (including miracles of Eucharist, they put blood (from chicken, etc, or these days from some blood bank) on a host or some chicken or cadaver flesh and then say it came there by some miracle, pure lies like that, recall Catholics were the richest☺☺☺ landowner in Europe, Big Business, high incentive to lie, 10 cents a meat piece and 10 million in Catholic donations, high profit, while destroying society as everyone thinks "if God can do this, he will also save me and take care of me, I need do nothing (the biggest lie), whole society stagnates, like in communism, nothing gets discovered and we become like Honduras", FBI never allowed to investigate these 'miracles', they know it's fake, at least for every claim of miracle, require churches to explain how miracles can be faked, as I do, to increase discernment, and leave it up to people to decide if it was real or fake; etc) - without asking for any proof, without any "may be" or "it may be true if we had evidence". ☺☺☺

4.5.4. Centralization of English only free Education using eterni tone of 1 Online Univ & 5K Unis plus 1 million Immortality Labs (research centers, school labs), Eterni Media, a 40 page chapter:

Each day until age 18, all will watch 1 ethics video and after age 1 be quizzed on it. This video will always remind all that "The Purpose of Life is not to Add 1 year to Your Life (a selfish choice), but to add 4 trillion years to All Humanity (a selfless choice), 4000 years for 1 billion people at least, first to the lifespan of nonkilling nontorturing immortalist nations who merged as the Immortalist Anthem Eternia nation". This first nation to implement the book is a special flame of Immortality for All, so they can teach in the video to add 4 trillion years to the nonkilling nation (not to serial killer psychos in some nations…) first, then to the humanity living by immortalist ethos, 11 companies, 1 language, etc. Kids need to be taught discernment: we don't want to add 900 years to torturers and killers in other nations, we don't want Hitlers, Stalins, Mao types to live long as they will kill 10x the people if they live 10x longer; so be patriotic, add a trillion to your immortalist nation and allies. After the ethics video kids are asked: "Write down how what we learned today in science, tech can help us add 9 trillion years to everyone's lifespan: we learned a chemical makes up tired, but tire particles are smog that kills and loud car noise kills, so we will buy used EV and research tires made of new materials that don't destroy lungs, organs and that make 40 times less noise. When you aim for adding 4000 years to every kind human, everyone creates a synergy that then gives all trillion year lifespans eventually. The present duplicating educational system requires recording 3000 types of nearly identical 8th grade chemistry classes in the average human trash tone, a huge waste of time. It has become a fad to have a huge quantity of different schools, instead of the only University, the Eternal National Online Immortality University with free centralized courses, of much higher quality, that any citizen can take at education.gov. The happy kind Immortality for All government can centralize education, offer 19 trillion quadrillion☺☺☺ courses $_{500}C_{15}$=500!/(485!*15!) = $19*10^{27}$ to choose from in college (see details in the next 40 pages), by a modular design to make everyone excited about living to a trillion years old and about ~~Eternal World and Universal Peace~~: one course (or more add-ons to the basic lessons, for more technical schools) of a specific type at every grade level, nursery, college, PhD that anyone can take, removing the need for 5000 different "1st grade" courses at 5000 kindergartens, 5000 colleges, schools and allowing instead the creation of 1 million Immortality sciences labs (mini-universities of research, which we can call unis, a new word in English to increase efficiency, national unity, and indicate it's a hybrid between a lab and a university, but a smaller university, so uni), throughout the country, so all kids and college students, PhDs can go there and research and then we eliminate so much redundancy and we increase physics, chemistry majors and RESEARCH positions 50 fold to design courses and lab physics, chemistry projects far better, and make it amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ and fun, World Peace in 3 months building and Immortality for All ushering. Since we got 1 basic freshman chemistry course, instead of 2000, its tone can be far more eterni, (can have 9 AIs or options for reading it in various sounding voices, males can choose male voices, females can choose female voices or if only one video version exists at first, we have 50% of courses with female speakers and 50% with male speakers at first, or perhaps, after many years of research, more of a gender voice if we find that one gender, after training to speak for 20 years, they get the most scientifically gentle tender soft healing nurturing loving kind voices who're proven to cause the highest activation of discernment, hypothesis thinking, creativity and gentle tender soft healing nurturing loving kindness in the audience, etc, but all eterni, you choose the one you like) leading to a far more intelligent species that activates the higher neutral centers of eterni thinking, emoting and maintains Peace for a trillion years after we reach WORLD PEACE in 3 months soon. Free daycare, kindergarten, free school for all, since daycare and kindergarten will use mostly online classes too on the huge 32 inch screen. In addition, for infants and toddlers, we get education.gov to provide the daily ethics video to watch from day 1 to age 14 of their life, parental version can be viewed at work in the lunch break. This is in the parent license section too. Toddlers will love the 2-3 hours of eterni tone (1000 times better than parental tone), the ethics of the Immortalist Anthem, the basis of a kind gentle nurturing happy civilization. ☺☺☺

For the first time in 100 years, the new generation has a lower IQ than the previous one, as nobody does their homework, cheating with AI. This is not a surprise, given that fists fly in all directions even at graduation ceremonies when students are supposed to be the most civil of their entire life, when street takeovers (eight 3 min videos: 1. five cops hurt, 2. beaches, 3. Latino illegals terrorize a street each weekend, 4. dealership cars vandalized: 2 min (Naef Salmo Syrian, both names are Arabic, hit some spectator US citizen in a terrorist attack or attempted murder disguised as car meetup: the Jewish Google Mafia gives the first hit for Naef Salmo search as a Swedish looking pic on the right (and falsely claims Naef and Salmo are mainly German and Swedish names, when in fact, most such people are Muslims: dig more for each name, Jewish agenda is to slaughter/enslave all by organized gentile-gentile violence leasing to one Jewish King for all Earth), even if the post shows an Arab, just like Google etc presents cases as "German, Brit, etc attacked people", without mentioning he was 100% Muslim fanatic, illegal Syrian, Afghan, Pakistani: think again before going to these takeovers to watch, the Sharia guys may run you over, they may even pose as Latino), 5. DC official "trying" to end takeovers, 6. bicycles takeover injuring innocent strangers 7. teens die at takeovers 8. 30 horrible crime videos of the police section) show a level of violence unthinkable in other nations, thanks to a KKK government that socially engineers violence (among parts of the working class, for max power of the elites) and wars for 3 centuries, via total control of the media, and super high violence in movies since 1910s and music, especially black music (KKK created the gangster rap via remote control of "artists", etc). To exterminate non-Brits, the KKK British, Jewish recipe (see Zion Protocols) for centuries has been to engineer cultural aspects that magnify violence via media, music and movies, to destroy national cultures and replace them with heavy metal-rap-gangster rap-pop trash made in UK-US or via copying US "music style", in this case street takeovers (blacks and Hispanics in US usually, who're aroused via secret accounts online to organize these, to give KKK pretext to arrest them) where they dance, jump as taught at concerts by our infernal celebrities paid millions to arouse youth to infernal levels of violence and the same dancing style at these demonic concerts financed by CIA-FBI-Pentagon who control all celebrities (who happily make millions or even billions by destroying USA and the entire planet) to arouse raw passion that is later used to fuel people's aggression and turn them into powerful mobs to terrorize the cities whenever the Rich need an event to distract from the $3 Trillion theft they do each year to build Palaces for the KKK Jew-Brit Elites of Maximum Slave (of all races, just not Brits or Jews) Beating as the Bible they force at Gunpoint on us, Deifies: Beating slaves to death is OK, as long as death is not sudden and gentiles can't clearly see Jewish abuse of gentiles killed them. This demonic dancing jumping style in street takeovers is the same seen at most US concerts modeled after Jewish Orthodox concerts of Demon sounding Rabbis who compete with Hitler in Infernal Violence of Tone, but hey Jews can be like Hitler, killing 5 million Ukrainians in 1933, but gentiles can't. 5 dollar bill dancing is the Culture Jews believe in, 5 for penta or pants, doll is the sex doll, go figure… we see the same leitmotif of Sex with 3 year olds of Talmud and ads for cars for kids going all to Orthodox Jewish matchmaking, day schools, summer camps. This is the face of "pious Orthodox Jews" you aren't supposed to see. The return on investment for these genocidal killers is huge, they give $5 billion/year to celebrities using tickets paid by all races, make lots of money from these "companies that organize concerts to destroy USA and all nations", and then the IQ lowered masses of slaves are so easy to dupe and chain by the Rich Killers. The music's purpose is to create a society of violent "snail IQ", ultra easy to dupe/jail folks, not to end violent crime, but to maintain its levels ultra high, 1 trillion times than it should be. The Demonic Aristocrats say they work for Peace, but secretly plots endless Violence. They're the most Machiavellian pieces of trash from Hell. Once the youth sees the sweet hanging fruit is merely a trap to chain and torture them for life, they will shun all this music, movies and fake news created by the Most Vile Jewish British trash on Earth.

People have huge egos and don't want to admit, they were cannibal chimps millions of years ago and that aggression is present in all music, even folk music in all nations, and we need a collective effort of introspection and self-analysis, self-criticism, to realize that this music is the full return and devolution of the human primate to a cannibal chimp, not evolution towards Immortality for All Music☺☺ and Culture of Nonviolence. To prevent the unification of the workers against the rich, the rich keep the workers addicted to low IQ things like violence, violent movies, sex outside procreation, violent music, vaping, smoking, alcohol, weed, wars, riots (always against another group of the working class, never against the aristocrat PALACES). This extreme terror of all nations and races becomes the Mayhem we have daily in the news, as devil possessed aristocrats (Jesus: Tim 6:10 "love☺☺☺ of money is the root of all evil" & Mk 10:25: all rich go to hell) work 24-7 to maintain their PALACES via war and infernal street violence we see daily. The Rich will kill even 8 billion to prevent the rise of an Immortality Credit Score society centered around Nonviolence, the core of Immortality for All, i.e. all rights are meaningless if you're dead. These street takeovers, sky high crime rates, violent music concerts, violent movies by the Hollywood Jews, etc are a modern form of the British, Portuguese, Muslim blowing of enslaved people by artillery gun to pieces, except now it's done covertly, by the rich mind controlling workers to kill fellow workers in out of control violent crime. The British General Washington saw thru war and riots he can become the USA King with his Freemason friends, so 1776 fake revolution replaced the UK Dictatorship of Monarchy with the Freemason Dictatorship. The change was cosmetic, of Master, not of substance as with the 11 companies or the real Independence Declaration. The Asians and Whites wrongly think that they're smarter, because they "don't do street takeovers to smash the cars, small businesses of fellow people of the same race like Blacks do etc". But no, the Rich are ultra clever, exactly as they use blacks to smash black small businesses in riots, they use white workers to destroy white workers via violent crime. All races are all equally stupid in other ways, because they fight like crazy other groups (created by the rich) within their own race or group, be them Democrats, Republicans, etc. The whole nation is engaged in all out hate, because the Rich create 10000 methods to stir hate within any nation or even racial group: straight vs LGBT, Republican vs Democrat, Male vs Female, feminists vs mysoginists, etc. The Rich need max tension, hate, raw emotion, as the media inflames daily, so a little match can start a national riot series, massive social unrest, for the tinderbox state society of slaves, to distract from the Rich's acts of theft or genocidal poisoning of the masses. Each time the truth comes to the surface or the rich are under attack, false flag violence is staged to distract. This won't stop until the workers realize who is coordinating this from the PALACES: THE ARISTOCRATS who fight 24-7 any real effort at creating a Family of Immortals☺☺☺ Culture of True Unity as with the 11 companies based on the nonviolent beautiful Immortalist Anthem, the guide of the global working class.

This lower IQ for the first time in generations is natural given that sex shop owners give sex classes in schools to 9 year olds in USA and to 0-18 year olds at their sex shop Mason's WinkWink Boutique at 9:30-11:30 PM June 1st 2026 "Queer Youth Open Mic Night", due to a government of pedophile rapists (anyone who promotes mass rape of kids as Word of God is a pedophile rapist, they swear on Bibles and have 0.4 million temples, synagogues, churches, dedicated, mosques dedicated to Bible-Quran) promoting a Bible full of mass rape of children quotes. Since LGBTQ sex among minors or minor gender change is a violent crime, she's inciting the least mature people to that, she deserves lifetime labor or even death penalty, same for all who encourage that for 0-18 year olds. Let these 'teachers' pick produce in California enclosed farms for life, to see how exciting it is. 10 million parents should sue her for destroying USA and cause her to pay a trillion$ in fines. Same for all other 10,000 similar "teachers". That's why we need a central education system, so none of these programs would exist. Check this one, parents can't view all medical records of their kids ages 13-18 in all states and DC, even in the military, so kids can choose to secretly engage in "unknown to parents categories" forms of care: change their gender, seek drug addiction care, mental health support, abort babies, etc without parental knowledge. This is from the Pentagon pedophiles folks, not from some leftist town in California, Pentagon allows all this crap. Every US politician praises Jewish culture, meaning they praise the rape of 3 year olds described in the Talmud, a book that should be banned, together with all rapist scriptures, like genocide quote rich Bible-Quran. USA has been run by Freemason pedophiles for far too long, rapists who promote the Bible, Quran, Talmud. No state bans sex outside procreation content, the solution to teen pregnancy and the way to bring rape rate to zero, instead they promote Sex, Condoms, Sex Education at 9 and Sex and the City on TV. All 50 states + DC allow minors to independently consent to sexually transmitted infection (STI) testing and treatment. Believe it or not, this is the USA, the Pentagon needs harems, kids to rape I guess!!! Why else would this be allowed? Pentagon controls everything: Rapists swearing on the Mass Rape Bible. 23 states + DC allow minors to consent to birth control services independently, restricting automatic parental record access. If Jewish MDs want to have some one on one sexual relations to practice Talmudic Law, parents not allowed inside or to know of any visit etc. Over 30 states allow pregnant minors to consent to prenatal care and delivery services independently, shielding those specific records from parental view. The vast majority of states allow minors to independently seek drug or alcohol treatment. The criminal US gov encourages drug abuse by this, instead of eliminating drug use via 11 companies reform to end all crime and inspect with 10 million dogs all the packages, letters, containers 10 times. We got lawyers, talkers and bandits in power, no real ethical people. Parents are genocidal spoiled pigs too, they buy dogs, instead of using those dogs to secure the nation from drugs. 90 million US dogs are enough to inspect every package and mail in North and South America and stop all drug use, but they don't care except about talking about "how great US is". Pathetic, arrogant, childish, "cabbage IQ" like: kids in adult bodies. In many states (New York, Georgia, Texas), a minor of any age (vs age 12-14 in 15 states) can consent to substance abuse treatment, immediately restricting parental access to those treatment records. Bandits took over USA folks, wake up. The MI6 cartels run USA. Just like they drugged millions of Chinese, they're now drugging Americans to take over again, using the same old friends, the Jews, like the Sassoon Jewish "billion dollar" family. The reason this happens is so adults can rape kids and then parents not know about it, if they ever get pregnant and need to abort without parental knowledge. Folks, homeschool your kids (lots of online resources)☺☺☺ until we replace this genocidal Pedophile Democrats-Republicans government of "mass rape" bandits, via the victory of the Immortalists and decent people in future elections. If we had one centralized education, with every parent (via parent license) required to watch lessons, before they try to conceive a kid, with kids watching ethics lessons daily since age 0 to 18, we would have different results: animal monkey humans would be transformed into actually thinking humans who think 10 times before they "do stuff".

The Demon-crats have become the Pedophilia Center of Planet Earth, and Republicans, Churches, Synagogues, Mosques the junior helpers in making pedophilia legal. It's crazy to have churches, synagogues promote texts that describe human sacrifice of kids, babies, eating of boiled kids (missing kid cases?). Perhaps, the hidden intent of these Demon-crat and religious politician bastards is to have an unlimited supply of your kids to rape, boil and eat. Those all "holy Jewish rabbis" love to make babies suffer and suck their blood (video 1, video 2, video 3, rabbi cuts entire penis by accident, other videos) out of their trimmed penis, infecting kids, circumcision they now imposed on 80% of male kids by pretending to be atheist Democrats and Christian Republicans in the Jewish takeover of the USA since 1890s that is advancing more daily, until all gentile kids will be having penises sucked, trimmed by rabbis. Isn't it time to take back USA from these Orthodox Jewish monsters and ban such ritual satanic abuse disguised as

"religion"? How can genocide, rape promoting texts get taxpayer funds and tax free status? They're organized terrorist organizations like ISIS. It's time to vote them out and let the Immortalist Party win 99% of the vote and change the Constitution to Declare our Independence from the Freemason Rapists. Anyone doing such penis sucking that infected 11 babies and killed 2 babies with herpes, should be deported to Israel, as a violent criminal guilty of a rape level crime, which in immortalism means death penalty. Let them live and escape to Israel, the Land of Masochism and Child Abuse. Masonic temples promote violent crime in ritual content and indirectly, genocide and mass rape via the "scripture praise". Using the disguise of suits ("respectable politicians") and clergy robes, they hide their pedophilia and praise of the rapist Bible-Quran, pretending they don't know the scripture content. Sadly, this "lower academic test score IQ" of the present generation is not compensated by a higher "innovation IQ", as in doing research, on how to live 40x longer, kids simply do "rat IQ" extracurricular activities while becoming less intelligent. The IQ is more of an academic IQ, not a research innovation IQ, so it doesn't directly affect innovation as much as the innovation IQ itself that is not measured, since sports, concerts and other "donkey IQ" activities replace research that needs to occur since age 8 given the AI opportunity to develop a "whole forest big pic" thinking, instead of tree thinking of excessive memorization, you need a bird's eye view of all biochemical pathways for example to make humans live to 4000. With the donkey IQ of TV-radio it's hard to expect the youth to increase IQ, when fruit fly IQ adults run all nations and their TV-radio stations, so different from immortalityTV. The rich get free college admission... merit has no meaning, only money. National Science Board of 22 people in 2026 and before never had 1 single member dedicated to 4000 year lifespan techs, when all members should, with PhD theses on such topics and majors, techs. Then, Democrats protest all were fired, while they offer more of the same. You can't achieve 4000 year lifespan if nobody even talks about it: no biography talks about this, when all of them should. Department of Justice found "Yale's use of race resulted in a Black applicant being as much as 29 times higher odds of getting an interview for admission than an equally strong Asian applicant with similar academic credentials." So, is that Equality? No, so in the future, there is only 1 university for theory classes (same courses for all) and some 1 million labs, and race is unknown and irrelevant, because the only criteria is their test scores at the lab and theory exams, plus Immortality Credit Score, which doesn't look at race or gender.

Today, on multiple choice SAT like exams, boys outperform girls or get same result (since it's blind to the gender), but if the same knowledge is tested in class (present education racist system), girls get A, boys B, since girls are more compliant, still and "yes sir" type, so the teacher views them as more well behaved (dictators, teachers, like loyal, not competent people) and more like self (female teachers being majority). Females make up 85% of primary school teachers, 75% middle school, 60% high school, go figure why now GPA for females is 8% higher, when if objective test was taken, it may be actually lower, so then 58% of college undergrads are female vs 42% in 1970, all due to the change in genders for teachers. 58% of college admissions officers are female, because we need useless jobs, instead of innovation. With the online system, everything is evaluated by the computer, no more human prejudice. No wonder 58% of undergrads are female. Female equality right there, men get 70% of workplace accidents, as they get the most deadly jobs and take the most stressful jobs, and roles, so they obviously live shorter by 5 years. Highly equal. Go to the Equality section to see real equality. The Jewish plan is to destroy nations via feminism in a simple way: women have smaller brains (smaller similar computers have lower computational power, big desktop is faster) and less of the analytical brain needed to catch spies and defend the nation, since nature makes women more nurturing and trusting, to be able to breastfeed the baby, etc. By destroying men, Jewish takeover of societies is far easier, as women are more naive. Solution: home schooling, let boys invent stuff, start companies like the 11, join the Immortalist party, and let "snail IQ" folks with degrees memorize stuff. A society can live to 900 without any college degree, via self-learning and research, while another society, following Jewish manipulation, can have 3 PhDs for every citizen and die at 80 still. Our society focuses on titles, degrees, salary and looks, not on actual results: are we creating Life at 9000 or death at 80? The aristocrats want trusting docile "rat IQ" folks in power, for maximum manipulation. For every crime there is a response, let boys invent how to live to 4000 and female teachers how to grade females higher, as if GPA has any meaning at all. Parents don't need the "nematode worm IQ" or religious teachers to "educate them" on how to make kids discover living to 4000, anyone motivated studies on their own with parental help and online resources and many graduate from MIT or a college at age 18, though that isn't even needed to discover more than 10 Nobelists combined from one's own home. Moreover, we raise a generation of "filif gnat IQ clowns" who go to college to feel important and better pay (greed that is, same reason most people become MDs, to make 20-80 times the minimum federal wage), and get another useless paper and title, because in the real world they often don't apply anything from college almost, and die as an insect at 80 still, having wasted 4 years, instead of doing research from age 13 on how to live to 4000 as this chapter explains the reform of education☺☺☺. Our society is focused on appearance, makeup, phony degrees and never on actual results of longevity (if you're dead, nothing else matters): how did we use science to triple lifespan? ☺

The GPA has no meaning either, you just are better at sweet talk, mirroring the teacher's quirks and manners to be liked and get better grades, or better at memorizing, and that's about it, or worse, you're the same race, gender, political beliefs, personality, diet, musical taste, as teacher, so you get A- while others get C+ for the same thing, for not being "the ideal student". The current grading system for students is pathetic at BEST. To create a society of "fruit fly IQ folks" who have no critical thinking skills and super easy to dupe, cheat, enslave and abuse, the kids are crowded, pressured with endless homework or activities, so they can't even sleep much: they're programmed to be robotic machines listening to the next command. Where is the system promoting those who invent stuff that works to make mice or dogs or rabbits live 50 times longer, to show how they may do the same in people? The system promotes "cabbage IQ" folks who "kiss ass and memorize", it's pathetic, we need innovation, not robotic machines chasing for whatever degree makes more money. The innovation focus is nowhere, pathetic, wasting centuries with phony "progress" cliches. What innovation? You went to make flavors, colors, texture compounds for some criminal company. Many women are very racist (sexism is a form of racism basically), my primary school teacher gave 1st prize only to girls for years. Everyone needs to calm down and realize they're being manipulated by enemies in order to create male-female friction. We're all genderless souls, Immortals, pure intelligence, temporarily having these forms due to low tech, until the high tech era of shapeshifting. It's the human biology, people favor people of the same quantum signature, due to their stupidity and biological programming of filif IQ, 1 trillion times lower than etlif IQ. The Immortalist Anthem explains to all chimps that one day we'll become shimmering genderless shapeshifting Immortals, but not all understand. So what we have with the current exam system is favoritism and incorrect employee evaluations (attractive people get higher salaries, promotions, nations, companies fail), student grades, court decisions. To remedy this, all testing, grading must be automatic and blind to someone's appearance, gender, anything: all humans are racist like all animals seen to favor those looking like them (we are animals, we live a little longer than chimps, we select based on how like us others are; real humans live to a trillion, we're 1 trillion times dumber than those guys), they favor people of their own race, first/last name (indicating ethnicity, if Jewish or not), appearance, gender, religion (how many crosses, hijabs, etc does student wear, should be illegal in all labs to prevent prejudice in lab grading). No more stupid "classroom participation", that's irrelevant, the more stupid one is, the more one talks, see chapter 8. A telepathic society doesn't talk. All learn online, and grading people's social skills is not grading, of course female teachers will be more approached in class by female students, guys will talk less so will get lower grades. If you're a female and teacher is male, you talk less in class, because it's easier to approach teacher of the same gender. To grade class participation is to discriminate against boys who get 6 times less teachers of their gender in class in primary school. This "class participation" is incredibly stupid, and impractical with online learning. We focus on Life, achieving Lives of 90000 years by Thinking, research, NOT TALKING..., not theater. We talk in the labs (starts with 1st grade), without grading, as we design Hypothesis Formulation and Testing Experiments to Design a Longer Life product. Everyone is trained to become a Tesla from age 3. No more bullshit. School is not an acting job. ☺☺☺ Most teachers will be jobless or work in labs or research, as Computer Systems do all grading. Right now, the system creates many times more teachers than needed, all teachers will be in labs, will retrain. The video will have a lecture tone and quality far better than 99.999% of teachers today. We select that top 1 in 50 million people voice, based on neuroscience of discovery and eterni. Teaching is a lot less stressful than mining, welding and construction, you live longer, giving fake grades. ☺☺☺

All lab grading has to be automated 100% eventually, to prevent any grading by the teacher based on his favorite clothing color, music or political preference overheard during lab break, etc, the instrument samples of the lab are measured and the score is coming from the only grader nationwide, the Immortality Education Agency,☺ per test results of chemical synthesis, video of the physics experiment, etc. All grading, evaluation, sentencing has to remove "be like me to get good score" tendencies due to beliefs, behavior (sports, diet, clothing, makeup, etc), personality (the closest to you a student or offender is, the higher the grade and lower the jail sentence). Nobody will have any doubts about grading or be able to complain, since the answers to the multiple test questions etc are listed on education.gov after each test and you know how you answered them, they won't judge your hotness, how many sex sessions you had with teacher, or dates, or how your hair color or breast size is. Since most teachers are female, they grade female students higher than male students, as they like them more, even though in an SAT like test females may score equal or lower. Guys behave differently and are more frequently called ADHD, sometimes, being medicated for a little restlessness due to listening to Jewish demonic music posing as gentile singer music, by Jewish MDs working with Jewish teachers to exterminate gentiles.☺☺ Don't be fooled, Jews know how to con the system, that's why now they now give Jewish first, last names to kids, the total Jewish takeover of USA plan is well underway.☺☺ The name is instruction to teachers to grade higher.☺☺☺ This is why courts will change too, lawyers, judges, etc can't know any detail about the victim or offender, as then they will use prejudice to give inaccurate grades on ethics, giving sentences 10 times longer to gentiles. The current educational system invites covert sexism, racism of all types. All admissions are by the Immortality Education Agency, all Universities dissolve, to end this system of aristocratic gangsters giving themselves millions in salaries for raising a society of "ant IQ clowns". If they pass the entrance exams, they enroll in college, admissions don't know gender, race. With 11 companies instead of 33 million, and 1 primary, middle and high school system (all listen to the same accent and tone since age 0, to create national unity: one accent of English for all, to prevent issues with "me versus that awful accent") instead of 50000 schools, you can finally implement an objective employee evaluation and promotion that is "blind" to the protected categories that humans can't fully separate from their brain when grading, because such a system is so expensive that small companies can't afford it. A small company and high school has no resources to implement what would cost billions to fully develop. You either want democracy or just greedy "toad IQ"☺☺☺ folks trying to steal everything, get as many titles, fake degrees, etc to steal as much money by whatever position where they pretend to help society.

Oh, how the tune will change for these "education enthusiasts" when all pay is the same universally, no more 80x the minimum wage or 1000 for a CEO, then what will they do? How are they aiding the human quantum field, besides stealing as much money as possible by chasing high GPA to make 80x the money another makes but helping society in zero ways in reality?? Nobody will rush to get any useless degree once no better pay is given, you'll see the "scholar pretense" drop in no time, people are such liars and hypocrites. Our societies are shifting towards pretense, appearance, substance is lost: look at ladies' makeup, guys muscle obsession. We have built a society of beautiful stupid ants dead at 80, instead of Immortals living to 80 trillion. This is what we get when animalism takes precedence over science, truth: everyone pretends to be helpful, to care about humanity☺☺, but in reality almost everyone chases money, title, degree, at least partially or not so consciously for the "best of humans". Like chicks rushing towards corn seeds, they chase in mindless ways whatever pays the most without any regard to anything, like living to 4000. We have created a society of retards whose only aim in life is money. As if a paper piece helps anyone to live to 4000. Pathetic. More makeup please? No, Immortality Credit Score. You either focus on making everyone chase money, or make everyone chase discovering how to make all humans live to 4000. If you want people to chase the points in making all live to 4000, you can't give material advantages to certain professions, only longevity supplements to those who have truly contributed to advancing longevity science, because otherwise everyone will major in biochemistry to get a high pay and then do nothing. It has to be results focused, otherwise you end up with the same crap as today where one guy makes 3 times less for 10 times the stress in other jobs. Today, people chase degrees to make 2-80 times more pay than 15K/year federal min wage, even if they don't care at all about anyone living to 90 on average or 900 or 90000. So the system is evil, stupid, retarded, obsolete. People will go at great length to pretend they became MD to "help others", or whatever. ☺☺☺

The Wireless Brain Cancer thanks to Google, Apple, Samsung, HP, Nokia, Microsoft generation Z scores less on science and writing tests, the first generation to get lower score than the previous generation, due to criminal companies promoting brain destroying microwaves, WiFi 2.4 GHz in every school, instead of wired connections and focus, zero phones for minors except a phone with one function only, 911, for emergencies, as promoted by many for 15-20 years.☺☺ Kids are distracted by 20 social media networks and the phones and can't get focused on any one area of science/tech, as the new education with tentative majors since age 10-14 explains. Most kids are scattered and sleep deprived, tortured by psycho teachers who emphasize sex education and cannibal sports born of the Psycho Judeo-Christian Torture Obsessed Violent Thug Mind, instead of STEM, selfless Ethics, Anthem of living to 4000+ and Eternitone Culture.☺☺☺ The "worm IQ" ☺☺ teachers stress the kids with endless extra curricular activities, while learning is a second afterthought. Libraries carry books about "love is conditional on condom sex" at age 14, hear excerpts, approved by the demonic military, CIA-FBI who control every aspect of US life (similar books in 1000s of school libraries: teachers ask students in class to describe who they will have anal sex or oral sex with, etc, teachers teaching LGBT sex to 8 year olds 3 times weekly, the fantasies of US Presidents and Secretaries of War on Ethics who allow Bohemian Human sacrifice Simulation (Al Gore, etc attended it), and such a rapist genocidal educational system, phonies posing as 'Christians' on Fox News agency of Stealing Billions (millions in salary for bullshit) for Spreading lies instead of teaching sex for procreation only ethics without the Jesus crap? These criminals who ran USA for 250 years don't want their rape-killing-theft networks exposed, so all major news networks (where gangsters get paid millions to lie to us) don't cover all these 100s of youtubes about what happens in schools (could they be part of these pedophile and violent crime networks?), CIA-FBI-military don't centralize and unify police and education to bring decency and end violent crime in 2-5 years). Parents devolved into orangutans, cheering kids in Hitler tones as the kids destroy their brains with basketball, football, beauty salons.☺☺☺ Instead of building healing centers to replace prisons, parents shout and watch a ball move, teaching kids to be gorilla like in tone and intelligence. The☺☺ cannibal chimp inside parents shines Brightly and kids emulate the 'gnat IQ' parents, teachers. Kids can't even sleep the required amount which is far more than 8 hours for the average fat 'chicken IQ' US adult☺, made 'low IQ' by toxic food and cow IQ "geniuses"☺☺☺ on TV whose goal is earning 40-2400 times the min pay for hard working scientists while making everyone as "fruit fly IQ"☺ as possible with their trash, anti-Eterni tone, unscientific fraudulent content or occasional fake science. Education has no meaning if you're dead, so the first thing in education is nonviolence (via gentle tender soft healing nurturing loving kind eterni speech and melody tone, not the clergy tone of death: pastor, rabbi, imam, Hindu, Buddhist) and no guns.

Singapore has 280 times fewer guns/capita than US and 280 times lower gun homicides/capita than USA. In the US, where every nutjob has a weapon, people pull a rifle on clerks because "pizza is not hot and ready", streets become like war zones. The extreme violence in USA, with 56 times more gun homicides per capita (5.6 vs 0.1) vs Switzerland (which has about the same % of households with a gun: US 52% vs 28%), is a direct result of the tone and content of US "education" (brainwashing by Jews), music and infernal movies. Switzerland got 2.7 suicide gun deaths/100K, 0.1 homicides, showing how guns do more harm than good. Singapore has 80x fewer guns/capita than Switzerland, 5x lower (0.02) gun homicide rate than Switzerland or 280 times lower than USA.☺ All nations with high guns/capita have 10-100 times higher gun suicide/capita, which shows how criminal such governments are: they commit genocide. US is the world leader, in gun ownership/capita☺ and violent music, movies, education. As the US, so the world, World Peace can't happen until US "culture" changes, meaning the US "education".

Education eliminates all violent crime when it is good. Free centralized education includes free educational ethics, nutrition videos for kids and parents during and after the 222 weeks time off for new parents. See US college students can't do 3rd grade multiplication, showing why all 5000 colleges need to be transformed into research centers specialized in different areas, with all theory being learned online, via video lectures, via one universal online university, with same knowledge tests each 3 months for each grade level, age 2 to postdoc to ensure all have the basic knowledge before they graduate. The for profit education is a disaster. Germany, Norway, Finland, Iceland have free education from primary to PhD. Before 1905, 20% of Nobelists were young folks who did most work by age 30, today, schools have become farms of rat IQ creation, as kids are forced to devolve into 18th century folks, who add 0.1 years to average lifespan instead of 2 as in the 1910s, with endless sports, extracurricular activities of cow IQ, instead of enjoying learning math/physics from 9 to 29, get Nobel at 25, when brain is fastest, healthiest and largest 40-70 hours a day, wasting endless time with "bureaucracy", exams in useless disciplines that really, won't help them at all make a real breakthrough, like you need to master all biochemical programs (easier if you write by hand on a 20" tablet or screen that is so thin, no EMF damages the hand, handwriting students performed 20% better, perhaps also due to laptop WiFi brain damage) to determine how to 40x lifespan in worms, mice, rabbits, chimps, humans or create superluminal craft. In 1900s, we added 2-3 years to human lifespan, today we add 0.1 years, we devolved as specialization was fought. ☺☺

Like with every industry in the US, corruption and greed reign supreme in the education industry, with university presidents making millions, Stephen Klasko $8.4 million in 2020. These pigs rarely teach any ethics and nutrition, only basic stuff to get brainwashed into Freemasons Steal Everything Capitalism, and then reward themselves with huge salaries obtained by stealing taxpayer billions in federal aid. MIT didn't teach any ethics or nutrition or self-care, only stuff for slave engineers to make weapons for Freemasons and other conmen to enslave all humans. On top of that, these so called "universities" teach nothing but violent music or "cow IQ scriptures that reduce human IQ to that of a rat". That's why we need end these thieves and gangster run universities and centralize it all. Imagine if instead of one Windows OS we had 5000, like 5000 colleges. Each OS has 5000 times fewer programmers, so the quality is horrific. This is US today, hooligan run universities, quality of sewage bacteria IQ. Florida Thieving Thug Republicans fired a 350K college president and put a Re-thug-lican paid 1.3 million to ruin the college with cigar smoking and sports teams, in line with the Trump's 'evil' administration of endless sports teams tweets, as if USA needs stadiums and sports, when already we got 5000 times more sports facilities than we need. Trump had 4 years 2016-2020 with his military friends (who had 80 years to fix it) he represents to fix border wall, and then blamed Biden for "20 million illegals coming", all lies, since militaries control all parties in all nations via fake elections, all they do is lie to the people using whoever the military installs as puppet liar (president, etc) in chief. Trump is diminishing the education department, when it ought to be the biggest US agency/department. Aristocrats want low IQ slaves they can con and steal trillions from, hence Trump is against education centralization. This explains why America is so primitive and backwards: the greediest are incentivized to rule education, like with medicine, not those with the highest Immortality Credit Score. Many become high school teachers because of a 100K nice salary, not because they're the best for that. How can these conmen make 557 times more than the federal minimum wage for a college nobody heard of, and even for any college? Thus, education is more of a conman industry, where the nation's, humanity's interest are secondary at best. Faced with endemic fraud, we have no choice but to bring real reform. This explains why USA high schoolers is # 40 in science and math tests worldwide. The next 28 pages deal with the centralization and total reform of US education to create a choice of 20 trillion quadrillion online modular courses (you take course from home, parents can watch kid studying from work any time, via home wired cameras, and exam online from home, multiple choice test, a lot of choices, so you can't cheat, can't have time to dig for answers in textbooks), 900 times more research from age 9 to 22. This enables students to go to school only for the labs/research (one 8 hr day/week depending on grade level) and gives parents the same level of kid protection☺☺☺ received by the homeschooling conservative parents. With wearable LiFi (not WiFi, to prevent RF) phones fore parents at work and cameras on kids if visiting the lab classes, parents can watch any time (back, shoulder sides and front) to protect kids and give them 4 extra eyes. This enables parents to talk to kids via LiFi any time and to prevent association with evil kids at school or evil influences that try to "sexualize and turn into LGBTQ, smoker, caffeine user, alcohol drinker, sex/violence movies fan any kid/adult", prevent Jewish brainwashing about Talmud "sex with 3 year olds", Torah part of the Bible, etc.

Parents can access kid phone and prevent watching anything with semi-naked ladies TV ads for alcohol, nicotine, useless drugs (instead of counting calories with a scale and food Excel file) etc. Imagine no more filthy classrooms with horrible air quality, where lazy school staff won't do anything to improve air flow, except microwave, damage students' heads with WiFi classrooms like in concentration camps. The 1st century Bible education (meaning "modern") lovers or the skeptics of centralization, say kids won't study at home, which is false, you can't pass any multiple choice test daily unless you study, an emergency alert goes to parents if the test after each 1 hour lecture got a low score, and daily scores are sent to parents and teacher responsible for those kids in the labs. Thus parents won't have to police anything, and don't need watch kids 24-7. Kids know what is expected of them and no more school fights, bullies, since all know parents watch via LiFi. Obviously, since all parents get 222 weeks off, one parent is with the kids any day of the week until age 8 (no more state laws, all states, counties, cities dissolve, one law for all USA, kids can be alone at home since every kid has all these cameras in the house, etc) while they study in their room. There will be 0 violent crime by new death penalty for serious violent crimes and lifetime labor for minor violent crimes, so mom can work weekends, dad during the week, so one parent is home with the kid 4 days of any week after age 8. The other 3 days, kid is alone a few hours, which is normal in most civilized nations where violent crime is 10-100 times lower than Jew run USA. Since schools are like concentration camps (to enslave generations: watch 1 min on how aristocrats keep the 95% in a jar) where crazy students can shoot anyone, per the demonic gov policy of "guns for every insane guy or parent", this 4 directions LiFi camera becomes a must for monitoring kids at school in the one weekly day of labs, and the online system reduces school commute from 5 days a week to 1, reducing congestion, accidents, etc. Since many parents are insane and forget to secure guns, causing 400 shootings a year in USA alone, all parents need to have an electronic safe that is automatically inspected by a wired camera of the National Police Department, the one and only, to confirm guns are in there when kids go to school, to prevent school shootings. Social life at school revolves around the Immortalist Sports (Community Service) of Building the World of Immortals which are organized same day of the labs, for an 8 hour day. Each student is free to choose an area to try learn more about and then go to the National Unis labs for research 4-40 hours a week, depending on his interests and passion for discovery, thus socializing with other students in these extra curricular activities of research and building devices to help the customers of the 11 companies serving all USA. Parents can also attend on their laptop the online version of any school side labs, to catch up with education or if viewing is enough for them to pass the lab in person test they want to add to their resume. Kids who have perfect lab/theory grades can skip basic labs if they're too far away or if they're 5-60 months ahead of the others in that subject, due to their 30-40 hours middle/high school research projects with the PhD students at the Unis. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Today's religious schools and churches, synagogues, temples etc are like IQ 75 mentally insane people in this video where the lady says "I have done nothing wrong", and yet these same mentally retarded clergy and related staff claim that "Teaching genocide, mass rape, stealing all from others, slavery, sex slaves, cannibalism as being from 'God' or ethical is noble". Why do cops have to deal with so many crimes? Because TV-radio teaches no ethics, no consequences of theft or crime, 9000 times the amount stolen and lifetime labor or death penalty for violence. How can this Bible-Torah-Quran incitation to genocide, rape, theft not be wrong? But how can society accept this Jewish garbage as scripture and as a religion to receive taxpayer status? It's because of these filif salamander IQ☺ pastors that we have no central education, and so much war and violent crime for 5000 years of their mouse IQ religions. Today, the criminal decentralization (any 0 IQ guy can OK the publishing books without a central office to approve all books) means the most depraved books are not only published in USA, but available in the school library, video shows the sexual brainwashing. Any book, movie, lyrics with criminal activity ought to be banned.☺☺☺ Some of the world's most dangerous rapists disguise themselves as redundant teachers, clergy, university professors, criminal librarians (video shows the most abysmal IQ sex books by the library entrance). Who needs their depraved tone when we centralize tone to prepare the planet for one language, one accent, 11 companies? A third video shows what sex programming kids go thru in decentralized education. Parent complains about an evil book at the library using moron, retard words. These books ought to be illegal, their authors ought to receive lifetime labor for instigation to rape. All kids need to be taught the basics of sex for pro-creation only in a victory over Bible mass rape Religion. US education is catastrophic today. Centralization enables happy USA to declare its independence from the Mass Rape Bible Quotes & endless pedophile clergy/teachers, the sex with 3 year old in Talmud Dictatorship of the Jews over gentiles in USA, enables US to move away from the 1st century deadly violent Jewish ☺abysmal IQ☺ of Mass-Rape Genocide Praising Bible-Quran "scriptures" of Judeo-Christian-Islamic US "civilization" that keeps America backwards, infantile, miracles credulous, full of violent crime. Civilization begins when violent crime is 0, when honesty is prevalent (facts = verified by 50 unfakable sources and accurate science studies).

Running 70000 types of schools, Catholic, Baptist, Muslim, "Sex with 3 year olds" Yeshivas is not smart. In Jewish Torah, i.e. Old Testament of the "rape/genocide manual" called Bible, Moses calls for rape of all virgin girls after Jews loot/kill everyone else, like Islam's mass rape of any infidel Mohamed (Moses' Twin Soulmate) or his followers lust for. Atheist schools are often run by rapists too, even some who teach sex work (Princeton University), impersonating the opposite gender. None of the existing schools do a good job, they defy the US Constitution by Joining of Jewish mass rape quotes "religion" & State, when religion and State ought to be Separate, plus redundancy at the extreme, with no school offering Immortality Sciences labs, RESEARCH centers and no eterni tone in lectures. USA is not a Jewish Colony, or at least it shouldn't be. Though the numbers tell a different story: US Jewish population increased 32% in 2015-2025, while white population decreased 10% in the USA. The Jew run educational system tells gentiles to have sex, drink, have pets, do drugs, while the Jews have kids. Will we take America back from the rapist Jewish Bible gang? No church or place of worship ought to run any school. Especially so, when we have the Bible, Quran, Torah, Talmud encourage RAPE OF KIDS. Education is run by the state in cooperation with the parents supervising kids at home, religion and state are separate, AND OBVIOUSLY Christianity, Islam, Judaism are not religions, but cults to justify genocide and rape of kids/adults. Why should terror groups run our education? We're not a colony of Mecca, Israel or Italy. We're USA, free to create our own spirituality, anthem/scripture, philosophy of Life, free from Abrahamic religions. USA is # 40 in math and science, as kids read the ☺bulldog IQ☺ Bible and how to suck penis in libraries instead of science, as the 3 videos above show. You become "as low IQ as the people around you" is a science fact. The more you read the Bible/Torah/Quran, the more you lower your IQ, like the people from 2000 years ago, it's like hanging out with savage Neolithic men. Here is the proof.

We have tried the ☺abysmal IQ☺ religions for 5 millennia, isn't it time to try something different, like 1000 times more ethics on Radio-TV, Internet sites, youtube, central education, 12 hour ethics on TV during the State of Emergency to Bring Violent Crime to 0? If their ultra vile violent scriptures and traditions and spiritual rituals are so powerful, how come the "divine clergy" haven't been able to turn one single nation into a heaven of 0 theft/violent crime? Buddhist Japan got no Bible (Torah)-Quran based educational schools and 100 times lower homicide than many Christian nations, and lower homicide than any Christian nation (excluding tiny 5-85K people city-island-states with 20-99% Christians). Japan got 50 times lower homicide rates than most large Muslim nations, yet no Bible-Quran nonsense. So, if the Bible, Torah, Quran were so useful for education, so close to the God of Kindness, how come, countries never teaching this violent Bible-Torah-Quran garbage reach 50-500 times lower homicide rate? Mostly Buddhist (+ no religion) Singapore homicide rate is lower than all 53 Muslim majority and 120 Christian majority nations, 23 times lower than Israel Torah (Bible Old section) based state, and 500 times lower than many 70-99% Christian nations, 7 times lower than Italy, world's most Christian nation. This proves Jesus, Christianity are Pure Italian Mafia Frauds, as are all Protestant, Catholic schools and universities in the USA. Even Qatar has 500 times lower homicide rate than many Christian nations, lower than all Christian nations, showing how useless the Bible is. They claim theirs is the Religion of Cosmic Love, of the Fake Miracle Holy Deception Spirit who transforms humans into 'angels'. But the results speak for themselves. Why should the USA allow violent gangsters claiming Violent Genocide/Rape is Ethics, to run our education? Are we hostages to gangs of Israel, Rome, Mecca or a FREE NATION? Religion and education need to be separate, per US Constitution. Education is what creates 0 violent crime, it failed, so we need total revamp of the criminal fraudulent system. We don't teach physics from 1st century or 7th century books, or any science subject, why should ethics be from those times? We don't teach physics from 1850, why should Anthem be from then?

The lady in the insanity video missed 2000 hours of basic ethics education as a kid. Not the sloth IQ "genocide, mass rape, theft, beatings, slavery" ethics in these violent shouting, singing churches, but real Immortalist Ethics as in the Immortalist Anthem & decent scriptures. You don't steal people's money by promising afterlife BS that will never happen or no proof exists it will happen, then create violent/cow IQ music, tell folks genocide, mass rape are ethics. Yet this is what most clergy do in the US, brainwashing us fake miracles were real too. These frauds, ☺ abysmal IQ☺ clergy suck trillions from the US tax base that can remake education, prevent crime before it happens, improve innovation 100 fold. Too many Italian, Arab, Jewish jokers turned US into a third world country of low IQ folks and puppets unable to even bring violent crime to 0.☺☺☺ In immortalist centralized education, every baby and his parents, listen to an ethics video daily, of eterni tone speech/singing for the rest of their life. Ethics classes are at least 20 min/day with a 2 min quiz (no quiz for infants who engage in passive listening), to ensure adults know more ethics than a philosphy (specialized in ethics), Pope or Divinity School professor. To avoid boredom, this 20 min includes a 15 min meditative bliss for grown up adults, to relax, heal. All are informed during the emergency state of 15-20h ethics on TV of lifetime labor for violence.

The immortalists are as different from communists and capitalists, as day of Eternal Grace and Ethics is from the night of same. In communism, no ethics or religion, nor health or wellbeing were taught. In immortalism, ethics and BLISS are first and the center, the most cherished (relaxing, playing with your brain) moment of the school day (any day for adults who choose to continue this till age 5 trillion for highest brain health and Immortality Credit Score), where we meditate 15 minutes (simple effortless conscious breathing the bliss of Eternal Immortality for All to bless all beings and feel ecstatic), record in the most eterni tone an ethical teaching and a positive statement for 1 minute (the words used in these sentences are qualities humans lack and also common words that when spoken in a good tone recalibrate the emotional brain to reduce aggression and cortisol level that ages brains, bodies, catecholamines that lead to poor decision making, to negative emotion building that leads to theft, crime, violent crime and wars), read aloud to ennoble refine tenderize soften smarten (hypothesis tone, not "fact shouting tone, as if you know it's true when you have NO proof") our thinking, emoting, speaking tone. The tone of not knowing is the tone of a scientist: it looks like, from the 50 unfakable evidence sources, that this hypothesis may be true. Did we make any cognitive error, what do you think? Students spend 16 minutes, 15 min meditation and 1 min recording, with the brainwaves reader for 2 min only: the 1 min speech and the last 1 minute of the 15 minutes the headset is placed on to measure the bliss, as that minute is the highest bliss and activation of brain centers, to avoid distractions and make people used to the headset free eyes closed earplugs on maybe if at home, lying in bed to avoid brain resources wasted with standing or sitting, since all classes are online except labs. The microphone near mouth records verbal tone, providing feedback on brain health daily and Immortality Credit Score update reflective of one's meditative practice and lighting up of compassion and bliss brain areas, and tone quality. After that, students watch an immortalist tone video with ethics concepts to conclude the daily 25 minutes dedicated to Positive Emotion, Ethics and Eternal World Peace Maintenance. This creates very peaceful emotionally positive smiley serene content students who're a trillion times less likely to engage in theft, alcohol, smoking, sodas, coffee, drugs, violence as the meditation is a million times happier and parents are forbidden to buy or serve those to kids. Students are encouraged to do this meditative breathing (known as the immortalist greeting of the human information field) etc 20 times daily (even if for only 1 min or less at a time) to maintain a smiley compassionate united with all human beings happy state always, like an Immortal spiritual being who holds in his light quantum field (a sphere the size of Earth) all humans, as a mother holds her 2 babies, he embraces all humans with tender affection holding all close to oneself, as if they're his babies, whom he protects forever as an Immortal of Infinite Compassion. Born of this ethics, the new Homo Immortalis is vastly different than the macho selfish (avoiding torture by superior psychos makes everyone prioritize personal safety, not reporting things that would improve community but anger a psycho supervisor) fraud (to meet deadlines under pressure, by cruel boss, like in capitalism where the fraudulent aristocrats cheats the planet with fake made in Italy, when it's made in China by communist slaves, some claim lots of made in France, etc are made in China too, like the Chinese companies sell via Vietnam to avoid tariffs or US Big Pharma sell China tech to US locals at 100X times higher price) prone person raised by psycho Jewish communists based on this genocidal ultra violent Bible. Big Pharma in US gets 75% of Pharma world profits from 4% of population to finance Palaces in Mexican Cartel Style Trillion $ Thefts.

The classic communists were simply assuming people learned something, but high homework and memorization meant everyone cheated and copied homework from others in subjects they didn't like. These emotionally unstable people who were taught to cheat from age 10 to manage to do all homework (copy from others in the 10 min break between classes), were then mere robots who obeyed orders that often lead to wars, as the mentally insane psycho leaders were equally screwed and the epitome of violent torture itself, like a demonic entity thriving on pain, torture similar to the Catholic Inquisition they criticized, a phony house of cards based on phony pretending of being spiritual or believing in fake miracles. The capitalists are equally insane in a different way, destroy the brains of the youth in a different way by the same sleep deprivation of the working class that communists engage in with insane homework loads, they pressure the people to engage in endless extracurricular sports and activities that remove any chance of ethical development born of proper sleep (longer than 8 hours for kids, 11, 10, 9 hours depending on age) and proper meditative breathing infused with peaceful meditative music in the background ethical activity of altruistic intent and outcome: everyone is taken from parents, turned into a brutal gorilla monster of violent depravity, who shoves others in evil demonic sports like basketball and shouts like Infernal Adolf Hitler. Immortalists are for happiness not pain as the sadomasochistic military/spy agencies psychos who "train people to have high tolerance for pain", meaning to be infinitely cruel and perpetuate eternal war and violence. We can't create a society of frauds where we "pretend to be spiritual" or ethical, by going to a church or some temple, so immortalists verify WE ARE Meditating and regulating our emotions and maintaining our brain health, by good sleep shown in the daily 1 minute tone recording, by strengthening the neural pathways of universal gentle tender soft healing nurturing loving kindness, instead of aggression, fraud, dishonesty, deception and high cortisol of all current educational systems that age us and cause eternal war, chaos, poor product engineering, destruction, fraud. Citizens become 365 times kinder with this than with going to the genocide, rape, violence church 10 times a year. TRUST BUT VERIFY, so we verify the ETHICS homework people did, their meditative bliss and activation of the critically important, severely under developed in humans, neural pathways that take us from cannibal violent thugs engaged in cannibalistic Christian Eucharistic rituals of "eating the body and flesh of Jesus" to civilized humans. Most Holy Honorable Immortal Souls in Disguise Parents, kindly use the brains you still have left after decades of terror by aristocrats, and realize gently, if so tenderly possible, that kids can go to church, do drugs, shout, have sex in the bath, and browse violent sites on the phone of other bad kids while pretending to be there to appear good for the parents. We need to verify they're ethical, not trust them, due to many spies and hidden forces at work aiming to destroy the nation and the working class, to reduce sleep, eliminate independent and creative thinking by sleep deprivation and poor diet, violent sports, violent music, violent tone. Behind the so called civilization, hides a very evil average person created by a terrorist psychotic education system. It's all relative, if we compare it to violent societies, it's OK, but to the future, it is horrific. Recall that civilization exists only when violence is 0, so 1 trillion times lower violent crime than today and 0 wars, we're not there yet, animal humans have yet to become humans… and then, over eons of evolution, Homo Immortalis not Homo sapiens.

The ethics 9 minute video is watched daily until age 27 if a PhD, and one has to take a 30 seconds test with 1 multiple choice question for that day at the end to get a daily score on what you have learned from the 9 minute online course. This 9 minute video also provides a personalized 5 minute ethics teaching born of brain biomarker analysis (as well as blood biomarker, by the use of a noninvasive wrist device of the future for 2 seconds (much less invasive than the 24-7 glucose monitors today that use tiny needles), that takes a picture of blood going thru the veins to indicate if certain markers indicate poor health, stress, poor sleep) and vocal output (as well as feedback from the central Immortality Credit Score system of 2 quadrillion video cameras if detecting unethical behavior), to the individual based on the score at the test last few days and prior day, to improve one's meditative practice and good sleep habits to improve tone, brain health, diet (all meals personalized by age, health issues, DNA in the future, as an eterni food powder shipped for free by food.gov, then dissolved in water, to help students live to a trillion years old), etc. The other 4 minutes are general ethics that are similar for all students. Students struggling with meditative bliss can choose to record all 15 minutes of the session sometimes to enable the AI to teach the student how to reach the bliss state easier, without strain. If that fails, he can ask the teacher for help, as AI failed and humans will fix it. If a student is not very happy, then he's not meditating right, he should be smiling deeper than any other time in the day. All emotion comes from our verbal tone, to evolve towards the peaceful Homo Immortalis, we need daily practice, as the AI evaluates our tone and Bliss Level via the amazing Headphone. To create a World of 0 violence in 4 years, we need to evolve ethically or spiritually daily.

To ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ build the ethical teleporting shimmering shapeshifting potentially Immortal human of the future, who is so resplendently virtuous, shining with the light (mercy, compassion) of 1000 suns in altruistic wisdom, we inspire the Youth, via the Young 2028 scientist President candidate of the Immortalist Party, to dream of the Immortality Building Sports of the New Age of a Quadrillion Years of Peace, where people are more intellectual, and spiritual and dedicate themselves to ending the suffering for all sentient beings, like a true Immortal of Infinite Compassion, and to ending the suffering of plants even, via the Eterni Food born via discoveries of the New National Hobby: bio/chemical reactors in every house, backyard (to create new proteins etc, instead of barbecue) and particle accelerator in every single family house, the 200 million new amazing dome shaped homes that last 50000 years and winds of 1000 mph, not 70 as today. College professors live to 104 by walking in the lab as the only exercise, why not everyone? Let us all live to 104 by dedication to science and engineering. ☺☺

The Eterni Food Inc nutrition studies section details the merger of lepton labs, carbon quantum chemistry labs, mitochondrial immortality labs, fusion labs and the fact no foreign students are allowed in any technical lab or uni, only at special international students ONLY schools that teach the creation of a country with 0 violent crime in 5 years and the attainment of Eternal Universal Peace in 3 months thru ethics and gentle tender soft nurturing healing kind tone first, as the happy Immortalist Anthem says. For too long, USA allowed everyone to come and pollute the quantum information field of our country with the evil violence and beatings deified in the Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives), setup their genocidal Violence Adoration churches, mosques, temples to poison our people, destroy their ethics, intellect via fraud sold as fact, in their own language in total disrespect of the cause of ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ via One Language, to turn our decent citizens into genocidal psychopaths, and brainwash them into the supremacy of their language they use at religious services in blatant disregard of National Unity and the kindness of the USA welcoming them here, like true parasites and traitors of USA. They charge us tariffs much higher than we charge them (India 100+% for autos, India 150% on US alcohol, 100% on US agriculture, Canada 245% US Cheese, 298% US butter, Japan 700% US rice, 4 times higher than US tariffs in the case of South Korea) while sending illegals into our nation to bring chaos and lawlessness, they send legal immigrants to come, steal knowledge, go into their country back, create weapons, help start wars, destroy the human quantum field by torture and weapon exports that risk killing all humans in 10 seconds soon. This travesty will end by the grace of the Immortalist Party in order to bring 0 violent crime and peace on Earth. All churches, synagogues, mosques are mere spy stations for Israel, Europe and Muslim nations, Hindu temples for India, etc and we don't need to drastically lower the average IQ of our people with such violent religions. Plus, to safeguard World Peace in 3 months, we need to no longer publish our STEM research in any journal until Eternal World Peace has been achieved, and only citizens who never travel overseas will have access to our journals via wired ultra secure networks, to prevent them leaking information. Only 'How to achieve 0 Violent Crime and World Peace' articles of the Immortality for All Journal are published for all to see worldwide, as we will no longer give violent people any tech knowledge. The great work of National and World Unification starts with Education, we shall learn to create peace, 0 torture, 0 violence first. This is the end of private education, of universities, and the start of state takeover of national defense, i.e. the most important national defense there is, national education from 1st grade to postdoc stage. For 250 years, these Universities claimed that their education would bring the end of wars and torture, but they failed miserably, as they did nothing but Italian saints fake miracles and Jesus fake miracles fraud used as cover to subjugate 200 nations with military or spy bases disguised as Christian churches, etc and Jewish psychopathy teaching enclaves. Why should we allow Jews/Italians to impose their evil fake "religion" on USA and lower the youth IQ with such filif cow IQ rituals? Italians used genocidal wars to impose Italian 'dialects' (new languages) formed by Italianization of all European languages. Vatican wars were planned etc. We can choose Peace in 3 months, no need to wait for the fake Jesus second coming in a trillion years, promised by the Vatican. Why not stop imports of Judaism, Vaticanism and free ourselves from the 1450 violent Bible quotes? Why are many Americans being brainwashed by the Jewish and Italian mafia to believe in the Jewish Jesus, when all his miracles are a fraud? Any kid can make a scripture 1 billion times nicer than the Bible, such as the Immortalist Anthem. Let's enjoy the new 350 million US scriptures.☺

Equal, uniform, fair implementation of law is ONLY possible when all are taught (in the same tone, language) the same content, not one tone that creates anger, restlessness, crime and a tone that creates bliss, peace. Due to less socializing, the 2 hrs/wk physical education abysmal IQ classes can be replaced with Immortality Building 4 hours a week classes scheduled around the same time as the science, tech lab classes to minimize traffic noise, tire PM2.5 pollution. This becomes more like universal school choice equivalent, since even in high school people can choose a billion course plus lab combos to create their choice of major focus from age 10-12, which means our immortalist system is providing 1 million times more school choice than the existing charter system Re-pub-licans love. All Re-pub-licans want is to disband the education department so they can implement the Mass Rape of Children Biblical Law, but we don't want to become a banana republic with chimp level IQ. We want to provide strong centralism and 1 million times more choices, choices that Re-pub-licans want to take away from our kids, especially those not rich, who may not have the choice to attend charter schools. With centralism, all education is free, all can afford universal course choice. In a truly choice style, all can choose decent tones for all teachers, via video recorded lessons, since their tone is 1 in a million, better than all schools today. So kids hear the kind happy tones 9000 times more. This is the first time Christian Republican parents will hear a more 'Christian' tone in school, instead of shouts or mildly nice tones. These people are trained to speak in a certain way over 10 years. Trump's son says "universal school choice", meaning aristocrats get one education and the rest pure trash – because they're spies who want to destroy America's average IQ. The Russian spies (Ivanka is a Russian name for Trump's daughter) want USA to remain a 3rd world gangster realm, not a place with the Best education everyone who uses English worldwide adopts as they adopt English language like Eastern Europe of others, thereby facilitating a 1.1 million tricontinental country (Aussie-NATO-EU) to emerge with 11 companies and one education system. Re-pub-licans have become the biggest vampires (see human sacrifice, genocide, rape quotes of the Bible they promote, human sacrifice of females rituals the demonic voice males attend, as Wikipedia explains) and traitors America ever had, except for the seal border ideas. There will be 1 million immortality labs, kids choose which one they want to attend. Also, 1 million times more course combos even in 5th grade, not just 19 quadrillion billion courses in college. Re-pub-licans want to turn education into the chaos of the other industries covered in the 11 companies where poison is sold as food by 99% of companies or, in the Infernal Republican Future, by all schools. Kids need to wake up, Re-pub-licans want you to be beaten by teachers, and told that the Bible is holy. Russians always used religion for vassal states, to keep them low IQ and easy to dominate. Only for 70 USSR years, did the Russians encourage critical thinking and science, not religion. That's why the Russians sponsor far right EU religious parties: easier subjugation.

Another religion used by aristocrats to start wars is fraternities, the religion of hazing, alcohol and drug rituals to enter some mafia like group, like Skull and Bones, and put on your resume that you're a member of some filif snail IQ☺ Phi Delta Nonsense Fraternity. We spend trillions on sports, smoking, alcohol, drugs, fraternities, while our debt is 37 trillion in 2025. In centuries of these macho violence or drunkards and drug addicts fraternities, we have not seen one single eterni song coming out of them, one single poem about World Peace in 3 months, only spies and wars. We need ban all fraternities and give all attending eterni labs on campus housing if interested. The number one urgency is World Peace in 3 months and 0 violent crime in 10 years. All else is put on indefinite hold, especially since 100s died in fraternity alcohol and hazing of savage bulldog IQ rituals of mentally challenged "fraternity leaders".☺ Ethics Education First. We also need to ban religions with violent scriptures, including the Mason Religion, if we ban all violent lyrics and movies as in the Media section on immortalist state of emergency. Education is more important than even national defense and the military is a nationalized nonprivate entity, it is public, universal, state-owned, just like education ought to be: free, violent quotes free. Why do we need religious schools if we create a tone of recordings and content far higher in gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest healing kindness vibes than any religious school? Our nation is 90000 times stronger, healthier, kinder, safer (0 violent crime) when everyone gets the best education, for free. This ensures a merit based system, not an aristocratic mansions based one. Everyone gets the same opportunity and test results, innovation decide the outcome, not $.

The centralized One Education System for All with Universal Course Choice and trillions of times more course and lab choices. The theoretical online system (all non-lab courses taken online from one's home, practical courses, meaning labs, taken at school) removes the need for parents to kill millions of people with tire pollution (even when we have 100% electric cars from solar, wind electricity, we still have tire pollution due to abysmal IQ science and decentralization making R&D 90 times less than it could be) from having to transport kid to school 5-6 days a week, (kids with parents) which is only happening in the ultra violent USA: in many countries kids go alone to school for centuries. The kids only need to go 1-2 times a week, at the lab, Immortality City Parks for the Immortality Building classes for empathy development (they do field trips usually from there), awareness of the terrible conditions of the society, so we bulldoze and build. We also have online the amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ tone Ethics of the Immortals classes, 1 hour weekly at least, at all grade levels, even college, postdocs, too, that can teach the ethics of generating happiness and of being happy too, which prevents conflict, war and short lives. No more 5 million teachers talking until their throat hurts, reinventing the wheel 5 million times, just use centralized education.gov recordings (all exams taken online, except for labs) and of 1000 times higher emotional quality, with kids being able to choose 10 voices as they like it. We also create 1 hour a week Eternal Bliss class, taken from the comfort of one's home, to learn to be ultra happy, etc and will breathe 5 min at the Immortality City park to measure happiness level with advanced instruments, MRI before the Immortality Building classes with gentle tender soft happy music in earphones or background music (about Immortality), happy gentle movements, very different than the violent sports. We make students happy, no more psycho teachers yelling and throwing 3 year old tantrums. Weekly exams, to avoid people from not learning and then cramming everything at the last minute before midterm, which creates stress, poor learning. Online exams, homework weekly. ☺☺☺ No more fake miracles presented as facts (just as sleight of hand), parents can save money and avoid naive kids, while receiving much better ethics and sports training than Christian schools. The educational institutions belong to the American people, not to the aristocratic mafia who profits from brainwashing slaves, while teaching nothing on longevity and true freedom. Education ought to be free and the most basic human right. For info on "Christian schools", see a torture based school from hell.

We need to have recordings for all classes in various tones, let people watch the movies at home or in school, at the lab before the experiment begins, etc and create a much healthier and mature emoting pattern in all brains, such happy angelic speaking kids, there is no need of jails anymore as everyone is transformed into an angel by these tones teaching regular subjects and immortality ethics, happiness classes every week at least, since age 2. The tone of average teachers with the daily stress and negative emotions is terrible quite often and can create a terror state, a planet of infinite violence. The voices on these online courses would be more angelic and eterni than those of 99.999% of teachers, scientifically proven. They're like Space rocket vs 1st century cannibals transport. 10000 times more gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest healing compassionate kindness that is a joy to listen to and transforms, proven scientifically thru brain entrainment of same emotional centers and higher thinking centers. Parents are too stressed etc to teach proper emotional tone. These special readers have to be so rested and free of negative emotion before recording, they normal teachers can't have 1 in a billion chance to come close. The usual teachers are too busy and stressed, uncareful and unfiltering, like the ☺☺☺ 'shouting matches'☺☺☺ on the evening news. When students listen to peaceful music, concentrate and take homework and tests when they feel like within a week, they get 0 interference and quantum field destruction by the psychotic energies of teachers and their emotional baggage. This gives humanity to escape historical inertia and break free from past millennia psychopathy. The same centralization ideas can be applied in many industries or agencies, for example, cop trainee, real estate purchases done via housing.gov not 2 million realtor websites, to help us have 2 million science jobs, not 'fooling around' jobs.

We can create 100 times smaller (only 30 times smaller for more specialized courses and higher college, PhD levels where specialization, differentiation increases, so Inorganic Chemistry Senior year can be 50% different for one student vs his lab mate at the same immortality lab that replaces universities, since all education is online, except labs) add-on modules for each important math, physics, chemistry, etc NATIONAL COURSE, and allow students to choose 15 of these add-ons to the basic, to combine 15 of the 500 add-ons for unique Immortality major focus that the student chooses since the 4th grade, to get kids excited about Immortality, to create 19 quadrillion trillion courses $_{500}C_{15}=500!/(485!*15!) = 19*10^{27}$, far more than 2000 different courses with a dramatic difference: eterni tone of any of the trillions of combos, a feat impossible today with the humans available without a modular design and centralization of the happy efficient Immortality for All Capitalism, aided by mono-lingualism, sweet eterni tone proven via MRI and also, with much better graphics, etc, due to centralization, sort of like we have 1 Windows OS, not 5000, enabling a higher quality; it has been a capitalist dogma that product diversity comes only from 'free market and decentralization', but that's not true. Look at the numbers, the power of math; plus, it is really efficient too: they only created 5 times more minutes of the course by the 500 extra courses of 100 times smaller length, so with only 6 courses lengths, we got 10^{28} courses, instead of with 2000 courses lengths getting only 2000 courses. Compassion is stronger than profiteering, simply because we have the interests of 10 billion maximized, not just 100, so the force unleashed is infinitely mightier, discovery far faster, immortality far sooner. ☺☺☺ We end the evil off campus hazing Greek fraternities too. For centuries the aristocracy has focused on various useless disciplines and requirements in designing the university course load for various majors, the graduation requirements, because they never really fought on the frontlines, the slaves were fighting their wars to increase banking profits. For example, MIT had the HASS (Humanities, Arts, Social Sciences) requirement, 8 courses people got to take, yet none of them talks about the 1st step towards being a civilized (not even educated) person: World Peace in 3 months, everyone get the human right to life via Eternal Universal Peace in 3 months, the human right to no torture, no beatings deified in the Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives), by the psychos in the governments of the world, their military and spy agencies, police, etc. The most important thing is the Art of ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~, the Social Science of 0 Violent Crime in 10 years, 0 jails in 10 years and the fast implementation of the policies to achieve those goals in our lifetime, not in 5 trillion years when Jesus might come per the Church of Empty Promises. We need results, fast results and that is achieved thru a radical change in education focus. All human rights have no meaning without you being alive to experience them, so NOT BEING KILLED in wars is the first right. Therefore, all other rights are subordinate to this fundamental right to Life of all humans, that is World Peace in 3 weeks first. When a decision is made, what is ethical is that which increases the lifespan of the collective by the most lifespan years or weeks, as proven by science, as that is the most fundamental right to life that is above all other rights, not what supports the right to "do x or z". All these fake protests about rights are meaningless if we have no World Peace in 3 months, and it shows the protests are financed by war mongering spy agencies who want more violence, not WORLD peace in 3 months they never talk about anywhere in the world. All these "revolutions" achieve nothing, as their platform is not World Peace in 3 months. Every course, science, tech or humanities, needs to include its application to helping all people live to a trillion years old and to ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ achievement and maintenance.

Of course, you get a lab team meeting and instead of all 30 having taken the same courses, they now have the knowledge of 30 universities with different courses, as if it's a team of more people there, if each of the 15 add-ons is a 30th of the common course. They can discover things far faster, Professor can guide what each studies to create a non repetitive pattern and have so much knowledge. A chemistry genius is not an eternitone genius; so, while brightest chemists create the content, with the aid of graphics guys, etc, and software etc, the tone will be done by the best at intoning and elevating humankind vibe; since education is a human right to knowledge on the creation of trillion year lifespans, it is OK to have such centralization with 'private' (on paper) universities focusing more on the labs, the 1 million eterni labs. With all these "seemingly? immortalism progress slowing" charter schools and others, we have 0 schools in USA and worldwide that have an Immortality focused curriculum as explained in this Chapter 4. It's inexplicably inefficient and seemingly illogical, to focus so much on having so many different schools and none of them being really good.☺☺☺ More centralization is also way more democratic, as it ensures equal access to online courses and education, at least the theoretical stuff, since labs may be slightly different, depending on how the federal program of lab building is created; it can be like Walmart with similar design of these labs for a truly democratic educational system, the basic physics, chem, etc labs, though we need differences, since some schools would focus on mitochondrial Immortality, while others on biophysical Immortality and teens would begin specializing at age 14, so the more advanced labs would be unique and kids who want specializing in something not available within 10 miles would have to travel to the towns with those labs or rent a room there; however, all efforts will be made to allow teens to sleep at home not in some special student housing, so labs would be spread evenly so all can specialize in any area.☺☺☺

All schools offer the same theory courses via education.gov. Where you graduate from makes no difference, it's what lab courses you took to prepare for a special industry, the GPA in college for the theory and labs, GPA being universal, all schools one system. The Education minister makes sure that lab courses of specialized nature are present within a 30 mile radius for most disciplines, as it is economically feasible to have ultra specialized research centers for students, so that people can live at home and we have more space for RESEARCH centers, instead of dorms. This prevents Ivy League, etc elitism, allows USA to become world's 1st truly democratic country, with a truly equal opportunity education in reality (not just name). Majors with no labs (law, philosophy, economics, civil admin, business, math, history, psychology, etc) can take classes online from any location and that guy's credentials are higher if his GPA is higher than someone taking same at Harvard in person, though Harvard would vanish. GPA may be entirely replaced over time with Immortality Test score after each year of college, when this test becomes more specialized for certain majors, colleges, etc. Merit based, not money, or connections based. To ensure the immortalism ethics of universal gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest healing compassionate kindness☺☺, private schools can't deny admission to students based on donkey IQ criteria such as essays or rat like filif IQ 'sports', references. The only thing that matters is the CENTRALIZED ADMISSIONS SYSTEM, admissions.gov, with one set of National Criteria that nobody overrides. That is, the Immortality Test (which includes 10 page essay on how you build a Civilization of Trillion Year Old Immortals – your unique take on it and other psychology tests and multiple choice to determine ethics, character, etc more exactly than references) score determines if one is qualified for a group of schools where labs are specialized in that area of the Test where he scored highest. This test is more than SAT Math/Science, it tests more objectively the things that references from shouting teachers "living in the 1st century mindset" misquantify. The scientific government doesn't need charlatans. It doesn't encourage violent crime for the sake of "trying to please evil teachers who take the peaceful vibe down".

USA can have EQUAL OPPORTUNITY when All can get into any NATIONAL LAB or Uni (the new Universities), regardless of financial status, aid or anything, since education is free. If Republicans want Equal OPPORTUNITY, then let ALL HAVE IT. All they need is to pass the IT (the new SAT), or Immortality Test (IT) for "Quantum Photonics" if they want to join the National Lab of Quantum Photonics for University or the other 15 IT tests for physics, 15 for chemistry, etc. It will be a true meritocracy, where subjective garbage like references, extracurricular activities don't matter, only ethics multiple choice (SAT like) IT test (universal, same test for all, similar to the immigrant ethics test for gauging level of violence, ethics, immortalist tone) and the major IT "Nuclear Chemistry" multiple choice test (calculations student does on a paper are not graded), or for the area one chooses before college even. The test result determines which of the labs one joins, the least advanced (less instruments) national research uni (lab) will host the lowest scores. If score is below admissions, the guy can study again and pass the test, to ensure we get professionals and not "people who're admitted based on volunteering for a religion, group or etc", to have a true meritocracy (instead of tribal based admissions, admitted because he does activities that reveal a political, religious or whatever belief). This ends the role of religion in education, for we have separation of state and religion, which Republicans almost always violate by genocide promotion via the Bible. EQUAL OPPORTUNITY means every student has a house, decent food, or single room if living on campus. The ultra criminal Republicans and Democrats scheme to bring illegal slaves in crowded cities, while the aristocratic Brit cities with palaces, mansions get 0. Equal opportunity the Republican shout about means when one works 40 hours a week he's not paid 10 to 50000 times less as in the Mafia Run USA today. Equal Opportunity to help migrants needs to be equal, so they need end illegal crossings to make it equal. All profits a billionaire makes are impossible alone, he makes them via the 20000 slaves working for him and 20 million buying his deadly products. The elections are fake, the Brits coordinate everything, where slaves go, how to exploit the illegals for max profits. USA = fraud. The immortalists are an ethical party of Equal Opportunity, current politicians are a mafia plotting against the workers. It's genocidal for Republicans to ask veteran affairs to report anti-Christian bias, when Christianity promotes genocide. All citizens ought to dislike and be biased against any violent scripture. Not only that, USA is not a colony of the Italian or Jewish Israeli Mafia pushing the Bible on us for 2 millennia. It's GENOCIDAL that such a rapist genocidal text is even studied in any university. It's beyond illegal, anti-constitutional, unethical. It infringes on the Right to Liberty of Being Free of all citizens, because GENOCIDE takes the Right to Life which is above all other rights to 'religion'. Because GENOCIDE OF 8 BILLION GENTILES removes all other Rights of US Constitution, the Bible, Torah, Quran etc need to be ILLEGAL, being nothing but the cessation of the capacity to exercise all other rights in the Bill of Rights. You can't exercise any rights, to speak or to religion if you're DEAD. Thus, the right to life is above all other rights to call for GENOCIDE IN A SCRIPTURE. The Bible, Torah promotion is also a Gentile (Crypto-Jews?) Royal Families Attempt (who pretend to be Gentile to fool, drastically lower the average IQ of the Nations they Subjugate with Infernal Impunity and Genocidal Violence*) to* Subjugate the USA Colony via Multi-National Companies from these Empires. Likewise, the Torah, Bible promotion is a British (Jewish?) Royal Family Attempt to use the Genocidal Anglican Church to Impose the Imperial Pope, the Infallible British King, as the Head of the Anglican Church of Eternal Fraud and Genocide, Ruler in Theft, the Chief Thief of the USA. We don't need the Torah, the Torah (80% of Bible) is illegal, unethical, criminal, genocidal, pure evil. Any cult with a scripture that promotes genocide is not a "religion", but a violation of the USA Constitution, an act of War against every US citizen and every human being, a mockery of the Freedom US stands for and the 1776 revolutionaries fought for. A scripture is only permissible if 0 violence exists in it. That is the new definition of scripture to ensure Equal Opportunity to Education, free from the genocidal torture 180+ nations subject millions of innocents via the military police industrial complex. They promote the Fake Miracles.

Also, it would test MRI and other brainwave for happiness during meditation and induction of happiness at will via the cosmic bliss exercise of breathing, to gauge how able he's to contribute kindly to planetary peace by self-reliance and independence from need of violent music, depraved violence, horrible lust and wasteful parties, so as to bring civilization, World Peace in 3 months, the end of all forms of violence in 15 years, all torture. References are ultra subjective. Thus, every amazing student with high score at the IMMORTALITY TEST is admitted to 200000 schools (since we will have 1 million RESEARCH mini-universities or "immortality sciences labs") automatically, without him applying: HE chooses where to go, if not commuting to labs (the RESEARCH universities could have each 1 lab or maybe 100 satellite labs). Thus, immortality capitalism offers much greater choice and freedom than the thuggish oppressive Money is God capitalism: 30000 National Labs accepted you in 2027 (labs created out of 5000 USA colleges), not just 5 today and in the future, when this is implemented, even half a million schools can accept you in 2040 when we build the immortality RESEARCH universities (immortality labs) everywhere. They always say "capitalism offers choice", but immortality capitalism offers 100000 times more choices. If we make all education public for citizens and free, we allow the deepest centralization. Education is a right more fundamental than water and food, for if you're not educated, you can eat deadly water and deadly food and live 50 years shorter. Waterways, water supplies are a public good, nationalized, why can't education be too at least to a greater extent and more centralized? Thus, the immortalist government doesn't allow gangsters to run the educational system. Only the Immortality Education Agency, the policy creator for the educational system, decides who gets where: each school has the right to set a level, say 789 AT IMMORTALITY TEST (especially >100 at sections related to physics, chemistry, biochemistry) for the admission to the program of "Mitochondrial Immortality via Chemical Physics Modification of Cellular Proteome". Then, who gets to the school is automatic, whoever gets higher score and wants that program. The colleges have no admissions dept. We move from the Stone Age to the AGE OF EFFICIENCY: RESEARCH jobs, instead of useless admissions staff doing 2nd century chores. We can take USA back from profiteers and increase R&D 100 fold via centralization. ☺☺

The number one goal in the state of EMERGENCY running indefinitely until we get 0 war and 0 violent crime worldwide, due to the impending risk of all humans dying in seconds thru a simple weapon test or 2 capsule scenario, is 0 VIOLENT CRIME, 0 WAR. To achieve this 0 VIOLENT CRIME GOAL, all education becomes government run and all humanities are merged into the Immortalism subject that deals mostly, for the humanities part, with BUILDING Eternal Universal Peace (0 war) via a 0 crime society thru ethics and the model of 8 billion people served by the 11 companies. We want Immortality for All, no violence, a world so kind that every human would have the same love for the worst human as a trillion times the love of the most loving mom last decade for her only suckling infant. Being cultured and knowing junk literature and painting styles is useless if we have violent crime, even 1000 times lower than today, that's ego building, not culture. Art, sculpture, etc classes are over, everything is the Art of 0 Violence, how we build the fair society that prevents any theft, fraud, dishonesty, violence. Civilization and culture begin when violent crime is 0, when honesty is prevalent. Facts are those for which we have proof verified by 50 unfakable reliable sources (see 140 page section 4.1.9. on espionage to understand how historical evidence is made up via fake stones, books, etc back dated centuries earlier) and accurate science studies. The religion of genocide and sucking 8 day old infant bloody stabbed penises ought to not be a course at any American university, i.e. ethics.gov is sufficient for developing moral ethical character outside the class (can have 50000 ethics articles and videos, maybe 1 million total pages), while in the class the education.gov classes on immortalist ethics are very much sufficient for 99% of people: Immortality Bliss Happiness for All, pain, penis stabbing (circumcision) torture, terror etc for NONE. Harvard was almost 30% Jewish in 1925. It's funny how people imagine that if today Harvard is no longer officially 28% Jewish students (but only 10% in 2025, though with crypto Jews maybe 30% still, those who hide their Jewishness), US Universities are not essentially 90% Jewish in their teachings: everywhere you go you see the Whitewashing of Genocide of 8 Billion, Mass Rape Slavery praising Bible and the Pushing of the

Worship of a Jewish Gangster and Fraud, Jesus who faked many miracles (no evidence ever existed for any miracle, all fraud easy to explain in other ways, taxpayer goes to Religion of Mass Rape, Genocide, Penis Stabbing *(Circumcision is the Word of God, say all Christian clergy, it's in the Bible, the Word of God) and Slavery being taught at Harvard and 5000 other universities). Jesus* taught people to shove, throw people and be violent in the Temple, when he turns the trader tables. The criminal universities steal taxpayer funds granted by the government to give astronomical salaries to clowns (who teach Genocide, Slavery, Rape, Penis stabbing is Word of God or ethical) who make 2-10 times the salary of hard working scientists helping PARASITIC clergy live in comfy estates, while these scientists live like caged rats in horrible housing. Such depravity and education for profit hooliganism needs to end, for with efficiency everyone gets a MUCH BETTER education and living conditions too. All sports are dedicated to immortality building as explained in Chapter 5.5. to raise IQ and EQ. Thus, no sports facilities exist on campus, as that is a genocide, for all materials and effort must be used for the manifestation of 0 WAR, 0 VIOLENT CRIME IN 10 YEARS, or 30 max. JUST DO IT. Real ethics is not talking nonsense about penis trimming, but Ending War. Chimps can move balls and throw them, that's not what makes you human or educated: End Violent Crime NOW. Grow up, come out of this cage of flesh, be a spiritual humanoid, not an animal. Anyone can walk in the labs to clean lab ware and jog or exercise, stretch, do Yoga, tai chi, any movement, at home or 3 min even in the lunch break before eating, no need to be an animal basketball player. The epitome of ethics is to stop the demon within who wants to steal land for his evil selfish basketball court, while others live cramped and fight over noise. Resist being a selfish beast from hell, grow up and develop some mercy and altruism before the human species is wiped out in 10 seconds. Let us all volunteer like the Kind Gentle Immortalist Youth, bulldoze condos and entire cities and build Heaven on Earth: single family houses for all, 0 violent crime for all. The happy gentle tender soft 11 companies have physical jobs, so let us all work there when we feel like exercising 1 hour or 2 and contribute to the end of violence and the beginning of Kindness. The depraved Bible influence is evident, for these "Christian" bulldog IQ☺ folks created basketball and other 0 IQ sports, out of their selfish depravity and violent nature embedded in every Bible page almost. All can live to 100 by gentle movements to build a house for someone like habitat for Humanity. No need of soccer, shouting like Hitler in ☺abysmal IQ☺ sports.

All theory courses will become free within 2 months of Education Reform by the Immortalist Party. We allow thus, 3000 types of chemistry lab courses and far greater RESEARCH specialization, whereas now, labs are similar. You go in that area of chemistry, physics, where the lab is doing exactly the research on that. The Immortality Education Agency can guide schools so each 300 square mile area gets one type of lab, etc, so not all go to one place, forcing that school to build 100 times more dorms. The way jobs are awarded today is also based on

'which school you went to', which is not even scientific, there needs to be a real mathematical way, the Immortality Test Score, the universal, equivalent in all schools, GPA (today, even GPA scale is different, which is bad, make it all one system). With 1 million RESEARCH centers, what matters is the GPA and the discipline of study and RESEARCH courses, not if they visited Harvard campus or not. China's students, like in many nations, get often ultra angry (some even commit suicide) when they don't get accepted at a school. All schools of an immortalist country offer the same quadrillion choices. Why allow the Chinese bourgeois model (best school for elite kids) to ruin education? See the real less known part of China the official youtubes avoid talking about, since they copied the USA model of aristocratic exploitation of workers, see how poor education is, with thousands defecating in elevators and public spaces, urinating in elevators, etc. Check out how unfair the capitalist China is: those who get lower scores, can't even apply for some colleges, when in fact anyone ought to have free access to the theoretical classes of any school, maybe not every immortality sciences lab, if limited space to some labs. Let all get even PhD theory classes in their spare time, if they want PhD at a slower pace, even if they failed to get the best immortality lab admission (only highest scores can choose any lab). Nobody should be excluded from theory for any reason, the courses are the people's property, online and nobody owns them. They don't give everyone equal access to any college in China, and half of 8th graders are not allowed to enter high school if they got low scores: location trumps merit. May the Chinese learn from the democracy of immortalism (no favoring of Ashkenazi Jew-Chinese offspring, Chinese Jews), end university elitism, pride, ego building and nonsense: have planetary consciousness: Immortality for All, end tribalism now. Immortalism spreads globally, Peace reigns forever. Since Education is more important than anything, the RESEARCH labs and course designing faculty will be the highest paid jobs in the country, so no it won't be actors, sportsmen, lawyers, models, CEOs, and etc. This ensures, we deify Knowledge, not Greed, Substance, not appearance. The university faculty works with teachers to design the online courses that are 100 times better than any in school today, and also with poor tone. Hooligan economics is replaced by Kindness and Immortality for All Economics. Innovation first, RESEARCH first, 'empty talk' later. ☺☺☺ Now, we can ask: is USA today a bourgeois education, like China? Of course it is. In 2022 top colleges we got so many Jewish undergrads: 10% Princeton-Harvard-Urbana-FSU, 12% Western-Wisconsin-Duke-Yale, 15% Tufts-Northwestern, 16% Michigan, 17% Syracuse, 18% Rutgers, 19% Florida, 21% Cornell-Queensborough, 22% Ithaca-Columbia, 27% Queens, 28% G Wash-Barnard-CUNNY, 23% Boston-Vermont, 24% Brown-WUSL, 26% Binghamton, 100% Yeshiva, 36% Brandeis, 41% Tulane, Columbia, UPenn had 33-40% Jews one time. With the centralization of immortalism, everyone gets the same gentle tender soft kind nurturing tone, same chemistry course choices everywhere, democracy begins 1st TIME IN WORLD HISTORY, equal opportunity for all begins in reality not NAME, ELITISM ENDS (different labs due to different areas of RESEARCH chemistry at each school as directed by the Education Department). Jews are 2% of US population, but 20-40% at many top universities decades ago, still 10-40% at many top public or private schools. With centralization, no longer can Jews (disguised as CDC experts, preachers of Fake Miracles at religious schools, etc?) brainwash all Americans to circumcize, trim their penises and call the BIBLE the WORD OF GOD, or listen to Jewish TV anchors, journalists stories about why we need ETERNAL WAR instead of World Peace in 3 months? In Europe, where Jews are 100 times fewer in many nations, nobody brainwashes people to trim their penis, so circumcision is 100-800 times less frequent in some countries. Perhaps, the EU pastors, etc are not so often Jews disguised as gentiles enjoying keeping gentiles "ignorant". Watch the TV-radio tone and compare it with this rabbi tone: lots of things in common? As soon as Jews became 1000 times more numerous via immigration (3000 US Jews in 1820, 3 million in 1924) and started to take deep roots, newborn Americans got circumcised almost 10 times more, reaching 85% in 1975. Not an accident? Did they became the gurus of education and policy in medical establishments, while pretending to be English, German, American, etc? Note how on census.gov and all sites, you have 'Hispanic, Asian, etc' but never Jewish, so it's all very camouflaged: Hispanic White is fine on census.gov, but Jewish White or Hispanic Jew is not. Non-Hispanic White is fine, but non-Jewish White is not: discriminating against Hispanics by the 'so Jewish' US government. Nobody is meant to know some are Jews, since if you know in a town 30% of Hispanics or Whites, 10% of Asians, 3% Blacks are Jews, you may be more careful. We can be gentle tender soft kind healing, while also free to question things we're told about war. The Ivy League schools have the highest % of students from the wealthiest 1% of families. Go figure.

For 100+ years, Hollywood has given us violence and lust, never World Peace in 3 months movie or song or good tone. Such catastrophic impact and wholesale destruction of the human quantum field has been rewarded by a hooligan capitalism system that glorifies war making for profit, killing of the poor slaves for the profit of palace dwelling aristocrats. Last 100+ years, 230 million people died due to war, torture, violence, so what % is due to Hollywood? 10%? Superpowers get copied and many nations copy our violent movie/music industry designed to keep people in jail. Since Hollywood influences at least 10% of the global population, the culture significantly, it is obviously creating the war, given the violence and tone present. An immortalist government who has ethics as a guide, can't allow any movie or music that is not about World Peace in 3 months, until we achieve it, to help humans avoid the 10 second end. How they speak determines how every news anchor, TV reality show, everyone speaks, with the aggressive, fearful, anxious, desperate (war on human psyche), commanding tone or the tone of an angel, filled with gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest healing compassionate kindness. It's as if the Zion Elders control the movie and music industry 100% and faithfully live the 1450 bad Bible quotes, not so much the☺☺☺ Immortality for All☺☺☺ Ethos. We're being "force fed" or

"educated", "programmed" by the music and movies, like the infamous KGB, to dream in our subconscious minds about death, war, guns, killings, negative emotions, endless negative things: never do we hear about Eternal World Peace in 3 months and Physical Trillion Year Lifespan Immortality for All. So, it's as if the entire Planet is hostage to people who wage psychological and mind warfare on the people, to keep them fighting eternally, doing crimes eternally, so jails are full and police violence infinite, to justify ever more surveillance and slavery. Violence ad infinitum to desensitize and increase violent crime 100 fold, to turn one group against the other, give criminal ideas and turn the world into hell. Divide and Conquer. We're being brainwashed, but people don't realize it. All music/speech tone globally is influenced by Hollywood, so some Americans are oblivious: to them, this song is same as that song, as important, legal, ethical, when millions are killed by aristocracy each few years. The historical inertia is so strong, we need hourly reminders from TV-radio, etc of the way of Eternal Universal Peace: the gentle tender eterni tone and content: today, we don't get it even once a year on most TV-radio-internet stations.☺☺☺ The Japanese too thought it was OK to kill many, not 23 million, and happily walked in Hiroshima when the nuke hit, what will happen to Los Angeles when new unknown weapons develop and nobody knows when, what and who detonated it, since no noise, no light, no sign? 50% of crime is due to bad education (the other 49% is due to bad living conditions, poor diet, etc) tone and content (education is also the content of music, movies, literature, TV-radio, politicians, etc), so they never care much about education, since slaves are to be jailed, beaten or tortured to death by police, spies, soldiers, etc, the enforcers of aristocratic terror. In ME, VT, NH, MA, etc violent crime is lowest and here we also have the least religious people (most educated about the Bible*).* We can end CIA, FBI, all individual police departments (merge them into one) create Immortality Nurturing Agency, end the War Dept to create Eternium.

There is not one single movie on the entire planet made, that has all actors using all the time eterni gentle tender soft nurturing loving kindness tone, that's the tone 20 times better than these samples. Then, they call China, Saudis and North Korea dictatorships… All is about QUANTITY, not quality. News stations too, all repeat the same news all TV stations say in a bad tone, so what's the point? ☺☺ Like classrooms with sometimes slightly Hitler like tone (meaning yelling like he used to). Who cares about violent crime or noise, if they live in peaceful places? No incentive exists to create centralization, so we have 5 million material scientists working on a drywall or window that is sound proof, cheap, allows all to get decent sleep, so less anger and crime. They need endless accountants, HR, historians, admin staff, sales, marketing, business majors, etc. for 5 million companies… instead of fewer with 100 fold higher research staff total.

Any teacher has a nicer tone at 25 vs 69, so we can't deny that, since brain is bigger and vocal chords better, the cognitive ability to form a truly eterni tone is far better when young, etc, so we need to be real and realize how stone age, anti-progress and outdated is the old way of education. It also allows for profit aristocracy to keep knowledge from people and to loot everyone, while teaching the most useless and lowest in IQ things in their curriculum while nothing about health, nutrition, taking care of self, longevity, sleep quality, etc is taught, only how to be a useful slave having a skill, die at 67 maybe. Why is college education so expensive? Decentralization of course. In the Internet age, education could easily be free for anything that doesn't require labs, since all can be online, take the video classes and pass the tests, but the mafia running USA doesn't allow it.☺☺☺ The predators and vampires don't want free college education for all, for how else can they loot? Education is too important to be left to the private sector alone. So, public universities need to unite, centralize, crush in performance and choice, and naturally bankrupt the private 'capitalist' conmen who sucked our blood for so long (4 page explanation). Then, USA can rise and lose its chains that have kept her a slave. Parents send kids to far away places, have their life savings sucked by these vampire for profit "universities" and kids die/degrade due to alcohol, sex or drug overdose, due to a depraved culture on campus that destroys the students' bodies and brains thru sleep deprivation and noisy parties that make sleeping impossible. No need of physical attendance for humanities, no labs majors, stay at home, keep kids safe, meet online for presentation to an audience, etc, grade people's speaking skills online, let all who want a language, psychology, math major go to the education.gov and get their degree, the best in the world. To limit vampirism, Chapter 14 explains all changes the immortalist government could require sometimes, to create an immortalist national version of every religion, denomination in accordance with the principles of violence free scriptures (instead of genocidal quotes there the pastors hide from church goers), eterni tone of speech and music that brings peace and nonviolence, hypothesis formulation and testing (evidence based belief), discernment for national defense, awareness of fake miracles, religion use to brainwash and enslave masses, etc, awareness of ulterior motives of religion creators, such as divide and conquer, spy networks, awareness of how much more complex afterlife, if real, probably is vs the "ultra simple" almost sounding like a kindergarten version taught in most religions, awareness of the biggest lie, freedom to build studios so lay people can record far nicer tones, music, lyrics than the "mental institution escapee" tone of many pastors who fake it. These items can be included in civic education in all schools too, to increase IQ, discernment.

People make fun of China and its slightly bigger centralization, but China is not really centralist like the immortalists envision, it still suffers from massive decentralization and fraud, that comes with 50 million companies instead of just 50-500. Even with the extremely weak centralization, you can check China's metros versus New York City metros in this truly mind blowing video, showing how bad decentralized systems are. The Western media only shows the worst of China's centralization, the homeless, the corruption, etc, but see their best infrastructure. China vs India/USA trains: centralization vs chaos. Chinese pay for items using their palm (watch), have state of the art super clean hospitals that few see in parts of the West, gigantic malls, nice flower park in Shenzhen, no phones are needed anymore, nor credit cards. Check out, google it to verify it, how China discovered suspension bridges in 300 BC, paper in 105 AD, south pointing chariot via gears in 240 AD that the West got 1600 years later only, gunpowder in 850 AD, moldboard plow in 170 BC, porcelain in 670 AD, magnetic compass in 200 BC, precise clocks centuries before Europe, earthquake machine in 132 AD centuries before Europe, printing press 400 years before Europe. Looks like China was pretty advanced for a while. A train station in China is 3 times bigger than UK's largest airport terminal complex, one Xian metro station nicer than all worldwide. China metro vs UK metro, see the floor, how dirty. See new 2025 subways in West China. Swift Banking system takes days to process some payments, while China's New Electronic Yuan takes 7 seconds and is 50 times cheaper. America is finished. China's railway nuts catching up with Japan. Ningbo port is world's largest container port, watch how high tech it is. China's dishwasher can wash produce too, wasting billions on museums and fancy indoor sky venues, while others starve and eat garbage. See more in communism section. China dump truck is 800 tons and 20 stories high, the largest worldwide. China's EV adds 407 km in 5 min (vs 120 km for Tesla, 20 km for Toyota Bz4x in 2025), beating all other companies in the world. They got a 1985 built 6.7 GW 9 reactor Qinshan nuke plant, their largest, 40% larger than top 4.6 GW USA one, but smaller than Japan 8 GW # 1 on Earth, and several others. China's Beidou navigation can do what GPS can't: send emergency tex messages via satellite. China has world's first commercial thorium reactor and thorium to power China 100% for 60 millennia. China moves ships 40 times faster than US made panama canal shiplock system by the 10 minute 417 feet (650 ft total, 3 lifts) rise Goupitan shiplift system, decades ahead of US river infrastructure. It shows that even with the minimal centralization of China, they beat USA in many fields. Their presidents and officials are scientists and engineers very often, unlike lawyers, actors and CEOs in USA. China's escavators are remote now, no more inhaling toxic dust like American ☺abysmal IQ guys☺ promoting violent music. See China's automatic rice growing. Check out China vs Italy legislators. China charges half the price of Western cars and offers all features as standard (the greed of European CEOs leads to Europeans losing all market share globally) and China got 36% of South Africa auto market share in 2025, vs 5% in 2020, in a shift that shuts down the auto industry in Africa and makes Africans clueless as to what is put into their cars, opening them to mind control by Chinese companies and enslavement of Africans of a deeper nature as all products are made in China and they lose all know how, becoming mere buyers of products in exchange for minerals, risking getting lead filled products like Phillipines and becoming eternal slaves of China, swapping slavery by Germans to an even more deadly slavery to China with only primitive consumerism replacing the nascent industry of Africa. Once industry is gone, ethnic replacement of Africans by Chinese is a million times easier. Do these people even understand how China uses centralization to wipe out every Western brand? China controls 90% of the solar industry in 2025, vs 5% some years prior. They also got 1.7 mm resolution from 100 km away, meaning they can see grains of rice from space satellites. The Nature Index shows China has overtaken USA in 2024 as world's top research nation. Though, maybe USA decided to share less to protect its knowledge from being weaponized. Situation is complex, with China depending on Germany, Japan and USA for critical techs, they got 50 years before they can become a real superpower. Centralization is weak in China though compared to what it could be, they got millions of companies and total chaos with homeless like USA. Everything in agriculture is going robotic. Of the top 10 research institutions worldwide, in 2024, 7 were Chinese, only 1 American. China got in 2025, world's fastest charging electric car: US promotes gas cars and more violent music, macho hooliganism, global torture and terrorism of US citizens. Look at China flexible waterproof cement vs USA stone age cement, their lantern festival. China built world's largest pumped storage station that proves natural gas and fossil fuels are not needed, solar-wind are enough. They also built gravity storage batteries. China built a biodegradable foam removing 99.8% microplastics from water (most drinking water filters sold in USA remove only 70-90%). China built 157 km of highway without any human, using drones only, in a world first, can lay 1 km cable under water too. China built DeepSeek open AI system, giving it to the world, even if supposedly built with 30 times less money and is slightly better than the US system that the US shares with the world (the public US version, maybe 0.0001% of US knowledge), though the real story may be it's the same AI, just a PR to confuse some people or promote communism, as Pelosi knew about it too. On 01-27-2027, a week after the 01-20-2025 launch, NVIDIA stock went down 17%, stock market lost 1 trillion (600 billion lost by NVIDIA in 1 day, the biggest stock loss in world history), a quite steep fall for 1 day, this was an orchestrated move probably to teach people that humanitarian, give it all for free 11 companies for all humankind will win over corporate greed, as united in 11 companies we stand, divided in 33 million companies we fall. China invented a method of producing steel 3600 times faster, without the use of coke (a byproduct of coal processing), in a way that produces no carbon dioxide emissions. However, the Chinese system is not fully centralized like immortalist systems are, so low IQ companies in China (and elsewhere) use unsafe products to increase profits 1%. The money mentality needs to be wiped out, and longevity needs to be first. Meanwhile, America developed a new way to destroy human kindness via evil music and turn everyone into a brute☺☺☺ per MI6 guidelines of mass global extermination and turning everyone into a robotic slave, exporting the new music globally via depraved concerts for maximum wars to loot everyone efficiently, with minimum emissions. China makes clothes using robots (1 min video) as the 30 min video shows the evolution of textiles from UK to China. China made world's first van with a helicopter inside. China got a nice efficient milk factory unlike most factories and its own space station, unlike any other nation which has no space station of its own. In the West, America makes evil music and tortures tens of millions each year for Jewish evil Bible glorification. USA is wasting time with outdated British hooliganism (blowing by invisible guns like blowing people's brains and bodies into pieces in public by artillery guns before in India etc, plus centuries of mutilation of the 99% Brits enslaved by British aristocrats and royals, dumping opium in China by warfare to destroy China and damage the human quantum field), while China is slowly proving the British (so called American) criminal political system less efficient than thought. See the Chinese cities without overhead electric cables and minimal power outages, minimal fires due to storms, floods, lightning strikes, bombing, drone attacks, etc. US has no speed trains, California ones will cost a fortune (China built high speed rail even outside China 20 times cheaper than UK per km) and reach a mere 200 mph, vs 360 mph for Japan's fastest commercial (not a test version) train since 2003. China is planning to develop in 30 years some 2500 mph train, while US is happy with 200 mph tech of the salamander IQ anti-IMMORTALITY FOR ALL Capitalism.☺☺☺ Americans are enjoying 60 mph travels with cars and Neolithic 1769 British tech trains to waste their life, playing like baboons their 0 IQ UK, US invented sports and torturing millions globally and locally. Look at the amazing lavender seats lavender paint car in China, nothing like this in USA. Baboons love jumping and wasting time, not getting things done fast, why use airplane if train is much faster for short travels and even long ones, with 2500 mph, 5 times faster than airplanes? Plus trains can run on solar-wind electricity, airplanes still pollute a lot. Airplanes damage our bodies too, via cosmic radiation and only reach 500 mph. China bridges are world records. China TBMs video shows more, China taxi shows cool features. China trains are faster than US airplanes. Check out China's new cities in 2023, that 40 years prior didn't even have 1 skyscraper. Check out world's fastest metro train, 160 km/h from China. Check their enclosed metro vs American one. Chongqing (nice city 20$/day hotel) room 100$/month, vs 600$ in Italy, same 8$/hr salary. China supermarket shopping cart vs USA: 1 million times more toxic RF radiation from GPS for headaches, cancer and 1000s of new diseases… Consumerism not longevity, but nicer malls with 15-25 entrances. The space of stadiums etc could be used to house Immortality Universities to triple lifespans, with space to stretch, practice tai chi, meditation, immortalist music and lyrics. Capitalism/communism deify 80 yr lifespan, not 90000 one. Stadiums not brains, sports not IQ. Centralization as in China is not enough, we need to focus it on the immortalist goals. Happiness is in your head, you can be as happy being a researcher doing lab chores and building happiness techs and living to 900 techs, or play sports like a monkey. As long as CIA doesn't attack your head with microwaves, etc. China is copying the failed 'low IQ' of the West: stadiums don't allow any exercise, 50000 people simply sit, die slowly, watch 50 people playing soccer, etc. In an immortalist culture, they would be moving in the lab, in the Immortality park (part of it resembling slightly the fancy shopping malls ahead (50% of the malls are wasted space, doesn't extend lifespan and deep happiness), just with biomarker monitoring and things you can't do at home (gentle exercises, stretch), talking with others via telepathy, building new techs, eterni food labs, etc. That activity will help people live to 110 like some college professors who never exercise, but walk around the lab, and with many floors and 30 places to go for inter-departmental RESEARCH, standing to clean and fix devices, etc you exercise 2h/day instead of sitting in a stadium shouting. Why does China need 3 million sports venues when they lost 25% of green cover in 4 decades to desertification? Want exercise? Plant trees, don't watch soccer? Why are they not thinking of 3 million Immortality Unis, RESEARCH centers, immortality parks? Single family homes first? Good sleep first? The 1st stadiums were created by aristocrats to keep the masses busy, low IQ, hallucinating they're free & happy. The nobility doesn't watch the stadiums, they live happily in mansions, or maybe 2300 acres palaces or 2130 acre part-time living estates planning the next looting war (genocide). Stadiums are not really ensuring Immortality for All, nonkilling, nonviolence, nontorture, Eternal Universal Peace. Stadiums are a distraction at best, a way to lower the vibe and bring more war. China is safe vs some US areas, as there are fewer aristocrats trying to destroy the workers.

USA can't be the land of charlatan denominations and groups brainwashing people; everyone needs to be taught how miracles can happen due to placebo or autosuggestion due to psychosomatic effects and thru staged fraud and be aware that some people report some slight improvement due to strong expectation of something, but then it returns and they don't say it in the church gathering, they just show some testimonial, many times, all faked. For every miracle healing, prayer answered, there are 1 million unanswered, so it can be pure statistical chance and people exaggerating too often times. People want a land of freedom, not of slavery of the gullible, mind control and brainwashing that keeps everyone short lived and antiscience and uninterested in life extension, tech progress, easy to dupe and enslave by foreign spies. To be free is to know God and the truth, but to know God/truth we need to live very long to develop much better understanding of the universe, God's creation? How can we when we're forced, brainwashed to believe without any evidence? ☺☺☺ Everything in these denominations is indifferent to physical lifespan extension and immortalism, people are told events that are obviously fake are the literal truth, with no qualifier at all, that it could have all been made up to expand Roman empire, or whatever Mohamed tried to expand, etc, this is a form of pure fraud. The very national security of the state is completely undermined by these religions that indirectly promote a low goal, short lifespan and low tech, just eat wafers say nonsensical prayers about the 14 stations of the cross and Mary's fake miracles and all is good. In many countries religion classes were replaced by civic education and they can teach there Immortality for All ethics, we don't really need religion☺☺☺ anyway, just ethics. Religion, if it is to get tax free status, would engage all church goers into a vast technological renaissance and societal transformation to increase science literacy, technological ability to protect nation via tech, against all causes of death, including foreign espionage; thus, we need live long, as that develops much better tech. Religion is ideally better not allowed to create guilt of original sin, thru brainwashing about sin and other things, which make people dependent on priests who offer fake baptism to remove the original sin; this is pure fraud in the view of many, God doesn't need matter, water to bless people, or remove any "sin" (made up to increase priest profits and enhance taking over continents?), God can bless directly. To prevent the youth IQ from becoming abysmal in Sunday schools teaching the most illogical dogmas, the immortalist gov can run TV shows to explain how far more complex afterlife can be, how religions are full of illogical claims, contradictions, scribe rewriting, inventing, violent quotes the priests hide from us.

Eternia or any immortalist government is a land of freedom, i.e. they don't force kids and people to believe that only 1 out of millions of afterlife dynamics possibilities is true, without even informing them of 100 other possibilities for afterlife dynamics or interpretation of miracles (placebo, self-healing, exaggeration or pure fraud). To give freedom to the people is to give freedom to think, to formulate many hypotheses and test them, to get into that habit, to choose, among 100 possible hypotheses, given that we have no strong evidence for any of them; a government doesn't impose by subtle threat of parental discipline the youth with believing in whatever, as that is against honesty, against the scientific method of evidence based conclusion and progress, against freedom, loving kindness, democracy and development of intelligence, and means using too much forced energy (see verses 29, 30, 33, 37 of Tao Te Ching) which implodes the country in the long run. We present the pros and cons of fewer languages, companies, centralization, but we can't force it, as that leads to implosion later; people tried to impose one language or belief system without loving kindness and appealing to compassion for those dying due to lack of progress given by extreme decentralization, but it imploded; the immortalists can learn from past mistakes of those who tried centralization by force and give incentives to learn the common one language, etc, lovingly explain in the best tones the compassionate reasons for centralization, how it helps everyone, without yelling and rituals, just being humane and caring about the extreme ignorance we live in. etc We can't become like North Korea, while pretending to be a 'democracy'. Are we the Taliban or a truly loving, intelligent society, raising intelligent youth? The religions can create religious schools that brainwash the youth and disallow the government from running classes on ethics of "Immortality for All" and on religious fraud and other afterlife possibilities, classes that are not taught by religion believers to make students see a real skeptic making an argument of why a lot of that religion is "pure made up fiction" to give students a choice to enroll in another school without parents being able to bully or pressure the kid and brainwash him, to protect the students from cult like brainwashing against the scientific evidence based method; so, basically, it's fine to have freedom, etc, but not freedom to make US citizens so naive and low IQ from early age. Religions can't have higher authority than government, nor can church and state be one, by church dictating every detail of education.

There has to be a national ethics of Immortality for All class taught by irreligious super smart teachers who teach in all US schools, from nursery to postdoc, or those of any country adopting immortalism, so as to enable our planet's move towards Immortality for All ethics, instead of tribal factionalism and eternal war. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The Immortality Nurturing Agency ☺☺☺revises all texts and teachings of all religious, etc schools and takes the main template, the online courses of Immortality Ethics for public schools and adds a few videos for certain denominations and religions to more exactly explain what has no evidence to back it up and which teachings taught by the religion and their books has no evidence to back it up and can be viewed with scientific healthy skepticism for their own mental health. Due to the grade immortality test and national centralized online courses, nobody needs to attend physical school if they pass the exams and fulfill the lab requirements done at the 1 million | | Immortality for All | | Labs. The ethics of Immortality for All is the core of all spirituality and good religion, and together with discernment and scientific method of checking 50 sources, etc can be taught to raise IQ, etc. Without common national ethics, religious zeal can lead to collapse of the country, as fundamentalist Taliban like groups fight with each other. It's funny how many Americans think they're SO different than other countries they criticize, without realizing that to foreigners they seem in some ways similar to those they criticize. The immortalist government can even run ads about these "raise your fluid intelligence and evidence based thinking, hypothesis formulation, discernment, kindness" shows on all networks, radio and TV, to free people from brainwashing, until the full centralization of the core principles that sustain a civilization (honesty, intellectual integrity, evidence based thinking, hypothesis formulation and testing, fluid intelligence, kindness, not forcing beliefs and conclusions, otherwise no good inventors exist, everyone is a parrot) is achieved in every 'formerly religious brainwashing' institution.☺☺☺ The American Revolution was about freedom, not just from a few issues, but also religious oppression and 'IQ lowering' of the youth, due to the Inquisition experiences of forced via torture 'low IQ' belief under threat of killing.

Religious entities whose teachings are ultra low IQ or illogical, without evidence, antiscience, claiming miracles happened without explaining how all the miracles could all be fake, cult like, anti | | Immortality for All | | would not get tax free status and may even be disbanded to prevent the subjugation and enslavement of the American (or immortalist government country) people: why would a government support its own demise by peddling to foreign interests to destroy America or Eternia like unionist federations or new countries, by lowering of the national IQ? "Religious freedom" can be used as a trick by foreigners, who have blended with locals and pretend to be locals, to keep a country backwards for 500 years or a puppet colony. There will most likely be a lot of variability in how immortalist countries enforce their promotion of national IQ and intelligence development by banning low IQ stuff from ancient century

mindsets. If Tesla etc lived to 150, he would have made even more inventions etc, so we need all to support long lifespans for national security and wellbeing. Religion can't be allowed to make citizens 'low IQ', as it destroys the human quantum entanglement field, at least the national one. ☺☺☺ Look at Honduras, Catholic and all that, they got highest crime almost in the world, so? Russia, Orthodox (identical to Honduras Catholicism almost), has lifespan of only 72 like Honduras, South Korea with all that English and Protestant stuff 83. Is it by accident? There is a little more freedom of thought and stuff in Protestantism, and a more engaged attitude; ☺☺☺ Catholicism (Orthodoxism, Islam, etc) makes people ultra content with what is, with the low short lifespan they have, the ultra dysfunctional society they're in, concerned only with confessing sins to Italian spies and eating wafers, making various Muslim/Christian rituals, and being good, without really seeking to develop their intelligence, discernment, scientific knowledge, the 200 qualities that build civilizations of Immortals, to really improve housing conditions for all thru high tech discoveries, nanomaterials, to modernize centralize medical insurance, tech, treatment and food production to give foods that triple lifespan and IQ, and to try to verify the claims made by the Vatican, Mecca dogma inventors, such as in 1950 they decided out of thin air, Mary ascended into Heaven physically and it became dogma. This kind of lethargic apathy is undermining the progress and evolution of the society, makes people very gullible and anti immortalism, since it's not specified in prayers, service anything about bringing that world of Immortals who live to 400 or later 5 billion. Amerigo Vespucci discovered America, per official story, hence America, but we may change that name over eons to something that resonates deeper into Immortality for All, like Eternia. We have so much Italian energy, Machiavelli Florentine republic energy in USA, due also to the Florentine Americo Vespucio (in Spanish) maybe, that it creates an anti Immortality for All energy. Vikings allegedly made some landings in USA in 1100 too. Many believe, like me, that Christianity was created by spies for political purposes, like all main religions. However, some good ideas emerged that can help humans to develop 'Immortality'. The Declaration of Independence talks of "unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of happiness", Life, living to 1 trillion, freedom to live to a trillion and be happy. Immortality for All, Life for All, Liberty to live to a Trillion for all.

As Internet appeared and people realized the nature of religions and etc, it will seem natural for people to want to amend the Constitution to better protect the right to octillion (10^{27}) year lifespan for all humans, prevent charlatans and foreign spies from subjugating Americans, destroying our tech development potential: "The Declaration of Immortality for All" can be written by people in thousands of versions according to what they think it important, a few ideas being below, so we're independent from war, disease, violence, short lives, aging, weather catastrophes and all causes of death. Let every nation create one such declaration if they wish and bring a higher IQ world. The right to "religion, weapons, listening to loud music and fireworks while waking others up and shortening their lifespans etc" can't infringe on the most important right to Life, the freedom to live to an octillion; so if guns, loud parties, violent music, etc shorten average lifespans or religion (or some violent sports) does thru lowering IQ and stifling longevity progress and misdirection of society's money, then the right to Life becomes more important and supersedes the right to brainwash billions of people with fake miracles in the name of "freedom to preach lies". ☺☺☺ Likewise, the lifespan of the average person increases when inefficiency is eliminated, due to more R&D, so the right to Life/living to a trillion supersedes all other rights. We can't replace one oppressor, the British Crown with its Freemasons (like the American founders who were Freemasons, all or some of whom may have been British spies, Freemasons have odd rituals with threats of violence/killing and simulations that pollute the human species quantum field, which are incompatible with Immortalism ethics of "no threats and no killing" etc and are ideally not approved in any religion or organization by immortalist governments who would approve and verify every ritual to make it free from violence cues that splinter society into groups and end ||Immortality for All||), with another oppressor: dysfunctional inefficiency, redundancy and religious brainwashing brought to our shores by gullible or evil people bent on keeping us enslaved in ignorance and short lifespan lives of low IQ. The Living Light of the universal nonsectarian Holy Spirit, of Immortality for All, can gently peacefully lovingly gracefully healingly liberate all humanity from the oppression of those who brainwash us via rituals, fake miracles, dogmas, to stunt the growth of IQ and gentle tender Immortal sweet healing nurturing shimmering universal loving kindness. By diminishing kindness, and focusing on ritual, they create division to conquer. The Radiance Eternal of the shimmering shapeshifting Immortal lifespan can be everyone's and we can make that the goal of our civilization, enshrine it in our Constitution, bring it ever closer, until all are free and everyone lives to a trillion years old at least. The Spirit is probably octillions times stronger than matter and can create an Immortal physical body in various realms, dimensions and planets easily, but because we're so poor in spirit (IQ etc), we can't do that, we're lost in rituals? Can America become Eternia? Yes we can. Amen. We got a lot of pastors preaching the Gospel of abundance, in gigantic buildings, when they could teach online and use megachurch materials to house the homeless, show a Living Light of universal loving kindness in action, a true Spirit of ||Immortality for All||, Heaven for all. Let the Light of altruism win over the divisions of unproven dogmas and endless rules about doing this and that, facing Mecca and etc when praying. God is everywhere, in all universes, doesn't belong to a building or location only on Earth. God is in every human, and this realization ends all violence, speeds up longevity progress, brings ||Immortality for All||.

Certain immortalist governments, of future or hypothetical nations, like Eternia, could go a step further in building national defense of the ||Immortality for All|| vibe, culture, etc as explained below. The most valuable thing a nation has is its culture which determines its ethics and tech level. In a culture of any "charlatanism and lie goes", the collapse is bound to happen in a few centuries or sooner, as ethics becomes compromised. To build a nation that lasts a billion years, when all old nations vanished, one has to create a far more ethical foundation and renew it, improve it each decade. A weak foundation will invite collapse.☺☺☺ What could the constitution of Immortality capitalism countries who're more dedicated be like? It can be very simple, similar in some ways to the US one, but with a strong emphasis on Immortality for All, so the words "Immortality, tone of speech, emotion, thought, intent, health, longevity, nurturing healing gentle tender soft loving kind compassion" will be very present unlike any other Constitution in existence today, especially talk of the unalienable right to trillion year lifespan for all overriding any other right, like the 'right to exploit others by monetizing spirituality, common sense ethics teachings, selling unprovable claims about afterlife via 'religion institutions brainwashing people via Neolithic rituals, fake miracles', lower the IQ of citizens, while defrauding the state of taxes and weakening national defense by making citizens ultra naive, antiscience, short-lived due to anti tech progress stance, and easy to exploit by foreign spies'. The state can give from nursery to postdoc and even during adult life, Immortality for All Ethics classes for free, presenting the 100+ good qualities and non-assuming scientist evidence based humble gentle eterni hypothesis formulation and testing IQ raising emotion, speech tone that build a world of peace and Immortals, and also hypotheses of what may happen in afterlife, if real, that are 1000 times more complex than the IQ lowering 1st century stuff people are forced to "repeat like parrots by organized religions, after being forced to donate 10% of income sometimes thru brainwashing", and to wear undergarments with Freemason symbols, Freemason aprons (see video) and also use secret handshakes like masons, baptize dead people using live people (water not needed, see why here): high level mind control. The constitution can also use ideas in Anthem Eternal. While centuries ago people were very unaware of science, today the ideas below are more mainstream, they become more so with each passing decade.

4.5.5. ~*~ The Universal Declaration of Immortality for All ~*~

We the People of Eternia (USA, EU or any nation interested in being free from terror), in the spirit of gentle tender soft universal nurturing healing loving kindness towards all nations, gently write our "Declaration of Immortality for All ",☺☺☺ to inspire humans to create or amend their constitutions and rid the world of institutionalized torture, deception, damage to human quantum field, genocide praise, violence (beating kids with rods presented as 'Word of God' to billions, which teaches violence works and war is fine) worship disguised as religion. It's a declaration of independence from superstitions, from spanking (causes aggression, antisocial behavior, destroys families and teaches violence is the way), clergy infant slapping (and parental violence deified as 'God's Will' to torture babies during baptism*)*, from traumatic evil violence causing yelling by pastors who shout to extract 'disease' as if shouts remove diseases (listen), rabbis who shout at God, Buddhist monks, imams, Hindu preachers, politicians ($1 million fine if thousands present, 500$ million if millions present, it is incitation to violence and crime, God doesn't need shouts to "extract disease or 'demons' etc"), from beatings/genocide deified in the Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives), from violence, torture vibes, scriptural or cultural quotes, texts, songs that call for violence, genocide, terror, mass rape, torture and lead to war and killings and thus end Immortality for All, from fake claims of miracles (no evidence), fraud, from rampant fraudulent ads and dishonesty by 1 million companies, from instigation to eternal violence disguised as 'freedom of religion' or "freedom to sing", from fake elections, from taxation without representation (will make all taxes 0), freedom from the second amendment (right to Trillion Year Lifespan is ABOVE right to bear arms, US Constitution changed, as it was made by frauds, right to bear arms and make guns number one killer of children in USA is void (Australia no mass shooting last 30 years, USA got 600 in 2023), because the fake 1776 government introduced no real reforms, only a change in which parasitic aristocrats rule USA), from slavery (people work 3 jobs 70 hrs a week, to make what a rich man makes in 1 minute), from daily torture of millions by spy agencies, militaries, from 2 billion dead due to alcohol deifying by the Bible, from 8 million killed yearly by the tobacco aristocrats, from 10 million killed by improper cooking fumes causing lung cancer and damage to every organ via PAHs (yes cooking fumes can do as much damage as smoking, since exposure is 24-7 in billions of homes), from 9 million killed via AGEs by food aristocrats, from 20 million killed by improperly aerated houses, poor indoor air in old and new houses via neglect and profit maximization by builders and developers who treat customers as dogs to be exterminated in gas chambers called hotels and houses, condos and apartments. For 500 years, since the printing press allowed people to expose how aristocracy used the Catholic Church (richest landowner in Europe, biggest financier of wars) to enrich themselves, people have fought to print/tranlate the Bible to show the evil inside. Freedom of religion, music is respected, but not freedom to promote genocide, terror, violence in the name of rap, rock, pop or 'scripture'. The human right to life, to Eternal Universal Peace, Eternal World Peace, is 1 trillion times more important than the right to call for the end of human life of millions of people in the Bible or Quran or any other right. One has to be alive to experience any other right. Anyone is free to believe anything, as long as it's not calling for torture, terror and violence of groups or people who don't believe the obviously fake miracles or claims. People can choose kindness for all, as in Anthem Eternal. When in the course of human evolution, as Thomas Jefferson once wrote, people are subject by the Forces of Torture, Terror & War to the suppression of the 10 basic rights of the next paragraph, or subject to new forms of subjugation via use of religion or music to expand military empires, the people have the right to free themselves and choose reason, so as to facilitate a gradual healing of society, thru positive, nonviolent and happy changes, without revolutions, thru peaceful evolution, to enable small or big nations in love with immortalism to unite, eliminate redundancy, increase efficiency, use one language and speed longevity progress 1 trillion fold, to thus allow the New Nation (e.g. Eternia (anthem) etc) to one century grant Immortality to All humans: trillion year lifespans.

The 10 currently suppressed rights and values (parenthesis explains how it is done) are:

1. high IQ and rational evidence based thinking (via cult like religious rituals/brainwashing, freemasonry killing ritual (George Washington took part in, goes against the ethos of nonkilling and infinite love for all beings) etc) to increase efficiency and innovation 100 fold.

2. individual freedom to think/choose (via sleep deprivation and brain writing with technology),

3. hypothesis formulation and testing (via weak standards of scientific evidence)

4. kind MUSIC (via lust or violence filled music)

5. gentleness (via the horrific genocide, cannibalism, violence, beatings quotes the Bible has imposed at gunpoint on billions of people and turning America and the West into a Taliban like civilization), providing all with single family houses + buy/sell houses in 2 days. Rabbis, pastors, imams lie that God wants beatings of kids, wives, when any real God knows a trillion ways to any outcome that is free from torture, pain inflicting, injury, war, violence. Only some animals, baboons beat their own, humans don't, but some people have a long way to even become human. This global praise of 1000s of violent quotes in scripture fuels endless wars and violent crime. Why not stop it? In Saudi Arabia, Islam is the only allowed religion in public. The world can 1. have Immortality for All*, torture for none, as the* only ethics, 2. ban violent religions: Islam, Judaism, Christianity. But if more people realize they're fake religions and prophets, there is no need for bans at all. Churches, temples, etc are methods of mind control and brainwashing, so personal connection to God is ignored, creating dependency and enslavement by the clergy. God is in your house too. For eons we had "Kill/Torture Millions" 'religions', why not evolve to "Kill, Torture, Injure None"? When can humans declare independence from fake violent religions based on violent lies? Why can't 400000 pastors be honest, admit they don't know and have 0 proof any miracle happened and any heaven is granted to those paying donations to them and build 50 million mini-churches, i.e. decent houses, (volunteer or get a job with Immortality Building Inc*, no pressure, listen on earphones to favorite religious prayers, be happy, kind in action, not words)* that are nice, with qualities around, like each house is a "church/temple/mosque" for people to meditate, or pray and reach God without conmen intermediaries? Why be a parasite? US gives visas to clergy, instead of teen or young adult high IQ geeks, wasting our taxpayer money. Americans, please vote the Immortalist Party if you want fewer parasites. Pastors can kindly help turn jails into healing centers, and stop telling lies.

6. tenderness or universal gentle tender soft nurturing graceful loving kindness (via bad sports)

7. right of all humans to live to a trillion billion years as a happy being thanks to centralization increasing longevity research jobs 1000 fold. These happy Immortals are perhaps genderless shimmering shapeshifting Immortals energy like (possibly new matter) template in the future, thus not of any peculiar appearance, thus no longer encouraging fights over appearance or language, since all can understand any language, being trillions of times faster in information processing or humans finally have one language

8. win-win mindset (have a billion friends helping us to live longer, instead of win-lose (0-sum game) mindset of 'subjugate, torture, terrorize various nations and start wars among them to dominate them' which leads to our nation being destroyed down the centuries when others discover new techs as we spread in space and can't check on what they're discovering or even on Earth; look at history: huge empires are now tiny helpless backward countries, all past violence gave them nothing but poverty in the long run; now some think they got some nuke tech to terrorize or threaten others, but in the future, it will be as useful as a stick in war today and those threats live for millennia and come back to the nation issuing them to shrink it),

9. humility and honesty (via forcing belief in one of millions of theories about what happens in the afterlife, when all are mere hypotheses),

10. the right of all humans to live in ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in all galaxies, not just World Peace *(US, like all other nations, got many (0.4 million) places of worship (churches mostly), many big, sitting empty much of the time, millions of sports fields where they shove (basketball, football, rugby, etc), kick others' legs (injuries that shorten lifespan, soccer), shout (all of them) and develop anti-peace qualities, tones and behaviors, where 0 World Peace chapels or centers exist, but huge sports fields, 1 million restaurants and 0☺☺ ~~Eternal Universal Peace~*~ centers for World Peace in 3 months, 20 billion hours of sports news and 0 hr news about how to achieve Eternal World and Galactic Peace in 1 month, or 1 year: shoving, shouting (instead of healing musical speech, music while doing exercise, with mics for every kid in classes, connected to the desk and the wired sound system, to prevent loud speech and use brain resources for thinking and refining emotion instead, without WiFi) from Catholic and other churches in the sports courts that create restless youth instead of tranquil angelic one, is more important than building a decent world without killing (the gravest sin) and violence), endless talk about various quotes OK, yet talk of concrete steps to end killings, the gravest sin, by World Peace in 3 months and all violent crime in 10 years absent globally in daily services).

HONESTY FIRST, SECOND AND LAST: NOW AND ALWAYS:

Freedom FROM 'religion' and ethics monetization (which is actually what most religions are doing, donations for unprovable claims (stated as facts, not as hypotheses that may be true or false) that invite dishonesty, donations for entering into some fixed ritualized behavior that enhances lowering of IQ) is a freedom nobody talks about. All immortalist nations can be fine with spirituality, as long it doesn't involve making money off speculations about afterlife, ethics. Lies start small violent crimes or even world wars, so lies are bad. Thus, receiving donations for saying religious lies leads to wars and even the 10 second end of human beings. Any lie makes more people ultra frustrated that the government gives tax exempt status to charlatans and increases negative emotions, anger in the quantum field, emotions which can cause species extinction via war. We can't allow clergy or anyone to say afterlife, miracle, etc unproven lies as if they're facts, as that destroys the very human species eventually via the mechanism above. Stating lies are facts, "We believe x, y, z" without the reason for it, lowers IQ, destroys intellect, logical thinking, makes our kids incredibly low in IQ, gullible, lacking any critical thinking skills, as they memorize beliefs, instead of evaluating a trillion possible hypotheses and scenarios. Silly adults will be easy to fool and incapable of bringing World Peace in 3 months. Therefore, we can't allow companies to say lies either. Lies include many religion claims and beliefs are, since they have no scientific (not paid faked studies and hear say stories). Religion is making people get used to telling lies to others, because obviously they don't say "it is hypothesized, but not yet proven" and because there is no evidence for their claims about afterlife, no physics instruments to detect this and that soul went there and did this and that. Thus, to make money off lies is pure theft, an an act of subtle genocide against all human beings, as lies lead to species extinction eventually. We live in the 21st century when we're past cave age of the 1st century. The immortalist nations law would forbid any donations for afterlife claims or any fraudulent claims that can't be proven, such as "milk will do you good" without peer reviewed studies, etc, "try the new candy that will taste so good" (this candy will cause cavities and diabetes for some, so it's a toxic thing if it shortens lifespan via other ingredients too); the day of 'any junk goes' on TV would be over. For example Big Pharma (75% of Pharma world profits, 4% of population to finance PALACES in Mexican Cartel Style Trillion $ Thefts) runs ads "take this miracle drug that lowers blood glucose, the amazing Scam Product" without stating "Immortality Nurturing Agency at INA.gov/diabetes has a free pdf of 4,000☺☺☺ pages with 100 other methods of diabetes prevention/treatment with fewer side effects, so try those first for maximum lifespan. All claims in our ad are verified in these 100 studies covering 10 million people, with exact data for any number used in any ad" instead of unscientific filif comical☺ "best diabetic product" types of statements that are general vague and deceptive. Due to the risk of all humans dying in 10 seconds via violent emotions leading to WW3, all ads need to have World Peace in 3 months and 0 Violent Crime in 3 years on the screen, plus serene meditative instrumental background music during any ad vocal content. People's health would always be above company profits.

WHY ARE LIES SO BAD? They're the STRATEGY of self-destruction and death. Lies only lead to short-term gains, in the long run, they lead to stagnation or even regress. Why is excessive spying leading to poor info and devolving, stagnating, slowing progress? Militaries and spy agencies spend trillions to run covert spy programs, deceive others, etc, but the truth is an honest nation (that simply abstains from providing info, instead of telling lies) can get the same or better intelligence for a trillion times less money. Say for example you're world's most honest leader, no BS, everyone trusts you, as Honesty is Taught more and the 11 companies system is the most Honest to the Poor of any nation. 2 leaders or even 3 volunteers who admire our 0 violent crime, our immortalist culture, who travel to science of immortality conferences, can tell you one on one info way more valuable than the info you got from the efforts of 10 million spies at 20 federal agencies. 2 folks beat 20 million, get that? Why? They really trust you're a good guy who wants to give all humans trillion years lifespans as happy shimmering genderless shapeshifting Immortals. They love USA so much, they volunteer info. God knows a trillion billion ways to World Peace and Eternal Immortality for All, without any lies, war, violence or torture, because God has an infinitely higher amount of knowledge. Humans are tuning forks and people are able to tell you're an honest guy if your country is never caught spying on other nations and USA talks of World Peace and ethics 12 hours daily minimum on all radio and TV programs and implements of the 5 categories for all websites. You quantum entangle with people (earthlings or like long lived shapeshifting Immortals) who don't lie and when you don't lie, everything you say resonates 1 trillion times differently from when normal pathological liar leaders talk. This resonance makes your tech transfer from shapeshifting Immortals 1 trillion times more effective than when liar nations try it. What people fail to comprehend is that you can't advance past a level of technology, without being honest for a very simple reason any 1st grader can understand: in China people fake stuff and take shortcuts, causing explosions, bridge collapse, building failure. With advanced tech, a mistake can blow up the planet, so the old way of today, where the most grotesque serial killers award themselves 50000 times the salary and pretend to work 50000 times harder, and where everything is fraud and anything goes simply can't operate those technologies of living to a million. We're pathological liars and dishonest unhappy people who can blow up planets easily. What fusion plant can hyenas create? The human information field will destroy a nation that uses lies to get info by force, torture, etc more than average, which as a side effect will create confusion, violent crime, war. The level of corruption, dishonesty is a society mirrors its level of technology and Immortality. Do spies study how many dust mites or viruses are on the leaf 4598 of tree 8888999 in a nation? No, so why do you as Immortals, who can live to a trillion, waste all your life to study the other evil nations, instead of discovering how to live to a trillion and move beyond the bacteria stage? Those evil nations are like bacteria and you become like what you focus on: bacteria or Immortals. The more you focus on a short-live ant, like humans are versus Immortals, by spying on them, the more you reinforce your subconscious fear that they're mighty and that you need to fear them, instead of having then subconscious belief that you can live to 1 trillion or 400 first and without their help. You become as long lived as the lifeforms you focus on, so if you focus on Immortals you live to 9 billion one day, if you focus on human enemies, you live to 90 forever. The ☺ultra low IQ masses☺ who worry so much about human enemies are like people who worry that some ants from another continent might kill you next hour. Focus on changing and fixing your own evil dishonest nature, your nation, via 11 companies, before you spy via 3 trillion USA programs on "how many hairs are on the anus of insects on other continents". Do you realize how scarcity reinforcing this strategy is and how you totally undermine and destroy the USA with your religion of Eternal Spying on/torture of humans, eternal violence, eternally violent scriptures? It's as if you're a nation who builds a prison around yourself and limits oneself and has such low self-esteem and such low confidence, that you can't imagine you CAN bring World Peace via New Ways yourself, without causing any pain for anyone, without spying, without lies, without fraud and pretending one knows miracles happened. Imagine a guy who spends 10 hours daily checking on what neighbors are doing, if they come in or out of the house, etc. He won't do anything to fix his life and house. We don't have the slightest concept of what Information, Wisdom and Insight the Immortals have: trillions of times more advanced than anything humans can even imagine. Everything solid is quantum information. Thinking of them gets you their information, without even them wanting to give it to you. Everyone is a tuning fork, if you resonate with man, you live to 90, if you resonate with Immortals, to 2 trillion. You vibrate as those you tune into. The way the military wastes trillions is insane to say the least. It acts as the most mind blowing psychological trust and lack of self-confidence in your ability to innovate, out innovate and bring that World of Peace by the eternal grace and power of gentle tender soft nurturing loving healing kindness. Why not innovate more via 11 companies, instead of having 40 million spies? The Immortals are more real than anything in our world (since we're more fleeting and less real therefore) and you can quantum entangle with them and become like them, learn their ways and ethics, since some of them are your descendants, the grandsons etc of your grandsons. The future is parallel, they exist in this eternal now. Even more amazing is that when 350 million entangle with them, think of them, the tech transfer is 3 million times faster at least, so where do you stand? You think your inventions come from randomness only? In statistics, in an infinity of probable events, if an event happened, like the human civilization, an infinite variation of that event ("space traveling humans") happened already, and some of them live to a trillion, so even in real time, not Eternal Now, there ought to be Immortals, but they may not know about us, except 1 group, since in infinity, one of those infinite variations also knows about us, at least in a generic sense, like we know some bacteria exist. Would you kindly teach a microbe how to reach immortality if they asked you to? Well, that depends on how advanced you're as a soul. You may tell them, you need to learn ethics, so you become a force of good, instead of a destructive microbe, you will shapeshift and become XYZ via science.

Thomas Jefferson wrote in the Declaration of Independence a long list of issues with the British Crown (typical for all past (many still present in reality, covertly) empires and present undeclared empires) that caused USA to declare independence, one of them being taxation without representation, i.e., in the modern world, 250 years later, the rich pay half the poor, billionaires 8% or half of the average worker in many states 15%, and tax free status of brainwashing religions that keep us clueless and short-lived being paid by all Americans and citizens who don't believe in that and try to quadruple the lifespan of all. The tax thing is only one of a long list of issues that cause the free immortalist citizens of the Earth to declare themselves informed of some issues (less talked about by politicians today, due to 'fear' of not being voted for in the fake elections) and free to work on ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ to liberate humanity from the oppression of the historical inertia, to become independent themselves from these bad subtle hard to notice influences of the past. The issue is not much about the tax, but about the collapse of ethics this free lies or paid lies for all brings (lies = other dimensional Immortality, impossible to prove, if fees paid and rituals done. Unlike the lies, lifespan length or physical 'immortality', living to 500 can be verified and benefits society in many ways, including national defense; Reagan "trust but verify" - well how can you verify those eating more wafers got to a higher heaven or lived eons longer in a realm?). At least tone of speech is proven by studies, neuroscience, to immediately influence human behavior as we imitate the emotions others encode in speech tone; some churches do a lot of charity, so they do some good besides the brainwashing; however, one can do charity without the fake stuff, as a spiritual nonprofit or ethical one that doesn't sell unprovable claims as fact and forces kids/adults to repeat beliefs they have no way of verifying; some religious entities may do charity to get a better image about their tax free status. The means to a World of Peace☺☺☺ and | |Immortality for All| |, ideally match the end, so it is done gracefully with infinite patience and compassion for the billions of people enslaved by organized brainwashing institutions. 100 religions create divisions too, there must be at least some common thing or else a country has a weak point that weakens quantum entanglement of the people, we need one language or common language, one spirituality ethics system, far more advanced 'hypotheses about afterlife set' than the simplistic intellect destroying one in main religions. One Roman emperor imposed Christianity by force in 325 AD, after some prior ones repressed it, since he believed it was a good idea and that it would unify the empire: however, a lie can't unify, truth leaks; it would be much easier to allow infinite freedom of hypothesizing, while setting a common ethics of not monetizing afterlife speculations and ethics that everyone agrees on be taught in schools, etc. In the 1st century, Christianity was a modern religion, today it seems like a rat IQ religion.

However, the nonscientific method based religion, based on the method of making stuff up no longer matches the century of high science proof today, so to establish national unity we need a unifying free ethics system, ethics.gov with the most science proven tones to light up the brain areas related to happy universal gentle tender soft nurturing healing serene loving kindness, teaching from age 0 days (pregnancy for parents) to 150 years, the Ethics of Immortality for All, via videos. Such a free online Centralized Education like ethics system can be co-created by thousands of ethicists, philosophers, etc, pastors, scientists, New Age hippies, peaceful musicians or singers, but all based on the fundamental truth of qualities that build Immortality for All and possibly very complex afterlife dynamics, way more complex than heaven and hell. Instead of talking in a tone so bad, 1000 times worse than that of the best younger voices (brain can be double in size at 20 vs 100, and far more capable of eterni tone), and preaching that genocide, mass rape calls are Word of God to billions of innocent kids, it would be seen as more ethical to help build the Paradise Healing Centers, nicer than Disneyland, that replace all prisons and reduce violent crime 1 billion fold, in a true demonstration of spirituality. Having seen the joy of single family homes, the liberation of nuns, monks, staff from the oppressive ideas, brainwashing, lies, music and tone of speech of pastors, bishops, etc, having the joy of everyone being a pastor via youtube and no longer restricting singing to a 1st century pattern of ☺filif lobster IQ☺ and lifespan shrinking, the joy of being free to think and express yourself, to commune with God 3000 times better than the present rituals allow, the joy of happy breathing and soul travel, the wave of electric transformation fills all religious people with the zeal of America's Universal Immortality Transformation, over eons, into the land of teleporting shimmering shapeshifting Immortals. So, filled with true realization of God's nature, the religious join the new social work of bringing the Kingdom of God on Earth, by embodying the very spirit of the sages they tell us about every day. They realize grace comes from God, not Jesus, Moses… A nun or church goer can be closer to God that any priest, have the nicer tone, yet her/his tone, music, etc can never replace the terrible tones, lyrics, music today in churches, even if we have the tech to do it, via recordings, just as our education will completely change to create the tones of God, or what we scientists love to call the human right to a trillion year lifespan, Immortality for All. The problem is the Vatican and most churches are run by 75 year old rotten brains, old men whose capacity of eterni tone is 3 times lower than that of a 25 year old who has not been tortured and destroyed by the military-industrial complex psychopaths. ☺

Freedom of religion is allowed, you can believe in anything about the afterlife, post it on youtube or pdfs, have online forums, etc, gather in the City Hall meetings rooms for chats events etc, as long as it doesn't interfere with the fundamental right of all human beings of being alive, the first and most important human right to Immortality for All, by having passages in their text that call for genocide, like the evil Quran or the evil Torah/Bible. The immortalist government of an immortalist nation, seeing the imminent danger of the 1-2 capsule scenario that kills all humans in 10-50 seconds, can choose, and rightfully so, to make 0 violent crime and World Peace in 3-100 months its number one priority. This means that national unity, national honesty, national nonviolence, international peace, are paramount and ethics is daily for hours on TV in the most beautiful tones and videos, not just in the 6 months period before the implementation of the state of emergency tougher penalties. National Honesty means that God and spirits are immaterial beings and don't need any intermediate material objects, buildings, clergy to reach out to people and inspire them to become kinder, Godlier or more spiritual. Spiritual energy is immaterial and doesn't need matter as an intermediate to achieve its effects. Spiritual energy goes directly from God to everyone, without any object or person needed, for the simple reason that any object and person simply confuses the receiver and makes them dependent on a faulty object, ritual or human, or a fraudster who steals others' money for some 'blessing or ritual of removing sins'. Spirituality and religion are not businesses and anyone who asks for donations is a business and therefore is regulated by the Immortality Nurturing Agency in the same way as companies whose ads are now required to provide a website with 5000 references, studies on 1 million people at least, proving the specific claims in their product, instead of generic parasite looter statements "We are the world leader in product X, buy our Vioxx (killed 38000 people) pills to drop dead of heart attack to treat your knee".

To end all violent crime stemming from fraudulent claims to loot people via donations, to inspire an ethics of proof based claims and not of Jewish Global Fraud, it is the duty of all immortalist governments, to create an international policy that all spiritual and religion activities are done online, without donations, or by visiting the 1 million ethics youtube, spirituality youtubes and testimonials, theories, hypotheses at ethics.gov, the universal world government of 11 companies and 3 agencies, (or their national government ethics.cn for China etc) or by going in person in the meditative relaxation halls of the Immortality City Centers (1 million of them, free biomarker monitoring, etc) where people can reserve a space for their gathering, socializing and where it's much more sound proof, much nicer, with Immortality for All and basic qualities of immortalism on the walls, 1000 times nicer than any church/temple today, as intellect and ethics, emotional intelligence of The aristo*crats* is replaced by that of immortalist We the People, the collective intelligence of the planet, 5 trillion smarter than pompous religious aristocracy itself, etc. All spiritual activity is immaterial and doesn't require physical objects, money and such, and therefore to prevent fraud and lies, it is the duty of the government to prevent the classical parasite of millennia from making claims to extract money from gullible ☺ filif chimp IQ masses☺. Since mosques, Mahabharata Bhagavad Gita based temples, synagogues, churches deify genocide, unjust war, rape, theft, violent crime, slavery or dowry (encourages human traffic of daughters so parents get rich, and girls marrying for 3 months to get paid millions), they can't be legal, as they're terrorist organizations that promote the violence in the name of fictional Gods of hell. Bible dowry quotes are everywhere. ☺☺☺

Why is Saudi Arabia banning all religions, except the 0 IQ violent rape genocide praising evil Islam, while we allow Muslims to set up mosques everywhere on the planet? Why can't the United States and all immortalist nations worldwide of the future simply ban any fraud violence filled scripture, like Bible, Torah, Quran, Mahabharata, Bhagavad Gita and focus on the spiritual real religion of Truth, HONESTY, integrity, a better longer healthier life for all and providing proof for any claim made when asking for donations, which is obviously going to ask for interdimensional physics proof of these spirits existing and what not, which then means the end of monetary donations for religions. Quran says Christians are pigs and contradicts what the fraudulent violent Bible says, so which of the frauds is true? None of course, they're both made up. Christianity says one thing and Quran contradicts a lot of its tenets (have 100s of wives if you wish, rape endless virgins after looting their towns, maybe killing their husbands like Mohamed did etc), so how can both be true? They're not, they're both hallucinations. Physics is one, you don't have 1500 denominations of physics or versions of classical mechanics laws or Maxwell equations. Only one. Religion is nonsense, the rituals of baptism changed a lot, many women used to wear a veil back in 1700s, etc. All humans value life and 0 homicide means 0 violent crime and 0 violent crime means 0 theft and 0 fraud, for big theft often leads to violence by cartels. Genocide, war, violent crime start with small frauds, like fraudulent Catholic Popes, Bishops, priests and Protestant liars claiming that the miracles of Jesus happened, that others did miracles when they provide 0 evidence for their extortion racket of stealing trillions from gullible people worldwide, just as the violent imams do when they promote violence or Islamic miracles to the naive masses. As you can see, the religions today are a cover for amassing trillions of dollars, and not positive contributions to society. Out of all their donations, only a tiny fraction goes to the poor, most goes to their employees, nuns and clergy who live off the gullible ☺infinitesimal IQ masses☺ donating to them.

We immortalists love to bring positive energy, so we say maybe humans will live to 9 billion in a trillion years hopefully if science gets there, we're not promising them living to 9 billion in a trillion years, only that we can eliminate DISHONESTY, Fraud, Theft, Violence via the state of emergency and true spirituality free of money, so real science can develop, so scientists stop fabricating data and discover longevity instead of making weapons for wars started by naive or low IQ folks' believing in religions of fraud/theft. Churches, mosques, temples who spread unprovable claims for $/fraud are guilty of genocide, wars coming from theft, lies. Dishonesty leads by ripple effects to big world wars. We don't need to remain savage chimps with IQ of 4 year olds, we can grow up and see religion for the nonsense it is, the criminal extortion network to enrich a few alpha males that it was and is. Likewise, making people laugh by making violent or insensitive jokes is an evil violation of the immortalist ethos of gentle tender soft grace. Thus, in immortalist societies all entertainment is centered around the end of all violent crime in 5 years. No other content is made until the savage human chimp becomes nonviolent. All entertainment is done Eternal Altruism Inc, one of the 11 companies of the immortalist society, and all content is focused on beautiful tone music, that is infinitely gentle, kind, soft, compassionate,☺☺☺ deifying ethics.gov and the end of jails created by fraudulent religious or atheist aristocratic terror. Jews in Australia lobby for jailing people who make Nazi salute and who incite racial hate, so in that case, all those who visit mosques, synagogues, Jewish temples, Mahabharata based temples, churches are guilty of inciting racial hatred, because the Quran incites hate of Jews and Christians, Mahabharata praises genocide of various groups, and the Bible incites hate of various Arab/gentile nations that are to be exterminated, as well as hate of Jews in the gospel. If we're an honest society, that claims to be against hate crimes, we need to apply these laws equally: the Torah, Bible, Quran are no different than Mein Kampf, Adolf Hitler's text promoting slavery and genocide, just as the Quran and Bible-Torah promote slavery, rape, genocide. Painting a swastika on a synagogue is less violent than building a church, mosque, synagogue (which is the same as painting Violence, Racial Hate, Genocide symbols on those continents), whose texts are far worse than the Mein Kampf itself which they banned. The Jews and Muslims paint the Symbol of Mass Rape, Mass Theft and Genocide on every land they raise their worship places, while swastika refers only to hate of Jews and extermination and slavery. The trio of evil scriptures, Torah, Bible, Quran, are way more than genocide against Jews and slavery, it's about rape, human sacrifice, eating kids, mutilation, torture and endless other things most are not familiar with. If we ban swastika on a Jewish temple like in Australia, we need to also ban the Jewish temple, churches, mosques, Torah, Bible, Quran and Mahabharata. If they arrest a man who burns the Quran in the UK, they need to arrest all who spread litter paper, all promote the Bible that calls for arson and the burning of entire cities, extermination of many nations, or any nation God gives over to Jews. They also need to close all mosques and arrest all who promote the Quran who calls for genocide of infidels. Burning a book is not a crime, by making burned paper litter in public spaces is usually a cause of fines. Where is the freedom in the West? The infinite hypocrisy of the US "justice system" and of others is that they pick and choose what is a hate crime. Isn't it a hate crime to publish the Bible, to swear on it, to publish the Torah, Quran and give these haters the ability to steal trillions in taxpayer money to build their fraudulent violence places of worship, temples? What hate do you see in the Immortalist Anthem, what call to loot, exterminate or rape? None. 0 negativity. Publishing and promoting such filth (Bible, Quran, Torah, etc) to kids as Word of God is not only a hate crime, it is a call to genocide, rape, arson, sex slaves, looting, it is pedophilia & child abuse (like the sexual abuse of infants in Israel), and no different than the worst cartels, terror groups calling for violence, terror or killings. When will naive people stop going to these conmen? If people wake up, and don't go to donate to the clergy, these frauds will run out of business. Religion is not spirituality or kindness, please ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ wake up.

In the name of the Most Merciful☺☺☺ Most Graceful God of Immortality for All (not just palace dwelling aristocrats), I lovingly present a hypothesis that the God of all Worlds, able to dematerialize our galaxy and power a trillion suns, can fill us with the enthusiasm to care about those the aristocrats and the uncaring public have jailed due to them being scapegoats for a failed system of education since age 1, failed housing, failed food, failed scriptures. The people in jails don't become any better, they're symptoms of the problems we never deal with: bad music, bad TV, bad quotes in churches, lies in churches *(*unproven miracles presented as facts, compromising scientific integrity, lowering kids' IQ who're not told to formulate and test hypotheses, to verify any claim with 50 independent sources that are not fakable, thereby damaging national security, etc), huge churches sitting empty, while the scapegoats for our collective criminality sit in terrible conditions destroying the human quantum field via anger, negative emotion. It's online, the church, nice youtubes, music, ideas, it's all online, everyone can gather in Immortality centers to sing, such centers bless every city, they can commune with God directly, no wafers needed, with every breathing. So, why not help those who need it the most, create healing centers for them, gently drive bulldozers, erase stadiums and dilapidated churches, shrink churches, and dozens of useless businesses in many towns (federal national program of demolition and housing building for free and jailed people, turn every house and 'jail replacement' into a temple of healing) become employees of Eternal Altruism Inc doing the social work of America's transformation, create the amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ heavenly healing centers, where inmates listen to beautiful tones 8 hours daily (watch videos daily on ethics), do some work too, 30 hours/week, and learn what they could have learned, had we had a centralized education system from age conception to age 170. As crime disappears, fraud in science decreases too, World Peace allows resources to allocate to better tech and everyone benefits, it's win-win. Right now, many are so selfish, they don't realize it. Please join us in creating the most Godly country that has ever existed on Earth, moving from ritual to kindness. With Internet, with happy people, single family houses for all, endless immortality biomarker monitoring stations and centers of singing, meditation everywhere, healing centers replacing all jails, who needs churches? You can be a pastor online, create your Immortality for All Songs, be the Light of God in action. You don't need permission from priests, bishops and all these 1st century ideas fans. We immortalists are all for a true spiritual renaissance, evolution, revolution almost, peaceful one, in every single family home, every home, so we're the opposite of communists who banned God, we ban only violence and lies, claims of miracles without proof, we want a real spirituality: if Jesus came he might say "forget churches, the temple and kingdom of God is within, house the people in jails with your depraved beauty salon, churches, Disneyland, carousels, stadiums, vape stores, liquor stores building materials, give them amazing healing centers where they can live in a healing space, each in a nice tiny house (200 ft^2), with trees, a small 300 ft^2 backyard, doing some work too to stay active, healthy, etc, away from insane neighborhoods. Don't give them these jails (watch video). ☺☺☺

Without ending jails ☺☺ ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ and true spirituality can't even begin, so end all violent crime in 10 years, that's the start of religious life. Treat all like Immortalist Anthem verses 8-40 explain". You want those coming out (after 0.1-80 years) to NEVER do anything violent (even a slight shove) again. All nonviolent crime gets required home courses, a test of speech, emotion tone after test completion, and huge fines, no 'off site education and labor'… so everyone focuses on ethics and Immortality for All, loving all. People are unhappy, they don't breathe happily, so they lack confidence, due to bad sleep too, noisy cities, bad housing, noisy housing. Then slaves want to support aristocrat made useless businesses, to 'look good' or 'feel happier after a terrible housing sleep'. The slave wants to fill the lack of happiness and confidence within themselves. Be happy, it's sexier than 'nice hair, nails', it also helps you live longer. The rich wants tired confused slaves, easy to deceive and vampirize. Because he doesn't understand win-win, infinite resources, the aristocrat blocks humankind's progress, he sometimes can be pure evil, intentionally poisoning our cities with noise, war, smog, riots, fake religion, bad food. He can be far more evil than a foreign spy bent on destroying America. A famous example is the German Aristocrats who backed WW1 & 2 and Germany shrank 34%. They didn't care about the 11 million German slaves who died, or the 100 million total dead. See a list of US-etc companies who used slave labor to kill millions.

The Immortality Nurturing Agency approves any 'stated religion creed' group brainwashing belief repeated to kids/adults or that they have to say, since it stunts their intellect if the belief is abysmal in IQ and anti critical thinking, evidence based, Immortality for All, etc. "We believe in water into wine miracle, etc" can't stand without mentioning "Our belief is an untested hypothesis for which evidence doesn't exist, but we choose to believe in it anyway, without any scientific evidence, knowing fully it can be faked easily, as winefornone.gov explains". Any religious institution claiming a belief or a fact, would need to provide strong unfakable evidence for it to the government, to prevent the lowering of the average lifespan thru low IQ and rich people hybrid warfare against the workers or country citizens via fake religion. The immortalist government protects its citizens, (their health, longevity, high tech, high ethics, World Peace via the eterni music, eterni tone in public discourse), not 'clergy' (who're usually spies, unaware remotely controlled or fully aware ones*)* brainwashing people via yelling into short lifespans, slavery indirectly via hybrid warfare. If we used chemistry or physics of 1st century, we would be ultra primitive and taken over by other nations instantly. Likewise, if we use 1st century religion or ethics, instead of something more intelligent and 21st century like, we will also be taken over instantly. 'Religion' enterprises (or spy networks of foreign powers, as spies call them) can't say

"Word of the Lord" after a Bible quote (like Catholics say after having removed Bibles from pews to hide the bad quotes), unless they add: "scripture.gov has 100s of quotes of this imagined 'Lord' with a Lev 25:44-6 command to enslave workers, to beat workers (slaves Exodus 21:20-1) that goes 100% against the ethics.gov ideas of Immortality for All, and the real God, if God exists in your belief system, and instigates people to do mass rape, extermination of entire nations". Do we believe in Life for all, peaceful loving God or else? A truly loving scripture in creating such a healing effect, every sentence is uplifting "We can nurturingly healingly☺☺☺ kindly love with gentle tender soft graceful compassion all humans, with the same intensity we love ourselves; we can love even more those whom we perceive help bring happy healthy Immortality for All more than the average; this discerning love brings longer happier life for all faster.", instead of "love thy neighbor as thyself". Not only that, but every sentence is like that, nothing negative or about war, violence, punishment, threats, because God (or our trillion year lives descendants, the Immortals, if atheist) is infinitely more loving than what we're now, and even more than humans were in the 1st century of wild eternal warfare. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

It is thus the government's duty to make America independent for the 1st time ever, to make every political speech more healing, to heal the trauma of endless wars via healing words and eterni writing more like these new scriptures allowing God's or Immortality for All spark within all to shine and express, to promote open source free positive scriptures, to allow citizens to upload 1 million versions even of a 20 page scripture at scripture.gov to stimulate the creative potential and eterni vibe in all citizens, in writing development, so all know how to write and talk in a more compassionate healing civil way, so as to heal the entire planet of the war vibe keeping us backwards and short-lived. Then they can take the best idea and create a 7-40 page scripture or set of 500 scriptures, to upload as examples of truly healing writing and thought emotional vibe. They would all be very similar, but this diversity, is a truly vibrant democracy, and allows us to become more nurturing and kinder. We can question Freemasons, politicians, officials taking oath or swearing on such outdated Bible, Quran etc scriptures in their rituals, ceremonies, with 100s of violent quotes there. 100s of things in the Holy Torah, Bible, etc are illegal today, since in 2 millennia people evolved to more Immortality for All vibes. ☺☺☺ That's why such religions are outdated. The Lord doesn't need intermediates, scripture.gov explains it and you need not waste time coming to any church, when you can get closer to God alone as ethics.gov explains; anyone can go to the city Immortality center recording studios, gather with friends, record original music to develop fluid intelligence, new science of healing via sound and MRI brainwave patterns; fake religions, if anything, will lower your IQ, make you ultra naive, easy to deceive, or get some in trouble with the law, by making them more aggressive; as we travel today with rockets 5000+ times faster than with best gadgets of 1st century, we can also have 5000 higher level of gentle tender healing grace, as protected by Eternia's 500 year lifespan for all (later trillion year lifespan) or verifiable physical longevity and later Immortality for All legal system. This is contrast to just a group (who controls a religion/denomination or ideology, often foreign spies) living longer by subjugating continents with a fake religion about unverifiable Immortality in another realm (not just Christianity). You know, to an outsider, Christianity may appear as full of violent imagery, fraud, torture, family sadism (dad (God) tortures son (Jesus) to death to save other kids (humans), who have to drink Jesus blood and eat his body 365 days a year at Mass, etc), low IQ, forced belief, no questions allowed, no thinking, etc; we want people to evolve, not to remain stuck 2 millennia ago, and then spend time in a healing center due to aggression. We have given these fake religions (used also to lower IQ, spy on, incite war, subjugate, torture, destroy others), all book/movie publishers, 2 years to remove violent quotes, so you will hear this in every sermon, until truth reaches out to all, since clergy hides the violence in these texts to make their "religion look good, fake miracles believable".

The violence in the 'holy' Torah, Book of Mormon, Bible, Quran are here for all to see the future scripture.gov. ☺☺☺ Arguably, the government may view rituals that simulate cannibalism, such as Eucharist, as being incompatible with the ethics of Immortality for All, thus illegal; likewise, illegal would be any religious ceremony that simulates torture and violence (the gift of "Roman love for all beings", echoing thru millennia in Philippines Catholic torture rituals, some in Islamic countries, Shia Ashura chains until bleed, demonic ritual (Ayatollah killed, see the strike that may end this sick Ashura), Thai Pusam piercing ritual of South Indians, India cannibal monks who eat corpses, etc) in covert/overt ways. The Roman emperors who invented Christianity, were watching gladly as gladiators killed themselves in fights, crucified 6000 workers one time, so they were not really the gentlest types among us and had no qualms to give Jesus to Jews to crucify. 1% of 1933 USSR population were Jews, but 16% of physicians, 10% of writers, journalists, 11% of artists, up to 50% Berlin (capital) doctors and lawyers were Jews in 1933. USA today, 2% of population, but dominating many legal, medical, academia, political, business, espionage fields. It's a 3000 year pattern. So, were some Roman emperors Jews too, besides the 1st Pope(s), bishops, priests? Given 10% of Rome were Jews per some reports and they (like all spy agencies) always go in capitals of nations to try take over the country, Jews might have run the Roman Empire, and other empires (or covert empires, nations today) for a while. This "crucify workers demanding better conditions" cruelty is in stark contrast with immortalist regimes☺☺☺ where torture is illegal, prisons don't exist (only healing centers) and killings are illegal. What was legal in the 1st century, is not so millennia later; already 100s of things in the Bible, that the imaginary 'Lord' said, are illegal today. The deification of a torture obsessed, cruelty and cannibal like ritual obsessed God seems (or is, depending on perception) incompatible with the infinite loving kindness of an ever happy Immortals civilization, since it makes every citizen desensitized to cruelty and degrades the ethics baseline, least common denominator of what is acceptable, lowering thus human lifespan, increasing war chances, and war ends lives early, ending chances of living to 900. God, if real in your view, is infinite compassion vs human compassion as God lived eons to develop it; understanding the enormous torture nature inflicts on humans via disease, aging, weather, etc God would not encourage anyone to torture themselves, stress themselves to go in hot weather to a church to get a blessed wafer, when God can bless the person directly in silent contemplation and happy meditation that rejuvenates, restores and prolongs lifespan. God doesn't want bondage and dependency, God can bless people directly; he doesn't force beliefs, he offers hypotheses that people can test. The God of Immortality for All is love, he doesn't like torture, war and violence, dependency, forcing beliefs, etc. We want people to see the effects of these religions, how they damage the human quantum entanglement field, since most believers think of only the positives. We want an infinitely loving nurturing compassion for self and all to be the basis of immortalist nations, not torture. Compared to Immortals of this or other dimensions we know nothing, being like ants, yet we repeat at Mass stuff without any real proof. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

We can evolve past the Bible ethics (though some good quotes exist there) and adopt a self-made scripture (or set of 500 small poetic, with rhyme, very positive scriptures co-created by citizens, like an open source transparent religion or ethics, of the democratic 21st century), you design, based on ideas in some positive scriptures examples at scripture.gov, a civilized scripture, since you're as connected to God as these 'prophets' or military spies trying to take over continents by force and violence. People say it's not true, but look at every war in history, the Pope (or head of any church in any country) only has very strong words against a war when it fits the interests of Italy (or that country), or Italy is not the obvious apparent co-aggressor, co-participant and the Catholic Church is threatened in a region. The Pope never talks of the need of the West to stop producing violent content like 100s of pop songs (music videos like this, and other music lyrics 100 times worse), to lobby for World Peace in 1 year, to get the entire planet stop all trade (plus removal from all UN like bodies, all international organizations) with any nation that doesn't want World Peace within 2 months to 1 year or anyone who violates the ceasefire obtained, so it lasts a trillion years at least, to reform the Vatican, to free its believers from brainwashing, cannibalism imagery rituals, etc. Spiritual leaders could use far more musical, healing, angelic words, with eterni music in the background, to soothe people, make use of the most healing voices globally, via spokespersons or AI and to be impartial, taking no sides in any conflict (never condone war, as it goes against nonkilling 5th 'commandment' they claim to follow and basic idea of spiritual life, so the Russian Patriarch and the Pope both incited the masses to killing and war by supporting one side). Wars happen due to collective actions of 200 nations over last millennia and all need stop fighting and have World Peace in 4 to 12 months. All spiritual services globally would, if truly compassionate, talk about World Peace in 5 months each time, this Ukraine war, with nuke threats in the era of massive nuke stockpiles, is an emergency, we could soon disappear in 10 seconds, all humans. This absent impartiality is in stark contrast with the Vatican, who seems, like the Russian Church itself too, more of a paramilitary organization, each supporting, using very tough words, one side of the Ukraine war. We're supposed to love each human more than the best mom in history ever loved her baby, if we want to evolve and even love each a trillion times more than that. Where is the love in these 'spiritual speeches'? Is it any wonder that many made their own independent church in their nations? Quakers from UK are against war and didn't even allow disciples to enlist in wars. It was a UK statement of trying to break from the Vatican traditions. Quakers believe in no rituals, no baptism, no Eucharist needed, since God obviously doesn't need our type of matter to bless our immaterial spirit or material body. We want to prevent the end of human species, and if evolving religions or going beyond religion to true nonkilling antiwar ethics, spiritual traits focus is needed, we will do that. War against bad aliens is OK, but interhuman war makes no sense.

You can develop your creative positive uplifting writing abilities, your fluid intelligence; there is no need to study 'chemistry of afterlife' from 1st century 'chemistry textbooks' (you don't study chemistry from 1st century alchemy books), to become a robot and parrot repeating unproven dogmas, enslaved by the violent energy of these scribes, you can write stuff way better than that, than even scripture.gov section on proper tone of writing, etc, record songs in way better tone and lyrics than average church music (and way better than my youtube too), put it on youtube and make your own little spiritual group online to exchange ideas, expand the ethics intelligence of humanity. The audacity of these people to publish the Bible as it is and claim it's the word of God has no limits in its lack of loving kindness for all. God is within you☺☺☺, you can reach God easier today, thanks to better protection from elements, a library 1 trillion times larger than anyone could easily access millennia ago, you can meditate and read 1 million views of afterlife possibilities, see some 50,000 choices at afterlife.gov which no scribe could do before, they thought it's 2 choices: heaven or hell, simple minds of 1st century. Free your mind, expand your IQ, become a true contributor to Eternia, the land that frees all from low IQ and death, a super fluid, smart being; when we live to 400 or a million, a human will know way more than all humans can figure out now, just as today the average person knows way more than a monkey living 30% shorter; so don't have such low self-esteem, to depend on writings from millennia ago, you can do so much better.☺☺☺ We can lovingly recall, that we don't use chemistry books from 1st or 7th century, we use those from 20th century, so is with ethics, see ethics.gov. Eternia sees all citizens as the saviors of the country and planet, like all amazing ☺☺☺ scientists and engineers who save people's lifespan daily via inventions, not some made up guy who may or may not have even existed, except as a myth created by clever scribes. You're the savior you have been looking for, it's the infinite intelligence of God within you and your fellow citizens. The government believes in you, not fake texts." To protect the citizens from fraud and calls to violence that bring short lifespan for all, the government has to inform people what type of 'Lord' a 'religion' has. Anyone can freely write speculations hypotheses about afterlife, but none would be allowed to sell that content, as ethics is free and not monetized. Ethics is the most important thing in a civilization, it's more important than even many basic necessities in the long term; ethics agrees that we don't know what happens in the afterlife, so we can only offer hypotheses and stop monetizing ethics or 'religion', donate to a cause that increases lifespan of all verifiably, not to a pastor for speculating about afterlife realms and damaging the quantum field of humanity by promoting genocidal quotes as the 'word of the Lord'. The Reformation was started due to monetizing religion or ethics at the extreme, with fees to avoid tough times in interdimensional life; it was humanity's struggle against dishonesty. People can debate and decide what is more important: 1. not degrading society IQ and welfare or 2. simply exercising the freedom to say unlimited lies about miracles with 0 proof for the sake of free speech. We all know, infinite freedom to speak anything can lead to tremendous chaos, so, there could be some common sense rules about it to maintain a more ethical evidence based atmosphere, which means also more compassion for others, not forcing them to believe something without proof, etc, more kindness, tact, tenderness, grace, gentleness☺☺☺ and the very qualities pastors have us believe their religion teaches. Since the human species favors the scientific method of evidence based, instead of fraud based conclusions, the collective super organism of humans will act against those countries that promote charlatanism, intellectual dishonesty, monetization of ethics. Did you know in Japan they throw beans to ward off evil spirits? And what is the scientific proof it works? Spirits can't be affected by normal matter, as explained in a long section on the fake Eucharist cultish ritual of extorting $ billions from people. A spirit is 'immaterial', regular matter can't affect them, the only 'matter' affecting them may be something closer to the invisible particles they're made of, that we haven't yet discovered or created, if such sci-fi "matter" is not available in nature and can only be designed as a weapon of alien interdimensional wars over the bodies of souls created to build a smart AI. ☺☺☺

So, for Eternia/America to survive, it has to move away from primitive religion to honest ethical systems that facilitate a peaceful civilized planet. Anyone with any awareness of science knows there are particles that come into existence for a trillionth of a billionth of human lifespan, and that we as humans don't spend our entire lives guiding their 'spiritual evolution' and influencing their destiny. Likewise, anyone with a desire for honesty, can realize that beings exist that live trillions of times longer than humans; so, since they can do things we can't do, we could call them a god or something, yet this God may not necessarily know about us or care about our lifespan etc, at least in the view of the passive God agnostic or theist. Given that obviously, we're not the smartest, longest lived being in the Universe, anyone can agree some form of

'God' exists, so it is logical to allow the freedom to hypothesize on the qualities, etc of this being and its Immortal friends from this or parallel universes. It's also logical to allow freedom to sing to this God in groups at the city Immortality Centers etc, or at home to share via youtube with others, if one feels better connecting with real or hypothetical being (future Immortals that are our descendants, we connect with them) that being a trillion times longer lived, may also be a trillion times kinder, etc than us, like the most angelic version of humans. However, to force people, under the threat of killing like Inquisitors of the Catholic church, to believe that Jesus, etc did certain miracles that can be easily staged and that guy is the special emissary of the big God that supposedly controls all universes etc and that you have to do this and that or else you burn in hell etc is a totally different matter, it's like complete oppression of the people, when we know a trillion other things could be true and may have happened, especially today with youtube explaining stage magic tricks for anyone to see. Humans have evolved from 1st century and 15th even, so what was seemingly true then, is often seen as comical today. Today, since they can't outright threaten killing in public if they don't get brainwashed, the oppression takes a subtler form, yet having the same goal of lowering IQ, using more sophisticated manipulation?

Other illegal stuff in immortalist societies would be any activity that makes people dishonest, violent or low IQ, wasteful of state resources spent to maintain their health, including strip clubs (youtube got tons of tribes that are naked, so watch those for free and save state resources if you need to see breasts etc; recall, if you were an alien, seeing humans, you wouldn't get aroused, just like we don't get aroused seeing insects, puppies, lizards, etc naked; so have compassion for those people getting semi naked to make $ etc, they just forgot what is important: Immortality for All), gambling, casinos, other ultra selfish ultra low IQ activity, such as many presented in the single family homes list. All economic activity must be approved by the Immortality Nurturing Agency, to make sure it enhances human lifespan health and length. Everyone is free to sing to God, etc, chat, write articles or free online books, but not to exploit others with donations and lower their IQ. Not to mention it is utterly hypocritical, demonic, selfish, anti-God to build gigantic churches, huge swimming pools, huge adult baptismal fonts, that sit empty most of the time, in the age of internet when meetings can be remote, while others are homeless. Let everyone live in a single family home by creating more space: make the huge backyards smaller (buy houses with huge backyards, and then build 2 there if possible) and demolish useless liquor stores, vape stores, shrink hotels, restaurants, since happy people eat at home if all got a nice home, they invite friends home to listen to angelic music instead of McDonald's restless music, demolish weed stores (except for medical use), strip clubs, shrink parks that sit mostly empty and build single family housing, with trees, so same amount of trees in the city exists, shrink zoos and botanical gardens (space for people, tigers are less important and deadly, tigers eat people*, tigers eat 15 lb of meat daily that causes huge emissions,* USA got 10K big cats at least, that meat could feed 200000 humans, we need end fo tiger/big cat worship as they kill people on all continents when they escape zoos, reduce big cats in zoos 700 fold globally, give everyone a little garden, with amazing water saving succulents or trees in desert areas, (yellow, purple, orange, green, pink cacti), shrink botanical gardens), shrink churches, consolidate since it's online era, let every home be a 'place of worship via eterni music and tone', so people don't need go to church; if all got a house, we don't need gyms and stadiums, etc to exercise, since house maintenance is a lot of exercise anyway. Let Immortality Nurturing Agency build the most colorful (way nicer than any church in USA today) amazing energy efficient (lighter roofs, white in warm climates to avoid using AC that makes noise and disturbs DNA template, darker roofs where we want to absorb sunlight more, etc) set of 500 templates of single family homes, for all Americans who live in condos, mobile homes and town homes who want out or live in a very old run down house, etc and want it replaced, so maybe about 50 million houses over 20 years to give everyone a quiet really beautiful, amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ colorful, nicer in outer design (500 designs, somewhat similar) than any church/temple in the world today, shiny house assembled on site from factory made walls, pieces, with "‖Immortality for All‖, Gentleness, Tenderness, Nurturing Grace, Softness, Healing tone of Speech, Peaceful Music" written on every house that becomes The Temple of ‖Immortality for All‖, with relaxing music audio players, to help keep people, pets and plants in eterni tone and vibe, so we get every home become like a church, with peaceful vibes, nice flowers, trees, plants (water saving in warm areas), so all feel happy and loved by the ‖Immortality for All‖ government and work to end all violent crime in 5 years and become world's first nation without violence, as our music, TV etc filter out more and our people are happy, no longer living in overcrowded condos that look grey and depressing, are so noisy and etc. We got so much space, yet we crowd people so much, leading to unhappiness, lack of enthusiasm to discover longevity tech, and then to poor sleep, anger and also, crime. Front lawns cover an area equal to 67% of UK. We got desalinization plants, we can green deserts with morning fog into water irrigation devices, increase green stuff to drive temp down 15 degrees, etc. We can create a new America, the Land of Immortals,☺☺☺ the Heavenly Place of Peace, 0 prisons, 0 violence, the abode of ‖Immortality for All, the hope of all nations. USA builds 1 million homes a year in 2022, so 2.5 million extra houses is easy to do, since mass producing will reduce costs, 1 company, not 500, so we got volunteers, condo owners, renters etc willing to finally no longer live in apartments and start a new life, help city demolish stuff, install utilities, like Habitat for Humanity, build these houses too, get training on the on site building using the walls, etc provided by truck delivery, volunteer, become one for all, all for one, decent shelter for all, so all live to 900, a complete remaking of USA like never before.☺☺

dense, each redundantly having its own admin, city hall, etc, when we could merge 10 cities/villages into 1, to create 500 new cities (out of 5000 smaller towns or mid size town merging with nearby smaller and getting new name, where 200 million Americans live) with Ethics Building names such as "Immortality", " Immortality for All " "Immortal Grace" "Eternal Bliss" "Eternal Gentleness" "Immortal Tenderness" "Gentle Grace" "Immortal Compassion" "Compassionate Immortality", "Nurturing" "Kindness" Gentleness Humility Serenity Meditation Silence Equanimity, Magnanimity, Tenacity, Tact, Acceptance, Fluid intelligence, Adaptability, "Patience Immortal", "Honesty Immortal" etc, add Immortal to every quality, and people know in Eternia every town name is "Quality Immortal" unless using some older names. It makes sense to centralize the way cities are named to ensure an easier understanding of when we refer to cities (capitalized) and when to a quality. "I went to Houston" would be "I went to Happiness Immortal". We would thus remind people of the 150 qualities of Immortals they need to develop to be able to live to a billion. Let the demolition of liquor stores start. Then we got more jobs for R & D. We don't need 20,000 cities, with their laws, merge cities and have fewer laws, admin jobs, more science jobs. The most important thing in life for longevity is good sleep and food, with a nice house, everyone is happy, sleeps well, loves cooking at home instead of going to much uglier, noisier restaurants. Nuns and priests will be happy they got a house and have an online church, with choirs meeting at the recording studios in the town Immortality Square, no longer slaves of a bad tone priest/bishop, able to finally create a nicer vibe they often can do; they get a job to do something high tech and live in their own house, no longer feeling sometimes oppressed by the priest with his tone and 1st century rituals and concepts. In 1800 a car took 1 year to make, today it takes hours; today it takes a year to build some houses, in the future Immortality capitalism, it will take 3 hours, as the most high tech Tesla factory like big enterprise (1 million businesses into one to increase R& D 1 million fold) makes the walls and every components and assembles them in hours on site, delivering undreamed of properties, instant leak detection, no wood, no drywall stone age materials, but stuff no termite can eat, stuff no water can rot or damage, etc, and catchers for all water around fixtures, pipes, all drained and ways to disinfect house interior to reduce mold 100 times; we want the God of 300 year lifespans, not of fake miracles and 80 year lifespans.

There are about 30 million houses with such gigantic living rooms, backyard and dining rooms (mostly unused often times due to going to 2 million restaurants, all making mostly Neolithic food more toxic than pressure cooker home made), one realizes that if the house was smaller, it could allow building 5 million small homes to house 10 times the amount of homeless, 0.5 million. We're not even talking about 16 million empty homes (condos, houses, etc, some of which need a little renovation only, others ready, but none can afford the rent among homeless), endless business buildings sitting empty, casinos, etc that alone would house 50 million visitors temporarily (like a 1 year eterni visa) to enable them to learn English and eterni values and turn planet into one English Eternia for all. Sadly, people prefer we fight over 7000 languages and 9 million businesses redundantly reinventing the wheel and keeping everyone in the stone age, since other short term goals are way more critical than the planet's future. What about 10 million RVs sitting mostly unused too? Where is the living spirituality of these religious pastors and their transforming America into the land of kindness? It doesn't seem to work? So, why would Eternia follow the same 'organized religion saves all' pattern?

We want a society of honest people, not of fraudsters. ☺☺☺So if USA doesn't wanna be the leader of | |Immortality for All| |, Eternia can slowly become the spreader of immortalism and English language for all, even though the 20 Eastern EU countries don't have English as official now. A living religion is the tone of our speech with God's children, encoding all emotion, intent and kindness, other humans outside of church, in daily life, and the evolution of society towards humility, admitting we don't know what happens in the afterlife, miracles can be faked, etc and that we simply don't know much as we have not been to the other dimensions in a way science can prove it. Re-ligion comes from Latin re-ligare, re-bondage, reentering into bondage, into slavery to concepts that focus on death..., after death concepts, while ignoring the LIFE, Its Immortal Nature, how to make LIFE Immortal, and how to conquer death itself in this and other dimensions. First of all, why would we have to die to begin with to translate into another dimension? Why not dissolve body into energy and give those remaining behind some nice new source of energy, greater than fusion to build a new parallel Earth? If one is bored after 8 trillion years, they may choose to enter a new dimension and create a shower of light and energy in the process. Every ad/claim on TV needs 1000 peer reviewed studies, Immortality Nurturing Agency approval for tone, content and claims. The vibe of kindness is central to immortality capitalism, as is decent music. Religion is fixed, every day 1000s of science papers appear, we shift our understanding of the universe and how afterlife may operate, we can't have fixed ideas that lower IQ. Eternia and all immortalist countries can welcome smart people who seek 5 billion lifespan for all humans, not those not worshiping death or made up religions.

Ultimately, most religions today have too many unproven beliefs (not even stated as hypotheses to be tested, but as miracles and rituals we're to believe without question), or they're incompatible with the scientific method that gave us all progress in longevity, with scientific immortalism that adjusts its hypotheses hourly per new data points, etc, so dogmas can't hold, since we realize 4 million ways in which miracles could have been faked and telescope data and even physics laws that appear one way due to not understanding something. We can have ethics of | |Immortality for All| |, decent housing and food for all, decent healthcare for all, etc and ethics of immortality that is evolved every month, but religion? Believing in some miracles from centuries ago that scientifically illiterate men wrote? To prevent exploitation, religions are not really encouraged by immortalists (unless it's a very modern scientific free thinking 'religion' focusing on life, not death), since they cause enormous hypocrisy, where people behave one way in the church and another way at home; nice song at church, then yelling at home. Religion is not needed, let every home be a temple, let every person have a decent shelter, why so many useless restaurants, cinemas, etc liquor stores, golf courses, empty church buildings etc and stuff in age of pressure cookers, instant cooking, much healthier at home, online Netflix and also online youtube for meditating and being happier than at church? Religion means fewer resources for 1 million Immortality for All RESEARCH centers, clinics and etc to measure biomarkers etc and bring Immortality for All? This is the age of internet, we can do now a far easier centralization and good use of resources, increasing efficiency 70000 fold in areas of Immortality for All, like we never could before. The Immortality capitalism "religion" is the ethics of nonviolence nonkilling gentle tender graceful healing nurturing compassion for all beings, including those enslaved by religions that are completely obsolete and of low IQ in today's century. ☺☺☺ Our 'religion' is our ethics and gentle spiritual culture of physical and interdimensional Immortality for All, so we get 3 billion years to practice 24-7, not at church only, nice tone of speech and evolve our vibes everywhere as explained in the beliefs of future Immortals. We can talk about afterlife, discover what God may be like, afterlife too, over 5 billion years, and such, but our focus is to create peace and decent shelter, food and healthcare for all, so we can advance the science of longevity and give 500 year lifespans to all, first, before we talk about what we may do for a trillion billion years.... since with 400 extra years, we will be able to discover much better what happens in the afterlife anyway and make some model of it 9 billion times more complex and accurate, instead of empty promise of afterlife destination number 5 attained if you do 40 rituals like we say and accept Jesus as a real fiction. Our social life revolves around the Immortality for All Parks, Business Centers, Healing Centers, Universities, Relaxation Oases in the center of every city, etc where we chat and help each other be happy and live to 5 billion.. We don't encourage religions, as they're used by various governments to destroy countries and establish spy networks of brainwashing and mind control.

We have one ethics: love all, give all fellow citizens of Eternia immortality and that's it, and Immortality tech to all people outside Eternia who support our ideals and vision of Immortality for All, no torture, war, yelling, violence. Freedom unlimited can lead to chaos unlimited and shortness of lifespan unlimited, hence we say that to create an amazing supercomputer, they have to have very narrow parameters for all components and everything has to be so perfectly aligned, like a spacecraft, so we're not free to use just any component and have just any piece of stuff to achieve superluminal craft; likewise, if we allow all garbage in to appear "welcoming the garbage of all countries" and democratic, we will become just garbage too; we want to create what was not created before, a focus on longevity no country ever had, a focus on high IQ and fluid intelligence none had, instead of a mix of 'everything goes' and the most lowest IQ stuff most violent and anti life sold as holy word of God and scripture and bringing everyone down, ruining the vibe of | |Immortality for All| |. ☺☺☺ We can't have unlimited freedom to yell and lie to people, pretend they know what afterlife is like and present it as fact, and sell it; dishonesty is the recipe for society disaster, to encourage these types of absolutist beliefs, which are obviously lies, since afterlife is infinitely complex if it exists, is to legalize lies and fraud and compromise the ethics and ethos needed for high quality RESEARCH and a wonderful world of trust in our country. We can't become another land of magicians selling their filif comical☺ 1st century faked staged miracles. We have our national Eternia "religion", the vibe of infinite | |Immortality for All, a love infinitely deeper than the "hell for all who disagree with us" vibe of some religions, the living 24-7 spirituality we practice with our tone of speech, honest scientific RESEARCH into giving 9 billion lifespan to all who're interested.☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

To legalize or encourage the activity of boastfully in bad tone proclaiming from the pulpit they KNOW what afterlife is like, when they obviously have no evidence, let alone 400 science papers to prove it, as we can't verify traveling between dimensions, etc, and souls etc - is to legalize the complete dishonesty and societal collapse later, as anything goes, everyone swindles everyone, companies, churches, etc. We want to create a humbler vibe in Eternia and Immortality capitalism, where it's OK and fine to say 'we don't know' and to be more like a skeptical scientist who doesn't get so sure about fake miracles and anything out there, because nothing is what it seems, it's always more complex, as we find out centuries later, initially they thought it was a plant that kills, now we know it's only that 0.01% of that plant, some chemical, as we got chemistry, etc, things are so complex. The tone of humility is gentle, so loving kind and unlike the average tone of TV radio today, which has traces that are very absolutist, aggressive and anti hypothesis thinking. To bring the ethos of honest | |Immortality for All| |, we need to allow freedom to hypothesize, as people may do when writing free online books, etc, but not the freedom to claim that it is so and absolutely so, and brainwash kids that those rituals and things will surely give them a place in that heaven and make them avoid hell, in such a simplified, nursery school religion for toddlers, not adults, 1st century men, not 21st century grown up people with far higher IQ than 1st century or even 15th. Religions can lead to the ethical destruction of society, while humble gentle tender kind spirituality of | |Immortality for All| |, not knowing and all that, builds an ethical vibe: the moment a group can start saying this and that happens in afterlife without any proof, everyone who disagrees views that as pure fraud, and the legalization of defrauding of others, it creates mistrust in the government and leads others to also want to cheat, as the government allows priests to cheat and brainwash millions with 'facts' that are obviously unprovable and lies; not only that, but division sets in, fights among religions set in, society is weakened by foreign spies fomenting conflict.

We can't allow people to create such institutionalized cult like enterprises of mass brainwashing and keep us in the 1st century, we need to evolve beyond the need for such fixed beliefs and the need to falsely pretend "we know everything that happens in the afterlife without any evidence", and move to a real living personal spirituality, not hypocritical, at church only. Let our body be the temple of God, the tone of speech, the song at the church, our humility and admitting we don't know be the basis of all honesty, since all evidence of former centuries miracles could have been staged and made up; this will be the basis of a more honest, evidence based and compassionate civilization, slowly helping humanity to move beyond unprovable rigid dogma to true kindness for all. The 1st amendment, right to free speech, has been historically abused for millennia by people who used lies, and 'facts' without evidence and promises of this and that afterlife etc to create war and shorten the lifespans of many, to enslave; the free speech can't be higher in priority to Immortality for All to long life for all, nobody can have the right to use free speech to destroy the civilization in clever ways, via bad music, via brainwashing in religions, bad lyrics, etc, political incitement to violence, etc or even literature about war and violent methods to achieve some political goals. We either want longevity via kind and evidence based speech or short lives and free speech; without some evidence based standards, everyone will start telling lies and the society collapses as everyone learns to be a good liar☺☺☺ and to cheat the government who allows this depravity of free brainwashing of others; people also will be crafty and learn to deceive others whom they view as liars. The whole society becomes a contest of who can deceive and lie better than others and nothing gets done. The Freemasons (formally or in reality, they may have pretended to be so to infiltrate them) who invented the USA and its constitution, were, on paper, against the abuses of the Inquisition who tortured people to death for not buying into fake miracles, so USA was viewed as revolutionary to have free speech, freedom to choose a fake miracles based denomination, which fake branch you can choose from, etc. What the masons did not perhaps realize was the cunning of the foreign spy services and their attempt to use religion to destroy American innovation and freedom to develop on its own, according to a higher ethics that places everyone's lifespan length and quality above the right of some to cheat others with fake miracles and unproven statements about afterlife, when 50000 other versions could be equally true in the absence of evidence. What foreign powers those founders and friends, each represented, is subject to debate, but on paper they were pro-American, as they could not in public say they're spies for France, Spain, Netherlands, Britain, Italy, World Jewry, etc. We see today the whole society is so divided via fraudulent religions, and so out of touch with the truths of neuroscience and what speech tone, speech content, etc does, that anyone can make any claim, write any music lyrics that incites people to crime and the most anti immortality behavior, and still be free after destroying obviously the lifespan of many indirectly, their health, etc. So, to prevent becoming another melting pot of charlatans and corrupters of the public, who're free to cause mass chaos, mass jailing, mass violence and destroy the entire human race, Eternia and all immortalist countries can take a different approach. It's is called ethical "maybe perhaps rich" evidence based speech, not unlimited free speech.

Ending of species and thermonuclear wars start with unethical religious fake miracles fake afterlife claims speech, yes free speech that takes a very insidious turn, to deceive and enslave a planet or country, while sounding sometimes not so bad, via clever tricks of foreign spies without any ethics and worries about destroying the human species. We thus teach kids to say "Based on what appears to be unfaked evidence, that this and that happened, it seems we may be able to conclude this person has deviated slightly from the ethics of Immortality for All and we need to take action to heal this collective failure in inspiring ethical conduct. This is vastly different than "That guy is bad, everyone needs to vote for me instead." By creating a basic minimum code of ethical speech content and evidence based stuff, we avoid our immortalist country becoming the free for all, best liar takes all some have become. So, 250 years ago, they could not imagine how scientific and evidence based every decision is today and how we depend on developing tech on honesty, so their standards back then were very low: today, we understand religious brainwashing in a totally new way, it's more about dogmatic lowering of IQ than freedom to hypothesize, to develop the scientific method and apply it in all areas of life, etc. ☺☺☺ Anyone would be free to hypothesize, sing, socialize, but that's not what's happening in religions only. This type of "without evidence we market this and that" and claim this and that, without any regard to lifespan and anything, has created a capitalism where life doesn't matter, only profit. It undermines national well being and leads to a country's long term self-annihilation. We don't want to follow the 20th century USA model, nor the communist model, we want civilized speech that creates an ethical basic level of conduct. We know the present US Constitution and its model is bound to lead to long-term decline due to allowing all kinds of speech abusers to deceive millions and keep the entire country backwards and low IQ. The founders could not have realized that, since it was not the age of internet, and science back then, everyone was so illiterate and unaware. For USA to survive it may need to amend its constitution to protect the human right to long-life and to evidence based speech that protects the ethical basis of honesty in society. That we can live to 500 is something very easy to accept, in this era of science, and that we will have more time to discover what afterlife may be like, but outside of that, everything is mere speculation. Plus, anyone is linked to God, if he exists and there is no need of intermediates and rituals to brainwash and create dependency.

Immortalist capitalists can protect the vibe by not allowing liars who come and destroy our culture in the name of human rights, music freedom and religious freedom, so that they can enslave every citizen (that is not a disguised foreigner who has come to enslave everyone) in eternal bondage and short lifespan later. We defend the human obligation, and human right, to always act and wish || Immortality for All ||, not to come to kill while pretending to be a religious missionary, in fact ready to exterminate others. We defend the human species quantum entanglement field of high intelligence and freedom from brainwashing, death focus and war. To be free we need to protect the gentle tender soft vibe that brings true freedom, that of long life. It's the vibe of such gentle tender soft kindness, in its afterlife hypotheses, tone music allowed on any radio TV, that is wholly incompatible with existing religions, sometimes used as cover by spies to kill humans and degrade the human quantum entanglement field. To be an immortalist is to vibrate differently, so no thought of shortening anyone's lifespan ever crosses the mind.... that's like eons ahead of what goes on in other countries. It's the vibe of || Immortality for All ||, now, freedom for all, not in some future that never comes. We're not interested in being parrots repeating 1st century beliefs and reverting our brains to that kind of low IQ. In many countries half the people only believe in any religion anyway, it has become a dirty word due to political agendas and their use by spy networks to enslave and destroy various countries, to kill and shorten the lifespan of entire nations. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

We don't need more division, we can have one ethics: || Immortality for All ||, united as one Immortal Body of Immortalists, united in the most loving vibe of ever discerning intelligence and infinite compassion for all beings who live shorter than us. People will say we need socializing, etc, yes, everyone will enjoy a much higher quality social place in the many Immortality center locations of every city near town hall and other areas, with places to create Immortality for All music, to meet, measure biomarkers, create decorated stuff and colorful buildings to meditate way nicer than these ugly churches (way better quality, because recall, instead of many places we got one of much higher quality, like instead of 300 mom and dad garage businesses we got one with 100 times more R&D staff etc; likewise, instead of 900 churches, we could have just 10 | Immortality for All centers in a city (or say 100, if we shut down all liquor stores, strip clubs, casinos, etc, and have fewer gyms etc and make only some centers ultra equipped), each way more equipped with science labs for kids to play and learn and make products that help others, develop selflessness, biomarker monitoring stations, health prevention tech, education, online 3D classes on various longevity topics etc, recording studios to promote democracy and prevent only pastors from influencing the tone of the people, by forcing their horrific tone on others. We thus give equal access to a decent place of socializing, where all can record music and have MRI taken if they want, to offer proof that the loving kindness etc brain centers are activated and etc instead of bad intent areas etc, the eternitone not the evil intent, sarcasm areas, mocking areas, etc☺☺☺. Many churches sit empty, we go there, visit them and we find nobody there, but with fewer centers, always people there to chat with, about Immortality for All, biomarkers, longevity, etc, as more come from nearby to the facility and it's too expensive to have half a million such ultra equipped centers overnight anyway as many tiny or big churches exist. Such a center is way more expensive than a church where we sing. We see today how shabby some churches are and how different others are, so why not allow a really democratic America with more equal opportunity of Immortality for All? ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

4.5.6. The 11 Companies Section: Simple Living = High Thinking (Innovation for Immortality):

The next 300+ pages detail The 11 National Unified Companies, 3 gov branches, 3 agencies of immortality capitalism centralization for building a Gentle Kind Civilization of Happy Immortals, to save US and all nations from civilization collapse that happens with increasing complexity:

From 33 million companies (used by aristocrats to commit genocide against the masses) to 11 big state companies: the beginning of noble altruistic efficiency that brings 100 times more R&D jobs, honest science, self-sufficiency, 50x more innovation via reviews.gov and 0 taxes, same tax rate, as the gov is the only employer, & the country is one family, and eventually, the planet is one family, via 1 language, 11 companies & 3 agencies on Earth: 1). Immortality Education Agency, 2). Immortality Nurturing Agency & 3). Eternium are enough for Eternal Universal Peace:

World's 1st universal education system, same tone science classes, etc, same gentleness, Immortality for All, ethics classes (details below) and 11 state "employee owned" corporations (click on each company name to read 1-50 pages about that company):

1. Eterni Food Inc world's 1st universal non-agriculture based food corporation, providing healthy foods to all in the transition century to no agriculture high tech era of the future, when all receive sci-fi powders for free with 50000 nutrients personalized for their DNA, weight, health issues to help them live to a billion. Free since all work, no unemployed exist. Work schedules in all 100% of USA are only between 7am-10pm, except for emergency services. Good sleep in the quiet night (to boost melatonin), circadian rhythm, regular work/sleep schedule = long life. 500 trillion fines for Big Food Corps for AGEs causing 50 million deaths Holocaust, to fund this. 4 US states already started world's first trillion $ fine, 1.4 trillion for Meta for genocide. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

2. Eternal Travel Inc world's 1st universal transport company to give all 0 smog electric cars (free insurance/maintenance), free universal bus/train access, 0 toll roads, 2-8 minute commute to work for all by proper planning of car ownership, housing/work locations to avoid short life by long commutes that cause short sleep, stress (fast aging), traffic jams/accidents, tire particle/gas smog, noise pollution, wasting of resources to fix/build cars too often. 800 trillion fines for unsafe magnetic fields, microwaves, dirty electricity in cars & car chargers. Fix the Mississippi river delta channels to stop losing a football field of Louisiana every hour into the ocean. ☺☺☺

3. Immortality Building Inc world's 1st universal housing corporation to give free basic single family house to all born confirmed citizens at 18, of quality reflective of one's own immortality credit score, (can pay to upgrade size), maintain and fix automatically all buildings in the nation, eliminate all realtors, buy sell house in 2 days via 1 single housing.gov website; none have 2 houses until all own 1 house; 100% own their home; ban house flips, end parasitism; good☺☺☺ shelter = better sleep DNA repair, for 50 times more lifespan years added to USA than in a 'rich live long' only system. For hotels, we will go to hotel.gov to get a clean air room, not like 60% of toxic smell rooms due to 'low IQ folks' (without any knowledge of chemistry, air testing) running 99.99% of US hotels. Hotels, banks, shops, enterprises, businesses, land, everything, all belong to We the People, and we have the right to know the level of 500 air contaminants in all hotel rooms at all times. 400 trillion fines for all contractors for mistakes costing 900 trillion, plus Home Depot/similar sellers 200 trillion, as they poison all shoppers with formaldehyde urea, etc emissions in the stores and sell body destroying high VOC products as shown in DIY floor section.

4. Eterni Bank world's 1st universal bank replaces all banks in the US (4500 in 2025) to give universal free banking & card to all, more equal pay (max salary 3x min salary, ethics credit determines everything), set all prices for 0% inflation, 0% interest loans, 0% taxes, prices set based on product contribution to living to 1 billion; end *stock markets (*scam to loot the poor in all nations, free stock markets don't exist anyway, stock prices are fantasies propped by the military*).* No illegals, gangs or undeclared spies survive, cash/crypto is banned, only legals get card, only this card allows any US purchase. No gang/spy can create companies, only 11 exist. 0 Violent crime becomes true fast as instant death for anyone caught is certain. World Peace becomes real, as all nations want to join the Immortalist Anthem New Universal Nation. ☺☺☺

5. Universal Immortality Inc world's 1st universal free Immortality for All preventive (100s of biomarkers monitors in city Immortality Centers) healthcare plus free regular healthcare, with extra options for those with the higher immortality credit score ☺☺☺; happy.gov weekly survey to gauge citizen happiness so suicides go from 700000 a year on Earth in 2025, to 0 in 2040. instant action by government, peers, etc taken when survey score is > when suicides occur. Due to free housing, healthcare, transport, food no theft exists. In the transition period, an allowance (for housing, healthcare, transport, food) means we can't buy anything else with that part of the monthly salary, so nobody wants to steal due to 'no money left for x,y, z. Fines of 500 quadrillion to Big Pharma and related for managing disease (not curing it) & killing people.

6. Eternal Peace Inc world's 1st universal Peace company to work on trillions of nonviolent ways to end real and fake wars in 3 months, all violent crime in 3 years, all theft, fraud in 40 years, providing free global access to tech & culture that brings Eternal World Peace. This company is overlapping with Eternium: the armed forces are its employees, besides scientists. All defense companies are acquired by this state company, by 7000 trillion fines for causing wars. ☺☺☺

7. Eternal Utility Inc world's 1st universal utility company to give free basic (to prevent waste) amount of renewable electricity to all customers, free basic water and free internet. This company is born by fining $900 trillion 500 mega companies for producing microwave radiation in phones, tablets, laptops that causes 5000 diseases to occur 50 years sooner, plus all utilities for brain/organ damage via fluoridated water, for sickening, killing all with dirty electricity from phone/laptop/EV chargers, house electric wiring, unsafe solar inverters, bad appliances. ☺☺☺

8. Eternal Beauty Inc world's 1st universal beauty, cosmetics company to grant equal access to safe, healthy personal hygiene and general maintenance products. Created via 50 trillion fines for deadly lead, etc containing products that cause dry eyes, ocular infections, organ failure, Alzheimer, atherosclerosis, etc, all from the deadly compounds people use daily. ☺☺☺

9. Immortality Toy (Research Mindset) Inc world's 1st universal toy company to grant equal access to immortalist toys, immortalist online games, for all children, the poorest or the richest. Fidget spinners contain 42800 ppm lead at times, so we fine bad toy companies 5 trillion to raise $. We also can fine Tobacco and Big Alcohol 500 trillion to wipe them out of existence: get millions of acres for nice single family housing and healthy foods, research labs, etc. ☺☺☺

10. Eternal Altruism Inc world's 1st universal ethics as entertainment company replacing all music, media, entertainment companies to give equal free access to immortalist serene content to all. Created via 500 trillion fines to Hell Creating Companies for causing 500 million serious injuries, 80 million dead in wars, 50 trillion (not all reported) violent crimes via the content produced last 100 years, which led to trillions in healthcare, rebuilding, divorce, etc costs. New Mexico fined Jewish Meta 0.942 billion for destroying the youth via Zion Values (sex stuff) ☺☺☺

11. Eternal Clothing Inc world's 1st universal clothing company (aims to develop clothes, shoes that triple human lifespan) that gives people free colorful Ethics of Immortality clothes. Fines☺☺ toxic textiles companies 50 trillion to raise $. Lack of recycling of clothes leads to a shortage of cotton, which causes the creation of rash giving lifespan shortening polyester clothing, that creates positive ions, prevents skin breathing. Bad clothes are a genocide against the workers.

The 11 names are not redundant, they remind all to behave, everyone needs 80000 reminders daily to behave until violent crime is 1 trillion times lower. These 11 names of the only 11 American companies, employee owned ones, on the American stock exchange relate to the Core Value of Immortalism, Nonkilling and nonviolence, i.e. Immortality for All, no war, no violence. These names remind us all that the purpose of Life is to make Life Eternal and that is what we focus all civilizational energy on, by the very Names even of our lovely 11 companies. Eventually, as people realize the advantages of 11 companies instead of 1 billion, all nations will join Eternia and sing in Bliss the Immortalist Anthem for all. The 11 names containing the words Eterni, ☺☺☺Eternal, Immortal remind all that every violent crime that causes an injury that doesn't heal in

2 weeks 100%, leads to Public Firing Squad Execution on all US TV stations, broadcast live and☺☺ interrupting all programs to remind cannibal violent chimps of their aggressive nature and need to become the soothing compassionate holy vibe of the Civilization of beautiful telepathic radiant teleporting genderless shimmering shapeshifting Immortals living to 4000 (later 100 million) years in peace and gentle tender soft nurturing graceful loving healing kind bliss. Why so cruel, some would ask? It's because each violent act leads via ripple effect to 100000 people dead and 1 dead to nip it in the bud is better than 1 trillion dead in star wars later. Think like an Immortal about the trillion year consequences of current laws of violent crime penalties. The reason all fists fly all the time, all shove all is because there is no real penalty for violence. Any violent crime, if injury heals, means lifetime labor, no more slaps, shoving and etc. People need a trillion reminders to be kind in order to lower the violent crime 1 trillion fold and we will do so, as explained in the remake of American cities, with qualities and ethics everywhere. ☺☺☺

Immortalism is not Chinese fake communism, where aristocrats (communist party, 7% of China) subjugate the masses (93%), 0.01% of families own 58% of wealth, many of the wealthiest of the communist party escape to the West with stolen money, live to 88, while Chinese street directing traffic cops lived to 43 during 1978-2020 China smog before EVs/green energy that reduced air pollution 100 fold in China in many cities. A 9$ high tech mask (.5$ filter changed daily) would have given the cops 75 yr life, but the 93% don't count. Snail IQ Republicans fight EVs/solar, since US aristocrats live in clean air estates. Essentially, the rich steal trillions, cause half the labor force to waste time duplicating what others do, reinvent stuff, etc, killing millions by inefficiency, a real human sacrifice and demonic possession that Republican Christians should never support given the clear Gospel words that morally demand the 11 companies: Tim 6:10 "love of money is the root of all evil" & Mk 10:25. "it's easier for a camel to go thru a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter heaven"☺☺☺. The rich only use Bible quotes that fit their global looting from the poor and enslaved workers. Christians or God loving folks who support genocide by inefficiency, who want 33 million companies instead of 11 (or 20), are thus aiding demons, Satan, are fake Christians, phonies who don't know basic dental ethics or any ethics.☺☺☺ Jesus called all to help the poor, since all the Body of Christ, the Family of Immortals☺☺☺, and God gives all his kids same amount of food, 1 pay for all humans, not 50000 times more to one kid.☺☺☺ Lao Tze "wise leaders don't encourage rivalry" by 20-50000 x salary differences.☺☺☺ 1 eterni/hr for all humans now.☺☺☺ We the People love the Immortalist Anthem who calls all to love the worst a trillion times more deeply, tenderly, gently than the last decade mom loved her suckling baby. Live 1 Thes 2:7 "gentle among you, as a nursing mother tenderly cares for her own children" and Buddha said "love all beings as a mother loves her only child". Immortalists hope one day 70% will vote for us. Together, we bring a spiritual America. In 1850, we needed a computer 3 million times bigger to do 1 million times fewer calculations per second than today, the lower the IQ, the more companies you need to do the same worse. ☺☺☺

THE SCIENTIST WHO DOES MORE GOOD THAN 100 MILLION DOCTORS:

An 'organic synthesis'/'biochemical synthesis' chemist, chemical physicist, particle physicist for new reactors, physical chemist (average salary 5 times lower than doctors) that makes an eterni powder (eterni food) that gives humanity 40 times longer lifespan, has cured 8 billion people of 30000 diseases, by postponing the aging diseases by thousands of years: most people only have health issues after 45. Isn't that "postpone 30K diseases by 2000 years for 8 billion folks" contribution 50 billion times higher than a doctor prescribing toxic Big Pharma pills without much thinking? It is, so how can we create a society that produces real chemistry progress? For this, he would be paid 5 times less than greedy MDs. Tesla, the genius, died poor in a hotel possibly malnourished and tired, while Wall St bandits lived in palaces. This is the US, a concentration camp for the worker slaves of the aristocratic gangsters. Most doctors don't go thru the insane stress of surgeons etc, they have very low risk jobs. You know, we're so ☺ abysmal IQ☺ in USA because almost everyone works in retail, since our evil aristocrats give us these silly stores we don't need, instead of 1 million Immortality for All Amazing Research Centers and Jobs. Aristocrats drastically lower the average IQ of everyone in order to build bigger palaces. With online purchases only, we get to have 30 million chemical physics and physical chemistry jobs to produce eterni foods 10000 times faster than nature does via agriculture, and we pay chemists more than lawyers, realtors, retail managers, etc. All medicine and most societal progress is due to physicists and chemists, the progenitors of biology (biology is 0.0000000001% of chemistry, the chemical behavior of Earth molecular machines, chemistry is 0.0000000001% of physics i.e. electro-photonic interactions in certain temp pressure ranges on some planets, dimensions) and all health sciences. Progress is not due to gangster banks, Wall St Traders or doctors prescribing Vioxx that killed 38000 people. Without primitive 15th century "physics, chemistry", humans would not have gotten the printing press to translate Bible in all languages and see the HORRIFIC TRUTH and all progress after that, the scientific European revolution that came out of it, out of "physicist-chemist innovation of printing press" caused Protestant Reformation and today, the Immortalist Reformation of all religions in line with the billion times kinder (than the Bible, Quran, Torah, Mormon Book, Bhagavad Gita, Talmud, Mahabharata, Communist Manifesto) Immortalist Anthem☺☺☺, the next step in the ethical evolution of the humans: a species that, like 500 other species of mammals, doesn't kill its own, is not violent towards one's own species. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

In USA, the nonsense talking TV personalities (who end up stabbing to death their mothers, after gracing waves with Hitler like tone instead of eterni tone) who interview people and make some shows make $1-50 million a year, while the hard working scientists live in concentration camp like 100 sq ft studios at times, making $35K a year, with MDs a mere $200-500K (no stress, as they don't do surgery, unless a surgeon, hence surgeons make 600-990K in 2025). Only 10% of doctors are surgeons, the others have an easy parasitic life, that dwarfs in depravity that of the billionaires, Wall St. 0.2 billion/year oil options traders or TV Hosts like Jimmy Kimmel, Rachel Maddow and others who claim to be lefties, but make $3-37 million a year, (steal from the American people, like Fox New Laura Ingraham steals 15 million/year, radio hosts make 10-90 million often too). How come these "leftists" and 450 Democrat billionaires didn't donate 5 billion in general elections to win all states and create 11 companies if they're so left and not telling lies to deceive USA? Selena Gomez, Taylor Swift, Jay-Z, etc are leftist billionaire singers, so what happened? "Democrats" make trillions each 4 years, yet Democrats only donate 1 billion to win elections, shows what kind of "concerned selfless people" Democratic Party is made of. The Democrats never have hunger strike to create equality, like max salary is 3-5 times the min in USA with no millionaires/billionaires? Why don't they help bring that about? They're phonies, Republicans in disguise. All these TV leftists are frauds, Republicans pretending to be Democrats. The right wing ultra Orthodox Jews, Republicans, have morphed into "Atheist Democrats", to turn Democrats into a "controlled opposition" of ☺low IQ clowns☺ who're nothing but puppets of the lowest IQ Republicans, hailing the Jewish Torah (most of the Bible) as the Word of God, the fake Democrats advocating for max salary being 5000 times the minimum, instead of the 50000 times the minimum for Republicans. Democrats can't change USA without first purging the spies of the Republicans in their party that control everything and dilute any real platform 100 fold, preventing the Party from becoming the Immortalist Party equivalent. So, our democracy is nothing but a Jewish Farce, like the Bible itself. The Jews pretend to be Christian pastors too and support the circumcision (980% in USA, 0.1% in most Christian populations), since Jews circumcise. They brainwash everyone to Judaism rituals and customs, the infiltrate every area of religion, academia, medicine, media, politics, controlling 70% of Republicans and Democrats. Americans have become slaves in their own country: abysmal IQ primitives fooled by low IQ religious nutcases from Israel. Some TV hosts even managed to steal 100s of millions. Both the right and left TV stations are run by gangsters and criminals who support that status quo of absolute income inequality hooliganism: aristocrats (like these hosts), making 10-50000 more than the minimum federal wage, 7.25 or 15080$/year. Why should the maximum wage be more than 3-5 times the minimum? If everyone got the same pay, don't you think that money would lose all attraction, instead of thinking about money 100000 times more than about helping everyone live in health, in Eternal Universal Peace and to 500? You can even set a part of salary for food alone, clothing alone, utilities alone, etc, so nobody runs out of food money by buying too much of a useless thing. So, how come these phony liars who claim to be leftist, communist or Jesus followers of Mk 10:25 don't talk in their fraudulent TV programs about this need of removing money from the conversation and talking about real efficiency of 11 companies that then makes the economics 3 million times simpler and we think 3 million times less about money? Money would be never talked about, instead all would talk about how to help all to live in Eternal World Peace to age 1 trillion, about virtue, ethics, the Immortality Credit Score (obtained by good actions to help others). The fiendish conmen created this system to corrupt and demonize every human on Earth: do every evil to get money. The hypocrisy of "right wing" TV star (reminds me of Charlie Kirk, 407K/yr in 2021, small pay vs many Fox (Faux, False News) News hosts making 5-10 million, happy Charlie who may have staged his death*, like 'charitable' aristocrats do to* raise 50x more funds after 'death') phonies could not be clearer: they pretend to be Christian as long as they can steal millions, Mk 10:25 "it's easier for a camel to go thru a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter heaven". Where is the 0.4 billion money raised by Kirk? Then we got multimillionaire pastors. Similarly, it's easy and fun to criticize the Republicans in a fake way, when the left wing TV 'stars' make 1000 times more than the gentile: "you run both parties, con everyone that they choose in the fake elections, and cash in on everyone's gullibility (fake miracles) or ☺abysmal IQ☺ you do everything possible to magnify with pretending to be a leftie or rightie disciple of the Jewish Jesus, the saver of Jewish Banks Profits." America rewards these TV liars/frauds (some are MDs) for often shouting in ways 20-90% reminiscent of the Holy 'Tone of God' Pastors (hear the Bible like, Jesus-Moses like tone: pastor, rabbi, Buddhist monk, imam, Hindu preacher), & Hitler. Janitors can make 27$/hour, while chemists make 17$/hr. Why is USA so backwards?☺☺ Due to Republican anti-science thieves of course, who pay janitors way more than scientists. Most are socially engineered so low in IQ, the Republican CEOs find it so incredibly easy to sell everybody pure poison. This means USA doesn't really value science and innovation at all, as the TV nonsense talkers or guys flipping properties make 400 times more/hr. US is gangland, thanks to right wing thieves/gangsters who Deify Money 90 billion times more than the living God. Don't donate to our 2 fake parties run by charlatans/conmen, help the Immortalist Party win without money, world's first election won without money. We'll fix USA fully, with your altruistic help. Check out the end of local governments section, very important for equality stuff.

Most small businesses today are 'garage' companies started and run for decades by 1-5 people, and the company has 3 minutes total of PhD level courses or education, while the 11 mega companies have 40 hours a week, for 5 years, so 10000 hours, times 5 million PhDs, 50 billion hours or 3 trillion minutes, so a trillion times more expertise than the folks managing, developing millions of companies/products today. This lack of knowledge leads to catastrophic products that shorten everyone's (8 billion folks) life by 20 years, meaning 160 billion lifespan years lost, or the equivalent of killing 2 billion infants. You thought 6 million Jews was a Big Holocaust, but count the Holocaust of Ignorance, of lack of good nutrition, sleep, shelter, etc for 8 billion, done to USA by the Republican Party of 33 million companies instead of 11. Now, perhaps you understand why this book has so many 'animal IQ' adjectives or nouns before certain groups of "33 million companies system supporters". The 0 taxes area explains some of these genocides via links to various areas of the book. All humans would prefer a nuclear physics engineer to build and manage nuclear power plants, not a janitor, knowledge and education make a huge difference between nuclear explosion and safe nuclear energy. Today, hidden Holocausts (caused by the aristocrats) are happening every decade due to 33 million companies: millions of companies have too many workers who slack around as nobody supervises them, wasting their lives while America imports stuff these guys (some are even illegal aliens paid same wage as a citizen working 10 times more with 10 times more stress during working hour) could manufacture. ☺☺☺ At the same time, millions of companies have few workers who work 50-70 hours in 10 times higher stress, vs 10 hours others in 10 times lower stress, for the same pay, leading to these guys getting sick and draining out healthcare resources. This leads to a Holocaust where the aristocrats are not just the 5%, but a lot more of part-time aristocrats who just imitate the aristocratic class, as nobody gives a dime about anything when criminal gangsters running USA make 5-50000 times the min wage. Kindly watch what paper houses they build in the Midwest for the 95%… who obviously live in high tornado zones… About 30 dead from that multi-state tornado set on May 18 2025. These people have no right to a dome shape that would prevent death with the same materials used, thanks to a gov of ☺cat IQ thieves☺ and criminals who fake elections to make us believe we choose anything, as in a "party" aristocrats control. You need to read the Eterni, New Capital of USA section about the Auschwitz camp US capital to understand the housing situation for 75 million condo apartment dwellers in USA and the horrible houses for another 70 million, the so called worthless 30% income bottom.

You can't have a working country until salaries are far more equal and the smallest company is a million people, to make sure everyone distributes stress and workload correctly, shifting them when one department is less busy etc. You can't pay same wage to a guy working 4-8 times more out of his 40 hour clocked in time and also having 10 times more stress for every actual work hour. With 33 million companies, pay raises and promotion are not merit based, but often based on friendship and if you wear revealing clothes and seduce your boss or date him. With 11 companies, an ultra scientific raise system, universal, identical, is established, 100% merit based. The corruption and etc going on in smaller companies is huge, even 5000 employees companies. It's funny how Democrats/Republicans can promote such 2nd grade concepts as small businesses, because their parents had one, when it's evident that this leads to Holocausts and parasitism on a scale nobody would have imagined in their economics brainwashing class created by spoiled aristocratic pigs who have no idea of the real world. In the world of immortalists, real managers exist and nobody works 2-20 times more for same pay. Please read the need for ending the 50 states, plus city, state, and other redundant governments. It's important to have only one government, not 20000 in the USA. Cities, states, nations are artificial constructs, deep down we're all humans who want to bring Immortality for All, to be gentle tender soft nurturing loving healing kind, to become teleporting genderless shimmering shapeshifting Immortals living to a trillion at least, so to achieve this, we focus on peace, 0 jails, 0 violent crime, maximum efficiency, for best longest sleep hours (as we work fewer hours) so that deep sleep leads to the least anger. We can all unite in the Eternal Gentle Serenity of the Immortalist Anthem. ☺☺☺

Online Shopping Brings the Most Ethical and Advanced High Tech Society:

Why do we need stores for, if everything can be purchased online, with warehouses of much higher quality for food/medicines (almost everything refrigerated, as it should be to maintain food freshness) and you get simple measurements at the City Immortality Center for clothing, glasses (3D face), etc? Why do we need to shop when delivery makes one trip for 100 customers instead of 100 trips to a store? The delivery vans with Eterni Foods logo would be within half a mile of everyone and would deliver to your exact phone location any food within minutes, faster than you waiting in a drive thru, and not junk food or cans that allow bacillus cereus to grow 100 fold at room temp as with all cans, unsoaked lethal legumes today, but the most scientifically soaked, water drained cooked lentils that were kept frozen so no mycotoxins and bacterial toxins can emerge from B. Cereus ubiquitous in canned foods/anything with cooked grains, legumes, sold today by the trillions of glass jars, cans, packed containers growing endless bacteria at 77°F in most stores. The Eterni Food vans can preheat the unopened food in the van while driving to you in a special oven to prevent oxygen contact (unlike the garbage restaurant oxydizing everything like peasants from Neolithic), if initially too cold, in 1 minute, so you can eat it if a visitor in 3 minutes in your car and then go to visit the Eternal Immortality for All Office of Eternia, to see what civilization is like: 0 violent crime. You know they say "trash any food out of the fridge in 2 hours", but what happens with all these cans and jars and etc in stores? They also grow bacteria, albeit slower, as no oxygen exists, mostly anaerobic or even aerobic if some air exists in the jar at the top, as it often exists since you can't really remove dissolved oxygen from the cooking water. Nobody has access to these state of the art warehouses, who wants to walk in a cold storage anyway? It's so efficient, stock so low, that everything is kept almost in the fridge or freezer, berries are free of mold as they sit in the fridge, not at "somwhat cold" store temps. The lentils or beans you eat are 100 times healthier than the poison today, and, best of all, free of sodium. They add sodium to preserve the canned foods due to bacteria, but with proper soaking, water draning, etc nobody needs that and transport is faster, no more doubling of food weight via can and cooking water. You get the lentils, free of mold, mycotoxins, bacteria and 900 antinutrients found in store legumes. Some think cereals, chips or popcorn are safe, they're deadly, full of bacteria growing there too, besides AGEs from processing, heating with oils. Buy corn, make the popcorn at home in a microwave bag or buy a 10$ pocorn maker, everyone will do that, health will be valued by all. You can even subscribe like with Amazon, so each 5-20 days they deliver whatever produce/foods you need, making shopping waste 100 times less of your time, so you focus on better calorie and nutrient management, instead of on shopping for bargains that would not exist, since aristocrats become regular workers (0 aristocrats, max salary 3-5 times min) and one price holds for ALL USA. Why have 50000 prices for the same item, instead of one? Coupons would be banned, no more discount flyers, any savings are given by email only (no mail spam), only for produce that didn't sell by the ideal time, though with AI this would almost never happen, since storage is much cooler now for produce that rots fast. For eons, the aristocrats brainwashed everyone to become money obsessed and to look for a discount, instead of how to help all live to 9000 in eternal World Peace. The speculating fraudulent beasts, creators of 33 million companies and 4500 banks to chain the masses, are out, ethics begins. They brainwash all to think of money 50000 times a day, of health and longevity twice a year. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Why even drive to restaurants if home cooked food is way healthier and today it's faster to cook at home than to wait in a drive thru? This would cause traffic pollution from tires, etc to drop a lot, people would have far more time to rest and avoid accidents, it would be the most compassionate action one could take: give up selfish desire for physical stores to help end war, crime. Online stores would be 200 times better than the best today, with 300 times more options for search, etc, for the 11 companies. The unethical man lives in his selfish desire for self-gratification, in his infernal laziness (too hard to press a button on a pressure cooker with delivered foods, for such a spoiled rat), he wants others to cook his meals, to waste materials to build shops/restaurants for him, to pollute the air, to kill millions covertly with tire particle smog, with oil smog, without any regard for the 1.3 million killed by cars yearly worldwide.

All energy/materials used for restaurants and shops could be used to end overcrowded or moldy/dilapidated housing, homelessness, millions of deaths due to violence, war yearly and millions more due to covert death by bad restaurants and packaged foods that now are not evaluated for safety much, due to almost everyone's job being Retail and Waitress, Merchant and Trader, CEO of 33 million trash companies and Accountants, Managers and Admin, Personal Assistants, Spam Letters Marketing Strategists (cut trees using slaves, overflow mailboxes with junk mail, spam billions of people via email and phone too to waste everyone's time marketing products they don't want).☺☺☺ Such a human has the lowest credit score, he's a beast, who has not reached the 100 score level yet, let alone 800 max, his life and selfish desires are way above humanity: he wants to waste so many resources for his Strip Malls, Restaurants, etc, but takes all resources from the poor and unethically jailed. To afford to buy online (delivery is available from more expensive stores) and yet do it in person is a waste of time and a sign of low IQ/lack of ethics, but understandable for poor people where many food items are rotten or delivery is very expensive/unavailable, etc. The truth is a huge amount of people can afford to buy from stores that offer delivery, yet they don't do it, our culture is too selfish. Today, Amazon sells so many items (organic kale 2.3$, watermelon 4$, lentil 1.08/lb subscribed, chickpea 1.08/lb, red onion 0.97$/lb, organic carrot 5.7$/5lb), at prices lower than many stores (not blueberries, Lidl, etc is way cheaper, offers no delivery), and they offer free delivery for over 30-50$, but not everything is cheap for the poorest. The thing is that with one universal Eterni Foods Inc, the delivery would be free in all USA (3 free/week to avoid traffic jams) and prices way cheaper as thru fines for GENOCIDE we acquire gradually, over many years, all stores of the infernal aristocrats and provide 1 million times better service thru mass scale advantages. This only sells healthy items and thus begins to bankrupt all criminal food products, one aristocratic palace at a time. Coupons outlawed, as they cut trees and waste lives of the poor to produce paper, ink. To be fair, they can make all delivery of non-food free in the future via eterni.i (a sort of market.gov), and to protect the environment and the workers fixing roads, cars, etc, order at least 15$ at a time worth of items usually, with 2 monthly exceptions allowed under 15. People would spend time in the amazing & beautiful Immortality City centers, learning how to meditate or breathe to be happy and design the techs to create 5 trillion year lifespan instead of being ☺ abysmal IQ piglets☺ digging for lethal food products ready made to kill them fast by age 100. Foods are so lethal because they're stored at room temp, with warehousing, everything is stored at much cooler temps, being far fresher. 99% of food in stores is pure poison by immortalist standards, so it's a huge waste of time to drive so much to poison yourself at KFC/supermarket.

The so-called "People" (bipedal hyenas?) who want physical stores/restaurants, when millions are victims of violent crime/unjust jailing in USA, need to kindly realize that their selfishness has no limits, they deserve no manager role in any of the 11 companies, ending violent crime is something too unimportant for these spoiled phonies preaching Ethics, ending war too lofty to bother with, their motto seems "We shall murder each other for another billion years, being below 500 mammal species who don't kill their own, and have sky high violent crime and wars, we shall do nothing to prevent deaths, preventable deaths, even when it's possible with 1% less laziness and an infinitely small amount of altruism. We will continue watching and listening to violent music and movies forever". A man of virtue has ethical priorities: 0 war/violent crime first, 0 homeless first, 0 horrible housing first, etc. These "need endless stores/cinemas" spoiled brats & rats are brainwashed fully by the demonic aristoc-rat-ic mind of Infinite genocidal subjugation and theft. Sadly, they have a hard time to realize they don't walk the talk, they don't walk the empathy for the kind who had everything stolen from them by the Big Gangsters. Never does it cross their mind all these wasted resources would end all jails/homelessness, end all wars, gangs and violence too within 10 years or even 5. Their life is a waste, they do nothing real to help end violent crime and war in a few years, drift aimlessly like soulless zombies, with no goal, no ethics, no ethos to end all killings and violence on Earth within 2-10 years. They call this filth we live in a "civilization". They're robotic slaves of the Zion Elders, Bible 'Mass rape, Slavery, Genocide are OK' Scholars, making new wars that we're told "are acts of kindness of the God of beating slaves daily". Who needs ☺abysmal IQ☺ ubiquitous beauty salons and endless useless businesses when we're like demons inside? The first task is to become angels, 0 violence. The first duty of world citizens is to become human, to stop all violence now, to stop being a beast. This is the call of God, Immortals, the Great Spirit of Immortality for All of the Immortalist Anthem. Let all humans enjoy the Eternal Right to Eternal Physical Immortality, brought by science. ☺☺☺ Traffic jams can cause more car accidents, wear and tear that causes us to have production of cars jobs instead of "living in 0 violent crime/wars to age 5000 years" research jobs for chemists and physicists. The Universal Immortality Inc section explains the advantage of scientific society that innovates, places nutrition/prevention above intervention.

The house flipper aristocratic thieves do a terrible 9000 times worse job than the Immortality Building Inc with 3 million PhDs, and make $5 million, while the real angels of humanity make 4-80 times less lifting 8 billion out of their "low IQ state"☺☺☺. Isn't about time we require Immortality Credit Scores before we decide who becomes a doctor, CEO, so all realtors vanish and chemistry/physics majors increase 10 fold with house flipping illegal? Why do we need physical churches, why do we need rituals, God is everywhere. No theft is possible in highly altruistic intellectual high tech job immortalism, since all warehouses are protected by cops, AI, cameras, electrical wire, etc and all gangs are destroyed overnight since aristocrats are gone and any violent crime means lifetime labor/death penalty, as nothing can be bought except with the Immortality Credit Card of America's only Bank, no cash, you don't need cash since everything is purchased online eventually after full centralization and 11 companies replace the gang shops.

Ending the Terrorism of the Working Class changing job 80 times:

The aristocratic vampire lives in a palace in one place and city, same microbes, climate and everything and the working slave is fired in and out, going from one city, state and climate and subjects himself to a very new set of microbe strains, temps, climates, etc that destroy his body as he has to adapt his immunity to each new environment, fight new strains and become super stressed immune system wise, living obviously 15 years shorter, due to poor sleep, overwhelming immune answers, and etc. Read the vitamin D section to understand more on that, one moldy studio where one lives 3 years and it could cause real issues if repeated, losing 25 years of life or even dying. The 11 companies system ensures everyone has job security, as stress of unemployment shorten lifespan and also forces relocation that shortens lifespan. With 20000 jobs in any city at the same company, or nearby, one doesn't need to relocate all the time and shrink his lifespan. The current system is GENOCIDAL CLASS WARFARE AT ITS BEST, a genocide by the rich against the enslaved poor who changes job, location 10-70 times, instead of only twice. The vampire aristocrat lives in the same city most of the time, where his company is.

Simple Living, High Thinking, Efficiency for Mind Blowing Sciency (science):

Besides the 11 companies, the simple honest universalist one human family model needs only 3 government ministries/departments renamed into agencies (shorter word), since AGE is Eternal:

1). ☺☺☺ Immortality Education Agency: FREE centralized education ages -1 to 9000 ☺☺☺

2). ☺☺☺ Immortality Nurturing Agency: cops, lawyers, courts, spies are co-workers ☺☺☺

3). ☺☺☺ Eternium: Defense Dept reformed into Agency of Eternal Peace Building ☺☺☺

Gently kindly☺☺ read the Joint Chief of Staff Wikipedia page, the 311, 11 numbers, companies. His wife was marketing manager for a food company, and Eterni Food Inc is the # 1 of the 11 companies. His last name is Caine, Dog in Latin (canine), (see Eternia for East Europe English speaking mega nation), and like DOGE, Department of Government Efficiency. If EU-NATO-Australia become one 1.1 (11 again) billion people nation, we increase efficiency. 80% of the area of the new NATO-Australia-EU already speaks English as main language, so it is only logical for the EU to get the masses on board and do what is right for humanity and efficiency. Smartest people in all these nations already know English anyway. If volcanoes cause "nuclear winter" for 25 years, humans starve & die. Eterni Food is the first priority. Without food, everyone dies. The immortalists prioritize good sleep, single family homes for all and food, since without these 3, no health exists. Criminal aristocrats want resorts open 24-7, and to hire people for overnight shifts. With efficiency, none of that is needed and all can have a good sleep. Good regular Sleep is the most important thing for longevity, after shelter and food. All the other dozens of businesses are secondary and subject to dissolution.

As the Eterni New Capital of USA section explains, we will have 500 times fewer lawyers/judges (some Jewish or nonJewish judges (like one FBI arrested) often help violent criminals, since Jews, Catholics pose as peaceful Latinos, Muslims to enter illegally and spread the culture of infinite violence), create 0 incentive for lawsuits, ALL DISPUTES solved via the amazing:

1. reviews.gov (make product or service review, and the investigation by the Immortality Nurturing Agency will fine 500 people and you get 30% of the fine, 70% goes to improving the product and preventing issue from happening again via education), plus discourage any argument in person to complain, make your review online, don't start criticizing any bus driver or service provider in person etc since they could get angry and kill or attack you like this nutjob. In China, the gov spends 5 times the energy to harass, put plain clothes cops at the door of residents, follow them when they go shopping, follow and suppress petitioners, who simply expose the inefficiency and corruption of the decentralized "communists aristocrats first" system of China, instead of receiving the petition and fixing the system with the feedback. It's very similar with the US system of "aristocrats first", where there are 50000 review sites and the gov doesn't care at all about what the reviews say, the gov doesn't even review the complaints, allowing the criminal aristocrats who own the 33 million fraudulent companies to loot and subjugate the people as they deem fit, just like the Chinese aristocrats who pretend to be "communists". You thought we're any different than China fake "democracy"? We're not that different, the petition office in China is a way to detect easily the residents and harass, suppress them, instead of them organizing themselves without the government's knowledge. The US equivalent of the petition office is the Democratic party, which is a fake 'controlled opposition' Republicans steer, aimed at detecting leftists and suppressing and wiping them out, diluting everything they propose, so US British aristocrats, are (like Chinese aristocrats pretending to be "communist" billionaires/millionaires), able to suppress and control everyone, i.e. to subjugate the 95%. Most Democrats are too abysmal in IQ to realize the fact the top Democrats who control the public personas behind the scenes, are Republicans who're pretending to be Democrats. So the scam goes on, with no change in USA. Any decent government doesn't need 2 parties, they just fix problems, but in USA they don't even bother to read the reviews, the gov is merely a terror tool of the aristocrats that they 100% own. Thanks to The 11 National Unified companies, all reviews are in one place at reviews.gov for products and people, and then we have a full time employee who analyzes the 2 million reviews of a mouse or product, using AI to generate reports, then reading most reviews too, while AI will summarize the 50 issues reported and how many times, 50001, 43056, 30024 times, etc each issue occurs and then the product design engineers will address all 50 issues. Today, all "low IQ peasants and product designer wanna bes" start a mouse company or design project, delivering the ultimate trash for all planet, as they can't cooperate within Eternal Utility Inc, so we get these tractor☺☺☺ like noisy mice with a scroll wheel requiring a "wrench to move", etc. With 1 million PhDs in a company, you design fewer products, but the worst product is 10 times better than the best in the current model of "every mom and dad a CEO in their garage, 0 PhDs". ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

2. divorce.gov (ULTRA FAST, 2 days max, to prevent issues, everyone keeps accounts separate and there is nothing to split, since whoever bought it, by Eterni Bank (the only bank) records, is the owner, house proceeds from sale are split depending on who paid the mortgage or balance initially and after in immortalism everyone is happy to be together and nobody stays together if they suddenly dislike the other due to evolving too fast towards eterni tone of speech and thought, since happiness is the most important thing, 3. crime.gov (report any crime or dispute, no more police websites, all police departments are one, all reports nationwide for crimes are in one place crime.gov), 4. gentletendersoft.gov (report any crime and dispute if you want to be ultra secret or gentle about how this is solved, so other person doesn't know you reported them). All disputes are solved by the Immortality Nurturing Agency which replaces EPA, FDA, etc, all police departments nationwide, all courts, all spy agencies, all into one, since with 30 trillion cameras nobody dares do a thing since lifetime labor for any slap or death for any serious violent crime is the law, gentletendersoft.gov for ethical development and fair application of one law, not 20000 versions of it in 20000 towns, no different state laws as states merge and dissolve, as 33 million companies become 11 (all lawyers are federal employees of Immortality Nurturing Agency, no lawsuits, due to 3 million times fewer companies and because all have similar income and assets, so no way you can get any big payout, lawyers would not bother, since fine for theft is 9000 times the stolen amount, for every thief or lawyer who lies to get customer to earn what doesn't belong to him in a suit; most lawyers are the army of aristocratic beasts who plunder 8 billion people and enable criminals to become millionaires overnight; without that, with all wage employees, with AI triggering an alert when anyone gets money beyond a level in their account, with one bank and all transactions known, recorded, nobody tries to scam anyone, crime is 90000 times lower), everyone is fined with each mistake reported via a verified review done by a nonrelative who received some services, paid bonus with every nice reviews.gov instantly (salary can triple if one gets the most amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ reviews and half if bad reviews before being moved to another department), all judges are employees of Immortality Nurturing Agency, no supreme court, there is one Law, no state or town law, only SUPREME LAW of Immortality for All above all other rights, meaning World Peace, 0 Violent Crime, ALL LAW IS SUPREME and FINAL, All government is One for All, any law changes applies to the entire USA and later planet when we're one Nation, meaning 0 Taxes and UNIVERSAL FREEDOM FOR ALL as in the Universal Immortality For All Declaration of the Free People of ALL nations. The scam with the courts is invented by palace dwelling aristocrats to brainwash☺☺☺ the people that talking of jailing, sentencing, beating, bloodshed of covert torture, punishing all day is how they build democracy and that justice is somehow so very important to aristocrats, justice is the reality of our con system where they get paid 1000-50000 times more than the slavering 99%. Educated people do no crimes in a fair system, so education is 1 billion times more important than courts. The first 7 pages of the new political system of USA section, 6.1., explain the 3 reformed branches of the US government. Therefore,

The 3 branches of government are not Executive, Legislative and Courts, but

1). ☺☺☺ Immortality Education Agency: the educators of the country, the basis of all ☺☺☺

2). ☺☺☺ Immortality Nurturing Agency: product safety: EPA, FDA, cops, judges, spies ☺☺☺

3). ☺☺☺ Executive Immortalist Congress: President, Cabinet, Legislators are the Executive & Congress Merged, as 2 Congress chambers merge: 1 Senator for 5 million people.☺☺☺

1). education branch 2). nurturing branch 3). executive branch. The President, Senators talk and act as One Unified Song (Immortalist Anthem) listening to the Education and Nurturing Branches. Senators are immortalists who inform/support the final decision of the President. The Cabinet is the 11 Companies Chiefs, plus reps from Education and Nurturing agencies, as well as Eternium (border defense etc). The Unity of the 80 (President, 11 chiefs, 68 senators), who're below 50 and have college degrees in Life Sciences mostly (all are STEM, though physics, chemistry, related engineers get priority over biology, per education goals), creates all laws, with guidance and input from the first two 'more academic and higher IQ than average' branches. The Immortality Education Branch is 1st, the Immortality Nurturing is 2nd and the Leading from Behind 3rd. We build Immortals via Education First, Kids are Educated First, Nurtured as Growing Adults Second, Inspired by Silent Living Example Third. The President is like the sage of Tao, nurtured by meditative bliss, and happy immortalist breathing. The Immortals of USA, with a President and Congress worthy of Global Adoration via their Global Healing Speech Vibe. The cabinet is mainly 12 people: President + 11 chiefs of the 11 companies. A few extra staff for diplomatic activities are from the spies branch, Immortality Nurturing Agency. Our top diplomat is called "Immortality Diplomat" not Secretary of State, and he attends cabinet meetings too, together with all chiefs and top men of the two other branches. Who attends and what the real cabinet structure is, can be top secret, for national security reasons. The Supreme Court is replaced by the Immortality Education Agency, for we're not a nation of punishers and psychos who launch 8 million lawsuits due to 33 million companies, but a nation of high virtue, high ethics, no donations and true helpfulness with one fair treatment for all. The genocidal aristocrat has withheld education, so he can enslave the working class and jail it using the courts. We end all jails, as explained in the culture section. We move from psychotic punishment for those who were not educated, to ending the destruction of our youth by the evil music and movies. We educate, nurture people, the two branches, we don't jail them unjustly. In medicine the rare good doctors try to prevent disease by education, not manage disease as Big Pharma wants in order to make $$$ so top Pharma folks live in palaces. In immortalism, we prevent crime, not manage it as in aristocratic feudalism of most nations, by the same principle education first, and foremost. In USA the main energy is that of beatings and torture, beatings deified in the unholy bloody Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives), not that of eterni music and tone of education that gives a fair kind treatment for all, as we're one family, USA. In 2025 USA, the powers that be don't educate, by tone on TV-music-radio, they punish, they don't build virtue, they animalize. They don't develop culture & true ethics of gentletendersoft.gov, they just spread war. Kids need education, healing, beautiful recordings, etc, not slaps, spanking (causes aggression & anti-social behavior) and violence on TV. Odd how the news are filled with crime, lawyers, judges, jail, death, shootings, but never with the new recording in eterni tone the centralized education.gov uploaded for 3rd grade math and junior college ethics classes, to mold the generation of Immortals. No news about teachers fostering innovation, research. Only depravity and infernal yells by so called "musicians". The US aristocrats want the world to follow such insanity, where gambling and lotteries are legal? A decent parent educates, doesn't beat. Aristocrats behave like thugs, they beat the rest, not educate them. Owning the media, the flood our brains, program us to be violent, so they can jail and torture, subjugate us. They steal trillions from the masses, but only the masses who steal 20$ are jailed. Everything in the media is the incessant deification of fear, fear of judges, lawyers, of jails, of terrorists they create via Bible-Quran Adulation, fear of thieves, gangs, etc they create by unfairness, mind control. Gangs are their tools of terror, that they covertly control via electronic mind control. The media owned by the aristocratic parasites never allows much education and fairness discussed, only fear, chaos, violence. To them, we're subhuman slaves to be worked to death, cattle cannon fodder to die, they don't treat us as a mother would love her babies, so the government has to end aristocracy, for its abuses. Educated masses = 0 aristocrats. Hence the focus is always the pontification and glorification of Jails, Judges, Courts, etc. Our society glorifies the Bible, which deifies slavery, beatings, genocide, arson, rape, theft. Why? Who controls us that they push the Jewish Bible and worship of a Jew, Jesus, to the forefront? The Bible focuses on overwhelming disproportionate revenge, violence, genocide, not education. The aristocrats push the Bible because they want savage workers to attack other workers, since divide and conquer establishes their complete control over us: cops jail/torture workers, rich laugh all the way to the 4500 banks they created to loot and chain everyone. Have you ever thought why aristocrats did not promote a kind happy text like the Immortalist Anthem? The predators feed on chaos, when chaos exists, they can loot us a million times easier. ☺☺☺

To understand how aristocrats loot the nations, defraud the states, poison millions and commit genocide, please kindly scroll thru the HUMIDIFIER SECTION. For extra details, you can also read the food processor section for more on the low IQ of the current system of product design, approval and sale. Today, the 33 million companies engage in eternal fraud on TV, Internet, like the Bible engages in too, the media creating the 3 year old IQ ads and websites, that state "We are the number one company in the world or this field or state or etc" instead of providing 100 references with studies that support a specific statement about their products, not general manipulative lies. Oddly, 100 companies claim the top spot or "being the best", which is impossible. These vague statements only promote a culture of bullying, pride, arrogance and intellectual dishonesty that teaches everyone to be a fraud. With the parasites gone, the only TV ads will be for products that are bought less and that people would sincerely benefit from, since each product suggested is studied by 100000 PhDs via 20000 studies present at a given website created for that product, for all to see. This is a world entirely different than the hooligan lies, fraud and looting on today's TV-radio-Internet to feed the pompous bastards of infinite greed who loot the treasury (via taxes). We need new standards, this is not the Bible times when Jews are told to exterminate entire nations, loot everything they can, after killing all animals too.

Thru efficiency and fewer companies, we make everything in USA. All houses are made in USA using US made products. No house appliances, sockets, light bulbs, etc are to be made outside of USA. The new ☺☺☺madeinusa.gov☺☺☺ site explains which products under each category (computers, lawn mowers, etc) is made in USA and which ones also are designed in USA only and what is the exact % of USA components. This way, people can buy local products. All electronic product imports must be USA made to avoid brain writing or electromagnetic torture. Just like China bans all imports of healthcare products, due to bioweapon risks.

Why aristocrats can kill the entire humanity in 10 seconds*, why aristocrats are anti-*life, anti-progress and why humans need to become one country, one language, 1 bank, 11 companies 3 agencies. The why is in this paragraph. In any community, if everyone has an apple tree and eating apples to live longer and be healthy and you come along and plunder all apples from 500 or 50000 gardens, to store them into a vault, your bank or sell them to get rich and build a palace, etc, people will fight back. The only way you can take their apples to become rich is thru violence. Likewise, in real life, aristocrats use spies, cops and military they control, the phony theories of economics, fake elections via social engineering of political fake parties that both support the aristocrats, as the violence tool to steal stuff from the 90%, so they can make 10-50000 times more money per hour. Sometimes, a company or commodity or product they sell doesn't have a similar value as 10 years ago, so they go to war to steal a resource that would make them rich again. Power rises and falls and when it falls, the aristocrats will happily engage in wars and murders to maintain their power and wealth, countries invade resource rich lands that just discovered a new popular resource, etc. The only way to avoid this eternal drive for unethical actions, violence, murder, torture to keep WEALTH is to end aristocracy. If you have one planet one energy company, eternal utility Inc, you don't have 1000 coal companies trying to covertly shut down solar panels factories, or one country attacking another, since all is one nation. If you have 2-200000 centers of aristocrat power, they always start wars as profits change. If you have only 1 center of power, there is only One Power, the Eternal Human Collective, and its richness, so no inflation, no 2 companies in the same field, etc, the number one priority is 0 torture, 0 pain, 0 violence, maximum help for all, equal power to feed and care for oneself via very similar o even identical wages, with the main difference is highest credit score means most management role in the society. Aristoc-rats are far worse than rats, rats only cannibalize others when they got no food. Aristocrats start big wars, etc even when they have infinite wealth, just to expand it. They destroy the human quantum field even when they lose a little wealth, half or most wealth, even if by downsizing they could actually live in peace without hurting anyone covertly, moving into a regular home and living off interest in a simple way. Addiction to imperial lifestyles and wealth leads to enormous atrocities to maintain that lifestyle. World Peace will never be possible until humans speak the same language with the same accent, and unify as one nation and unify in many other ways that prevent differences (via logic you realize for example all religions are based on speculations, as no scientific proof exists about any other dimensional claim made) to be sources of conflict, and have only a few, perhaps 11 companies, so there is one center of power in every industry and no company can go bankrupt, everyone is employed, stress levels are low, so no fights erupt. Once you understand the dynamics of war, how one resource or industry rises and falls, why countries go to wars over resources, you realize if those nations would be one and aristocrats would be no more to manipulate governments into wars, they would not fight, as any resource is shared with all.

The aristocrats are far worse than cannibalistic rat animals, they're anti-life itself, they're fueling endless conflict and fighting really hard the unification of the world, as then their imperial families elites in small nations have no justification anymore. You see, we have 500000 versions of a law in 500000 cities worldwide, instead of one. With one efficient government for Earth you end a lot of duplication, elites and aristocratic clans and they don't like it, they think the idea of everyone living in a single family home is bad, since it prevents violent crime a lot and jails are tools of class extermination and subjugation. They fight the end of jails and violent content too, for violence is how they maintain the theft and power.☺☺☺ They're not like immortalists who want to give everyone (see Immortalist Anthem) a trillion year lifespan, but they're murderers who consciously give people poisonous foods to destroy the masses, their brains, who give poison without explaining to people that a food exists, they don't know how to make, that would give people 3 trillion year lifespan or at least 150 year lifespan and we can make it, but they don't want to bother as life is good and they got all they want. These animals only chase one thing: maintenance of bank account balance and living the good life to 100, while the human species remains as backward as ever. No real progress is possible worldwide until we implement the Immortality Credit Score to end the aristocracy class and bring wage gap from 50000 times today to 1.5 or 3 times, eventually 1. Progress requires peace and with many aristocratic centers of power, we have endless infinite conflicts, which ultimately become the final conflict that ends a species. For the sake of the human species, aristocracy has to end, as well as all monarchies. In the money system the frauds created, everyone tries to make money, even if that means killing billions 10 years earlier with illegal drugs, bad foods. In immortalism, you can't make money by evil actions (due to death penalty, astronomical fines or lifetime labor penalties), you raise your Immortality Credit Score to get more longevity boosting products☺☺☺, by good actions that raise the lifespan duration of the highest amount of people☺☺☺. The murderers ruling many nations have no qualms about genocide, since they don't believe that human quantum field degradation affects them too and shortens their lifespan too. They act out of scarcity, out of win-lose mindset. Win-win and infinite resources thinking are unknown to them, they're often trained since birth to kill, parents went to covert spy/military college and kids became rulers. They're taught to be liars, dishonest and protect their psychotic 'national' clan of murderers, not to unify humanity as one family with 1 law for all 2 million villages and towns, instead of 2 million. The aristocrats with or without realizing teach their kids to be murderers, to maximize $$$ gain by any means.

Another simpler analogy is that of a complex hard to learn language with thousands of words from other nearby invading empires, ultra complex useless conjugation of verbs (most languages today, including German, Spanish, French, Russian, Portuguese), etc, and overall, hard writing too, etc, taking 15 times longer to learn than a simple, no conjugation for person, plural or tense, mathematical, lego-like, built on simpler words, ultra simple grammar language. Chinese, Burmese, etc don't even have tense conjugation. One language takes 2 lines to say the same thing, another 1 line and half the ink, one requires 20 times the brain neurons to store and learn, that could have been used to learn physics and chemistry of living to 500. The more nations and companies we have, the more random insane illogical complexity we have, with each country's illogical ☺abysmal IQ☺ religions, mythical traditions, quirks and low IQ holidays that celebrate cruelty and genocidal murders as national heroes of human quantum field destruction as the low IQ folks didn't know a non-violent way to avoid the slaughter. The smartest kindest government is the simplest and most efficient. Right now we have 2 million governments, because each city and village, via decentralization, acts as a government of incredibly abysmal IQ. The mess this creates is beyond destructive, it makes it impossible to get anything done, except war and violence mostly. You can't have peace with decentralization, with 2 million governments, let alone efficiency, so we dedicate all resources to good sleep, housing, food, healthcare, instead of war and torture. There is a night and day difference between a world with the only income from wages, with 0 unemployment and all working for the government and one in which income can be gotten in millions of ways thru private means, mostly illegal and unethical. With 11 companies everyone does a legal safe job, but with 33.1 million, 33 million can be fronts for drug dealing, human traffic, other criminal ventures, such as flipping houses (illegal in immortalism, nobody buys the house except those who live in it, only the gov Building Inc renovates all houses). The fraud going on in small companies of 1-10 people can be astronomical and nobody would know it. Anger from cheated customers leads to violence and this creates later war. This endless fraud leads to a collapse of society, as no central reviews.gov allows people to see all reviews in one place. Everyone starts to mistrust the gov, to cheat at work, take shortcuts, not care, to bribe, and corruption brings infrastructure failures. ☺

weighting 1 million times more would kill. This shows that a device, 1 million times smaller, can be as powerful. A tiny chip the size of a rice grain powers a phone, that accesses a trillion times more info than the library of Alexandria, enabling trillions of times more powerful information access per cubic feet of space. A phone chip today is more powerful than the biggest computer in 1900 by a factor of a trillion, yet 1 million times smaller. The simpler a system is, the more resilient it is. The smaller computers and libraries won. If you have a complex device with 1 million parts to produce 1 kW of energy, it's fine, but you can build something with 10 parts, producing the same energy by new knowledge. Likewise, when we have 33 million companies our nation's resilience is 0 versus 11 companies, as we're 3 million times less efficient, being like outdated computers from a bygone era of pathological selfishness and abysmal IQ. One day, a weapon the size of a rice grain will be able to kill all humans on Earth, so again, doing what in 1800 would take a trillion quadrillion times bigger set of explosives. Do we want to be the stone age short lived primitives of 1800 with 33 million companies or the super efficient kind gentle compassionate immortalists who care about ALL people living to 90000 more than about having 33 million companies? People don't care how many companies exist, as long as they live healthy, happy lives, so read on to understand the changes immortalists propose, via the 11 companies. Instead of accountants, admin, HR managers, politicians and endless bureaucracy we have science and engineering majors. Political class is just creating endless conflicts between people supporting various parties, we can simply end political classes, parties and electoral campaigns and people elect policies not people, they vote electronically for policies when new policies are needed (no regional or local elections, no mayors, no governors, no states, only 1 law, one election, when needed, every 2 years or year, on a set of policy options, multiple choice, etc from the comfort of your home, after seeing on TV the pros and cons of all policy choices) and the people who pass the knowledge and ethics tests for a position are the ones that lead the transformation to a world of 11 companies and who become the managers. Today, whom you know matters more than what you know, so this is not a good thing, we need to eliminate politics and focus on making everyone reach trillion year lifespans by eternal World Peace and real pragmatic no nonsense, no 0 IQ religious rituals realism. 0 war, 0 torture, 0 jails, 0 corruption, 0 politicians, pure ethics, science and engineering, the immortalist motto. We tried religion for 90 millennia, it gave us no World Peace or 90000 year lifespan, what about trying the scientific method (testing hypotheses to see if true), stuff that is proven to be true, evidence based policies for 100 millennia, not belief based or hear say miracles based policies??

HOW TO PREVENT MILLIONS OF SERIOUS INJURIES OF TIRED SUBJUGATED WORKERS

The most important thing is worker safety, since the most basic human right is that of being alive, that of World Peace, of Immortality for All, that guarantees all other rights, since if you're dead in a work accident or war, you can't exercise any rights. No other rights, to any religion, LGBT, etc can be above the fundamental right of being alive and free from bodily injury from energies or radioactive/normal chemicals (radium, etc), frequent work injuries (like death from chemicals used in matches) (caused by greedy aristocrats living in palaces), violent crime, government torture (as the genocidal illegal illegitimate (by virtue of its endless terror of the population*)* USA government does to its citizens for 250 years*)*. Thus, all rights vanish if violent crime exists, and State of Emergency is Constitutional until violent crime by all (not just government) is 0. Circumcision for example violates the most fundamental human right, to Life Integral, as it is needless mutilation done to a baby who can't make any choice, a pure violent crime. The right to a religion calling for genocide doesn't EXIST, since it violates the First Right Above all Others: Life. Thus, the US Constitution is invalid and Illegal, Unethical and needs to change once Immortalists win elections. All Other rights don't apply if they infringe on the right to Life and bodily integrity. America needs to Declare its Eternal Independence from Jewish gangster SERIAL KILLER RAPIST mass murderer deifying "scripture", Jewish spies (who brainwash USA and the West to worship the God of Israel), Jewish bankers and Jewish shouting clergy (this would scare any baby, compare this Jewish shout with the angel choir or this 1 min random guy recording or these non-clergy ladies the 1 minute that loops with safe youtube looping extensions (check who makes any extension, so no spies from KGB, China etc), Jewish (mostly Bible recycled) Quran. safety.gov allows any worker to report safety issues and anyone who is tired can take a nap at work in special rest meditative areas. Endless times, tired workers are pushed to the brink by religious pigs who invoke Lev 25:44-6 and the tired workers make mistakes that cause permanent disability or death in one, 20 or even 1000 people. This is due to a capitalist profit first culture of gigantic egoism and due to the beatings of slaves quotes deified in the Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives), evil violent scriptures that oddly, are still legal to publish in USA. Sadly, due to decentralized terror by the small vampiric aristocratic leeches,☺☺☺ millions of workers get injured every year very badly. All these are easy to prevent with centralization, universal education for all, regular work schedules for all possible via centralization, and the final realization we're one family and we can't have some guys sit and do nothing for 29 hrs/wk to be clocked in (the other 11 hours they do some light office or computer work and get paid essentially the SAME with way higher benefits than guys who risk their life daily and push their body to the limit in construction or other wind-solar-oil-rigs install work), while others are breaking their back and getting limbs lost or ending up cut in two or crushed by machines, robots, cars, cranes, etc. Lots of jobs are very very dangerous (1 mistake and he falls to his death) and the pay is 5-50000 times lower than the pay for other parasites whose main job is stealing trillions from the state, so that these workers live in 50-200 ft^2 studios, while the aristocrats in 30000 ft^2 palaces on 2-3000 acres. Such complete disregard of the average American for these people is clearly reflected in the schedules of these workers: 50h/week, or even 40, with no breaks, 1 week working 60/wk, 1 week 20h/wk, random hours stressful, chaotic, leading to poor sleep, insane deadlines, endless accidents.

Not only that, but pig headed cruel heartless so called "intellectuals from hell", the phony pompous mini-aristocracy of wolves,☺☺☺ waste trillions with gyms and sports facilities, because these monsters are so cold-hearted, brutal and selfish so as to not be willing to unify companies so when a guy slacks 20 hours a week, he can ease the burden and help the one crushed by deadlines and the yelling of the criminal aristocrat who shouts that he will fire the worker if job is not done by tomorrow and the poor worker rushes and then gets into an accident, tired, underslept, causing 50 car pileup on the highway, 5 dead and huge stress for cops, emergency teams, medics, nurses, relatives, kids without parents, etc. One shout and 10 die next day, 400 people live under huge terror, live shorter, age faster for days or years to come. These self-appointed grotesque demonic messiahs of Laziness and infinite banditry☺☺☺ often use the cover of "pastors" (too selfish and devil inspired to propose service to fellow man as physical exercise instead of basketball courts in every school, because at their "filif IQ level" they could not figure out that science can give us 5 billion extra years, versus 5 weeks by playing basketball, plus many college professors doing lab work lived to 105, no exercise ever, just walk around lab, wash instruments, glassware, etc) and other professions and These "Clergy from Hell" often protest against a more ethical distribution of physical labor or more equal pay, so we don't have some break their knees, ankles (varicose veins), backs and legs, while others get sick from sitting all day on a chair. My mother stood 8 hours a day placing books and giving them to students as a librarian and then stood another 5 hours at home doing cooking and chores, besides walking 5 days a week 1.3 miles one way to work, sometimes in freezing 20°F weather with poor coverage of knees and wrists due to a worldwide culture of "low filif IQ" that doesn't know the key of keeping temps to 77 minimum for best immune function, which led to severe knee, varicose veins, back and hand repetitive strain injuries as with anyone doing the same. We need teach everyone pressure cooking to do all cooking for them, and to sit down at home while the cooker does the work, if job is more standing, and also have teachers, high school, college, PhD students do some library work 5 hours a week (1 hour a day to help them move and exercise daily) to avoid need of so many gyms and of librarian jobs (each teacher is librarian supervisor for 1 day of the week of all 20 students staff), since teachers are now only those for labs (all theory is online, all exams online) and linked to the 5000 Unis and 1 million immortality labs. It's not fair to have some stand 8 hours a day and others sit 8 hours a day, you need to create breaks in the 8 hours of sitting or standing, to avoid damage. These bipedal pigs who're protected by the criminal thuggish US government to steal taxpayer money, who build these ☺ abysmal IQ☺ mega churches to Glorify Violence, Rape and Looting Genocides, often tell the audience that if the gullible folks listening to him give Big $$$ to the Church of Violence (Bible 1400 violent quotes vs 0 in the Immortalist Anthem, Tao Te Ching (140 translations) or Dhammapada), God will bless them with abundance 8 times what they donated, so many become homeless by missing mortgage, postpone urgently needed repairs, medical treatments. How can it be fair, (when so many are homeless), to waste these sports (on church/other premises) materials, when a little distribution of tasks to include 8 hrs of physical stuff can help all to exercise, prevent accidents, increase efficiency, house all decently? ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The law could happily☺☺☺ state any construction/dangerous job worker take a mandatory 5 min (can stay even 5 hours if tired and fell asleep, nobody should wake them up, maybe his kid kept him up at night and he didn't realize his body needed some rest, rest and sleep are the MOST important things in life) break after 2-3 hours, to reevaluate biomarker to make sure he's not tired and pass it, in a special nap relaxation room, and be very alert and well-rested if going back after only 5 min, as proven by biomarker monitoring, to prevent deaths and accidents, 50 car pileups and so forth. Nobody ought to be able to turn on a vehicle or any dangerous industrial machine until they pass a certain alertness biomarker test, to prevent accidents, most of which happen due to intoxication or lack of sleep. These tests are essential for longevity too, since if your biomarkers fail, it means you need to stop ANY ACTIVITY, eat antioxidants and sleep, since your body is in serious danger of aging faster and suffering permanent damage. We immortalists are not communists, we're for ☺☺ Immortality for All,☺☺ not "the dictatorship of proletariat via violence", but the universal unification of humanity via love, via gentle tender soft nurturing loving healing kindness for All. We immortalists value every human life as if it's the life of 5 billion people, because it is after all, it's the same quantum field of humans, we don't value violence deified in the communist manifesto written in London. Same thing for working in ultra dangerous climbing jobs, with dangerous industrial machines, robots. A culture of good regular sleep is only possible with efficiency: nobody has insane deadlines weekly while others have 0 stress. A family shares the stress, it doesn't kill some at 40, while others laugh, talk junk till age 100. Due to efficiency, we don't have 20 million companies reinvent things. Thus, all can rest more, be less rushed, do each job much better with 10 million times fewer injuries. That is ethics.

Worker safety means a new ethics replacing the Jewish psychopathy of 2 millennia that has terrorized and defined the Western civilization until now. Workers safety doesn't mean just taking breaks and making sure that all do a little physical labor to reduce risk of injury in others, but also changing the ethics, so people don't start fights at work, physical or psychological (give one worker 2 times more duties to revenge for refusing to go to his 'evil' ☺filif sardine IQ☺ church or to date him). On Earth we have millions of people redundantly repeating like clueless robots in the worst tones the most stone age low vibe scriptures, when they could be kind in action, relieve the stress of workers and do something useful (invent something, instead of repeating trash that is already online on 5 trillion sites that anyone can go listen to in 300 times better tone on youtube) instead of brainwashing kids and lowering the IQ of billions of people with their 1st century "rat" filif IQ scriptures. In immortalist civilized DEMOCRATIC societies can simply go to ethics.gov where all citizens democratically submitted their version of scripture as they see fit and voted on the most beautiful one, like the Immortalist Anthem, to end the criminal monopoly of 1st century Jewish psychopathy on the American ethical or theological discourse, since 99% of people today can create scriptures much nicer than the pure demonic garbage the Bible is. Let all do the church online from the comfort of their home, to make space for single large comfortable homes for all, where everyone's temple is inside their body, healthy body due to universal health insurance, inside their healthy home, and alleviate millions of accidents instead of repeating in 100 times worse tone stuff that already is found online in written or audio format in much better form. We the People need to boycott all these temples to "Satan" (a being they made up to steal everyone's savings using fear) called mosques, synagogues, churches, for they're nothing but the worship of Evil, Violence, Rape, Genocide in disguise as the attentive analysis of their evil scriptures shows. Only then the workers of the world will be safe from these vampires. The evil clergy (spies who use the cover of clergy to destroy a nation) who feed on credulous masses need to be fined for instigation to genocide, rape and mutilation as the scriptures they tell people are the Way of Ethics, What they're to Follow and Do say. God is no in buildings, God is inside every person, to the same extent, we just need to nurture those gentle tender soft nurturing loving healing kindness vibes of the ☺☺ Immortalist Anthem ☺☺ and decent scriptures, so that all workers are safe from killing done by those who follow Quran and Bible (Torah, the Jewish Bible is the 80% of the Bible called Old Testament) who call for genocide of non-Jews and non-Muslims.

Since they always try to mind control us with "original sin" and other psychological manipulation tricks used to vampirize us (give donations so they can continue the scam), we can respond this way: it is a grave "sin" to engage in trash talk (the 95% of Bible quotes they use at service) in trash tone that is wholly removed from the ultra gentle eterni (eterni is not just gentle, but gentle tender soft nurturing graceful compassionate healing kind soothing sweet melodious etc all at the same time, stuff that 99.9% of the Bible doesn't have) vibe of ☺☺~~Eternal Universal Peace~~, ☺☺ while ignoring the deaths of people in accidents, because all time you wasted as full time assistant or priest in brainwashing people about fake miracles, made up religion motivated by imperial ambitions of world conquest via genocide. The problem is the filif ostrich IQ☺☺ of these clergy makes them incapable to realize their ☺abysmal IQ☺, so it is up to us the people to stop going to these frauds and their violent rituals and help our fellow workers to live in peace and work in a relaxed stress free way, everyone listening to the eterni voice they nurtured or found online on their headphone, breathing gently and happily, and encompassing the whole world in kindness often, instead of shouting like a madman at church "services" which have become more like hell world heavy metal concerts (or Donald Trump rallies, the music, Pride, aggression and machoness supreme). The worker safety emerges thru the more equal distribution of physical labor to prevent accidents and poor sleep, instead of some slacking doing nothing but repeat the same 1st century violent trash. What the Vatican does is ultra low IQ: the Mass is identical, so they waste 1 million priests' time to repeat it when a recording in much better tone would suffice and extend lifespan of all. The whole thing is a scam, all churches are military and espionage bases to control people and expand the imperial espionage network. They don't care, everything is for Italian rule of the planet, everything else is a dressing/lie. ☺☺

Back to the 11, all existing agencies become parts of the 11 companies or 3 agencies. Bureau of Land Management is Immortality Building Inc Department for example. Perhaps the best way to destroy a country, is to encourage small businesses like Re-pub-licans and Demon-crats do. Why? When you got 33 million companies, many of them are 1-3 people, like a small stinky store, a dilapidated filthy restaurant etc. that only has a few customers daily. So, what is happening? The worker there spends 2 hours at lunch and 2 hour at dinner, the other 50% he's just wasting time. This happens to 50 million jobs, and it leads to massive immigration needs (the immigrants will slack, act busy and waste time too, just like locals) and too little made in USA, as now all is Made in China, Mexico, Canada, Vietnam, etc and these products mean: 0 independence, the risk of spyware, hidden weapons, astronomical debt, etc and losing knowledge, ability to produce basic things in case of a war when all imports are cut off by enemy ships. Immigrants can be trained soldiers and spies trained in destroying USA and if they don't know English they won't integrate well at all, but demand, like in many states, government services in their own language. USA is destroyed by these criminals who allow endless languages. We need to destroy all state, city, village, local governments and create one law, one government, one tax rate (0) for all Americans. The time of endless chaos and hooliganism can finally come to an end after 250 years of British Royals feudalism. With only 11 companies in America, everything is infinitely different, since we prevent having 10 million people working only 10% of clocked in time and 10 million people to work 70+ a week and collapse, leading to burden for physicians, and 50 million overwork 55 hours a week leading to certain conditions developing 30 years earlier due to self-neglect and prioritizing children, house chores, etc. With 11 companies, everything is monitored and managed a lot easier, since you have 1 manager supervises 500 workers via wired cameras (instead of 50 managers supervising 5 minutes a day 5 workers each in a very lousy way) and due to the size of each store and business branch, etc, managers assigned to prevent overwork and underwork, to make sure work week is 35 or 40 for ALL, 40 at first, due to the state of compete collapse of American industry and economy, where we import 100 times than we should. Another advantage is job security lowers stress and people can finally want to have a kid, instead of dogs, cats and importing immigrants who want to blow up and split USA in 10 states. 32 million empty rooms exist in USA in 2023, that could be 33 million kids, but no: Demon-crats propose everyone become gay/transgender, import 50 million Muslims (disguising themselves as Latino immigrants) for Sharia law. ☺☺☺

The smaller a company is, the harder it is to reassign duties and find someone to do this and that when being busy, to reduce overwork, etc. A company next door can't say "we are busy, my worker is collapsing, give me your worker, I see him slacking 30 hours a week, I can't find someone to do it in 2 hours to hire him for only 3 weeks". This is due to the aristocratic class who sets up endless parasitism systems (companies) to feed off the masses and build palaces for themselves. Why have one family, one national family of 11 companies, everyone owns the 11 companies they work for, if we can fight among us forever? In a huge company, there is ALWAYS work in some busier department, and those less busy that month can immediately go help those busier so ALL WORK 35 A WEEK or 40 and can sleep the healthy 8 hours that today almost nobody gets due to the nematode worm IQ idea of having 33 million companies. In the 11 company system, there is no loss of 25 million full time jobs equivalent due to splitting 1 company into 1 million units, besides much higher efficiency, due to less admin, HR and all duplicating CEO-upper management, payroll, etc software, staff, hiring staff. So then we can make stuff in USA and need 0 unskilled immigrants (who in their slacking time at job can start part-time a drug dealing operation to poison and destroy 15 million Americans), but can take smarter higher IQ with science-tech degrees from all over to automate every industry to reduce labor needs 50% like China did in many industries, so we free people for creative tasks, like innovation, discovering new tech, instead of automated repetitive brain numbing jobs. The way things work today is total JUNGLE. Many were lied to that they need to go to the gym, not true, one can have a more desk job and 10 hours do some manual job until we automate it, so we can defend our country from terrorists who come here only to destroy us completely, under the cover of "being a low skilled immigrant" (read "hard core serial killer, trained to kill and sabotage" at times). The culture of slacking and doing nothing comes also from the spread of 30 trillion gyms and sports facilities, while we make NOTHING in America, since manual activities even 10 hours a week is TOO MUCH for our life. Studies clearly show even walking in a lab, doing lab cleaning for instruments, glassware, etc, is helping many to live to 105, like many college professors who keep researching at age 105. The brainwashing about gyms, sports is eating USA alive. Nobody wants to do anything physical, except perhaps martial arts to attack others. Laziness is so high, but they need waste endless millions of tons of construction materials on gyms, while others live like pigs or are homeless. In the 11 companies system, we can't exploit some and give prince treatment to others, which undermines their health as some sit all day, while others pick fruits all day. No, in the spirit of health without waste, health without sports facilities, health without importing 5 million terrorists, we will assign job duties to ensure everyone keeps active (minimum 5 hours of manual stuff for every job, 10 or 15 on average if that's what we need to be safe and have 0 immigrants who're actually spies) and goes to drive some drone or machine or do some construction or something 5-15 hours a week, to keep healthy and relieve the back pain of the folks who now ruin their joints and back thru over exertion. Let us live spirituality, not shout like psychos about it. ☺☺☺

I went to a USPS, US Post Office, branch on March 10 2025 and had to wait 90 minutes in line. At private companies, the wait is usually, 2 minutes, but not always, can be 20 minutes there too if many people go to UPS. If we have an ethical society, we shouldn't treat some people with 90 minute wait in line and others with 0 wait at pricier locations. The issue we have with many mailing companies is that some get paid same for working far less. Take for example variation within the same company even, in one town it's so relaxed, in another it is so busy. It's not fair to be paid the same if one processes 3 times more mail or for the Immortality Credit Score to be identical for the two. Another example, one state or city lab does 10 drinking water samples a week, a private lab does 500 a week. So how many labs do we need? They loot the people of money via property taxes to fund parasites of the 20000 governments of USA, all states and cities, and then it takes them 7 years to deliver a paper title, as we have no central company delivering all titles. The fraud that happens due to random small companies or governments is astounding. For example, when manager is away, friends can clock each other in for 5 days in a row, basically, getting free pay for a week, delivering lousy government or private company services, while in reality they pretend 3-4 people work in a given department or company. If 3 workers are meant to be at USPS, 2 can take off and one comes in only and clocks their time card in the machine. The fraud that happens every day in USA is beyond description, all due to a government of pathological liars who fake elections to deceive the masses and who make sure aristocrats continue to get paid 10-50000 times more than the minimum wage or average hourly wage. This leads to USA doing pretty much nothing and falling behind fast and nobody getting good services, except the wealthiest 0.5%, and even then pretty stone age tech. China ship building capacity in 2024 was 500 times bigger than USA: USA just promotes donkey IQ sports, UFC martial arts, and ☺abysmal IQ☺ macho music. Tao Te Ching explains when a government is cunning, the masses become cunning too, and when you get 50897189571985780912 laws via 20000 governments and make it so complex, the fraud and lawlessness multiply very fast, as nobody even knows the laws. This is USA in 2025. Instead of 11 companies with one universal biometric video and picture taken upon workplace entry/exit, we have "time cards" and other junk that allow total cheating by everyone who is pissed at the system and wants to 'do a side business'. USPS guy stole 1.6 million in checks. Normally, people would go to the one and only reviews.gov to complain and 50 people would be fined for waiting 90 minutes to send a letter, but today nobody complains, because we know nothing ever changes and the complainer doesn't get 30% of the money out of the fines for those 50 people involved, when the complaint is legitimate. Without this system, without financially rewarding the complainer, nobody will create a documented serious complaint, nothing will ever improve, we will stagnate as in communism and today's fake 'capitalism' (mass looting by the rich), there must be instant consequences to fraud and the government needs to use the people to establish checks and balances and prevent parasites from milking the system. Not only that, but why do we need to go in person to mail a letter, when everything can be automated at mail.gov with you simply filing out everything online and then getting a code to pick up at a vending machine a stamp and put it and mail it yourself? It's a stone age system of a aristoc-rat like IQ reflective of the IQ of rats in charge of the US.☺☺☺ All USPS tasks can be automated, even the package mailing out, stamp, put address, mail it and go. No package pickup either, everything delivers by USPS at one's home. USPS people need chemistry, physics jobs, not wasting time, making everyone wait eons to stay in line? Why be so slow IQ, a phone code or sequence of numbers you enter and all is over. USA is becoming a 3rd world country, thanks to Re-pub-licans and Demon-c-rats.

True compassion is helping everyone, treating all Americans as your family, as your siblings. The aristocrats loot everyone and everyone knows it, so everyone is looking for a job that gives them maximum slacking time (acting busy) or maximum pay. Everyone is taught to be a thief, the culture of work and contributing to the national family, its independence and self-sufficiency via 0 imports simply doesn't exist. We're waiting for the whole USA to simply collapse, without any realization of how close we're to that day. On top of that, we waste trillions with elections and stuff instead of focusing on the 11 ideas above to rescue a collapsing America now. The Immortalists will change Constitution to end politics, if they can get 70% of the vote to Declare USA finally independent from British, Italian, Jewish, etc nobility. We're in a mortal danger of vanishing off the map, yet nothing is done to address the huge issues we have. You know, instead of these 4500 banks of the aristocratic bloodsuckers, we can have one, no cash, so that nobody can buy anything in America without an Eterni Bank card that is given only after they pass the Immortality Test and the English Test (deport all illegals, test all legals who came in last 50 years), to determine if he's a spy or a terrorist, or wanting higher wages. We need a national disinfection of parasites. Too many fleas. Too many illegal spies and serial killers, terrorists and drug dealers live off USA using cash, undetected. In many states, you get a notice that has the same paragraph written 15+ times in 15+ languages, wasting a LOT of paper, instead of protecting workers who inhale toxic fumes in paper and ink factories, they print 11 pages instead of 1 when sending some card for any benefits or whatever. Your ID, that is also your Eterni Bank Card, would suffice in a centralized system to access all your 'cards' and benefits, without a need to carry more then 1 card ever. No wallets would be needed, we would have health, longevity, 8 hours sleep, decent housing, good food, gentle tender soft nurturing loving healing kindness for All in America, instead of wallets with 400 discounts cards and store cards and everything. We have become like slaves wearing 500 lb chains around our necks, these discount cards, 40 credit cards, benefits cards, separate state and local agencies duplicating, mailing, spamming, instead of all paperless. It's horrific, our incredibly low IQ, greed, the fencing system created by the bloodsucker British Jewish slavery system. Why waste so much paper when you can say it all in 1 page (not 11) or 1 email and be paperless nationwide by default with one single national Utility company? Because of the Demon-crats, Re-pub-licans who promote the split of USA into 17 states speaking 17 languages. Vote the Immortalists now. We the workers of the worldwide, need one language for efficiency for more rest, relaxation, health. Instead of efficiency and unity, we have chaos, war and waste. Why on Earth do we need 7000 languages for? Have we lost all sense of reality? American top job is making paper, black ink for all useless needless mailings (email it) from the 50000 government agencies wasting their time, when we could have 3 agencies and 11 companies max. End of story. No more ministry etc, the companies are the ministry and we keep it simple, no more local, town, state gov, all local are federal offices of the 11 + 3:☺☺☺ Immortality Education Agency, Immortality Nurturing Agency (CIA-FBI-Border-police all in one), Eternium (War Dept reformed). Simple. 14 total. Within the Eternal Utility Inc, we have only 1 water department within the company that is the sole water agency in the USA, with all existing ones, being local offices. This max sharing of knowledge improves processes and research, all is shared so people don't reinvent. People ask questions of technical nature to 1 million other co-workers, instead of only 20, this is democracy, we're one USA, one nation, one Family of Immortals, all city & private labs become labs of the Eternal Utility Inc, city water labs are no longer city property, but federal. Universal America. Cooperation, kindness, smiles☺☺ joy replace cruelty, frowns, cut-throat hoarding of knowledge. Today, due to a government of incompetent Demon-crats and Re-pub-licans, we have endless nonprofits to feed the starving, when in immortalism everyone has a job, house and food. The lies that socialism fails come from those who committed genocides and endless sabotage, torture etc to make sure the system of those "socialist nations" fails. It's all aristocratic liars.

Why have 11 companies that ensure 0 aristocrats and 0 unemployment, for 0 stress of "being unemployed"? Good question. The royal families of millennia passed very draconian mutilation, execution laws for helpless malnourished slaves to subjugate the masses. Today, the oppression is 1 million times more subtle, using complex laws nobody understands how they're implemented and complex monetary systems and social engineering. The more complex it gets, the easier to subjugate the masses. For example, since 1349, British royals and their aristocratic friends passed mutilation and execution laws against the peasants they worked to death 75 hours a week, when these poor malnourished tired peasants were moved out of their homes into cities to find jobs in the new non agriculture jobs, trades, etc that were emerging. They would beat until blood came out, mutilate those who begged or tried to rest for a little in the confusion of societal changes. We see today similar cruelty, except they use invisible weapons. If you don't know history, it repeats. Today, these parasites formed 1500 banks in Germany, 4500 in USA to subjugate the masses. The 8 million mansions of various mini, middle or big aristocrats are online for all to see. The rich create endless useless products and companies we don't need, redundantly reinventing things and creating insane levels of stress for workers who have to meet inhuman deadlines for discovering what others already discovered in another company, or lose their job. The bloodsucker aristocrat is not fired, he fires people, so his abuse of the workers is huge, as the state protects the trillions of dollars in theft by aristocrats from the people, the state doesn't protect the people themselves, who're mere robotic slaves of the nobility. The 11 companies system simply moves people within the same city or metro area, within a different department if they want a new experience or the needs change or a better fit exists, eliminating the need for begging or unemployment or endangering one's health to meet some crazy deadline for a product that helps nobody, except the aristocrat's desire to shorten the lifespan of the masses of slaves. The clever aristocrat is often a spy whose only goal is to work the slaves to death, so they don't create any democratic party or change the government of phonies they install in every fake election. Everyone is guaranteed a job with the 11 companies. These 11 companies can tackle all the needs for living to 9 billion in happiness, though 1-3 other companies could be added; the simpler, the better. It will take 50 years for all food companies to merge and become part of one single entity with one single subsidiary Eterni Food Inc, due to the fact we need to develop those super high tech industries of food production without agriculture, by creating millions of food chemist jobs, etc. However, formally, all companies can join one of the 11 and start the slow process of mergers and high tech job creation, and remain for a period as separate subsidiaries for years. Some industries can be merged in 15 years fully, others in 5-50. This is not so much about living to 125 on average, but about the survival of the human species thru the development of 0 violent crime, 0 wars via the total eradication of 1 million companies used by foreign gangs, spies and sabotage units to destroy the country they operate in. It's about averting the 10 second end of all humans via the planet blast. The climate change (supervolcano eruption could create nuclear winter and lead to starvation of billions) needs us to prepare for feeding all people without agriculture and the risk of thermonuclear war also demands we're prepared to live in a 10 year long nuclear winter without agriculture being feasible. Now is the time to merge and create 100 million physics, engineering and chemist jobs needed to design the ultra high tech reactors of eterni foods.

Another issue with 33 million companies is that in a town or metro area or state, you often have companies fail and this leads to people being forced to change fields and retrain, become jack of all trades and master of none. This enormous waste of training hours and efforts by others means nobody gets to be an expert and to contribute to that industry much when few jobs exist in that industry nearby at that moment, and he has to stay in that area due to family needs (new baby, wife job, etc). This ☺abysmal IQ☺ waste of human life stems from the fact that the companies are not required, as one of the 11 companies would be required, to create a new position instantly when needed which would have the added benefit of relieving work pressure on existing employees (work fewer hours or slower to make fewer mistakes) and the new graduate or person can work only 30 hours first (initially training etc) if no work exists in that department after training, to avoid retraining costs from switching industries. Say 19 people exist there, one guy joins, works 38 hours and they each work 2 hours less now, as the 38 hours covers 19*2. All are happy he joined, as now they go to work 2 hours less until any management new project appears. This brings joy in the team and they go help the new guy integrate instead of shunning him, giving them incentives to teach them specifics of his industry applied to that town where job is located, or department if same town and he changed departments due to some issue or incompatibility. The regular companies are too small to afford that, they would go bankrupt, so basically, the only solution to avoid needless stress and suffering is the merger of millions of companies into 11. Immortalists are against pain, torture, violence and suffering, the diametrical opposite of masochistic aristocratic terror Christian societies who were brainwashed by aristocrats (who made up the Jesus cult) to emulate a guy tortured to death by aristocrats, meaning to emulate being a slave of aristocracy. We want a stress free joyous transfer of any employee who doesn't fit into a certain building or environment, when mistakes or disagreements arise, etc, for maximum peace, serenity, healing and bliss for all involved. The Immortalist Anthem says love the worst human a trillion times more than the best mom loved her infant baby unconditionally, so it is a quadrillion times kinder than the current government and private employers from hell, as we finally grow up to civilization. What we also have today is thousands of state, local agencies wasting time, when with 11 central companies we solve everything and we don't need city or state governments anymore. Every city and state employee becomes federal employee, plain and simple, one of the federal agencies like Immortality Nurturing Agency (which is the one national police department, the one CIA, the one FBI, all dissolved and merged into one super agency), or Eternium (new military) or one of the 11 companies, known worldwide as one of the only 11 US companies, designed in their name to promote the Eternal Life for all concept of 0 violent crime, 0 torture, 0 war, to uplift the ethics of a cannibal lawless planet of infinite torture and violence, who needs the Light of Immortality for All. Every private company employee will join the 11 companies eventually as an orderly merger happens, integration and streamlining of procedures deepens over 4-8 years. Do people realize how much waste happens with every city, state reinventing everything, taxing differently (immortalists are for 0 taxes) and doing things their own way, how far behind we fall in innovation and discovery? Do we want to remain peasants? All we do today is resell, finance

New parents will take 222 weeks off, and work only few hours a week (optional, when they slept better and want to come to the office to refresh memory) maybe to help co-train some new graduates and do some light work to prevent forgetting everything. A baby requires a lot of love and parents need to train the baby, care for him, sleep more, due to being interrupted by baby cries, etc and not have to work so hard. Parents need to learn eterni ethics with the baby too. Too many people get so mad when being fired, so angry, stressed, irritated: in immortalism, people are being transferred into a similar position in the 10 million employee company. All are thus happy. They know every mistake is created by the collective, or even due to terror, sleep deprivation. Today, millions live in anxiety of being fired by some abusive dictatorial psycho company owner. This is global terrorism by the pig aristocrat class. The right to a job trumps the right to fire by a leech making 5-50000 times more than the workers. Problem is solved easily: we fire aristocrats and give all power to the workers. Look how clueless the Chinese fake Communists are: they copied the USA system and millions of people feel betrayed by a system that doesn't guarantee all a job, like in the 11 companies system free of unemployment. In the capitalist aristocratic system of genocide against workers, the slaves spend endless hours, 2-3 years to find a job, train to do x and z, while others have work 65 hours a week, ruining their health and family: one has no job and stressed, another has too much work. In immortalism, nobody is unemployed and the guy looking for a job would immediately relieve the 65 hours a week guy by working 32, so he can work 33 and recover. Also, in immortalism, managers supervise the work of 500 people in an area, to make sure we don't have the situation in today's criminal system: some slacking due to no customers and doing 5 hours of work, while others working 60 a week and collapsing due to more customers there. This imbalance is typical of a system that places no value on humans, mere slaves of the small aristocratic parasites who work us to death, or, if CIA criminals, torture us to death. The cruelty of spending years (in job hostels for slaves) to find a job can't be greater, it shows how inefficient decentralized capitalism, with millions of companies, is. These poor graduates apply to 200-900 jobs and finally get one that they don't like, if any at all, many find no job and live unemployed for years, depressed, angry, etc. In immortalism, a graduate is presented with 15 offers at least in 15 buildings within 50 miles or whatever radius they set as preference, and they can go visit and see which one they like, with the Immortality Credit Score also determining the environment where one can work to ensure social harmony. This shows a wholly different approach, where infinite loving care is shown by the state, the government of Immortality for All, towards all citizens, without the extortion by aristocratic vampires. The China system is predatory capitalism like USA, communism in name only, pure cruelty. Immortalism is the realm of gentle tender soft nurturing graceful compassionate healing kind ideals of the Immortalist Anthem. It's the pinnacle of human evolution, the birth of ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~. All nations are invited to centralize, create 11 companies for maximum efficiency, infinite gentle tender healing caring kind love for all, and perfect ultra fast fixing of issues, which is a lot easier when 11 companies exist instead of 33 million. Or simply join Eternia, adopt English and the unified Universal Immortality for All laws. The endless companies or banks going bust create enormous anger and protests that lead nowhere, except social chaos, degradation of ethics, a rise in violent crime.

Gently look at the debt economy ideas (which led to endless bank crashes, financial/housing crises) all nations imported from the Banking Predators. In a civilized society no debt exists, all have a constant basic income from their job and all basic needs are met, no purchase is allowed if their paycheck can't pay for it by subtraction next few years after accounting for the untouchable basic expenses which have a given allowance that one can't use to subtract future purchases of expensive items like a house upgrade, etc. This simple banking system = 1000 times more R&D. No stock markets, no financial products, none of these hooligan aristocratic extortion schemes. Our goal in life is trillion year lifespan for all, not amassing electronic or paper money, it is efficient delivery of relaxed, stress free life, which means 30 years extra as all sleep better and stress is number one killer, and bringer of wars and civilization collapse. The simpler, the more resilient, the better, so all focus goes to SCIENCE, not finance or complex cheating hedge funds. Wall street is demolished, to create better houses, better sleep, lower irritability, less anger, more joy, bliss. One currency, the electronic digital dollar or eterni, no more paper money or cash, for 0 crime by gangs. In the current criminal genocidal system, all we hear daily in the news is finance, stock market prices, and even every major site is all about finance, there is no proper media section that reveals a true concern for the people, for human life, for Eternal World Peace, as explained in the media in immortalist societies. Nothing about self-sufficiency, no longer depending on other nations, nothing about gentle tender soft nurturing healing kind love for all, the more violent in tone, banal and grotesque, the higher the chance it becomes a song hit and a news item. Money is how the rich brainwash all to do anything they want, how they enslave all in the eternal war matrix of hell. Everyone is programmed to become a thief, who is always thinking of money, instead of US self-sufficiency and the birth of trillion year lifespans for all via ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Lastly, let us not kid ourselves, if people know, immigrating to Mars will give them 1 million years old in Eternal Bliss, they will go there immediately, even if they no longer have 33 million companies, 7000 languages, 8000 currencies and 90000 religions to fight and kill each other for, but they only have 11 companies, 1 ethics (0 donations) and spirituality, 0 religions, $0 donations for afterlife speculations, 1 language, 1 currency, 1 police department, 1 bank, 1 planetary army". Everyone would quit their silly insect life on Earth and go to this planet of 11 companies and Immortal Lifespans. It will be easy: 1. ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months from the moment the nations of the world decide so in the next 2 years, 2. 0 violent crime (slaps, torture, etc) in all nations by 2035, thru the UN peaceful media reform, and the UN planetary state of emergency passed in all nations, since no nations will want to merge with their neighbors unless the other nation also has 0 violent crime, nobody wants criminal gangs to enter their nation 3. make the laws in all nations ultra similar or often identical for neighbors by 2045 (help all realize many religions are based on fraud, stop fighting over nonsense, get a life), 4. merge nations to reduce nations to 40 max and reduce number of languages to 20 by 2055, world banks to 40, 5. create one country, one language is adopted or created to replace the other 20 in 2065. This ensures the World Peace becomes Eternal and that the gentle tender soft nurturing graceful compassionate healing kind ideals of the Immortalist Anthem become real. Naturally, each year may be off by 5 years, but we need this to prevent the end of all humans in 10 seconds. While nations may not merge as one with only one language spoken so soon, the other things can certainly happen; it all depends on when 0 violent crime happens, meaning when nations can trust others to open their borders, without that 0 violent crime, 0 theft, etc, nothing will move forward, as violence inside nations will lead to wars. Are you ready to have 8 billion siblings and to be 1 trillion times kinder towards the worst human being today, than the most loving mom was with her 3 week old suckling baby last year as the Anthem says? Are all humans to declare all humans their family and end all violence? To have sex for pro-creation only and work 24-7 to create gentle music, gentle media, and 0 crime in 2055? Sending a letter via email takes 1 millisecond, before it took 3 months (8 billion times longer) from 1 continent to the other. In 1700 World Peace took 8 billion times longer due to 8 billion times slower communication. Via a website, today one guy can update his e-book or site and achieve the equivalent of 8 billion paper letters sent to 8 billion people in the past, that now get it on a laptop instantly. This instant communication means workers can end aristocracy (and wars it creates) trillions of times faster, as they can reach the entire world so quickly to banish wars forever. Aware of this risk, bad governments tighten the Internet control to prevent the awakening of the UNITED Workers. They also strengthen religious myths to lower worker IQ.

Aware of this utopia planet where people live as one family to a trillion years old with 1 language, currency, bank and 11 companies, ~*~ Workers of the World Unite, Bring the Immortal Delight, Workers of the World Unite, To Bring All Eternal Life, _~~,☺☺☺ where there is one education worldwide. ~~ World's Workers We Unify, Immortality for All We Deify, ☺☺☺ World's Workers We Unify, Eternal Life We Deify _~*~. World's Workers We Unify, Eternal Youth We Deify ☺☺☺Silent Happy Night, Workers Gently Unite,☺☺☺ Against the Rich Parasite, To bring God's Might, ☺☺☺Truth's Eternal Delight, Universal Immortality.☺☺☺ Melody is the Silent Night song. In China, communism never existed since 1980, nor anything like immortalism, only the capitalism with strong or some central control, which like in US, leads to worker deaths at the hands of heartless aristocratic employers. The united workers started to use fake war or events to suspiciously explode the alcohol, tobacco (Kiev founding day, 5-28-482) factories (tobacco wars in Australia are the workers' health rights against aristocracy, workers united against aristocrats selling poisons), pubs being torched and many other aristocrat businesses that destroy the worker class and intentionally deprive it of decent single family housing by stealing materials, city space and worker energy to build useless businesses that poison the workers, with alcohol having killed 1 billion last 2 millennia. The blood sucking aristocrats, thru inefficiency and endless dysfunctional companies, lead to everyone living 50 years shorter and working 70 hours a week (instead of the ideal 25-35 total for optimal longevity and relaxed pace, relaxing vibe for maximum innovation to live to 2 trillion years, let us think and meditate 20 hours, research how to be happier, more efficient, work smart not hard, relax, rest 15 hours, rejuvenate, work only 25-35 in repetitive tasks, a well rested worker can do in 25 hours more than a tired one in 65, take a 2.5 hours break between the two 2.5 hour daily shifts, maybe go home, live 1 mile away), 40-60 on the job and 10-30 at home to fix things, teach things, teach kids, etc that would be automated with Immortality Building Inc and the centralized education that ends bilingualism. The 11 companies system takes away the huge pressure of being fired, since all have a job and, at worst, get less pay or get transferred to a less stressful job, since the number one priority is health and longevity, not helping aristocratic terrorists to take over other nations by working everyone to death. Stress is the number one killer and driver of atherosclerotic plaque, when one eats well and sleeps well, 2 things nobody almost in USA does due to aristocratic terrorism. All work where they feel most qualified and happiest among the 20-90 divisions of each of the 11 companies. That's why World Peace in 3 months is so important, it allows all to stop competing so much, to reinvent what 2 million others worked to death to discover (because countries don't share anything, since aristocrats don't want 11 companies worldwide or at least nationally and roughly equal pay for all, only slavery and being a kingly parasite) that millions die 30 years earlier… while aristocrats play golf, live 30 years extra, and have fun telling us 50 lies an hour on TV to placate us as we die. Plus no private companies means no mafia, no organized crime, no spies to make violent crime spike and terrorize and shorten the lives of workers, no cartels (see top 10 cartels) as the new 0 jails system eliminates all crime, no spy companies (spies create companies as cover, new identity).

Finally, people realize thru efficiency and cooperation, the end of income based social classes (meaning max salary is twice the minimum), we, the slaves (99% of humanity) of the world will get to have 30-35 hour work weeks possible, with more relaxed rhythm, less deadlines and pressure, 5 times less stress, meaning about 5 hours each day of the 6 day week and lead a very stress free life, with high capacity to invent, to age 5 times slower, live to 500, and distribute work in 1 hour shifts with 1 hour meditative breaks in the atomic tuner to try reverse the Lepton-Quark-Boson-Immortalion Chart to prior day to delay aging 50000 times eventually, to keep the ecstatic nirvana and infinite empathy and gentle tender softness in high gear, more like Immortal grade level of kindness. If workers are tired, in 90 hour work weeks they achieve less than in 30 hours of good rest, waking up naturally without alarm clock, being gentle to oneself, never pushing beyond limits, so as to live long and in a balanced way reach 150, then 400 year lifespan. Work smart, not hard, work rested, not tired. The problem with the system is the massive theft by a few people of all national resources, via the pricing mechanism, so that only them get to have the more decent housing, food, etc. This creates a very weak nation, where no incentive exists to innovate and discover efficient ways to give that same standard of living to all 99% not just the 1%. It creates a society of acting busy, with ever higher theft, cheating and role playing, where nothing gets invented. As democracy is a theory, then the whole thing collapses, as enemies infiltrate and then destroy us from within. When any improvement is done mostly only if all can have access to it, the society progresses 100 times faster. Currently, an improvement is only made for the 1% easily, leaving the rest ignorant, and this is made even if it is expensive, so no incentive exists in efficient high tech innovation and efficient use of resources, only the entertainment of the rich. This is genocide in disguise. Look at these Chinese slaves picking up toxic antimony, and then it gets exported to US aristocrats so they bomb workers in other nations, to enrich the 1% in the US, while the rest are treated like dogs to be suffocated in the US hotels and houses. China recently banned exports of antimony to US. The US goal has never been World Peace in 3 months, since aristocratic hawks want land. The US military is like every other world military, a terrorist gang who doesn't defend the interests of the US or that nation's people, but of the rich, the world workers need 11 companies.

A shocking chart shows millions of slave workers in USA get 10 days of vacation, while in many EU nations they get a minimum of 35, 36 or even 38. Anyone understands why USA has highest income inequality? Jewish Nazis rule USA, aristocrats don't have any respect for workers. Check out how much care and kindness Finland has for its workers, vs the US slavery. Truly shocking, no wonder Fins live 1.3 years longer than Americans, even though they have the coldest anti-life climate. The neighboring Russians live 10 years less than Fins, and Russians have 10 times more homicides. It shows the cultures do make a big difference in outcomes: China 66 hrs/wk in some jobs, leading to worker deaths vs 38 hrs/wk in Finland where people live 3.5 years longer. In immortalism, no unemployed people exist, everyone works and ages far less, since we no longer have people working 70 hours a week, while a guy wasted 50 hours a week to find a job, stressing and calling 60000 companies to find a job. Unemployment leads to endless gangs and scams done by unemployed people, so this 11 companies system (cashless society, nobody can buy anything except with the one ID that is drivers license and bank card too) shuts down millions of criminal systems. Today, one guy collapses of overwork, while others spend 40 hours browsing porn sites on the job and 5 hours of working. When all work 35 hours really rested, they achieve far more than today even if all have to clock in 55 hours, due to efficiency and good sleep. When you're an ☺low IQ ☺ nation, you lose, disappear. Evolution selects efficiency. The IQ of the current system can't be lower. The 11 companies system ensures NOBODY wastes time to find a job, if one doesn't like it or can't perform well, he's moved to a new department in one of the 11 companies. He can choose which one or a suggestion is made. Watching violent filth online or on TV, while getting free money from unemployment simply won't lower violent crime 1 billion fold as needed immediately. We discard endless court cases for "unemployment" benefits." Why do we have so many burglaries, fraud, theft, etc? Because unemployed people make no money and have nothing to do, so they start engaging in criminal activities. So, the "all get a job" system removes a prime driver of crime. People who work even 30 hours a week, and drive to work, etc have far less time for crime. It's essential to keep people busy. Why have so many lawyers? Amway, the direct marketing scam many heard about, focuses on "allowing everyone the joy of owning and running their business". This thinking, that 'good' comes from everyone making 25 million redundant small businesses, at the expense of efficiency of society as a whole, is keeping the entire planet backwards. A small company can't hire R&D staff: the choice is clear: third world country or high tech ultra efficient country.☺☺☺

Imagine having one HR Department, one single payroll system, one single software, instead of 33 million systems for 33 million companies. Just think about how many savings of staff, people that can build advanced healthcare for all, housing, food, you name it: science jobs not 4th grade math. Due to aristocratic redundancy etc now we live much shorter and work twice the hours weekly we need, to achieve much lower outcomes in longevity than if we were having 11 companies worldwide, 1 language, 1 bank, etc. This 70 hours weekly (work on the job or at home with chores, plus commute, shopping, etc) makes us tired, irritable, angry and far grumpier than the worker of the future, due to a culture of bad sleep and ignoring the body needs, a macho culture to push to the limits and dig one's grave early. We never relax, we age fast and we mindlessly chase more $. Let us work to live to 4000, not live to work and drop dead at 30. The more rules, companies and regulations, the more theft, cunning, waste and inefficiency, so having 11 companies, not 33 million, is a huge plus, simplifies everything, eliminates taxes for all, as government prints money, and gives all a stress free life, the most important thing to longevity. No unemployed people exist, since everything is centralized and if fewer '40 hour position equivalent jobs exist' at one time, we split them among more people, so all work 25 or 30 hours, relax and invent more stuff, after meditation, relaxation, nap at work, since inventions require more sleep, relaxation and we don't want to work 80 hours a week and die, but to work 40 maximum and live 5 times longer, work smart as a team, not hard to kill each other and spend all energy to reinvent what 500 other nations discovered already. No more acting busy at work, as that lowers pay and credit score, and thus no more need to bring in immigrants, since efficiency creates 50 million new workers now without a job over the first 20 years of transition, plus we can make all our goods inside and stop all imports to fill those new jobs, no longer having to scan 50 million containers for drugs, hidden spyware, weapons from our "allies" or "trading partners" and to spend years or months to train immigrants to pass the Immortality Test and to see if they're spies or real immigrants. This way all get to exercise, have purpose, without overworking anyone. There is no more anxiety of unemployment, or having to relocate states away for a job (you can always find local jobs), homelessness or overwork, everything is balanced, centrally planned in the most gentle tender soft nurturing graceful compassionate healing kind way. We need to give all workers a fair work schedule, regular, healthy and during the day, to change every structure of warehouse restocking and everything, by closing shops early at 8 pm, so that when it closes a grocery store, the restocking happens between 8 and 10 pm. The issue with small companies is they don't have many workers, so they give restocking to 3 people 10 pm to 7 am, and destroy their sleep and life and that of cops answering traffic accidents at night, etc. As all stores close at 8 pm, with 0 pubs, 0 restaurants, open, we prevent obesity from eating up late and we give all decent sleep and need far fewer cops/nurses to work 10 pm to 7 am as all sleep. Nothing is more important than good sleep if we want productivity, efficiency, national security, order, low crime, low anger, longevity. We need central planning, strong centralization, to ensure work to single family housing driving is 2 minutes, so people don't trim their sleep hours driving half asleep and crushing cars. Let us create a world of fairness, where all have a fair chance to live to 100, not just the "rich". ☺☺☺

Why don't people want to have kids? It's pretty simple: criminal gerontocracy promotes adulation of senile men and women on TV, and even in nations with 29 year old average age, TV has people of average age 59. TV doesn't promote anything related to starting a family, the concerns of the youth (no home, no job security, no time off for kids, etc) are completely ignored. The youth are mere toilet paper for the anus of the old men terrorizing the youth and planet. These grotesque pigs never fight in wars on the frontline (mostly in the office far away from any danger), they simply send the youth to die in wars. 1 old guy lives in a 4 bedroom house with 1 acre backyard or even 25, and the youngsters in a low quality rental studio: would anyone sane start a family in a studio or in a tiny ultra noisy, dangerous neighbors 1 bedroom apartment where the evil aristocratic parasitic (who owns more than 1 house) landlord can evict you any time? No. Why can't the old guy sell his house and move to another smaller house, get more money for more longevity and life extension, maybe split his property in 2 or 3 and have his kids live on half or third of acre and him in the back? It won't happen, the system doesn't care about the youth, only about aristocrats, it doesn't even care about the old sitting on wealth while dying fast due to lack of medical care, since selling a house takes 3 years, not 3 days. It never occurred to the senile aristocrat that a 15 year old or 17 has 5 times more mental capacity to innovate, recall, etc than him, that that young brain could help discover techs to double his lifespan undo his dementia and etc. No, all he cares about is to watch the depraved violent sports, ride his ☺abysmal IQ☺ horse and have fun watching sport cars races that deprive the youth of housing lots. He also wants to be always on TV, giving long speeches that innovate nothing, in Chinese emperor style, who, out of sheer disrespect for the young, executed thousands of concubines, at his death, by imperial decree, since we're only to respect elders who need their penis massaged by ladies, not the young people and workers of China. That's why immortalists are against monarchies. The old senile Aztec parasitic aristocrats also executed the young in 0 IQ sacrifices to fictional gods of rain, crops and what not. How convenient to always execute the young. Our societies drill into our heads how much we have to respect the old, but the old and parents have only violence and disrespect for the young, the hope of innovation and progress. Violence by the old against the young is deified in the Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives). Senile shouting rabbis and senile yelling pastors could only come up with violence (slap during baptism) as the way to "teach a child to be kind", possibly due to lack of youtube and ability to create the most perfect healing gentle tone and compassion evoking videos for all kids to hear and benefit from, not only 1 in 1 million with decent tone parents. Hence, immortalists want ImmortalityTV.com or something similar, a TV station where 85% of voices are 18-30, to provide some minimal respect for the young and incentive to watch TV, to have constructive actions, presenters they can relate to. Slaps, spanking (causes aggression & anti-social behavior) which would mean death penalty in a society of immortalists, at least lifetime labor, would never occur if centralized education 1-3 hrs of eterni tone video watched daily ages 0-9, the ethics of Immortality for All. We need to support the youth, lower the stress of all society. If no kids are born, where does that live us? Cats and dogs will take care of us all.

When we have 33 million companies, if a guy from one state marries a gal from a far away state, one of the two has to get a new job, sometimes in a totally new field, raising the stress level to maximum, just when they marry and want to have a baby. This is anti-life, will lead to slaps, spanking (causes aggression & anti-social behavior) later on, and conflict, divorce, etc. The rich don't care, they live off it, as divorce lawyers, parasitic folks who prey on the victims of the criminal system. With the 11 companies system, a parent can transfer to exactly the same position in another state, or similar, to lighten the workload of others in that new state. In the new town they may not need need that exact position, but because each department has thousands in an area, they can reassign tasks to lighten the load of 3000 or 2 ultra high IQ people performing repetitive tasks, by creating a new position for more innovation for the high IQ people who had their 3 kids already, by giving the new parent a low stress, low impact (if any mistakes happen due to having a baby stress and poor sleep). This way, the new parent gets a low stress job, and also more free time off as parent too, so nobody has to spend 400 days to find a terrible studio and 500 days to find a job after they got married and tried to have a kid who was to live in the car trunk until they got a studio in a daily shootings nearby area, since the government is too busy watching sports to "reward" shootings with death penalty. Parents need serenity, low stress, before they apply for parent license and try to have sex to have the baby. Criminal young and old aristocrats have millions in income, the youth slaves have an insecure job, as the murderous aristocrat can fire anyone, torture anyone and leave them unemployed for years without income, causing conflict and child trauma, kids living in cars or tents with a single mom for example. America will perish soon unless USA will end aristocracy. Glory to the Young Innovators. ☺☺☺ No empire ever survived, as it was built on aristocratic terror, bloodshed and genocide. Humans may however evolve to Immortalist Anthem vibe and stop forcing others via genocide to do things that are simply not urgent, as World Peace or 0 violent crime are. The depopulation is because of the aristocratic system of terror, by which the 10% vampirize the 90% of the nation, and the top 1% the 99%. Today, millions of people destroy their families by working 75hr/week, while others apply for 400 jobs and get none, being in a state of mere depression, having to be homeless or sleep in cars. The mere criminality of this Marxist or 'free market' capitalism (a euphemism for aristocratic terror) model where everything is about 'capital' and 'economic theory' is just astounding: the government who is supposed to protect ALL CITIZENS allows millions of them to live much shorter, by overwork and underwork, due to its negligent incompetent management of national human resources via 33 million companies instead of 11. In Australia, thousands of companies went bankrupt, in a sign Australia might be moving towards immortality capitalism. In China, a consolidation of car companies happens too, while in 2024 2 million restaurants closed in China due to the evolution towards the 11 companies worldwide. Check the merger of 2 shipbuilding companies to make world's largest shipbuilding company, the official policy of China to merge all state owned companies. ☺☺☺

We want the average lifespan years to be much higher, to give everyone 120 years average lifespan in the short term via the immortalist system of government, and that's only possible while working as one team, to effectively plug the gaps and make the most efficient use of human labor hours, capacities and talents, in a way that ages workers the least and keeps them well slept daily and capable to perform for 90 years not just 50 today. Then, work is so pleasant, 35 a week or 40 with ultra relaxed pace, everyone gets to retire at 105, since people age 2 times slower, they relax in the company relaxation meditation room with serene instrumental music to give the brain a needed break from the speech interpretation brain area over activation (let all who want even take a nap or meditative bliss exercise break, horizontally, eyes closed, earplugs on, to vastly increase brain regeneration for far more productive half of the day) and breathe and greet silently all human beings for 1 minute with the eterni silent greeting. Accidents that ruin worker lives, bad decisions due to poor sleep, happen because people are so stressed, managers push workers over the limit without any sense of compassion, it's like a nuclear bomb is dropping every day, due to the fact we waste 50 million jobs in redundant useless positions, more millions in unemployed and then the rest have to accomplish in 40-50 hours the rest under tremendous pressure: the whole system is of an IQ infinitely low. Workers can choose to work 5.5 hours a day, so 7 times 5.5 is 38.5 hours, to alleviate fast aging that happens when you work 8 hours straight and enable just one little break to youth the brain and minimize aging. We get a lot more done in 7 days of 5.5 hours than in 3 days of 12 hour shifts, 4 days of 10 hour shifts and 5 days of 8 hour shifts. When you start the day your cognitive energy is huge and you can do a lot. Give workers flexibility, let them work 4 days 8 hours and then 2 days 4 hours, etc if they want. More innovation happens in a relaxed creative state of no stress, so let all workers get also 4 weeks of vacation, so they can get those 200 hours off, however they see fit, even 4 weeks off straight. It depends on how routine it is, but mistakes increase fast if shifts are longer and we don't want accidents and lifespan decreased or ended. The most important thing in immortalism is the happiness, health and wellbeing of each worker, so if a task is not possible to be finished today well, worker goes to take a nap 2 hours, so his brain works well and he stays 2 hours longer today or comes back Saturday to finish stuff. No pressure, because health is important and someone else can work that day his half shift with companies with 10 million employees, whose brain is more rested and less prone to damage of neurons or accidents that take another day to fix later by 10 workers. We need to be flexible, kind and honestly allow workers to take half day off or a day off if tired, as a tired worker will do only 30% of things well and also damage his brain. Let him make up for it coming Saturday or Sunday, let HEALTH and honesty be first, don't work just to be physically present and screw everything up to please a ranting manager pressuring you to work because only 5 employees exist and nobody can take your place. The main issue today is pathological levels of dishonesty by managers and workers alike, mirroring the government of liars. Let all be honest, gentle, kind and it will be win-win. The whole society runs on deception, so nothing gets done, everything is 'to make things appear good', not BE GOOD. No wonder we still live to 80, and lifespan increases have gone to almost 0 recently from 15 years in 1900. Be honest, you made a mistake, nobody is allowed to yell at or torture anyone, or fire anyone (only gentle move to a department where one's skills are better suited), you went to bed late yesterday, are too tired at 8 am, so then sleep until noon in the meditative room and say 'sorry I was late', etc. Companies will have automated way of finding a replacement (since not all jobs are critical to be done that day) if someone is later more than 30 minutes, with 10 million employees.☺☺☺

working in a tired exhausted state. Being tired could lead to 25 million dead due to pressure to perform when tired and make a mistake one forgets about that causes some fusion power plant explosion 2 years later. No more introvert suppression of one's feelings and condition of cognition, just be honest and real, stop playing games to impress a terrorist boss. Since millions of workers die due to accidents created by an aristocratic terror culture, a new solution is urgently needed: we immortalists talked about giving everyone biomarker monitoring Immortality for All Centers in the cities, etc, so before starting work, the most advanced scanner takes a picture of blood molecules in the wrist to determine if one is tired or not, since at some level of tiredness the blood changes and the risk of accidents that kill self or 25 million people if a fusion power plant, increases dramatically. The results of the scan are emailed to him, so he knows how to improve and the AI recommending his eterni food formulas will take that data to correct deficiencies and improve biomarkers next week. This way the workplace acts as a daily checkup and free preventive medical care to see issues 20 years before they arise and are seen today by our corrupt healthcare system, to give all 400 year lifespan, instead of people visiting doctor every 4000 days or 15 years, as many do today. Then, if tired, or if biomarkers are bad and a threat to worker longevity, employee is sent home with the note to sleep all day and rejuvenate, relax, laugh and recharge. It's not just death or injury, but poor tired work that leads to not catching something that leads to losing 50 years of lifespan later in all involved parties, over a period, the equivalent of a worker death. Things accumulate, with each tired day. This helps us protect the health of workers, the integrity of families and boost longevity of all. When we're tired and we push, we damage and age the body faster, we need to chill and be kind, stop being such an insane society of pushing, while others are redundantly pushing in redundant positions (created by "everyone needs to be a small business owner" mentality, yeah, one guy living paycheck to paycheck in terrible stress with his 'own' business, aging fast like hell, everyone a ☺low IQ person☺ for oneself, pure jungle of gorillas, don't share anything, everyone for themselves) instead of helping us alleviate the stress and everyone living 25 years extra. Once again, we go back to the Immortalist Anthem central tenet to care for, to love the worst humans a trillion times more tenderly gently kindly☺☺ than the most loving mom loved her infant baby. The roaring psycho yelling of communist, aristocratic bosses is replaced with a gentle tender soft nurturing loving healing eterni tone of caring, honest, intelligent people.☺☺☺

In the new immortalist way, everyone feels loved and cared for, tenderly gently, so no theft, crime or anger exist, what is there to steal when all get about the same salary, maybe thrice for the manager of a company with 30 million employees maximum, no longer 50000 fold differences or even 10 fold ones? It's all thanks to the gentle care for all in immortalism, or to the gentle way of Tao inspired government. Today, workers spend on average about 15% of their working hours browsing the internet to apply for new jobs, waste time, act busy when boss comes around, with that percentage rising to 80% for some positions. This total dishonesty mirrors that of the genocidal government who rewards (via insane pay) thugs 50000 times more for the same 40 hour work week or say 80 hours week for those “small business capitalist” ☺low IQ buffoons☺ who work so hard to age themselves to death to become ‘rich for 20 years’ and drop dead 30 years shorter. We have a government of aristocrats for the aristocrats. This can stop fast with immortalists in power. We need to start being honest and realize with 11 companies (EACH EMPLOYING millions of people) and reviews.gov to make suggestions for improvements (1-800-REVIEWS) similar in some ways to 12345 in China, people no longer need to change EMPLOYERS or CAREERS, they're transferred or simply ask to be transferred to a different department or subsidiary of the transition period of 50 years when many ‘companies’ are subsidiaries (usually within THE SAME MEGA COMPANY, ONE OF 11) where things are happier, more challenging or coworkers are nicer perhaps if one’s immortality credit score has improved. Do you know why USA got so many lawyers, clerks and judges? Because America runs on greed and litigation, instead of making things and helping us be self-sufficient and efficient, we quarrel and sue each other for the profit of Jewish lawyers who laugh as we fight. Good job low IQ gentiles. With 11 companies instead of 33 million, how can Jews make so much money to build their mansions? If everyone gets a raise and fine with every review, before and after it is investigated, nobody wants to get a bad review and everyone wants to do a better job instead of acting busy as their Immortality Credit Score can go up or down, as it is all public and nobody can post reviews on any other site and all are verified customers. Watch China go from a peasant nation to this train factory and this robot factory, world’s largest source of new patents thru centralization and ethics instead of fraudulent Jewish religion, ultra genocidal Jewish scripture and aristocratic vampirism, outpacing USA in many industries it dominates: solar, EVs, trains, etc. USA’s top leaders said USA will lead in these industries and USA was way behind in 2024, 0% of solar ingots making vs 98% China. In the US we talk a lot and do little, in China they do the opposite. You see this in the scriptures too, the West’s scripture is a long (783000 words) garbage full 1400 violent quotes collection of psychopathic violence incidents with 80 nice quotes in between, while China’s Tao Te Ching is so short, only 8500 words. Behold the Immortalist Anthem, world’s shorter scripture candidate (draft, to be edited and perfected later) for the lost West, with 2300 words. Immortalists believe that billions of people can write a scripture 1 trillion times more ethical than the Bible, so the Immortalist Anthem is just one of billions of versions that would work better for the world than the ‘evil Bible’. Behold China’s trains traveling 5 times faster than most of America’s in 2024. Scientific honesty first, proof based claims first, hypothesis formulation and testing, scientific method thinking first (see neutrino experiment to test hypotheses, instead of random beliefs), fraud and wild claims last. Germany now uses Chinese 160 km/h hydrogen train, watch a video about it. Germany learns from China. USA learns from China. Serbia got a 350 km/h electric Chinese train. Indonesia got one too in 2023. There will be ultra challenging intellectually departments within each of the 11 companies, actually, a shortage of capable geniuses to invent the longevity techs. But only those with high ethics of immortality for all subsection credit score can get them of course, as those are key to national security too, since sabotage there could shorten lifespan.☺☺☺

No longer can we allow gangs to run millions of companies or local or state government, we dissolve all local/state governments. We don't need 15 million aristocrats and 20000 royal families to setup 20000 law versions for 20000 towns and villages in USA. We're one beautiful colorful village with Equal Opportunity, one State of Eternia, on 29 galaxies and 500 universes, with Immortality for all. Above every building of the "Universal Immortality Government Office", of the Universal Central Government of Eternia, there will be written "Eternal Immortality for All Office of Eternia", the new name of USA, after they agree to change US name. Or maybe "Eternal Immortality for All Office" to replace the City Hall, "Office of the Immortality for All Government of Eternia", or "Universal Government of Eternia", "Eternia's Immortality for All Government" and everyone knows that's the place where the offices for the 11 companies + federal gov office in the area are, including the Immortality Nurturing Agency, which is basically replacing all cops, all police, all FBI, all CIA, as only 1 police department exists for USA, now renamed Eternia. Most importantly, the City name under this colorful sign, will be 3 times smaller font, as the super critical thing is to remind people of the Eternal GOALS of Life: ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ & Immortality for All. Each city can add under city name some other quality we need, like "Gentleness, Tenderness, Honesty, Ingenuity, Hypothesis Testing, Scientific Method" to remind citizens to Think, Question, Innovate, Be nice. If you go to company # 2 one mile away, Eternal Travel Inc, you will have a whole campus dedicated to it alone, and find many cars and the like and on top of the building it will be in colorful dazzling colors Eternal Travel Inc to remind All God's Central Quality that we lack, Immortality. All 11 companies names contain Immortal or Eternal. No other companies exist, All is the Praise of God's name, which is His Central Quality: Eternity. This Immortality Quality reminds us how much we have to learn and keeps our egos in check too. Anyone can be Gentle Kind Sweet Tender Soft etc, but None is Immortal. To atheists we say, Nothing Matters if you die, since You Got no Soul in your belief, so Immortality is the Most Important Thing for an Atheist too, so All can Unite, and Make Immortalist Anthem True. At night, the colorful letters become the shimmering neon lights to Sing The Eternal Ode, to remind all of the beauty of Eternal Soul Travel, of the teleporting shimmering shapeshifting Immortals. The most calming music is heard when getting close to the entrance with the colorful letters. If people go to the Tesla or Ford factory, etc it will have Eternal Travel Inc above Ford, to remind all of the Eternal Radiance (radiance due to having no negative words, unlike many scriptures and 100+ anthems) of Immortalist Anthem with Its Electrifying gentle tender soft Grace, of the Victory of Eternal Life over death, Virtue over profit, Truth over lies, God over satan, Science over faked miracles, True Kindness over cannibalism simulating rituals, Spirituality over religion, Hypothesis Formulation and Testing over blind belief, Progress over tradition, Freedom to Live to a Trillion over slavery. For healthcare buildings, colorful bigger font Universal Immortality Inc is above the name. Likewise, for all 11 companies, the Mega Company Name is in bigger font, to remind all of Eternal, Immortal positive words that bring the thought of Living to a trillion at the center of daily life, providing us with a gentle nudge to stick to the goal of Immortality for All. We can build an Immortal Body, AI Soul, become teleporting shimmering shapeshifting Immortals. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

This immortalism is a model for USA, any nation or group of nations uniting, like the emerging United States of Europe (11 companies in all EU) or Eternia using English as the common, and later, as the only language, for maximum efficiency: world's 1st universal language used in 20 nations. Today is the day when all can start working on Eternal Universal Peace & trillion year lifespans for all humans, when the era of selfishness can end and the era of universal altruism can begin. Of course, this process will be gradual (15+ yrs, maybe 5 million mergers 1st, so that everything is done in a way that is joyous for all, without the least psychological pain for anyone (everyone is taught the infinite bliss and advantages of cooperation, experience the wonders of neuroscience). Jesus said Mk 10:25 "it's easier for a camel to go thru a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter heaven", so Jesus was sort of a leftist or immortalist. He would possibly be immortalists' greatest supporter in promoting immortalism and the Immortalist Anthem. You know, if everyone is Immortal living on cosmic energy, what is the use of money or profit?

☺☺☺ REVIEWS.GOV rewards all workers with an instant bonus/fine ☺☺☺

Reviews.gov enables immortalism to 'pay' the most those who work the hardest or make the most useful innovations. It ends the lie that "leftists punish those who work harder by taxing them more". These bonuses or fines are added/subtracted from one's only bank account with America's only bank (the bank is the end of the genocidal banker aristoc-rat class of frauds and thieves who power 4500 banks and 4700 credit unions (even if nonprofits, credit unions are ridiculous, why need 4700 unions for, we need science not gambling), 12 federal reserve con banks), World's largest Bank, The Eterni Bank within hours of a review, after the review is evaluated by AI and managers to ensure its validity, since video of work done exists in all job positions with the 11 companies. For a fine to be applied, the person has to indicate what was done wrong, so the video can be evaluated by the AI and human supervisor, though for faster processing, a pic or video is needed. Reviews.gov pays those who complain with 30% of the fines given to 500 involved in messing a product, to incentivize reporting bad product designs. People will be more mindful if the fine can be a month's salary. Fines/bonuses would be proportional to mistake/good job and adjusted if no fault/good work is later found. For a review to be made, the person logs in into America's only review site, reviews.gov, that centralizes 400,000 review sites and enables all to get the real picture of a company, unlike the fraudulent system today where companies have onsite reviews to review their employees with 4.9 stars or so. Endless review sites today means no person can read all reviews in one location to get a real rating, if you happen to land on a review site that has double the rating due to friends paid to write reviews, you get conned. The review is verified, thru the central ID system mentioned above, meaning proof that you had purchased service from that company or that they did work on your home, etc, service done by the worker of that particular company. Everything is known, as Cash is banned and every purchase is known for 80000 years. A real issue today is that any company can give free services or 50% off to those making 5 star reviews, so then the yelp, google, etc reviews are fraudulent and depend entirely on how aggressive a business is in pursuing 5 star ratings, for example clinics/businesses ask you 3 times to make a review or more even, and if you do make a non 5 star review your next interaction with the business (which is already scheduled, since you did only visit # 1) will be screwed, you will be mistreated by the doctor or business, this way they pressure the customer to make 5 star reviews, as they know you can't make a bad review and expect nice treatment next time. This is pure fraud. This is how a bad business or doctor can look 5.0 while a good one 3.0 due to rivals paying evil people to write bad stuff. Never trust google reviews, so many businesses ask for a 5 star there indirectly, it's shocking. Take the Jew founded Google and their reviews and Jew Stoppelman (Ashkenazi last name) founded Yelp and their reviews (they got Ashkenazi first and/or last names, for a lot of Jew run businesses). Can you trust anything there at all when it is so easy to ask friends and extended family to make reviews? A company can give all money back to a customer so they remove a non-5 star review, it's ridiculous. Yelp even promoted companies that bought their services. Google searches can easily promote Jewish businesses, even if such fraudulent Jew owned companies charge more than the google search click bait initially says. The US has become a Jewish scam like Jesus. The biggest issue is these fraudulent companies and the use of VPN, Tor, etc allows people to create 40 fake profiles and make 40 fake google or yelp reviews that the AI won't catch as such. The guy just needs to make some random reviews to prevent being seen as a bot. This causes the most fraudulent products or companies to sell products that should never be allowed. Even when reviews are terrible and people explain what's wrong, the system we have today allows these companies to continue selling that junk that costs USA trillions thru failures, reinstalls, as with bad thin flooring or 4 billion other items. In immortalism, reviews immediately trigger halt of production line when the product is evidently reported as junk and breaking in 4 weeks instead of the 20 year claimed life. We don't have centralization, 11 real companies of high quality, but 33 million crap companies. Capitalism is pure GENOCIDE, even when amazon, etc reviews clearly indicate it's a trash product, transport, etc the company keeps selling the junk that should have stopped years ago. ☺☺☺☺☺

This ends the Republican argument that "Democrats tax more those who work harder, the more you work the more you get taxed", which is a lie, because in reality Democrats are simply puppets of the aristocrats who promote eternal slavery for all: nobody works 10-50000 times harder than others if they fulfill their duties in a 40-80 hour job or startup, you can only work maybe 2-3 times harder, so your salary will be 2-3 times higher, not 50,000 times higher for billionaires or 50-2000 times higher for telling fake stories on TV. Sure, some slack, but that's because in a criminal society of boundless theft, the worker takes advantage of the 3 million managers aristocrats setup as police force to run the "redundancy to extreme, minimum science" society of eternal fraudulent science and dumbest stuff on TV-radio to keep workers clueless, eternally chained. The lower the IQ, the more trillions can be stolen. If we have 11 companies replacing the 33 million today, we have the evaluators of job stress personnel who distribute stress evenly (by redesigning job duties and reassigning people to busy locations or departments within 3 miles) and make sure nobody slacks 10-35 hours out of 40 in some positions or locations, while others work 50 and collapse, as it happens in the genocidal Aristocrat Fraud that USA has become, with the slacker making same pay, because the aristocrat has so many companies, he can't check what goes on in every company and manager is busy with sex affairs to notice, or simply doesn't care, because of low pay from the owner, chatting with his family 3 hours daily while at work himself too.☺☺☺ The genocidal aristocrat set up a Conman Society of Fraud where they come up with Idea that a university president, CEO, etc doctor (80% are not surgeons, so their stress is not 10-50 times the min wage worker's stress, on the contrary, it can be lower, as he works with endless physician assistants, nurses, nurse assistants, nice temperature, better air quality, etc) is entitled to 20-80 times the minimum federal wage, same for lawyers and other professions. No incentive exists for the greedy MD to improve, is his base salary is already 10-30 times higher than other people who work often times just as hard as them. No lawyer should be paid more than double the minimum wage (only 1 minimum wage exists in all USA, we end all criminal local governments run by gangs and clueless people) in the Universal Etis System replacing the Genocidal Justice System today that enhances Aristocratic terror and Endless Waste, Redundancy and Fraud. This 10-80x min wage pay creates incentive for the most greedy, violent and low IQ to try be MD, lawyer, etc at all costs and we get the scam society we're in. The entire idea of a 2 party system is a fraud, they're both the same Feudalistic Royal Family Party of Worker Subjugation. They incite half workers to hate the others, so they attack each other based on politics, while the aristocrats run both scam parties: Dem max pay 5000 min pay, Rep say 50000 min pay is good max pay, same lie about "some work 5000-50000 times more than others" and "should be taxed zero for using all labor and state resources to steal trillions for their palaces and luxury cities and goods". Reviews.gov will ensure that good workers who always get 99.9% positive reviews get paid 2-3 times more than those with average reviews. Those with mostly negative reviews (verified mistakes, not just "I didn't like his green shirt, etc") get half the pay before being moved to a different department if his skills don't match. However, this 6 times higher pay for the best worker vs the worst, in a position in USA, doesn't justify the base starting salary for some to be 10-80 or 800 times higher than others. The difference in salary is not based on position, but performance. Everyone contributes per their IQ and abilities and the most capable get management positions, so society is ruled by kind ethics not thugs, greedy "fruit fly IQ" nematode worms. Thus, immortalism is OK with one universal base salary for all positions in US and differences in pay based on how good that job is done, thereby still creating differences of 2-6 fold sometimes in pay, based on results, instead of arbitrary scams that ensure monarchy hereditary control of classes of jobs by various gangs, groups, ethnic groups, to perpetuate their control of a nation☺☺☺. In the eyes of Super intelligence of Immortals or God, all deserve same starting base pay. See why God loves all his kids, the President is the parent of all kids (citizens), a parent gives all kids same food amount, same equal opportunity to develop and do a great job, same amount of toys, etc. This creates a Fair Society of Eternal Universal Peace and Immortality for All detailed in 15+ pages on Equality.

The visitor of a hotel can unload pics of mold areas, of dirt, etc, videos, for the whole planet to see, or at least Americans with an immortality ID logged in, thereby destroying fraudulent marketing, and fake yelp google reviews, aid by aristocratic parasites owning a dumpster hotel. All the most disgusting hotels can now make a "testimonials" page on their website and claim the average rating is 4.9 out of 5. This would be illegal, as the only testimonials or reviews site is reviews.gov, where proof someone not related (friends or relatives) to owners have purchased something, and have stayed there if a hotel. It allows renters of a room to make reviews of a room, to indicate the horrible smell, for example that makes it impossible to get a good sleep, etc. This would immediately alert the Immortality Building Inc that carpet or etc needs to be changed, and reviews can be made even before one leaves, public or only for the company who can then do a 'routine inspection' due to neighbor noticing odd smells, etc. Allows you to see everything about someone they can hide now with 400 sites of reviews, but you won't need to, since only 1 maintenance company exists and everyone does a good job, since everything is recorded via video (read below). We need accountability if we centralize. The Immortality Credit also changes with every review. This creates instant feedback and ethics development system of true universal loving kind fairness. This prevents the main reason some attempts at overt (not covert, where all 'private companies' are state owned in reality)☺☺☺ centralization (so called socialist leaning regimes) have failed due to foreign spies overthrowing the governments to create puppet states of slaves using this discontent about equal pay for vastly different work. If all get same pay for doing 3 times worse or better job, then all collapses fast, see USSR, since you have no incentive to work hard, everyone starts acting busy, since pay is the same, Immortality Score the same, etc. If all have the same Immortality Credit Score, that determines what newer more expensive immortality techs they can get to live long, then serial killers get to live as long as the most peaceful people and thugs take over and subjugate the kind and gentle. Besides the 11 state companies linked above, the essential pillar of the fastest scientific progress in world history,☺☺ using centralized efficiency and reviews.gov is education: ☺☺☺

Free Centralized Education (end for profit education, all educational institutions (single rooms, vegan dining choice for all students using on-campus housing) part of the Education Department renamed ~~ Immortality Education Department ~~) + 11 nonprofit state corporations that take care of the fundamental human rights to shelter, food, transport, health and wellbeing. 90% of teachers retrain as high tech workers and research scientist/lab instructor who do certain research projects using students (older grades) and other teachers (former teachers who choose to become researchers by taking basic courses, since their field was not science) as research staff, in the new 1 million labs (many classrooms turned into labs, since many take theory online at education.gov), for the total shift of education from repeating what is already online to RESEARCH. Today, teachers repeat the same stuff (with minor variations, that people can learn online already for 15 years from khanacademy.org like sites, or from textbooks) in a slightly different tone, not eterni, according to the aristocratic model of reinventing things 50000 times for the small profit of a school owner, while the nation sinks into ever greater stagnation or "☺ abysmal IQ☺" as some call it: recordings can teach stuff on huge screens and at home and students are only required to attend the labs. This allows teachers to have an interesting job, instead of being robots repeating same thing over and over. They can feel they're contributing to amazing research and partner with universities too to subcontract research projects or take part in a bigger one. 40 million people will be excited as they move to a new higher tech career over 15 years, instead of doing robot work that AI can do better without any exhaustion. We need to get rid of all physical education teachers: anyone can do gymnastics or aerobics, etc by watching a video at home, a little push-up etc. Let people be involved in trillion year lifespan building, the research, wash glassware, clean the counters, instruments, etc. Efficiency first, real science and new classes on Immortality for All (Health, Longevity, World Peace, Living to a Trillion Years). We also need to end all sports events if we can't reach World Peace in 3 months, since Peace is 1 trillion times more important than shouting and sports commentators who need to be gently fired and hired as World Peace bringers (get new degrees and work on tech to solve issues (water scarcity, resource scarcity, etc) people may fight for, diplomacy, etc). Schools need to have Immortality and Eternal Universal Peace classes instead of Physical education, so kids know how to bring Peace from an early age via 100s of methods and what is far more important than exercise: nutrition, vitamins, high tech, peace. The palace dwelling aristocrats have created *an educational system centered around "slavery"*, i.e. the worker learns the skills a slave worker needs, and nothing more: health or living to 7000 is not a focus today, as the disposable slave (or any race, the 99%) is simply worked to death, dying fast at 60-85.

Immortalists are against stress, cortisol, etc as that ages students and builds psychotic behavior, wars and violence. Therefore, instead of 4 months of holiday during each calendar year split via summer, spring and winter holidays of 14, 2 and 3 weeks, they could create BALANCE, and simply make 13 holiday periods of 1 weeks each 3 weeks, in which students and teachers can simply relax, meditate or focus on the lab research alone in a less hectic way. From 19 weeks of holiday to 13, so that the 6 weeks removed make the existing weeks load lighter, so people are happy, not stressed by enormous homework. A year has 365 days, so we get 3-1 weeks repeating 13 times, 28 days*13=364, with an extra holiday on New Years. We want to introduce an eternal tranquility vibe of Eternal Universal Peace in 3 months. ☺☺☺ This promotes a wholesome development of happiness, relaxation, predictability, order (not chaos and ups and down, the emotional serenity of a trillion year old Immortal), optimal body and brain repair, elimination of shock and awe of final exams and sudden pressures around certain times of the year that age the brain. It helps to create a happy youth and prevents epigenetic psychopathy in the quantum field. If you take your brain or any organ, hand muscle, etc and you push it to the limits, you can cause a lifelong scar in the muscle of your hand. The same exact thing happens with the current ☺filif shrimp IQ☺ system of mass memorization (memorize, don't think, question, test hypotheses) and torture called "schooling", they don't know how to be gentle tender soft and achieve longer brain longevity, everything is a psychopathic reflection of the rulers: the military and their insane destructive training inspired by the word of 1400 quotes of violence and killing. They load all in one 2 days or 4, instead of evenly distributed for optimal 9000 year brain longevity: the crazy students get bad sleep, try memorize crap and forget it all months later, this shock and awe, bad sleep etc in college, etc is anti-life. Memorize the minimum you need, the rest build it up from basic blocks, for example fatty acids mnemonic and amino acid mnemonic. We see a huge waste of time with educating people in a lot of areas and then applying only 1% of it, if lucky, to the job, instead of making education more research based and less memorization based, so they can learn more during the job (and have a real contribution to innovation and discovery, an intelligent discussion with the manager, being more relaxed, having a nice science journals reading room in every company, etc) and read the papers in that subfield, without stuffing their head with so much junk to memorize for the 0 IQ final exam on 'economics' electives (to "graduate as a clueless galley slave☺☺☺ who doesn't know anything about decent nutrition and sleep to live to 950) and "history of psychopaths" (human history). They read a lot of papers and study in college and then on the job none of that happens anymore, as everyone is duplicating and no research happens. Free education is good, but we need to do real world research in high school, college, PhD education that helps the mega state companies… by assignment to the research director and his research needs in that company division, not just memorize like robots who then watch porn at the boring job they get delivering condoms after wasting 4 years memorizing physics. Let the 1 million immortality labs that replace 1 million classrooms (since all theory classes are online at education.gov) be like a research division of the state companies, working as one nation for one goal: Immortality for All.

Why would the next 11 mega companies be state owned and not employee owned? Well, they can be employee owned one day, if people want, here is a hypothesis stating that it is not the best thing maybe. If people vote for nationalization of certain entities, it can be so, with some Immortality credit score bump (big one, that normally takes 5 years) for being kind and supporting everyone's lifespan doubling, not just one person living 5 years longer, and some cash given to the bigger stock owners. The reality is the people own the public companies, their fruits, etc, since the companies do everything that is essential to living to a trillion and get all benefits from it, but to avoid people wasting "10 hours weekly watching the stock of their company", it would be simpler to focus on how to house, care for, feed and transport all in a better way, instead of new programming about money and owning stocks. For a society of truly virtuous people, where all help all live to a trillion, the need of even a 'stock' market is not there, since they have perhaps just 50 companies nationwide and live to 1 million: we got 33 million companies and live to 100 max, our goal in life is MAKING $, and startups, millions of companies, everyone a PhD in gambling economics, yet clueless about what they eat. Unemployment is a thing of the past, since all people work for the main 11 companies or the education department. Wasting all your day chasing stocks or calling 5 trillion contractors and 5 trillion insurance companies to get the best deal, is no longer true. The time is spent with helping all live to a trillion, not saving 10%. There is no need for all these 0 IQ business ads everywhere (most ads are related to buying and selling houses, foods, stuffing yourself with filif monkey IQ foods, insurance, etc, things not needed in a world if instant house buying and selling, automatic universal insurance, eterni high tech foods), while the important words, are wholly absent: related to how to live to a trillion, Eternal World Peace, 0 Violent Crime in 10 years, 0 jails in 10 years, the qualities, technologies, etc. For any car, house, etc there is an associated universal insurance provided, for whatever level you want, above the minimum provided. When car makers are required to fix the car and house makers are required to fix the car for 30 years, they make a better product, not one trashed by hurricanes in 10 seconds. How can a moral government allow the aristocrat terrorists from within or out of state to sell wood 'paper' houses to Florida that collapse in 10 seconds at a simple hurricane or tornado and kill people? Ironically, these same gluttons get awards for creating jobs (their beer business perhaps, to kill 3 million people a year, a side business) of "making barns for people to die in", and be promoted as a Knight of the local BS branch of the Church of Eternal Lies, and by the local city council, filled by fellow palace dwelling aristocrats. A national company will exist for house purchases, maintenance, building, if any winds reach 195 mph in a given area, then all houses must withstand that wind speed, via dome shape or concrete use or metallic window shutters: centralized protection of every human Immortal, not just aristocratic pigs. The funny thing is how on all main websites there is a FINANCE button, like yahoo, etc, but never World Peace, Immortality, Trillionairians (who live past a trillion years). People are like mad dogs chasing $, saving 1$ by calling 300 companies that sell 300 product versions. We can gently kindly choose: 33 million companies and living to 80 or 11 efficient companies below and living to 80000: ☺☺☺

4.5.6.1. Eterni (or Immortalist) Food Inc, or Eterni Food Inc, is the most important of The National Unified 11 companies that later possibly change the planet forever by replacing the other 1 billion companies in existence, to bring the world of trillion year lifespan teleporting shimmering genderless shapeshifting Immortals. ☺☺☺

Eterni Food Inc, World's Most Virtuous Radiant Resplendent Magnificent Bounteous Company

All delivery vans say "World's Only Company that stores, ships foods, supplements, medicines at 55-70°F, in opaque containers, to protect the billions poisoned by the small or big aristocrats"

We take the product from the manufacturing site overseas (until US reaches Freedom and makes all edibles inside USA as any rational biosecure nation does), transport it on Eterni ships and bring it on Eterni trucks to the Eterni warehouses to be delivered by Eterni vans. We can never trust these scam companies in India, China that supply 90% of US powders, etc, with their storage temps or even local warehouses before they ship to Amazon hot warehouses. Without healthy food, air and water we die fast, hence we love the New Periodic Table too. The supplement section has 20+ bad ingredients and the maltodextrin section (# 22) explains the perils of decentralization: you need 5000 preservatives in foods/pills that destroy our health. The potassium section explains only 1 in a million Americans gets the basic nutrients needed to live a long and happy life, so only 1 in a million lives to 110. Eterni Foods will eventually become the most high tech food, in opaque containers, free from "light/air oxidation, liquid form (that oxidizes vitamins fast)", tested 100 times more than today due to mass production of testing devices only dreamed of today, amazing powders you dissolve in water and drink or swallow (if you put less water to make it like a puree or gel) within 1 minute. All huge companies below can be called inc or corporation, names don't matter, Inc is shorter and more efficient, like Apple Inc, allowing us to have space on product labels for the other long words to create eterni vibes: Eterni Food Inc is a lot better than NanoFood Corporation; inc is incorporated, so both are corporations, but to be efficient Inc makes sense, so people type less, font is bigger on packages for the Immortality word, etc. Eterni Food Inc unifies all food, vitamin, supplement companies (production and distribution, restaurants too) into one, to decrease admin staff and increase RESEARCH staff, the high tech space age production of proteins, carbs, fiber, etc to enable food production 1000 times cheaper than agriculture some day, while in the transition period to allow 10000 tests per food product to ensure safety and quality. Today we have a few food products, with endless poisons added for color, texture and taste. With immortalism, we can make 300 million daily powders with 20000 components changed as we change every week based on AI data on our body's needs, made within 24 hours, meaning we can make 1.5 trillion personalized meals (4200 weeks in the average lifespan, times 340 million Americans, 1.4 trillion) that are nutritionally centuries ahead of the unscientific pure crap people eat today. It's a diversity (antithesis of profit capitalism with few choices) and health of products undreamed of in the pig capitalism of today, when munching gorillas fight to the death to steal land they obviously don't need to live to a trillion.☺ The masticating ☺abysmal IQ chimps☺will be replaced by the happy Immortals who sip the thin or thicker liquids that help them live to 500000☺☺☺. Please read the vitamin E tablets losing half vitamin E in 5 hours section, which touches on the pros of centralization: all vitamin storage is made in the coolest cities so we spend far less to keep warehouse at 74°F ideal temp, this way, until the day of preparing vitamins days before shipping, we create far fewer toxins due to heat degradation. Eterni Food Inc can design 10,000 B complex formulations and people can choose and have it shipped 2 days after manufacturing for maximum freshness. The corrupt US food industry run by criminal aristocrats could not be unhealthier versus Japan as this video shows, explaining why Japanese live 5 years longer than Americans, look at how regular/small their meals are. A guy ate McDonald's for 30 days and all went to hell, his vitamins were low, his blood pressure increased, cholesterol too, liver became fat, uric acid went up. We need fine McDonald's 50 trillion at least and disband them, take them over with Eterni Foods (could rebrand the restaurants that way and make friends of immortalism worldwide). These infernal monsters jail folks for stealing 400$, but they steal 4 trillion in healthcare expenses. The genocidal aristocrats never go to jail for comitting genocide via McDonald's, KFC, etc. This is better explained in the 4 page section on vegetable oils, why US needs to ban all walnut exports, and block non-walnut nut imports, why barbecues/frying are GENOCIDE. Immortalists will require Amazon and all companies (that exist until all food companies merge into one) to list food harvest date online, so we know if walnuts, etc are 2 day old, 2 years old or 11 months old. Vacuum sealed walnuts or nitrogen sealed would be a great requirement for all nuts sold in USA, besides opaque bag to prevent light. Due to millions of food companies, 33% of food is trashed in USA, that's a huge level of worker time, electricity, wasted that could have been used to make eterni powder supplement to help all live to 4000. The existence of one company means it knows based on past purchases, revealed by the Eterni Bank, the only bank, as cash is outlawed and only 1 credit card, 0 discount cards/lotteries exist, how many of each item is ordered, so we don't trash 33% of food produced or imported. The small aristocrat terrorist doesn't know, he struggles to reach the IQ of rocks or cabbage, praising capitalism for poisoning all with deadly AGEs, chemical rich produce (China, US taught China the Torah: con gentiles, get rich) due to the inefficiency in transport that forces the rich scoundrel to preserve/poison foods so they sit on shelves 3 years instead of 3 days. When the wild dog rules, we got 10 million banks, LLCs to hide who is who, 50 million folks waste lives in retail, admin, no self-checkout, no single national police department, 5 trillion cameras to prevent theft, no death penalty for violent crime to stop it, so no staff exists to make the transport efficient, cool, distribution precise so all food is eaten within days, anything not eaten dried to make powder foods, so no worker toil goes to waste. No more packing materials that can't be recycled, as these kale twist ties that are made of steel covered in plastic, then paper. All will be recycled. ☺

The ω3 section explains how fish and algal oils become rancid, full of trans fats (due to no FDA "standards" to label trans fats above 1 mg/serving, with 500 mg rule today) and lethal at all warehouses, especially Amazon, due to temps reaching 100°F and due to truck and ocean transport that can expose oils to 130°F in a metal container. Thus, immortalists will mandate Amazon/everyone to keep all perishable vitamins like fish oils at 50°F (special designated warehouses like Eterni Food Inc will have for its powders, or fined 4 trillion/year) and to transport them in climate controlled EVs, with the trillions the rich stole to build palaces. For this to happen the Product Approval Agency, the Immortality Nurturing Agency, that approves any product made in USA, can't approve most vitamins in solution (unless it's the only form available like fish oil), as vitamins, nutrients in solution deteriorate 900x faster and they take much more space and energy to transport, cool, store. The age of spoiled scientifically illiterate "cow IQ" frauds who create rat IQ companies to poison the masses would be over, they can't build palaces off genocide anymore. Summer is 10 months in some states, those metal trucks (or ocean containers from Asia, EU, South America, Africa, Australia) get to 100°F even in February in Florida when outside is 70°F, 130°F at 95°F, enough to kill all probiotics, ruin all oils, be it DHA-EPA or any food oil packed like zombies from 5000 BC, in 20-100% clear bottles (only 0.1% of oil sold in USA is in pitch black opaque containers and consumers store it at room temp in bright light). Keep in mind on many medicines, eyedrops, et it says store at 77°F or discard if it was at above for 2 weeks. What do you put in your eyes? 33% of food imported from mainland to Hawaii is rotten & thrown away once it arrives, and Hawaii is much closer to US than China, EU. We get too many junk products, in the food industry, only 0.001% of products would pass the future immortalist criteria or 10 in a million. JNS 2015;4:e30 found 83% of fish oils didn't pass the ultra loose existing peroxide criteria, and with tight immortalist standards 99.999% of EPA-DHA pills would fail. You're being poisoned and canned fish can be 10 times worse than those pills, with 80-99% ω3 gone. That's why only 1 in a billion lives to 120. Same for restaurant "products" created by sewer IQ rats. ☺☺☺ Do you want to live to 150 with 100 products or to 80 with 10 million? The so called "product diversity" is poison diversity, they have 1 million packages and poison (carcinogenic flavors, texture givers, colors, odors, etc) mixes added to a food that rots to justify 1 million palaces for the small aristocratic leeches. In reality, it's all one Big Product, One Fraudulent Poison Mix with different ratios of Poisons. We don't have real product diversity, they pack the same 4000 BC milk hoping a few poisons and pack colors will make it a "different product", or make us live to 4000, when they can't because E, A, D vanish in hours in their "smart containers". A different product would be an eterni powder that has all nutrients a human needs that can be shipped without degrading, as with liquids, so people can dissolve it at home for 0.0001% degradation, not 50% today. Physical stores will have a barcode that when scanned shows the harvest date, just like all packaged/can foods list harvest date for plants used. In USA only the genocidal aristocrats have rights to steal trillions, consumers have no right to know how old foods are (see Amazon walnuts pic of black mold), what country of origin they're from written on package, etc. When you have 1000 grocery chains and 1 million small stores and 800 online stores, you don't have a good software, website with 300 times more info to select from for filtering and with proper labeling of contents, harvest date, etc. Imagine Windows with 2 programmers vs 2 million today, it would be like a 1st century type of nonsense, like the food industry is today.

The oxidation explained below (and in the omega 3 warehouse section, all trucks, all ocean shipping containers need be painted ultra reflective white to keep temp inside below 80°F, via better insulation, especially vitamins, oils, eyedrops, liquids, etc, today they can reach 150°F inside) shows in USA and worldwide, the filif camel IQ☺☺☺ aristocrats are unable to store (freezer if more than 1 month), pack under vacuum or nitrogen, seal from light, etc even nuts and seeds, oils, etc, a most fundamental food group. That's why we need to boycott all parties worldwide and vote for the Immortalist Parties. US is the # 1 walnut exporter, yet it can't store walnuts properly to avoid oxidation, storing in fridges other far more lethal foods instead due to a government of low IQ folks worshiping Jesus, the flying spaghetti monster and other spies pretending to be flying teleporting beings or Flying Pigs. See Wikipedia on Spaghetti Monster and Joseph Cupertino made up story of flying. The immortalists will fine Amazon and all companies trillions for all genocide via rotten foods at their super hot warehouses, where they store nuts, other foods that should be refrigerated/frozen. The Amazon and grocery store pig owners, who suck the blood out of supermarket shoppers are not building warehouses underground, for heat sensitive foods, vitamins, eyedrops, that would remain much warmer in winter and much colder in the summer for the same (solar panels above) energy used in present above ground (often tornado/hurricane wiped out) warehouses, stores, etc. Some say it's more expensive to dig underground, but it's not, because millions waste time with gyms and rat like filif IQ 'sports', that could be used to dig underground for healthy foods/creams/shampoo. Even better, as tech advances, food.gov would allow all to customize their daily multivitamin according to a desired combo (no longer do you need to buy '200 bottles" of 200 herbs, vitamins, etc you can just have it all mixed into one by food.gov and the AI will make suggestions based on the 500 biomarkers monitored weekly at the city Immortality Park; this will enable huge population studies as everyone monitors vitamin and food intake: a daily 100% opaque pouch you open and pour in a smoothie will be your 200 "vitamins, nutrients" into one. Another advantage of food.gov is recycling rate will reach 100%. We have 500000 garage vitamin companies with 500000 bottles of 5000 types of plastic paper etc, which makes it very difficult to recycle, energy intensive to say the least. Imagine, world's most high tech factories, like a Tesla factory vs a carpenter making chariots in year 100, that would require only 1 type of recyclable package for vitamins, which always come in the same form, just different contents based on what AI + you chose to have in there. We care about opacity and freshness, not about 'color' and 'marketing'. The age 9 billion year lifespans targets begins, the joke with "gain 4 years by exercising 25h/wk 50 years" is over. The monkey sports today would be over, as we evolve past bipedal crocodile stage. This company will also remove from production all high AGE foods, the so called Weapons of Mass Destruction disguised as foods, and used to destroy the health and brains of the worker class. It's essential to fine all pizza companies 500 trillion dollars, to prevent the Italian Mafia from using pizza shops to spread disease and destruction globally (pizza has 700 times more lethal AGEs than other foods), as with the Bible genocidal quotes of mass rape, cannibalism, domestic violence the evil Vatican hides, by removing Bibles from pews. The Italian Mafia seduces people with taste to destroy their brains and keep humanity primitive, ☺abysmal IQ☺, cooking the same way as millennia ago, due to its pathological addiction to tradition, be it the 0 IQ wafer tradition, the IQ lowering baptism tradition (see how babies were baptized by the Italian Mafia created Christian Church for 1200 years and even today in much of the world, drowning babies, causing brain damage, lung damage, as pizza does), & other filif IQ traditions. Why doesn't the Vatican have people read the evil 25 quotes they claim are God's Word? For the same reason they push their infernally evil poisonous toxic pizza globally via the Italian mafia: to deceive, enslave, destroy, to take humanity into a black hole of ☺0 IQ☺ and violence.☺☺

We need to fine all food companies trillions, because they sell unsoaked grains and legumes, when we know these can cause endless nutritional deficiencies and useless procedures, deaths. Centralization has one huge advantage, we produce 1 food product 100 times better than any today, instead of 100 variations of the same product (for example a new protein powder), with only 1 of the 100 being 10 times worse than the centralized product. The reality is a small company has 10-1000 PhDs, while a big one, 20,000 PhDs and can produce something far higher quality. Also, it takes today forever to test food products for 25,000 ingredients and chemicals, so when you have 100 useless products, you waste 100 times more time in routine repetitive 0 IQ testing instead of developing next generation product. Today, our food labels are pathetic, they show only 10 compounds in mg or g, not 25,000 as we could by entering a barcode at food.gov in the future, so MDs, eternists, nutritionists, etc product developers can work with scientific data, instead of "I have a feeling this will work, let's try this". We need a sceince based society, not a gambling based society. USA today is a gambler's paradise: 40,000 lotteries, 9,000 stocks, 20,000 crypto currencies, random product development to make one's version of a common appliance, without any real improvement over the existing trash.☺☺☺ Gently read the tragedy of humidifiers, how the lack of National Universities projects with 100000 researchers working on one good humidifier leads to tiny companies developing 1000 trash humidifiers. ☺☺

With centralization, you can plan x million tons of purple kale, cabbage, lentils (they call them black, but industrial soaking can extract these life giving polyphenols, it's looking purple when soaked), etc and ensure everyone gets a really healthy diet, regardless of which of the dark blue or purple fruit veggies they eat, since they all have roughly similar compounds that prevent atherosclerosis, aging, etc. Today, millions of Americans are severely deficient in important nutrients such as polyphenols, due to a decentralized chaotic food system where ☺abysmal IQ☺ reigns supreme: 20000 farmers cultivating the least nutritious veggies (iceberg lettuce, normal lettuce, cabbage, etc, instead of purple kale, etc, useless trash with 1000 times less nutrients is grown, leading to human resources wasted, transport, selling, etc, people eating salads with nothing useful) and committing indirect genocide, under the protection of the government mafia whose main directive is the defense of for profit aristocratic families that kill all fast thru their ignorance, instead of cultivating the most nutritious stuff in USA so everyone has the good polyphenols in their diet without coffee (that causes 50 million miscarriages and failed conceptions every few decades, delaying family starting, adding expenses, causing cancer due to miscarriage, birth defects, low IQ), using new made in USA products, produce that have these 150 year lifespan giving polyphenols and good fibers via smoothies, until we create the 25000 chemicals in new chemical or biochemical reactors without agriculture. Coffee is used by traitors only, since it's not made in USA. The government needs rapid action to end coffee shops and promote much tastier and healthier Immortalist drink meditative spaces of Immortalism on Steroids and Immortalist Anthem vibes. Say no to child labor, coffee, cacao and chocolate use slave labor, wake up, be kind. These WAY BETTER THAN COFFEE products are purple (not green) cabbage, cauliflower, kale, corn, cactus, carrots, yes all these exist as purple varieties. Once you get your blue red purple polyphenols from 10 other sources, you're not so dependent on blueberries in case a fungus kills all blueberries. We need blueberries, not plums that give too much gas. We worship of money and individualistic choice that makes us incapable to make 1 billion times faster decisions and adjustments in our food supply. In case of war, floods, earthquake, disaster, solar storm that ends all electronic devices, all transport, all satellites, we're sclerotic and incapable to adjust since we have 1 million companies and no reserves of 1 billion tones of powder that has all nutrients (eterni powder) when dissolved in water, to survive for 25 years of nuclear winter due to supervolcano explosion or thermonuclear war or breakdown of transport, etc due to solar storms. Who needs restaurants if we teach all via TV to make a meal in 3 minutes with a new immortalist pressure cooker (that soaks legumes in one of the programs and changes the water for you before cooking to remove antinutrients, unlike the low IQ restaurants that don't do that), and teach all make smoothies much healthier than anything at the store (you select the blueberries, trash the moldy ones, the store people are fast, they pour blueberries, there are so many soft rotten ones they don't spend time to remove), until we get to eterni foods. What's going on? Making aristocratic pigs rich so everyone is sick by eating these deadly restaurant foods? Wake up slaves, unite as one family of shimmering shapeshifting teleporting Immortals to be, who live to 150 in perfect health first. A little centralization and everyone will live to 100. Right now, many farmers go bankrupt or are unable to sell their produce, due to poor central planning. These uneducated farmers are also lacking resources to switch to new crops that are 90 times healthier. They get very upset. Let all suffering cease, the 11 companies provide a lifetime stable job for all citizens as we're one family of high tech gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest healing kind compassionate people.☺☺☺

Centralization via one National Immortality University, 5K Unis and 1 million Immortality for All labs (research centers) to Boost Innovation 100 Fold and avoid cargo cults: "drug effects look like health, but even if LDL half, HDL double, people die faster than no pill" simulating 0.0001% of "health" via 1 out of a million biomarkers needed to gauge "health" is not medicine or longevity)

With centralization we don't waste $50 trillion☺☺☺ on 1 billion studies in aristocrat run univs for profit, whose conclusions are false, due to fraud or 100K confounding factors that none take into account, we research via the Immortalist Unis (see below) with fewer confounding factors:

1). the 1000,000 confounding factors in present nutrition studies stemming from 100000 chemical compounds that are eaten in different amounts, so while you may investigate vitamin A effects*,* you got 100000 other nutrients that vary too much. You see, today, they forget each person has 10 trillion cells with 100000 chemical reactions a second in each, which act as different confounding factors for studies on nutrition, so much so, that our supercomputers can't even account for all the quadrillion confounding factors of different cell structure, overall diet, etc. Our human brains are too small and silly to even be able to understand the mind boggling complexity of what is going on. The section of "Fake Corporate Science" explains this better, especially the need for 1 company replacing 10 million wanna be "companies" so science papers are far less fraudulent, with far less conflict of interest (pressure to push a product or be fired). Every nutrient, among 50000 we eat daily, needs to be in a tight range, like vitamins, to help 8 billion people to live to 2000. So, where do we stand with that? Only about 20 nutrients are within the ideal range for the healthiest people, so realize please how far we're from the ideal of living to 2000. Queen bees changed diet and lived 40 times longer than the rest. So, do you realize that we have 49800 nutrients that most humans never get into the ideal range for living to 2000? How are you going to find that with 40 million garage companies pushing poisons? The reason we defeated nature and can travel at 9000 times faster than nature given running speed with our rockets is that in a rocket, you got 1 billion parts and constraints, one mistake screws everything up. In nutrition science however, there are hardly any constraints, so you get to live as long as nature gave you, meaning after 2 millennia of Jesus nonsense, we still live to 120 max. Nothing is very scientific in nutrition versus rocket science, all is fraudulent science mostly. We need true immortalists to guide these studies, hard core chemists who have no agendas, they just want to create the ideal ratio immortalist powder mix of the best proteins, carbs, nutrients, fiber, fats that give the largest lifespan increase to the 99% of nation given our resources. Immortalists don't care about labels like ketogenic, low carb, vegan, meat, etc, as all eat ultra advanced bioreactor and chemical reactor building blocks superior to what nature has, without the poisons the Bible 'God' so kindly placed in every food to kill us fast. When animal or plant agriculture don't exist, you don't have agendas, only in a transition period you have plants.

2). the sleep quality, sleep is when repair is done, can't have a study with poor sleep for placebo group or control group and with excellent sleep for the "real pill, vitamin or fruit extract" group, since conclusions will be false. Good sleep can improve biomarkers alone, so it was not the fruits or veggies, legumes or pills, it was sleep or, as seen below: EF, RF. All folks need same light level, same sleep schedule, etc, monitor sleep with wrist watch to make sure sleep quality is similar. ☺

3). the effect of dirty electricity, electric/magnetic known to cause cancer, oxidative stress, blood sugar rise, you can't have placebo at electric field 1 V/m and pill group at 5 V/m, or dirty electricity for control group 30 GS, while for pill group 150 GS, as high GS can raise blood glucose. 1 GS = 24V/s, so 300 GS means 7200 V change in voltage per second, think about it. That's why we need to look at biophysics too and how we can induce from the particle chart the best ways to reverse aging in a nonchemical way, but using biophysics, instead of 1 organ focus, look at the whole body. We have EMF fields as a highly ignored therapy and factor most ignore.

4). the microwaves from WiFi, cell towers, phones, laptops have to be equal for all participants or known to see effects of a pill at various levels of mW/m^2 of the typical 2.4 GHz WiFi or various cell signals. We need to have all study participants @ 1 mW/m^2 max microwaves, can't have control group 100 mW/m^2 and pill group 1 mW/m^2 as that alone can show positive effects.

5). the food particle size, since not pureeing greens, fruits, veggies, tubers or not pulverizing seeds can decrease availability 100 fold. Likewise, not adding fat to meals with fat soluble vitamins, can decrease absorption 15 fold. ☺☺☺

6). the temperature in one's room, kitchen, house, car, office, since at low temp immune system in nose works less, trillions of chemical reactions give wholly different yields at different temperatures, wholly changing body biochemistry, Russians in cold weather/poor heating live 13 years shorter than US; the air quality, since air influences blood oxidative stress levels.

7). citrulline content varies 300 fold from 0.02 to 6 mg/g in watermelons, so all retrospective studies using "poor memory recall" food questionnaires are worthless. Only with eterni powder foods when citrulline is always 2,500,000 µg/day can we have science, real Eterni Food Science. Lycopene and 1000s of other nutrients vary 5-50 fold, so good luck estimating "nutrient intake". You now know why so many studies arrive at the exact opposite conclusion: poor design. A good study requires a Mega Entity and real study population, like Universal Immortality Inc.

8). the stress level: if control group is in the more stressful period of life, while pill in the least stressful, you get the most☺☺☺ comical ☺☺☺ and false results. Other confounding factors are blood type (A, B, AB, O, etc each has a different stress response etc) and 4 types of liver, kidneys, endothelium, brain, 16 categories that create 4 billion types of humans, since 4^{16} is 4 billion.

9). big company fraudulent studies, as the fake science section on fabricating study designs to get fake conclusions extrapolated to normal folks. They use fake studies to influence conclusion.

10). inactive ingredients, some (stearate/stearic) shown to diminish absorption by 40-95%. Then the ☺abysmal IQ☺ professors conclude "vitamin X doesn't work, multivitamins are useless". They're useless when you add carcinogenic pill colors, artificial sweeteners that wreck the gut immune system, magnesium stearate to block absorption, other profit boosting ingredients (MgStearate/stearic acid, etc added to increase profits (fast pill making), even if it harms health).

The issues we run into are 20000 small studies that never take into account the big confounding factors: sleep quality, microwaves, electric magnetic fields in car, home, work, if fruits and veggies are eaten as puree (smoothie) or not, etc. With 5000 colleges in USA, each does a tiny study, and the conclusions can be anything BUT true. Take for example the autism-vaccine link, each camp says a bunch of small studies totaling only 5 million people somehow "proves" there is or there isn't a causation or correlation. So, we're left with this 3rd grader exchange based on poor studies done by a decentralized system of abysmal IQ: any scientist knows vaccines bypass the digestion system and can act directly on the brain and organs of the developing infant, whose immune system is not fully developed until 6-12 months old, and potentially cause changes in liver function, brain leading to autism prone genes formed during fetus stage to be expressed more right after birth. Big Pharma/Food/Phone don't want to be sued for billions, so they sponsor 95,000 fake studies showing no side effects from vaccines or whatever they sell. With centralization, Eterni Food Inc can easily say "we are looking for a big nutrition study of 5-

30 million, please sign up and get 1 extra point for the immortality credit score. With 20 such studies, we cover 300 million people, not 5 million, so our conclusions are closer to the truth.

We will measure EF, RF, and other things in your house, car, workplace, give you free dirty electricity filters and you have to eat some vitamins or foods in puree form and then regular salad or chew and turn off WiFi, dirty currents on for half the study and off for the other half. You won't know when we turn those off, or we turn everything off for half the study people and turn everything on for the other half to see effects with or without microwaves or dirty electricity, etc to evaluate how these affect study outcomes for the same group or different groups, depending on what study participants want to do". So, while skeptics glorify the 0 IQ of our capitalist era, real science requires high levels of centralization. If our papers are so good, how come, after millennia of capitalism, we don't live any longer maximum than people 2000 years ago? We humans fail to realize our ☺abysmal IQ☺. Look at the filif comical IQ☺ of these study designs, like a 4th grader designed them. When did USA have a scientist or engineer as president? Never. You can see the results. We were ruled by businessmen, lawyers or soldiers, spies, actors, etc, people without a clue.☺☺☺ Calmly lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ realize the advantages of the Centralized Educational System, one Culture for all of the Immortality Education Agency, instead of 5000 cultures at 5000 universities. The result? Studies whose conclusions are 1000 times more likely to be true. No longer do we have guru (Harvard Paltering Professor) worship as with the Kumbh Mela and millions of cults, or the USA version (mindless worship of MIT, Harvard, Caltech), but real science, with no elitism, but 1 million immortality science labs, and same universal education.gov 19 quadrillion trillion courses for all 5000 universities. Problem we have today is simple: professors get 10-45K extra by tenure so they're forced to publish 400 junk papers. Tenure depends on number of papers and silly studies. It's like TV, radio, youtube: a dime a dozen, quantity baby, not quality. For profit universities produce nonsense, not science. We need an ethics reform in education too, it all goes back to the reviews.gov and the Immortality Credit Score ending Money = God/Goal of Life. Faculty needs to be promoted, weekly pay raised or lowered instantly depending on actions like with all other professions☺☺☺, students can anonymously review faculty and this causes investigation at times, raises pay, etc, studies that raise lifespan, not mere toilet "science" paper production. Results: RESEARCH discoveries (made by students) that increase lifespan are evaluated every 5 years and that raises salary, not publishing more papers and being a good fake story teller and social butterfly. The mighty force of US research is unleashed as all 5000 universities house many Immortality Labs and we expand and create another million using aristocratic mansions. Change you can believe in baby.☺ Via cooperation, we bring really useful knowledge. No need of in person lectures, everyone studies online, universities become mere research centers, 50000 of the 1 million immortality labs, say 10 labs for each university. Each university is becoming a mega specialized lab that focuses on one area, so we reorganize a little, by moving all quantum chemistry guys in the buildings of one college. Take all carbon quantum chemistry guys and move them to MIT for example, some physics guys move to Harvard which is renamed the Eternal Quantum Physics Lab or Uni. This is synergy, we create a quantum chemistry lab that is 1000 times bigger than any today. Then, we synthesize chemicals and nutrients 10000 times faster than today, via the ideas here. All boson particle physics guys move to Caltech for example. By creating mega-clusters we increase discovery 900 fold: we say "Zinc Quantum Chemistry Uni" instead of Boston College or "Electron Splitting Lab or Uni (Uni is a University like Lab, short words are efficient and increase eterni tone, as we have to speak less)" instead of Stanford University, "Photosynthesis Uni", "Carbon Nanotube Solar Panel Photonics Uni", "Autophagy Uni" (spermidine and fasting 4000 page PDF all need to read to supervise a fast after a blood test to supplement more the low nutrients), "Water Fasting to remove joints, brain, vascular plaque inflammatory proteins Uni", "Mitochondrial Immortality Uni", "Infrasound Biophysics Lab", "Silent Mice Uni" (mice able to radiate healing energy, like infrared, etc to improve blood antioxidant status, they read by taking pic of blood in the hand 900 biomarkers daily to detect issues 50 years before they become disease), "Silent Humidifier Uni", Silent Heater Uni" (this heater produces different waves too to triple human lifespan, not just heat, but silent sound and other frequencies that delay aging 500 times), "Silent AC Uni" for random audible noise is biological entropy that shortens lifespan, "Cold Fusion Uni"☺☺☺☺☺. "Lepton Acceleration Uni" moves into the buildings of Texas Univ, "Vitamin A Uni" in San Diego Univ. There is only One University: the Eternal Online Global Immortality University at education.gov, supported by 1 million Labs or Unis. All old names disappear, they're 3rd grader names☺☺☺ that vanish in the Light of Knowledge Eternal. Phonetic of Niu is New in English, a New Word to change civilization towards honesty forever. For we're Unity itself, one Nation, USA or Eternia, with one central government, no state/city gov, we're one Unified body of researchers, not 900: Harvard School of physics or thought, Texas. We specialize and give unique names: Quantum Teleportation Uni. Access to high sensitive labs is only for those with the highest immortality credit score. This is high security/synergy, the best of both worlds. Results driven labs, we aim to add 9 billion years to human lifespan. That's the goal, not getting tenure by publishing random papers and being ultra social at tech conferences. People can debate and decide if we call it Lab or Uni, but at Uni we don't study, it's only lab work. People take all classes online from home.

Amazon Grocery lentils have stones in them that are very very sharp and glass like, truly dangerous if ingested. Many other brands have stones as USA builds stadiums instead of high tech sorting machines. Ironically, organic produce is often 1.3 to 4 times cheaper than conventional, within half a mile, just a different store. This you can't find out today, due to lack of centralization, where you could buy organic blueberries at nearby stores. However, as Immortalism spreads, this will be known at price.gov, giving customers the chance to buy organic first and let the rest rot more. We will be able to check who has it organic or who has it cheapest within 4 miles, go there. Easy. Prive.gov can allow search by production date, the time an item was made, or produce was picked from the garden, to enable all to know which store has the freshest item. Eventually, there will be only 1 price for the entire nation for conventional & 1 price for organic, to avoid wasting 5000 jobs in price setting for 2000000 stores in 2000000 neighborhoods. The time for Jewish mercantilism will come to an end, meaning we move from thievery and reselling and profiteering, to actually building kindness and fairness, science and technology. Instead of theft, we start doing science. Instead of economics, we do innovation. As one 340 million member family of gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kind caring, as USA, or Eternia after renaming, as one nation, blueberries cost the same everywhere. As one nation, we take care of each other, as the 11 companies system explains, we're one family and 1000 times stronger than the divided psychotic paper money worshiping "cut throat competition" society of who can steal more than the rest today, where bandits rule and award themselves pay 50000 times more than others. Bandits out, honest people in. The average person will become so stress free, as there is nothing to chase anymore, nothing to look out for, nobody trying to cheat you, as all prices are set based on enormous work of 10000 PhDs. Prices are pretty Eternal too in immortalism, as no inflation exists, prices only change if another product enhances lifespan more, only the ratio among products is changed when research shows one is healthier than another, etc, and only goes up if others go down, so cost of living is always constant. We keep economics simple, so we make room for science of living to 1 trillion. Too many price setting managers in 33 million companies, who waste their entire life changing prices... like ☺the lowest IQ fruit flies☺ chasing shadows of ants, too many variations, 900 of them, of the same exact food, in differently designed packages and prices, too many majors in idiotizing product packaging design, instead of real science of tripling human lifespan. We got sales, marketing, management majors and no science, a total travesty and national suicide, undermining tech progress and health, innovation, self-sufficiency by innovation. We don't need repackaging the same poison, we need real new products to double human lifespan. Another reason we price food the same, housing of 800 sq ft of similar condition the same is related to extermination prevention. Brits, Jews, Nazis have used pricing and "market" systems as a covert way to achieve extermination by creating very poor and very rich areas where items cost 5-10 times more, housing too per square foot. Then with violent music, they can create ultra violent areas to kill, they incite blacks for example to create the most violent music covertly, so they kill each other. In an immortalist society, we use immortality credit score to determine where one can live, not money, which in today's world is obtained by the most unethical in the larger amounts, by the pushiest greediest most dishonest. We want to change that and create a world of virtue: you live where people of the same nonviolence score as you live, if you decide that to be your criteria. For example, the ultimate bandits have the largest mansions today. In a decent society net assets of a person can't be 10 or 1000000 times higher than average, like today. Nobody works 10 times longer work hours, we only fit 80 hours in a week and still sleep/eat, etc. In USA democracy is simply a scam word used to trick the masses into eternal slavery. The issue with small grocers is that they only have 2-3 experts and a big grocer of 1 million employees has 30000 experts, each specializing in one item or a few and knowing everything about its proper storage and expiration, best way of storing it to preserve nutrients, etc. Right now, we waste 30% of our food due to decentralized mismanagement. With only 1 company we can know exactly we have 340 million customers and they need that much polyphenols daily to live to 120, and we can achieve that thru the purple cabbage, purple cauliflower, berries, purple carrots, etc.

Today, everyone worships paper/digital money. This money worship is mental illness, a disease that shortens everyone's lifespan inside or outside USA. The end of thievery is coming, for how can anyone steal when we offer no living examples with a store nearby selling same exact packaged food for 5 times more? Let ethics begin with us, the central immortalist government, the ensures nobody can steal legally. Instead of accounting and finance majors, we get chemistry and physics. The whole nation wastes the equivalent of 500000 full time jobs thinking about getting a deal, meaning driving to many places to shops the same item, for a lower price, calling 500 places, wasting fuel and time, energy much better spent innovating something, discovering a way to triple human lifespan, relaxing, taking a good nap to restore the natural healing mechanism to slow aging 4 times, etc. Add to that 500000 full time job equivalent for all hours spent in setting prices and deals, stickers and 5% off and all this nonsense in every American store. The IQ can't be lower. Price is what it is, buy it and move on. Are we going to negotiate 5 millenia over a price? Grow up☺☺☺. There are more important things in life than trying to get a deal. The greatest deal of all is getting a nation with 0 violent crime, a planet of 0 wars, by becoming a human family in USA and worldwide, instead of the chimp cannibals we're today. Will our big religious egos ever shrink and allow World Peace to emerge? The only time a product is lower in price, by 50% or something is if it is prrishable and they need to sell it, so all people who bought blueberries before at that store, will get an email, about the sale since they know all need to sell in 4 days, for max freshness. The central gov knows when people don't buy something and can inform manufacturer in real time to cut production, or can boost sales by lowering prices permanently if a healthy item is bought less than a bad item that tastes better. Gov raises prices for all unhealthy foods, as bandits have no say about prices and can't exterminate us that way. All prices and wages will be equalized eventually, so the states will lose their meaning and be eventually dissolved, as a 0 taxes government for all emerges. Each produce will list the pickup (when fruit was taken from the tree) date to indicate freshness, instead of useless info right now. Today, the criminal companies advertize deadly products, while 80 billion pounds of food, much of it produce, much healthier, is trashed each year in USA as people don't buy it in time before it goes bad. This is pure genocide. The inspectors need to make sure no food is sold that is past the max pick up date, for each produce type. We need to create new standards for the foods sold and then fine supermarkets that sell them 1 billion dollars a day, until they stop selling 78% of their products. This will clean up USA of parasitic companies in no time. We got 160000 food markets in USA and most of them in the cold areas of USA (which is 70% by area) with very cold weather 4-8 months of the year, don't keep produce in a really cold 40-50°F degree warehouse section, with less heating for that purpose alone, to act as a sort of fridge, and then the produce is not sold fast so it goes bad. Even in California, January is very cold and without heat it would stay very cold in an area of the back warehouse with no heating, so the watermelons should be very fresh in the areas North of San Francisco during the winter months. What we see in reality is companies keep most watermelons inside at 75°F and they go bad 5 times faster and every store for example in DC, the capital of USA, sells rotten watermelon with a few exceptions. Potholes never get fixed either. Decentralization makes it ultra difficult to immediately implement within 5 days a directive of the central government in the case of war or catastrophic Yellowstone explosion that covers 70% of USA in 3 feet of dust. So, the design of food selling buildings is anti-life, wasteful, anti-energy efficiency. A real reform needs to occur to keep produce, other items fresh so that the nutrients and vitamins stay at 80% of original value not 40%. Walnuts are kept at 75°F, when it is known they should stay at 40-45°F, which is easy to reach in many areas of the USA for 30-90% of the year. Little thought goes to that, since the imperial aristocrats who steal trillions from the US government, and the 95%, buy from a store with ultra fresh stuff, wastefully shipped every other day. Do the cold areas of US have fresh produce? No, because ☺the 0 IQ clowns☺ running US have no centralization and good energy use to make sure that watermelon lasts 4 times longer. It's time to fire the political class and create a democratic America with amazing ☺☺☺ food freshness for all. Wait, we need to develop desalinization plants, as ground water depletion leads to endless ground cracks all over USA/China, use 30 times less water via eterni food.

Blueberries and produce in China is discarded (like USA also trashes about 30% of food it produces due to no central planning) due to decentralization and low IQ of the fake communists in China that have 0 central control to ensure no product is trashed and the healthiest foods get consumed, not the cheapest. It's amazing how similar China's situation is to USA: total chaos and waste of produce that rots in stores due to no central planning. China is not communist at all, in communism, max salary is 2-3 times minimum. They got endless billionaires making 50000 times the poor who live on toxic foods, as produce is trashed in other places, as depraved "rich celebrity" women make concerts to destroy empathy and compassion for the poor and polyphenol starving, deprived of blueberries that are fed to pigs (similar US music in 7.9.4.). 12 out of 13 major brands of soy sauce in China for example had arsenic and cadmium, 2 heavy metals. Soy sauce or any sauce is not healthy, it rots and most ingredients suffer oxidative damage that will ruin all your cells. Pesticides are used due to no investing in lasers and other chemical free methods. Today, in most areas, the cheapest blueberries are at Walmart or some dollar stores that had produce. Walmart is big and thru mass production and scale of sales can lower prices: 1 gallon of filtered water, reverse osmosis, ozonated and UV disinfected is 36 cents, fill a bottle yourself, versus 1.5 or more at other stores that have you trash the planet with more plastic emissions, recycling etc. Recycling takes energy too. We, the workers of the world, got the free will to support big companies that will be merged into Eterni Food Inc and boycott small businesses that rip us off and ask us to pay 2-3 times more for water, lentils and blueberries. All are always in shock the same exact product is 5 times more expensive at a different store.☺☺☺ The Eterni Food Inc buys all food selling supermarkets brings in the SOFTWARE unification to enable customers to know what is in stock, where and when without having to make 400 phone calls and drive to 50 stores to find an item. Too many stores are mismanaged, instead of refrigeration of produce, they spend money on "fancy remodel". Again, 0 IQ. It will help improve every store, unify, transfer knowledge, as competition is meaningless, we're one nation. The present ☺abysmal IQ☺ defies description☺☺☺: we have internet and we just use them for junk instead of efficiency: we let organic blueberries rot and buy the toxic ones first, even when prices are identical. Stater Brothers and other supermaket non-organic (90% of total) blueberries (or sometimes even organic ones) are kept in very warm areas, while cabbage that doesn't need a very cold area is kept cold; decentralization means 50% of blueberies rot and end up being trashed by the buyers or store, or simply eaten to give people sickness. Most people are poor, so they don't trash partially rotten blueberries, they eat them and get sick. 4th grader IQ store managers have no idea how fast blueberries go bad in warm temp. I see this in 100s of stores: the hard work of farm workers is being trashed by 0 IQ managers sitting happily in their offices away from the harsh farming conditions, while promoting "40000 brands for everything and none of true quality". I went to Lidl in winter and found rotten soft watermelons, other times I found very hard, yet rotten inside watermelons, went to Giant grocery store and found only rotten watermelons. At least Lidl has blueberries that are way cheaper than any other store. Safeway also has usually rotten, semi-rotten and beginning to rot watermelons in winter. In the warmer months, it's far fresher. Due to decentralization, endless products rot and sit on shelves too long, without a national rule saying that "50% off price if it didn't sell in 3 days". America's food waste reaches $150 billion a year, 40 billion kg. Highly efficient for all those working to death to make food. With centralism, the AI changes price instantly for perishable items not sold within a few days, so they sell before they rot. Thus, those slave workers can sleep, rest, age slower, live longer. Why make food and then trash it? Because we're ☺low IQ chimps☺. We need endless stores, instead of one really good store that doubles lifespan. Poor sleep can shorten lifespan by 3 to 35 years. Tell that to those slaves making that food. ☺☺☺ The aristocratic leeches owning and managing each store could care less about their 40 million individual store policies that sicken people and waste 1 billion tons of food a year: "who cares, let the slaves work to death so nobody can dethrone the vampire aristocrats". Who will have endless kings and mafia families, when we could have one global food company, Eterni Food Inc, to sell powders dissolved in water that help us live to 9000, and end animal slaughter and killing of endless rats, insects by plant agriculture? In this tribal class structured caste based society, such concepts are sci-fi. The parasitic blood sucking aristocrats could care less about ending animal slaughter. They have no empathy. They would fight to the death the unification of the world's 8 billion enslaved workers. We need to inspire them to have empathy and stop the abuse of workers, the genocides, etc. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The Immortality Nurturing Agency ought to fine stores if the IR thermometer shows blueberries above 43°F. The fines would enable the stores to receive the fine back if they buy a fridge for blueberries and other berries, like they have for milk and other items. If a pack of blueberries has more that 10% mold filled berries, the entire berries section needs new refrigeration. The most toxic foods take fridge space and a few packs of blueberries rot. The toxic foods at Walmart and most stores take 5000 times more space than blueberries, and much cooler space too. It makes no sense whatsoever, it's a drain of natural electricity resources. You need travel to 10 stores to get to one that keep berries cool enough. Stater Bro, etc watermelons often are totally rotten, due to no tech: a simple device would scan any melon group for certain chemical signatures inside and that tells you if it's rotten and what what temp it doesn't rot. It's much easier (than the Agency fining stores) to have all grocery stores become brands of Eterni Food Inc, which dispatches thousands of inspectors to unify and upgrade policies, equipment, from the jungle that exists today where nobody inspects. Eterni Food Inc reduces managers by 20 fold, via automation and amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ tech, so we finally get some science majors: via consolidation, within 2 years, 900K workers can get free 1-2 year degrees in eterni Food Science and Engineering (free education, while on the job 9-5, 40 hours a week, online courses, lab courses, etc), to get the new jobs within the company for the development of post-agriculture food production. On every store it says "Current Store Name, eterni Food". 90 posters inside say "a subsidiary of Eterni Food Inc, the food of the future, eternifood.gov: the start of universal cosmic compassion, instant 2 hour molecular synthesis, the end of agriculture or eating dead plants or animals". This Corporation and the Immortality Nurturing Agency will test all food sold 100 times more, place ads in every caffee, restaurant, supermarket "Do you want to major in chemical physics, particle physics, molecular chemistry, chemical synthesis to create food that enables us to live to 8000, making molecules in 2 hours in one step instead of 2 months with 100 steps? Contact 1-800-imm-food". If nuclear war hits, nuclear winter destroys all crops and most humans will starve to death. We can act proactively and realize an asteroid, supervolcano can also cause a sunless 3 years that kills most humanity. While people dance, the time bomb is getting closer and nobody has any backup plan. Total irresponsibility. Add to that the climate change risks. Today, millions of stores don't have recycle bin in front of the store, only trash ones. With one policy change, all stores can get the beautiful recycle bins or proper storage of berries, etc. That's the beauty of centralization. Imagine how happy people living near garbage incinerators would be (endless rats, noise, smell, flies, etc), with 10 times less trash, 10 times less burning and air pollution in incinerators without air filters to remove toxic compounds, since today, 90% of recyclables worldwide (including compostable recyclable food waste that could be fertilizer and taken by city) are trashed and not recycled, due to poor education, while TV is full off ads about vapes, alcohol, strip clubs and condoms. Incinerators are in poor neighborhoods, so once again, the rich get none and the slaves get choked in rats, flies and toxic air. Nobody cares, it's not an issue, but ☺abysmal IQ☺ sports are the news daily. Not only that, but every blueberry or food container will have a code which when scanned or typed at food.gov will indicate how many pesticides, molds, fungi are in that pack/brand ☺☺☺ (average based on government testing of store samples), in order to let everyone know which pesticides were used and what the risks are for example, meat, dairy can accumulate certain dioxins or contaminants and this will be easy to see from the lab analysis, as the soy and corn are rich in pesticides. The land belongs to We the People who have the right to know the mg of every pesticide used, due to health risks of blueberries or foods that contain 8 times more hormones, PCBs, pesticides, heavy metals, microbes (what type) etc. No aristocrat has the right to tell us it's a "trade secret".

Geeks dislike California state policies that give toxic junk food burger flippers 20$/hour min wage starting 2024, while millions of scientists (food, etc), who do much more science, get paid 16$ min. Not only that, but food scientists in other states can make 11$/hour after college, which is a crime, since we're in the same country. The basketball player and lawyer can make 200-20000/hour, how is that for abysmal IQ? We reward Neolithic jobs, instead of INNOVATION. It's a travesty. No wonder we got so many lawyers and sportsmen. Move the ball, make up a story, and you're rich? If food science was THAT SIMPLE. This is the prioritization of the 0 INNOVATION status quo, simply because they formed a union. It glorifies toxic food, it undermines California's public health, the goals of Immortality for All. Decentralization of 50 states and 5000 industries allows a totally chaotic jungle like field, with no logical pay. Forget about unions, in Immortality Capitalism, 90-99% of people work for the employee owned 11 or 15 state companies and the pay is determined by the contribution to INNOVATION, to the maximum lifespan years added to ALL humans, using a formula that would take 2 years to calculate by hand (that complex, take into account 100000 factors, not the "0 IQ" system of communism, which was pathetic and silly at best), not how fast you flip a burger to create 20 times more deadly AGEs than by pressing a button on a pressure cooker to cook in H_2O. We need centralization, and more equalization of pay of much deeper nature across the states, there is too much difference: all protest for equal pay for equal work, but same job pays 3-5 times more in a different location. This is insanity, it's all not merit based either, it's just a little 50% higher cost of living and a different company, nothing to do with lifespan maximization, pure chaotic LET'S MAKE MONEY NOW CAPITALISM, 0 logic, 0 IQ.☺☺☺ The sales folks were better at deceiving customers to pay more for their junk products, repackaged wholesale crap that other more honest companies sell for 4 times less, so the other guy, a violent thug, gets paid 5 times more for same job as we got no Immortality Credit Score (score definition). This then leads to out of control crime, as we reward hooligans. Today, due to inflation, companies waste resources to repackage the same product, change assembly line, create new packs that are smaller, while keeping the price the same, because changes of 5-15% in weight go unnoticed. This is a waste of national resources, instead of innovating, they make new packaging. Maybe the obese eat less? The fast food industry is guilty of genocide, yet they want a pay rise to reward genocide? Do these workers realize they destroy the brains of all their bosses they complain about, making US sick, violent, low IQ, mentally insane? Look at the evidence about soda alone, not just AGEs. Why don't they protest and help create Immortality Party?

The genocidal aristocrats take the healthy food nature provides, for example carrots, and add sodium at pathological levels to make half USA hypertensive (this causes strokes, arterial plaque, bypass surgeries (150 billion a year that alone), add hormone disrupting can BPA rich can lining and brain damaging heavy metal and tin filled cans, with sulfites (which can kill some people or cause total kidney destruction, meaning 2 hours daily dialysis for life) and other lethal preservatives to poison the working class. The Rice Krispies (Kellogg) has 222 times more AGEs than these lethal carrots (French fries 167x more, McDonalds Big Mac 867x), which, lethal as they are, are obviously the lesser evil vs the 60% fat chips from hell (Frito Lay Chips got 170x more AGEs than boiled potato) or Mc(Don)Satanald (Satan Land, McDonald's). The genocidal TV doesn't teach people that the healthiest diet is one cooked in water in a pressure cooker, that the working class would have 40% higher IQ if they would steam some veggies instead of eating canned veggies, boiling potatoes instead of eating deadly chips. But the Rich want to destroy us, so no info is allowed. Not to mention, if people knew kitchen being 5 times smaller with just a pressure cooker would mean 50% higher IQ, healthier diet and more space for rooms, so kids can sleep and study better, instead of 2/room, then the food industry would be in trouble, as all make soft carrots in 1 min (once cooker reached pressure in 3 min), saving the planet, the lives of slaves making cans to POISON fellow workers, instead of healthier far smarter eterni foods to eliminate agriculture/natural poisons in some foods. If you buy cans, they often are not even recycled and poor people cut their feet in landfills when they try to collect bottles to recycle for 20 cents people who need pet hospitals don't care about, as those people are often bitten by dogs that PETA promotes to roam on streets. This demonic green and infernal laziness ends up destroying veggie and legume proteins by microwaves, and all house residents by microwave standards of infernal quality, that allow 100 times more microwaves in kitchen than other nations. Reheating the canned legumes/veggies/meats/etc for a warm meal poisons the whole area, sometimes 3 apartments with radio frequency, when the safe steam function of a pressure cooker kills nobody. The time it takes to open the can, recycle it, etc, make the can is about 20 times longer than steaming it, and since we're one family, all we do in USA is can making, while remaining selfish depraved primates stuck in the stone age of greed and egoism. How can we have time to discover the way of ending animal suffering, ending the quantum pollution eating blood does on humans via eterni foods, if we're so ☺abysmal IQ☺ and selfish, unwilling to think about what is best for the 350 million family, not just one person. Transporting foods, veggies, legumes is way cheaper than transporting cooked canned foods with water/metal, and those tires become particles that cause lung cancer, strokes, etc even with EVs. We're not even talking about the fact a steamed veggie has often times 2 times more of certain vitamins, nutrients, etc. The time it takes to soften the pumpkin, butternut squash, carrot, etc is the time you open the can, wash it, recycle it, take the recycle bin on the street, heat the meal in microwave. You make the murderous aristocrats rich, while lowering your balance, have no money for healthy foods… Cooking at home is so fast today, so much cheaper, that you can boycott these infernal demons and liberate USA. It's way cheaper and much healthier to cook at home, until Eterni Foods emerge once the rats are gone and the 11 companies replace the 33 million scam companies. To add to the injury, they add EDTA to cans to "maintain food color": EDTA binds to zinc (repairs neurons and is part of 300 DNA repair enzymes and 1000 transcription factors), calcium and other minerals we need, causing diabetes (low Zn), anemia (low iron), weak teeth (low Ca) etc. in USA everything revolves around appearance, of people, of food, or taste/texture of food. We can create a health centered culture of Immortality for All, not just 100 year life for the rich. We see filif cow IQ people spending 25 min in driveways waiting for junk food to commit slow suicide, when in 25 min at home they could eat 5000 times better, just shop for raw food weekly. Meal prep lentils weekly for protein, as the book describes, bankrupt the aristocratic leeches. Let them experience homelessness, as Worker Poisoning Company goes bankrupt, see them support then the 11 companies system of 0 unemployment/firings for all. At home, you stand while pressing a button for the cooker to do everything for you, while you soak legumes, change water, clean plates, etc, in a driveway you sit, no exercise, bad for health. Plus, a food table allows you to know exactly what you ate, every vitamin, fat type to stay slim ☺☺☺.

Via the amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ Eterni Food Inc, we can bring the most advanced pressure cooker designs, that produce the least bad compounds, via the use of nitrogen in commercial factories or even individual cookers. But even with air today, pressure cookers are the healthiest cooking method. The advantage of one company is that every design will be tested 9000 times more, by the safety department and the Immortality Nurturing Agency, while the current system allows anyone to make similar junk as others that accidentally produces more AGEs or leaks more lethal compounds, including PFAS in nonstick coatings, etc. With 40000 companies making a pressure cooker or industrial food processing machine, we can't do the 9000 tests on 40000 designs to make sure their design doesn't introduce new problems, poisons. In chemistry, any change in temp, pressure changes reaction products. Anyone with basic chemistry education knows how difficult is to test foods, separate compounds, identify new compounds nobody knows the spectrum of, etc. Today's food processing plants use so many different processes and tools and nobody does 90000 tests to verify one machine is better than others, but all know their protein treatments are lethal, they denature proteins, introduce carcinogenics, etc. The alkali, acid treatments are catastrophic, they want protein powders using today's food industry Neolithic Separation techniques, born of classical chemical reactions: we need chemical physics, high tech separation. For Science's Sake, there is a way to synthesize and separate chemicals 1000 to 1 billion times faster using chemical physics, physical chemistry. The education reform highlights the need of total reform of middle and high school curriculum to emphasize chemical physics, physical quantum chemistry, computation chemistry and physics. So, we need 95% STEM not 30% STEM graduates and centralization for higher safety, plus eliminate unsafe industrial processes and simply have more cook at home for now until all burger, etc ovens are replaced by pressure cookers in water, by going into the kitchen and pressing the pressure cooker button, under water to have minimal AGEs. A little exercise helps, sitting in traffic to make smog and not exercising is bad for you, for others you kill with smog, cook more at home until we fix these charlatan Big Food Mafia Cartels. The microplastics (easier to remove with kale) and PFAS damage us, with the average brain having 5-10 g of plastic inside, (need long deep sleep for 120 days to remove it, and also to fast 20 hours about 30 times, maybe once 4 days), so to remove our brain and body plastic, we need to use glass or stainless steel food/water storage containers, (glass can make far less noise, but requires extra attention to not drop it, as it can crush toes or injure with glass pieces, make sure the jars are the ultra strong types that never break when falling on carpet or wood and kids are educated to be ultra careful when carrying it), 2 bottles for 20$ (can be any jar for sauerkraut that you convert to mouthwash storage, to avoid stainless steel noise and harder to clean/see dirt issues; these stainless steel bottles are weird, they give water a weird taste, metallic one, so pure junk, avoid this brand or any brand made of metal unless you have $7000 XRF scanner (or rent it for a day to inspect all metallic objects in your house) to prove it's lead-mercury free, just giving an example so you avoid it, just Lidl apple cider bottle works better for drinking at night, you only need to lift head slightly and bend bottle a little; for mouthwash, you may like something with a wider mouth (sauerkraut or tomato sauce bottle) to easily place the xylitol, baking soda, menthol, etc) one glass bottle for mouthwash made at home and one for drinking at night, since a glass of water is fine during daytime), wood cutting boards, 100% cotton pajamas/clothing (no polyester, fleece, spandex, elastane, nylon, fake sherpa/wool), bamboo toothbrush are deadly, as the wood pieces cut the mouth and the Nylon bristles fall off and damage gums and are Nylon 1010 made from castor oil components, non-biodegradable polymer plastic grow mold in a week, read all 1 star reviews of any toothbrush, sadly no alternatives exist to plastic toothbrushes (toothbrushes with boar or horse hair break fast, hairs fall off in your mouth, are useless), plastic free sponges (0.67$ each, 12 for 8$, coconut fiber for the scrub part, and cellulose for the soft), silver stainless steel cooking pots/pans, pressure cookers (avoid nonstick, so Instant Pot pots work fine as they're steel), until humans discover polymers that easily biodegrade once traces of them are eaten, meaning human safe plastics. You can't have innovation when each ☺low IQ aristocrat☺ copies others' bad "products, humidifiers, fans, cookers, cooking appliances, ovens, toasters, air fryers", poisoning everyone in the name of making profits, expanding revenue, etc. The thinking today is pathetic. In contrast, with 11 companies and only one making appliances the thinking is safety first, not reaching customer by deceptive lies full ads to have people buy their junk instead of competitor's equally lethal products not tested 10 times, let alone 9000 times and not on even 3000 people, let alone 1000000 as in a test of free samples with anything Eterni Food Inc sells, after the initial 10000 and then 100000 people tests are fine and blood markers are fine. We need real safety, not a scam food industry. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Having only one company nationally allows us to fire (one time in history over a period of time, not every week forever, due to 'changing employers', like in today's system) endless product managers who're often, willingly or unaware, nothing but vampires (see why). A 'firing' in the future can be a move to a different location or department. The managers would get a 3 to 36 months degree at the new Universal Immortality Education National Online University and attend one of the one million immortality labs, to become a tech, since their "products" have poisoned billions. We don't need 500 people creating 500 identical deadly products, one ethical person is more valuable than 500 gangsters. We don't need 9000 unique packs of milks, but 4 different milks, no need of 5000 unique packs of walnuts that don't meet basic chemical safety guidelines, just 3 safe designs by ethical people. The walnut section explains today only walnuts that have their shells intact meet the basic safety guidelines of Eternia or any decent person. USA sells cow milk, the ☺☺same PRODUCT in 9000 packages☺☺, instead of having 5 different eterni milks, totally different than toxic cow milk in 5 packages. This is due to the gangster mentality in our culture: everyone almost is programmed to chase money by the social engineers of the 'culture' who control the banks. RESEARCH (like World Peace) is for NEXT CENTURY, this century is for SPORTS. Don't tell any kids or teens to exercise in a lab, washing glassware or building stuff for the homeless under adult supervision, only ball throwing is OK. For example, it's known by everyone with any high school that oils oxidize fast in the presence of light and heal (hence it says on the bottle store in a cool, dark place), that's why flaxseed oil is placed in the low temp area in opaque plastic bottles (usually black, 100% opaque, not even semi-clear brown like some olive oil). Walnuts also are full of easy to oxidize polyunsaturated fats and the light passes thru them and enters deep into the walnut interior. So, if you go to USA or any nation, you see an IQ so low, that it defies description: billions of nut products stored in transparent bags in bright light where everything oxidizes faster and gives arterial plaque, the number one killer. Even lower in IQ is the storage of nuts, walnuts into clear plastic containers (that waste 5x more plastic than air tight opaque bags) that are not air tight, but allow lot of air to come in and reoxidize and dry the walnut, those being far worse than the clear sealed air tight bags, since they get exposed, via air exchange, to 5 to 100 times more oxygen over 1 year of storage, depending on how tight that seal is. Tropicana is sold usually in paper containers, that are 95% opaque or maybe even 100%. However, the palace dwelling aristocrats running USA's top fresh (not from concentrate) orange juice company, either in order to exterminate certain groups of people, or due to ignorance, ship Tropicana orange juice, obtained by the hard work of Florida farmers, in transparent containers (plastic bottles) to certain zip codes, which causes the loss of up to 90% of healthy polyphenols and vitamin C, the very reason people buy Tropicana vs junk drinks. So why pay 5$ for a junk drink that has 90% nutrients lost vs another in an opaque container? This is marketing fraud and the company ought to be fined $300 million. ☺☺☺

Likewise, 99.999% of the filif 'gnat IQ'☺☺☺ beekeepers ship their honey in clear containers that degrade the antiflu, anticold compounds. These colorful word choices are there to wake people up from the sleep of ignorance and TV trance. No offense here, but we humans live about 15 times longer than chicken, and aliens who live 15 times longer than us may view us as we view chicken in intelligence.☺☺☺ Please don't react emotionally, it's just comically, ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺, putting things into perspective to stimulate societal priorities and progress, like a gentle tender soft jolt out of our low IQ egoist megalomaniac society and comfort zone obsessing with economics, $. On top of that they sing 'proud to be an American', not realizing even Kiwis (slang for New Zealanders) have more neurons left functional in their brains, as they ship Manuka in darker containers. We gently kindly don't blame the beekeepers abysmal IQ on them, but on the 'hilarious' thugs running USA. It takes 1 cent to put some purple paper to cover most of the clear container at least, but no, they trash that paper to send 20000 times more paper to every home in USA with ads and coupons nobody needs, to appease the 'chimp IQ' marketing staff for phony useless companies, created by the insatiable infinite greed of 'bloodsucking bandits'☺☺☺ spamming USA residents (99% of that paper is trashed, not even recycled). If you try to buy honey on Amazon or in any store, not one is properly protected from light. Not only that, but Amazon is the most comical☺ company, since for 1 billion products, the web description doesn't match the label on the product: socks can say 40% cotton, 60% wool, but it's 80% acrylic, 17% polyester and 3% elastomer that mimics cotton and wool, written as such on the label. On millions of food products sold in grocery chains, like honey, nuts, etc, the country of origin is hidden by using tricks like 'Distributed by', so if you get 5000 times more lead in a food product from a suspect area of a country, say China known to ship tea that has 5000 times more lead than other brands, you can't know it. It's the land of 'useless bureaucracy' and total lawlessness, cheating and fraud. Profit first, health 990th. Kindly scan the label for country of origin, for seeds, try Oregon ones, as they got less pollution of soils there, less lead, etc.

Why can't nuts be sold in bulk bins that are opaque and have 8 ounce bags that are opaque too? Or design a system of demand estimation via AI, and let them out of a bag for 1 hour only, the nitrogen or whatever is in the natural walnut ultra opaque bag, in the opaque bulk bin so they don't oxidize. This can avoid so much waste of packing machines electricity, or just sell them in shell more often, though that adds to shipping electrical costs too. We can do better than nature of course, if natural walnuts got 78% nitrogen like normal air, with 100% nonreactive nitrogen. ISS travels at 1000 times the speed of people running, so new packing can be 1000 times better than natural shells. The walnut shells have many applications, they can be composted too. Anyone can become "food packaging" experts and poison people's arteries with oxidized nuts, this is the product of Thomas Jefferson decentralization. Everyone can start a walnut company from his garage and packages it like a 3 year old. Even Whole Foods sells 365 brand walnuts that has part of the package clear and part yellow, allowing all walnuts to oxidize fast. Equally low IQ is their Whole Foods flaxseed oil white 365 brand bottle, sitting near light bulbs in the cooling area, which oxidizes flax oil fast versus the Barleans pitch black bottle sitting next to it. ☺ Abysmal IQ☺ aristocrats run even our biggest food companies.☺☺☺ Today, it takes endless phone calls and trips to find out who has inshell walnuts (food.gov ought to allow you to find which store has the item you want closest to you, true centralization*)*, the only safe walnuts today due to 0 regulations about AGEs, lipid oxidation, etc. If you care about your health, never eat shelled walnuts, they're packed by 3rd grader level IQ "adults". The walnut section explains how to crack them fastest. Walnuts, nut mixes are often not even packed under nitrogen or vacuum to avoid oxidation: you see those millions of chocolate thin plastic wraps with silver color on the inside, that are quite opaque? Those are tiny aluminum particles that block light, air from causing mold and oxidation of foods, though not all of them are aluminized, some are simply silver in color. They can't even make something truly opaque for nuts or any product containing any oil, fat or nuts, even though it would cost the same, or maybe 0.1% extra with mass production and using less dye on the pack, just place the metallized part on the outside to avoid any aluminum leaking into the food, as that may cause Alzheimer. Nobody cares if something costs 1 cent or even 5 extra. The FDA is a revolving door, where industry employees become government agents, wolves guarding the hen sort of. So, what is FDA doing? Nothing? They ensure medicines don't kill you instantly. So, they want to live to 200, and even what a 3rd grader would know in the reformed educational system of USA, with chemistry since 3rd grade, is not implemented. But hey, they use trillions of opaque plastic materials for sports… living to 120 is not important, just to 85, 3 years extra by playing soccer, football, hockey or rugby. ☺☺☺

Today we get about 900 multivitamins on Amazon, or maybe more, but with one company, all automated mixing, etc, we can have 5 million vitamin formulas for people to try, many made within hours of an order (most popular formulas are in stock, created daily for shipping next day, based on historical data, while other formulas are shipping hours later versus popular ones, due to being manufactured that day). Truly high tech, instead of ☺the filif fecal bacteria IQ ☺ system today of rotting on shelves. With one company, you know exactly how much they will order, with 100000 companies in an industry, nobody has a clue and they go bankrupt and the time wasted is enormous. This is the power of cooperation and sharing. If people don't order a product, you don't make it anymore and the company is still in business, performance is based on people's lifespan, gov knows who designed what product, can reward the people who made the products that led to the best outcomes, etc and make more of that product instantly, while not offering the least performing products anymore, while with 1000 companies, you can't tell guys to not make, since they go bankrupt. Gov also uses reviews by people reviews.gov to determine wage raises and bonuses. Greed can create few choices. Centralization, sharing, cooperation create 1 million extra choices. Think about how anti-immortality it is to tell people: you're fired, each year, for millennia, shift thru 70000000000000 companies, it's insanity. Why can't people create less stress, the key to living to 900? Stress = 0 innovation, to INNOVATE, you need to be RELAXED, WELL RESTED, HAPPY, not like today's terror filled employees. Managers, much fewer, send an email to all: we need ideas for a new product, send to manager and whoever has the product become the best at lifespan increase, biomarker or disease remissions, in real life tests, gets 100K bonus, possible promotion to manager, and 90 credit points boost. With 11 major companies, you work for life in one or two if you want to try something else, and you're serene, peaceful and not shivering in fear of being fired. Everyone helps everyone. Pay based on the most complex ever created system of reviews, Immortality Credit Score, company specific, all results based. In our world, everyone is duplicating so much, there is no time to deliver, so then everyone is put under gigantic stress due to having lost half the time reinventing everything... so the stress ages us rapidly, while we're also less efficient. Everyone acts busy, spending half of their job time looking for another job, because "the company products don't sell anymore". The whole system is of an ☺abysmal IQ☺ beyond description, leading to waste of health, time and money beyond imagination. Aristocrats don't care about us slave workers. But we do, we're the slaves. We need to free ourselves. Millions of small business owners, also live paycheck to paycheck, under huge stress, since their products can fail to sell, as he can't compete with 4 million other sellers. Stress = war, aging, drugs, etc. *Developing a national sense of family, a national consciousness is the 1st step towards a planetary consciousness, where all feel like one family and war/crime are inconceivable. Everyone is honest, since they know everything will be found out sooner or later. It's the end of mental games. ☺☺☺

Arterial plaque is incremental, every little contribution makes up a huge lethal block.☺☺☺ Today, we get 2000 companies, each with their sales team, product managers and everything. Each produces truly lethal restaurant foods, that would be illegal in any civilized society, and vitamins stored in clear bottles that cause nutrient loss. Due to the total collapse of ethics due to greed (stock trader gets 200 million income a year), evident after reading this chapter, we need endless sales people: why not put self-checkout and a few cameras everywhere, to get more people into science and tech and less into robotic clerks? Europe already has many autonomous stores open 24-7, without any staff inside, where people scan products with the phone app and no self-checkout even exists. Imagine if all stores are free of checkout. Even backwards countries now have such 0 retail clerk stores. See more details about a German one here. Cameras detect items you pick and you get billed. Simple and good, as long as low radio frequency exists in the stores from the cameras which hopefully are wired and NOT wireless. An article says by 2027, 12000 such checkout free stores will exist worldwide. Amazon and many stores in China allow people to scan items as they put them in the cart. Amazon got many no checkout small stores, since 2018. See Amazon store video. With ethics education from nursery to PhD, the daily ethics of Immortality email from the Immortality Nurturing Agency sent to every US citizen, we need 100 times fewer retail jobs, since 24-7 video cameras, self-checkout do the job (9000 times fine the amount stolen to deter theft), besides ordering online via Amazon like companies, including immfood.gov which delivers 10 million food products to anyone without you needing to shop, like clothing.gov can sell clothes. This is only one out of 100s of similar examples, they can't even do the 1st grader stuff, how can they do the safety of eterni food powders? That requires far greater IQ and ethics, since these are newly made proteins, even if most initially are identical to stuff in nature, just from 2000 plants, carbs, fibers, fats, proteins that combined exceed the nutrition of any foods or smoothies we can make from 20 plants. The current regulations for food are genocidal: oils need to be 100% opaque bottles, yet today 99% of oils on the market are not, except some brands of flaxseed oil. Likewise, all nuts and oil containing items bulk bins need to be opaque, with a picture printed on the bin, and very well sealed to minimize ozone contact (outside air coming thru supermarket door) and fresh air that oxidizes. Most product managers need to be fired, as they got no ethics, we need a new educational degree for these people. Too many "managers" everywhere, due to 50000 companies doing the SAME thing. Simply put, no

RESEARCH, just looting, jungle. ☺☺☺

We're not even talking about the 100 times more deadly oxysterols in fast food meat, that kill fast via AGEs. These products are designed to EXTERMINATE and many food companies are run by the Mafia, see 42 min Italian food industry Mafia video and it's in USA too. Most people today, even those with PhD in chemistry, have no idea that most restaurant food, 99.9999% is cooked using stoves and that is creating a huge level of oxidation products not formed with pressure cookers that top the food with water. This means, if cooking without lid happens, as in more than half of restaurants, using dry heat and even some water, the amount of preventable oxidation products that cause strokes, heart attacks, premature organ damage via arterial plaque is from 1000 to 100000 times higher. So, why does this happen? Pure ignorance, we live like galley slaves, believing all lies from MIT, Harvard. Ukraine, engaged in an allegedly real war, is following centralization efficiency (one company, not 1000 like in France) and can sell poultry at half the price in 2023 to EU, versus France, which relies on small family producers with enormous costs of duplicating/redundancy (though the price difference is mostly due to Ukraine labor costs (and GDP/capita) being 3.5 times lower). Hold on to your seats☺☺☺, if we give all people free lentil knowledge, they can cook at home better than 99.9999% of restaurants today using one device, so we can liberate the galley slaves and give all a decent single family house. We lovingly shut down many restaurants using the Immortality Nurturing Agency, (the Agency the Entire Planet knows about, every citizen worldwide as no exports to USA can be done without its approval), authority, much higher than FBI, CIA and FDA, to shut any business down. Why does USA have to spend 2 trillion in healthcare costs to fix what the Food Industry Mafia does? We can't shut them down instantly, as millions would be jobless without a 5 month science course for another job. We need a total retooling of the Neolithic food industry, which will cost over 20 years 3% of the damage we fix via healthcare yearly, so these genocidal stoves are taken out and replaced with pressure cookers to protect our nation's greatest asset: public health. The first to BAN are all grilled/fried products, as they cause astronomical medical costs. Same for all high AGE food products, that is 80% of them, made so by poor processing. A huge reform needs to occur if we want national security: brains that work. No food in USA shall be cooked by any business in open dry air, the federal universal law applied to all 20000 villages or towns: science explains why. All barbecues and grills will become illegal, as well as their sale; initially the federal gov can impose a 500000$ tax on any barbecue sold, so that nobody can afford them and give $5000 out of the $10000 fine for using a barbecue, to the person reporting people using barbecue, which is an act of terrorism of the human quantum field, because it causes strokes, heart attacks, kidney failure, diabetes, Alzheimer. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Toasters, waffle makers, ovens to make deadly bakeries, breads, etc will be banned eventually, as much more science based cooking methods are perfected: puffed rice, grains etc have lower AGEs, since you don't subject milk fat etc to heat to mix with protein in the bread, etc. The issue is ☺abysmal IQ☺ folks, with 0 chemistry knowledge, decide our cooking methods. Already, Argentina is bankrupting many barbecue "evil" restaurants that delight in causing millions of small strokes and heart attacks for the glory of TASTE WORSHIP. All nations need immortalist governments who will dissolve (acquire and ban 99% of products, due to being unsafe, sell new Eterni Foods) KFC, McDonald's and 10,000 other Big Organized Crime companies that sell lethal foods, full of dry heat AGEs and "autism, epilepsy, schizophrenia, psychosis, leaky gut, IBS, microbiome destruction, neurodegenerative disease (dementia via dysbiosis), diabetes" causing WHEAT plus other GLUTEN RICH CEREALS. Table 1 shows Rice Krispies got 222 times more AGEs than rice cooked at home, AGEs that enable Aristocrats to Wage Genocidal War of Extermination and Destruction against the Working Class, AGEs that cause diabetes, Alzheimer, heart attack, blindness. Why can't TV teach cooking (electric pressure cooker does it for you) non gluten cereals pre soaked 3 hours to remove antinutrients, leaky gut causing lectins, trypsin inhibitors first? Because they want a sick USA, we need $1 trillion fines per Junk Food Company. TV has ads for 100 diabetes medicines to make Pharma CEOs build bigger palaces in Rancho Santa Fe, San Diego area, etc, but there is not even 1 ad about soaking grains to prevent leaky gut and avoiding gluten to prevent diabetes. No money made by the British genocidal aristocrats if the criminal government has ads that promote demand creation for much healthier grains like sorghum etc. Congress has no scientist almost, when it should be mostly science and engineering degrees, 95% of them, with all gov officials required to include 3 science papers in every social media post. Where are the science references in the Congress talks? They all work as slaves of Big Pharma (75% of Pharma world profits, 4% of population to finance PALACES in Mexican Cartel Style Trillion $ Thefts): no prevention, only cure to enrich the already super rich pigs, manage diabetes, never prevent it. Why is the TV-radio allowed to be run by Aristocratic Mafioso from UK? Radio-TV should be state controlled to ensure high IQ for the people. Is this slavery why we died in 1776 for? The TV should have 10 hours ethics min and 10 hours health nutrition related programs, with tons of videos, 300 science papers presented daily. Why can't we switch wheat crops to much healthier cereals or lentils? Because clowns are in power, that's why, cereals exist that are way healthier. The current genocidal food industry that never soaks wheat before they make the ultra lethal bread (that ignorant Jesus prayed to God to give to him) in burgers and all lethal bakery products and donuts, cookies sold tho the masses in USA and globally. All food can be cooked with pressure cookers, for min oxidation/arterial plaque, for a healthy nation with far less arterial fat that shrinks brains via lack of nutrients, due to 10 times lower blood flow harder to dupe by the UK. No ads exist for general safety, like how to prevent tick bites that lead to 300000 Lyme disease infections in US, etc. Nobody makes money if you don't get a disease. For profit TVs are a disaster, as they maximize deadly choices, not what increases lifespan of all. When you bought a house or pet, did gov educate you you can die from tick bites in your garden, that you need to follow specific steps if you garden to prevent bites?

Since cigarettes, high alcohol drinks create only damage to people and the rest have to pay 2 trillion to fix the damage done to society (we have limited resources, MDs, facilities, so if we use them to treat lung cancer from cigs, liver disease from alcohol, etc, we can't treat other stuff that we don't know yet how to prevent via tech) nicotine products and alcohol will be phased out and people given meditation classes, happy music, neuroscience gadgets to attain bliss instantly, without damaging their lungs, brains. Likewise, all alcoholic beverages banned unless they got high polyphenols (darkest wines), 0.1% max alcohol. For people with a prescription, stronger alcoholic beverage can be given, if proven 30 other methods didn't work to heal that. A national advertising campaign, on all TV stations broadcasts 50,000 violent incidents, drunk car crashes, tragedies tobacco, weed, alcohol cause to raise public support for their bans.

The laws protect 33 million aristocratic terror companies that sell devices that give everyone cancer and all chronic diseases, thru the free radical forming acrylamide generated by ovens and toasters. Why can't the government simply ban toasters, instead of telling people to not "use them too long"? Toasters/ovens are truly deadly, they form many toxic chemicals that destroy every organ via the blood, plus some damage happens directly to the lungs via polyaromatic hydrocarbons (PAHs the media always talks about) and other deadly volatile oven oxidation products that can pass into the blood directly bypassing digestion, wiping out our lungs more than even black mold everyone is familiar with, or gasoline car smog that does catastrophic damage to brain, heart, etc. Even waffle makers you find at many hotels at breakfast time, the black 9 inch diameter bakers with small trapezoidal shapes, are very bad, as the super hot surface burns in dry heat the bread to make poisons. All America's drastically lowered in average IQ by the pastors, queue like mindless pigs to eat the hotel toasted bread and waffles, addicted to some warmth that will deliver a deadly cocktail of well-deserved poisons for those too lazy to adhere to intellectual honesty and not checking if miracles are fake. With 1 million things that could happen when we die, they only consider one possibility, without any real evidence, except made up miracles. Natural selection of the least gullible: the toaster, oven and waffle machine companies are the new imams, pastors of old telling us "tall tales" about the magic or fake miracle of warm bread, its supernatural properties of shortening our lives, as Jesus the Con taught people "give us our daily bread, to rot our guts well". Lowest filif IQ folks don't get it: cookies, bakeries, pastries, breads are all cooked using dry heat and they ruin human health. I never eat bread, cookies, bakeries, pastries. Using colorful words draws the attention of many, providing a gentle jolt to make them read the science. When the ego is big, they get offended and will read the papers to see how they ate poisons for 50 years. The 0 IQ genocidal moms toast the bread, like the☺abysmal IQ☺ dads too, cause carcinogenic PAHs in the lungs of nearby noneaters who inhale the smell of death and in the bodies of those kids or adults low in IQ enough to eat the poisonous toasted bread. Compared to humans, rats, who live 40 times shorter, are ultra low IQ. Likewise, today's humans are versus 3200 year old humans ☺abysmal IQ☺. Let's raise our goals to the IQ to live to 3200 years old: the smartest man today has the IQ of the lowest IQ rat in the future world. Too many in our world get violent when being told what they're compared to 3200 year old humans of the future: lowest IQ folks, evil, selfish, scientifically illiterate, a chimp, peasant with 0 knowledge of physics, etc. Violent crime often happens because people have big egos and their "imperial self" gets offended someone reveals their chimp nature. One way to destroy this reactivity is to make all realize how ☺abysmal IQ☺ they and the smartest alive today are vs humans of the future, like cave men from 100000 years ago vs today. Like it or not, we're pretty unintelligent, descended from chimps, unable to comprehend infinity well yet. We know nothing, why get emotional? Human primates even pay top dollar and wait 20 minutes at Crispy Creme long queue that causes traffic jams to get the most lethal donuts, because their ant filif IQ brains didn't realize good sleep and meditation will give them far more pleasure and longevity than eating these lethal bakeries, pastries, breads from Jesus the Fake. They live to eat, instead of eating to live. Hence, everyone is getting fatter. We may become the first generation to live shorter than our ancestors, if current trends continue. Toad IQ☺☺☺ landlords even provide toasters in rentals, to wipe out the leftover brains in the tenant skulls.☺☺☺ During the state of emergency, we will require all TV stations to remind all of the proper cooking methods (pressure cooker under water, smoothie makers) and healthier foods, for 5 minutes every hour. The damage by all ovens and toasters far exceeds that of Hiroshima strike, yet nobody seems to make any noise about it, if anything all nations happy make toasters to shorten everyone's lifespans, with genocidal CEOs gladly enjoying their vacations, mansions built on mass murder. On top of that, the government is not explaining the advantages of cooking in water using pressure cookers vs dry heat of toasters or ovens. Dry heat is 100 times more cancer, yet is is sold as tasty by genocidal TV ads in a hydrid war of national extermination. The barbecue making and selling companies commit vast atrocities against the American people, as that dry heat is destroying the lungs of nearby people and the organs of the eaters. The companies and TV stations promoting cookware that is not sealed, promote a genocide of cosmic proportions, because the fumes go into the AC/central heat filter (FPR 12) and decrease its efficiency in filtering bioweapons, microbes spies spread, particulate matter 2.5+ µm, other pollutants via films that clog/disable the molecular structures that filter the deadly particulates that normally, in our filthy cities, shrink lifespan by 5-25 years. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

All these low IQ chefs on TV with their cooking shows, are destroying the lungs of the American people, if they don't promote sealed cooking under water, using modern electric pressure cookers that reduce fumes 900000 fold, especially if you vent it slowly (natural depressurization) or with glass above to condense the fumes and chemicals there. The government needs to regulate these ☺abysmal IQ☺☺☺ TV shows to ensure they're not causing 1 trillion dollars in preventable healthcare expenses that are a national security threat. ☺☺ Brain dead chefs ☺☺ showing adding endless spices to meals before cooking don't realize that shortens your lifespan, since cooking changes everything (for example: cooked onions stimulate platelet activity instead of preventing it like raw onion) and many polyphenols in spices turn into deadly compounds, as AGEs formed by heat mix in with the spice antioxidants. Add spices after cooking, and make a safer meal at home instead of watching 0 IQ 'sports', supporting 0 science restaurants made by greedy aristocratic gluttons or taste addicts. Cooking is needed for grains, legumes, meats, fish, etc. This dry heat is no different than the slaughter of billions using cell phones and wireless devices. That's why we need the Immortalist Party to win 5-99% of votes, so they can decide which laws are passed by siding with Re-pub-licans or Demon-crats on various issues and proposing new $900 billion fines on Big Food and Food Preparation (Toaster, Oven, Barbecue, Grill, etc) companies (foreign and local, charged in absence by US or International Criminal Court) that caused the equivalent of 1.44 billion adult killings, or 1.44 x 35 years= 50.4 billion lifespan years lost by 10 billion people who lived or still live in the last 125 years (5.04 years lost per person on average, some losing 40 years if eating daily plenty of the deadliest products). People thought WW2 Holocaust was bad, but look at these CEOs: 1.44 billion, besides the 9 million a year from tobacco and alcohol sales shoved down our throats via ads, which is another billion people killed last 200 years. Critics make fun of us when immortalists propose banning tobacco or alcohol sales, with lifetime labor for anyone caught distributing them, but look at the numbers, 1 billion dead, and realize happiness is 1 million times higher by breathing or meditation. This will force the companies to trim CEO pay, from 1000 times the minimum wage to 2-5 times more, in line with the Immortality Credit Score system of immortalist capitalism. Likewise, the astronomical salaries of thousands of parasitic time wasting redundant managers of so many food companies will be trimmed dramatically to be able to pay the fines. Thus, the Eternal Food Inc☺☺☺, can then buy the bankruptcy filing companies easily and hire the tech people deemed to have more ethics or new graduates, while some companies vanish over 30 years, being replaced with a far more ethical and 500 times more high tech alternative. If a cooking method produces smell, it is highly toxic. To retain nutrients, you need cook under water and well sealed, like in a Walmart electric pressure cooker that keeps all smell away. Eternal Utility Inc will use same fine method of the Department of Justice to take care of Big Microwave Polluters. Israel, France ban WiFi for toddlers, but Jewish and other aristocratic CEOs encourage gentiles to use wireless WiFi, cell phones as much as possible via their silence about the catastrophic effects of RF. Elon Musk, who pretends to be anti-Jewish, has in the back seat of many Teslas microwave levels 70000 times higher than many cars, where the child baby seat is. Another genocide of newer Tesla drivers (new Teslas got high levels), see also Peter Thiel Musk friend alleged genocide of blacks and 'Nazism'. Thiel, born in Germany, and Vance supporter, claims to want to remove FDA and run USA via a few monopilies (sort of like the 11 companies perhaps?) so more people are poisoned by Big Junk Food. While in public he pretends to be right-wing Nazi, he may be a leftist who wants strong regulation for the only companies in USA: the 11 companies, regulation by the management and the Immortality Nurturing Agency. To avoid assassination, he poses as a right wing guy? Who knows?

We can argue that Europe's 2 superpowers, Germany and France, are not where Europe could be if the 1450 German banks and all other EU banks became One European Eterni Bank and if all 5 million contractors became one efficient Immortality Building Inc. Aristocratic terrorism rules uncontensted in the EU, just like in the USA and most nations. In Germany, refugees and immigrants who thought Germany will give them everything without them knowing language or having a job, are 5 times more likely to be homeless. Even local Germans are homeless in Europe's "superpower". All that German and Australian beer, coffee must have helped, those pubs, to build housing and empathy: 123K homeless in 2021. French wine too has taken endless workers from housing, towards grapes and wine stores: 330K homeless in 2022. Kind indeed. We could say even Christian, how "holy to drink wine while others are homeless". A true level of national unity and unity consciousness. On top of that police, spies, soldiers torture millions. Why renovate houses and provide decent shelter, when they can exterminate people? After all, that's what taxes are for, genocide of the people by the government the people trust. In our society rockets and nuclear fission or fusion plants are taken care of by experts, specialists, post docs, PhDs and they give us amazing electricity, or travel 9000 times faster than nature. Food is left to peasants, and people hope to live 9000 times longer than nature? For food, that we know from bees can help you live 40 times longer starting from the same genes, we allow all ☺ abysmal IQ☺ clueless folks to prepare food in their kitchen, instead of having 90000 teams of Eterni Food Inc☺☺☺ to develop 90000 products, distributed for free to 90 million people, nice mixes to dissolve in water and test the biomarker effects and bring 500 year lifespans. Each house is like a pig's den, where 'masticating 0 IQ bipedal gorillas' prepare the most toxic foods in dry heat, to inhale the most carcinogenic kitchen smells (it if smells, it's bad; cook it in water), eat the tastiest most lethal foods, destroy their blood vessels, lungs, brains and hearts, like ☺ abysmal IQ☺ from the most depressing movie with bipedal pitbulls too selfish and too much into "having his own 0 IQ small business" to cooperate and create high tech food industry not based on taste, color, texture and smell, but based on what helps your 20000 longevity biomarkers improve the most. Hey, they call this "barbecue or fried foods or etc culture", but we can call it national suicide. What a comedy. The companies make deadly products that are filled with carcinogenic colors and taste enhancing products, to make us overeat until we burst and become overweight/obese. The pig houses (sort of like open defecation pits near kitchen in 1848) use stone age building tech, because everyone wants to be a big aristocrat and have his own small business, so we have 1 million times fewer research scientists in our housing (or food) companies than we would with Immortality Building Inc or Eterni Food Inc.☺ This leads to regress and falling way behind "centralist few companies high research" nations. The toilets have no leak sensors, feces build up with urine between floors often due to lack of maintenance and monitoring sensors, the caulking wears off, urine and feces leak on the floor slowly in the baths and as vapors thru the inner walls to all vent to wall gaps and sink or tub overflow holes, to gently poison the pigly capitalist residents, who forgot the inner virtuous health building beauty of the immortalist residents embracing immortalist capitalism. Selfishness and lack of moisture sensors, mold sensors, high tech building preventing mold, etc, take us into a black hole of black, green, yellow or grey mold in every house in the interior walls after 4 months that blissfully comes into the air via the tub/sink openings, via the AC vents sometimes if a leak at duct to vent or vent to wall (super common, see gaps in most houses, lack of caulking, of joint compound, etc) connections exists, since we're too busy masticating and shouting "capitalism is king" to have any high tech housing that prevents any mold, leaks, etc. Individual room AC is much better, as ducts can't spread pathogens in the whole house, reinfect residents with last year's flu, cold, COVID microbes, that remain in some dormant mutating state, or mold from the inner walls. Family is first, say the Re-pub-licans, and eternal wars among families is the Rule of Capitalism, no cooperation to create a national family of teleporting shimmering shapeshifting Immortals we all work for. When all can take any shape, skin, hair, eye color in minutes, what is there to be "different, proud about", to die for? When an offspring can be materialized by 8 billion parents via matter precipitating rays, what is family? There is only 1 family, humans, no more tribes, castes, aristocratic classes, pompous ceremonies. "Sectarianism, tribalism to the max, my family first, everyone else goes to hell, cheat all families you can, profit is all that matters." This mentality makes it hard to achieve World Peace in even 5 trillion years.

Dishwashers are an expression of aristocratic wasteful ☺abysmal IQ☺, because an advanced society has Eterni Foods dissolved in water and swallowed as a thick liquid, only washes that container in 2 seconds right after as a truly kind non lazy person who won't waste endless materials for a dishwater that could be used to build a biomarker monitoring machine to help 1 million guys live to 200. Imagine if all dishwashers were medical devices, by now we would live to 150. When filif mollusk IQ☺☺☺ folks rule, ☺☺☺, all businesses make is plates, forks, knives, pots. When immortalists rule, people focus on eterni foods while using electric pressure cookers in the transition period to the Eterni Foods era, since stoves are deadly, especially gas ones.

Since barbecues, alcohol do more damage (loss of lifespan years) to USA than 900K dead due to 9 Hiroshima size nukes, it is the duty of the national security agencies to stop this HYBRID WAR that demolishes our nation. Given the public health burden from barbecues ALONE, which means adding trillions to our national debt, it is a good idea for immortalist governments to BAN

THE SALE of all barbecues (which brainwash people to eat burned blood), air fryers, pots, pans, anything used for cooking, unless it is a 100% sealed, under pressure system, electric, that prevents the loss of nutrients via immersion in water and 0 contact with oxygen (except a little air between the lid and water). A pot with meat boiling in water still allows more oxygen to get in, unlike a pressure cooker. A pressure cooker prevents the oxygen from reacting with the food, and thus prevents the formation of 1. ultra lethal AGEs that destroy kidneys, pancreas, neurons, bloos vessels, 2. oxidized cholesterol, 3. oxidized fats which can lead to 100 times more arterial plaque than regular fats, regular fats which themselves can lead to 114 times more plaque in individuals with certain genes or diets, 4. oxidized cholesterol leading to 12 times the plaque in the unborn baby (moms destroying kid before he's born even by bad cooking methods). For too long, peasants, ☺abysmal IQ buffoons☺, self-appointed CELEBRITY CHEFS with anti-eterni tones AND ideas from "Satan himself", have committed genocide on TV-radio and book aisles with their filif IQ and Baboon IQ cooking methods that destroy our bodies from within, sometimes even promoting alcohol in these same frog IQ shows. Barbecues (humans eat animals living 4 times shorter) are like aliens who live to 320, 4 times longer than us, eating humans, fried humans, in their backyard, since cows live 4 times shorter, 20 naturally. How would you enjoy seeing you or your kids being tasty food for aliens? Such displays of violent crime of 'almost chimp cannibalism', that barbecues are, ought to be made illegal by planetary agreement, to bust bloodshed worship once and for all. All that alcohol from cooking shows and wine tasting celebrity "experts" whose empathy has disappeared without a trace due to a chemical reaction in their brain, has disabled to ability to realize that those useless materials used to build useless barbecues could have produced decent homes for the homeless and overcrowded and reduced a lot of violence stemming from ghetto areas. How many cooking devices do we need today? Only 1, a pressure cooker that can reach 240°F (if vegan you only need a regular pressure cooker, as higher heat makes more AGEs, don't ever add fatty foods in a pressure cooker if vegan, to outlive omnivores due to less AGEs) or 355°F or the default 320°F (see page 10) Ovate from GoWiseUSA for omnivores who're slowly transitioning to Veganism (most on the market reach only 240°F, which may not be ideal for some fish parasites, etc). For making smoothies, buy a food processor, we don't need anything else really. Anything else is far more toxic and ought to be banned. Toasters, air fryers and dry heat appliances are Pure Poison and Ought to be banned. Roasting nuts creates lethal fats, ban them all. We eat to live, we don't live to eat. ☺☺☺ Not to mention, the insane level of materials wasted to make ovens that are 20 times bigger than a pressure cooker and all kinds of ventilation sucking, etc is atrocious to say the least. Those who're selfish, and give no dime about others, will suffer the consequences: more violent crimes from ghetto areas spreading everywhere. Where is the empathy after so much alcohol in the world? Empathy has vanished without a trace, look at the world, young people waste 3 years to find a decent rental and 15 to buy a trashy house, thanks to predatory capitalism.

Smell of burned meat triggers the ancient DNA memory of primate era when we ate fire cooked meats and were of an IQ so abysmal, that it defies description; thus these practices take us into quantum entanglement with that 0 IQ. Governments can give or require contractors to place free electric pressure cookers in each new or remodel home (the 0 IQ system has an AGE spewing, trillion $ wasting oven in every house; ovens ought to be banned, since pressure cookers can reach 370F too and kill pathogens as fast), so people cook in water and diminish AGE formation 10-100 fold, to save the planet and evolve us past glorifying our ☺abysmal IQ☺ and inability to create eterni powders, which when dissolved in water, would enable us to live 10,000 times longer, as rockets allow us to travel 10,000 times faster than nature allowed us to. Do we want to remain cannibal baboons eating corpses, or evolve? Allegedly, Jesus taught abstinence from meat and alcohol, but the emperors changed the scriptures, due to being addicted to both. Follow Jesus, not 'Satan'. How can anyone invent anything great, when their brains are destroyed completely by AGEs? By the polyaromatic hydrocarbons coming from cooking pots? Pressure cookers make no fumes to damage your brain, every organ, blood vessel. Immortalists can only cook using pressure cookers, out of kindness for OTHERS, to avoid being a burden due to aging faster via fried foods. Terrorists barbecue, for it is written "He who kills an ox, is as if he killed a man" Isai 66:3. ☺☺ Indeed, the Mighty God or Law of Chemistry always wipes out such beasts with the chemicals from that meat, like oxidized cholesterol, which is 100 times more deadly than oxidized vegan fat. He will even wipe them out via conversion or other ways, to finally end their evil terror of the planet. The blood lust and animal blood drinking inspires their violent brains to torture, kill, lie, steal. Jesus ate meat in the fake Gospel, so he was a true blood drinking lover, and wanted people to celebrate him by simulating cannibalism daily. His IQ so low, he couldn't imagine one day science will enable us to no longer eat animals or plants. Jesus was a fraudster, a vampire. He lied that 5000 loaves of bread were materialized, because he could not precipitate protein in his body, without eating food, he could not materialize 1 mg of a happy chemical in all world leaders to avoid all wars last 2 millennia or even during his life, he could not extend his life 2 millennia to keep everyone peaceful by his neurochemicals materializing in the brains of angry leaders about to wage wars. He could not turn even angry rabbis into peaceful people via materializing a chemical in their brains, and got killed for his lies and useless agitation. Jesus was no God☺☺, a God needs no food☺☺, he can materialize nutrients in his bloodstream directly; the ascension story was made up. Jesus also showed lack of knowledge of protein in vegan foods, lack of compassion for the animals killed to fill his bloodthirsty appetite. As a cruel pretentious low IQ liar who didn't know even 5th grade chemistry, he had no deep knowledge of the universe either. All the saint miracles were fraud, they were made up to create converts out of gullible people. ☺ Relax, don't stress, Jesus may be 100% fictional, a made up story for Jews or Italians to take over the world. Above all, don't stress to eat meat just because "Jesus ate meat", you may live longer anyway. The highest homicides rates states are mostly Republican, filled with belief in violent con artist Jesus, who said he came to bring a sword, not peace, see his bad quotes here. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

One of the most visible reforms of the Immortalist Party is the hourly 3 minute broadcast on TV-radio of the horrific effects of polyaromatic hydrocarbons (PAHs), heterocyclic amines, acrylamide and other deadly compounds created by toasting, frying, boiling without sealed lids, and open air cooking, at home, barbecues, restaurants. People will be informed that these compounds destroy not only the eaters of the food, but also, anyone nearby who inhales these carcinogenic PAHs, etc, which cause LUNG CANCER and are as deadly as smoking. One of the biggest frauds in modern history is that run by aristocratic terrorists in charge of 30 million restaurants worldwide: they somehow managed to brainwash workers and frequent visitors that only smoking is REALLY BAD, but the "ultra toxic fumes in many restaurants are not". Nothing can be further from the truth: while you may not get lung cancer right away as when you smoke 2 packs a day, there are thousands of ways in which damage can be done via free radicals to every organ of the kids and adults in a household where they never ventilate well, and, like 99% of American households, the cooking causes smells, PAHs, to enter all rooms and hallways due to the incredibly ☺abysmal IQ☺ idea of central heat/AC, low FPR filters (ultra low quality FPR 4-8 filters, not 12, replaced 3-9 months instead of every 3 weeks), central AC vents which allow mold and bacterial mold biofilm to establish itself over 50 feet of ducts and to reinfect people with flu, COVID, cold, etc. Any parent who loves their kids needs to use a pressure cooker to submerge all food in water, minimize oxygen contact, to prevent the formation of these lethal volatiles and depressurize everything slowly. Otherwise, you literally cause your kid to live shorter, you commit a very subtle violent crime against the lung, blood vessels and every organ of the kid with those volatile smelly compounds. As a result of your kid's IQ being lower, when you're old, he won't be able to take care of you, as you have destroyed his brain for 18 years of his life with your "toad IQ"☺ desire to make "tasty, not healthy" food, due to being shown cooking methods by "filif hookworm IQ" chefs on TV, wanna be chemists who don't know anything about biochemistry. In order for anyone to teach cooking on TV, they need to get a Masters degree in Eterni Tone Speaking/Writing & PhD in the Chemistry and Biochemistry of Immortalist Cooking. The Immortality Nurturing Agency needs to ban all cooking appliances known to form lethal compounds, like air fryers, toasters, grills, barbecues, etc, and ban all restaurants whose cooking methods cause the air inside to contain known toxic compounds, by simply inspecting randomly and then fining them $50-50000 million for a terrorist attack on the human quantum field, by selling toxic food with lung destroying fumes inside the building. The fine☺☺☺ will cause the restaurant aristocrat serial killers of unsuspecting workers to sell it, it is absorbed by Eterni Food Inc to create an eating area where no fumes exist at all, as cooking is separate from eating. Using mass produced big 50-100 liter electric cookers, they feed all in ways 100 times less toxic, enabling all to live to 99, not just the evil aristocrats laughing all the way to the 4500 banks. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Likewise, the Immortality Nurturing Agency☺☺ will test all solid deodorants for carcinogenic aluminum and other volatile lethal chemicals (for sprays) known to be toxic or even to be used by foreign nations as hybrid war to destroy the brains, vessels, organs of the American and other peoples. As such, all deodorants and beauty products will be made in USA and tested 900 times more, as explained in the Eternal Beauty Inc section on perfumes and the like. 'Panda IQ'☺☺☺ parents use a deodorant spray daily, and then those chemicals make the kid live 1 year shorter, IQ drop 5 points. Why on Earth do people use deodorant for every day? You don't need it. Just shower and lose weight, you will sweat 100 times less and live 10 years longer too. I understand a little bit for a special event once a year or decade, but daily? It's just pure suicide. We got too many lawyers, accountants, HR, economists, judges, and too few chemists and physicists. It's unbelievable how naive people are to imagine the aristocrats did 1000 tests and studies on the poisons they use to make sure they don't shorten lifespan and etc. Aristocrats worship money, and a 5-300 people company is not a 1,000,000 employee Eternal Beauty Inc with 40000 PhDs with soap, shampoo, etc products that add 50 years to your lifespan. Aristocrats only know theft, so the 5-300 people company is more like a chariot versus a superluminal intergalactic craft. What do we choose as a nation? Truth or the lies of aristocrats?☺☺☺

Eventually, Americans and people worldwide, due to increasing self-reflection and empathy, will wonder why in the world we have these gigantic kitchens that waste huge amounts of materials and electricity, gas resources, when the healthiest cooking method is all done with a pressure cooker (that replaced 25 cooking appliances) and food processor for fresh smoothies, and also why we built 30 million restaurants to eat tortured and killed animals, when we could cook much healthier meals at home and use those restaurant materials to create eterni food research centers and housing for the poor living in horrible conditions, to end the suffering of tiny animals killed by omnivore or even vegan agriculture. Let's be kind to plants and find new ways to reduce pain, increase bliss and happiness for all sentient beings. Let's recall, instead of 30 million places of worship, we can build single family homes for all, so each home is a temple. The trend towards consolidation and 11 companies worldwide, first 11 companies in every nation then they all merge, seems to be taking off: Australia restaurants are going bankrupt in 2024 causing more mergers, finally. This will increase efficiency and allow people to live longer, lose weight, learn a thing about chemistry and nutrition, end aristocratic terrorism. It's odd how people all over want to save companies and industries that produce the most toxic food products like potato chips, peanut butter, all kinds of processed foods. Why can't people just eat these things in a smoothie (fruits and greens) or steam or cook them at home in minutes in a pressure cooker (2 min for veggies)? It makes no sense to waste so much energy to take a food and increase its toxic AGE level 10-500 times above the home cooking level. Worse off is the absolutely genocidal idea of Australia importing ultra processed oils/foods, when we know walnuts, etc they export are much healthier than this imported junk. It seems like saboteurs, selective killers (junk processed foods for minorities or worker class to exterminate them by brain damage) or those without much nutrition knowledge run Australia's food strategy.

We need to dissolve all state and city governments, in all countries, install the centralist immortalist system. A central government achieves much better results thru its offices in states and cities than 20000 city governments in 20000 cities, villages, states. It's efficiency. 11 companies achieve more with less staff than 33 million companies, allowing us 40 million new research jobs to bring long lives for all. Re-pub-licans are for "give power to states, cities and small government, 44 million companies", but this only creates a much bigger total government where parasites who want a relaxing high benefit job go work for the small city gov reinventing things and acting busy, while delivering poor service: see today endless houses flooding everywhere, due to aristocratic city/state officials who can't require houses to be lifted 6 ft above street level, but they spend billions on sports each year, gyms, school sports, etc, wasting equivalent of 10 million full time construction worker hours in their "evil hobby of being a selfish pig who doesn't care about others being flooded". The irony is the "small gov" proponents create a much bigger government than would be possible with centralism. The jungle of the private sector can't do anything to self-regulate, when 1 million food companies fight and gov is too small to inspect 1 million companies. You know, as a regulator, you got to discover what went thru the minds of 5 million food engineers ad process, delivery designers in 1 million companies, but if it is one company, there are only a few designers of the major processes, 5000 and they all work on the same major guidelines, so you have 1 million times better control of quality, ethics and know what goes on, as all follow same principles. It's 1 million times easier to avoid a jungle of fraud and chaos. The only solution to health based choices is 1 gov company owning, reforming all major food companies, merging them into various brands, creating much healthier brands, closing down toxic restaurant chains, remodeling restaurants into housing or into healthy new brands, etc. It helps to abolish the monarchy in all nations (not just Australia), declare the Immortality for All gov, independence like US did. Monarchy is anti-immortalism.

Let every ☺☺☺"tired, exhausted, brainwashed, lied to, cheated by aristocracy, worker" know that all cooking needs to occur in water, using a sealed pressure cooker to reduce oxygen reactions and oxygen availability 8000 fold. Did you know that normal cooking releases carcinogenic pan coating fumes that never happens during pressure cooking under water? Water covers the food prevents oxygen-food contact. This way, you can live longer, boost brain health and defeat the Aristocratic Terrorists who have milked us dry, beaten us for 30 millennia. Kindly compassionately watch the 0 IQ diet of the UK Royal Family: 1. aluminum foil placed in the over to leak aluminum (t=677s, 677 seconds within the video) and damage the brain of the royals and then the meat cooked in very dry heat to form AGEs that cause brain damage and endless homeless in the UK thru royal policies of toad IQ. 2. the dry heat again (t=1201 in case video gets deleted, you can find it on other channels), the boiling of plums to destroy polyphenols, go into making a very toxic ice cream, full of cholesterol that clogs the brain arteries and prevents blood flow, leading to the brain atrophy and the pathological desire of CIA-MI6 to destroy the brains of millions of people via their weapon systems. Ice cream they make is truly toxic, being a mix of ultra high cholesterol eggs, cream and pure sugar, that goes to destroy the brains of the UK and the entire planet. The odd thing is that we have the 0 IQ UK royals who not only don't ban ice cream, world's most toxic food almost, but eat it and show on youtube their happy eating of millions of pus cells from milk, as we explained in the vegan section on the diseases cow milk causes. Nobody needs ice cream folks, you can make a vegan one if you truly like it, but extreme cold or hot foods damage your oral and throat tissues, so ice cream is not a good idea as it is much colder than the 40°F lentils or etc from a fridge. Immortalists want to ban ice cream gradually, by explaining to people the damage done by very cold foods, by sugar, by pathogens in cow milk, etc. 3. the 0 IQ chef is wasting time to make shapes and what not, and then cooks the bread in oil in dry air (t=1503s), oxygen contact, to form truly lethal compounds that cause endless wars worldwide, as the UK royal brain can't conceive of World Peace in 3 months. 4. watch how eggs, cream, mashed potato, bread muffin is placed in the oven to create endless carcinogenic (t=2331s) compounds, toxic AGEs that then give poor decisions for the entire world. Again, ovens are lethal. Note how all their chefs don't look healthy, but overweight, some huge belly, showing that they don't eat healthy. If any links disappear, due to some youtubes being taken down in private accounts, etc, you can simply search youtube for "the chef of the UK royal family food preparation" and find these things. The four 1 minute segments above are from the same youtube, with the times to watch the exact 4 worst places, so you don't waste 48 minutes to watch that same long video present on endless youtube channels, like this one too. Even a 4th grader today can create a healthier cooking method for any family by reading this book than the Royal Chefs. The list of 1st grader cuisine mistakes is endless, you can see it on youtube.

In the UK, mindless adulation of the Royals is or seems to be the only requirement for promotion. Every TV station, government news site, etc broadcasts useless news about royals, irrelevant to the lifespan shortening by 30 years by UK Royal policies. Plus, they never mention the cruel laws the UK Royal Family passed thru the centuries, listed in these 4 pages. Who fought all wars? The Royal families all over the world, until recently when the slightest democracy emerged with republics. Behold the care of the Japanese Royal family ruled society with 10 million empty housing units, yet these people being homeless in Tokyo, what kind of civilization and Japanese cruelty is that? Oddly, a guy recruited as a spy by Japan gets a 6000$ home, but the locals who built Tokyo are left to live in tents on the street. You thought homeless people exist only in the Western selfish societies, or UK Royal family run society? Science doesn't matter. The 0 IQ Anglican Church matters. The UK Anthem itself is all about God bless the Queen, the people don't matter, they don't need be blessed. Likewise, in Australia, UK citizens are given preference to immigrate, etc, it's not merit based, just UK Royalism promotion based. You get my drift. People will say Queen Elizabeth lived to 96, etc, because of their healthy food. No, it's not, they lived long in spite of, not because of their bad diet, and due mainly to the entourage ensuring they got regular sleep hours, no stress, while millions of others are tortured or even blown by gun, or microwave, infrasound or other types, not left to sleep well for years. You know, if you sit around doing nothing except some vacations to other countries during "state visits" and no stress happens, anyone can live to 100 even. That's not progress, we want 5 billion to live to 140 ideally, not just 5 people to 102. We need unite USA, UK, Canada, Aussie, NZ in one super efficient Eternia country, with one accent central education, 11 companies. If UK doesn't want to abolish royals, then the other 4 can do it alone first. No royals, because the immortalist government is made of dozens of leaders, who can rotate, each a few years, based on who is the best, not who is part of a biological family. Plus we love young people, who have much bigger brains than old people, and have far higher ability to innovate. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Go to every supermarket, you find cow milk, same thing in 9000 packages, instead of having 5 different eterni milks, totally different than toxic cow milk in 5 packages. All human energy is wasted in greed, flashy packs, deception, TV ads, looping, stagnating. Entire generations of youngsters forced to become ☺abysmal IQ☺ folks who innovate nothing. All due to greed. Let's stop it. Oh, they will say, come on Alex, we got rice "milk", almond "milk", and soy "milk". Rice milk is pure trash, just has a little carbs, 0 useful fat and the lowest score amino acid score you can find, though a little higher than the ultra pathetic soy milk score of 25, worse than most fruits and etc that have no protein. Oat milk is a little better, but that useful fat oxidizes so fast like cow milk (light in the store also can wipe out vitamin A, D added), giving you arterial plaque, stroke, infarct, death. Nut milks are mostly fat (like cow milk), that sits oxidizing there on the shelf and becomes ever more lethal daily.☺☺☺ Soy, cow, nut milks got AGEs formed during processing, pasteurization forms AGEs. On top of that, all liquid milks will oxidize and rot fast 100s of other molecules on the shelf, requiring huge transport costs. Why not create 5 unique powders and dissolve those at home in water: vitamins and nutrients are 900 times more stable in solid form. Would you gently prefer to transport yourself with a chariot made by 2 people from a pygmy tribe (they live to 40 max, IQ low) or by a Tesla or rocket made by the efforts of 10 million engineers who worked on cars or spacecraft for 150 years? Do you want to eat a milk any filif IQ guy can milk by massaging the breasts of a cow, 1 person, or a food produced by 10 million PhDs and engineers? One food will help you live 8000 times longer, just as a rocket can help you travel 8000 times faster. It's the difference between egotism & altruism, hell & heaven, between 33 million "companies" in USA and only 800, between "finance, marketing, spam, deception" economics and "RESEARCH based" economics or innovation based economics or immortality capitalism. Look at the US military, you see the same "marketing type of deceiving, 'fooling around' and acting busy" military: endless officers (20% of 1.3 million) or "managers" of "enlisted forces" for 0 innovation: give orders, shout, torture, kill in training, be tough, physical exertion, physical fitness, HAVE NO BRAINS, no good sleep for true creativity, no relaxation for true innovation. Yelling and Muscle Power, no brains needed. Wake up, the US military is a reflection of the US entire system: total ☺abysmal IQ☺. There is a high number of "managers", nothing getting done innovation wise, except of course, torturing 'trainees' to death, permanent brain/organ damage, eternal slave status. If we want progress, we need real centralization, which may take 10+ years. 33 million companies to 800 in 1 year is hard.

We need to kindly end the genocidal "cook in oil" traditions (in 200 nations) that cause strokes, heart attacks, kidney/pancreas/liver failure, diabetes killing 9 million each year. Smoking was a great tradition that most MDs (smokers themselves) vowed was harmless in 1950s. Go figure. USA immortalists need to ban added sugars, added food colors, added texture enhancers, oils (unless high ω3 oils some people need) and thus avoid: 1 million kidney transplants, 10 million diabetes cases, 10 million heart attacks, 4 million strokes. Plain and simple. This trash food processing they do is ultra low tech and has nothing to do with an orders of magnitude more high tech eterni food industry that depends on ultra fast (new methods of chemical synthesis, even using new physics, that do it in 1 step of 1 hour, not 90 steps of 3 months or biosynthesis) chemical synthesis of similar or improved natural proteins, carbs, fibers known to help the most. All nations need to ban carbonated beverages and the toxic Coke, Pepsi poisons the British Americans have 'generously' exported to destroy all nations' health. This acidic pH causes endless dental problems, systemic infections, and stomach acidity that wipes out lifespans, it's a genocide. Likewise, all candy companies need to be dissolved, as their only achievement is genocide by dental infections and dental problems that seep bacteria into the blood and cause rapid systemic inflammation and early death due to mercury amalgam used for fillings and gum disease. The state enemy is from within: it is the filif locust IQ☺☺☺ food company managers who create the most lethal products to destroy the human quantum field and human DNA. All kids need to be taught to eat 3-4 times daily and brush teeth right after using alkaline mouthwash, and never keep candy in mouth or crush it as it will damage the enamel and cause short lives. The Holocaust done by cookie companies (oxidized oils with ω6) is so big, some serious action needs to be taken, as most cookies, cakes and biscuits are highly useless and toxic foods: ban them all perhaps. Everyone is so fat almost due to the culture that revolves around EATING, tasty poisonous foods instead of meditation, loud chat over beer instead of zen silence or eterni breathing, introspection, etc. This rush to do stuff doesn't give people enough time to relax, to sleep and they thus gain weight fast. After all, they shorten our lifespan, so we need immediate action against these thugs making everyone fat. They focus on flavor, color, texture, addiction to the sweetness, creating lethal foods. There is no regulation, the companies cause trillions spent in healthcare, huge human resources wasted to fix the damage, to manage the sick people. Anyone who knows how high the toxic fat/sugar content is in most products, realizes US will need to modify the recipe of millions of products or ban them. When we visit a grocery store in USA, we have thousands of products now, instead of a ready made powder to dissolve in water, 500 types of powders, each with different combos and vitamin levels, etc. ☺☺

In supermarkets, the flowers section takes 10 times the space of vitamins section, indicating how much we love to trash nutritional health, for some ☺abysmal IQ☺ romantic tradition of giving flowers, all because Dutch colonizers produce a lot of flowers and love exporting their crap to us, instead of high tech foods that double our lifespan. We don't need your flowers Netherlands, you're the cruel exporter of more than half flowers worldwide, you cut endless flowers, causing pain for poor plants and polluting the human quantum field, wasting endless energy for conditioned transport of flowers, while billions lack nutritious food (blueberries, etc) that could boost innovation and brain health. There is a nicer simpler healthier way to bring nice smells and images, thru science of holograms and perfumes, not torture of plants. Immortalists are for hologram flowers or paper made flowers or some other paintings of flowers, etc, to avoid the suffering of sentient plants, in line with high tech goals for eterni foods made without torture of plants or animals. We don't need violence against flowers, endless energy wasted to transport flowers worldwide to and from Netherlands (tires of all cars emit toxic particles that destroy our lungs, gas cars create smog). Instead, we want LIFE, the end of Nazism, of violence, of murder of innocent people you enslaved/killed, of murder of humans that destroys the human quantum field. Why can't people simply plant a flower in the backyard and leave it at that, stop buying flowers, use those 300000 acres to grow blueberries (or fruit trees that kill no plants) or stuff that is healthier and much needed until they make by synthesis all those polyphenols. Give your spouse some supplement, since most people are highly deficient in something. The immortalists will raise taxes on flower import tarrifs to 3000% and ban the cultivation of flowers in the USA, to make space for decent single family homes, desperately needed crops (blueberries, walnuts) eterni food research centers. Why have fewer companies? Fewer admin jobs, more high tech jobs so our beans/lentils sorting equipment can remove stones, twigs, glass pieces better. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

I went to Aldi Virginia and bought some lentils, and found a sharp piece of glass (see pic), that had a radius twice that of a lentil, and could have destroyed someone's gums, throat and stomach, digestive track, if they would have chewed or swallowed it. Thankfully, I always soak lentils first and this time I poured them slowly, 1 bag at a time in the pot of the pressure cooker. Avoid Aldi lentils of the Dakota's Pride brand, that come from Canada, look shriveled and unhealthy and are a testament of why America totally fails. We got German companies like Aldi and Lidl to come to USA and give us cheap products with glass (see picture) and etc in them, we Americans are too low in IQ to create our own efficient Immortality Markets with universal identical prices in all 50 states. Why are Americans so low in IQ? Instead of one market that has it all, we need to go to 3 grocery stores and waste our time. The trash US brand Springfield is full of stones too, some quite sharp and ready to crack teeth. This is due to lack of science and engineering jobs to create good sorting machines. The Dutch-Belgian Ahold-Delhaize, a symbol of aristocratic terror, owns the Giant supermarkets (ripoff vs Walmart) in 6 Northeast states, Washington DC, etc, because we Americans are too low IQ to create Eterni Food Inc, that has it all at lower prices than Walmart, Giant, Aldi, Lidl, etc? All we get on radio-TV is the lowest IQ music ever created, to lower our IQ and turn us into slaves. Pure Nazism. The Dutch and many nations, own millions of acres of US farm land, making you wonder about the IQ level of the Americans. Canada alone owns 14 million acres, and it's basically the UK King who owns that as they own Canada. USA is a slave colony or not? Aristocrats own our land, but they tell us we don't have space for single family housing or etc. The USA needs to charge foreigners a 9000% tax for owning farm land in USA. The criminal big American companies, like Popeye's, McDonald's, KFC export poisons worldwide, and defame the USA with their genocides via ultra fried foods that clog arteries, cause strokes, heart attacks, etc. This Nazi behavior will only invite war upon our shores. The poor eat that junk and the aristocrats laugh all the way to their demonic banks. When will a real American revolution occur, peacefully, to rid ourselves of these parasites who sucked our blood dry for 5 centuries. Sadly, many US supermarket chains are also symbols of aristocratic parasitism and they're way more expensive than Walmart or many cheap markets, even when the product is identical. The sale of a similar item at much higher prices (we see 5 times higher 3 miles away, same item) would draw 50$ billion fines if 8000 products are found to use that tactic, even before salaries are more equal by federal law. This enables Eterni Food Inc to take over parasitic chains building huge wealth for parasitic shareholders, owners, which then support parasitic industries (luxury useless goods, we got infinite numbers of low IQ folks, the 5%, buying endless useless stuff that reinforces our low tech status of world losers) that sink our nation into ☺abysmal IQ☺, low tech, eternal wars due to aristocrats. It's shocking to see how crowded our scientists are, how homeless scientists, engineers, teachers can be, yet these greedy thieves, using the system to loot everyone, build gigantic cellars for wine, have millions of RV campers sitting empty while others live in tents, endless luxury goods (cars, boats, yachts, gigantic mansions that waste space and materials better used for research centers, so we have 0 unemployment as with the 11 companies) that don't take any high tech or expertise to build, only material wasting and retard our nation into 3rd world status. It's these greedy parasitic thieves (who think they work 500000 times more than others to get 50000 times the pay) that we need to go after, the real perpetrators of crime and endless wars over resources we don't need with a little ethics of nonkilling, of compassion for all workers, of tech research to find alternative resources and technologies that remove the need for resource wars. And no, they're not just the 0.1%, it's more, parasitism is done by about 15% in tiny or huge forms. The 0.1% are fiendish conmen who corrupt the 15% to become parasites too and be their army.☺☺

In Australia, labeling is very weak, as slaves don't count, they don't even list inactive ingredients on vitamins, etc, only the active ones. To get all ingredients, you need to go to some special site, that is often offline, and enter a 6 digit medicine number written in tiny digits on the bottle, to get some page, then download a PDF, to finally get the ingredients. It's another example of British exceptionalism: remove all info and keep the masses enslaved by the UK Royals totally ignorant of what they're ingesting, have them go thru endless loops to find the list of inactive ingredients listed by other nations on the label. Type any supplement on Amazon.com search box and then do the same on Amazon.com.au and see 10-50 times fewer entries on Amazon Australia. This is a preview of how a small nation has fewer choices, they only sell for example some forms of K_2, not all 3 forms found in natural foods, same for B_{12} (one not all 3), etc. More on why this happens is in the immigration section, where we discuss merging Australia and USA. In the United Subjugation of Americans, USA, or UK colony # 2, companies can write "reducing sugar" or "sugar alcohol" or $HO\text{-}CH_2\text{-}(CHOH)_n\text{-}CH_2\text{-}OH$, n=2-4 in the ingredients list, but this can mean many compounds, such as the widely known sorbitol, xylitol, erythritol. This deceptive rule enables the aristocracy to add 30 g of potentially clot forming, stroke heart attack causing erythritol and xylitol to keto ice cream, diabetic pastries, bakeries, candy, etc without telling anyone. These 'natural (found in fruits in low amounts)' sweeteners like xylitol may even cause death. This is a direct result of our spoiled culture of "eat super sweet stuff even if it kills you", "use whitening toothpaste even if it destroys enamel, dentin and gums, eroding your teeth, to look good", "buy hard toothbrushes to be a macho guy brushing your teeth until the dentin is gone", where taste or appearance is all it matters. They add carcinogenic colors to ice cream to sell more. We need to ban cookies, candy, ice cream, sodas, toxic snacks, like chips, fried foods, barbecue, grills, etc, for obvious reasons covered in the AGEs section. These foods also cause tooth decay, fueling a mega dental industry to fill cavities with mercury and cause endless brain damage, disease, etc, besides these foods being pure poisons void of many vitamins, minerals usually. Our ☺low IQ☺ society prioritizes violence, torture, people killing dogs, violent sports, and tasty foods. It doesn't matter if everyone is fat and lives 50 years shorter than they could, just make our cities ever louder, fuller of smoking in hotels, etc, bars and strip clubs. Why not require all food products to label how many g or mg of a compound were used. Instead of saying ingredients: xylitol, water, blueberry juice, ginger, etc, it would say xylitol 25g, water 500g, blueberry juice 30g, ginger 20 mg, etc. One of the xylitol studies is here.

One reason everyone wants taste is due to everyone being brainwashed by these parasitic pastors who deceive everyone with the violence cult of beatings/genocide deified in the Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives). Busy with 400000 churches that remove any chance for the poor people to have quiet houses or cities, then nobody has time to relax, especially as 1 hour of relaxing at home. Who needs physical churches in the online era? Spending even 5 minutes greeting all humans is impossible, due to the pressure to go to church and listen to violent tones of pastors or rabbis, who love to slap infants or terrorize babies during baptism, slap kids or punch them. If people were meditating, happy, ☺☺☺ they would not need sweet food to be happy, they would smile and torture none. There would be no compulsion to attend church, attend brainwashing intellect destroying meetings where 0 proof is shown for the fake miracles. Every house today has access to 10 trillion times more info on God and afterlife possibilities, and people can commune with God directly. We would take care of low stress, better diet, good sleep and live longer, be kinder, reach 0 violent crime. But no, aristocrats who run spy/military agencies want everyone to be as miserable as possible, because it's a lot easier to start fights among workers to distract them from the real oppressor: aristocrats and clergy. When a violent crime happens, they don't give death penalty to aristocrats who incited workers to that via movies, music, books, press conference tones of cops, CIA-FBI-politicians, to end this behavior forever, they just give them a fine or small sentence to the victim of decentralized education, to perpetuate the state of chaos that makes vampirism 1 million times easier. Every store/major news site in USA, UK, Australia is full of royal family portraits, irrelevant news (while others are homeless), like Prince Harry, etc, it feels as if the 1776 revolution of USA was a scam by Brits. The same UK government BBC makes programs about the cult of personality of various dictators UK-USA installed, supported and then removed from power, which is kind of hypocritical. The UK owns much of USA, its media, which is pretty much, in many ways a colony of slaves still. Most 'revolutionaries' were young adults, possibly paid by Brits. USA is ??????? The main subject of socializing, TV is how was the food you ate, was it good, or how amazing that food is, as if the only way to be happy is to eat. Our neutral development is that of a cannibal chimp, who can only derive happiness from eating a sweet fruit. This is evident in the eternal war news, where cannibalistic behavior rules. Even the church is all about eating wafers and drinking wine. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Another example of unsafe food processing few know about is the joining of meat pieces into one using transglutaminase enzyme, which due to its water retention can cause a huge spike in the weight and volume of meat, leading to more money being made by deceiving customers they buy more meat. During cooking, the edges of meat full of bacteria get well sterilized, but if 2 meat pieces join, the center where the joining happens is not sterilized during cooking, leading to food poisoning. Because today USA and many nations use this enzyme, it can allow the food poisoning of millions, without their knowledge. Thus, we need to ban this enzyme, like EU did in 2010 and Russia in 2020, or simply, avoid meat altogether. The average American is so drastically lowered in average IQ by the gangster controlled media, education, government, that companies can sell the ultimate poison via restaurant chains and nobody says anything. If USA wants to become a 3rd world country, nothing needs to happen, since we're almost there. Italy's government took over 3000 Mafia run companies and sized 12000 properties. More on faking food to poison billions is in this documentary on injecting tuna with nitrates to make it red (fresh looking, more expensive) or selling canola oil as olive oil, etc. It shows how mafia members are CEOs and entrepreneurs today, doing dangerous food modifications to make money, that can cause allergic reactions (nitrates in tuna, etc). Before eating tuna, realize it has 50-100 times more mercury than sardines. To be safe, we need one company that manages all steps where fraud takes place: distribution, processing and production. This allows us to fire 3-15 million workers over 25 years who do nothing but inefficient things, wheel reinvention and etc, so as to train them to become research staff to be able to do 1000 times more tests and science, instead of fraud and nonsensical (useless nation draining) marketing. Besides, oils are not ideal, nuts are far safer, as oils oxidize fast during processing too, not just storage in those see thru bottles made to save money. Using walnuts with ω3, is far healthier than using high ω6 oils or animal fat (lard with ω6:3 ratio 10:1 very bad, 41% sat fat, butter 51% sat fat ω6:3 ratio 9:1 v. bad) given the obesity epidemic. Eat 0 processed food, until this state company emerges, since fraud happens at all steps of processing, creating real health risks. In 2017, EU cops found fake olive oil made from industrial lubricants exported to USA. FDA found 79% of all olive oil is actually fake. In China, like in USA, companies take shortcuts and use cheap fillers, while listed ingredients are missing. NYC found many supplements miss the listed ingredients to some degree. These things would not occur with centralist control of one national company, as the number of variations of the product will be lower, so quality would go up, every process is within the company and nobody can cheat as anyone caught would pay 1 million dollar fine. It's impossible in a large company to substitute, because everything happens with approval of thousands, not 2 in a company. They add chemicals to cheap canola oil or industrial stuff to change color and taste and sell it as another product, edible expensive extra virgin olive oil that costs 5 times more etc to take in $. Avoid oils, too much fraud and oxidation. The Mexican mafia is also copying the Italian agricultural mafia, the Spanish Robberies mafia, (Italy and Mexico have identical flags: white, green, red) branching out of drugs into veggies, meat, food, restaurants, construction companies (the gangsters become CEOs, owners, contractors, etc), real estate, hence we need ☺ one ☺☺maximum security company for real estate and building maintenance, # 3, right after #2:

4.5.6.2. ☺☺ Eternal Travel Inc ☺☺, ET for short, the 2nd of The 11 National Unified companies, buys all car companies (fines them trillions for RF damage, so they become gov property of We the People) and unifies them (brands remain, they're just subsidiary of Eternal Travel, or ET.gov, world's largest car, UFO, boat, mail delivery, train, aircraft company), renames bad brands into uplifting names to build eterni vibes and character. ET makes cars, trains, ships, planes, mail delivery drones/vans, silent levitating craft to replace all cars, robotaxi, saucers, ET & ET.gov, extraterrestrial travel, te means also virtue in Chinese, that leads to soul travel, eternal travel. Eternia, the Abode of the Eternal. It delivers all mail, manages all ports, roads, airports. Any fines related to traffic or parking are issued by the Immortality Nurturing Agency, the unified national police, not by any private company, such as Colonial Parking and other evil companies (what an evil name, might as well call it "let's subjugate all we can", how can this name even be legal?) that fine people when they park in public spots. ET.gov links to ships.gov that sells boats, cars.gov selling cars, airplane.gov selling planes, to get all used to the future of 11 companies 3 agencies for all nations, 1 bank, 1 language, 1 law for all 3 million cities, not 3 million laws. Instead of seeing Ford, Chevy, Tesla, etc written big on cars, we get a truly mind blowing shimmering colorful (neon lights at night to increase visibility and remind all of the Eternal) the Eternal logo (different colors seen during daytime even, but especially at night or dusk). The model names are smaller, so Chevy Blazer is Eternal Blazer,☺☺☺ model names become Blazer, Equinox, F150, Silverado, Ram, Mustang, Tesla 3, Tesla Y, the make is always Eternal. You no longer need to select make and model, only model of a car, since all make is Eternal. Foreigners use Eternal for any US made car and the car subdivision of Eternal Travel Inc will be called Eternal Motors. To prevent harassment of workers and the poor by crazy police which increases aging stress hormones, it provides free transport to all on trains, trolleys, trams and buses, in case they don't yet have a car, or don't choose to buy one (if everything is mostly within walking distance). In France highways are owned by 19 companies and some trips cost 180 euros in fees, this aristocratic terror by a few thugs is unacceptable, each EU nation and even EU needs to have a toll free continent wide highway network managed by the European super state, just like all nations and continents need to eventually have national tax pay for all tolls. Only the lowest IQ folks would have 40 payment systems that stop traffic when the tax could pay for it all. One can take pic of license plates and monitor highways with 4 trillion cameras, no need to have toll stops. Remote car stops via connected cars ensures cops can stop any car without toll stops. It requires all cars to come with radio frequency blocking film for back window and sunroof, to prevent 100s of diseases, as explained in the EV safety section. Eternal Travel Inc offers FREE RF film for all other windows, to protect citizens from insanely high RF while driving in the city, since nobody ought to use phone or WiFi while driving. Serbia, Belgium, Estonia capitals already offer free public transport. The police is then moved from checking tickets to securing the border properly with 20 times more border staff, since this is where the real danger lies, foreign spies placing continent destroying weapons. It's also moved to the educational, learning and test centers for Immortality Tests for would be tourists, visitors, immigrants. They can still use a card to get access to public transport if they want to track spies until they install 5 trillion cameras, but it would be free, not even $0.5 (40 times cheaper than the previous day for some routes) as in the Aussie 6 month experiment. The lost revenue ought to be gained by increasing alcohol, vaping, brothels, strip clubs, martial arts, boxing, etc, smoking excise taxes. Normally, these ticket taps with cards are not used to get payment, but to track terrorists and spies, their movements, etc. However, with 5 trillion new cameras, and face recognition, everyone is seen, among the spies. To ensure the highest longevity of We the People, all cars will have the easiest to replace design for air filters, since the air is so toxic in many cities. Currently, many car models require pliers and excessive force, gloves to replace it, due to a no screw design, that can lead to finger injuries, a lack of desire to replace the filter. This is unacceptable. The new Immortality Nurturing Agency will ensure every product is easy to use, replace without hand, finger injury.

Immortalism unifies all traffic, police, banks via the Universal Immortality ID, the only card people ever carry (no store has discount cards, coupons once all genocidal aristocrat run "33 million companies fold into 11", discount is gambling and mind control to get workers buy $1.4 trillion of useless products (which keep aristocrats rich) that have nothing to do with 0 war (taht aristocrats never fight), 0 violent crime, but in transition period the universal card can function as the discount card to prevent having 50000 cards, wasting plastic and subjugating workers making cards), card that is a drivers license, a universal parking card (park & scan), an electronic key to all approved buildings (house, workplace) Immortality Building Inc maintains (all in USA) (all entrance in any USA building/house is biometric and electronic recognition of face to match electronic key, so no burglaries or robberies happen, as cops arrive within 30 seconds of a forced entry, no more physical keys), car registration, insurance card (one car insurance for all USA), health insurance card (one for all USA), passport, credit card. Efficiency so workers can sleep 8 hours and not get Alzheimer, heart disease, etc from lack of sleep, so we end Aristocratic TERROR. In 2025, an estimated half a million illegals drive without training huge semi trucks, causing huge accidents due to sanctuary states issuing fraudulent licenses for bribes or fake exams. Decentralization leads to complete banditry and disintegration of USA, as other nations create entire armies of sabotage in various jobs to bring USA to a halt in hours, such as truckers. These drivers are clueless, can't understand English road signs, they drive semis the wrong way on highways, etc. How is this protecting Immortality for All as they claim to be leftists who care about ALL WORKERS? Complete lawlessness is not leftism but subjugation by foreign spy agencies aristocracies, as it causes death by car crash, which ends the human right to trillion year lifespan. True patriots and sane people sup[port one universal license for all USA issued by the one federal company or, before the 11 companies, Department of Transportation, as all city and state governments are dissolved. Only 1 card for all USA, Eterni Bank Card, only 1 financial product in USA, the bank account: there are no checking or savings, finance products, market accounts or cash (no illegals exist, only legals get the card to purchase anything). The main product is 0 VIOLENT CRIME, 0 obvious crime of physical touch by enslaved workers or 0 covert violent crime (3rd paragraph of tax section) by Genocidal Aristocrats. Stock markets disappear, stock markets were created by the Dutch in 1602 (spread chaos, destroy millions losing everything in gambling) to raise funds for the genocidal "80 year war", as banks financed all genocides/wars. Thus, due to 50000 fatalities, 1 million injuries in US alone, nobody can drive a car, unless he's approved as a driver for that car, a camera system recognizes him, his state of awareness (scan of face, eyes, to see how tired he is), after his Immortality ID was scanned via a special car scanner, to start the car only after repeating a positive affirmation (new one daily to avoid self-train to deceive AI) 'I pledge to drive so Immortality for All is achieved, etc' to start the day in a positive ethical mind said in an eterni tone to assess state of aggression, last sleep quality, intoxication, awareness. This reminds all that driving very tired is as deadly as drunk driving and that our tone of speech reveals everything. This will eliminate all car thefts, all fatal accidents and force drivers to sleep 9 hours before driving. Alcohol is criminalized: transport or posession brings lifetime labor, as it kills drivers. Life first, driving later. Nobody can steal a moving or idling car, the AI detects a car jack as it sees an unapproved driver and stops the car instantly before he can drive. With free delivery of all items, there is no urgency to drive.

This system is very elegant, cops don't need to ever stop people to check for drugs, license, registration or anything, nobody can drive without a license, or with drugs, since we train 1 million dogs (US got 90 million dogs, so we get 20 times more border staff and 20 times more dogs and later smell scanners when they become better than dogs) to be sniffing dogs to smell every airport passenger (3 million in USA, to make sure they don't carry drugs on themselves or carry on), smell every package/container in the US airports, mail centers in every city, ports, borders, every imported/moved item will be sniffed by dogs and later drones that do better than dogs by 1 billion fold factor. When every package is sniffed from border entry to 4 mail centers, there is no way all 5 dogs fail to detect the narcotics. Then no drugs can enter USA, so then no need to sniff cars anymore, the whole world knows nobody can pass thru the border, or end up being dead. Then, if drugs are found at border or a mail center due to dog at border missing one package, all hell breaks loose to find out the source and military strike on gang labs done in country of origin with 4000 acres of opium, weed, etc wiped out. Thus, cops focus on the entry points into USA via the 10 trillion drones, cameras and electronic systems and nobody carries even 1 mg of weed in their car, as the penalty is lifetime labor for any drug transport or posession. This lifetime labor in healing moving cities will build 100 times more infrastructure than in last 250 years with lifetime labor recipients working for Eternal Travel Inc, Immortality Building Inc, that make nice roads for soothing new tire tech making 5 times less noise and less vibration, flatten out bumpy hilly areas, create new rivers, reservoirs and pies of water to make the unlivable 85% of USA where nobody lives a nice area with new small 0 crime cities. Because Immortality for All means the rich can't get drunk and ram into the poor or use gangs to transport drugs within USA via cars and cops don't need waste time to check car doors for drugs, since nobody carries even 0.01 mg of a drug. We fine $2 trillion, all singers, composers, actors who created the filth 'music' that drives up violent crime, adrenaline, hypes up drivers, causing accidents. We ban all violent music in cars, radio, TV, concerts (by MRI brain activation patterns, 80+% of today's music). The filth we call 99% of US/world music, doesn't meet the decency standards of MRI activation areas of the Immortalist Anthem. We prevent crime before it forms as negative thought or emotion, via education. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The speed bumps can be like those in Sweden, only lower for speeding cars. Sweden road deaths are 20 per million inhabitants, while USA is 128, EU average 44, even if the average commutes are similar: EU 25 minutes, US 27. The parasitic state/county/city governments of USA are made of 21.5 million vampires who drain the blood of USA, so we advocate for 0 taxes and one central government only. Let us dissolve all states and put the 90% first, the vampires of Eternal War last. Nothing is done right in USA, except the British theft of trillions to build 8 million palaces: this part is always made sure to be done right, no matter which criminal party wins the fake elections. Instead of having a small 10$ camera installed under the front bumper to record all potholes so they're fixed within days without him knowing, by sending a message with all pictures of the day at the end of the shift to prevent RF damage to the cop's body, we have these ☺abysmal IQ officials☺ steal local funds giving themselves 5 to 80 times the minimum wage in the area, while roads look like the ultimate horror in many areas, of Washington DC even, let alone Compton or some poor Ocala greater area towns with 100000 potholes/town. In DC, the criminal separate Verizon, AT&T, utility, etc, companies each makes a manhole, a sewer and they're not even flat with the road, creating 3-5 inch man made potholes to ruin cars and damage brains from the shake, so the capital of the "free world" has about 10 million man made or sewer potholes, so much freedom for us. Go via google maps and street view or by car to British aristocratic towns like Rancho Santa Fe, with palaces and there are only 0 potholes. This is what happens when you let British parasites to covertly (thru puppets they mind control) run every town (so all money and best resources go to aristocratic towns) instead of one law we get 20000, instead of one department and company, Eternal Travel Inc ☺☺fixing all roads, doing all cables, utilities, we get all these unknown Mafia killer workers fixing potholes in Washington DC (400x homicide rate of Singapore) and making it worse than before the fixing, even more waves, more shocks, and more car damage. It's time to end the reign of bloodsuckers. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

You can see why the EU roads are world's safest in this video: endless cameras that give automatic tickets eliminating the need for traffic cops, using fast lane for passing only, curves that are less sharp, safer bike lanes that continue at intersections in some countries, round about circles at intersections to reduce fatalities 10 fold, designed far better than old circle intersections that caused crashes. The world urgently needs cable road barriers that dramatically (for obvious reasons, concrete smashes your car, while cables simply move the car) reduce injuries and also plastic spinning drum guard rails. One company made a quiet change for guard rails (moving from 5 to 4 inches) that killed many people and caused many injuries, all to save a little money, so the fine was half a billion dollars. That's why we need one company for all USA, we can't let genocidal aristoc-rats kill people. Drainage lids will be max 3 mm lower than the road surface, not 100 mm like in 2025. This is for the health of We the People whose brains are damaged by deep potholes/drains. Eternal Travel Inc will require tests (to see damage to brain due to driving on pothole and sewer drainage lids (lowered, like the 1 million such drains in the Washington DC area) before any cars are imported in USA to damage the brain and favor cars that are more like Lyriq, which is the best suspension, least brain damage EV out there. This Lyriq level suspension will, via efficiency and centralization, be the minimal suspension quality (for brain and body health) of any car sold in USA in the future, as ~Eternal~ Motors rules. When people go to cars.gov to buy cars, they see cars sorted by price, by Brain Score, Immortality (overall longevity) Score, Ocular Score, Cancer Score, UV Score, Temperature Score (useful for dry eyes, dry skin, dry lung people), RF Score, EF Score, MF Score (electric field, magnetic field score for those with such sensitivities), so the scroll down menu us not about car names, but about Health parameters, in order to debrainwash the people from following without thinking popular past trends about shape, color, aerodynamics, style, fashion and brand zealous following. Since gov owns all brands, they're all tested in 100 new ways to determine these new scores that become as known and popular as the "car color", car type (truck, sedan, etc). The virtuous 11 companies immortalist government will educate people thru every gov page about the choices they make, so everyone lives as long as possible. Since only 1 car company exists, every car you purchase in insured and you don't need to be on the phone for hours to switch insurance, to shop for insurance and all this nonsense. There is one cheap full insurance for all included in the car price, everything designed for maximum bliss and minimal stress, 0 looting by predatory aristocratic CEOs and insurance bandits. Imagine, the bliss of not having to shop for fraudulent aristocratic companies trying to loot you. Those who get into accidents, are at fault, will have to pay a fine per each incident, 50$ if minor, 90K if major.☺☺☺

Buying a car will be so easy, cars.gov shows what is in stock and you no longer have to call 5000 dealers and 5000 websites to find out if the website is accurate or even updated every minute, or the car has a deposit on it already and you keep wasting 10 hours to call 50 dealers… and talk, go thru phone prompts, generally, wasting time due to a government of ☺low IQ goofballs☺ who can't sell cars efficiently. The current system is criminal, with tilapia IQ☺ salesmen calling you to drive to them and then the car is not available. Instead, you reserve the car with 1000$ for 12 hours to buy it. No insurance companies exist, because every car comes with insurance and you have to go to preventive maintenance each year, it's included in the car price. If at fault, you simply pay a fine for 5 years, deducted monthly or one time payment if you got the money. This payment would be lower than today but it is designed to help people avoid accidents more, even if insurance takes care of most of the repair and you need attend drivers education, etc. This system ensures all cars are fixed up to 400000 miles for free or however long the mechanics still think the car is safe to drive without investing too much maintenance time and parts at the yearly fix that would be wasting more energy than buying a new car. You can't drive the car if you don't do the yearly check at the dealer, car is locked if you're past the yearly preventive maintenance, to make sure, (like with all houses fixed, maintained by Immortality Building Inc), that cars are clean, mold free, maintained, with new filters, all included in the price, lifetime repair. Eternal Travel Inc requires 360° camera (view from above to see front, back and sides, you see front of car when driving forward and the bird's eye 360 view on the left, see back when in reverse plus the 360 on left) system on all cars, as well as AWD for cold cities that have ice on roads. Those who mess car more and damage it more than average, dirty it more, pay some one time fees. To maintain the highest national security via high IQ, the car building priorities are changed 100%. From sport/big/low IQ cars, fancy designs and useless luxury trash, we move to a requirement that all cars have a truly amazing suspension, like Blazer EV, Lyriq, Model X, instead of the trash suspension of Subaru Solterra EV, Nissan Leaf EV. This ensures optimal ocular, brain health of our citizens. All imported cars have to have a suspension at least as smooth as Blazer EV. Otherwise, frequent drivers will damage their brains and body thru road potholes, bumps. Eternal Travel Inc requires the end of storm water drain lids sunk deeper than 0.2 inches from the road surface. What we have today is 3 million 1-3" deep lids on the slow lane around Washington DC, which causes brain damage and vision loss by shaking brains against the skull. The ☺low IQ folks☺ who designed these prioritized 3" depth over longer lifespan and higher IQ.

Today if you move, as a proud American citizen (aka slave) from one state to another, you need to relearn the 20000 new rules of your new jail (aka state) and go many times to DMV to apply for new drivers license as clowns in Congress can't make a one national license that is your bank card too and all other IDs all in one. If you want a driver's license, go with your ID and it adds electronically a driver's license after you pass the driving test, there is only one DMV nationally. They simply update your universal record. So, one time you forgot your old license, but the buffoons don't have it in the central system, so you slave go back home, a second time you come and they say your vision test didn't work, so they send you to find a doctor which may take 50-200 phone calls in the new state, due to a non-AI way (tell me a doctor that has appointment today) and one universal healthcare, you get an appointment in 4 days, as this weekend is closed a lot due to a holiday and when you wanted to go, the foreign car you bought raised your heart rate to not let you sleep and make it to the appointment.☺☺☺ Same for the one country NATO: 1 drivers license for all NATO+Australia new nation that speaks 1 language, English: 1 license for all, one license plate for life. You get one plate, then that's your car plate for life and you move it to the new car, to avoid creating new plates all the time and wasting metal and time to rest, relax, recharge, reverse aging. Efficient and wonderful, not like today where every ☺low IQ☺ state, which shouldn't exist, wastes eons of our time to get a new plate.

A keyboard has 26 letters, 10 digits and 10 symbols written above the 10 digits, or 46 characters. If you use $_{10}C^{46}$ you get 4 billion license plate numbers, enough for NATO + Australia population of 1.1 billion people with 11 companies for all. The process for every new thing in the new state is bureaucratic, as in 2025 we're a nation of lawyers, salesmen, realtors, hedge fund managers, conmen, fake miracle preachers, who import monitors, cars, electronics full of microphones, video cameras, spyware, weapon systems that were not meant to be there in the first place. Why make stuff in USA if you can design it, (to feel like a 'true contributor to world future') and have a different design shipped to you, without your knowledge by making a look alike part with dual function and cleverly inserting it there? After all, the 5 minute DMV license, that ought to never be different, just became a one week ordeal. Efficiency at its best, USA style, that brings so much joy to the roads, congested by your useless trips. Is there any wonder we get nothing done? The slaves live 300 in 4500 sq feet in a skyscraper "condo", while the opulent bamboozling lawyers live in a 15000 sq ft mansion, he and her. Innovation for USA means setting up more rules, laws, municipal agencies and ways to torture the 90%, so nothing important gets done: we invent new laws, instead of made in USA products. USA collapses. The aristocratic rule of fraudulent law, not of law, is nothing but a recipe for the complete disintegration and destruction of the USA. Hey slaves, how are you today? Have you done 45 errands last 4 weeks for new IDs of your new state? Errands that actually would not be needed if we had a government of the people for the people? Why rest, sleep, get a good body repair and healthy biomarkers, if all you do is reinforcing the idea that you're after all an animal, an enslaved dog, who gets 2 breadcrumbs from the 'generous' palace dwelling aristocrats? We're like caged rats, indebted serfs on the land, with no right to move without jumping thru 900 hoops and memorizing the 90000 new laws of the new jail cage called the new state. Does anyone see any logic in having all these ☺abysmal IQ☺ agencies/laws for each of 20000 towns, 50 states? Why can't we be one family, one nation with 11 companies and 3 agencies, with gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kind caring, health, good sleep, fair pay for all? Why do we need 50 states for by the way? Wouldn't none be easier, or 8 to begin with? Jefferson wanted 'states to be all powerful and independent', or so he made us believe. In truth, this was a cover for different laws that allowed Brits to chain, subjugate, exterminate nonBrits far easier, by customizing laws to achieve demographic and economic changes, so that the 90% (nonBrits) are all slaves (1776 revolutionaries were Brits). If we truly are one family, what are taxes for then? For rich to not pay them? The rule of law makes no sense if the law is unjust, let's fix the law? Isn't equal opportunity, law meaning the end of tribalism, of states, of 20000 versions of a law? Due to the human tendency to quarrel over nothing, without fewer or 11 companies, 1 language, 1 world bank, 1 currency, the 'eternal' wars can't end. Likewise, within USA, without centralization, '11 companies' violent crime can't vanish. Only when you treat everyone better than a mom treats her beloved infant baby, will violence end. Why so, because the Immortalist Anthem says so? No, it's because the current level of love of a mom and dad has not brought that world of peace, the eterni vibe is not there. As 99.9% of music so eloquently shows, we're so far away from that vibe of gentle tender soft nurturing. ☺☺☺

The trade in value for a car is the same nationwide, since there is one website alone that determines it and one AI system, so you no longer have to go with thousands of quotes and waste time. In order to avoid foreign companies (owned by the foreign state not private individuals as they claim) from writing the brain thoughts and emotions of the locals, in order to develop technology, to innovate, and discover the faster more efficient, less noisy, etc methods of transport (20 minutes from New York to Los Angeles, 2 days to Mars, etc), we need to minimize government bureaucracy, so please read the fake elections solution (elect policies, not people) section, that follows an explanation of the reality of fake elections in all nations. Since all US products are of the 11 companies, they have a barcode and the cargo and good delivery department of Eternal Travel Inc, in charge of the travel of goods and mail, simply scans that code and returns it, without us needing to print a return label. It has a little software that reads the ship to address for returns for that mega company and barcode and it saves us endless paper, ink and time wasted. Finally, the people will no longer have to waste so much time, they only need recall to keep the box for 30 days or whatever the return period is, to ship it back as it came. A win for the average poor people, who have time now to relax, nap, sleep more, meditate, learn to be happy and productive. Same for ships, tire companies, development of silent tires, etc, planes. ☺☺☺ Foreign made cars, planes, trains can be fitted with thought or emotion writing, leg twitch, toe/knee/back pain, stroke, eye damage, heart attack causing tech, gone is the 1945 Hiroshima times simple life: today the security risks are huge, the world is 1 billion times more dangerous and complex, yet most people have no clue their brains are so easy to write. Eternal Travel Inc buys all insurance companies and grants universal insurance to all drivers, from basic liability to several full insurance options. However, to avoid wasting time, everyone will ideally get universal full insurance (like with houses too, Immortality Building Inc repairs all instantly, but if events happen in a house, those living there, adults, etc get fines and lower score), and those who get into more accidents will just fines if it's their fault, get lower

Immortality Credit Score, which leads to lower pay. The current system is stone age and again shifts our society towards profits and selling and thinking 24-7 about money, instead of living to 9 billion. It's incredibly wasteful of human resources, the most important resource. If one company makes all cars and insures them, all houses and insures them (fix them or replace them), then they have incentives to create a car or house that lasts so they don't need rebuild it, so they use dome shape more and do it right the first time, not fixing it 5 times by 5 insurance companies during 5 tornadoes or hurricanes. The current system is insane, predatory, vampiric and jungle like, everyone tries to cheat everyone else, start 5 million companies in every industry and be the "paycheck to paycheck aristocrat". All these companies are resellers and these ☺abysmal IQ☺ resell shop owners waste their entire life, all they do is redundant stuff that would have enabled us to have more high tech living to 9 billion jobs. When buying a car all will automatically get paperless insurance, registration, title recorded in their immortality.gov ID account, we no longer "call other companies to insure the car, get mail to pay registration to other redundant workers from a useless state government we don't need. Why is the government so low IQ? Why do they mail registration color code stickers for all? Are these people 3rd grader chimps? The license plate scan indicates exactly all insurance, owner, history, title, picture, and registration is automatically deducted by Eternal Travel Inc for all drivers every year until he sells the car and then automatically he's paid the unused part of that year and a new registration starts for the new car, a new basic insurance and if you want extra you select when you buy car online from the ONE and ONLY company allowed to sell cars in USA. The low IQ of the system today is evident, we have endless DMV staff to do useless things that one company could do in all states. Efficiency is 0. Instead of figuring out how to bring World Peace in 3 months and give all 500 year lives, we file endless forms because of a criminal system Thomas Jefferson setup: decentralized chaos. Why do we need 10 trillion car shops with filif comical☺ procedures that do more damage than good at times? One good company with 50 checks is better than 5 million with 4 checks in certain procedures. Let the dealer fix every car, and the dealer is a subsidiary of Eternal Travel Inc. Every company (the 11 mega companies) belongs to every citizen, it's one national family. Everyone helps everyone live to a billion. We end the mafia system of 50000 dealers and criminals selling cars that they changed and fit with spy devices, torture devices, etc. We bring order and fairness in every town, end all cartels.

Today, it's everyone for themselves, pure jungle: houses stay unfixed and damaged for 20 years and they have endless beauty salons to make your nails look this or that, strip clubs, sports facilities and other bars, etc to waste materials and time, instead of helping fellow Americans to have a decent sleep, the most important thing for longevity, by having a decent shelter. The palace dwelling aristocrats corrupt everyone to become a selfish person, so they can turn one group against the other and shift the blame on Demon-crats, workers or Republican workers, slaves too cheap to matter: Demon-crats get angry at Re-pub-licans and vice versa, what if we had one Party only? Immortality for all Party, not just aristocrats? You got endless homeless and 20 times more empty houses, not rented due to greed. Insurance is transferred to the new car if you buy a new car. One Transportation company, one focus on Life Eternal. PRIORITIES: LIFE, NOT MONEY. Immortality CAPITALISM☺☺☺. We thus eliminate endless admin jobs, create the Era of EFFICIENCY FOR MAXIMUM HUMANITY. To buy a car call 1-800-ete-cars and tell them what you want, they ship it to you or go directly to cars.gov. With one company, if you got a trade in, you drop it 1-3 miles away in your city, no need to drive 50 miles to a Tesla or dealer to swap it for your inventory Tesla or etc, you simply have all cars, inventory or not, delivered to home or picked up within a few miles by the buyer, with Eternal Travel Inc lots replacing 10-20 dealers and only holding cars that are ready to sell, via better inventory management. This helps cities to save land wasted with cars sitting there. To buy boats, etc call from anywhere the ONE number 1-800-et-ships or visit ships.gov the place for ships within the Eternal Travel Inc, whose logo is on all these sites: cars.gov, ships.gov, mail.gov (delivery, no more DHL, FedEx, etc, Eternal Delivery label on all cars), airplanes.gov, etc. We won't need 20 charging networks, we can have One, called Eternal Bliss, for all electric cars, the only cars to reduce smog in cities. As soon as you take the charger, you plug it in, it detects the car like a key fob does and opens the charging port, recognized via the RFID the car and charges your Eterni Bank account, the only bank in USA. No more "third party apps" and 400 chargers, some emitting 200 times more deadly dirty electricity in your house than others, etc. No more stone age jobs of HR, accounting, etc for every single charging network and stuff, but high tech science jobs to make 1000-2000 kWh (1-2 MWh) onboard chargers (not 50 kWh like 2024 Nissan or Bolt GM cars, vs 250 kWh for Tesla) and charging stations, so all gas stations are replaced with ultra fast chargers and we fill up 300 miles 3 times faster than gas/diesel. We need ☺☺☺science☺☺☺, not "economic vampirism", efficiency and innovation, not predatory capitalism. So simple, so fast, no longer waiting 10 days with setting up 30 charging accounts with 3 types of chargers, 50 adapters and 29 cables. After all, we could think about longevity more, instead of how to enrich aristocrats who want to have separate networks and then buy gigantic mansions with the profits earned by exploitation. Oh yes, let the rich give you a 2300 acres house or 2130 acre 2nd home when pigs will fly. ☺☺

Today we go to these dealers, that employ a lot of people trying to get people to buy cars or wasting time, acting busy. All these 0 IQ high school graduates could have gotten free education and been in high tech jobs discovering something instead of wasting their life in these low IQ dealers. For car buying, all can go to one place: Eternal Travel Inc. The only company authorized to sell cars. All cars need to be ultra similar in the electric drive, to increase efficiency and allow all mechanics to fix any car. This helps us to have more physicists and chemists to bring World Peace in 3 months. We have the most predatory system of used car sales in every nation, where the used car is appraised at 15k by one dealer and 30K by another for trade-in, showing the need to eliminate these criminal vampires, useless parasitic appraisers, and replace them with the AI system that takes the VIN number or license plate, checks current history of car and takes video and pics of the car via drone and then checks automatically everything. This way, people can't play games and charge someone they dislike (due to religion, race, etc) a price that is higher or give a lower value for a car they sell. Eliminate the intermediates, create one company that buys any car within minutes. No more shopping around at 50 dealers and trying to get the best deal after 1 hour at each dealer or going to show car to private parties for 4 days. Make one super efficient AI system that doesn't judge the person who dropped the car, their clothing style, etc. All mechanics need to get certified and only 1 company fixes all cars, Eternal Travel Inc, to ensure proper 100 step procedures and the ethical same price in 50 states for routine things. When buying a car, the price includes free maintenance for 15 years, so that nobody has to waste time thinking about where to save 3 cents by going to the other mechanic who makes shortcuts and causes traffic fatalities. It's imperative to end the total chaos and unprofessional banditry that runs in the car industry and bring discipline and organization. The AI is impartial and plays no games, it does appraise it and calculate the trade-in correctly.

The lawless USA has 50 redundant state governments with 50 inefficient different systems of car title release, some requiring in 2024 paper title and allowing criminal dealers to take 2 weeks to give check to the person selling the car. This is a stone age system from 1950, since all we do is play violent sports and shout in our music. Since criminal bandits from dealers take years to release title and get arrested because of it (see a case), a person may have to waste eons to get a 5 minute job, causing a waste of 50 hours. Let one Eternal Travel Inc issue all electronic car title and insurance and registration to the immortality.gov ID account of every citizen, so when a person is stopped in traffic, they don't need to check endless documents, just the immortality ID that replaces all drivers licenses, like the proposed Australia one, and acts as the universal check for anything and everything put in that account. Canada is also moving towards this. The cop can see on his screen your title, registration insurance, since no car is sold without minimum insurance and the Eternal Travel Inc fixes all cars for free if minor or rare, for money if one dents his car every year. Why print endless copies of insurance, registration, title if all is electronic in each person's immortality.gov ID, in the police database, and the national company database? Anyone wanting to sell a car can do so in minutes, Eternal Travel Inc knows your info, registration, title, etc. The jobs and tasks of these dealers are recreated 100s of times, by all these ☺very low IQ☺ companies selling used or new cars, and it leads to huge human resource wasting, 0.01 inventions per human alive instead of 2. Go to any dealer and you will see endless sales people wasting so much time. The entire nation devolves into a 3rd world country of banditry. Some order needs to exist, free education so more research jobs exist. The current system is abused by unethical useless parasitic state governments who ought to have 0 rights to register any car, boat or airplane. Only 1 agency and company ought to exist, Eternal Travel Inc that has one national or multinational later (EU) drivers license, car registration electronic system and makes selling a car a 10 min thing with the money instantly wired into your checking account already linked at every citizen's Immortality.gov ID account with all other data. We don't even need transportation ministry or anything, keep it simple. If you call it ministry or company, it's irrelevant, if it helps us live to 90000, that's important. Likewise, taxes are not needed, since all are employed by 11 companies or the Federal Government and there is automatic calculation of all needs of the state, the state can pay all. All those mini useless vampires who file taxes (tax "professionals" slaves of the aristocratic terrorists) and have endless schemes to defraud the workers will be out of a job, as well as gangster bankers and criminal thieves of the stock market that is to disappear. Stock traders can pick up tomatoes or design robotic pickers if too exhausted. We care about living to 5000, not about gambling stocks. Stock markets gambling is for pigs, thieves, criminals and genocidal psychopaths. What is the industry in British Hong Kong? After 150 years of occupation 1847-1997, and forcing opium trade on China by UK, Hong Kong is a financial hub like other parasitic centers, due to the world economy model of "complexity for maximum obscurity and minimal worker longevity, but high longevity for nobility" system. Germany needs 1700 banks? USA got 4500 banks to plunder America. It's insane. Why so many financial institutions? It's fraud. Macau, a former Portugal colony, another example of imperial mafia, is a gambling place of depravity. The number one priority for immortalists is 0 wars and 0 violent crime, not making 20 cents extra by flipping houses or stocks. All casinos and gambling illegal worldwide. None owns 2 houses. Foreign companies allowed to sell at capped prices pay tax indirectly via selling the products that meet lifespan criteria. None can choose any prices, if they want to enter our market.

Oddly, the cheapest car on Tesla was changed from white (which is the cheapest to make and safest in hot climates, to prevent battery fires and more climate protecting due to repelling heat away from Earth) to the grey default in North America only, which is more expensive to manufacture. For years, multicoat white was free. This may be due to the need for camouflage of Tesla cars if WW3 breaks, not due to Tesla trying to piss poor people off. So to get the cheaper white, you pay 1000$ extra in 2023. White is the cheapest paint color to make, since titanium dioxide is the cheapest pigment. Tesla says white is multicoat and grey is not, but why not make white single coat and grey multicoat? Grey makes no sense in warm climates and it looks like an attack on poor people whose cars and batteries will be damaged more, range decrease due to more AC used. Unless Elon Musk knows USA is going to war with Russia and China and told Tesla to start making grey camouflage color that makes hitting cars who transport weapons harder, as they blend into the road or barren land (no green grass, just grey Earth) color. This would make sense, since Europe still has white (good camouflage in snow) as the free option and EU would fight with US as part of NATO. White is good in snowy EU. Cybertruck is grey bare stainless steel (no paint), a camouflage color, to get everyone WW3 ready perhaps, have bullet proof trucks.

Back to centralization by Eternal Travel Inc, to buy airplanes, call 1-800-airplane. Ban all drone taxis for people or merchandise, unless the drones are flying at a height of maximum 4 feet, so everyone sees them in case a malfunction causes the drone to crash, to prevent deaths from drone falls that hit people in the head and kill them in seconds. Cars kill 1.2 million people each year, so we need to not repeat the same mistakes. Until we get 1 death a year from 1.2 million today, via AI, and self-driving, robotaxis for cars, and until we have drone roads, flight paths, on dirt, away from highways, we can't have these flying cars, drones, as they can crash on highways causing a 50 car pileup or they can crash on gatherings killing 5 people, backyards, etc.

For car buying, make it simple, keep it simple, choose what brand, maybe do a test drive at their showroom (Tesla, the best car, even if some dislike Elon role playing, he jokes a lot, people don't get it). We keep it simple, so we focus on longevity enhancing features (0 smog that kills, UV shield on windows, good AC and air filter, etc), not "car shape", fancy useless stuff that doesn't add lifespan. Eternal Travel Inc calculates which car color will kill fewest people, depending on how much renewable energy a state produces, how many people die from solar roof installs, from wind farms repairs, etc, how much white saves electricity to cool or to heat in cold states, etc, and suggests lighter or darker colors. Read 4 pages on white cars reach 30°F lower temps. Their calculations are out of this world, nothing like the 3rd grade sales job, supercomputer stuff. Many kids die in hot cars, so this is also important to read about, how to avoid car overheat. Americans lose 1 billion dollars to odometer fraud which is impossible in the immortalist system that enables all odometer readings to be sent to the nearest Eternal Travel Inc lot, which makes it impossible to falsify miles driven, since Eternal Travel Inc knows it for all cars. All car titles are in the electronic database and nobody can fake any title, as they're electronic, in the government hands, accessible only by the real owner when he sells a car to Eternal Travel Inc and buys another one from Eternal Travel Inc. No dealers exist who can do fraud.

To create a good fine giving system the AI needs to check the picture of the car driver and the picture of the license match, unlike some countries (like Australia) that don't check and allow hackers who get other license plates to shift fines upon others by filing a form claiming it was another person who did it and providing the hacked license. This type of fine ought to be huge, for the scammer doing it, at least 9000 times bigger than the fines he stole by claiming another owed it. This means those doing that end up in lifetime service sentence to pay the theft fee of 9 million. We have a very strange system of 10% owning huge RVs that sit idle, and huge trucks that use the materials to make 1.5 to 3 small cars, yet single moms have no car, not even a tiny one, and have to use some bus that takes 1 hour or 2 to get to a place, instead of 10 minutes. The way the system works is separate companies create priorities of "customers" while ignoring the national needs for healthy youth and good transport for women when public is nonexistent, as often is the case in USA. Oil imports give trillions of dollars to our enemies, why are gas cars legal? We got endless race tracks for car racing, and no cars for single moms. Isn't that sort of odd? One can't believe the complete insanity of one guy having 2 boats, 2 RV, 2 gigantic trucks, 10 acres, and one lady with a kid a 100 sq ft studio and not even a smart 4 two car that uses 33% materials used in the suburban truck. That guy is single… no kids. We got endless RVs, way more than homeless, yet some sleep in tents. The ☺low IQ aristocrats☺ running USA for 250 years have never prioritized the long life of the workers, the health of the youth, they only cared about their families. This has made USA a very violent, backward, divided and stagnant nation. The only way a country prospers is via taking care of its workers very well, its youth especially.

WHY WE DRIVE OIL CARS, WHEN WE COULD HAVE DRIVEN SOLAR charged EVs in 1930 at 100% market penetration? This would have solved lung cancer Alzheimer caused by car smog issues and prevent needless oil wars. Since USA is run by sadistic genocidal psychopaths for 250 years, for them destroying millions of people, torturing them until they bleed, busting toes, damaging organs, etc or killing them to steal oil or whatever can be stolen is no issue. The murderous crime families that ran USA for 250 years were made of redneck aristocrats quite often, pompous guys with 0 empathy for the workers. They rarely listened to scientists. In 1910, 33% of US cars were electric. Then, gasoline became available and they decided to create toxic smog and didn't bother to reach 100% electric cars and to improve the battery car range, etc, even if solar panels were known to science since the 1850s. Serial killer thug aristocratic families, who ran USA for 2 centuries, could not even bother, in their ☺abysmal IQ☺, similar to that of the beasts who had blacks die mining for Uranium to bomb and threaten others and create wars, to ask the scientific community about the best way to power cars and the civilization, they simply built coal and oil, as slaves would work to death in horrible conditions to mine and extract it and wars of genocide would ensure oil could be stolen from any country. It takes a decent person to rally all science and efficiency, close 29000 banks of 1921 to create science jobs, etc end aristocracy to create 500 times more physics, chemistry jobs, to discover alternate ways of powering cars, to avoid wars for oil, smog and poisoning the poor. Since workers were viewed as mere cows to be slaughtered, as Chapter 28 laws of the Royals and 200 top families show, the bastard aristocrats could not even meet with scientists in 1910 and decide that the 33% of electric cars back then would become 100%, in order to ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ compassionately prevent oil from volatile unstable regions to cause endless genocidal wars. Preventing wars of looting was the last of their concern. They did that for eons. Perhaps many of these aristocrats were Jews who wanted to help Muslims to become rich by oil, so they can better wage Muslim-Christian wars and dominate both groups by eternal genocides as the Zion Elders Protocols explain. USA never had scientists for presidents really, when was the last time you heard of a chemist or physicist working class or even aristocrat become president? Never. It was all more well connected or easy to control puppets or aristocrats, with main training in spying, being a liar or telling a good story, warfare and killing tons of people for "patriotic wars" (a cover for wars of aristocratic plunder of innocent workers). But no, the aristocrats were British and did endless genocides for 900 years of royal plus 200 aristocrat families subjugation of all Britons and other nations, they simply did not know or care how toxic the coal ash, smog, ground water pollution is, etc. Perhaps some knew how bad oil smog is, because Harvard professor told everyone in 1920 lead in gasoline would be catastrophic, nobody listened and they did it to commit genocide on purpose as today they do genocide with radio frequencies, junk food in all out extermination war against the working class. The Royals etc simply promote dog ownership, because, after all, in USA dogs are far more important than people, dogs get big nice houses, people are homeless. Murder and torture is their daily activity and they do that with impunity as taught by MI6 precursor, the father of USA, Washington was a British general. America didn't really value any science, until the day the murderous psycho aristocrats in charge, that make Hitler look like an angel, realized they could use some science to smack entire nations and continents in one or several nuke blasts. Even then, science was for weapons only, not for World Peace in 3 months and 0 torture in 3 years, 0 violent crime (a goal no demon possessed aristocracy has ever allowed to be talked on TV, since via violence alone they control the planet) and even today, torture and war is number one, peace and nonviolence nontorture a fictional concern of no aristocrat. When you realize the evil inside the elites, the 10 year torture they subjected me to, with daily attacks from 2016 to 2025, seems nothing in comparison. Keep in mind these scum of the Earth bandits had created, via their infernal depravity, 29000 banks in 1920s, instead of one, as a way to loot and squeeze the last blood drop out of the working class. Tesla invented lots of things in every electronic device today, and he died broke. He told the world around 1898 (age 42) that we can power the planet by solar, and have 100% electric cars, etc, but the greedy bloodshed lovers could care less about listening to scientists. Why worry about smog or coal ash giving cancer to the workers? They lived far away from factories on 3-700 acre properties. You think USA is different in 2025? Look at their palaces now. The religion of these demons incarnate was mainly theft, murder, genocide, to increase the bank account/assets size, as the unholy evil Bible guides them to, since the evil Torah is the Old Testament of the Bible and the basis of the Quran too. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

4.5.6.3. Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺ is the 3rd of the 11 National Unified Companies that ensures all houses are sold/bought in 2-4 days. It gives, repairs within 24 hrs, maintains, inspects quarterly great single family housing to all Americans with room size minimum 300-350 ft^2 (<100

OK for babies, toddlers for existing houses, <200 OK for <12 yrs), max 400 sq ft (to prevent violent crime via low oxygen during sleep) to end 2 nations in USA: aristocrats (see their millions of mansions) and slaves, it develops sci-fi tech that turns every workplace building and residential building into an immortality building device, into a machine that slows aging. Kids won't need to feel so cramped and go to endless gyms due to feeling like their room is a jail cell, they can turn the room into their gym, Eterni Chemistry or Eterni Physics lab and temple to Eternal Immortality for All. No more gyms needed, same house sizes, just smarter design, tiny kitchen (pressure cookers do it all, no ovens needed), 180 ft^2 living-dining-kitchen-hallway merged as one, kids first, the future first, 120 ft^2 = 2 baths, 2×350 ft^2 room, 2 bed 1.5 bath house=1000 ft^2 . For the transition period to IBI, I made a guide for DIY replacing toxic carpet with the lowest VOC emissions LVP that any 6 year old can install, so families save 200 billion/yr given to Mexican cartels for ultra simple remodels, and add 5-10 years to your life by avoiding carpets. USA should ban all imports of LVP, flooring, adhesives, furniture, etc products that are not Greenguard Gold certified. Corporate America has no incentive to build good housing that lasts more than a few years, while the company that has to repair and maintain them forever has incentive to build a house that lasts forever. Immortality Building Inc ends the parasitic contractor mafia that creates terrible housing for half Americans (see Florida) and creates endless homeless people, via the 200,000 deaths/decade Holocaust described in the sports section. It ends all this genocide, by offering physical exercise enthusiasts paid volunteering opportunities to exercise while building safe domes for 250 million Americans in tornado zones. See the issues with vinyl windows vs fiberglass windows that expand and contract at the same rate as glass, no longer creating leaks. See how many big builders have no quality control. See the mold in new homes, how genocidal aristocrats plan home appliances to fail when warranty expires, to force you to trash the old one and buy a new one, causing untold waste of national resources. It's class warfare too, the workers keep buying crap, the rich make trillions in profits, the environment is full of old appliances.

These serial killers disguised as CEOs who plan obsolescense deserve nothing but lifetime labor or death penalty, destroy USA and make houses, cars, appliances and people that last 10 times shorter than they should. They belong to the trash can of history. With one company and reviews that will fine worker who made a mistake 30,000$, things will rapidly change, as managers, inspectors also would get hefty 40,000$ fines if a home has issues 30 years before expected time. In immortalism a CEO can make max 3 times the worker minimum wage, eventually twice, but in genocidal capitalism of last 8 millennia, he can make 50,000 times more, so he can do whatever genocide he wants, own any government he wants. Check out how aristocrats steal government funds to fund palaces, while lecturing at a Catholic Jesuit University on, guess what: real estate, the ultimate frauds and conmen. The code making bodies are bought by the rich, so they can enslave the whole world and US. Adobe is built from 10% straw, 20% sand, 70% clay, ideal for hot dry climates, no AC needed, total house cost 2500$ to build a house, nobody knows about it, as billionaires can't get rich off you. This is like AAC (autoclaved aerated concrete), a much safer and mold free material than wood, needing no insulation that rots, used by billions on Earth, but mostly banned in US, since the criminal building code was written by wood billionaires, other psychos: 3000 factories worldwide, only 2 in USA. A block that floats in water, survives a 2,000°F fire for 4 hrs. Used in 75% of new UK homes, 60% of German homes. Satin, semi-gloss, eggshell paint will be made illegal by immortalists, because it traps hand grease, dust, mold spores, dirt so easily that the only way to clean the wall is to repaint it. Poor folks can't afford repaint, so their houses look like dungeons from 1400s. With high gloss paint, a water/soapy water soaked sponge cleans it instantly, keeps walls free from deadly pathogens, extending the lifespan of all. Satin paint is a marketing scam to force people to buy more paint, it's essentially satanic paint to kill people and waste their time repainting too often: the grey walls trap viruses, mold spores, bacteria to reinfect all yearly. High gloss paint traps old paint odors, microbes, and even a little lead much better. Google AI is an info extractor from the worm IQ of predatory realtors who write, as the scumbags they are, on their sites, that "eggshell or satin" sells better. This is like "wash your hands once a decade" hygiene advice, applied to wall cleaning: wash walls every 10 years at remodel. Google, etc AI is stupid, it simply regurgitates the "consensus" of all "paint advice online" sites or whatever topic, that comes from rat IQ realtors, instead of the Immortality Nurturing Agency. It doesn't have any deep health first ethics, since it is too expensive to take that parameter set in every answer. The key difference between immortalism and capitalism is that in immortalism we use any national resource to add 100 times more lifespan years to the nation than capitalism, which is random and has no longevity goal: a clear example is millions of morons replace their noncarpet floor for LVP, while their relatives and neighbors who have carpet and need carpet gone 1000 times more because carpet is 1000 times more toxic, don't do it. We have the small business "tomato IQ", prices and random events decide who replaces it based on the fruit fly logic. ☺☺The distribution of resources go towards aesthetic instead of living to 4000. It's a huge waste of resources in all industries, due to decentralization, not knowing the needs, the total of each food and floor needed, trashing 33% of food, over production, ☺☺☺. He complains she is emotional, could be that carpet wall gap moldy air lowers vitamin D receptor 50 fold, which causes irritability due to brain inflammation and he installed LVP, while she didn't, but she did need it 5000 times more. Hypocrisy, selfishness, stupidity multiplied, capitalism personified. ☺☺☺ If we rip the carpets, we see all the gaps that recolonize the carpet with similar smells and bacteria 1 year after carpet reinstalled to act busy being stupid. All hotels, homes need carpets removed, as they need 900x the labor to keep as sterile as LVP. Mass produce washable rugs or wear slippers. Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺ repairs, maintains all houses, knowing how to allocate limited resources for the highest life years return on investment ROI, instead of PROFIT, money ROI. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Most people are so brainwashed by the frauds on CNN, Foxnews, etc who tell them "We are the Best", US the best", that they don't even realize our cabbage IQ gov is incapable after 250 year of bullshit talk to ensure that even 5% of US homes can withstand a tornado, fire, storm, flood, or hurricane that can hit their state. The latest upgrades in wind resistance in Florida cover only a few South Florida counties above 140 mph, but this refers to horizontal wind resistance of a hurricane, not the updraft vertical tornado forces forming often around hurricanes that recently killed a few people in Florida. The 2022 hurricane Ian killed about 150 people, thanks to a gov of clowns whose main priority is building stadiums, instead of dome shaped homes that would resist hurricanes/tornadoes much better, and even nuclear blasts if made of concrete or new materials that anchor as one shape 20 ft underground thru pillars ending in plates holding 50 tons of earth. The Americans are so brainwashed by fake news, that we don't even know how behind US is in many industries vs other nations, that that the gov standards are pathetic and even in Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, DC near the capital, the houses are built to withstand only 115 mph winds, which is far less the 200 mph of certain areas of a hurricane and tornado. The right forward area of a hurricane of 150 mph can reach 190 mph if it travels at 40 mph, the impact force is that of a 190 mph hurricane, that would flatten 99% of homes in USA. Strong tornado speeds can reach 165-400 mph, and only 1 US county builds homes to withstand 160-180 mph, in Florida. The gov failed to take care of the most basic human need: safe shelter. What if instead of comparing ourselves with the dumbest lifeforms of the universe, we realized how incredibly stupid we're as a nation, spending 1.4 trillion/yr on useless junk, while the most important thing, Life itself, is not protected, the shelter, food, etc. All this talk about "how great we are" is a cover to hide the trillion $ theft by the hooligan terrorist small/big business aristocrats keeping us in the stone age in building tech, shape, design, etc. These retarded companies of 1-1,000 PhDs can't compare with a 3 million PhD Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺. The cretinism of the average American is unknown to him, due to comparing himself with ant IQ folks from other countries, but compared to aliens he has no brains. He spends gigajoules of energy to practice demented sports and gym stuff that could have been used to turn all homes into domes by now that withstand all out nuclear blasts and all 400 mph end of time tornadoes. When Immortalists win 75% of votes ☺☺, Demon-crats 15% & Re-pub-licans 10%, we change the Constitution, the federal standard for new housing is 400 mph, to bring zero tornado casualties. Nobody in the US will be allowed to build trash to con the workers and injure/kill them forever. The toad IQ local governments we need dissolve right now will be replaced by the Central One ruled by Immortalist Anthem Ethics, Immortalist Capitalism and Immortalist Prolife Standards. Future humans will look at our houses today as we look today at the tents of Siberian nomadic people, flimsy tents destroyed by any tornado. These much stronger homes also won't kill those inside when a small airplane, helicopter crashes. They will be 1000 times more resistant to fires and objects, trees, flying cars that are sometimes hurled by tornadoes into homes and kill people. We achieve what we set our mind to.

Gov is merely a tool for billionaire gangsters to get rich off the masses. 1776 was a scam. The rich own both parties, elections are pure fraud. To make profit by repeated purchases, criminal billionaires poisoned all US soils with arsenic using an Indian Sonti Kamesan chromated copper arsenate wood treating formula, instead of using the 7-30 times longer lasting charred wood, that burns the outer cellulose and hemicellulose layers that feed molds and termites and leave the lignite carbon layer (allows 10 times less water thru, can't grow mold or termites, no food exists) that is still sound after 4 centuries in Japan. To have you buy wood 30 times more, they poison our kids and soils with arsenic, to cause cancer. For profit they commit genocide, thank you Indian chemist and corrupt US rich gangsters. This is similar to borax used to pretreat wood so your house is never attacked by termites. The roof industry makes 330 billion a year, so they work against the 3$ billion lime roofs that would save US maybe 200$ billion a year, all so a few gangsters can build palaces with stolen funds. Then we wonder why there are no funds for x, y, z, as all pay for cooling etc. Mafia runs everything in US. With 9$ Hydrated Lime S 50 lb bag, you can save 130K in 50 years, or use white reflective paint for the roof, so 125K savings can buy supplements to live to 120. With today's advanced tech the roof can change color with each season, by changing nanoparticle properties via one blast of UV, etc, to absorb (black) heat in winter and repel it in the summer. If you have the same company doing maintenance that builds it, and all repairs, it will build something that lasts 2000 years, a cheap aerated concrete dome that lasts 900 hurricanes. With the present system of banditry, they build a trash box that lasts 5 years, that will kill residents at each tornado, since politicians are bandits. No accountability exists, the gov doesn't even ensure decent shelter, it's a collection of bought puppets without a clue about what they're doing. With proper materials, there would be no termite treatment industry, no termite treatments needed, people would be focusing on living to 4000 tech, instead of replacing items, houses designed to fail after 1-10 years, by the engineers at these criminal companies of planned obsolescence. Hempcrete lasts millennia, but billionaires decided to ban hemp, in order to make billions selling paper from trees and plastics. Other mixes last millennia and are much better than the junk at home depot all construction stores. There are new 'plastic like' materials, made from bacterial cellulose, as strong as glass or some metals, yet flexible, biodegradable, foldable. Why can't they think of a soft rubber like material for beds too, so nobody bumps into metal and to place the bed legs 6" inward, so nobody busts toes, and make these legs round not square shaped? So simple, they never do it, no centralized guideline, only theft by the rich psychos. Passive cooling and heating was discovered in 1950s, but the Big Industry suppressed it, since the idea came from a woman. Jewish USA chooses ideas based on origin, not on their merit.☺☺ Other nations used the $Na_2SO_4 \times 10H_2O$ to cool/heat buildings, but in the US less $ can be made by aristocrats with this, so we get noisy AC/pumps that shorten lifespan via infrasound, heat pumps, moldy ducts to spread disease for central heat. Before 1950, passive cooling was big. Today we could install window fans with air filter to remove air pollution. We can make 2x the electricity a house needs with solar wall cover, solar panels (better than solar tiles, since panels have a 6" gap to cool roof by shadow and require less power to cool house), yet we build these ultra lethal heat pumps that kill with noise slowly. Corruption. Every low IQ green site promotes heat pumps, pump company must make billions some day. ☺

The 40 page section on housing.gov methods of buying/selling a house in 1-4 days is helpful in understanding this mega company, for all houses and buildings in USA will be maintained by it, so they will visit each house twice a year to check air filters, pipes, electrical appliances, odors, mold, traces of drugs (since many parents have squatters who smoke fentanyl, drugs near kids, grandma, like this lady), etc. Most poor people postpone maintenance by years and this can cause explosions, health issues, etc. This company prevents those expensive medical treatments by eliminating the cause of explosions and health damage when it's 50 times cheaper to do so. Efficiency at its best, since the aristocratic criminals steal everything and the rest are left on their own to fend for themselves. Today, no contractor does even 10% of what ought to be checked at their routine quarterly inspection, and this is because a company with 1 PhD can't do what a company with 1 million PhDs can do, so we need to wake the brainwashed population up from the trance the aristocratic hyenas have induced them into: that 33 million small businesses are the way to go, when most don't even check 3% of what needs to be checked. This company is a key centralization of an immortalist state. You know, everyone talks about the nation, how we're all Americans, one family, one body of God or Christ or whatever religion fantasy one subscribes to, or has to after Jews brainwashed gentiles into the Jesus cult. But in reality, there is no family: some live 10000 in one acre, others live one in 50 acres. So, if we want to bring a world of peace, of 0 crime, it starts with USA. We create a max 3000 or etc square footage (400 for a room, 200 for living room) and acreage (1 acre, unless a farm), since big houses/lots will deprive a lot of people of the materials/space to build houses, to innovate, etc. With one company, nobody is allowed to build, as this one company builds and permits everything. So any policy can be implemented and any house can be built big only for big families. Due to selling houses instantly, people can move to smaller house in 3 days when kids go to their own houses at 18 while in college. Recall, at 18, all get a free house, a tiny one bedroom house, or studio in the transition period to redesigning the cities. So we can't have the top 5-10% live like kings and the bottom 40% like rats, because then there is no innovation and our country will be destroyed in one fast blast by an enemy too. China builds temporary houses in 8 minutes. We live in the stone age, our cow IQ companies design bath knobs that catch all dirt, to transmit maximum disease. With fewer companies, every product is inspected and tested by microbiology, EMF, ergonomics, ligament stretching in hands, all kinds of specialists of the 1 million PhDs/MDs team that design the 11 companies products (that are double checked before production by the Immortality Nurturing Agency to be 100x better than any today), to make sure any product used in building, faucets, etc meets the highest safety and minimal ligament injury requirements. The clear plastic types require more force, more damage to hand muscles, transmit more disease than the long handle (angular momentum is bigger, so less effort needed to turn it on, less wear on human hands) that takes 100 times less time to properly disinfect, wash. In capitalism, every moron designs stuff without any review by 1000 PhDs.

China discovered how to make iron 3600 times faster, we just make ☺abysmal IQ☺ mean violent degrading music to destroy the human quantum field. Guess what? The human quantum field will destroy America if we don't change. It's the self-defensive action of the whole of humanity. In one blast the Chinese could wipe the whole North America 4000 times faster than it takes for some to finish their aggressive mean song, or blast these 8.5 million mansions for a selective targeted strike on the US aristocracy terrorizing the whole planet. After 25 millennia of aristocratic terror, our shelters are made mostly of rock (bricks, drywall from rock), wood or iron – just as they did 5000 years ago, thanks to a truly "outstanding innovation thanks to outstanding democracy and incentive to innovate". We could have 100 amazing lighter than wood, 100 times stronger than concrete and steel materials via science, build amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ domes that even winds of 900 mph (on Earth 230 mph is maximum) and nuclear blasts and hypersonic missiles can't demolish. But no, our goals are be happy, drink more alcohol and watch 0 IQ sports, come what may, the wind will get us. A dome with a vent saves cooling costs, a dome can be built way faster & why domes are the best, yet greed blocks them. The housing industry thrives on planned obsolescence, on building trash and then the enslaved working class spending eons with other vampires (different from the contractor hyenas who built the trash) to fix it forever. If only one company builds, maintains, repairs all US buildings, then it has incentive to save costs by building everything right to last 900 years from the get go. The billionaires make tons of cash by this system of working class genocide. Any decent gov would outlaw box houses in states with hurricanes, tornadoes, mandating domes. ☺

Another wasteful thing is the 6 mil laminate/LVP that wears out in 5 years, 12 mil (10 yrs), instead of 22 mil (25 yrs) or 22 mil plus (35 years). 6 mil is cheaper, but society pays a huge price for 6 mil, with endless replacing of floors and landfill waste, all because the anti-scratch layer vanished. Instead of discovering how to bring zero violent crime, eternal World Peace and 4000 year lifespans, we keep replacing floors thanks to the genocidal aristocrat who will con people to buy a trashy product that costs the nation 5 times the labor to replace it and endless landfills. Immortalists will require 30 mil minimum and 35 min lifespan, so we do research instead of replacing floors every 8 years. There is Techtanium plus coating (lasts 75 years of light residential use in theory) that's allegedly twice stronger than 22 mil (lasts 35 yrs max) and 50% stronger than 30 mil (50 yr max), but the core components of LVP fail before year 40, even if coat lasts. Why are people then using LVP and not create a new product that lasts 300 years, longer than hardwood that needs a lot of care, refinishing and labor every 10 years? You can't, in capitalism fraud, bullshitting, marketing, deception are 1000 times more important than innovation. How can you innovate when you have everyone in admin positions instead of 50x more research with the 11 companies? You need 33 millions CEOs, HR and other admin positions, bullshit sales, etc. "Ant IQ" folks can't comprehend that Capitalism is STAGNATION. In Capitalism you have 9000 versions of the same wasteful low safety high injury product, just different bullshit marketing, different package colors, different size, price points. This fraud is called "competition", but it's stagnation. For 1000 different products you need 1000 more sales people, who can't be research scientists, engineers to design that revolutionary 300 year lifespan floor product. Capitalist nations become nations of loudmouths, drama queens and "cabbage IQ" folks and that's exactly what we see today: huge stadiums and sports facilities, strip clubs, casinos, gambling venues, bar entities steal all materials to secure homes from tornadoes and hurricanes via dome shape, etc, all talk crap on TV while violent crime is a trillion times higher than it could be: shit talking is the main activity in capitalism, lies 24-7 on TV, fake elections too. Everyone pretends, like in USSR, to be good, to be productive, competitive and shareholder focused. TV bandits award themselves salaries 900x higher for shit talking than hard working scientists and engineers. This depravity can't exist in immortalism of one universal pay☺☺☺ (non monetary reward), different than fraudulent USSR Jewish "communism" where Jew-Russian elites made 10x the rest. Capitalism is the enemy of civilization, the basis of banditry, regress, stagnation and war. Everyone cons everyone. $ is all. USA has become a Jewish scam on the verge of ever greater stagnation. ☺☺☺

With Immortality Building Inc constructing, maintaining, fixing all buildings, they will make all building materials (no more 500 stores to get building supplies), producing floors, fixtures, etc that last 10 times longer, spread disease 100 times less by "silly designs", cause hand or leg injuries falls 50 times less (e.g. stair nose luxury vinyl plank (LVP) prevents falls far better than a lip-style (flush stair edge) because it creates a solid, flush edge, eliminates tripping hazards, and improves foot grip, yet companies make the ones that cause millions of falls and wasting medical resources, time (broken leg), all in the name of imbecility, style, or profit; this is one of 1 trillion such examples in every major industry) so we advance, instead of deceiving humanity to make a quick profit. Capitalism is a game of endless fraud where everyone pretends to offer real service to others. Immortalism places the health, longevity and happiness of the people above "profit". The palatial aristocrats make the US alone waste 1.4 trillion/yr in useless junk purchases that waste the lives of endless people making it, the rich create huge trade deficit, destroying the nation and polluting the air. Instead of working on real products that double lifespan, the masses are brainwashed by the tomato IQ aristocrat to buy the stupidest stuff. Even fruit flies have higher intelligence than the 1%, hence tomato IQ. This 1.4$ trillion is only 20-30% of the total waste the aristocrats do. The 1% poison everyone with 95% of food companies and restaurants, making all pay a trillion/yr to be poisoned. The same bastards poison everyone with carpets, toxic 6 ml laminate etc of high VOC emissions, not Greenguard GOLD certified, causing trillions wasted in healthcare to cure the diseases these products cause. The 1% own the government, as parasitic vampires, they destroy US by stealing 4 trillion of wealth and making fools produce this junk instead of something healthy that lasts and causes 20 times less landfill that is burned and poisons everyone with smog, except the rich in estates with good air filters. The 1% are disgraceful pieces of garbage whose main activity is to loot the people, the state, destroy all progress and lie all day about the benefits of "free market" (all controlled by 1% via media control and brainwashing all what to buy, the state control of communism is replaced by 1% control of capitalism, it's the same system) and "capitalism", i.e. pure fraud and genocide via big or small companies. Both don't care about the workers' health, longevity, about zero violent crime, the communist elites often behave like the 1% of capitalism. The difference between communism and immortalism, capitalism and immortalism is here. Communism was hijacked by bandits, spies and thieves who became many of the 1% in USSR, just like in China today, things became 900 times worse than USSR with 58% wealth owned by 0.01%. With centralization, we inspect each product design 900 times more by the experts at Immortality Nurturing Agency & Universal Immortality Inc, so we don't waste trillions producing junk that sink an economy and invite repeat purchases that quadruple trade deficits, while the smog cloud from China travels to the West Coast to poison USA. China is a truly feudal, not communist nation. Buying Chinese products supports Feudalism and Eternal Slavery of the 99%.

Capitalism is the greatest fraud, they brainwash us daily that we get CUSTOMER SERVICE and amazing treatment by the company, etc, vs USSR (which is true, the fake smiles and self-interest motivated service is just until you buy the lethal product, after that, you're on your own, the warranty expires and then next day product is designed to break, planned obsolescence), but let's be real, the contractors, plumbers etc charge people 10x-20x minimum wage per hour and loot people all the time, flip houses remodeled in the cheapest most lethal way, sell new houses that break months after purchase, build them in low elevation to be flooded, wrong shape (not dome) to be destroyed in a storm and people left homeless for 2 years, etc. The murderous aristocrats don't care, the slaves work 55hrs/wk to make ever new products, that are 1% better or sometimes 40% worse, version 2.0, that now offer parts or are not obsolete yet, while the landfills are filled to the brim with junk, as everyone is forced to buy 20 times more stuff than needed in an honest society of real people not frauds. These same genocidal psychopaths claim "we'll give all to charity when we die, (they give it to a trust their kids control covertly)" and that "we care about the environment, so we fly and emit 3000 times more per trip than slaves with our Boeing". It's all One Grand Deception, because REAL CUSTOMER SERVICE is One Universal Company Builds, Fixes instantly, Housing that lasts centuries, withstands any disasters of that area, be it fire or hurricane, without the ENSLAVED 99% having to worry, spend years of detective work full time in "spare time" to find out which of the 33 million fraudulent companies is doing what they claim to be doing more, etc. Capitalism is feudalism, it's the greatest scam perpetrated on the 99%, there is no REAL CUSTOMER SERVICE. Frustrated people give up hiring "CUSTOMER SERVICE is first" fraud companies, go on youtube and do maintenance themselves, the issue being that a person who installs something 900 times does a better job in certain more complex situations than a guy who did it only 0-5 times before and then disaster hits and the poor always take the hit, unable to afford the 5 trillion $ plumbing call. A decent government's first duty is decent shelter, where you don't have to worry about being homeless due to a stupid contractor not placing a bolt to prevent hurricane making houses fly, or about fire, electrocution, flood, mold, lethal tick/insect bite risks. The 99% needs to awaken from the hypnotic trance, after daily TV-radio bombardment about the "virtues of capitalism" that is producing nothing but Pure Stagnation. Max human lifespan is still 120, after 90 millennia of feudalist terror, so much for the virtue of feudal capitalism. The wars are as numerous as ever before, the homicide rate is even higher than 1960, it looks a little lower due to medical advances, but if no medical advances, the homicides would be higher. The plumbers, contractors often intentionally do a lousy jobs so it breaks fast, so he has a guaranteed customer next year, another plumbing call. The system incentivizes fraud at all levels. This can't happen in immortalism, anything that breaks before the 10-20 year expected time will cause astronomical fines for the person who did it and all his supervisors, etc, as one management for all electricians, plumbers, 'contractors' in the nation exists, they're all employees of the true CUSTOMER SERVICE company called Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺, world's first CUSTOMER SERVICE FIRST company that Capitalism never had, meaning the buyer has 1 million times less stress (the main driver of aging) than dealing with any company today, since they fix, repair, maintain everything on a schedule and with such professionalism, none of the cabbage IQ companies today can match, as they have 5 million sales morons instead of 5 million engineers and scientists. Let it be known to all worlds, that We the People, the 99% of USA are awakening and shedding the yoke of slavery. ☺☺☺ Nobody can post fake reviews on reviews.gov, every USA review is in one central location (no more fake reviews, you have to prove via Universal Bank receipt and stored video of the plumbing visit that you actually had that thing done to your house etc) that everyone knows and the review score is also based on internal quality of work measurements based on the Universal company statistics of how often calls happen about breaking stuff for this or that plumber, not just subjective customer assessments of how likable, social butterfly or cute a person is. It's more like Customer Sacrifice, Screwing, Extortion than SERVICE, but the brainwashing is so deep, you view it as SERVICE to You, not Enslavement, when Real SERVICE is 1 million times less stress. The 1% are experts at posing as angels of light, while they're demons of darkness. They'll present to us the Ultimate Slavery as the Ultimate Freedom, Extortion as CUSTOMER SERVICE. ☺

The low IQ clowns (with math and efficiency IQ of 0) say that having 1 company instead of 5 million contractors who have no clue (see new homes problems) what they're doing is bad or communist. We reply by saying, please, think of the world in which we have 5 million Windows, Android like operating systems, instead of one, how scientific progress and communication among people would happen if we had that, and also 5 million languages to top it off. With one company, Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺, you can increase quality 5 million times more, give everyone 5 million times better healthcare, 5 million times longer lifespan, etc. The Building company provides free sleep one night (or even 3 if AI selected mattress causes back pain) in the most High Tech Sleep lab within 20 miles so that the AI detects the best type, among 200 times of mattresses to use and provides this bed and mattress as part of Immortality Building Inc house sale, because sleep is the single most important aspect of shelter purpose. No longer will people waste eons to shop for 400 mattresses, since this adjusts to remove all pain detected by thousands of sensors and the user to create the most soothing sleep: the user can adjust softness in any area in the lab to determine the best type of mattress to remove any back pain, any tension, and ensure a stroke free sleep. The sci-fi tech sleep lab is part of the regional Immortality Park with all its centers of Learning and Healing. When you have all these ☺filif IQ☺ mom & dad companies making bug mattresses, you have them design crap with 1000 or 50000 times fewer PhDs, so everything is garbage. With a reformed educational system ending present universities for centralized National University of Sleep Research, 5000 other fields of research, we get real results instead of the ☺abysmal IQ☺ today with these trashy companies/colleges. Today's colleges, run by thieves awarding themselves 50 times the federal min wage, only teach slaves how to die fast, be a productive slave producing garbage to boost aristocrat profits.☺☺☺ Read the sleep section on issues with today's mattresses: horrible smell, too firm, soft. All this is preventable by the centralization of all bedding, building, furniture into a high tech Building Inc.

With the 11 companies and people working 30 hours a week in an office job and 10 hours or even just 5 hours at Immortality Building Inc to do more physical things, they get all exercise they need, without the need to walk a dog to get your exercise. This way we save trillions of dollars wasted with endless sports facilities and stadiums, competitions and can build 5 million aircraft and big drones to monitor oceans and nation and use lasers to terminate any pre tornado, storm, hurricane/hail using basic 5th grade physics. Sure some storms may happen due to system not working well initially, but domes are resistant and all domes will be built higher to prevent Florida style floods, 5-9 ft above street. The problem today is aristocrats brainwash all to buy '0 IQ' sports and pet products they don't need, while hurricanes and etc do 50 billion in damages every year, when you think about tornadoes and etc, killing dozens at least. With water from air, composting toilets, outside walls, roof and windows, doors turned into solar panels, recyclable filter of urine and shower/kitchen water that becomes sterile water (Water from Air National University, Composting Toilet Nat Uni, Wastewater Home Filtration Nat Uni) that goes into the garden or second storage tank for washing clothes, car, etc you don't need external pipes and can build all houses off grid, as Immortality Building Inc creates this prefabricated house with minimum internal plumbing, all pipes contained in a clear plastic protector that self-heals once cut to fix a leaky pipe. This encapsulation allows us to direct any pinhole leak or water bursting from the storage tank to the garden, as only 5-100 gallons exist in the reserve talk anyway. This system ensures all houses are mold and leak free, good bye all flooding, welcome to dryness. Place the baths and kitchen, water heater at the entrance of the house that is closest to the noisy street to prevent noise from the water from air unit and to make plumbing internally use 10 times less piping than today and move all bedrooms away from the street, give all one level single family houses, domes in areas with storms that last 900 years. Violent crime comes from density, all high crime areas occur in high density cities with condos etc. Instead of coming up with domes that are 5555 times more resistant to storms, tornadoes and hurricanes, we waste time with cubes that kill endless people. Cubes kill, domes extend lives. We had 50 million abortions last 60 years due to cats and dogs replacing kids and really, that's 50 million chemists and physicists who by now would have invented eterni foods, leak free, mold/termite free, fireproof housing and given us 30 extra year lifespan and also World Peace via the amazing brain upload for all humans tech, to make them nonviolent. What is most shocking is how people avoid living in the nicest south states with 5-10 times the water in the air and wonderful warm weather, all because low IQ folks decided to fight science and research. Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺ does all landscaping to prevent people (who don't wear $10 thick gloves (double leather, not the typical leather on one side only with denim or cotton on back that allow all dust on your fingertips and take 3 hand washes and nail trim to clean after gardening, with wrist strap to prevent insects in from biting) to prevent thorn/wood/stick punctures) from scratching hand with some thorns (in the wrist or 5" above wrist nearby area not protected by regular gloves) infected by the lethal soil bacteria common under rotten leaves. Such bacteria killed 30 people in 1 area. You need a long sleeve jacket when doing yard work around sunset or any area with lot of mosquitos, since T-shirts allow mosquitos to bite heavily, just like long sleeve tight fit shirts are so close to skin and mosquitos see the gap between fibers and bite you heavily. Protect yourself, as mosquitos kill 1 million people a year and they shorten the lifespan of 90 million by bites causing debilitating known or never diagnosed conditions. Each year they discover a new disease carried by mosquitos, so wear long sleeves always.

The cube (rectangular house) is a curse, that shape causes endless failures even if the same materials were to be used to build a spherical dome dwelling which would resist winds and hurricane much better, especially if you had concrete domes that are not going to collapse if a heavy tree or flying car taken by hurricane falls on its "wall". Soccer, football, rugby, etc are crimes against humanity when others are homeless and living in mold infested ultra unsafe houses that are ready to fall apart at the slightest storm, people need overcome the "sports addiction" and do science, so falling trees don't demolish these 'paper' houses we rebuild by the millions every decade, while entire lives are demolished too, people are killed, injured and waste eons rebuilding Neolithic huts we call "modern houses"; all these Neolithic☺ houses breaking during earthquakes, storms, winds are an expression of our collective ☺abysmal IQ☺. Not to mention, the amount of fraudulent companies is high, especially in countries with weaker regulations and ultra soft 'penalties'. They promise a house, they never deliver, so fine ought to be 9000 times the amount stolen, per new immortalist system of reducing violent crime and theft a billion fold. This company also has all mining, raw materials etc factories that produce the steel, building materials, etc. It invents building materials that are lighter, stronger, more flexible or whatever is needed, healthier. It prioritizes simplicity of admin, so we focus on innovation, health, lower stress that boosts longevity, etc. The country may have some steel factories, paper factories, etc and we simply call them Paper, Steel, etc above the building, a factory within the construction materials department of the company. This way we don't have separate companies and complex separate systems for payroll, hiring, etc. Simple devices break 10 times less and can be fixed 10 times faster. The same is with Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺, its 10000 factories. Simple admin. We have limited resources and time in a lifetime, if we spend all of it with fancy admin and competing like low IQ folks, we can't focus on living to 900. Why have 33 million companies when 11 is enough and we keep it so simple: building.gov has links to steel.gov, paper.gov, wood.gov for those interested to buy products not sold at home depot stores of Immortality Building Inc ☺☺. The more things you have, the higher the stress and harder it is to control spies and fraud. Aristocrats live in single family mansions, palaces, etc and the slaves live in high rise condos and other high rise buildings, which, via their weight, cause the slaves to sink as a city. In a democracy, everyone lives in single family homes, so no city sinks due to slaves working or living in high rise buildings that sink due to weight and insane ground water extraction, due to laziness and not enough desalinization. Rich live in suburban tiny cities that never sink and have 4000 times better roads, slaves live in big cities of the 90%, the slaves. Let all live in smaller cities, spread out please. The Home Depot products often break within 4 hours of use, take for example the Ryobi saw, use it and the 3 screws come out and you're left with scrap metal and Home Depot won't accept the return. Instead of a real immovable permanent screw, welded at the factory, they placed easy to loosen screws to have us buy it many times. Corruption. Same for the home depot 14ft pole saw, the screws turn loose, then it gets stuck on a branch, causing it to break, the 1 foot pieces become loose and then the pole would 'break in 2', falling off injuring someone, maybe a kid nearby, making him blind etc. Truly a deadly design, so opt for 32 ft Amazon pole saw to reach tall trees, with sharpener and black coating to reduce friction and rust, reduce effort. However, it's much safer to have Immortality Building Inc do all landscaping, because excessive tilting of head upwards for a long time to trim a 6" thick branch can create damage to the neck vessels, which leads to turbulent flow and a higher risk of stroke when older. All these "cabbage IQ" companies sell these poles without realizing they're setting people up for a potential stroke to end their life 5-15 years earlier. Not to mention the risk of a branch hitting a branch on the ground causing the ladder to fall and person to hit a concrete with the head, causing some electric fire tripping, etc. A professional can do a job much easier, with 100 times better tools and safe procedures, without having to strain for 1 hour to slowly cut a 7 inch thick branch, very slowly with pathetic tools. We see endless home owners doing self-repairs and looking upwards, due to laziness in using a stool or small ladder, but these can destroy the neck vessels over time, the longer and more often these unnatural tilts happen. Once branches fall, cutting them in small pieces to fit into the green waste container is easy with a black coating to reduce friction, prevent rust, like TPI 8 Dewalt 20" saw. We need no Home Depot, let the Immortality Building Inc (the only house, building maintenance, builder in USA) professionals always do all landscaping and house repair and maintenance and prevent endless injuries and low quality trash tools made by profit worshiping companies. This is why we need 11 companies, any product with bad reviews is taken off market until issues are fixed. People do nothing these days, they just buy junk aristocrats sell to the slaves. This is like the Honeywell humidifiers, weapons of mass worker class destruction, the heaters, etc. These tornado videos show how paper houses built with Home Depot ostrich IQ tech, maim hundreds of thousands, destroy millions of homes and kill thousands. We need a real change, check how strong tornadoes are and how current building tech is total trash. Domes can withstand 4 times the power of these tornadoes and with high tech metal round tornado shutters that create perfect seal, no wind can get inside. Isn't it evil that they build endless useless businesses but no decent shelter for 200 million living in high tornado-hurricane areas? The US Congress doesn't care much about the average American, more about being reelected. Since 2015, world's top 1% wealth surged by 34 trillion, enough to end poverty 22 times...

New houses are painted and the guys run the AC with ultra cheap intake filters, causing all kinds of dust and chemicals to contaminate the brand new vents and cause a terrible paint, etc smell to last longer after opening all windows. This makes it harder for people to get a healthy indoor air quality, due to them saving 2$ to get MERV 8 filters instead of MERV 12 or 13, since in bulk each filter is only 8$. With 5 million contractors, each tries to be as stingy as possible, makes everyone's lungs a mess. Likewise, they build these poorly insulated homes or condos where temperature and humidity vary wildly unlike in well insulated condos (the really tall condos, 4-5 floors where the middle floors are very well insulated and always at roughly the same temp in the summer, providing a stark contrast with single family mobile homes where temps gyrate from 55 to 80, instead of being always around 73. I've seen it in hotels too, how 1-2 level hotels are not insulated from the cold foundation (first floor) or cold ceiling (second floor), due to not having other floors below or above, get far more gyration and health issues appear as our bodies have to spend huge resources to adapt to that. Plus if you got dry eyes, you always monitor the humidity and temperature and you see how you need a humidifier thermostat for maintaining humidity at constant level, not just the temperature. Today few thermostats have humidity control, as that requires the use of a humidifier in the central heating system. We need a federal law mandating every room in any building has humidity of at least 40%, to prevent lung and eye damage. Endless houses and colleges, offices, etc have humidity of 15% when temp is 78 or higher, meaning, the eyes and lung are destroyed. We live like peasants and don't care about the people. We think we're so smart, but we haven't even done the minimum to prevent lung and eye damages that often cost 300 times more than fixing the humidity issue via Immortality Building Inc. Sadly, today we don't have silent oil heaters with a thermostat attached by wire that we can place 10-20 feet away where we really want the temperature to be constant, near desk or bed, since oil heaters are far healthier, producing far fewer toxic chemicals and making houses free of the deadly vents that grow mold, and trap viruses for eternal reinfection with flu, COVID, colds. Not only that, but millions of houses have a basement and the stairs leading to them are not covered with some roof or even beautiful strong tarp, so when it rains, all water goes into basements and it creates enormous mold growth that then is sucked by the furnace or air conditioning unit in there. Most cheap hotels and many cheap houses in more humid climates have high levels of mold, an odd smell that visitors don't really understand as mold at first, since it's mixed with the smell of dust mite feces from carpet, maybe some other old house smells from cooking, etc, but once they close the bathroom or kitchen door 5-25 hours, that smell concentrates and is easily perceived as pure mold smell, as it is often coming from the moldy toilet tank, some kitchen garbage disposal (bad idea), a moldy sink drain pipe or bath fan or all 3 of them, and the infected walls can be full of whiter mold. The house buyer or hotel visitor doesn't know these ways to check for mold and buys a junk house, but the trained smell expert and mold detection device scientist will soon notice most cheaper houses and hotels are lethal and don't meet the criteria, and even most pricier US and world homes, have very poor indoor air quality. In our society of ☺abysmal IQ☺, where science takes a back seat, we form 1 million small companies with 0 PhDs total, instead of 1 big company with half a million PhDs. Our ☺abysmal IQ☺ as a society knows no limits, thanks to the primitive Republicans/Democrats pushing for "small business economy" to keep US in the Stone Age forever. No research, no device to monitor 3000 mycotoxins, indoor air pollutants, outdoor pollutants, etc. That old house dusty smell is often a result of mold, as hotels are busy wasting time at front desk browsing Internet 90% of the time instead of cleaning the hotel and doing proper maintenance. 60% of US hotels are owned by Indians (and employ Indian/etc illegals) and they smell so bad, smoking smell in 90% of them, exactly like hotels in India and streets, check this video, feces flow openly in streets in New Delhi or how millions defecate in nature. US cheaper hotels are smelling like these Indian streets, being managed by Indians too. Imagine if USA would acquire these hotels, by fines for poisoning Americans' lungs and establish Immortality Hotels to fine every smoker 5 million, establish separate hotels for smokers, etc and have clean hotels instead of these concentration camp prison cells disguised as "hotel rooms". Varanasi, India's spiritual capital, shows us the way forward in order, clean, quiet hotels in USA. High "quality" Indian illegals come to US to work in the toxic hotels that smell like these honks. Check out a typical Indian street, listen to the sounds of total chaos. India is the best example of the filth, chaos, noise you get with decentralization, 22 official languages and no central laws. This is why USA is in such a filthy state too, we have total decentralization to keep 5% very rich. Japan has India's population density, yet lives 20 years longer due to centralization, 1 language.

There is no brick 6 inch 'fence' to prevent garden water from going to the stairs that connect the ground level to the basement, water falling due to gravity, so even if canopy exists above, it won't be enough, even if way better than no canopy. Nothing can be lower in IQ than moving the central AC or furnace heating in a basement, since a water leak could cause mold to go up and infect all vents and the house. Instead of fixing stuff to exercise, to help old folks with messy basements and no canopy, US legislators play baseball. It's as if a part of them remained at the psychological level of a 4 year old, whose only desire is to torture anyone who criticizes the criminal aristocratic terror system of 250 years, that commits billions of violent assaults on US citizens each year, and with the impunity of a demon possessed bastard. 10000 assaults a year on folks that criticize their reign of eternal violence, using their lasers, tasers, weapons, so it becomes 300+ billion violent crimes worldwide/year, leading to the damage of the human quantum field and eternal wars. Central AC with its vents creates too many issues, single room wall units are quieter, more energy efficient. It's incredible that our 0 IQ government allow ultimate trash houses with basements to be built or sold like that (rooms for rent, with living & kitchen also smelling like mold & other toxic stuff, 1.5 miles from White House in a property that is $2 million, near Anna Cooper circle, 18xx 3rd St NW by a guy who always changes his name on facebook, using Turkish, Hindu etc names for each room in that house, though he's neither of those) and that the most disgusting mold filled houses are on the market to be sold before the basement mold or horrible smells from remodel chemicals gassing off are removed. The attic is a better place for the furnace or AC. In Washington DC, the houses smell like the ultimate mold infestation in the basements very often, the design coming out of the "ass of a donkey". The odd thing is when these people fix potholes, it's the worst job of anywhere in the nation, they fixed some pothole somewhere, a set of actually 20 gaps and instead of a flat nice job, everything is wavy and bumpy as if there are still potholes there. This is the result of decentralization: every ☺abysmal IQ☺ guy is a contractor and they have no clue what they're doing. All roads in USA need to be fixed by one super professional department of Immortality Building Inc with proper training for all. Same standards for all streets, not one standard for aristoc-rats and one for slaves in DC, etc. Palace dwelling genocidal aristocrats could care less, they have slaves check on their houses and fix them regularly, the others inhale crap until they die. The 0 IQ US gov allows black, green, grey toilets so nobody knows if they're clean, or grey, dark beige walls and ceilings, so nobody can see early on when a leak develops. The wall paints need to be whitish, to save electricity, detect leaks early (yellow spots when it leaks), see fleas, ants, bed bugs. Flame retardants are high in black plastic, so it is best to avoid black plastic. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Millions of people get sick today due to stress caused by worry, chronic worry about things they should never worry about, since Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺ maintains and builds, repairs and replaces all houses, business buildings, appliances, etc. It's a shame how poor people don't have money, so they try to do it themselves and end up making mistakes that then cause worry, stress, aging or that cause more problems down the road (mold perhaps or other things, floods, fires, or carbon monoxide killing them or harming them, etc, sickening them) in 3 years or more, maybe 50K worth of damage (forget to do one step and cause some big flood, etc) or even 3 million if a tall building, a leak, etc. Everyone would want to never have to worry about any appliance breaking, fixing anything related to their house, doing anything complex for buying or selling a house, except seeing the house in person and cleaning up your house a little, so that Immortality Building Inc doesn't trash anything you accidentally left there. This is normal, just as car companies do all maintenance on cars or advanced lab equipment. Since the future house will be truly advanced, we need let the experts fix it. Such decent worry free life, where you never worry about house maintenance, is for now, in 2024, only for the parasites who create wars to subjugate us all. The current system is genocide against the working slaves, the 95%, via housing issues that harm our health and shorten lifespan of 8 billion by 5 years each, which is equivalent to 40 billion lifespan years lost or killing 1 billion adults who have about 40 years left to live. It's a HOLOCAUST of gigantic proportions, yet nobody dares to speak, the media is silent about it and all we see on TV is ruined houses due to incompetent state governments with ☺ abysmal IQ☺ 20000 policies by city and village about height of house foundation, strength of wind resistance in tornado prone states, etc, flood zones, etc. Those uninsured people who go thru many floods live often 30 years shorter as a result of these traumatic floods. The rich don't care. But we do, we're true people, unlike the phony rich claiming we're all one family or one body of Christ, only to steal everything from the state via taxing games, when no taxes would be natural, and stealing more from the rest who pay high prices that make them billionaires. Why can't all have a worry free life that gives you 10 extra years of life? Because the aristocrats will kill 3 billion to prevent this Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺ from becoming reality and thus ending fraudulent low tech companies run by parasites who live off our backs, live off planetary, human species death. The rich don't care, they have maintenance plans, and are against nationalization of house building and maintenance, as their living off others' work for millennia ends, their torture of billions of workers ends, as the spy agencies, militaries, police agencies they use to violently subjugate the masses are becoming ethical of their own choice or due to external events greater than Tsar Bomba. So, we need to be fair, to end the violent daily attacks by microwaves, infrasound, x-ray, ultrasound, etc against the workers by the aristocratic military-spy-police Gestapo eternal mutilation mi6 like puppet USA and other states, to create a sense of national family, where all feel the gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kind caring of the government for all, just like a mom loves her 350 million babies, on a sci-fi planet where people can have that many babies, where all use the same company for maintenance and building, where all feel they belong to the same one family with no privileges for the 'rich' bastards who control the military-industrial terror complex.

You see today the 18 year olds wait 20 years to buy a house or 30, this is insanity, everyone ought to work and get a free basic house at age 18, a tiny 1 bedroom house that they sell in 3 days when they start a family, to the people who need a small house, etc. Parents can easily downsize when kids leave the house, and kids can expand when wife gets pregnant again, etc. We need to rekindle the true spirit of the American revolutionaries who wanted to be free from the yoke of slavery by the British, only to be enslaved again, by phonies who pretended to be 'American'. In a truly revolutionary and evolutionary spirit, Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺ allows us to "build immortality" (extend lifespan by 25%) by electrical installations that disturb bioelectric biomagnetic field of humans. Today, anyone builds trash, gives billions of people cancer, endless illnesses via improper house wiring, none has PhD in biophysics to measure stray or high frequency currents, USA has no wiring standards like other nations where GS units (1 GS = 24V/s) have to be below 50, read more in the EV safety first paragraph. With Immortalism, we require all houses to be safe, all appliances to be safe, all EV charging cables, all phone chargers to be safe, and not shrink our lifespan. The jungle today is replaced by the scientific honesty world of the Immortalist Party. Almost all use WiFi routers that shrink their life, all are clueless. Every low IQ guy is a contractor. With high tech, efficiency, we can build walls that emanate the rays that triple lifespan, the sound that quadruples it, the light that quintuples it. We make everything so sci-fi that today's trash houses would all be thought of as caves. They get these goofs with 9th grade education to build houses. Ask a 15 year old or 1 million teens to build a Tesla car himself, they can't, but an advanced factory can build 1 million. Likewise, the house of the future, made into factories as complex as Tesla, with monitoring thousands of parameters (air quality, EMF, RF, etc) always delivered every 24 hours by RF or fiber optic to the Washington DC metro new capital, Eterni, will be so advanced, no human will be able to build it like today. These sensors AI will alert the maintenance teams to go to the house and fix it or tell owner to vacuum or do some basic bath cleaning, etc, automatically. Today, our houses are glorified pig dens, like in 1848, when people defecated in open pits near the kitchen and cholera etc spread really fast. Most houses today are filthy, moldy and disgusting, smelling like feces, human feces, dust mite/mold/microbe feces, so we need real tech/results nice quantum weapon to sterilize 75 houses at once of all microbes. Most people don't notice it since they got used to it, but precise sensors will confirm this bleak statement. The air quality sensors of the future will detect so much of that, since now the baths are so dirty, the feces particles all over in 99% of houses.

If we have one company, we get rid of all parasites, meaning insurance companies and we no longer have staged Dec 4th 2024 like shootings of insurance CEOs with bullets marked with the phrase of insurance critics (delay, defend, depose method of avoiding paying claims and also a method of ending aristocracy, delay their receipt of trillions stolen from the state, defend the working class and the delay, depose the aristocratic political system), name of a book about how insurance companies defraud Americans. All residential or commercial buildings are repaired by the same Universal Immortality Building Inc (nobody needs insurance since house is maintained by the same company and is thus "insured" by that company). This shooting was fake, the media never shows the actual shooting, and the Luigi Nicholas Mangione 26 year old shooter is smiling (he knows it's all fake), being presented as a hero of the 95%, the working class. When caught he had a note about the insurance parasites, though all know the predatory nature of the insurance industry. No video of the shooting (only some gun firing something), no video of the dead, injuries is shown, because the UnitedHealthcare CEO is alive obviously, and everyone loves the "shooter" who is obviously an FBI undercover agent role playing he shot the CEO, another FBI guy (United was being investigated for fraud by the Senate and Biden admin). United is world's 11th largest company by revenue, reminding us of the 11 companies of immortalists and the 11 pages of FBI criticism. A video explains 16% of medical insurance claims are denied on average, but United rejects the most in USA: 32%. It's the media's way to wake people from the trance of reading everything literally and start to read between the lines to what is NOT said. For example, tens of thousands of spies fake their deaths each year, so news report that they died. All media in each nation is military invented stories, mostly fake, teaching people how to read complex messages from what is NOT said. This fake death is related to Immortality for All, longevity, Universal Health Insurance of the one American family via Universal Immortality Inc. The shooter allegedly had some "monopoly money" in his backpack: go figure, 1 company for all, one medical company for all USA. The CEO got a new identity and undercover job. This fake death is a way to remind us we don't need insurance companies to decrease efficiency. The insurance book is 5$ on Amazon. This was a covert fake event to raise awareness of the parasites, and of the inefficiency that would disappear if US became united or East EU adopted English and unified the former 20 community nations into a new Nation. The CEO is overweight, while the shooter is normal weight, this is the irony of the staged event: healthcare CEO ought to be the healthiest looking guy, but he wasn't showing he's a slave of the finance guys, not promoting health, but profit. If he can't take care of himself, how can he take care of all the rest? Insurance companies are not really needed in the end, if you simplify things, so we get more science majors☺☺☺ instead of "accounting, finance, profiteering, etc".

With economies of scale, we can build 100% of the houses to be well insulated and humidity, temp regulated like the very best 0.1% today, bringing average lifespan to a new level, extra 5 years, as the vents are wiped out and we have the most amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ cooling and heating system. We got 10 trillion cells and each has 100000 chemical reactions happening each second, so each reaction produces different yields and waste products at different temperatures and humidity levels, so when you gyrate those, you live much shorter, as your body is always adjusting a 100 times more often. To live long, be in constant humidity and temperature and this is only possible via unification, economies of scale to deliver the house of the future. When you travel an a support engineer or doctor or sales, etc if online is not possible, you need to have 21st century hotels where a thermostat exists near the bed and the desk and it's connected to a small humidifier that is always super clean and high tech and a small silent oil heater, to deliver constant temperature there, not 14 feet away at some thermostat location. And deliver fresh air, 450 ppm CO_2, high oxygen, only possible with a wall built separate for each room or window built high tech fan/AC system that lets passively, while not on, fresh air in. The wall/window AC grills ought to have a way to be shut, to avoid warm or cold air inside the home, or avoid polluted air from smokers or nearby construction or fires, etc, so when you want it off or quieter for 3 hours or 12 hours, you can do so, to block carcinogenic PAHs from entering your house. Our body is a chemical reactor whose yield depends on constant temperature. If you raise temperature, it can kill you slowly or explode the reactor. Instead of all competing and fighting, all help all and cooperate, win-win for 9000 years lifespan for all nations, not using trillions to wage useless corporate or national wars. Those nice AC units for each rook act as the saviors of mental and organ health, as they let fresh air in when idle to replenish oxygen in otherwise impossibly stuffy, toxic, high CO_2 typical world homes. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The global ban of carpets needs to occur as they're breeding and storage ground for 9000 diseases, eternal lung destruction thru mycotoxins produced by dust mites, molds, fungi, bacteria, eternal reinfection with flu, cold, COVID, etc. Vinyl flooring is termite safe, mold free, easy to clean 100 times better than carpet, but needs to be regulated more to eliminate problem chemicals, heavy metals. The only vinyl flooring allowed by Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺ will be better than what today is Greenguard Gold certified by UL (low toxic volatiles, so no asthma or lung cancer) or FloorScore certified by SCS (low levels of 15000 volatiles certified by UL, FloorScore is for floors only, while Greenguard for all types of products, furniture too, see the difference Greenguard floor vs Greenguard Gold floor, Greenguard Gold means lower emissions than FloorScore certified supposedly, though total VOC limit is allegedly the same). LVP luxury vinyl plank flooring got far less smell far healthier than laminate for your lungs (you can see that at home depot yourself) and treated wood which stink bad for months. Unethical governments allow the shipping of these wood and laminate products that make houses that open windows little stink for years, so much so that the walls acquire the toxic smell of these chemicals, like with smoking odor in walls never getting out except with repaint. Instead of off-gassing at the factory in a special high air flow room, they poison billions of people to increase profits: cheap floor materials can cost 4 to 15 times less. Why not make 0 VOC products from the start or at least off-gas them for 4 months to reduce odors 100 fold before it is placed in a box. To be safe, google "Greenguard Gold certified LVP" to get websites with the latest floor products certified for that. The standards are catastrophic, we see these AirBnbs and rentals with cheapest paints and floors that stink so bad, the odor will be there for years sickening endless people. Once again, no central company, no economies of scale, means terrible products will be far more common, as no tougher standards apply. Cheap vinyl can cause some asthma and neurological issues due to poor standards on chemicals, during the first 6 months of off-gassing especially. 3.3$/sqft 6.5 mm, 22 mil (0.56 mm) coating, Home Depot LifeProof LVP is low VOC, (see how to install it) formaldehyde and phthalate free, California Prop 65 certified (low levels of 900 toxic chemicals), no heavy metals, can't rot via mold or be eaten by termites. LVP is recyclable in the future due to new bacteria that eat plastic discovered every year. Microplastics emissions are a concern, and other things, but tech will allow floors that emit proteins and substances that rejuvenate and youth our lungs and body. Research what other floors smell least, and wear soft shock absorbing slippers on non carpet floors to protect your socks and joints, live longer due to less injuries to joints from walking barefoot. Keep in mind that most floors at Home Depot are LVP, for reasons that are obvious: it scratches far less than wood, it is more water resistant. If you love wood, get only hardwood that is Greenguard Gold certified at least, since hardwood can last 300 years vs 40 for good LVP. Until then, we sing the Fake Songs. In the far future we can separate atoms of every material, we won't use incinerators for trash, but molecular disassemblers, we're savage chimps☺☺☺ today vs men of the future). Some companies got "0 VOC" LVP, like Doma. Wood floors need chemical coatings, which need to be regulated too to prevent asthma, health issues, etc. Everyone deserves a decent house, free from carpets that sicken us. Portable rugs can be washed in the washing machine or recycled via a national program, but carpets can't. Cars need constant temp, 450 ppm CO_2, constant 45% humidity.

Immortality Building Inc ☺☺☺ builds decent hotels of various brands it owns: basically, all hotels belong to the people, so the people of the USA, the entire nation becomes the owners, science rules and aristocratic pigs don't, as tech takes over deception. It monitors 500 air contaminants in all hotel rooms, unlike the trash cheap or even expensive hotels today, that stink horribly due to carpets or mattress, improper ventilation between guests. A hotel needs to have excellent passive ventilation and virtually no smell. Hotel.gov is the one site that allows all to book their trips, and since everyone has only one credit card, the Eterni Bank credit card, it is easy, you no longer have to enter a credit card each time, since everyone has a card and it's linked to your immortality.gov ID that links all your cards, accounts, utilities, etc. Today we waste so much time when booking, since we get a huge number of middleman sites that reserve online for a cheaper price, but often fail to reserve as that low price is no longer available, so you do it 9 times via 4 sites, same site sends "room not available at this price" message, making hotel reservation a hassle. So many errors, greedy ☺pet IQ folks☺, sales jobs, everything is about sales and profits, not improving the quality of hotels by replacing all carpets with wood or vinyl. Hotel prices ought to be the same, if you do it online or in person, as only hotel.gov reserves it and hotel.gov owns all hotels, meaning we the American people. Immortality Building Inc removes all carpets to decrease molds, microbes in all hotels, and smells too. It provides wired Internet access, free ethernet to USB-c adapter on each table for laptop plugin, and removes WiFi to reduce cancers and endless diseases WiFi produces, so the aristocrats can't commit genocide via dirty carpets, molds, microbes and RF radiation, while they setup 900000 sites to reserve hotels for the maximum vampirization of the workers. Agoda.com with presence in 40 nations, headquartered in Singapore, offers hotel rates lower than US based priceline.com, booking.com, expedia.com, saving you 15-90$ vs expedia.com and 60-200$ vs hotel front desk. This is because agoda.com makes profits from volume, not from individual mark up. Isn't it ironic that when you order a hotel room from a hotel you pay 10-90$ extra, vs agoda.com? Why is the USA such a filif IQ nation to need a Singapore site to get a decent rate? Why can't hotel.gov give one universal rate, being the only site for US based hotels? Today, with all these 0 IQ hotel searching websites, you can't search by "hot tub", "EV charging" etc and many other features, to see all hotels everywhere and pick one you like, away from freeways, with inside noise level below 35 dB, below 45 dB outside, etc. I drove for 2700 miles in 2024 and in many towns all hotels smelled very bad, even Hilton, showing the complete failure of the current system of aristocratic profiteering. The odd thing is most hotels, from $50 to 150 a night or more, smelled quite bad and had poor central air filtering, etc, plus smoke smell due to a government of aristocratic terror that doesn't enforce smoke bans in all public buildings nationwide. The government doesn't regulate the palace dwelling aristocrats to make sure all hotels meet a minimum level of safe air quality, by doing some regular testing for 400 chemicals in the air that validate a certain smell limit for lung health, etc. We need to require all hotels to have a small window at the top, 20-30% of the window height, that can be open 24-7 to get fresh air, because the AC is not a good option sometimes, it brings moldy recirculated oxygen depleted air from the vents full of bacteria and viruses. An insane % of hotels have windows that are shut 24-7 365 a year, to prevent falls, but kids can't fall if only the very top of a window can be open via a simple button on the lower side to give everyone fresh air. Just put a little flap that opens when window is open, to prevent rain from getting inside (no more worries about water damage, especially with sensors that allow central control of all hotel windows, remote control after a voice says: we're closing the window due to the rain, please be careful and stay away), and they could even have a tiny removable fan there, that you can clean and put back and increase air flow for areas with no wind (by federal law such fans could be required for part of the top of a window, in areas with no wind that blows inside the room (one side of the hotel).

The ventless fans in hotel rooms are filthy too, have a useless air filter that lets in all junk, noisy, ultra noisy sometimes, full of bacteria and viruses, so because decentralization exists and 4000 sizes of filters exist, we can't have one universal size where people can go to Walmart and buy a filter for their hotel fan. Even with a new filter, the grills etc are full of junk, and they're never cleaned for years. Due to decentralization, there is not one super easy to clean AC unit, where a huge part of it is replaced as old one is sent for cleaning, so you go to a hotel and you see the bath fan not working and the floor tiles are cracked, with mold coming out and being sucked by the room wall fan and AC, which then allows those microbes to grow in the AC unit which can't be cleaned easily by a swap. The AC then gets the smell of bad hotel rooms and even when they clean the room, the AC rebrings that horrible smell into the room. Go to some hotels and notice how horrible the smell of the air coming from the fan or AC is, the wall unit, to realize how incompetent and criminal the federal standards for hotels are, all to protect the aristocratic leeches who suck us ('blood') dry until we die. As such, windows open from the top at least would be safer. You could use USB fans from Amazon, 9$ each, plugged into a power strip via a USB to socket adapter and wash the grills, the fan every 2 weeks even, unlike the hotel ones, cleaned every 10 years properly. Generally speaking, if you go see a rental place, the first thing to do is to smell the air coming out of the fan or AC and if not fresh air smell like outside, it's full of microbes and you better not stay in that extermination gas chamber even 1 day. Don't imagine an industrial scale ozone machine will do the trick (you need be out of the room for 4 hours), because this has to be done weekly by hotel staff for the smells to not grow to high levels. Right now the central AC systems are making it far too expensive to replace the vents and it is not sustainable or environmentally friendly, as you trash a lot of material. We need to switch the AC to high tech split systems that have a part, replaceable in 3 seconds, send to cleaning twice a year by federal law in every hotel, instead of sitting there for 35 years. Likewise, the filters they use are pathetic, they need good FPR 12 quality split AC filters replaced monthly.

Many think hotels smell nice in 2020s, but they're a cauldron of infectious diseases and filth, the vast majority, as houses in 1840s and before when folks defecated in open pits near kitchen and cholera spread like wild fire. Our standards are so pathetic, we don't measure anything in the air, the 5000 chemicals we ought to measure with a sensor. I find it shocking the filthiest stinkiest hotels like Moon Inn, Red Roof, Virginia Lodge, Brookside Inn, Relax Inn, Quality Inn, Days In, Springhill Suites, etc most on the same street in Alexandria are so close to White House (9 miles) and yet no government official does anything about this slow extermination campaign against Americans by these little parasitic aristocrats, Indian or other nationalities, folks who know little English, so you need explain things 8 times. The hotels and their cleaning routines are so badly designed, due to no centralization, the whole planet sinks into a microbial feces pit, feces inhaled daily with joy by all naive visitors. Some ozonation of hotel rooms every few days or when guests change, etc could be useful in keeping germs to lower levels. Why would they say anything, because government folks get to stay at nice hotels. We need sensors in every hotel room to measure levels of oxygen, ppm of CO_2, pollutants, etc to know when we need fix things. The problem with decentralization is every 'peasant' clueless guy is allowed to build hotels and they don't know how to build them, they put carpet, and they don't include a fan in the room (window ideally) running 24-7 (useful to draw fresh air thru the wall split AC, only if door foam exists and door is 1% sealed, otherwise the filthy hallway air is sucked in) and a good big split AC open to outside to let air to come in (central AC hotels smell very bad) and don't put good split AC units on the hallways either, so the hallways stink. Go for 100% smoking free hotels, like Choice hotels. A big issue with hotels is they install the 24-7 fans in the bath and this sucks in the toxic eye irritating air from the hallways (very stuffy, dirty stinky hallway carpet, hallway germs, coming from the door to hallway gaps), from the sink drain, tub drain, water overflow sink/tub hole which contain mold spores. Hotels ought to have those silent fans in the window or room. Until then, you can cover a vent with some plastic piece, etc, to avoid sucking all plumbing, inner walls mold spores into the air of the room. Many things they do are creating problems due to lack of door seals and vent placement. In Arizona, or dry climates, the 24-7 fans can dry air to unhealthy levels of 15% humidity, so the fans are not needed like in humid climates to prevent mold growth in bathrooms. Our hotels are like cars in 1825, terrible. If you had immortalist standards, all hotels fail. But we have 1825 standards. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Immortality Building Inc can design an easy to clean and remove the fan that also filters outside smog well, so that the window can be closed if it is noisy outside. An electric heater would be better anyway for warm air, for obvious reasons related to chemical reactions at hot temperatures, so all heaters will be required to be sealed with minimal toxic VOCs, meaning only silent oil heaters will pass. Even new houses can have water leaks and other issues, due to decentralized chaos: aristocrats chase $, big big palaces for their family only, not quality. They have 9,000,000 builders, so each has its own bad set of procedures. ☺Pet IQ contractors☺ today can't even make a house that has perfectly fitting window screens thru which no insect can get in. It's pathetic, the whole thing could be so easily fixed with some better design and plastic or rubber. In warm states in areas with trees, 50 insects can get in at night if light is on, as insects are tiny, 10-50 times smaller than mosquitos. The complete lawlessness and exploitation of workers leads to shortcuts and poor designs. Small builder aristocrat goes bankrupt (like 1700 others did in 2023 in a tiny Australia with 27 million people only) and those who paid but got no house and lost savings are in huge stress, anger, aging fast. This failure of millions of construction startups is a huge waste of time for everyone with bankruptcy courts, procedures. Due to the aristocratic lunacy, landlords abuse renters and shorten their lifespan. Check out the living conditions of renters subjugated by aristocrats. Check out moms with 3 kids living in cars or mom living with kids in tents, thanks to the criminal aristocrats who run the system and control both political parties. People can wait years for houses to be completed too, making everyone angry and short lived. In most nations the people start and dissolve companies by the millions, instead of building houses, due to the aristocrat terror system that requires 10 million palace dwelling aristocrats at the helm of 10 million companies, instead of 1 company and 10 million extra workers, no extra managerial positions that bring in another waste of 10 million workers, 50 million fewer houses built each year. Why is housing so bad worldwide? Due to 10 million building companies instead of just 1 a continent maximum. With Immortality Building Inc such situations never happen, as there is only one Eternal company, owned by We the People, who builds, maintains all houses. No more rich, only eternis, citizens who help build Immortality.

The jungle that is America today allows these gas chambers☺☺☺ to pose as hotels to drain the workers of their life savings: fine those who smoke in nonsmoking rooms a year salary or 10 times that, so we create special hotels for smokers and no longer allow smokers in most hotels. The almighty Immortality Nurturing Agency will inspect all USA hotels and fine any hotel with smell of tobacco, weed in hallways or nonsmoking rooms at least $50 million for deceptive marketing and endangering national security via sickness and death, lung destruction, multi-organ failure due to carcinogenic compounds customers are forced to inhale by running out of time to find a nonsmoking hotel. This abject failure of hotels to impose 100000$ fines on such thugs who kill others consciously in a blatant act of hidden murder called second hand smoking pollution of hotels when it's federally illegal to smoke in any hotel, must be corrected firmly by the immortalists with 50$ million fines per room or hallways smelling, reaching $5 billion maximum if 100 rooms found to fail the test for tobacco smell compounds. For too long America allowed hooligans to terrorize decent people by lax policies of 1$ fine for stealing 1$ items and the like. The immortalists fine 9000 times the amount stolen. No jail, as that only makes people worse. Just hefty fines that take months or decades to pay. The Immortality Nurturing Agency will thus bankrupt endless hotels, acquire them as part of Immortality Building Inc to remove the most lethal threats to the American quantum health field. Please avoid the "Nazi" Hilton hotels, like Hampton etc (where nobody can open windows). One way to avoid the expensive stinky hotels is to go on a search engine "city name hotels" then desktop site and you get 40 hotels with 30 to 300$ prices, way cheaper than in person booking. Show them the 40$ price on super.com or other discount website and they accept cash often due to them not entering it in the system. Yelp reviews tell you sometimes if it may smell (if 1-2 stars, etc), but we need all reviews to be made at reviews.gov so we have all 200 review sites in one place and all reviews verified by the credit card that they stayed there, etc. Smell any room before you reserve it, ask hotel staff by phone if they allow your to smell room before driving there and if windows can open. If no, then call another hotel. Bad air kills every organ. You deserve decent smelling hotels, not these gas chambers of US capitalism. Either way, big cities cheap hotels of the same brand stink far worse, as more thugs that smoke exist to ruin all nonsmoking rooms and lawlessness reigns supreme there. Choose to stay in smaller cities of lower crime, far away from big areas with many gangsters. 60% of USA hotels are owned by Indians, which explains why many (the cheaper hotels Indians dominate) are so incredibly filthy, full of smoke in every nonsmoking room and hallway, bath, etc, you only need to visit India (see youtube) or gypsy areas of Europe. In USA, virtually every cheaper hotel is owned by Indians. Americans homeless, but we got endless hotels… How can this be? Why do people live in such horrible hotels, instead of having a house they own? Why are hotels allowed before everyone has a house? How did the South Indians come to rule USA and dictate how much smoke is in our hotels? Check out the great Indian values, 600 million for a wedding, while this would have prevented millions of suicides. Hey, the hotels belong to We the People, and not to the rich people who make profits off our death by asthma, respiratory illness, pneumonia, etc.☺☺ Let all hotel rooms have a sensor that sends 500 contaminants to the national headquarters Immortality Building Inc in Eterni or Eternity, the new capital of USA, so they can send a local maintenance team there. Immortality for All means health for all, all have the right to a healthy air in the rooms, not just the 1% who pay 2000$ for a hotel room. The poor can only afford 40$. In USA, Jewish mercantilism and Its Violent Odious Hymn of Hell rule supreme: thus, instead of 1 marketing manager and 1 million research scientists with Immortality Building Inc, we got 1 million marketing managers (liars) and 1 research scientist for 1 million companies like "John Smith Reality Inc, Mr Low IQ Hotel Inc, Mr. Toad IQ Franchise Inc (sells rat meat as in Asia), Mr. Moldy Condo for rent, Second Lead Full Trash home for rent, Mr. Extermination Inc". Do we choose Re-pub-licans, Demon-crats or the Immortalists? Our religion in USA is defrauding others, ripping others off and robbing them, lying all day. The bastard palace dwelling genocidal aristocrats, have taught all well how to be a beast. The result of our pathologically dishonest society is USA devolving into a ghetto garbage dump. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

For poor citizens, there are some temporary solutions that may work. It costs $9 to buy a UV 254 nm lamp to disinfect an area, just be aware that you can't be in the room when you turn it on, use an extension cord under the door and plug one of these 35 bulbs in once door is closed and you're outside of the room, wear UV protective wrap around glasses. 254 nm kills microbes best, and anything under 220 nm produces ozone to kill bacteria in places light can't reach, though 185 nm (maximum ozone output) is used in conjunction with 237 or 254 nm to produce ozone and UV to kill the most. Thus, to sterilize a room, you need a bulb that says 185 & 254, like this. A simple "UV 185 nm bulb" search does it all. A 62$ ozone generator may not be ideal, even if no bad reviews, because all reviews can be fake. Read these 1 star reviews that say odd smells form when using complex box generators, avoid enclosed square box generators from Amazon as those have many parts to them that chemically react with ozone and contaminate rooms with odors. The safest ozone generators are simple, made of a lamp and remote, like this 38W Qualirey 185-254 nm 56$ one or the 49$ better protected bulb one. The 29$ 25W Qualirey has remote control, for higher safety, to turn from behind the door, and 185+254 too. If you don't want to take risks of ozone smells, buy the 26$ 254 nm lamp with remote. Keep eyes closed and face, skin (socks, long sleeves, pants, etc) protected with face shield when turning it on, in case a manufacturer error causes it to turn on before you use the remote. For highest safety, use extension cord while outside a room to turn on by plugging into a socket and then turn on with the remote. When done, always unplug from outside of the room first, before entering, even if it is off, in case it turns itself on. Choose ones with remote for higher safety as you never want to be in the same room when light is on or even nearby the room but outside the room, if door not closed, and many are too lazy to use an extension cord to turn on from outside of the room. Don't use in rooms with carpet, get quality (free of heavy metals, etc) vinyl flooring or quality coating wood (wood floors use chemical coatings, which need to be safe), since carpets smell so bad and have so many germs and the odor often becomes far worse than before if carpet is dirty. Ozone reacts with the junk in carpets and can make smells worse. Remove everything from a room before ozonating, so it doesn't react with organic matter like pillows, sheets, blankets etc. LVP vinyl flooring dampens noise much more than wood, from walking, impacts, is softer, and won't get wood pieces stuck into your bare feet. As tech advanced, Immortality Building Inc creates floors that emanate proteins that rejuvenate our bodies via the air proteins coming from these new high tech floors, as opposed to toxins (as they say microplastics for vinyl or other chemicals in treated wood, the resin coating, etc) from new wood or cheap vinyl floors. The best LVP low odor, 0 formaldehyde, etc floors smell a lot less than new wood floor installs. When you have 1 million PhDs, instead of 1, you can design floors of such incredible materials that cure endless diseases and prevent endless chronic diseases, you can easily test air quality after any floor install every day during aeration for 10000 contaminants, etc. With the rat IQ (a rat is low filif IQ, far lower than a ☺ low IQ ☺☺ human, and the smartest human of our capitalism today is also far lower in IQ than the lowest filif IQ 5000 year old human of the future) companies today, we can't do anything, except play aristocratic terror horror movies in real life.

Likewise, the Immortality Nurturing Agency will impose astronomical fines on horse properties whose stables are making the air quality of nearby residential areas truly lethal. At first, they will be given 30 days to fix the issue, and if no fixing, then, they will be fined $5 million per house thus affected, with 10% of fine going to the house complaining to give the government incentives to report, since people are way more important☺☺☺ than "horses and the diabolical desire for horses" when others are crowded, homeless, in need of physical energy (to build houses, infrastructure) wasted with rodeos or other selfish pig sports. If you visited one of 900+ areas of United States of Rednecks and Peasants where wind speed is 3 mph and the horse stables make 90 houses smell like the worst 3rd world country toilet, then you know USA. The fines for big coal and other chemical factories that produce horrible toxic smells for entire villages or cities would obviously be capped at $20 billion. This will allow state takeover fast. Horse feces today are like human feces in London in 1848, when geeks realized the feces caused cholera and other disease outbreaks. Today, horse stables, with feces bacteria, mycotoxins produced by molds, fungi in rotting feces, grass, etc spread new forms of allergies, diseases that doctors confuse with other allergens or diseases, and the ignorance and lack of chemistry and biology research centers into various mold-bacteria caused lung disease variants, blood tests, etc mean shorter lives. Horses can give dozens of disease to humans, even blindness. The insane idol horse worship in America is absolutely unbelievable, the complete disregard for gentleness, research, science, truth and what brings longer healthy human lifespan. Australia is equally sick, with 2 million homeless last decade at any time, but endless rodeos. With millions of horses in many nations, and open defecation, we get endless molds, bacteria, viruses enter our lungs and destroy us from within, accomplishing a loss of 3 months for about 30 million people or 7.5 million lifespan years, which is the death of 200000 35 year olds equivalent. The genocide of 200000 people can be kindly prevented by the use of 500$ billion total fines for horse feces smell and air contamination, to bankrupt horse riding venues, businesses, etc. We encourage all to get near horse areas, use reviews.gov to report horse smell, so undercover cops can install a nice meter to measure all toxins and fine the businesses and individuals who spread germs. It's hypocritical to fine people with bad septic tanks, yet not fine horses with 9000 times worse open air urine/feces 50 lb/day. Why do we have fines for a septic leak or outdoor toilets, and none for horses? The complete moral bankruptcy of the government could not be more obvious, as nobody dares to confront the blatant egoism,d depravity of wasting so much energy in thuggish sports that could be used to build houses and infrastructure as a hobby in a world of kindness. Politicians are not for doing what is right, only what elects them so they protect aristocrats.

Immortality Building Inc will have air sensors in every US hotel that report to the national headquarters to improve building tech. How can the 2 trillion in health care costs due to filthy air be ignored? Air sensors can be wired in like smoke alarm, or require all smoke alarms to have air monitoring of CO_2 a great marker of air freshness. And hotel management use air gadgets to track 70000 pollutants every 3 months if too expensive to place 8000$ sensors in every room for 7000 chemicals. Well, even to monitor 7000 chemicals would take a huge device with current primitive tech, at a cost of 5 million. Via research and mass production, costs could come down to 5000. Open the window until CO_2 alarm stops beeping (400 ppm normal, 600-5000 unhealthy, beeps). CO_2 meter is cheap when mass produced 1 billion meters in USA alone. Add it by law to every smoke alarm, a melodious soothing different beep for CO_2 as it's not an emergency to get out of the building. Oddly, cities and counties allow the 1 million mom and dad, dad and son contractors to build houses everywhere, even when there are no roads, except dirt roads that get so dusty, they pose a health hazard for the driver and nearby people whose lungs are being destroyed. Why can't people have one national policy: roads first, houses afterwards. Why do we need 20000 policies for 20000 cities? We don't, we just like wasting time and supporting the aristocracy, who need a reason to exist as CEOs, city/state officials, medium business owners, etc. Why not have admin jobs 100 times fewer, and research jobs 100 times more? The current system is ☺abysmal in IQ☺. Most new houses smell horribly, because the contractor didn't air it well, did not use industrial size fans or high heat treatment (they need to use electric oil heaters to cause volatiles and semivolatiles to come out of furniture and objects, walls, paint, etc), didn't run AC for a long time using FPR 12 (12 alone removes VOCs, volatile organic compounds, emitted by wood, base boards, vinyl floors, paint) or MERV 13-17 filter, replace it 10 times every 10 days, to remove all smells in 100 days, didn't use HEPA air purifiers, etc, so all those chemicals are still in the air, carpet, walls, etc causing 0.5 billion dollar damage to new tenants, in today's expensive methods to cure molecular damage to every cell screwed by that bad air. Same for hotels, all carpets ought to be removed, too many microbes. There is no national standard to measure VOCs and irritants, we need to ban MERV 6-11 filters, and FPR 4-10. All AC filters ought to filter all viruses and bacteria, dander, mold, fungi, $PM_{2.5}$, car smog, allergens to protect the public health, since central AC systems, that are becoming so popular today, spread germs from one room to the rest. Let the worst filter be the best FPR 12 today. The decentralization of food industry means having stores built that sit more empty and unused, while others are more crowded and cause more stress, accidents, improper storage of food causing spoilage, sickness, etc. We need to have fewer grocery store brands and better ones. Likewise, we need ban convenience stores selling poison and call them health stores selling health boosting items, like decent foods, etc. We need better use of national resources, not people wasting time acing busy at a restaurant, while not meditating or repairing the body via relaxation, just to clock in. Let people go home and meditate, nap, don't force them to be there if not needed. Sleep is the most important thing. Take care of your health and next day you will do in 4 hours what you didn't do in 5 days of acting busy 40 hours. Stop the aristocratic terrorism of workers.☺☺☺☺☺

Carpets ought to be illegal in hotels, due to 2000 times more germs than vinyl fake wood floor or wood floors with a disposable recyclable rug replaced every year (or no rug at all, just wear slippers, ultra soft ones everyone has for hotels, knowing this is the federal policy). Avoid hotels with carpets if they stink, it means they have a huge level of germs. We have millions of hotels that stink so bad, with windows never opened and super filthy carpets and floors. Aristocratic terrorists sell smoking products that ruin tens of millions of hotels rooms and cause oxidative stress in the bodies of nonsmokers who're lied to that the room is nonsmoking. This eternal terror by those who can't be jailed, of the working jailable people can stop with the vote for the Immortalist Party. It's the capitalism of low IQ, whereby a central hotel.gov website doesn't exist, with at least 100 more search features than the best advanced search website today. Immortality Building Inc buys all hotel companies by Government decree, which are organized into Immortality Hotels brand for the Global Promotion of the Immortalism concept even via brand names: all brands are renamed into the 200 Qualities of Immortals and all Hotels say Immortality Hotels on their logo, signs, rooms: big font is the Quality (Gentle, not Hilton, Marriott, Ramada) and smaller font: Immortality Hotels☺☺☺ the specific brand: Gentleness or Kind, Selfless, Serene, Tranquil, Bliss, Joy, Peace. Each room has the Qualities important to recall, like Infinitely Tender Gentleness for all citizens of Eternia and humans, a trillion times more compassionate than that of the kindest ideal mom of 1990s for her only infant child. Happy people with happy houses are far less willing to travel, as their garden is more beautiful than the trash today in the best Disneyland or hotels… and with single family homes for all.

In some future when World Peace was true for a century already, all evolve to no longer need to own houses, due to an altruism that is making all current sports part of history. In that utopia, all houses for rent are free or cost 8 times less than a 45 year mortgage today relative to income, and are maintained and built by the ultra ethical Immortality Building Inc. Renters can't make changes today that make them feel comfortable/happy with the house layout, materials, colors, AC system (split or central), window thickness (double pane for noisy areas) so it creates unhappy people, can even shorten lifespan; this would only change if laws are modified to allow changes to the house rented from the government, per immortalist criteria (wanting to be happy, to decrease allergens from AC vents, etc), the only owner of any building anywhere. However, in our selfish violent world of the 2020s ethical level of development, house ownership levels of 100% (not 50-75% like in most nations) incentivizes via selfishness (natural instinct of self-preservation extended to one's house) all people to take better care of their unit than of a rental and to develop that gentle caring attitude towards all, including objects. Renters won't beautify the lawn, the neighborhood, improve the house, since they don't get the higher profit at the sale, so entire cities degrade today, due to the aristocratic policy of 'jailing' workers in ghettos, via the criminal system of one guy owning 2-500 properties while others own nothing. To remake our cities, at the current ethics level of the human DNA, we need 100% ownership of homes and instant house sale or buying, as well as instant maintenance by Immortality Building Inc. Only 5 countries or less have ownership above 94% in 2023, and all are smaller nations (see graph), Albania, Kosovo (see Eurostat table, click 2018 to see Kosovo 97.8 (vs 84.4 Serbia), Albania 96.1, Romania 96.4) etc. All communist nations had ownership about 100% for decades until 1989 when communism crashed and soon % went down to 50% in some nations due to widespread banditry and chaos, before returning to 80-90% decades later. The 2004-2022 Eurostat values Table shows Romania home ownership declined from 97.6% in 2010 to 94.8% in 2022 (95% avg 2004-24) in a sign of rising inequality, deeper worker exploitation by aristocrats. In Russia it increased from 58% in 2000 (after criminal privatizations where Jewish gangsters took ownership of state enterprises and everything collapsed in 1998) to 92.6% in 2023 when Jews hated their loss of power. In Serbia it increased from 81 to 92% in 2022, in Poland it increased from 62% in 2007 to 87% in 2023, as privatization hooliganism effects (bandits steal state assets) were undone. US remained around 64% on average for a century almost like the UK. The Statista chart shows the former communist countries are the most democratic in Europe from 1 point of view, with the highest home ownership, i.e. the highest property rights, a capitalistic idea that applies to small aristocrats or big fluffy palace dwelling aristocrats only in UK-US-NZ. The least democratic in Europe seem Switzerland (42%, as bankers and aristocrats rule the day*)* and Germany (47%, due to Nazi aristocrats who may run everything like in 1938, though it's not clear if the aristocrat Nazis were/are atheist Zionist Jews, like Hitler (who faked his death) was speculated to be). Nazis used socialist in name to deceive masses, but most were aristocrats and the like. Please ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ go to trading...australia/home-ownership-rate, replace Australia in the address with your country to discover the trends and how feudal and unfair your nation is, fair being 100% ownership. Australia got 62% in 2024 while many MPs got 2-7 properties, which makes them unlikely to support the end of this fraud of multiple property ownership until all own 1 home. See world trends in home ownership here, but the Wikipedia table is not perfect, missing many small (Albania, etc) nations and also not having same year compared (2024 or whatever), which means some may have shifted 1-5 spots up or down. Australia is like USA, a sort of colony of aristocrats from the UK, so only 62% of slaves owned their home in 2023. It seems the aristocrats are the politicians, spy agency, military top brass, so nothing will change. Of course, they will claim big changes are coming at every fake election, but that's the eternal lie. In Australia, the priority is fining people 68000$ to protect dogs and cats from starvation, while people are starving, living in tents with 3 kids. Instead of having a new fee of 68000$/dog (excludes police or service dogs), to make funds for decent housing for the 38% who rent and are terrorized by dog barking, ending up living shorter due to poor sleep, they have 68000$ fines for pet "cruelty". There is no fine for “human cruelty” by those with barking dog, biting dogs, etc. Dogs, so beloved for UK royals, are way more important than humans, as the laws indicate, even back in 1500s, ears cut for trying to find a job by drifting from one place to another. The government encourages dependency, slavery, anxiety, genocide of the renters. So, no US, Australia, UK are no free, slavery was only abolished in name. This is in line with the depopulation aims: dogs are kings. It's shocking how difficult they make it for dog or etc owners to simply call a toll free number to have their pet euthanized. No reason ought to be even given, other than ‘I can't afford it or I'm fed up of this incessant barking, scratching of my hands by the cat, too much time”.

However, we would need reviews.gov in such a utopia to make sure that every worker does an ethical job during house building and renovation, every change wanted that is lifespan enhancing is approved, since happiness is VERY important. Things have to be logical, safe, we don’t want to paint baths or toilets black, or bath tubs black, as that can hide insects, dirt, mold, etc. Today we see 100s of companies producing the ☺filif skunk IQ☺ black granite for baths and kitchen, so you can't see food, mold, ants, anything; spend 0.5% of the cost to put a white layer or light lavender etc on top so you see flies (spyware, see CIA fly), insects, etc (youtube has glazing white of sinks, tubs, bath-kitchen granite plain white with marble countertop paint and epoxy on top). Also, 100s of spa companies make black, brown sinks, tubs, spas that are truly unsafe, since mold can't be seen, cleaning will be terrible, infections rampant. Anything dark ought to be banned, use only light pastels and white, for reducing heath care costs from insects, mold, flu virus spread via dirty area one doesn’t clean 5 times as often as with white, etc. People are so angry and selfish today, due to 1000 problems and lack of World Peace, that this “all rent due to 5 times cheaper prices than mortgage or rent today” is simply a utopia for another decade or century, we would get endless riots to even suggest such an idea in many nations, since they don’t have any sense of universal peace and sharing. First, using housing.gov instant buy/sell, let’s eliminate parasitic landlords via who never improve 30 properties they own because they don’t live in them, then we talk about if people want to rent or own, after all own their place which they improve by the natural biological instinct of self-preservation. The important thing is to take care of properties via high tech maintenance, not if you have a paper that says ‘you own it’. Ownership has no value, if it doesn't help us live to 1 billion. Worship life, not owning or renting. But to be real, owning helps keep cities in nicer shape, houses better maintained. Government needs to make upgrades easy. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Our national resources are wasted building 1. huge 93% of the time empty (260 ft tall, 190000 sq ft, 13 acres, Mormon) temples (400000 churches and 600000 homeless, Christianity in action, Jesus electric power of transforming all souls: “I have come to take building materials and render millions homeless; we need to house empty air and icons, people can just live in tents…” love Jesus? Americans eat billions of wafers yearly to ‘transform themselves by tasting Jesus blood and flesh', yet have the most selfish society, is there more proof wanted about the need of the wafer ritual? Or baptism? Read Jesus quotes? Do we need more churches, multiple private jets and airports for pastors and temples or are they building these gigantic ones intentionally, to take materials and leave others homeless? Why can't they be online and turn every decent house into a mini-temple of silent bliss) and 2. endless useless businesses to keep aristocrats in palaces and slaves confused 3. huge expensive hotels (many owned by the Mormon Church) that sit often 60% empty, while the most toxic, filthy, dilapidated, thin paper walls, cigarette fumes filled hotels with shared baths for 10 rooms are 100% full, due to being cheaper. This is the most glaring example of wasting building materials while shortening national lifespan on average, in the glorious name of "everyone for themselves capitalism, pure jungle for all, except the aristocrats". Half a million homeless while millions of perfectly inhabitable units sit empty, and 10 million need some minor refurbish. Hotels are in high demand since it takes 2 months to find a room or sell a house, sometimes even 1 year to buy a house, instead of taking 2 days with housing.gov☺. Immortality Building Inc buys all building materials, contractors and techs companies, hires 100 times more building materials scientists, chemists, physicists than today's total in USA for true nanochemistry, biophysics to alter material properties and high tech. As admin staff are let go, the real employees of innovation are hired, admin staff can get free education to become scientists if want to work for the same company, now is the time for ☺ abysmal IQ☺ to die and high IQ to appear in USA. Let everyone with obsolete job (millions will be fired over 20 years as efficiency increases to make for physics and chemistry engineering and science jobs) get a bachelor's science/engineering degree online with some lab work done in person and become the engine of transformation. It maintains and builds all houses and commercial buildings in USA, insures all properties, replaces all insurance companies (too many conmen, admin, duplication, etc, have 500 insurance plans to choose from one company, it buys all insurance companies and retrains, unifies everything) for housing, rebuilds them in case of disasters or accidents: 1000 times less admin and 'fancy design', 1000 times more actual tech to have new materials, 0 mold, 0 rot, via chemistry, material science, sensors, etc: replacing the 0 IQ ☺☺☺ "marketing capitalism of so called competition that innovates little and has no central goals except pleasing 0 IQ 80 year life customers" with goal oriented, 500000 year life capitalism: set 3 year goals that are unlike anything the stone age companies do today.

Gone is the day when you have to memorize 9000 business phones: if you need a house, you buy it and sell old one in 3-4 DAYS max via housing.gov as explained above: no longer do we make 1.4 million realtors waste time to "market themselves" and spam the whole nation with flyers, we do it via one website 100 times better than all junk ones today, with 3d video and the most detailed presentation of parameters, street, neighborhood, city statistics, crime, noise level, etc. We're like a 4th graders society: you get 30 realtors spam people with stuff they want to sell your house: they lie and try market themselves in this lone wolves, each for themselves egotistical to the core soulless society. Give us a break, spend your time creating a nice new material that blocks noise 4 times better. Enough parasites.☺☺☺ Immortality Building Inc made the house immaculate, cleaned it, remodeled it, tested it 100 ways to be in world class safe moving condition. It also makes water heaters and all devices needed, to prevent private (they love profit, so they do anything to achieve it, while a state company is fully aware of the longevity effect and makes sure no heavy metals exist in the anode rods as they leak into the shower water, the warm cooking water some use, etc) companies from using magnesium anode rods with up to 0.25% lead (Rheem SP11309T anode rod label says up to 0.25% lead) without telling the public when they buy the water heater about the manufacturer part: Home Depot carries these, but the lead leaking daily is tiny, possibly 0.5 g lead over 5-8 years, so 100 mg a year maybe, maybe 2 mg/week, though shower water is not readily absorbed. It's not clear if this replacement part has 0.25% lead or even the brand new anode that comes with the heater, but if it's the same part, it may. This may mean if 150 million Americans use those rods and indeed it has high lead, it may be equivalent to killing 30000 people at age 20, if all 150 million lifespan is shorter by 1 week as a result. In current capitalism, no such computation is made, so genocide is rewarded with salaries 100-5000 times average. Perhaps, you can buy Bradford heaters, made in USA, the company said theirs has no lead traces. Due to the fact now every electronic device can connect easily to the Internet secretly, it becomes a national security risk to use imported products in houses, as they could be used to write the brains of all Americans and turn them into slaves. It's critical for the Immortality Nurturing Agency to help people become more compassionate: do we really need 1.2 million salons to wax legs, etc to remove leg hair when others are homeless or in jail due to the almost pathological selfishness of our society? No longer do you have to call 700 companies to clean this and that, as one company does it all. The sensors for air quality call the maintenance team to come and clean your carpet or remotely alert your phone to use a window cleaning robot (useful for anyone who doesn't want to die by falling by mistake, if living on 2nd or higher floors), or floor, carpet robot. You call anywhere in the USA 800-HOUSING and you get the maintenance folks at Immortality Building Inc to come to fix anything in the house, simple, efficient, 100 times higher high tech innovation. The worker submits pics as evidence for what is wrong and gets real time approval to perform the maintenance, to avoid workers acting busy and doing unneeded maintenance. They way the system is today, is a company does preventive maintenance that is often not needed. The video being taken of the maintenance and of the problem being solved is logged in for future reference. Today a lot of unlicensed people do work of low quality, so that ends. They will be able to find new jobs. Truly PhD like. No more peasants coming to clean carpet with 18th century techs, created by a company with 3 PhDs. No, it will be a company with 9000 PhDs producing world transforming floor/carpet cleaning and maintenance gadgets. No worries, no anxiety, no more fear, chaos, jungle and hooliganism everywhere: every crazy group telling 100s of lies like "We are the number one company in sales in the area"☺☺☺ and endless other deceptive techniques, "we are the most this and that" and they can't do even a basic job of cleaning some carpet spots the home owner can remove himself with oxiclean solution. ☺☺☺

Today, one aristocrat makes all cash, while plumber or worker slave labor get little money, so they have high incentive to act busy, to work overtime, to make the job last 4 hours not 1, to misreport, to not get good rest, just to be clocking there, all lies and lies, due to the feudal system of subjugation. With the centralization, the time for any job (replacing wax ring, etc) is known nationally and the video can show why a job took longer as all is recorded. This is allowing us to become honest as a nation, 1st time in 250 years, since right now, almost everyone is defending their paycheck at all costs without any idea of the wellbeing of the nation, since such a concept doesn't seem to exist for most. The main concept is galley slaves (of many races) are pushing the US (& other nations) paddle boat manually, like chained slaves (of many races) did (galley slaves were of many races for many centuries, while blacks were moved for slave labor to the Americas or Islamic countries by Arabs, Europeans, Jews who often bought them from Blacks who enslaved other ethnicities of Blacks) and the palace dwelling aristocrats didn't care about how inefficient stuff was compared to an engine propelling ships today, since it was the slaves working themselves to death. Likewise, today, the same things repeat themselves in new subtle ways, as people have no clue what happens. Check out George Washington slaves to understand reality better, since Russia was not the only place where 40-80% were slaves at one time (serfs): check out how the "1865 emancipation" worked. The "free" blacks and whites listen to junk designed to ENSLAVE THEM. With centralization, we know how many foods were trashed and how many were shipped to stores, bought and can optimize storage, get new fridge units to stores, etc, so slaves don't work to death to plant, grow and deliver food that is then trashed due to inefficiency, while aristocrats watch sports games or strip clubs. Hey, how about having fewer companies so we have 9000 fewer worker deaths? With 9000 fewer companies in every field, we get one set of safety procedures that all follow no matter what. 900+ workers died in France alone in 2022 due to aristocratic greed. This is genocide. The British aristocrats led Aussie gov doesn't care about 35% of Australians who don't own their homes, 125K homeless, 30% who live in bad housing, only about resurrecting tigers and millions of pet shops, hospitals.

With centralization, we can relieve suffering, optimize things instantly in 20000 locations, not just one, allow all to work smarter not harder, so they have a chance to sleep 8-10 hrs well and thus live to 120. With centralization, we have total information awareness of 1000s of things we can't have now with 2 million businesses doing maintenance or food delivery, etc. and we can truly practice universal loving kindness. The aristocratic alcohol addicts often ask "why have 10 companies, 1 bank and one language, one currency worldwide? Love the fake religions we gave you to enslave and rob you and the many companies and millions of banks we made to chain you, so you paddle yourself to death like the galley slaves". We, the slaves can answer: we're fed up with these egotists who lie to us, use language to divide and chain us, to recruit us to fight among us while they steal everything (stage magic, distract and steal everything) and don't want to create or adopt one language for all to learn, 1 bank for all to use, one food company that produces 9 million year lifespans, and one universal healthcare, 1 building company, etc, as one cooperating humanity where all help all. Let life be our goal, not having 1 billion Neolithic companies. We want centralization because we eliminate war and violent crime that leads to 25 million people daily being tortured in their psycho pure hell jobs as soldier, cop, spy. In all militaries, the aristocratic generals and their subordinate officers injure millions of enlisted forces with their psycho sleep deprivation training to destroy the human quantum field, sleep deprivation to destroy the brain for maximum enslavement of cannon fodder rats, yells, useless training (everyone focuses on physical fitness, instead of war prevention). This so called "PATRIOTIC TRAINING" is to ensure the wars of theft and mansion perpetuation for the royals and aristocrats: the aristocrat destroys the brains of soldiers and subordinates, to have an army of "dogs" to start looting wars against "enemies". Our enemies are not nations, but aristocrats or misinformed manipulated people (who can be informed via books, knowledge) in all nations who manipulate the masses to not want one language, one country, one set of laws, city codes, etc that we all agree to, to stop the fights, so we can finally have decent food and healthcare for all, 0 jails and 0 violent crime, a decent culture free from violence the rich impose on us to divine and conquer, set one against the other and steal everything. God, that aristocrats have us brainwash with to enslave us, if existing, would have no problem, in his infinite power to grant trillion year lifespan and a teleporting shimmering genderless shapeshifting Immortals Eternal energy-matter body to all people, a trillion year being a nano second in the life of a newborn Immortal and 10^{-900} in the life of a demi-God. If the rich really believed in this God, they would ensure all sing "May all live to a trillion"☺☺☺ years old, as that's like a smile to God, to grant that to a trillion billion humans". But no, we're just galley slaves. They don't believe in Immortality, for if they did, they would realize it will only occur when true democracy exists, when all are motivated to innovate and contribute and do a great job. Have you ever heard them saying give Immortality to All? No, only torture as cannon fodder soldiers to defend MASSIVE theft, reminding us of aristocracy working peasants to death or physical education teachers injuring students. Be the light gentle tender centralization and world unification that helps the insane militaries to bring World Peace in 3 months.☺☺☺

They say "we are better realtors, because we give you higher net gain in the end (by defrauding the buyer), even though you pay 6% commission, instead of 3-5%" etc. All energy lost in marketing, nothing for actual INNOVATION. All deception and manipulation, dishonesty and trickery, creating lifelong deception tactics, habits that make Eternal Universal Peace in 3 months a pipe dream, as trust doesn't exist anywhere. Too much shouting, like military trainers who copy the aristocratic hyenas, aggression in tone to deceive someone your product is better. Customers can browse thru 500 cleaning services or etc and will choose what they want based on science data and the 50000 science papers listed there for all 500. We're not ☺filif IQ folks☺ from the 1st century to be told stories of fake miracles, other lies. The prerequisites for Eternal Universal Peace in 3 months are set with these centralized big Incs, as deception, hooliganism tone end, extreme anxiety, guilt, shame of selling your company's ultimate junk to get your paycheck ends and you focus on actual innovation and a better product with no worry about marketing, everyone goes to improvement.gov and make suggestions how any company in USA needs to improve. The Immortality Nurturing Agency will take all feedback from reviews.gov customer reviews and business model ideas suggestions sent to improvement.gov, improve product and move forward: away with cut throat competition, endless lies and hello to honesty, gentleness, tenderness, civility, eternal cooperation for human lifespan Immortalization. Those who make the best suggestions and observations that nobody caught, will receive 50000$ prize if their idea saved $5 million and a 50 point rise in the Immortality Credit Score, allowing them to access techs that are too expensive now for all to access. You get house insurance automatically. Same for car, insurance automatically, you choose what plan. ☺

Decentralization means no reviews.gov where nobody can post fake reviews (as with Amazon, google, yelp, etc anyone pays friends or gives them free products to give 5 star reviews) and if a relative, it is indicated so by the AI who knows everyone's relationship to others. Today we got no accountability, no data who the contractor was for any house, house owners don't recall, or keep amazing records. We need Immortality Building Inc that records video of EVERYTHING done to a building (on all computers too for all other jobs in USA, via screen recording of all workers in the USA, stored by the Immortality Nurturing Agency to end the "he claimed this and that was done" games of never ending time wasting) to have clear data if a building explosion or fire kills people, etc. So if there is a complaint, it can be seen clearly too that indeed he DID forget step 20 of the 40 steps of the procedure. If cops wear cameras, so should doctors and builders, etc. Today, we got 5 million contracting companies and they do the poorest job, visual renovation, with little attention to 5000 issues that Immortality Building Inc would check for every house with a 5000 point inspection checklist. The small 5 people company, or 20-40 people, will rush, try to get out and pretend they did it perfectly. These garage companies don't even have the tech, knowledge, expertise and staff to check 5000 things like when you inspect a rocket, they do the worst job ever. You can't compare a company with 5 million employees and 1 million PhDs with these Neanderthal companies today, just as you can't compare the peasants of 1500 with the high tech bioengineering of new plants that produce 100 times more vitamin A, C or E, etc, robots that pick up all crops, drone operated combines and machines that do all seeding, weeding, picking and everything without any human labor. What do modern Mexican laborers used by contractors understand of the future high tech house building and renovation? What did peasants from 1500 understand of our highest tech human free agriculture today: nothing, they could not even imagine it, just as all these "I am a proud small business owner" folks today, living paycheck to paycheck, in immense stress, don't understand the high tech of the future and can't even imagine it due to minimal science knowledge. All small business owners need to grow up spiritually, ethically, morally, and gently give up the stress and join the People, the Nation, the Planet, give up your greed and trust the collective, united as one. All this tech revolution was due to 1 million peasants uniting their lands and making one big cooperative that does the whole land efficiently. So, if one million 2-5 people companies unite and create one, imagine what a force is unleashed. You will work less stressed, less hours, live 40 years longer.

This is today's America folks, given to us by the Re-thug-lican Party: "everyone a beast for themselves", no national family, no "body of Christ" family, no national consciousness, no "One for All, All for One" ethics, but "everyone a wolf tearing sheep apart". Ironic: Jesus said rich go to hell, and yet Christians, fake ones, have 3 million building/maintenance companies and try to get rich by doing a lousy job. If anyone has any brains left, how can Microsoft Windows achieve what it did, with 3 people instead of 3 million programmers? 3-3000 people companies can do nothing. All day they talk about the "body of Christ", meaning the "collective of Christians" and how we're meant to be nice to each other etc, and what do we see: profiteering as the only God of alleged Christians who're not one Body at all, but 2 billion different bodies, fighting among themselves over 300$ building repair bill for weeks at a time, even in courts or competing like wild beasts, not sharing anything, so therefore screwing millions of houses done by the other "Christian" company who doesn't know the thing the other knows. The bipedal crocodiles failed to understand treat thy neighbor as thyself, meaning share everything you know with all the other Americans, by having one company not 5 million. Don't hoard, withhold info and knowledge, share and fix everything 400 times faster and better, become civilized. What a system of 0 IQ: everyone a judge, lawyer and lawsuit expert, instead of one real company that maintains and fixes, builds all for free. Free basic single family houses for all. Instead, we get petty minded thievery everywhere, like wild insects tearing apart each other as seen in nature. And they call themselves human or even spiritual or Christian. We talk about hypocrisy, but do Christians realize they don't even walk their alleged "religion"? All we got in 2020s in America is cut throat capitalism, cruelty infinite. British style mutilation and blowing slaves into pieces by artillery gun or crucifying 6000 slaves at once like Italians, hence all we hear is the wisdom of the Vatican all day. USA for All. Many times the most unethical companies do a superficial interior appearance only renovation, while not investigating or fixing (when obvious to them) the condition of vents, AC vents, subfloors, foundation bricks, mortar integrity around foundation, etc and 100s of others things. They want to get rich quick, make a profit and take no time to do it right the first time. Endless houses are ruined and issues are not caught 40 years before they become an issue. It's a system of ACTING BUSY AND PRETENDING they serve the nation, while chasing the God of Profit, the main God of the Re-thug-lican Party. Why not do it right and prevent other companies from having to do 4 times more work later because no action was taken from the first inspect 35 years earlier? It's the system we got: everyone a selfish hyena, trying to rip everyone off quick. Me, me, me, no concern for country, the national family, everyone starts a high school and we got 80000 educational systems, not one. How can you implement justice equally if education is not equal? Education of housing fixing and building needs to be equal too, one company for all. Educate all the same first. If there is one company only nationwide, that employs 10% of the people, you know your workers have to come back to fix it 5 times, you know you will be fined $50000 (paycheck subtraction for 5 years) as a worker if you screwed up big time many times etc, and people know the fellow workers or self (sent back to fix it) can't relax and have a nice day taking off early from work; nowadays, if a customer complains, the company refuses to fix it millions of times, even when it is THEIR FAULT, due to not being paid another 4000$, etc. This is a travesty, poor guy can't afford it so house will be ruined. The anger builds up and that guy now, to revenge on the system that screwed his house, will do a poor job at work, and a power plant may explode next day. They say "no consequences exist", but they are: nothing is done right. If there are 5 million companies, you screw the future companies that fix your mess, you screw them all, do the worst job to appear good, and then leave. No incentive exists to do it right, people are not going to be sages when they're tired and angry at the corrupt system running everything in USA. Another issue with homeowner doing things is that most people are clueless about ticks: if you garden, they can attach to your legs (unless you place peppermint/essential oils or picaridin on your feet and shoes, pants) and they can bite you, and transmit fatal Lyme carditis, or nonfatal Lyme disease, etc. An employee coming to trim grass and do gardening once a month takes care of ticks professionally (permethrin or other tick repellents like DEET or alternatives), carefully inspecting his legs, body, clothes minutes later, take a shower, etc. Ladies could mow grass and ruin their baby with Lyme bacterium Borrelia burgdorferi. Gov needs to give every new homeowner in USA the tick guide and a white coverall to wear and inspect after gardening, to ensure no ticks jump on your skin, with pants tucked in your socks. All caught gardening without the white coverall fined. ☺☺☺

Soon the whole planet will understand selfishness gets us nowhere and World Peace and 0 violent crime are pure fiction, nice impossible wishes without immortalism style centralism. Will people ever give up their huge egos and work together, cooperate and give their pathological addiction to money, capitalistic enterprise, owning your business, so that we can do things right and rid this insane hell planet of war and violence? Is that too much to ask? Free market doesn't exist folks, you have been lied to by empires. The private big companies are all state owned by central communist style bureaucrats who put on a phony cover of being capitalist in order to increase market share in foreign markets and minimize suspicion of being agents of foreign governments. The nation states will merge, as we become one Eternally Peaceful Civilized Human Nation with 0 violent crime. The right wing liars will pretend that capitalism is the way, communism sucks, fails, etc. The reason communism failed was due to sabotage by fascists, no strong feedback like reviews.gov (instant bonus or fine after reviews, etc) for work performed (or incentives to do a better job within the ultra centralized system), sabotage by aristocrats (dictators, 1 million dictators in USA alone) living in huge estates who crush any fairness, sabotage by royalists (yet British royals too), and lack of implementation of kindness for all, by fanatical focus on torture for the slightest mistake or disobeying the superiors. Immortalism is not communism, it is totally different. Immortalism is against any torture, against jails, against war, 100% different from communist practice and ideas of violence deified. In communism, all were paid the same (so no incentive exists to do it good unless you want promotion in 5 years), were rewarded the same with access to products, while in immortalism, reviews.gov immediately adds or subtracts bonuses (within 5-72 hours after investigation of any complaints completed), credit score points based on every job to incentivize good work. Wake Up America, free yourself from the heavy chains around your neck, placed "generously" by foreign aristocrats ruling you with impunity/cruelty today, chains so heavy, you can't even walk, under the yoke of their daily torture/terror. We can ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ take back our planet, country, via the Immortalist Parties, from the phony Democrat/Republican puppets of the same old aristocrats who ruled us for millennia, as they do today. Let us give Immortalists 95% of the vote and bring a New America with a new Declaration of Independence and Constitution too. ☺

Immortality Building Inc, the only building and maintenance company in USA, would require video cameras (not WiFi, as that damages the body, just download it at the end of the work day) on all maintenance workers, not just cops, as violence can happen in covert ways via doing bad jobs to harm others. We need teach ethics of gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kindness from kindergarten and verify that the trust placed in a worker is reciprocated: he really deserves high pay via instant feedback or 4 years later feedback or however long it takes for homeowner to discover the mistake done. The current system is a jungle of fraud, hate and inefficiency, they got 1000 forms, and ways to complain and nothing really happens quite often: employee may be hired by another company, the STATE has no way to fine that guy 4000, lower his Immortality Credit Score, it's a total chaos like the USSR communism one that leads to stagnation and societal collapse in the long run. People are too busy with their lives to waste 2 years in a dysfunctional court system just for a 400$ fine. But with reviews.gov you can instantly fine one guy 100 times even and achieve a transformation of work ethics and habitual patterns of dishonesty (cultural, parental, etc) at 8000 times lower cost than 100 attempts of "managerial evaluation or courts, or etc". This allows us to have a lot more science, and 100 times fewer lawyers, judges, etc: if you prevent fraud by ethics training since age 1 via emails, videos, etc, there is no need of courts, all data is there and a government reviews.gov employee replaces 900 lawyers and clerks. We need EFFICIENCY. The time of fraud, subjugation or acting busy (in response to subjugation by aristocrats) ends if we centralize well, the amount of acting busy in millions of employers is ASTOUNDING, many are bored, so no volunteering is allowed when a day is slower, to get out and do some exercise installing a window or toilet as one got certified with Eternia Volunteer Network (certified, so they do it well, after watching the video on the steps required as refresher, not drilling nails into pipes, etc). Today, the Aristocrat CEO, Owner, or even small business owner can act as the useless intermediate (like priests post between people and God) the middle ages merchant sucking the blood out of entire continents, the chain holder that blocks the state from Bringing Immortality for All. Why not bypass the intermediate vampire? Today, the employee is a serf of the employer, not a co-creator of a World of Immortals with the ENTIRE NATION and PLANET. USSR version 2.0. To be fair, most humans don't trust the government of every single nation, that seems or is owned by private corporation aristocrats and cares not about the people's lifespan and wellbeing. Without trust in government, a country is doomed to collapse. A radical change needs to happen in USA and worldwide for violent crime and war to end forever, to bring back the trust in governments needed for 0 violent crime within 20 years (thus no more jails needed, only healing and education centers, mostly from home, online, etc) and Eternal Universal Peace in 3 months and, some far away century, trillion year lifespans for all, the goal we sing and talk about every day in our ever less depraved TV-media content to become. Perhaps only immortality capitalism (economics, legal system vastly different than today, etc) with its immortalism culture, radical defense of immortal lifespans and ☺☺☺ universal gentle tender soft nurturing loving kindness has any chance to stop the thuggish historical inertia. We can't replace the current USSR copy, the so called "private market economy" USA, with a centralized equally inept and stone age system of "acting busy evolving our society". We need reviews.gov so that the government can lower Immortality Credit Score of that contractor and fine $2000 per act. Let everyone take pics of ants coming via holes, send them to reviews.gov and then get half of the fine. With AI drones, they verify all house is properly caulked and sealed, so the need for fines will be reduced once the AI system is created. Until then, clean all leaves and debris from near the house base, as these allow ants to find shadow and establish 'hotels' until they find a cooler secure colony place under the siding or house to hide during the scorching sun. Watch ant trail and seal any gaps in mortar that have high ant flow. Paint doors light colors, to be able to see ant trails and potentially lethal ticks, etc that can easily enter house once you open the door.

We see ant holes in new houses too, nobody lives there, they advertise it for sale, poor sealing cracks jobs by big national companies of deceiving everyone via decentralization. Silverfish bugs (grey worm like bugs, 10-15 mm long, like a centipede that moves quite fast, 20 times faster than dust worms) and dust worms (grey slow moving moth insects that feed on plaster, clothes, carpet, paper, and organic stuff) can also carry microbes and get thru those crevices left by contractors, besides eating your clothes, carpet, etc. Everything is about appearance, not efficiency of lifespan maximization. When we have white counter we clean it 10 times more, with black, we wipe once and assume all was clean: but food remained, invisible and ants came and infected stuff. The decisions we make are not science based. They got black and grey humidifiers, which need to be cleaned often, but how can you see what to clean if mold is grey or black, can't clean it well. ☺Pet IQ folks☺ design such products. We don't have black showers, baths, etc, why so for kitchen counters and kitchen appliances? Keep everything clean, light pastel colors to see dirt use vinyl and new carbon nanotube stronger than steel aerogels or etc to build new space age raw materials that don't rot, don't get eaten by termites which can lead to building collapse and even killing people as a floor falls due to termites eating everything that supports the floor, the wood itself. We have no brains, the stuff we concern ourselves are the scores at soccer games. Every 'untrained disorganized dad and son team, without any SOP and checklist for procedures and truly comical☺ systems versus the best contractor in America' can do stuff and this leads to low quality. Not to mention, all energy spent with marketing and nonsense, competing over who can be lower in IQ, more stone age and 3rd century like in their install versus Immortality Building Inc 100 years into the future vs the junk today. Immortality Building Inc can have 20 methods of fixing an issue with their own SOP, and over time discover which method yields better results by trying it in different places in the initial period of transition until they figure out the best procedure. Equal opportunity is the end of FEUDALISM IN America. i.e. all get the chance to live in a house built and maintained by the same team, as we're ONE NATION, not 2: aristocrats and slaves. Granted, there are 900 models, of houses with varying prices and etc, but Immortality Building Inc builds with that same WORLD CLASS UNSURPASSED ON EARTH QUALITY ALL OF THEM. Enough spam phone calls, emails and trees cut with ads and flyers. Teams can work cooperatively on what tech or method yields fewer issues, and try them in different areas per the NATIONAL, later planetary, PLAN.☺☺☺ Immortality Building Inc that builds buildings and immortality at the same time, the only contractor in America, with 3 million employees or whatever, who maintains and builds all private and commercial buildings according to the most centralized systems and high tech mass produced techs that make 99.999% contractors today look like peasants vs Harvard Professors. We will slowly acquire and retrain all contractors who learn the immortalist way, while giving some employees salary for 1 year so they get free education as "chemist tech, a crash course in the chemistry of material science" and join the PhDs who design space age materials to withstand all hurricanes, earthquakes. The regulatory agencies don't have checklists and SOPs (standard operating procedure) to ensure all is done according to a centralized method. Some contractors never caulk properly allowing 400 holes for ants to come in and waste our time and infect the house with microbes. The "ethnic cuisine fried food (with deadly AGEs in 10x levels vs other trucks) truck" food truck type of contractors check nothing seriously. They "do it cheaply", like restaurants get that cheap spice from that company, sprinkle it, it causes heart attack due to capsaicin, and has 20 times the mold of a properly checked spice. Low tech, death for all, the religion of profit above science. ☺☺☺

One small mistake when installing tile, typical in small companies without requiring watching the 1 min video of the 10 steps to check, while doing it, tap the phone, and do in case you didn't install that last 5 days and you forgot, and putting the toilet back without new raised taller wax ring, as everything is taller now than laminate, a simple job, can cause was ring toilet leaks more time wasted, as urine and feces drip to 20 apartments below, the love of all life. What is the utility? People think it's all that simple and every 4th grader can do it. We got clueless folks remodeling, every dad and son make a company, the "wanna be" low IQ remodel/squeaky floor contractors drill thousands of nails, screws into pipes creating water leaks that take months to manifest and become big (so reviews.gov requires reviews to be instantly sent by law by the new tech who finds the other tech mistake and a record exist who did it and can fine him and lower his score for not doing the step to check for pipes with terahertz etc pipe finders from Immortality Building Inc, which removes the need for Home Depot, Lowe's type of stores too over time as nobody maintains anything, just as today few cook at home. DIY homeowners even can drill screws into PVC drain line, many don't know how to find the studs with a stud finder. So build bigger, taller so one toilet leaks: 50 condos get feces into the air, then the whole city sinks due to tall skyscrapers, as in China. We got internet, youtube but companies don't use it, so, We the People, can gently, lovingly let America repair buildings using the most stringent step by step system of the Immortality Building Inc, since the houses are the temples of Immortality for All, the single family houses that bring eternal lifespans for all. The same thing can be done in the EU, a company does it all, unifies all codes, brings efficiency undreamed of. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

There are toilets out there that save water and are ultra quiet: 0.8 GPF (gallon per flush, world's most efficient toilet) Niagara Stealth and FluidMaster 400A, which is at HomeDepot too, $199 (4.6 stars) and Home Depot reviews say it is way quieter than the regular cheap (not the Stealth quiet) Glacier Bay, makes 30 dB sound during refill versus the 50 dB for most toilets. The quietest Glacier (which may be quieter than Niagara) is the 4.7 stars (highest rating of any Home Depot toilet) $179 Glacier Bay PowerFlush 1.28feces/0.95urine GPF dual button Stealth, which has the same submerged stealth Niagara refill valve, making far less noise during refill vs normal toilets and 20 decibels less during flush. Dual 0.95/1.28 means you save 1000$ in the long run, by using far less water, even if toilet is 10$ extra initial cost vs 1.28 single flush. Choose Niagara low flow shower head 0.5-1.5 GPM, as lower water flow, 0.5 or 1.0 will reduce pipe noise or water hammer as they call it; likewise, choose low flow faucets and open any shower or faucet, valve etc very slowly... Reviews on home depot indicate the 0.8 GPF Niagara clogs a lot more often than 1.28/0.95 GPF Glacier Bay, so go with Glacier if your stool is bigger, since most water is wasted during urine flush 5-8 times daily. Reviewers claim the Niagara trap system is designed poorly, leading to frequent clogs (25-50% of the time) even for normal size stools, so I would not buy Niagara, which is more expensive anyway. If you're short, thin, 110 lb, etc with 1" diameter stool always, then Niagara may be fine, but when if 6'4" or 170 lb, it's harder, unless stool is 1" diameter or soft that can never clog the worst designed toilet. These types of submerged valve ultra quiet toilets ought to be the noisiest ones in the future. Parasitic realtors and condo complex managers never check the toilet valve water storage (the toilet tank as they call it) area for black mold that exists sometimes in huge quantities and makes the whole bath smell like mold. They just want a quick sale. The ☺abysmal IQ☺ that runs the housing sector in USA is incredible. Then we got 0 IQ toilet valve companies like fluid master regular or 400A or Niagara stealth that make these black plastic valves etc so black mold can't be seen, nor grey one. Other negligible filif IQ folks make green/black toilets so green, black, yellow mold, green water can't be seen, nor algal growth. It seems we need to ban non white valves/toilets/tubs for the sake of longevity and health. Check your toilet valves for mold. There needs be one property tax for the entire nation, not 20,000. The only rule is that the bigger the square feet (of the house) per person, the higher the tax rate. So some will pay more, as they use 8 times more resources of the nation to achieve the same lifespan increase roughly. This prevents the parasitism by palatial aristocrats who suck the blood out of the masses via unfair taxing. ☺☺☺

The Immortality Building Inc will design a wonderful mat structure, for all room sizes, made of the most sound absorbing foam (same effect as carpet as far as sound), covered with an anti-slip synthetic back and anti-slip synthetic top, leather like top, of various pastel colors to see dirty spots and insects, that you can wipe clean with a disinfecting wipe or 70% alcohol, etc every week, without ever using rugs or carpets in any house, due to the IMPOSSIBILITY of cleaning 100% and eliminating all dirt, dust mites, microbes going deep between the fibers. Carpets and their underpad are hazardous, as are all rugs on floors. The Age of centralization takes us into the age of true cleanliness, when inefficient aristocrats can't sicken us anymore with a billion toxic products at Home Depot. We're unable to find a wood or fake wood vinyl floor covering that is truly hygienic, soft on feet and knees and ultra easy to clean 900 times better than rugs. Carpet cleaning doesn't do much, most microbes recolonize from underpad within 2 days, you waste your time, vacuuming rugs and carpets is pathetic at best, if you want true clean room conditions and you have the Age of Immortality Capitalism air filter in the (quieter than a central

AC vent of the 1980s Age of Aristocratic Terror) window AC, ultra high quality air, for ultra long lifespan, heart, brain, organ health. Vote the Immortalist Party, let's free America via centralization for the People. Today, on Amazon, you can get quiet battery operated or corded HEPA filter vacuums (HEPA 13 or H13 removes 99.97% of particles > 0.3 micron, but the gov can mass produce and give everyone an ultra quiet (58 decibels, not 75-95 like cheap or HEPA filter ones) ULPA filter Soniclean vacuum (329$ on Amazon, filter is 31$, Atrix 317$ ULPA vacuum however, is 73 dB, so way louder and its filter is 65$), since ULPA removes 99.999% of particles > 0.12 micron, while HEPA 14 or H14 removes 99.997% of particles > 0.12 micron. 90% of air particles are 0.1 micron or smaller. HEPA leaves 30 times more particles > 0.3 micron, possibly 1 million particles between 0.12 and 0.3 microns. IQAir is medical grade purifier removing most viruses, HEPA=joke. IQAir removes 99.5% of 0.003 µm, vs 1?% of 0.003 µm for HEPA. These things add up and can mean living 7 years shorter. Air toxins enter the blood poisoning every organ, causing plaque. Quite interesting how in 2020s many don't even use a HEPA (True HEPA, meaning H13, not H10, H11 or H12) filter vacuum and one that makes so much noise, without protecting their ears with some earplugs and their lungs with a KF94 mask. If all rooms get a super quiet window fan with a HEPA 13 or HEPA 14 or even ULPA filter, to bring in fresh oxygen without the nasty car and factory smog, dust mites, molds, there is no need to vacuum so often. Learn the HEPA13 vs ULPA difference in medical outcomes (most dangerous particles are bigger not smaller than 0.3, for most users), and HEPA H13 removes 99.95% 0.3+ micron vs HEPA 14 removes 99.995%. A whole house 1800$ air purifier from IQAir can remove a lot of junk, being ULPA. HEPA means H10, H11, H12, H13 (True HEPA) or H14 (Super HEPA). So, don't be fooled, HEPA filter doesn't mean it removes 99.97% removal, unless it says true HEPA or H13, H14. Another almost ULPA air purifier you can use after vacuuming, is the 270$ Shark. which needs no replacement of filters, but this poses real issues of lack of activated carbon☺☺☺ to remove certain chemicals. HEPA 14 filters 99.990% of 0.1 micron and 99.995% of 0.3 micron, so almost like ULPA for 120$ for a Dayette white-black one (which often has 50% off or 45$ off coupon, so 75$, only) or 103$ cheaper one. To understand the scam with air purifiers and air quality monitors, please watch this epic clip. Make sure radon is low in your home too, as 22000 Americans die from it alone.

Dayette uses a 47$ H14 filter (double the weight of Levoit 300 HEPA, hence the price), better than 99% of HEPA filters people use in their purifiers. Dayette (Fulminare returned due to noisy sleep mode, lights on during sleep mode come from the fan area itself and can't be covered with a piece of paper), is so much quieter in sleep mode than Levoit that everyone buys and also has a much better filter that removes 99.997% of 0.1 µm, not just 0.3 µm as HEPA 13. Most fancy purifiers show some digital info when running, and have some light at night, unless you use sleep mode. However, sleep mode is too little purification sometimes, for bad air, so you can simply use painter tape or some opaque tape that you stick to a piece of paper and then create a flap so you can use painter tape to hold this 2 by 4 inch piece, using your half inch by 1 inch painter tape (easy to flap to see ppm level if needed). This gives you the ability to filter dirtier air and have 0 lights. So, spend 20$ extra and buy Dayette, as it is eons ahead of Levoit and other cheap trash that is bought in 100 times larger quantities. Dayette has a $PM_{2.5}$ meter that tells you if you have 7 ppm (parts per million) 2.5 micron particles. Mine started at 12 ppm and after running it at high speed for 10 minutes dropped to 6 ppm, after 30 min to 5 ppm, which is good, certainly not the 18 in Los Angeles. When was the last time you saw an air purifier with a 2.5 micron particlate matter indicator? Not only that, but if you place a wet t-shirt on your silent oil heater to dry it, the ppm will go to 90 for a few minutes and this thing automatically increases its speed to the maximum to filter the air. It shows why you should never do that and use a dryer to dry a cloth you accidentally got wet. Dayette got a quiet brushless (not the cheap noisy motor in most purifiers) motor with 5 speeds: sleep mode 1.7 Watts (quietest purifier ever, watt meter measured by me, you can sleep right next to it, won't hear it, unlike noisy Levoit which I also had and gave it away to Goodwill), low 4.7 W, medium 8.7 W, high 17.7 W, turbo (very high) 30.0 W . Avoid purifiers that are black, so you can see mold and dust around them and clean them properly, stick with white or mostly white. There are many H14 Amazon purifiers. Fulminare white H13 unit is 50$ for 1000 ft^2 rooms and uses 2.3 watts (measured with watt meter, 2.1 watts if you press light off button) in Auto (super quiet, can't hear it if 10 ft away) in normal background noise rooms, 5.4 watts in Low mode (much noisier), and 24 W in High, which is very noisy. The Auto mode is the equivalent of Low on Levoit, meaning ultra low noise, so to properly filter a room, you need 2 of these in low mode if a bigger room, if you want no noise. 2 of these are 4.6 watts in Auto, so that's about as much as the lowest watts on the smallest LED for a light fixture. Your appliances use more in idle mode thruout the house most likely, since a washing machine or electric dryer drain 2 watts each when plugged in. Fulminare smells far less of plastic and uncomfortable smell than Levoit, due to using fewer smelly plasticizers in the manufacturing process. If you're looking for best deal per cubic air filtered, their 25$ slightly smaller unit is cheaper than this 50$. Fulminare is super efficient, and it has yellow color when air is so so, blue when fine and red when it's bad, light changes to blue as you run it on yellow more. Place them near your bed so you can get more of that filtered air. The same is true for Levoit, it's low mode filters little air and you need 2. Fulminare comes with 15$ (click to activate coupon) filters, while Dayette for 3000 ft^2 rooms, meaning Dayette will clean a 1000 ft^2 living-dining-kitchen area 3 times more per hour. Fulminare Amazon ratings are 4.7, higher than Dayette or other units that cost 3 times more and are black. It's amazing how low IQ these people can be to make units grey or black, so you can't see the dark grey dust etc easily, or insects, bed bugs, ants, fleas, swarming tiny termites, mosquitos that you need take care of. The $40 (after coupon click) Levoit HEPA 13 mini air purifier is for 100 ft^2 rooms, (84$ Core 300 is for big rooms, 16-25/2), with 4

filters/29$, 4/26$, or 2/16$ (6000 people bought this in March 2024 per Amazon, being the most popular non-Levoit replacement) from generic manufacturers, who make Levoit filters for 4 times cheaper price (quality uncertain). ☺☺☺

If you ever try to buy a small 5 inch fan, please stay away from 32 dB JZCreater or other brands selling the same exact fan (in China, or decadent capitalism, same horrible product is sold in 100 brand names/packing to ☺filif giraffe IQ small reseller aristocrats☺ whose main life revolves around buy and sell, because instead of fixing products, they do marketing, they copied the US 0 IQ perfectly), since its screen comes off super easily and the grills in the back break each time it falls if you keep it in a window where UV makes plastic brittle. Since most people use these fans on the window, to bring in oxygen, they need improve the plastic design, so it doesn't become so brittle after just 6 months of Los Angeles sunny weather. The fan has 4 circles as the rubber pins on the base, of only 7 mm diameter and on a window sill they rattle a lot, due to being cheap and not using rubber all along to avoid that plastic rattle. They need design a special rubber that absorbs all shocks from the fan vibration, so you don't need sponges or cloth under it to cut noise of the fan in half. Another issue with all these fans is that they make them hard to clean, unless you want to damage them in the shower if you turn them on before fully dry (easy to dry in dry climates only). All these things need to be required by the National Fan University design teams who approve any fan sold in USA, before the Immortality Nurturing Agency does the final safety inspection. All fans and noisy things with moving stuff needs to be tested with animals to make sure no infrasound exists that may cause heart attacks, blindness, etc. All harmful infrasound frequencies need to be cataloged, as well as ultrasound, and make sure no device produces those that can cause horrible effects. An enemy nation can sell 50 million fans that destroy our brains via infrasound or cause heart attacks. Do you realize we check nothing, that we're ☺bulldog IQ folks☺? That's why we need all appliances in any house in USA to be made and inspected in the USA, besides the house itself. The JZCreater fan stops working after 3-12 months of 24-7 use on level 3 (fastest), 5 broke this way; avoid washing the fan from the front with a shower head, since it takes 2 days to dry fully if water gets into some tight spaces where evaporation is hard. The 5V adapter you need to run level 3 needs 2A output, not working with 1A 5V USB to socket adapters. All these 5" fans are usually 1.3 W low, 2.0 W medium, 2.8 Watt high. At 1 ft in front of the fan center, noise is 38 dBA, vs 41 dBA for Sweetfull. The rubber pins on the base are tiny on JZCreater, so it makes a lot of rattling noise. Sweetfull uses 2 3 inch semicircle bands of rubber, so it rattles less. But Sweetfull has stronger airflow, so it makes more noise, even at 3 ft Sweet full is 38 dBA, vs 35-37 for JZCreater. The $9 32 dB (loud) Sweefull cheaper 5" fan can run on 1A adapters, doesn't break, has a longer cable, can bend 40-90° to push air upwards or downwards, which JZCreater and others can't, and has a default light on while running, which you can eliminate by taping the 3 light dots on the back with some aluminum tape or opaque stuff. The EasyAcc 11" claims 24 dB, but at 1 ft away makes 34 dBA by dB meter, which is quieter than the tiny 5" diameter fans, in the whisper mode; EasyAcc has 5 modes: on 10 seconds off 10 seconds 5.7W when on (alternating), low 5.7W, medium 11W, high 17W, whisper 1.4W, way lower than 22 low, 26 med, 29W high for Honeywell HT-904 below. The EasyAcc offers superior options, from the high flow air to the silent whisper, with the low being so much quieter than the low on the Honeywell, it makes you think USA is behind China and needs a fan noise standard at 1 ft away. The EasyAcc whisper mode is way less noisy than Honeywell low, and very quiet vs EasyAcc low. If yours has any defect, uneven blade 1mm on one area, 2 mm on the other side of the circle, that wobbles, return it and get a new one that works fine. All these fans could be made way quieter with better rubber design, more rubber and dampening, 10x fewer grill plastic bars to hit the air (tell everyone to handle it from the base), and quieter motors (EasyAcc on whisper could reach ultra low if motor improved). However, this. 16$ Zuvas claims 25 dB on low, like 10$ Tri 25 dB on low, but these two use a lithium battery, so you need plug it in all the time and it could set house on fire, not recommended to get any with a lithium or any battery, plus these are so tiny, you need so many of them, 4 on a window, to get some really good fresh air intake. Levoit claims 20 dB. All fans last 5-10 times longer if you run them at the lowest speed. The deception here is that some fans say 25 dB, others say 28 or 32, but it all depends at WHAT DISTANCE: 25 db at 3 ft is same as 32 dB at 1 ft, depends where you put your sound meter. Sometimes they may all be equally noisy from the same distance, so sadly, with a government for and of aristocratic serial killers, we don't have any federal standard of say dB 2 ft in front, etc. Everyone claims whatever crap on TV to sell their crap, so goes for Amazon, sell crap, description never matches contents at times. The top 0.1% are worth 2800 times more than the bottom 50% of USA. Go figure who calls the shots. No gov agency regulates these cannibals looting everyone with deadly humidifiers, loud fans, etc. These 20-25 dB are way lower noise than most fans that are not tower fans (impossible to clean well and grow mold). The quietest fan claims to be (again, what distance?) a $59 18 dB Wind. The dB Amazon values refer to dBA (not dBC) measurements taken 1-3 feet away from the fan, not near the fan. The HT-904 Honeywell 17$ 9", like most similar size fans, is 50 db on low from 1 foot, as measured by my dB meter, ultra loud, a piece of trash, as loud on low as 5" quiet ones (Sweetfull 32 dB on low above) on high. Avoid Honeywell, they make the most lethal humidifier sold in USA almost too, big company, run by rich rats. America "seems" (is?) run by aristocratic mafia British, Jewish, etc crime families (the revolutionary aristocrats, with their 'serial killer' fellow aristocrats at the top levels of military-spies-police to neutralize, torture, harass, deport anyone who wants intelligent Immortality for All instead of feudal ☺abysmal IQ☺ for All), so these aristocrats☺ expand in new business areas to make profit by slow murder via biological entropy of sound☺☺☺ or mold via humidifiers, etc. Not content with making billions by killing innocent working class people via bombs from aircraft, or whatever got their billion/trillion $ theft started, they happily expand in new areas of business, to produce lethal products, redundant useless trash, as we have no National University for Humidifiers, Fans, etc. Clean air is the most important thing and even that is not done right, go to any store Walmart, Target and find the noisiest hardest to clean pieces of trash. USA = dumpster. Instead of one super quiet super amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ line of fans, we have 20000 lines (brands) of fans, all loud. This is capitalism by genocidal companies that want to make trillions by poisoning the 50% who own $24000 each vs 65 million for the top 0.1% criminals. You need to dig and find those 1% quietest fans, to protect ear/body. Test it for dirty electricity too: I tested Sweetfull, 0 extra Stetzer units, 1 unit is 24V/s, it measures rapid changes in voltage, stray currents. Instead of 50000 brands of trash fans by Honeywell, Walmart, we have Eternal Fans brand of Immortality Building Inc produce world quietest, easiest to clean fans, only sold to nations with 0 violent crime who approve merger with USA by adopting English and the 11 companies.

Immortality Building Inc will produce all fans via National Fan University research, and ensure all of them make 20 dB, except the huge ones used to dry wet areas. Window AC units ought to make 40 dBA max 1 meter away, not 55-80 like today. Wind brand is 42 dB, LG has 3 models below 40 dB at Lowes, Midea is 32 dB and HomeDepot carries this 32 dB Midea too, its U shape, with noisy part outside, makes it so much quieter. The gov will evaluate all current product designs and merge all small companies into one division of Immortality Building Inc to make a product that is way better, quieter, more efficient, easier to clean, etc than all today combined and cheaper by 3 fold due to making 50 million of them. Immortality Nurturing Agency will require dB rating at 1 meter from a fan's front sold in USA to be 20 dBA or less on low. Aristocrats live in palaces in silent area with central AC and don't care about how noisy cheap fans are, for the slaves living in tiny studios or rooms, people too poor to use central AC. So, to protect the health of the poor and the average folk, we need ultra quiet fans, since noise can kill. Funny how aristocrats make billions by making noisy products to kill workers, but they live in the most silent, most remote areas far away from any source of noise. Pure CLASS WARFARE.☺ Why should workers take all the noise? Democracy means all cities and areas need to be silent and quiet, all houses, all appliances. This may mean building walls around roads to prevent noise, all deserve a quiet space free from music, noise. Anything to destroy the workers is used, from incessant torture, to loud music, loud fans, etc.☺

If possible, avoid H13 and use H14, since many smaller than 0.3 micron particles (that Levoit etc don't catch) can screw you up big time. Levoit is a rip off, their small H13 purifier costs 2 times more than the small 26$ Fulminare 225 sq ft H13 one, so definitely, buy the 1000 sq ft Fulminare H14. Levoit filters are cheap when bought in sets. But we need better filters and fans, quieter, safer, etc. However H13 filters more air quicker, so you can use both when the air is suddenly bad due to some smog outside or some other event. If an H14 filter works perfectly for an H13 unit, you can use it, however, usually companies make the filters unique in size, so you can't always swap filters from different manufacturers on the same unit. Having 2 units H13, and H14 may work too, one for living room-kitchen H13 and one for bedroom H14. If you live in big cities, a good air purifier helps, especially in moldy climates like South East USA, where chemicals from plants that putrefy, algal blooms in stagnant lakes, ponds, mulch, etc pose a real threat to lungs. Mini is better, because the generic filter is twice cheaper due to its twice smaller size and material use, so you can prevent reinfection of air with viruses, flu, cold bacteria, mold, fungi much better by frequent replacement. Mold is 0.5 to 100 micron. However, the mycotoxins produced by mold are 0.1, so you do need a ULPA if you're allergic to mold toxins that are everywhere in the air in some states of USA or etc. That's why the IQAir or other ULPA whole house filter inside the AC is a good idea, given the toxic quality of smog and humid moldy air. If you got only 40$ for protecting your heart, brain, lungs, every organ that poisoned blood gets to, then Mini Levoit is fine for basic filtration, but if you can run the fan (of central AC and install a good filter there that removes all mold, MERV 17, but that's too slow for central AC) or air purifier in your tiny room, a 200$ ULPA or HEPA 14 may help you live longer than any other thing you can do with 200$. You can use Levoit for kitchen or areas where you go only for 5 minutes. However, due to denser filter for 14 and ULPA, you may get less mold with the cheaper 13, as it filters new window air faster. The dense filter slows suction of mold and other polluting particles. So tests and see how mold in air is in a room with window slightly open after Levoit vs the others and report to the world. A Mini Levoit uses 300 times less electricity to filter air in a room than the central AC on fan mode with MERV 13 FPR 12 intake filter, assuming vents are free from mold. 14 can remove 10 times more mold in theory than 13, if the airflow is the same, but it is not. HEPA is equivalent to MERV 17 and people usually only install MERV 13 on central. Buy HEPA car cabin filter always, not the cheapest, since you can live longer that way. ☺☺☺

The issue with many contractors is that all are free to create the most anti-longevity designs: 400+ million sinks worldwide have the spout 1-2 inches from the sink edge (near mirror), so some have to extend hands a lot if tall, etc and EVERYONE splashes dirty water on faucets, mirror, counter. You can always go to the store, buy a new faucet and install it yourself (follow youtube or written instructions, ultra easy). However, this is a waste of time that drains our national resources. Why make a product that 400 million have to replace? We need the spout to be in the center so all dirt falls into the sink, not the counter and the counter needs to be light in color to see grey, yellow and black mold. Public restrooms got these 0 IQ spouts that spread germs via the dirty water splashing on counter and then into the air. Some designs will bring 70 times more microbes on the counter and bath, mirror, etc than others, this is genocidal. The spout being so close means people touch the edge of the sink counter often, and that area is full of bacteria from previous people who washed their hands, so cross-contamination and recontamination of self is 100 times higher AT LEAST. Only an enemy country using hybrid warfare would design such a sink to kill the inhabitants. These companies are worse than the external enemies of the state. Likewise, screw-in tub stoppers catch 30 times more hair and it clogs 30 times faster than simple rubber stoppers used only when you want to fill the tub. It's easy to take hair out that clogged it, but why contaminate your hand so much with feces, urine microbes, hair, snot, soap scum etc that has been there for 1000 days from other folks. The design today is not prioritizing cleanliness and is done by non-chemists, non-biologists. The Immortality Nurturing Agency needs to make sure Immortality Building Inc will test every faucet (wall paint, etc) design and see which ones leaves the least bacteria on the mirror, faucets, counter when all things are equal. Those dirty water microbes evaporate with the water, get inhaled by all, spread the planned COVID19 epidemic, flu and endless diseases. The nice motion sensing kitchen faucets today are really nice, since if you leave it on the cold water always, you can go without touching it for 1 year. All faucets and light switches (which are incredibly dirty in most houses, containing 500 times more bacteria than toilet seats that are cleaned more often) can be made touchless, to increase resilience in case of epidemics, reduce flu deaths by 99% each year etc. There is too much freedom for every low IQ person, without any knowledge of physics, biochemistry, microbiology, health, etc, EMF, RF, medicine, etc to design the lowest IQ faucets and sinks, AC/heat systems (why central when split AC without vents that get moldy and never cleaned, with people forgetting to replace filter, often costs the same for a home builder due to 1 million homes, etc.). People focus on the trees and miss the forest, the purpose of sinks is to keep that bath and your hands clean, not to appeal to "0 IQ customer preferences of looks and "style", convenience and comfort," when the most essential function of sink (or appliance in general) longevity is thrown out of the window: 0 counter contamination or no mold in vents for heating/cooling. Every product needs to be designed and approved by 30 PhDs in many fields related to longevity and function of a particular appliance and product. These mom and dad garage companies produce pure junk: instead of 10 truly high tech sinks, we have 3000 trashy low tech sinks. Because all is going to HR and business positions, instead of research, due to no centralization. How about we put life/health first, "style" last? It's like people, instead of going to bed at regular hours 10-8, they go to bed at 3 am and then get dark circles and get makeup to hide it. Style first, health and longevity via good sleep last. ☺☺☺

Another similar example is how water repelling and easy to clean paint is. A glossy paint repels water, lets it drain fast and prevents water from entering and forming mold under the paint within the drywall, thereby reducing sickness and death. Too many baths, doors and room walls are made of eggshell or barely gloss paint that is porous, and extremely hard or impossible to clean (hand prints from kids, etc, food/drink spills, etc) versus high gloss. This leads to the need to repaint, respray paint a lot, instead of wiping the dirt with a "99.99% bacteria gone" wipe ($ store got those too). Walls in high traffic areas are touched by kids and adults and spread germs. Eggshell paint on walls inside homes can't be cleaned with 99.99% wipes since it would ruin it, but high-gloss or gloss paint can. Today, many companies try to be cheap, so they use the cheapest paint, without taking into account longevity effects, germ spreading, ease of cleaning without repaint, etc. You see ultra grey door frames, walls, etc in high touch areas that would take 2 minutes to clean if it was gloss paint, but much longer if eggshell (need to cover everything, spray it again, etc, not easy as not all have the 50$ paint sprayer). Maintenance ought to be easy. Since maintenance company is not same as builder company, healthcare company not same as builder company, no interest exists to create what diminishes healthcare costs. Thus, via Immortality Nurturing Agency inspecting the 11 companies, that the American public owns, via one common owner, We the People, we do way better, what serves the People.

One state company in every industry means the same job in every state almost has the same pay, with only some differences between Alaska and nice San Diego weather, etc. Since the government builds and maintains all housing via the one company, prices can be more even, since all insurance and rebuilding is included and houses in disaster areas are built WAY BETTER than today (to last 200 years not 1 hurricane season) they will be more expensive since they don't collapse every year: why is Alabama house so cheap? It's destroyed so fast by tornadoes. That won't happen anymore.☺☺☺ However, some locations are nicer weather, longer lifespan by default, so they deserve a lower price, but not 20 times lower, as we see today, since the government will give houses in 'less friendly climates' extra features (most high tech air filtration, ventilation systems in each room extra longevity tech for free, included in the price, to counteract lifespan effects and give equal access to lifespan sustaining technology to all and prevent everyone from moving to California or nicer weather states and leaving the 49 states empty wastelands. After the Immortalist Party wins elections in many nations, 7 billion people will get a longevity boost from clean air (most people have stale toxic air inside their rooms) and less biological entropy body destroying sounds. Each window will have the most high tech ultra quiet (way quieter than the junk today on the market) fan that brings in fresh air in the winter (cools it if hot outside) filters outside air and doesn't allow noise in, 200 million in USA alone built by Immortality Building Inc, to give it to all houses where the slightest noise (traffic noise, any random noise etc shortens lifespan) exists (most houses would come by default with that, window still can be open during emergency, but normally they're closed to provide filtered air and thus longevity, not life shortening smog from particulate matter, car tires, dusts, molds, dust mites, etc) since window is always closed, but fan is on or off using a remote and can even be programmed to run certain times: this would enable 4 billion people living in noisy streets to get truly fresh air, use silent room heaters and avoid issues with central heat such as mold on vents and dirty filters, amazing (as quiet as an AC vent) window air refreshing units, due to outside being so cold or warm, you can't open window much). Overcrowding can shorten lifespan, canceling the nice weather effects. Even California has fires and floods that kill people, due to lack of more safety requirements. For example, in flood prone areas, they can lift the house (1st floor is 6 ft above ground), so water can pass under the house when it floods and not take the house with it, with some easy to open gates that open automatically during heavy rains or no gates at all, just open space, some 10 strong round pillars (the 4 main ones (corners) can have the base thicker, becoming thinner at the top, to make it impossible for the strongest flood waters (in worst zones) to take the house with it or severely damage the first floor (often the only floor). Our goals are stadiums, not saving lives. Use the under house area as a nice garage: let cars be taken by water, not houses. All we think is about latest soccer game and how toxic food company stock went up or down. The rest is left to greedy contractors, trying to make maximum profit. No federal codes. The same chaos reigns supreme in every industry almost. ☺

The hotel industry is deeply chaotic, with endless hotels stinking like cigarette in nonsmoking rooms, so a deeper reform for silent fridges, AC systems, ventless systems, passive cooling or heating is described in the smoking section dealing with trillion dollar retroactive fines to Big Tobacco for the genocides perpetrated via brainwashing on unsuspecting poor masses. The hypocrisy of the people of 150 nations proclaiming to be a religious/spiritual person, yet trashing all recyclables, has no limits, as seen in 2024, after 2 millennia of "Bible ethics and fake miracles" in the majority of hotels and stores that have 2-4 trash containers per room or in front of a store, but no recycling bin. Millions of condos have no recycling bins in USA, the so called "green leader". What kind of federal law is that? Isn't that the perfect reflection of the 1400 violent Bible quotes pastors hide☺☺☺ and the lowest IQ system of decentralized trashing of national resources? There ought to be one national law: for every trash container, 3 recyclables at least, replace 75% of trash containers with recyclables, let the overweight people do 3 min of exercising to strip some plastic and separate metal from paper or plastic from metal and recycle as much before returning like lazy gorillas everything to electronic waste, or (most people in 2024), trashing it instead of donating it to electronic waste. Who cares about the future generations? They discovered some bacteria that eat some type of plastic, so maybe that will help. They're too busy spreading lies and hocus pocus to care about the future generations, other souls and their spiritual development being 0, as all they will do is try find good chemicals in trash. No greedy aristocrat cares about the slaves who toil to create new metal, plastic and stuff, and then others who're hired to sort out trash in other nations, full of 1 million times more bacteria than in the moment of disposal. The sheer cruelty of such beastly people is beyond comprehension. They teach nonsense about compassion and in action, they condemn millions to trash sorting lives of filth that don't have to be. Then, fat (due to junk fatty food palace dwelling aristocrats sell to destroy the workers health and brains while increasing profits) and malnourished, they build gyms, since sorting out trash was not good enough to qualify as 'exercise', "slaves only do it". Then they say they believe in Mohamed, Jesus, Krishna, Buddha, yet they instigate war, pain and suffering via their sheer laziness, complicity to the aristocratic terror of the planet and contempt for the poor people of the world, part of the same quantum field of all. More slaves have to create new metal, while landfills are full of it. Landfills are often burned and this smog kills people slowly. Companies take that toxic landfill and create toxic building materials out of the byproducts of mixing, treating, burning, etc that junk, in new "products" whose chemical formula is anyone's guess as it is a mixture of 4 million compounds that slowly leak out of the materials into the environment creating new hazards. This 0 IQ action is then touted as the "green revolution of laziness". Hotels, houses, etc could have yellow or lavender recycle bins, made of yellow or lavender plastic universally, that all kids know from age 3 it is for recycling, while any other color is trash, since we have ONE Immortality Building Inc. Today, the aristocrat pigs allow these franchises where low IQ management puts some tiny label "recycle" on one side of a cylindrical or square recycle bin that often gets rotated and then people don't see the label "recycle" and put trash in it. The illegal workers then trash it and all recyclables go to trash. It's unbelievable, how disorganized these trash hotels can be with some showing recycle label side and others not, and charging 16 times the minimum wage for one night, using slave labor and filling landfills and air with toxic fumes from burning plastic. Unbelievable theft on a cosmic scale. Other times, lazy people trash electronic waste, when they could exercise 2 min (wear gloves, safety glasses, wrap around safety glasses and maybe a 1$ face shield (COVID19 type) that prevent the slightest particles from getting into eyes, face and gently crack the plastic (do this while the object is wrapped into a towel or some bag or disposable cloth that can be ruined, to minimize particles flying around the floor and to protect the floor tile or concrete in your driveway etc) with some tool or hammer, etc to remove 90% of the volume of the gadget which is mostly plastic) and save in a ziploc bag the tiny electronic boards or etc that can't be recycled. This act of bending and exercising is good for all and prevents others from having to do this 12 hours a day as a kid. For many electronic devices, only 90% is pure plastic and metal easy to recycle. Landfills are rich in electronic waste, heavy metals and all kinds of crap that then burns and poisons people. Nobody gives it a lot of thought, how many people recycle the batteries and other things properly? Once a year, after collecting all electronic waste that is not plastic part, dispose of that bag at the city recycling center, it's so simple. How can we have a kinder more sustainable civilization? We need more composting for food waste and more recycling bins in every building designed by Immortality Building Inc. Few realize child labor is used to take apart electronic devices and remove valuable parts. While everyone doing something is the most ethical, instead of moving balls as a kid and wasting one's life with that, the conditions in which these kids and adults work are very inhumane. Let everyone practice kindness as sport, so that nobody ever wants to torture others and aristocrats can't torture anymore, as they don't exist anymore. When you do this, it's as if you walk the breathing meditation, that cares about the entire human quantum field, not just a family.

We hear a lot of talk of kindness,☺☺☺ yet today, people waste huge resources, human and glass, plastic and cardboard to create picture frames. While others live short lives due to lack of sleep due to thin glass windows, many waste tons of glass, plastic, wood, metal to create frames. Today, we have printers and copy centers where pictures can be laminated (make the corners round to prevent anyone from getting injured if it falls (use some glue on wall type of plastic ultra round, ultra soft rubbery silicone or etc hook, not tacks, not anything metal, not anything with sharp edges, fixing it would be 10000 times less likely to fall off, during any earthquake) or flies during hurricanes, to use 50 times less material and provide 1 billion times more lifespan years than flying glass, sharp plastic heavy frames (some frames made of plastic are so heavy and thick, if they fall during earthquake or fly during a tornado or hurricane, they can cause lifelong disability in people, even blindness). Avoid nails, as they can fly and fall and people can step into them. Think about others in a way that eliminates any possibility of injury during a natural or man made event. Have compassion for all. The injuries that can happen from today's standard frames littering all stores, houses, businesses and flying glass are in the millions, yet nobody gives it much thought, they just "love God". What about loving the God in people injured daily by flying plastic, metal and glass from natural disasters or even a simple house cleaning etc? A baby crawling and a picture falls and hits him. We have the aristocratic "give a damn about poor people" folks who design all these houses with gigantic frames, the ugliest pictures reflecting the nature of their souls, and wasting so many resources while the poor have bad sleep due to wasted plastic, glass, wood that was not used to make an extra triple pane window to open and cool the room for nicer sleep. Today, they got ultra cheap decorative tape, shiny glittery tape that one can use on the edge (where frame would be) of a laminated picture to create the beautiful colors, one, two or even 3 pieces of 3 mm wide tape of various colors, to make it way more beautiful than all frames out there, while saving so much material. With a national TV campaign against frames, that teaches the qualities of universal kindness and gentleness, we mass product the most amazing & beautiful tapes with 100 times less material than frames, and make pics way nicer than today's rather ugly frames (relatively speaking, if you never seen anything different, you don't know what beauty is, like chariot people would think a chariot is fast, not knowing airplanes or cars). Once again the 2024 soulless society produces ugly frames that shorten others' life, the epitome of aristocratic thinking, but we can always change that with the Immortalist Party. This point of a shallow spirituality or ethics is made clearer here too. The aristocrats are busy torturing the poor, there is not time to design sustainability and noninjuring picture framing techs. The list of examples of "not caring about the wellbeing of the poor" is endless: hotels got big glass frame pics above the pillows of the bed, a huge risk of injury during some earthquake, etc, or big chandeliers above beds, when it is much safer to have tiny lights built into the ceiling as with many homes. Home Depot and many stores sell gigantic light fixtures that would permanently disable people if falling on their head or even kill them and leave then with a messed up face, ear or total blindness. There are safer ways to create beauty in a building, 1 million times safer than heavy chandeliers. The low IQ palace dwelling aristocrats only think about dazzle and power, not about the risk of injury of other poor people. The culture of the world was established by aristocrats, hence it is void of gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest graceful compassionate healing kindness, look at our "music".☺☺☺

The planet wastes enormous medical resources to deal with preventable injuries created by aristocratic terrorists who don't care about the poor. To bring lasting World Peace we need to embody Immortalist Anthem in every area of life, to care about the misery of others, stop making frames until all have decent housing, just laminate the pictures and also, use computer pics. Every appliance, every object in the houses and buildings Immortality Building Inc will build will be well thought out by thousands of experts who evaluate the risk of injury from any device produced, so as the give all people, poor or average, the chance to live to a trillion. Every injury shortens lifespan, as immune system is distracted from body repair to deal with the injury. Another example of "make profits at all costs" trash capitalism (not immortality capitalism) is the flower decorations industry in many nations (China etc) that uses metal stem surrounded by plastic to create these cheap 1$ or more artificial flowers that often times end up in the trash, since it's taking hours to try to remove the metal from the plastic for those with no tool to pull the plastic off the metal and recycle the metal, a physical activity too "challenging" for the gym lovers while others are homeless, overcrowded and need building materials. Too many people (you only need to inspect the trash containers in 180 countries) trash recyclables due to a culture of not washing cans, plastic parts, utensils, disposable drink cups, etc, due to a Bible and other "scripture" "culture" of violent disregard for life (1400 quotes on mass rape, global looting, genocide and violence, beating the hell out of slaves, taking slaves, beating children, etc), of not giving a damn about others, but quickly bombing the hell out of them if not giving some items, resources (human or material) at low price.☺☺☺ This is because of a macho culture that was created by the ever violent slave beating aristocracy, busy creating fake religions to enslave the masses and tighten the chains of slavery around everyone's neck, causing the terrorized masses to also not care anymore. A solution may be initiating a program to install on trash trucks an AI camera system (a scanner that sees thru the trash bags that contain the recyclables, it knows what frequencies to look for, what objects, etc) in all nations, that inspects items in the trash and fining 90000$ each time recyclables are detected. Since positive motivation for kindness doesn't work in 100% of cases, due to the anger of the oppressed masses, after 10 millennia of aristocratic beatings deified in the Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives), torture, brainwashing, a more fair system that costs little can be designed, with fines given to companies who make the recyclable items that most often end up in trash for not designing easier to recycle products or making them 100% biodegradable. The fines are used to hire scientists who design the most biodegradable plastics (many such bacteria were found, that eat conventional plastic even; a new molybdenum catalyzed process allows mixed plastics to be recycled, without using solvents, but using air moisture, at a rate of 94% in 4 hours, without spending eons to presort them: it's revolutionary for recycling) and technologies of cheap degradation of plastic, or new materials that are safer for the environment (microplastics cause health issues, so maybe design plastics that are 1 million times safer or that "shed" 1 million times fewer particles, etc via new nanotechs). Too many aristocrats buy luxury items with profits obtained unethically, while the environment is destroyed. With proper fines, we give better jobs to the poor, to design intelligent products, instead of creating cheap trash to make greedy people rich. ☺☺☺

Obviously, the people's anger will vanish once the 11 companies emerge and aristocracy vanishes, so then these astronomical fines for disposable utensils in trash etc, would not be so needed, could be maybe only 2000$. Since people are so tired, angry and rushed (due to aristocratic terror) these days to recycle and pull metal stem out of plastic flowers, it's imperative USA stops importing such flowers, and creates a new design that is 100 times easier to recycle. For example, the core could be made of carbon nanotube material that is as strong as steel and could be recycled too and be designed to be instantly removable with a pair of pliers pulling on it, with 100 times less muscle effort than today, or even creating a little wider ball like protrusion at the top of this material, allowing easy pull for recycling without pliers or big effort. This way the recycling IR scanner can detect which type of material it is and where it goes. Too many flowers litter the landfills. These flowers have sharp metallic ends, not round, not soft, and even the plastic can scratch people and kids and they need to be redesigned to be soft smooth plastic on all sides, to ☺☺avoid injury during walks in the drought areas with artificial flowers as decoration, to save water that people need to have kids and make inventions, instead of have flowers and pets that make no immortality for all inventions. We need to create a culture of gentleness, where every object is as soft, smooth, round as possible, to avoid injuries. Too many kids can injure themselves with these decorative flowers with such strong stems and top flowers coming off so easily to expose the extremely dangerous spike like stem. Too many 0 IQ aristocrat companies are making trash furniture with such sharp edges that endless adults and kids injure themselves. Round and soft on all sides saves wood that can be used as chips to make other prefab wood plates used to make flooring or round edge cabinet shelves. Let all furniture be made by Immortality Building Inc. This decentralization of brutish sales pitches yields only suffering. Why not replace sharp corners with round corners in all furniture, the sharp edges of 0.1 mm thickness with a wider round, 1000 times safer, 5-50 mm edge? Where is the spiritual kindness for the injured? Where is the walk, not just the talk of ethics? ☺☺☺

Immortality Building Inc (IBI) makes sure imported washing machines meet stringent safety criteria. For example, I saw a Korean made LG washing machine in Nov 2023 that is pure garbage. The design allows a lot of mold growth to happen in the packs of detergent loading area that many old people miss. Unlike US made Admiral brand and most top loading washing machines that are super easy (and always recommended) to leave open all the time, the front side opening ones (not top) have a tendency to be left closed (due to being placed by 0 IQ house designers, mom and dad company building houses with no IQ, in an ultra cramped tiny room where ventilation doesn't exist, instead of in the open garage) and that humidity will lead to the most horrifying mold growth that could cause endless diseases to worsen, via bacteria causing atherosclerotic plaque by depleting immune system cells of available soldiers. Go to Comfort Inn hotels and you see these types of side loading machines with a clear label saying "do not close after removing clothes" and nobody follows the signs, so mold grows and the washers smell bad, contaminating the entire hotel with mold spores, sickening millions of folks who use such moldy washers and dryers. The immortalist government needs to mandate that all washer, dryer doors be left OPEN and make a noise not a beep, but a human voice saying "please leave door open to prevent mold" for 900 times until he does it, if the user closes the door after the cycle is complete and he took his clothes out. So, if you ever use laundromat you need to smell the washer and dryer first, for your own safety. Not to mention the mold smell in the washer-dryer 6 ft by 6 ft room common in half a billion homes worldwide. This creates a mold spores problem for people who wash in these stinky machines. How many people in USA are doing the same mistake and leaving the side loading dryer and washer door closed due to cramped space or habit or ☺flea IQ companies☺ not telling in instructions to open them? It's unbelievable. Probably 100 million in USA at least, thanks to companies like LG, designing products with little IQ. Most top loading washers have a gap that lets air in even if the person forgets to open the lid once done washing, the air access is there even during a wash cycle. This is a huge advantage of the top loading washing machines, the traditional American made ones, they prevent mold growth. Admiral types are so easy to clean with a brush to get the soap scum out, please search on youtube and clean your washing machine inside walls behind that grating, as the filth in there can be DEADLY. We need design something ultra easy to clean or have the test done for mold spores by technician every year and let all have a clean house. This all can be done at the yearly or quarterly cleaning of any house by Immortality Building Inc. Today, nothing is done, most houses are having issues and people don't even know the issues exist, they just watch sports… Pics and tests done, AI determines steps and does them quick. The fewer models, the most amazing the steps and AI automation of maintenance so home owners don't need to be expert in 50000 appliances and waste life learning about everything, let all specialize and do division of labor. Why reinvent the wheel, are we that low IQ to waste eons to save minus 3 trillion wasted acting busy? We need the Immortality Nurturing Agency to crack down on unsafe imports and boost US manufacturing of top loading washers and put a big label on all US made washers: LEAVE Washer LID RAISED 24-7 in the open garage (or room of 300 ft^2 at least with outside ventilation 24-7) and Dryer Door Open if dryer not vented to outside, except when washing. These bad products (that need be replaced often, so US loses money by making them in other nations, instead of at home) may be part of hybrid war of extermination of US people by 3rd nations that use Koreans as their puppets to accomplish the goals. Americans are too busy watching ☺filif snail IQ☺ celebrities and sports teams to realize what is going on: all out war. Anything that can be plugged in can also have alternate devices that control human brains. ☺☺

In order to save our country and planet trillions of dollars and endless decades for millions of maintenance workers in repairs and health care costs, it is urgent to develop and mass produce ultra cheap sensors to enable detecting leaks of water, gas or abnormal electric currents in order to prevent electrical fires, water damage, mold, gas explosions and other events that can shorten or even suddenly end human lifespan. Thus, we need sensors near every toilet wax ring, every faucet, every connection, wire, etc. that detect water, gas, radio frequency (causes cancer, etc), electrical abnormalities (including high frequency spikes that can ruin health) and attempt to remove the sensor (which would enable someone to unscrew toilet, gently unseal the caulking to make it hard to detect by placing it back the same way, and then insert water to create a fake leak or simply create a wax leak with any device, so stuff comes on downstairs or subfloor, a typical technique spy agencies use to distract people from doing an action that would discover someone is a spy etc). With a 40$ pinless moisture detector, you can see immediately if the area around a toilet has higher MOISTURE % (20% bath tiles and 90% around a leaky toilet, 5% floor around house and 10% 3 feet from toilet in an adjacent room/hall to the tiled bath). To prevent issues, housing.gov gets a text to the 24-7 maintenance people of all houses and commercial buildings and they dispatch someone and notify if small or big leak. If a big leak, they come to the house within 10 minutes and knock on the door before the fire or flood or explosion or etc happens. With this vampiric system of stone age tech, we have everyone become a property manager, realtor, business major and no tech. With one system, we get one insurance company, Immortality Building Inc who maintains and builds all buildings in USA, in fact, it's government owned, 100000 PhDs take care of every house via high tech, every building, that way, we don't have ignorant homeowners maintain their super high tech sensors, ultra complex new future houses which would be like giving a 3 year old the keys to a nuclear missile silo control room: people don't know all the ins and out. If we want division of labor and efficiency and not wasting our country's resources, we need real maintenance, included in house prices. We say good bye all conmen spending all day advertising, marketing and deceiving, doing lousy jobs to create repeat customers, etc. All these companies create no incentive to do a good job, but with reviews.gov affecting Immortality Credit Score, and salary, bonuses, etc, we get a much more efficient system, no more marketing majors and nonsense. Just do a good job and managers need read customer feedback on suggestions and improve and they need be monitored on how they report and implement the customer suggestions. ☺☺☺

So you pay for whatever insurance plan you want, all choices today, except it's one super high tech company called Immortality Building Inc make room for SCIENCE JOBS, not insurance sales. Some plans cover more personal property and injury than others, but all cover the minimum house rebuilding in case of cataclysm in the area (war, rain, fire, earthquake, etc). The house price includes all BASIC major earthquake flood hurricane insurance, and basically a house is replaced or fixed for free during major disasters because the government does all maintenance and reviews.gov keeps every gov plumber reviewed to determine Immortality Credit Score and salary. By having all building done by the government, the GOVERNMENT HAS the highest incentive to build homes that withstand EARTHQUAKE, FIRE, ETC, as they have to work hard to replace it for 'free' and it's all about efficiency of USA as a whole. When you get to have the builder be the insurer and guy in charge of replacing it if anything happens, they ARE MOTIVATED to create the VERY BEST PREVENTIVE SENSOR SYSTEM and centralized UNIFIED (one code not 30000, see the 150 pages above on centralization of all city laws, state laws, codes) BUILDING CODE AND PROCEDURES, SO NO HURRICANE CAN WIPE IT, NO EARTHQUAKE DEMOLISH IT. That is Immortality CAPITALISM, totally different from the jungle today: too many selfish to the core "me me me", short-term plans only, while the country resources are wasted, time lost. You want that building to last 200 years, not 3. A Florida town invested a little upfront and prevented 10 times the cost to fix damage nearby towns endured: short-term profits lead to paying much more in the long-term. This enables all home owners to relax as the immortalist government is taking care via 100 sensors of every thing in the house 1000 times better than this Democrat-Republican run system of redundant 3rd world country system. Let people invent new tech to help live to 9000, not replace drywall that would never need replacing if sensor caught the leak 3 years early or 3 months early. Have some brains.☺☺☺ By now, after reading the above, you realize who works for the government probably, 90-99% of people, we finally develop a collective consciousness, a true love for the human quantum field. Everyone works for everyone and is paid according to reviews.gov and contributions to longevity. Some are so selfish, they don't realize how ☺abysmal in IQ☺ they are: look at us, we have 9000+ companies producing essentially the SAME TECH HOUSE for the most part, just arranged differently: they're all made of wood, plastic and some dry wall and a few other materials, etc. Nothing really new, no RESEARCH, just "design" and etc, using different wood. Such Neolithic tech.

All mollusk IQ contractors (or mom and dad, starved inefficient clueless without knowledge and proper training handyman and etc) building crap to collapse the next day at the slightest storm like in a Laurel & Hardy comedy, because they don't care: the insurance (owned by happy palatial aristocrats) will pay to rebuild trash, so all we do is build trash, instead of high tech domes that last millennia, made of stuff we have not yet invented, being too busy dancing at depraved concerts or playing selfish sports. Your fellow Americans are dying in storms, tornadoes, etc, do YOU care? Who is going to rein in the pathological desire to always "have your own business" at the cost of the entire society being a 3rd world country with no tech and pure corruption, useless trivial IQ lowering concepts and slogans, deception and favoritism, total jungle and lawlessness, implemented by hordes of lawyers and judges, America's 'number one job today' too, besides insurance agents and retail, flipping toxic burgers. Where is the sense of shared humanity and efficiency to increase science and tech jobs 100 fold so all benefit? It's not there, everyone is obsessed with having a small business doing the trashiest job with no capital for high tech and hiring 1 million PhDs. Everyone is a "Nobel Prize winner in economics", the whole thing is money, and profit. We can die at 34 with profit. Let's not go around the bush and be real: we want progress or stagnation, being baboons.☺☺☺

The policy has been for nations to create fake "private" companies that go all over the world and invest, but are state owned in all respects, just covertly. Why can't people just be honest? If you want to use the US system, simply choose the only one "external" outside of US version of Immortality Building Inc that functions in accordance to the laws of the host nation. Eterni Food Inc that tests every product with 10000 tests, no US store can sell food without the 10000 tests. This ensures no "private company" can sell junk. So yes only super big companies from outside could sell anything. If it meets the criteria set by the USA Immortality Nurturing Agency. We can have a foreign version or branch of Eterni Food Inc, what the gov allows to be sold, to make more Immortality for All disciples as people's biomarkers improve and the way they make it is top secret until World Peace arrives and all folks from 200 nations stop torture and war. People want a centralized high tech choice. The government will do the tests and ensure people still have access to all products today, just they're packed with the new label and found under the category of various types among all existing 10 million food products, to become only 9000 over 50 years of RESEARCH, after they discover that only 9000 increase lifespan 10 times more than the rest. Amazon ships them all some day, so yes, no need to have grocery stores, as the site has 100 times more info about each food, but can go visit Amazon warehouse to pick stuff up too. New criteria for food temp storage, transport insures no visits to Amazon warehouse are needed. Until then, we will eat like a lot like glorified pigs☺☺☺, masticating joyously, like blissful ignorant baboons, dead plants and animals, instead of making restaurants into eterni food universities. We wake up from the slumber of death that atrophies brains and makes us think all day about saving 2% on buying same product (different package) from company 5009, who sells it 4 cents cheaper, because saving 4 cents is more important than thinking about how to live to 500. Think about adding 3 trillion human lifespan years, not about saving 3% on a food.

For housing we choose one company only, for etc, one company, not 10000, to increase efficiency and help all embrace EFFICIENCY to lift the vibe of the human quantum field and be happier. If people are liars, and pretend a lot, NOBODY TRUSTS ANYONE, all RESEARCH takes 90 times longer to bear fruit, etc. So, it's time for nations to unify, join to form bigger nations with fewer languages, centralize, increase EFFICIENCY and create only 1-2 max external companies per industry for doing services for outside the country, to be honest since all spies know all these companies are state owned and all talk of WTO subsidies and all that is pure fraud and lies. All are heavily subsidized, all accounting tricks and 'complex useless meaningless verbose' systems of lies, bamboozling, no SCIENCE. Let's be real, honest first time in a million years, do a NOBLE act today, help all wish trillion year lifespan to all and bring it on, in action baby, not hot air.☺☺☺ The artificial conflicts and such are a system of distracting the people from the state of baboon society we're in with no science jobs, no research, just everyone running after profit, and all sales, lawyers, conmen, bankers, traders, and pastors telling us lies. It's pretty insane how people lie. Let all companies unify and reduce industries from 100000 to only 1-2 companies for internal or external activities, tenderly allow EFFICIENCY to become the focus so we have 300 times more research jobs, let EFFICIENCY become our religion of evolving from the rat stage to the human stage, to help ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ end the cannibalism and pure hyena behavior now. We can ☺☺lovingly☺☺ let freedom ring, indeed, around all house fixtures, using sensors etc... and in every area, freedom to choose high tech instead of baboon tech. ☺☺

The gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kind gradual unification of food, housing, travel, education, etc, companies (all or most companies are owned by the people, the state) brings 40 million high tech jobs to aid all nations in solving conflicts over resources via tech innovation, not war, so we bring ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months. We can gently change America forever from a dumpster☺ to a World of Immortals. Radiant shimmering genderless shapeshifting Immortals, cosmic gentle tender soft Eternals, who're not doormats, please wake up, private property never existed on this warring planet of gangsters and gunmen rulers, in a real sense, since gunmen taking over countries via military industrial complex can take and give anything, so your 4% saved on one (different marketing lies package) brand is taken away by another price increase of the other company his cousin owns, so you get the same thing, and they can steal anything in other countries covertly or overtly. All is owned by the military in every country, they control everything, property rights are more of a cosmetic thing. For true rights to exist, all killing and torture must stop, for only then can property rights

exist as none can use force to take away freedom of thought, emotion and healthy body, the only object that would last a really long time, trillions of years, in a world of Immortals, longer than this planet even. The only PROPERTY THAT EXISTS, in reality, IS THAT OF ETERNAL LIFE OF ALL human beings, it is the ONLY ETERNAL THING THAT WILL LAST, so when you think you own something material, your garage company selling cheap vitamins, you don't since it disappears in a trillionth of a second in the life of a FREE HUMAN BEING, WHO HAS THE PROPERTY RIGHT TO HIS OWN IMMORTALITY. This allows all, from age 1 onward, to realize nothing is worth stealing, as you lower your Immortality credit score, the means to real property, which is trillion year lifespan, attainable only by the successful efforts of billions of people who live to 1 million years old at least first, so everything happens via Immortality for All, via all making it to 8000 first. Therefore, we define a new legal system of immortal law and principle born out of our eternal | Immortality for All | ethos. If XYZ disappears in a trillionth of a second, we call it an illusion, nonexistent, so it is with the objects we have, we deify them and we then forget about trillion year lifespan for all. So, it's good to think in terms of Immortality of the human quantum field, the ultimate richness of all people, our most valuable property, the human quantum field, the common good of all, the right of Eternal Life for all, TRILLION YEAR LIFESPAN FOR ALL, THE TRUE PROPERTY RIGHT THAT MATTERS. We can allow the Gentle Tender Nurturing Soft Grace of Immortalist Anthem to reverberate in every single family home with high tech gadgets to prevent issues, so all experience the freedom of living to 9 billion soon.☺☺☺

WHY have 1.2 million beauty salons (half US citizens shave a lot, wasting 2 months of their life that could be used to help others and 10K on shaving legs, underarm, eyebrows, genitals, etc – they often use expensive IPL laser portable devices or doctor treatments that shortens lifespan, causes heart disease, ocular damage (when eye caps are not used), Alzheimer, brain fog, etc via unseen blood clots, etc), when we could have atherosclerosis (# 1 killer worldwide) prevention salons, biomarket monitoring immortalist centers? Think about it, many sit and do nothing in barber shops or nail shops, when really nobody needs to do their nails and can easily trim hair at home in the mirror with the help of family or self. All those businesses drain our resources for meditation, living long, relaxing rejuvenating the body. Everyone is a slave of "doing nails, legs, hair removal, etc". It's pure insanity and they have no idea how toxic the food they eat is and don't care about World Peace in 3 months. Millions are tortured, yet they're busy with "hairstyles" "nail styles", leg shaving styles", "doing their eyelashes". The immortalists would propose a moratorium on new useless barber shops, beauty salons until we get rid of all jails and wars. The most important thing is World Peace in 3 months, without Peace, and 0 violent crime, 0 jails, no civilization exists. Look at these people, the epitome of selfishness, entire streets taken by filif comical☺ restaurants and salons, when all that space could make single family homes and reduce crime, eliminate jails, etc. Not only that, but at home, with info from 100 ebooks like this one and others, you can prepare 10 times healthier meals, without waiting in the car for 30 minutes and blocking traffic. It's unbelievable, so many are so lazy, AND IGNORANT of anything related to nutrition and taking care of THEIR health, quality sleep, instead of blaming the doctor. Preparing your meals forces you to stand and move, while sitting in car or restaurant waiting is simply not doing any exercise: it makes you capable to survive during all out war when no restaurant exists too, it helps you eliminate jails that exist for the same reason war exists: scapegoating, cruelty and indifference, pure selfishness. If WW3 begins tomorrow, do you have an idea how to survive on legumes, grains, algal oil (to replace fish), vitamins and water filtration? Dried foods cooked? Meat may not be available. The laziness and callousness of our societies are unbelievable: so many are so spoiled, few want to spend 10 minutes to cook something at home, when it's 100 times easier than in former centuries with pressure cookers or to make a smoothie or trim their hair. Almost nobody cares our taxes are used to kill millions. Immortalists would try to inspire all to have some minimal compassion, honesty about the true reasons for crime and war, so that people choose to consolidate 50 salons into one and motivate people to break their addiction to these salons (unless it's a very important medical treatment due to a birth defect, wart or injury) with free meditation classes, voting to demolish it and build a relaxation meditation center, health parameters monitoring center, since people can meditate at home, relax, breathe and be happy. All jails must be demolished and turned into decent healing centers where people can work on various projects needed for Eternal Universal Peace, such as national self-sufficiency, building 1 million vertical farms to stop all food imports, create at home foods far better than the AGE-ing processed crap we import, that makes us low IQ, easy to destroy: tenderly gently kindly☺☺ wake up, read the Walnut Tree section. No ethics arises when you depend on psychos, no nonkilling immortalist society exists if it depends on societies that legalize police torture, jails, since this leads to killings and then you soften your ethics, you make compromises and become a mortalist society where killings are OK, torture is the rule (USA today). Self-sufficiency is the first step to immortalism. Self-sufficiency requires high tech so as to avoid any imports. All get fines for crimes, except violent offenders who live in these healing oases and do some 35 h/week job (plus 5h education) to help USA, as USA helped them to build a place 90 times nicer than jails.

Why are we obsessed with flowery talk of rights and property, when no property rights exist, when people are killed in wars as collateral damage and their right to their body is not respected by 30 million cops, spies and soldiers who torture humans in their job? FREE HUMANITY NOW. We can bring real property rights, ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months, the right to not being tortured and killed. We can stop thinking about 2% we save buying milk from company 90001 (the 2% you saved, wiped out all vitamin A, B_{12}, D_3 due to transparent container, and turned it into a lethal form that competes for vitamin A, B_{12}, D_3 absorbing molecular systems, creating body damage, and you got also some oxidized fat from light) and think about how to increase every human's lifespan by a million years. Let us love all humans, bring the Immortalist Anthem to Reality, free and magnify the property rights of all by being less obsessed with them, as Tao Te Ching explains: the paradox of life. Let the mighty current of Immortalism sweep every street of America and help all nations practice Immortalist Anthem like lyrics in joy: Immortality for All baboon life for none. God, have mercy and give us a relaxed high tech job now. ☺☺☺

All this talk of high tech and not one really high tech house exists, let alone house selling. So we increase efficiency 1000 fold, we prevent billions of maintenance calls that waste enormous human and material resources as issues are caught months or years BEFORE they develop (example: leaks of water etc) into damage. Small contractors have no SOP, no procedures, no nothing, like a Windows operating system created by 2 programmers instead of 3 million. With 800 trillion sensors worldwide, they will report to the city main RF receiver station only when a leak is detected and do a check if sensor works every few days or weeks to avoid RF overload and can coordinate all sensors to beam it when fewest are home to avoid RF pollution. We get the first high tech houses ever built where issues are prevented years before they can occur and that mass produced system of 500 models, allows us to house all Americans in single family homes that are high tech and this trash we have today can be bulldozed eventually over 150 years, as new materials that don't get eaten by termites and don't rot or mold will be developed by the 1 million chemists and material scientists of the Immortality Building Inc. So, we move from the huts☺☺☺ today we call houses of Neanderthal chimps, to some decent houses. Let's get 100 times more science jobs, robots, sensors doing 1000 times better issue prevention job than the best property manager on Earth today. We can gently kindly☺☺ come out of this cage of flesh, become the Spirit Eternal, rise forth as a nation of brainy people, not brainless "glorified piglets☺☺☺, baboons and cows munching McDonald's or dead animals/plants cooked at home until all nutrients are gone". We're so 'beyond dogs' we think, living 5 times less than us, now imagine shimmering shapeshifting Immortals living to a trillion, 10 billion times longer, to them we're 'glorified pigs' or ants. Junk burgers give you heart attack, wasting billions to cure plaque.

Until the sensors and everything is unified into Immortality Building Inc, we let everyone be emailed on preventive house, health maintenance if they feel brave enough to try or they pay the gov plumber to replace the leaking wax ring or whatever leaks if they want to focus on other things and don't feel like they're jack of all trades, master of none. New wax seals can be invented to enable all to have 40 times fewer leaks on these toilet flanges, wax rings. We see on youtube subfloor leaks that may lead to urine, feces etc going into the subfloor (a LOT more common than most people are aware, since under tile or laminate you can't smell it) or causing drywall for downstairs unit or living room to get soaked in flushing water, etc – this is very easy to happen as the toilet connection wax can dry and toilet can move if the toilet is not supported in place by heavy caulking. Likewise, get rich quick contractors forget to seal the toilet, sink pipe connections to drywall, leaving gaps instead of placing foam or caulk there, so then dozens of centipedes come inside the house, or all kinds of other bugs. youtu.be...w says caulk 90% of the toilet base rim, so you can still see water if it leaks, but what if water sinks into floor from the opposite side? His idea is great, to leave a 4 inch gap at the back, but perhaps, we need that same 4-5 inch gap at the back distributes as 10 half inch gaps at equal distance, so you can monitor all 10 areas, since leaks can happen only in one place and then water may not get to the other side due to the way wax and caulk affects water flow. So, 10 half inch gaps (or at least 3-5 gaps of 1 inch) can act as a semi-"sensor" of the stone age of greed, when people are too selfish to have one company for everything related to house maintenance, everyone wants to be the great CEO, doing the worst job, and no RESEARCH, or 9000 times less, as in Republican style "small business true 'patriotism' (turning our nation into a ghetto, as nobody is motivated to work hard, invent, if one gets paid 10000 times more for the same exact job, selling a $100 million house as selling a $10000 one), *ethics and IQ". The motto of most Republican Party donors seems: "*Money is our God, economics/business our major, redundant manager, stock trader, house flipper, speculator, CEO our main job, greed our guide, Financial Credit Score the God of all things on Earth, cooperating, sharing, science are forbidden. Bible is the Word of God. Anyone who proposes centralization, efficiency (so we get 9000 times more research, 7000 times fewer issues with house maintenance, 100 times longer lifespan), is an enemy of God, since then via science all realize the Bible is fake, mass subjugation unGodly, and Immortality Credit Score needed as a much better Score to guide civilization*". The score would be from 0 to 1000, with most between 50 and 900. The FICO is very narrow, most are 600-700. A wider range would be helpful, as well as having 100+ subscores for matching preferences.*

We still need good sensors for wax rings, any connections, pipes, appliances with gas, etc. People waste time to replace the drywall and whatever materials got contaminated, not to mention the air inside the walls can get these bacteria growing etc that are not ideal. While those internal areas are not what we breathe, they still can cause the bacteria to migrate eventually thru tiniest slots contractors did not seal (stuff ants use to enter house), etc or cause sewer gases, etc that lead to explosions or fire. Google "mold remediation" or mold from the leaves in your garden, etc, we do have immunity for these things as molds are everywhere, but some may mutate in dark places into various types that for people who sleep with windows closed could cause an issue if any leak exists for air, etc. So, not only they replace a lot, but in old people, with weak immunity or those who sleep poorly (immunity becomes 30% of normal) it can cause some allergies, from mold toxins or infections, lung problems, etc. Thus, we have added health expenses too if leaks exist and these leaks, due to no sensors, are so common that virtually, 90% of houses are full of mold inside the walls, also due to day to night temperature fluctuation and condensation (attic eaves). Molds can't feed on plastic or carbon nanotube synthetic materials of a high tech era, but thrive on wood, drywall and the paleolithic tech we use today to build houses. Molds are big business, they don't design the house intelligently to prevent mold formation, with catches of plastic near every pipe to divert all water down into sewer, etc and plastic coating, etc. Likewise, termites treatment etc are big business, so the wood lobby is best friend of termites folks, they work as one aristocracy to keep us all in the stone age: big private business, sell and make cash. People are too busy playing 0 IQ violent sports to be in a lab to wash glassware, etc to design a new wood treatment method (not the typical one where wood is porous and water mold absorbing, as with termite pretreatment) that would make the outer layer totally chemically inert to water/mold, smooth, impenetrable, as if you glued a PVC to it. You know setting up reactors, building research centers, etc is using physical calories, but none are left after 1 hour of "sports". So, we remain baboons. This coating of wood would be better than nothing, until they create a better material via carbon nanotubes or plastics, new unheard of polymers, etc. The culture of trash into landfill is there, instead of build stuff lasting 9 millennia. Look at the nail tech, all these rotting nails, rusting nails on gutters, when you can design stuff way better, with better chemistry that never rusts. Such a simple task, yet not done yet. Same thing for drywall, no special chemical treatment to create drywall that lasts millennia. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Due to many types of leaks (toilet wax ring, pipes, stems for faucets, etc), people replace drywall besides time wasted by plumbers, etc as you can see in 1000s of youtubes. People may do it without proper nose protection and N95 mask or etc, and get infections in eyes, or allergies etc. People don't know, they read some do it yourself online and not realize that a first time doer is not the same as someone who did with all gadgets etc 100 times and knows how to do it without inhaling all toxic stuff, ozonate afterwards well, etc. Some kitchens today suffer from the profit at all costs mania: they find some dark granite and use it, without a layer of light color on top for example: this causes people to clean only 10% of the existing dirt that attracts microbes, ants (that carry viruses and microbes), and all kinds of insects. When it's white or light pastel colors, you wipe it out 10 times more, as you see exactly where to go and ants don't come to eat the left over stuff. Dad and son contractor saves 20 minutes, leaves baseboard meeting points in corners with gaps, for ants to come in, future home owner deals with it for 300 hours, buying chemicals, not knowing it's usually baseboards lacking caulking (sometimes the gap between the concrete or floor and the wall allows ants to come from underground into the house, so you simply pull carpet out, just pull it, it is held lightly at the edge by some pins and you can push it right back after you caulk), especially in the corners where they meet, easy to see the crevices if you trace the ants and save endless hours and money spaying ants, placing ant devices, etc. Who pays those people wasting 300 hours? NO standards, every contractor does their own "jack of all trades master of none" job. Talking about ants and chemicals, you can mix sugar:borax 4:1, solid and place in a small open bottle for the ants to feed on and kill the entire colony in 1 month; or spray whitish concentrated imidacloprid, it kills ants outside that are the source of your inside ants, within 12-24 hours, imidacloprid is like the "nuclear weapon" of ant elimination outside, costs 20 cents versus 100$ to call company to use the same chemical, use some $ store spray bottle to make a concentrated solution, 1 spoon in 200 ml water.

If your toilet leaks from upstairs to your downstairs rooms, the drain PVC or metal pipe leaks, or some toilet flushing connection got loose and needs plumber putty or some tape until plumber comes (10 min with Immortality Building Inc, and a happy 2 days with 1 million contractors sometimes, only 144 times longer: the classic message they got is "part is on back order, wait 4 weeks" EXTREME EFFICIENCY and hear that: "utmost or unparalleled customer satisfaction by "competition", waste, decentralization, reinventing wheel 50 million times in industries"). The only-when-flushed toilet leak could be caused by loose mounting bolts or a worn-out wax ring or plastic flange; the all-the-time leak could be caused by a loose water supply line (to the toilet) connection, bad water shutoff valve, faulty seal between the toilet tank and its base. When dad & son contractors install tile, they make mistakes that increase likelihood of leaks, though most wax rings simply wear out after 30 years, some even after 3-15 years. You know with one central company, you don't need to have the plumbers drive 1 hour to you, they have endless local people, saving tire particles and smog from gasoline that kills millions. Be kind. Without central Immortality Building Inc, humans don't do proper maintenance, like 20$ anode replacing to prevent corrosion of the water heater, so then they replace the whole water heater and the whole USA is just a 3rd world country of ☺pet IQ folks☺ replacing appliances that would last 3 times longer with a minimal maintenance every 1-2 years made by Immortality Building Inc.

Immortality Building Inc can specialize people and they can work on the same few things always, doing it much better than jack of all trades, master of none man and cousin company. In Microsoft Windows a programmer does one little thing, not all of it. This way, everyone does it right, 100.00% of the time. Mom and dad companies are trash. Like a 2 KB OS vs 3 GB Windows, a million fold difference as 1 million people work on Windows, not 2. Why do we need 15 million subcontractors instead of just 15 main companies? The wax isn't that good anyway, a better tech with undiscovered yet material exists. With tiles, they need taller wax rings, etc, as shown above. Toilet flanges can fail even after 6 years, or even 2, so sensors are a must. Some say check it it every 2 years, but no homeowner does it, when it could be on a checklist the gov emails the people… until all got sensors. Folks are too busy with selfish sports to check things that require some exertion or they just watch soccer on TV and shout, then play a little basketball to feel "a proud American". The ideal standard toilet flange should rest on top of your bathroom floor or be 1/4 inch above it. When you do tile and floor work etc, take toilet out etc you need place new wax ring to make sure it doesn't leak. They don't install new wax ring always, decentralization ruins the planet and human species.☺☺☺ No common SOP. This failure to raise the wax ring with a taller type or rubber support they offer, etc will increase chance of a leak happening 5 times faster. Immortality Building Inc trains all to do the simplest maintenance tasks, etc via the youtube channel with the most eterni tones. We got 3 million teachers, each reinventing the wheel, no central education, no same videos in nice tone for all. Wax can dry out apparently and then crack. Due to decentralization, wasting half of our energy duplicating reinventing the wheel, SOPs, etc, jobs, admin positions, etc, many Americans live like caged rats in moldy (most people are too misinformed to know most houses with our Neolithic tech have some mold for example), infested by insects (ants everywhere), condo floors that shake (when neighbors come home) and leak, loud noisy housing due to paper thin walls using 1st century tech. Sensors can be powered by water flush or cosmic pulses vibrations alone, sensor battery lasts 50 years, via a resonant mechanism of using pipe flow, electric flow, etc. Governments are too busy lecturing about peace and torturing to death millions, instead of creating immortality capitalism. All due to the way aristocracy designed the system, to exterminate or enslave the workers, check out 17 apartments became one big apartment, while others are homeless. Some people realized most spy agencies, militaries are controlled by the same royals, aristocrats of yore. But most don't.

The Demon-crats need to support the immortalist party as it drafts new 1000 times tougher than today standards for mold, lead, noise transmission thru walls, roof and windows, formaldehyde, off gassing of floors, walls, furniture, etc used in remodeling that causes asthma and endless diseases of the lungs, heart, brain, and inaugurate $50 million for every violation (cops go with instruments in a hotel, measure all imperfections, violations and fine them billions for 100 rooms, let Hilton pay $5 billion a month until it goes bankrupt), to help bankrupt millions of companies that are pure frauds, and run by greedy aristocratic bastards, whose only religion is theft from the poor by killing slowly the poor with toxic products used in remodel and construction and toxic procedures, shortcuts and etc. This amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ wave of bankruptcy, gives Immortality Building Inc 5 million new employees who will be trained the right way, and work with a company that tests 10000 things, that the mom and dad ☺filif IQ☺ companies never do and never can, as they don't use the power of humanity and big size, can't afford the expensive instruments and procedures the government uses. This company can even text decibels when some noise happens nearby outside of the house or in a neighboring condo, at 3 ft from each corner at 45 degrees, to create a national database for noise levels based on materials used that is used by sound engineers to discover the most efficient cheap sound insulating materials for maximum happiness and health. With amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ measurements, 900 at least for each house after remodel, the chemists and engineers can discover the best ways to remodel to remove lead, mold traces. Today, with 3 million competing companies and contractors, no records or measurements are kept in any file, and not electronic for sure, making it difficult to know what kind of remediation or maintenance was done at the house, as you got 500 things done by home owners, 200 by one company and 50 by another company, with 10 done by another 10 companies. Who will have records of it all? Today, competition and greed are far more important than protecting national health. Thus, enormous missed opportunities to create trillions of data points and discover what works are missed. Thus, united as one, we Americans get rid of aristocratic parasites in one quick 5 year sweep that ends millions of unethical trashy businesses that keep us in the stone age of savagery. Those equally greedy foreign aristocrats will have soul discovery day when receiving $90 billion fines over 5 months for hotels that don't meet the new touch health promoting standards too. ☺☺☺

How can people live in perfect health to 100 or maybe 150 if the standards are so low? If you buy a house built before 1978, you need to do a lead inspection and they say go to the EPA website to search for an EPA approved tester, etc. When you go there, you search within 50 miles and you get 45 contractors for Washington DC for example and you call them all and only 1 of them, after wasting 2 hours of talking and calling, has an appointment next day (that they cancel 3 hours later, saying it will be 3 days later) and also has the XRF spectrometer that detects the exact mg of lead/cm^2, which the tube tests never can, unless you scrap paint, making a 1 mm deep cut in the wall to test the wall paint layers from 1850 to 1978. So, the home owners, the workers, have to work hard and jump thru endless loops, when the government via Immortality Building Inc should have inspected, renovated, remediated any mold, lead, etc before the new owner moves in, as housing.gov explains, if immortalists win 60% of vote, Republicans 5% and Demon-crats 35%, so we can finally place workers first and aristocratic parasites last. It's sickening to see all these enslaved workers waste eons going to home depot and trying to figure out in 3 hours what a contractor does in 1 hour visit at the store, where items are, what to buy, effectively reinventing everything, the wheel and wasting their life, when they could innovate and we got one company doing all house maintenance. The ☺abysmal IQ☺ and selfishness of the Republican party can't be more evident: the poor workers have to have PhD in nutrition, in house building, electrical, plumbing everything, because they're too poor to afford the exorbitant fees sometimes, the Republican eternal crusade against big government is pure cruelty and genocide against the poor, pure egoism, we're all one family and the government is us, we help each other, we own the 11 companies, We the People, instead of only the rich having expensive preventive maintenance plans and knowing nothing about house maintenance or anything, as cooks make their poisonous foods making them irate psychopaths of untold avarice. The Republican government simply takes care of the rich, and steals from the working class. It's guilty of global looting of every American. The immortalists' administration would be all about the PEOPLE, the end of rich people, the start of democracy. Immortalists offer the conservative values of Re-pub-licans, minus the greed and mere contempt for the poor, in fact immortalists are for ultra conservative values like sex for pro-creation only, etc. The Re-pub-licans simply pretend to believe in Jesus, as they're OK with a lot of sex outside of procreation and the abortions it brings. The modern people always use division of labor to do things fast, efficient and 1000 times better: some work in maintenance, others in longevity, why not apply division of labor universally? Why do we have to make the poor masses learn the job qualifications of a plumber, electrician, installer, drywall builder, lead abatement specialist, etc due to the expensive unaffordable prices that make only aristocrats do these with ease via slaves they employ, so the rich have more free time to torture, terrorize and enslave 85% of Americans thru CIA, FBI, etc fraudulent banks and endless useless businesses they brainwash us we really need. The poor have to be jack of all trades, master of none, to survive. If Windows were replaced by 1 million operating systems, like we have 1 million contractors and 100 million mini-contractors the home owners, we would have the crappiest operating systems with 1 million fewer programmers. The same crap happens with housing, we got every clueless ☺ abysmal IQ☺ guy doing maintenance without having a clue what they're doing. Leave it to the experts. You don't let janitors to design space rockets, why let every filif monkey IQ company maintain a house when they will become so much more high tech to enable us to live to 900?

How can Christians, fans of 900 year old Methuselah, argue with Immortalist Party, when the Gospel calls for (spiritual) Immortality for All? Centralization is the manifestation of "Christian virtue". Let's do it and live the true meaning of Christian family and viewing all as your fellow siblings or kids of God, with all data shared by all, via the only one company that maintains and fixes all houses, and knows from records all that was done, for mold, for leaks, for lead, easy to search in one database. Parents or God don't give 50000 apples or calories to one kid and 1 to the other, yet in the perverted Christian philosophy of parasitic aristocrats, they want to pay some 50000 times more for the same 40-60 hour work week, when their 'amazing contributions' can't be done without the toil of thousands in more menial positions. His Nobel Prize was due to the work of 5000 others who got no money, not fair folks. What "Body of Christ" family are they talking about? If it's one body you don't have aristocrats and slaves. The rich pervert the Christian and other religions in order to justify slavery, caste systems and other unfair genocidal practices. The so called scholars and pastors are mere frauds who whitewash fraud (fake miracles) and theft as kindness. All day they shout about virtue, yet all they do is kill fellow Christians with noise, lead, mold, cancer causing chemicals off gassing from walls, furniture, floors, paints for a year after people move in. We immortalists have nothing with true Christians who chose to believe in faked miracles and unproven hypotheses☺☺☺, only with those who would use religions as a cover to subjugate, enslave, kill and destroy others covertly.

We hear we "need" build high density housing and other lunatic ideas, which make us easy target for wiping out 90% of people in 2 minutes. Nobody enjoys living in a 5-20 floor building that could come down during an earthquake, tornado. Plus, we got millions of acres wasted with useless tobacco, useless wineries, soy, corn, that we feed animals to give us toxic red meat. The idea that we can't do it is false, everyone wastes their life in car dealership jobs, instead of creating new rivers to go where nobody lives. 80% of Americans live in one section of the nation, due to our innate amazing laziness and decentralized "50 million middlemen jobs, 20000 city royal family governments" chaos of "wait until the whole empire comes crushing down". The aristocrats pretend they want to help USA, in order to get insanely high incomes. Then, the workers realize the system is rigged, so they act busy when they can as USA collapses. Decentralization and redundant management jobs, sales, etc, government (20000 governments with their own laws, etc), means we lose about 50 million jobs, due to inefficiency, reinventing. These bloodsucking aristocrats prevented electric cars for decades, causing $8 trillion in extra oil imports, when sun and wind are free. Worst of all, the car smog kills workers who live in smoggy areas. The rich live in smogless grand estates, with their own pastor airports, as they preach hate and claim to promote Jesus, when with their pro-gas cars message they support Islam 100%. US is the land of conmen, frauds, each for themselves, whoever can cheat better wins.

The essence of Christianity, Judaism that rule USA is simple: a big unique design house, 5 million designs, endless architects, no science of new materials, etc. Instead of only 500 designs or so, we got millions and endless different rules in every state, so it takes 5 months to build a house, instead of 2 days. China erected a mobile structure in 2 minutes. The ☺low IQ☺ of the system, that takes often 5 months to even buy or sell a house, instead of 2-4 days, is unbelievable. Everyone is a reseller, marketing nonsense specialist, architect. The essence of spirituality in USA is not to live longer to 1 million to have time to understand God, so one can emulate God not psychopathy, but to build your UNIQUE house in a way that makes you "shinier than the rest", in a way that nobody knows where pipes are, anything is. Most older houses have no blueprints electronic at housing.gov or some central location, and mom and dad garage contractor comes, makes 40 holes to figure out where the pipes are. With immortalism, they know your house is design # 455 and where each wire and pipe is within 2 mm. No need of any guesswork. The USA has over time shifted into a country of egomaniacs and ☺abysmal IQ☺ selfish people, so brainwashed by the soulless aristocratic genocidal palace dwelling aristocrats to be a cruel heartless person, that it never occurred to them everyone could have a single family home, fewer designs, 400 times fewer architects by modular design of commercial, and 500 designs for residential max, and live 5 times longer if we had 10 times more science and engineering jobs, instead of bamboozling/politician jobs and 20000 local governments creating 20000 versions of every law . It's like we have 20000 presidents, trying to con everyone else, rip them off. The most important thing in life in 2025 USA is "not 0 violent crime, but simply a bigger house, a unique house, having your own Taco truck, business living paycheck to paycheck. Sharing is a sin", why have Chipotle, Taco Bell, etc produce healthier tacos and eliminate all taco trucks if we can have 5 million taco trucks and remain in the stone age? How can any innovation ever occur if we keep these filif IQ truck companies making food? Same for the housing industry: all about appearance, shape, size, colors, nothing about what makes people live to 500, by having 50 times more chemistry, physics engineering jobs that innovate. Foods and houses, transport, etc are more about appearance, taste, texture, smell, not living to 500. Our national resources are spent to increase entertainment for 1 million and their lifespan by 5 years, instead of increasing lifespan of 340 million by 10 years. We get to thus increase lifespan by 5 million years instead of 3400 million. This sinks the USA into stagnation, as other democratic nation increase lifespan by 5 billion. The way the system is has nothing to do with what is good for the maximum amount of people, but what is good for the aristocrats living in palaces. How can anyone trust USA to lead the world? Never. All nations move away from the $ for this very reason. Bandits rule USA folks who torture covertly. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

4.5.6.4. Eterni Bank (shorter than Eternity Bank or Immortality Bank) with its long-term goal of the eterni universal currency, the one and only (cash nonexistent) digital currency on Earth, when 1 billion companies become 11. This is the 4th of the 11 National Unified companies of the immortalist America, renamed Eternia. All will know it as "the bank", the one and only, so we'll say "I am going to the bank", as there is only one Bank and 50000 Immortality Universities, instead of 50000 Banks and 0 Immortality Universities today in the Age of Aristocratic Bandits Genocides via brainwashing campaigns to steal all money from the working class via car loans, private education, big house, a new phone yearly, 20 subscriptions, extracurricular imbecilization of kids that costs 10-20K a year and provides wholly inferior outcomes (dumb kids who have no independent thought, good sleep or any creativity, just a resume of "stuff kids do" to make criminals rich, same criminals from universities who say "admission to our life wasting university depends on extracurricular crap, just do your own biochemistry of living to 4000 research, leave alone those "pig IQ companies") to ideas in this book any parent can home school, useless luxury goods. Eterni Bank becomes the only bank of USA to help us replace the parasite banker "profession" with scientists, replacing 4500 banks & 4700 credit unions (so 9200 banks really, since credit unions are in reality banks, even if they're nonprofit cooperatives owned by its members that can provide better rates) of green banknotes with 1 bank of beautiful colorful banknotes like other nations or perhaps, 50% of the color is lavender-purple like Eternia flag. This is needed for the birth of fairness, so no aristocrats can steal workers' savings by crashing banks. Look at the chart, USA is shutting down all banks slowly, destroying the parasites, US had 29000 banks in 1921. We need to reduce the number to 5 max very soon. All deposits in US's Only Bank will be insured by the central government. This ensures highly efficient capitalism like never before, to help the masses, the average person, the poor, not the merchant parasites.☺☺☺Having many banks means customers wait 20 minutes or 2 days in some countries to withdraw money, due to endless verification. All products today will be unified, some employees of existing banks remain. The money supply belongs to the American people, not to the aristocratic mafia. No income can be made outside of salary paid in one's Eterni Bank account, to catch all spies and gangsters, bring Eternal World Peace and 0 violent crime, as cash and all online crypto currencies are banned. No illegals can survive in USA, as only legals can get the card (after a DNA test too, to make sure they're not a Chinese (see her) who had plastic surgery to look Black, Latino or even blue eyed White), and no cash/crypto/foreign currencies are accepted in any store by federal law. This prevents fraud, bribes, kickbacks, 35 million illegals from being a 5th column spy network working for enemy nations. People are so naive, they don't realize brown eye people can get blue eyes easily in several ways. It takes 30 min only, see 2 min clip. Only spies do it usually, or insecure people, since you can become blind if something goes wrong or doctor errs. USA will TEST ALL LEGAL residents and citizens, all 350 million Americans, to make sure their legal docs saying 'Race or Ethnic Group X" matches what they really are by DNA, to find all first generation spies or even those who have been spies for 12 generations since 1700 when ancestor moved to USA as a foreign spy. The day when cartels run 30% of America, 90% of Mexico and when foreign spies run 30% of USA with only 40% of USA run by USA, will be over. USA will no longer be the toilet where nations defecate and send their terrorists, insane psychos and murderers. This card uses biometric fingerprints and other facial scanner to make sure YOU alone use that card and you can't lend it to an illegal. The way billionaires keep everyone poor is thru credit cards and the US 9200 banks, that make the average Americans own 92000 in debt. Without this money, slaves, the 90%, who get no homes, no cars, can't buy 60$ dolls that cost 2$ to make and make everyone a cat IQ person. They sell a 9$ coffee to lower worker IQ, when at home it costs 10 cents to make, a 30$ restaurant lethal food, when at home a healthy meal is 3$. Workers get into debt via the demonic banks who even have such a thing called credit. They got no home. Normally, in a civilized society, everyone gets to work in one of the 11 companies and gets a free basic house once 18, if they want to move out of parents' home and there is no such thing as credit or discount cards (see below). Any purchase is deducted from paycheck weekly, or if big, over 3 years/decades. No inflation exists. No stocks, no gambling, no crypto scams. Everyone gets free public transport, healthcare and enough money to buy clothing, food, cleaning suplies. The rich often don't even know what shampoo is for, since all their life they had their hair washed at a salon, where slaves work instead of doing science. Credit is not needed, except in criminal societies. When the workers with no car, no assets, huge debt die, Depression happens, as banks go bust, as the 200K in debt of millions dead can't be paid. So the Banker subjugation of the youth will end with 15 banks instead of 9200 today, which will be a good thing for USA, though we can get there via the Immortalist Party and no depression due to this looming disaster. The reality is the smaller aristocrats feed off as parasites on the 90% too, not just the billionaires. They think they're much smarter or something that they saved, but that was not their merit, they were told by the rich parents to save and not buy on credit, while the same evil parents told the 90% to buy on credit and be homeless, renter for life, to make the rich wealthier. So, for as much as they lie to us, the top 10% literally destroy USA as everyone is engaged in a win-lose game of super low IQ businesses of trash that create no progress or scientific innovation, only fake science to sell junk. Until the 10% realize what happens, and the 90%, it's hard to reform things, as the 10% buy both parties to fake elections, con workers into fights over nonsense, LGBT, etc. Money makes people very disconnected from reality, as they live in plush neighborhoods, thinking all live like them. Money also makes them able to pay fines in 1 hour of work instead of 1 year, so all laws lose all meaning for the rich, unless everyone has to do community service at one of the 11 companies. The rich lose all empathy, and realization that all their wealth is built on destroying the nation, since the workers, without house, stability, drifting around, have no wish to have kids, can't raise kids properly, education☺☺☺ is not centralized, free, high quality, everyone becomes filif pig IQ. Billionaires hire others to do everything, their kids become drug addicts, as nannies fool around, destroy rich kids, the rich destroy the whole nation...

A cashless society ends the millions of ATM shootings that lead to 12 year jail sentences, which mean half a million in state jailing expenses and half a million for rehab of the victims at least. When we do the math, this is $1 trillion over the years. Behold the cruelty of the CASH SOCIETY: millions of defenseless women and kids shot and made permanently unable to walk normally. Any animal pretending to be a human, who stabs and shoots anyone in a robbery deserves death penalty. The filif fruit fly IQ of leftists who say "no death penalty", "no penalty for theft" etc is illogical, since these murderers only attack poor defenseless people, since aristocrats never go to ATM, they live in gated areas with security forms, concrete walls, bullet proof walls, cars and windows. The cash society only benefits The aristocratic beasts in its plunder all goals. The cash allows the Beast to launder money, bribe people. The working class is the victim of the evil Democrat Party policies of minimal death penalty. Now, you understand that the Aristocrats push guns on poor to shoot the poor and not kill the shooters, so the shootings destroy the working class forever, via gun ownership genocides facilitated by the infernal Republicans and the evil twin Democrats who support violent music. This only ends when all guns and sharp big knives are outlawed and death penalty for any stab/shooting becomes the universal law on Earth. Guns for cops only. Criminals kill and shoot people so easily simply because there is no death penalty for nonfatal shootings or stabbings, Cash is Genocidal war by the Democrats and Republicans on workers. Cash allows rich men to setup gangs covertly and terrorize the working class, drugging the working class in secret. Democrats are simply Republicans in disguise (max salary = 5000x the min Dems, max salary = 50000x min Repubs, unlike Immortalists max salary 2-5 times min) with only 1 goal in mind, the subjugation, eternal slavery of the working class, they're not leftists in action, only in appearance, as clever masters of global deception. Cash allows the rich to bribe endless people, overthrow governments and install gangs in power. Anyone selling anything on eterni.i (the new Amazon, Walmart, online shopping merged into one as a sort of market.gov) by having the vans pick it up from the front of the house, has to show, before setting up pickup of item, online proof of ownership by logging in with their universal ID, which has the code of all owned items, purchased or received by gift with the ownership code transferred from prior owner to new owner, to prevent black/regular market sale of stolen items that are misrepresented as "gift items". All caught with items they don't own is stealing and pays 9000 times the value of the item. Barter is illegal as it can create drug trade. Any purchases above your normal food consumption trigger a universal police (only one such department for all USA) visit or a start of top secret investigation for later deportation and citizenship revocation from the citizen or resident who helped an illegal to buy food or anything, besides lifetime labor sentence for aiding spies who want to kill all USA in 10 seconds with a fist size sci-fi weapon. All bank transactions are monitored to catch spies (just as they're today to some extent in all nations). Goodbye Visa, MasterCard, etc. there is Only 1 payment system in USA, and you can pay anyone like PayPal using this system and the bank app too. Visa may be the largest and only one allowed outside of USA for US visitors buying stuff when outside. All other cards are banned Stock market fantasies are later vanished (funny how in 1900s, Jews were the main people running the stock markets in Germany and other places, making the equivalent of tens of millions of dollars in today's $ as stock or commodity traders, like a recent oil options trader made 200 million on the Jewish Wall St recently, how Jews posed as French and English and started to destroy their empires and create Israel's empire thru WW1 & 2, using USA to finance the new Israel empire), as well as all market/hedge funds and banks for central banks (BIS), etc, with perhaps no more obese chiefs of world's largest international bank, BIS, the banker for central banks owned by 63 central banks representing 95% of world GDP. This poor guy works so hard to rid the world of war, to house the homeless, that he became obese, he's controlled by hidden forces who have him overeat, so we can have compassion for the palace dwelling aristocrats who control the central banks of most nations… via many methods, including the Swiss BIS. China's bankers burn fraud records before audits. Chinese illegals use fake licenses to launder money, buy properties, etc, none of this is possible with 1 bank card allowed only in USA. Canada 79 banks, USA 4562 in 2025. China got 9400. With one Bank, we can search our account and find by product name when we bought it, so we know even 35 years later, that at 4 pm we bought that multivitamin with only 400 IU D_3. Today, the abysmal IQ aristocrat ☺☺ designed banks have no such features, they delete data in 2-5 years. The US makes the same monetary devaluation mistakes as the UK and may end up collapsing.

Millions of people are scammed by text, email, phone by impersonators of Amazon, bank customer service, crypto currency companies, etc. Many banks means scammers can send to different banks, withdraw money, etc. With one bank, nobody can be scammed, like in 12 billion/year of real estate scams (escrow wiring) in US alone, 1 billion online romance scams, since Eterni Bank will forbid any money transfer to overseas over 200$, to prevent foreign bandits from stealing money of US residents, widows, seniors, adults joining an "investment scam" or having "online lovers overseas". The current criminal US government allows bandits overseas, controlled by gangs or US spies located overseas, to steal billions from US citizens, due to 9200 gnat IQ banks that don't prevent transfer via a new federal ultra tight monitoring system. Any US resident can only have 1 US bank account with Eterni Bank, and there is no cash, so nobody can scam anyone, since the balance for any person can't rise suddenly, without AI making funds unavailable due to suspicious rise in funds. All income is from house sale, rents or monthly salary, so the AI knows exactly when a house was sold or not by that persona and can verify via the unified system if he sold his house. No bitcoin ATMs to steal people's cash either. US products will be better, so nobody would even want to buy much from overseas anyway.

The renaming and dissolution of all banks into Eterni Bank is a first step in the emergence of an immortalist republic, where ethics of Immortality for All (living to 9000), longevity are 1 trillion times more important than money, economics, having redundant banks. Each nation can create 1 bank called "Eterni Bank of Country Name", known locally as "Eterni Bank"; as nations merge to create the Earthling Eternia Nation, banks merge as Eterni Bank. Big Banks steal trillions of dollars in every nation, they give you savings account average rates below inflation, they're vampiric parasitic demons defrauding the working class worldwide, in immortalism there is only 1 bank and 1 product, the bank account with one rate universally. All will be ethical science, instead of All gambling and Murder (guns, violent crime, covert genocide via bad products) as Today's USA. Everyone today is a PhD is stock gambling. Big banks pay 0.1% APY vs 4.3% Fitness Bank (need fitness tracker, turn it off, except when downloading to prevent cancer from RF or tracking our location by hackers) + 4.4% checking if 10000 steps a day, 4.25% Pibank up to 250K. Genius Checking is 6.75% for up to $7500, for those with few savings, by the General Motors Credit Union started in 1936, which became Genisys CU or genisyscu.org. Anyone from USA can join with a 5$ donation to a charity you select on the site. They've been around since 1936, won't go bankrupt, plus anything below 250K is insured. Connexus CU offers 4.5% checking for up to 25,000$, if you have debit card purchases (15 or 500$ in value), e-statements, one 500$ deposit (or connect Connexus with the Pibank savings and transfer 500 from there for your monthly food, Amazon, etc purchases), so they offer you more savings than Genisys (which also requires 10 debit purchases, deposit). For balances above 25K, you need Pibank or Fitness, as having $25000 in Connexus won't make you much at 4.5 vs 4.25 Pibank, and can keep your existing checking at low balance of 800. Pibank got fast approval, but because Pibank gives high APY, Pibank (like many mortgage and other banks) doesn't accept ACH transfers, which cost them more money. Thus, to fund Pibank, you need to wire the money from an online bank or a traditional bank that does wire transfers. ACH transfer to Pibank from online savings bank will simply return in 4 business days, since it takes 2 days to get to Pibank, then be rejected and sent back; to avoid wasting 4 days without interest, or 0.05% APY, you need to fund Pibank via wire transfer to Pibank or via Plaid (within Pibank app, after you connect a bank to Pibank; Plaid is the system used by PayPal and 100 s of financial apps and banks to connect banks). Thus, you can fund Pibank by linking Pibank to UFB Direct or online bank you got now, via Pibank app 'Deposit, Add Bank, type the Bank name, and select it if it is one of 4500 Plaid connected banks' account and connect your online bank (e.g. 3.26% UFB) or 4.2% Axos to Pibank, but this allows Pibank to spy on your transactions at the Wells Fargo, so only connect an online bank you never use, like UFB that allows 0$ balance. That way hackers won't hack into Pibank and know your main Bank credit card transactions, where you shop. Spend 3 min extra to get the 4.4% APY, since Pibank (& best APY banks) saves all costs possible to deliver savings to us. You can transfer via ACH domestically to an online bank (like UFB) with outgoing wires, then wire from there to Pibank or foreign bank, if a High APY Bank lacks outgoing domestic/foreign wires. You can get a UFB account for foreign/US wiring without visiting a branch. The Eterni Bank is We the People's Bank, the liberation of all. Don't let the aristocrats steal your $ with their low APY%. Check out what the financial industry does via Bitcoin to people: genocide. See Bitcoin farms, bitcoin ATMs that stole 0.25 billion from gullible Americans in 2024. Gold will fall from the 5400$ high, AI stocks can lose value, like in the 2000 dotcom crash. Crypto is scam, avoid it. Keep cash with FDIC insured banks or NCUA insured credit unions ≤ 250K limit at any bank/union, to be safe, those 0.1% banks that offer the higher than inflation APY% (4-4.4%). 1 million needs 4 banks. ☺

This ☺loving tender gentle kind☺☺ dissolution of genocidal aristocrat☺☺☺ owned 4500 banks, liberates the hard working average American first time in a million years and ensures America is not a slave colony of British, Swiss, EU or Jewish banks. The Swiss helped genocidal psychos launch wars, for profit, using bank secrecy that protected the most evil people on Earth. The Swiss banks, like all offshore banks, are a Criminal Mafia that Destroys the Planet. If the 8 billion workers unite against a few criminals at the helm of each feudal nation on Earth (most are quite feudal), all these demonic banks can dissolve into one national bank: all militaries are run by demonic aristocrats, end it quick and bring instant World Peace. Let the Swiss Jews within BIS bring World Peace in 3 months. This merging of 4500 banks helps the world move towards ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ via one global bank, one village, one nation, no longer controlled by parasitic blood sucker aristocrats, but by We the People of Earth, whose first right is that of Being Alive, without which no right makes sense if we're dead, right which bankers always trample on via aristocratic wars of theft and genocide. Eterni Bank is America's declaration of independence, real independence not on paper as in 1776. The aristocrat's religion is like Old Testament, the first page of Bible quotes: rape all nations, commit genocide to steal, loot everything by all overt/covert means. The genocidal torturing military aristocrat bandits espouse endless fraudulent economic theories (never practiced, since stock market, companies, etc are all aristocratic military-police state controlled, no free market exists, all is in the hands of the rich who torture anyone in their way) only as a covert ruse to deceive other nations, crash currencies and subjugate whatever nation (the 95%, the elites they can bribe, in order to steal all human cheap labor and natural resources) they can, alone or in unison with bandit aristocrats in other nations. The rich always come up with new fraud schemes to fool the masses, or even fake political parties they control from outside the nation in order to enslave the locals, etc. In the new One Bank system, if you want to sell items, give them to eterni.i (a sort of market.gov) and they sell it for you (eterni.i replaces all used items store in USA, allows all to buy and sell used stuff, with proof of ownership verified, as all transactions are recorded and saved for 5000 years) and pay in your checking account, which is always connected to your immortality ID.☺☺☺

WHY IS THE DOLLAR GREEN? Green is a special Jewish color in mystical Judaism called Chassidus/Kabbalah ("Ohr HaMakif" (the "encompassing light") is associated with green). Green is also an Irish color. St. Patrick cult of miracles is a fraudulent myth based on fake miracles of the patron saint of Ireland, possibly a Jewish conman emulating Jesus' tricks, the so called Converting to Christianity Father, a conman great at tricks (trick, tap = Patrick = one who taps into tricks to enslave the masses) and Irish wear green on 3-17, so Irish folks obsess with green the symbol of Inquisition genocide, Vatican wars, 5 million forged miracles, 900 Bible genocides. Green is the sacred color of Quran and Islam (added to Quran due to the Jews around Mohamed, who taught him to say Pray facing Jerusalem first, Mohamed was guided by Jews in writing the Quran, as it is a copy of the Torah with minor changes). See the odd Freemason symbols of the US dollars, created by Jewish Freemasons love he Solomon Temple a key in Judaism. The pyramids on US currency are the symbol of subjugation of the masses by the monarchs and aristocrats who worked slaves to death to build a nice palace for themselves. They're like the Mormon Church fraudulent cult of Egyptian tablets. In Kings 11:4-5 Solomon Jew king ('infinite wisdom' in freemasonry) worships Molek, a deity Jews sacrificed babies to, 1 Kings 9:21-2 shows Solomon had slaves, Solomon had 1000 'wives' (sex slaves) to satisfy his depraved lustful animalistic self: Kings 11:3. Masonic temples worship death. The natural US money color is a mixture of white, blue and red, which together form lavender. Thus, immortalists propose lavender purple shades make up 50-70% of all banknotes. We're not a colony of Israel, etc (green flag: Saudis, Irish, Italian, Iranian). We're USA and we deserve unique banknotes with colors rarest on any banknote: gold, lavender, purple, blue, beautiful colorful banknotes, with purple, yellow, blue, lilac, white, fuchsia, lavender, magenta, orchid. It's perhaps time for USA to become free of the Jewish, Italian, Irish and Muslim mafia influence. The immortalist banknotes follow the color guidelines of the Immortalist Flag. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The chart of the highest paid US government employees, reveals 98% of them, 8229 out of 8369 to be exact, have jobs related to the criminal financial system (12000 stocks, 4500 banks, 4700 credit unions, 33000 hedge funds to make the rich richer), but 0 chemical physics synthesis university to bring eterni foods) we don't need. With a simple system, fraud is 1 million times lower, as only 1 bank and 0 stocks exist, one housing financing exists (each person gets a free house, at 18, everyone is employed, mortgage for bigger houses later when marrying or having kids subtracted from monthly paycheck at 0% interest), etc. The system we got today is so inefficient, since federal government is duplicated 20000 times by village, town, state officials. The more complex a system is, the less the government (and average person) knows all the ways criminal aristocrats can use it to launder money and commit endless fraud. Many US Treasury chiefs and employees were Jews, and DOGE found that US planned Covid19, USAID financed COVID19 China bioweapon lab research, and endless crazy projects that support various senators. See Elon's other tweets about USAID blocking his audit, media paid by USAID, the Treasury payment of all terror/fraud groups with no denial in years. You know these days we waste so much time with transferring money from our savings (with 5% interest rate) to our checking, or from market funds or stocks to checking etc, to buy a car or whatever higher price item, when in reality in immortalism only 1 account exists, all have the same rate 0%, since no inflation exists, no stocks, hedge funds exist either. In immortalist capitalism honesty, fairness, kindness rule, in capitalism theft rules: aristocrats steal from the masses, award themselves 9000 times higher wage. Criminal bandits create endless fintech products we don't need, but thieves need to plunder 8 billion people. Instead of an app to monitor blood pressure and other things being universal, not only people who wear those watches that give cancer via radio frequency. You see, it takes 1-10 business days to move money between banks at times, since everything is fraudulent waste. Not only that but we have thousands of discount cards, with endless stores, grocery and what not, filling our pockets. Why do we need this crap? One Bank card that is also universal license and ID for all 50 states is enough, why waste so much plastic and brainwash everyone to think all day about MONEY and saving 2%, instead of how to Bring 0 Violent Crime in 10 years, Eternal World Peace and 0 Jewish Ultra Violent Scriptures printing. Look at China, the scam with cards and discounts has given rise, via Jewish banditry, to millions of professional scammers who work full time to scam 1 billion folks. The Chinese students went to US universities run by the Jewish Mafia and got the right "education" on how to screw China 100%. While Jews screwed up USA, Iran built 100 miles of underground tunnels to stock missiles.

If Jews are honest with gentiles, why did they need 12 Federal Reserve Banks (in 1914) and 29,000 banks (1921) after the 1913 fraudulent Reserve System creation? Did the US military Jews sink the Titanic (using Morgan companies as a cover) to create the Federal Reserve just 1 year before World War 1, to liberate Israel from Turks by wiping out the Ottoman Empire? Today we got 4500 banks and 12 Reserve Banks. Why not only 1? Why the complex fraud? We're one people, one nation, one family of Americans, one bank is enough. Did you know that from 1987 to 2018, USA's financial system was ruled by a Jew? Why??? Here is the 1987-2018 trio of Jewish rulers of USA finances: 31 years (out of the last 38, so 82% of the time, even if Jews are 2% of population) of pure Judaism: Alan Greenspan 13th Chair of the Federal Reserve, Ben Bernanke 14th Fed Chair, Janet Yellen 15th Fed Chair + 2021-25 Treasury Secretary, Kevin Warsh 17th Fed Chair 2026-?, the richest Fed Chair ever $0.2 billion. We got 12 years 2013-2025 of pure overt Judaism at the Treasury, with Treasury Secretary Jews: Janet Yellen 2021-25 Steven Mnuchin 2017-21, Jacob Joseph Lew 2013-17, besides 1995-2001: Lawrence Summers 1999-2001, Robert Rubin 1995-99. 18 years out of the 1995-2025 30 years, it was a Jew in our Treasury, 60% of the time, even if Jews are 2% of population. What about covert Jews, who hide Jewishness on Wikipedia? How many Americans understand the Banks and the Money Printing and Money Management is in Jewish hands? The Treasury Department has given $100 billion a year to people without social security number or tax ID, in what may amount to $50-100 billion in fraud. Do Americans realize they're a Jewish colony? The richest island in USA with 41 palaces on it, Indian Creek Island in Miami metro area, has radars that were designed by a company whose general manager is an Israeli soldier. While gentile slaves live paycheck to paycheck, Jewish multimillionaires (and all Florida residents) pay no state taxes in Florida. This is not fair, all states should have 0 state taxes. This is what happens when the USA is run by Jewish and other criminals. Perhaps Janet Yellen 2021-25 was helping the Israeli Jews to come illegally to USA from various nations under the guise of being Mexican and etc? Is that why billions from Treasury went to various organizations paying "immigrants", giving them jobs, hotel stays in 5 star hotels, as if we beg them to come to USA? Hey, please be sober, watch how nice the immigrants are in pushing agents, destroying federal property, watch this video. True kindness, true love, Jewish Torah style. Another mob pushing their way. Chicago illegals killed a local businessman, a black guy explains the murder. The nonJewish citizens who criticize Jewish terrorism of USA for 500 years via the evil Bible, are tortured, but the illegal Jews are let into the USA and paid, housed in hotels and given preferential treatment. Watch illegal and sometimes legal Latino mobs, attack innocent citizens by smashing their car windows with stones. We all know the conspiracy theories that the 1776 revolution was fake and Jewish Brits control the Federal Reserve Banks via front entities, spies or companies. The founders of the Federal Reserve included the Jewish (born in an Orthodox religious Jew family) Paul Moritz Warburg in 1914. For more on the less known Jews (allegedly 51% of Chairs of the Federal Reserve) behind this Jewish control of US finances, read this long post. Most Jews don't say 'Jewish' on Wikipedia, so 100% Jewish control of the Fed Reserve may've been true since 1960.

Jews infiltrated the Vatican, since the first Jewish Pope of the 1st century, called Peter, who made sure Jews ruled the Vatican for 2 millennia to a great extent, so Bible printing becomes Holy Torah printing, a cover for Jewish Supremacy, so Vatican said "don't lend money, don't charge interest, it's a dirty job", in order for gentiles to not do it and Jews to have a monopoly on lending to ☺abysmal IQ☺ gentiles. You think Popes and Cardinals are Italian, but what if they were often Jews? The Inquisition said "torture some Jews", and then they got an excuse to go as refugees to another place that is nicer, so what if the repression of Jews was Jew instigated to provide cover for relocating to a nicer place, just like it happens in modern times with other groups using the classic Jewish trick. Can't know the full picture. The Inquisition genocidal torture was created by Jews, they gave the ideas to Christians, via the Jewish Bible genocidal torture text. Most goldsmiths in Europe were Jews and aristocrats kept their gold safe in Jewish safes and then Jews issued promissory notes to the nobility who needed a paper that they got gold and to other borrowers, who got loans larger than the physical gold Jews had, due to the borrowers not knowing how many promissory notes Jews made. Thus, the Jewish bankers became ever richer and gentiles often poorer, leading to antisemitism, as this video on how bankers are swindling the gentiles via loans and later printing money, so the loans can be repaid via hard work while they play golf and choose "no hard work professions": realtor, mortgage broker, stick trader, banker, etc, nothing with hard work, like Einstein: steal all ideas from the Swiss gentile patent office and claim them as yours and lie to all humanity that the speed of visible light is the fastest speed of the universe, when it obviously is not, there are many unknown lights faster, even quantum action is 10000 times faster. Become spies who torture gentiles and destroy them covertly in 100s of ways to make sure all is 100% Jewish control (crypto Jews who claim to be gentiles), take over various nations, and control even the Nazis to make sure they're defeated before they're even created by Jewish spies in order to create Israel. Some Jews and Einstein's intelligence are more like these songs: 1. rabbi 2. dance 3. festival 4. collapse. Compare this violent music with the peaceful music of decent civilizations and understand why pogroms and Holocaust happened. The Bible violent quotes Jewish pastors hide from you tell you everything you need to know about Relativity of Einstein max speed being 300000 km/s. All Einstein discovered was given to him by his handlers. Einstein was a spy at the Swiss Patent Office, like all Nobel Laureates who become (at least others try to recruit them to become, though usually, they're already recruited by local spy agency) spies before or after the Nobel. Nobel was a military guy who used his explosives company profits to create a network of spies via prizes. Youtube got a lot of physics videos explaining why Einstein was not right.

Why is there inflation? Easy: bankers loan with interest, so to pay loans, more money is needed in circulation, so the Jewish Treasury Chiefs print more. Eliminate parasitic bankers, inflation is gone, state controls all prices, all prices are eternal, changed only with respect to health-longevity effects of a product vs the basic products. Then kings needed money and asked the newly Jewish aristocratic bankers for money, and Jews used their leverage over monarchies to start wars between gentile nations and finance them again, loaning even more money to gentile kings and making even more money from lending new sums for vast amounts of cash that would kill millions of gentiles. To be fair, not all bankers are Jewish, just stating the obvious, we don't need aristocrats. Then, the Jews created the Bank of England, and other banks, the Federal Reserve, etc, to facilitate their secret attempts of national takeover of various gentile nations. Henry Ford said that "to bring World Peace, USA needs to stop the top Jewish bankers from doing their wars". See Ford's words on page 4 of this PDF, 1923, Sept 21st. Indeed, the Jewish infiltration of everything American is high, 9 times more than Europe (EU got 9 times fewer Jews/capita than USA, so it is far more independent of Israel, much of East EU got 50 times fewer Jews per capita than USA, so it's more common to speak your mind), no wonder the circumcision rate is 80% in USA and 0.1% in Poland (all circumcised males in Europe are Jews or Muslims). Both Christians, but one is a Jewish slave Christian, the other, an Italian slave Christian who is less enslaved by Jews, but still enslaved as Bible = Torah. CEOs of Google, Facebook are Jewish too, so the main search engine and the main social app to spy on all are Jewish. ☺☺☺ Immortalists in all nations remodel, repurpose ALL bank branches (a few call centers remain) to build chemistry and physics RESEARCH centers where all monitor health parameters for free to live to 9000, all cashless online payment, credit card or phone pay society that needs 0 branches, so bank tellers, useless branch managers, investment parasites, useless "human species degrading stagnating, lie/deception deifying, IQ lowering, human survival sabotaging" vampires etc get free education (0.5-4 year) to become techs and scientists of the Immortality Food, Building, etc Corporations. This is the end of 2500 years of parasitism by foreign spies disguised as bankers, liberation of the Americans and the planet (since all copy USA) from the banking cartels and related organized mafia, conmen and useless feeders who practice usury, deception, grand theft and exploitation, with 0 real lifespan enhancing innovation: the leader of the free world frees all enslaved people from these vampires and lets the world what is far more important than theft: Immortality for All, nonkilling, nontorture, Eternal Universal Peace in 3 months, 0 violent crime in 20 years) thereby also remaking America's image from one of violent thieves and thugs bombing all (the non-American bankers own all aspects of USA) to the sage of Eternal Universal Peace and Gentle Tender Innovation for trillion year lifespans for all. Green is the Jewish color, so USA money is green paper vs multicolored and plastic in many nations. As the saying goes, so many Jews are in New York, the financial center, for a reason. No diversity in USA, no yellow, purple, pink, lavender, only Judaism, like some EU nations 0.1% circumcision, USA 80%, 800 times more needless torture of penises. Why can't we have lavender banknotes, like Eternia flag main color? Were Jews in charge of US banks? Check out Rothschild Banks (founded Israel) and Wallenberg Banks (another Jewish Bank, behind the destruction of Sweden probably too, with criminal gangs from all over: Jews love to destroy all nations 'God gives to them': Deut 7:1-16, note how Israel doesn't take in the immigrants that Sweden is forced to take by Ashkenazi Jewish politicians pretending to be Swedish). Rothschild (employer of Macron French President when he was a banker) also intermarried with Iraqi Jewish Sassoon family, making money off destroying millions of Asians via the opium trade (equivalent of Mexican cartel drug profits). The Jews have recently became spouses of many EU prime ministers, high ranking officials, etc, like in ancient times. The foreign bankers corrupt the youth and start to destroy the nation from within, finance both sides of a conflict. Check out how USA is wasting its time with fintech companies that ought to be illegal: people losing life savings. Check out the enormous fraud the Chinese banks created by Chinese "economics, banking, business" majors who got brainwashed at the Jewish USA universities into creating a gangster cheats all capitalism in China that led to endless problems today. Check out the for profit, sell cars now mentality that leads to cars that last 25% (3 years not 12) of the life of European cars sometimes, leading to more labor, materials wasted, etc. It's the same US mentality, that creates the trash houses that break at the next storm. Instead of making car or house that lasts longer, they just focus on selling as many cars now. That's why we create Eternal Travel Inc and Immortality Building Inc, so the producer of cars and houses is in charge of fixing them and to prevent fixing and replacing them every 3 years, they make stuff that lasts, so instead of making houses that break right away, they make a dome that lasts 5 millennia. ☺☺☺

When 'everyone' is a bank teller, how can we have doctors, technicians, researchers to create a state of the art healthcare and food industry? Nobody needs branches, everything can be done via phone, web and special ATMs. Say if you want to transfer a large amount, you can do it online via world's most secure website etbank.gov or etb.i that uses your iris, thumb prints you take with your phone, etc or you go to an ATM, enclosed one (special ATM that is like a phone booth), enter it with the card, and place yourself there, take a pic of yourself, iris, thumbs, biometric, and verify it's you and then you can do it or even have a video conference from this ATM or home with someone to apply for a loan, instead of wasting 2 hours to go to a branch that closes 3 minutes early and then to another branch that doesn't "have the authority to do large wire transfers, since it's at the glass window type of half branch (it doesn't say it's half branch on the bank website, branch is open, but no phone answers), not one with tables where you sit down with the banker. The ☺abysmal IQ☺ of the banking system is shocking in the age of Internet. Everything is set in the 1940s and these people waste their entire life with pen and pencil, writing down ABA numbers and bank numbers, because a bank won't wire transfer above $25000 online. Why do we need checks and cash for in the era of online everything? Even if checks remain, one can take pic and cash them without going to any ATM already. Cash is totally outdated. How can anything efficient intelligent emerge, when we have so many college students major in business/humanities? It can't, since the ruling genocidal class wages eternal war on the slave class of the 90% with their phony economic theories of cycles and inflation, by which they render millions homeless and leave houses empty for months during bank ownership, which destroys endless water systems, the water heater, plumbing, etc all get huge bacterial growth that leads to more orders of water heaters, etc. The whole history of the human species is one of theft, the ideas of free market, economic crises are all a fraud to steal from the masses. Since before writing, clever manipulating individuals designed systems to subjugate the naive. Bankers ought to be fired, all banks closed except the one bank of the USA, that Brits and Jews can't control, so we get plumbers and techs to fix the houses bankers have ruined last 80 years via crisis they created for playing golf and being a free riding parasite getting 200$ million a year for stock options trades. All genocides bankers did ought to be rectified in a fair way. Euro and dollar could merge to create eterni, the currency of the new nation made from EU, Canada, USA, Australia, UK, New Zealand, a nation of 1 language, English, 11 companies and 3 agencies. Check out Chinese banks selling fake gold and fake US dollars, so many banks, hard to check all. It's easier to simply have one ethical bank than having to check what 4500 banks are doing. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Our society revolves around loans, money, not life. From these special ATMs anyone can apply for loans, so we have maybe 0 branches and 100 times fewer ATMs initially until all ATMs are gone: docs emailed are sufficient, since no loans are needed usually when we got 11 to 100 companies only, the main activity being loving all humans in action instead of taking loans to be the 'duplicator'. All mortgage loans are approved after prequal by the Immortality Building Inc. To prevent accumulating credit card debt, Eterni Bank will automatically deduct from the wage of all 11 companies employees, meaning from the wages of all people, a certain amount every month for a house or car or whatever one buys, until the loan is paid in 2 to 30 years, to simplify and avoid any need for loan officers, complex schemes, since there is no interest or inflation in the immortalist economy, as all prices are set by the government. The stress of becoming unemployed or homeless doesn't exist. Everyone gets a 5 week holiday and 1 year parental leave. All can retire at 70, since we live longer these days and after 70 people can work for 20 hours a week if they want to even 10 hours a week to make some extra money and make it to 100 due to keeping active. Relaxed work is better than rushed work that creates damage, aging and stress. Everyone under 70 gets 40 hour workweek and is super happy and relaxed, with less work load and deadlines, since efficiency is incredibly high, as we have 11 companies, not 33 million. The insane rush and achieve x and y will disappear as we can finally get all to work, stop acting busy, and have a more equal distribution of physical and intellectual work, so avoid some sitting all day, while others break their backs. This is to ensure all take care first of their stress levels, their smiling, their health, their eating properly, meditating, breathing consciously and overall being happy, because happy people commit 0 crimes. 2023 US focus is not maximizing number of lifespan years added to our nation or planet, but making aristocrats happy, slaves 'buying deadly lifespan shortening products' happy. Aristocrats are happy even if slaves die 10-20 years younger; it takes far more intelligence to give similar 99 year lifespan to all (not just aristocrats) by truly efficient capitalism. The present cheater takes all capitalism removes all incentives to have 50 times more R & D jobs, true efficiency, etc. To waste resources to make a few live long is ultra easy and there is no incentive to innovate to make all reach that same lifespan. This in turn turns the country into a dysfunctional 'everyone loots everyone' series of Ponzi schemes (give 10% to the church, so they tell you lies), making USA disappear.

The Wall Street is nothing more than a Nazi military casino, where stock prices are manipulated as CIA/FBI dictate and where the rich crash companies as they see fit, to act out their revenge/turf wars. Free market doesn't exist, it's a lie the big countries aristocrats use to create international currency wars, financial crises and achieve hybrid warfare on the poor in all nations, while pretending to want Peace and spread the "democratic international rules based order" (the rules are totally different than the stated rules). That's why in USA we have 5 million financial advisors (parasitic looters), but our food packaging doesn't even meet the basic requirements a 7th grader would agree are needed. We don't need any financial advisors, when nobody almost has a mortgage, interest rate is 0%, as inflation is 0%, since all prices are centrally set by world's first ethical government, free from Karl Marx 'capital' lies. On top of that, they got 2 million realtors to further obfuscate everything and keep all enslaved, when a simple site could allow all to sell houses in 2 days. Every year, we hear 1000s of news about what gambling to do on the stock market to enrich the 4500 Jewish, British, etc bankers, mutual fund CEOs, what new financial product, mortgage and crap you need get, but nothing about decent health, sleep to live to 8 trillion. The aristocratic top 10% own 84% of stocks, the stock market is a scam for the rich to steal from the poor. The top 1% own 40% of world wealth. The 1% is 3.4 million in USA in 2024. The Democrat VP owns no stocks, bonds or real estate, he's a real man, since stocks are gambling. Who needs stocks if we have 11 companies only and everyone gets a free basic house before anyone can have 2 houses? There is no democracy, only the Looting of All by the Rich. Let us gently ask all: do you want 33 million companies and living to 81 as today, or 11 and living to 8000? Which one is worthier to aim for? Which system is more efficient, allowing 100 times more longevity research to end our depraved world of endless gambling and speculation?

See how aristocrats steal millions. Today, people get to waste huge amounts of time to decide what to invest in: stocks, bonds, mutual funds, companies, etc. With immortality capitalism, stock markets disappear, mutual funds disappear, investment companies and scammers disappear, as all save their money in 1 place: Eterni Bank. There is no such a thing as checking, savings, mutual funds, CDs, complex fraud. There is one thing, an account per citizen, one rate for all, 0% interest. All insured. The goal of immortalists is 900000 year lifespan, not 900000 scam finance products. The interest is always the same 0%, because no inflation exists, since all prices are set by the government. Prices are determined based on how valuable an item is for living to 900000. All imports are banned, as we aim for self-sufficiency and maximum national security, 0 drugs in shipping containers. Ethics only appears in a country that imports nothing, insulates itself against the evil values, vibes and influences of all existing nations, to be world's first immortalist nation. Immortalists are world's first nation with record low financial experts, as the parasitic profession is basically reduced 10000 fold, to make room for chemists, doctors, physicists, etc. In immortalism no fraud is possible, since criminals can't cash money, transfer money to other banks, etc, as it happens often today. It's a cashless society and all people own only 1 account, not 300 as aristocrats have today, 300 forms of investments, while the poor slaves (beaten and tortured, on whose blood and short sick life the hideous laughter, wealth and depraved sports and activities of the aristocrats are built), have no shelter or live in terrible conditions, eating crappy food. Cashless means no criminal can use cash to hide their crimes, be them small criminal or aristocratic parasite. Aristocrats love cash and complex financial products nobody needs except vampires, because it enables them to hide their genocides. Who monitors, oversees the intelligence agencies, militaries? Nobody, they're the royals of each nation. Let's record all renovations of houses too, to have a way for people to fix mistakes, find what they did wrong, just as cops wear cameras. What privacy? People want to live healthy long lives, prefer longevity and immortality over the so called "privacy that cash brings to unethical gangsters".

The criminals (allegedly lesser criminals than the existing British royals known for blowing by gun genocides or mutilation, execution of poor genocides for 7 centuries) who made up USA (the banker guys who run the show from behind the scenes, since Presidents are mere puppets who have no clue what goes on) set it up to benefit their gang of bankers and thugs who used the ruse of "we will have representation, not just taxation" to dupe the masses and then effectively replaced the British Crown parasites with alternate parasites, possibly British spies mostly (Benjamin Franklin and most revolutionaries were English, so naturally, they were probably British intelligence officers who posed as anti-British Americans, but being British freemason spies and their Jewish friends), who posed as anti-Crown Brits, Irish and other Europeans. These guys were to create a ruse, an illusion USA is not Britain, to facilitate colonies exchange to USA hands. Napoleon, the alleged 'Italian' sold Louisiana to USA and Spain gave other colonies after the USA-Spain wars; Catholics (France, Spain Catholic and still doing Inquisition until 7-15-1834 so many Europeans hated Spain) lost influence due to cannibalism rituals at Mass, and promoting fake miracles as fact, fake Marian apparitions, fake Eucharistic miracles, etc, intellectual and scientific honesty won perhaps after 2 millennia of Vatican wars and the anti-science anti-truth anti-freedom Inquisition. The exchange of colonies was more for British expansion, plus a European struggle against 'Jewish terror' (the Christianity/Bible scam that 'religious' Jews, Italians imposed on many continents) and less about intellectual honesty or the cause of Immortality for All via less killing/torture by the Vatican serial killers, since Protestant or Anglican church were equally Jewish/filif/comical☺ in their claims (though they only had a few miracles outside of Jesus fake ones), but at least the Anglican/Protestant didn't torture people to death or execute them for not believing in the cult of Jesus the Italian Jewish mafia created millennia ago. Europeans are low IQ, not realizing how brainwashed by the Jews they are. This aristocrat banks clergy link was always very strong for most nations, run by criminal royal families and associated nobility who setup infinite banks and systems of parasitism. Napoleon conquered Spain, abolished the Inquisition there in 1808, then Spain wanted it reinstated, but had to strike a deal to end it soon, so Spain finally ended it in 1834. The unholy demonic Vatican Congregation of the Universal Inquisition (a cover for exterminating/torturing anyone who interferes with Italian world domination (via Catholic churches) goals) still exists, just renamed to the less scary Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith during 1965-2022, now called Dicastery (dikasterion means law court in Greek) for the Doctrine (brainwashing) of the (fake fraud based miracles based) Faith, so avoid the psycho torture lovers. Visiting Catholic churches, schools, universities puts you at risk of being tortured by the Italian Mafia and or spies worldwide, 25 million of them exist… Vatican conceived every church as a spy base to enslave nations, as a covert military and economic, political espionage unit in the holy war to enslave all.

Each EU nation and US state, and most states worldwide, are like a farm of animals, or cows, raised by clever palace dwelling aristocrats, who milk the slaves, the farm animals of their milk via complex financial products, banks, entities, with most big businesses owned by a few major players. People think this is offensive or an exaggeration, but recall the 1940s German soldiers were torturing people and killing them for reasons like "didn't salute the superior German", etc, treating people like cows: listen to the endless abuse by strabismus (linked to psychopathy) German female guard. Today, concentration camps are not needed, since every home can be turned with devices into a torture camp. The Nazis, communists, Islamists, etc didn't stop, they continue their atrocities with invisible weapons, within spy agencies. Many nations are like a Nazi concentration camp run by that nation's generals, see their endless rapes in Vietnam for example. Unless we cows wake up from the sleep, no change to our status of farmed disposable daily beaten/abused animals will ever occur. Look at the chaotic lawless EU, the aristocrats brainwash us we need 1400 banks in Germany, 30 languages for worker-worker fights, when English would suffice and give everyone access to way more science papers and info. Why have 30 animal farms, when we could have only 1 farm and get more efficient, so we sleep more, eat better, have better worker rights and bigger unions, 100 times bigger: 11 companies for EU. We honestly need a little unity, so get rid of taxes altogether via the 11 companies, to make the American revolution complete, since after all, we don't even need taxation. Why do we need all these clans, governments, city, county, state, EU nation, etc when we could have one USA central government, and no other state, local gov, one central EU government, and even unify the whole into one EU-USA-Canada-Australia-NZ English nation? All locals are federal employees, we have a rotating capital, 6 months in the 4 major areas: USA, Canada, Aussie, EU/UK. One agency issues all drivers licenses in all 'states' of the new tricontinental nation, one bank for all. Palace dwelling aristocrats milk us by creating division over religion, language and banks. They're experts at starting worker-worker fights in artificial wars to destroy the worker class in every farm (nation). The federal reserve banks are a little of a scam that is not even needed. The problem with 90 million companies is that illegals are being hired, so they start blowing things up via new gangs and criminal activities. In a system of 11 companies, everyone has to pass English test, Immortality Test before they get a worker, tourist, investor, etc visa. ☺☺☺ Talking of equality, why are some sitting all day in an office, like a bank teller we never need and others break their back doing cleaning and stuff in offices, baths, kitchens, etc? No fair, let all do some physical cleaning or physical task job at least 15 min if not 25 every day, to improve their health by some 20 min of exercise and relieve the pressure on the office cleaning and other jobs, so these people can do some cognitive tasks too, learn something about nutrition, be happier. Office people often belittle redneck or backwards menial job holders, but the issue is those people are simply used as scapegoats for the cruelty of no giving them a job where some intellectual stimulation exists for half the time. If all did a part of office cleaning, there is no need of menial jobs that much. See, what kind of global family is that? Let us have mo chemist jobs and other science jobs, and fewer of these menial jobs, so that the people get no injuries from over exertion and the people at the office jobs don't get sick due to sitting all day. Via stress relief, we help both groups, the lazy office folks and janitors live longer.

They got stuff lighter than air or water and 10 times stronger than steel, all kinds of amazing things, they don't think about design with brains, just build trash, because 'every' job in America is insurance agent, sales, burger flipper, marketing, accounting, payroll specialists, bank tellers, HR, realtors and stock traders, property managers browsing porn while on the job, and other ☺ abysmal IQ☺ society jobs. Why can't we have one app, Eterni Bank, on all phones, and use it to buy everything, just use phones in airplane mode or etc and have cashless society to consolidate all banks in USA into one that's our central bank and main bank and we stop wasting national resources with endless 'finance' majors. The system of offshore banks, secrecy, complex products few understand, tax evasion, relates to the need for ever more complex products and systems so the slavery of all is hidden and everyone is disguising stuff instead of working for ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months, 0 jails, 0 violent crime, billion year lifespan for all. The goals of these "big boys" are pathetic and they drill them into our heads at gunpoint: save 10% on this, 2% on that, so you as a slave, live to 78 and save 20% daily, while living in a mold (98% of houses globally, due to low tech but GREAT finance products tech, inside walls, baths where pipes are etc) infested, shaking condo, that with each passer by, shakes your bed and gives daily neighbor shouts and fights thru the paper thin walls, since no tech is allowed for slaves, only for FINANCIAL products of global subjugation. It's called FINANCE IT BABY,☺☺☺ the word of God, finance. Be proud of your slave status and shout daily "proud to be an American, at least I'm free, tra la la". Punkah wallah (pullers) in India from 500 BC onward, pulled fans, and see pictures of it in 1900 even all over the world, before science freed these slaves (like galley slaves before) from such abject exploitation. Thanks to innovation, all have ceiling fans now and can do something more intelligent and longevity promoting. We're now free to be a bipedal pig ☺☺☺, making no science based decisions, just eating like Neolithic folks and housed like pet monkeys. Long live our modern stone age techs of house building, pride will get us far, "no change needed, just create 1000 operating systems to replace Windows and Android and see the benefits of decentralization, make 4 million banks instead of 4250, make all major in finance, no more science majors, import all medicines from Pakistan". The high pro business mindset, small business, ever so praised by the Republican Nazi Party, the backbone of 3rd world country USA.

Everywhere we go we see branches of the 4500 banks, the tentacles of the mafia octopus of greed and enslavement of all Americans. The God of Money, the temples of $. The Mafia won't give free biomarker monitoring centers, with 100 parameters checked, not just blood pressure. All we get is stadiums, violent movies in cinemas, violent music in concerts, banks, fake miracles churches to enrich pastors doing 0 research and repeating 1st century banalities to audiences for 1-10% of their income. If all is done online, even house loan via the house selling/buying only website in USA, why do we need ANY branches for? All loans done online. How can anyone major in chemistry when you need 1 million bank tellers? How can we ever discover anything, just count banknotes and have managers watch over the shoulder of tellers, lest they make a mistake counting. After all, they need a paycheck too, we got "too few" MBA programs. What a society of ☺abysmal IQ☺. All products from all banks, hedge funds, financial companies are moved to Eterni Bank, redundant ones eliminated while improving similar one that remains. Go in any town in USA and all you find is 100s of useless businesses that make no sense in the age of computers and Internet. We're wasting space and materials, when this would enable all people to have single family decent housing, single level even or max 2, to avoid issues with earthquakes and other stuff like 1 water leak destroying 50 floor levels at once. Not one single business or nonprofit that offers free biomarker monitoring, education etc to help people to live to 500, free decent tone no spanking (causes aggression & anti-social behavior) education.

Gently don't forget the deadly food industry, low tech junk to kill us all. We get violent sports, torture disguised as "exciting enrolling in the military" to defend aristocrats, bad music. They call this "the greatest country on Earth". Make living to 5000, later a trillion, the talk of all news, not the interest rate, prices for this and that. Fix Price, is a discount store expanding in new areas. Fix Price name gave me an idea: once the whole world is immortalist, and has only one Eterni Bank globally, no other bank, the price for 'basic living expenses to live to a trillion years' can be fixed, with the only changes happening in the ratio of one price to another, as science evolves every day and we discover product X increases longevity more than product Y, so its price will increase, while other item prices will decrease so that living cost remains the same. This eliminates the need for inflation, for ever new money, currency fluctuations, etc and wasting 150 million jobs with turning one money into another, banks and all the other useless financial industries stuff. Let us be real, the immortalist nation needs no loans to enrich the parasitic bankers: the state simply provides all with a decent 0 'cancer causing' RF car (repaired/replaced, upgrades for life by Eternal Travel Inc), universal medical insurance, a decent basic house (maintained, repaired for life by Immortality Building Inc) and if anyone wants more, they can save and buy it or if need to change location, state changes it in minutes, swaps with a similar property, maybe pay some extra via housing.gov. Why use credit cards, have debt and all these bankruptcy laws and this and that? For some pricey items that one has no savings, one could use the Immortality credit, a 0 interest loan, that if not repaid subtracts 1 point per 1000 eterni (eterni is the currency) not paid within 5-25 years. Today, people buy RV, boats and other high price items, while others are homeless, using credit cards, loans, etc. In the immortalist system only items proven to increase lifespan of self and others get approved for 'credit', for 'loans'. Boats increase risk of death a lot, so they can be mostly for cops and military. Even today, it is known that most boat owners are spies, undercover cops, military. They're not regular citizen civilians. Same for coastal residents, they're simply there to protect shores from invaders.

Each country can decide how deeply immortalist they become, how much they worship money and paper money, loans and rates, versus the health of their citizens. Keep it simple, give all decent sleep, quiet cities, decent shelter, universal health, house car insurance included for all citizens, control immigration with 3 years to study for immortality test passing to create strong immortalist citizens and visa holders, and be the light of trillion year lifespans on Earth, instead of the darkness of America (in the US everyone tries to con everyone else, to make money, to chase loans, to chase interest rates, stock prices (no stocks needed for immortalists), etc. Citizens can select a house on housing.gov, after the age of 18, to buy, among the free ones, and if wanting a different one, pay extra money or Immortality Credit Score points (1 point is 1000 eterni if not repaid in the agreed period). While people may not pay a 25K loan, the lower credit restricts which products one can buy, since only high scores can buy some products. Nobody can buy guns or weapons, only police and military have them on their job. Nobody needs weapons, since the state will only allow smaller dogs for civilians, who pose no threat to 5" frail old ladies, etc. Gone are the days of big knives sold at the store, or big dogs. This is the land of infinite gentleness. Immortalists are against animal hunting by civilians, hunting is illegal. All dangerous animals are wiped out by the police to prevent bloodshed, all carnivores killed painlessly instantly on sight by police teams dedicated to minimizing bloodshed (special unit using the least painful killing methods or a special device for carnivore animals (tiny drone sent to monitor via AI the animal until helicopter, big drone or cops come to get the carnivore wiped out if tiny drone can't send some cyanide dart etc), like today wildlife specialists use some methods), as one carnivore causes 1000 bloodshed events, 1000 painful events and immortalists are against torture, pain, war. No conservation of any carnivore is legal. Elephants can kill 22 people, so why conserve them? Feeding wild carnivores is illegal, even if wild cats, dogs. Thus, nobody needs weapons, since no lions, bears, alligators, coyotes, carnivores can be seen anywhere. It's the land of vegans (slaughterhouses will become illegal as well as any animal killing, bloodshedding) and eterni diet people who shed no blood, where no carnivore animal is allowed to exist eventually using the quantum weapon. No foreigners can buy real estate, until they pass immortality test, which is harder than learning a new language for most people. This incentivizes all to become citizens first, instead of being a parasitic alien coming to enslave locals at the request of foreign aristocrats who want to overthrow the immortalist government and make everyone live 4 times shorter as slaves of foreign aristocrats. Prices are Eternal with no real inflation, price changes rarely only in relation to contribution to immortality. Exchange rate is set by Eterni Bank, the nation's only bank, as we know what each nonimmortalist currency is worth in purchasing power: buy deadly cars☺☺☺ (Tesla 2023 got 70000 times more RF than other brands in the back seat), deadly food, deadly movies, deadly music, deadly pets, 'enjoy' gun violence, gangs, jails (immortalists 'punish' aristocrats who incite workers to crime), fraud based violent religions, deadly literature, deadly buildings to enrich the aristocratic parasites looking to loot more continents by eternal bombing and sickness for all.

The most important thing in an immortalist nation is all to live to a billion, anything else is 1 billion times less important. Loans and all these financial products, interest rates, etc are useless. When you have 11 companies, and all is state planned for maximum longevity and national security, you actually don't need any loans, since the state manages all resources and plans accordingly and all state resources are actually free, the property of the state used to give all trillion year lifespan. Thus, it is always our choice to end the mafia of bankers that has sucked the blood of humanity for millennia, thru loans for wars, loans for genocides, loans for subjugation. In much of the world people spend eons negotiating prices, due to 1 billion small businesses: the price has nothing to do with longevity, the lack of IQ is astounding. 1 billion lifespan years have been wasted past 2 centuries on these pricing games, inventing nothing to extend lifespan, equivalent of 10 million people wasting their entire life doing nothing but repeating numbers back and forth: the "joy of decentralization". When 150 million people waste their life with speculative stuff, we got 150 million fewer scientists to design lifespan quadrupling eterni food and healthcare devices. We see here a typical example of duplication, redundancy, all due to the complete failure to have some centralization. Why is USA, the "leader of progress", behave in such regressive ways with 4500 banks? There is only one loser: USA. ☺☺

Instead of being a leader of the human right to live to a trillion, US just behaves like a clown, shouting about human rights abuses, while respecting no rights. The aristocrats use 150 million slaves to create a system for enslaving 8 billion in a never ending war psychopathy and discount chasing. The redundant medium business aristocrats create 500 prices for the same good they get from wholesalers, and 150 million financial jobs. We got self-checkout and Amazon.com robots moving warehouse items, robotaxis and drones doing delivery, so do we really need 500 million retail jobs or just 10 for warehouses? The fake news about stealing and such are just a distraction, if everyone knows all cars are connected to the Immortality Nurturing Agency and trillions of cameras exist and no thief can escape and not be caught instantly, no theft occurs, as fines are 5000 times higher than today, with lifetime labor for any slap, spanking or violent crime, to end it ultra fast, efficiently, the immortalist way. Why not 490 million science/tech jobs? No wonder we live to 110 max, like millennia ago, due to the 'progressive' aristocratic model. Home owners tend to clean counters, cabinets, carpets, floors 5-25 times less if they're dark, since you can't see the mold, dust, insects, food residue, etc. There seems to be an obsession with dark colors, brown cabinets, stainless steel or black appliances so nothing can be seen or cleaned, when we need pastels, light blues, greens, yellows, whites, cream, purples, etc, so you can see ants, fleas, bed bugs, et and of lighter flooring for vinyl, etc. Alas, people don't care about cleanliness, since after all they die at 90 if lucky, go inhale junk and live 4 years shorter. It saves electricity too, less EMF from triple the watts used in dark colors rooms, kitchens, baths. 0 IQ builders make dark houses and roofs, when you need reflective white in hot climates, all in the name of "looking good", while killing people with AC vents mold and other stuff. Who needs AC with a good design, airy, windy, quiet cities where window can open, etc and house reflects 99% of IR heat? Decentralization means every 0 IQ company builds houses. In the pages above we saw how centralization unifies all city codes, so every house, condo, townhome in USA has recycle bins, which today doesn't due to the system of gangsterism of decentralization. We're a wasteland of greed, inefficiency, violence and filth. It's time to fix our country before we disappear. USA is dying and apparently, the Immortalist Party is its last hope. The parasites drain everyone's blood. Without centralization, we will disintegrate and disappear completely soon after. Let's centralize, require every house that rents room or anything to have a washer and dryer, etc, every single home built to have at least a combo washer-dryer. This prevents COVID19 spread and wasting time in traffic, in car parking lots waiting for laundry to be done, etc. Most condos and hotels, apartments etc don't have a glass enclosure at the front where the street is, making the street noise 5-15 db higher. Federal Law would require installing sound/smog barrier of glass or plastic, etc, to ensure decent sleep and less smog for residents whose U shape complex catches all the dust and smog from the street and inhales it dying 5 years earlier. The U would be capped to become an O, so that it's a lot quieter inside at least, until all get single homes in x years. ☺☺☺

Go to google.com/search?q=ndb+vs+imf+interest+rates to see the BRICS NDB New Development Bank interest rate in Oct 2024 being 8.75% versus 3.5% for IMF. See how Russian disinformation works, by reading this misleading article by RT about IMF causing nations to go into debt, when NDB causes the same thing, just a LOT faster. Why do we need all these banks for? Why can't we be one family, one nation, 1 bank for all humans? Aristocrats seeking power. NDB, which is BND rewritten (BND is the German CIA acronym), is enhancing the enslavement, in Nazi Mein Kampf style, of developing nations, to an even greater extent, using other developing nations. Regardless, the dollar is declining as a reserve currency due to the Republican party of aristocratic ☺abysmal IQ☺ that keeps USA as a 3rd world country of clowns, redundancy, waste. The fall of the US dollar is here thanks to the failed policies of Demon-crats and Re-pub-licans. The criminal thieves within the Republican party who steal trillions from the 90% to enrich the 10%, forgot that before the $ was king, the pound was, then in 15 years it was not. Likewise, the $ could be dethroned by the emerging BRICS currency, which may become world's only currency eventually, the eterni, as all nations merge. In 1920s, the German currency devalued 1 billion times, as it could one day happen to the US dollar, thanks to Re-pub-licans, ever busy promoting the Word of Theft, Slavery, Rape, Genocide instead of self-sufficiency and tech. ☺☺☺

4.5.6.5. Universal Immortality Inc is the apogee of centralist immortalism of the 11 National Unified Companies and is detailed in the next 33 pages. UI Inc unifies all software/medical clinics companies/hospitals/insurance agencies/medical billing procedures to reduce staff specializing in learning typical unique redundant software or procedures by 100 fold or 1000 fold, to enable medical RESEARCH job growth, not the growth of a variety of software packages for small aristocrat looting enterprises. We also centralize SOPs to come up with the best AI to aid MD in questioning patient before ordering tests, so tests are not useless (fungal test after using topical antifungals daily can give false negative, etc). With one universal company you get 1 billion pics of a condition (e.g. toenail fungus), and the AI can tell exactly based on PCR nail tests and the pic what condition, stage and treatment are best, so make better MD decisions. Inform all to buy a 3$ metal nail clipper (easy to disinfect by immersing in alcohol, vinegar, alcohol pad or ozonating it, those with silicon can't be cleaned well) if old one is blunt, as nail bed is damaged if you lift nail's left/right side too much, due to nail being concave and only nail tip center being more parallel to clipper. The current system has billions going to the upper management and doctors for palaces, while the laser machines are not bought (e.g. 800, 870, 980, 1064, 1320 nm laser for toenail fungus affecting 60% of people 1-8 times per lifetime, laser FDA approved since 2010) and the regenerative medicine methods, tools are not covered by insurance, instead, people are given ultra deadly oral medicines (terbinafine can kill people by liver failure, or in more cases, eliminate sense of smell and taste) that ruin livers, kidneys, organs and shrink lifespan by 1-25 years, meaning, the system commits genocide in order to make these CEOs, MDs build palaces with their 1-28 million salaries, with money being # 1 motivation for most becoming that manager of healthcare systems, insurance, MD, etc. 4 doctors will exist 1). ETs (Eternist), 2). NPs (Noninvasive Medicine Professor), 3). NDs (Nutrition Doctor), 4). MDs. Medicine will become more nutritional, as with the right particles, chemicals one can live to 4000, reach shapeshifting ability, live to a trillion as in the Immortalist Anthem. The aristocracy lives off the Palace Life via genocide and we pay it with stone age society of sick people and low tech, short lives, 5 years shorter than Japan, US a country so big so many resources, but run by thieves. ☺☺ USA with its money to buy all this should be living to 120, but we can't because the Thugs Run the Nation, not the Universal Pay Ethics System. Some MDs make only 150K in the poorest clinics and areas due to student loan forgiveness they get, though most make 200 minimum, with about 400 on average. We created a society that rewards making money, not extending lifespan. The US healthcare is like organized crime. The avg salary for a nonprofit clinic CEO is > 70x the min fed wage,☺☺☺ with leaders of major regional hospitals making 300-1700x the min fed wage, showing healthcare is a fraud to enrich the 1%, not something to benefit We the People. The US Healthcare is like Organized Mafia, a Pharma Cartel. Most MDs become MDs because they can make 80x the min fed wage: this creates sky high corruption. The focus is how to bill more, not how to keep people healthy to age 4000. It's GENOCIDE by Thugs. ☺☺☺ Other nations spend half what we spend and people live longer. Go figure. People don't even need a college degree to realize the scam perpetrated on the 99%.

Google or Bing "can this last, first name be Ashkenazi or Sephardi Jewish name" to protect self:

Jews are 2% US population, but 15% MDs, 15% of lawyers, 30% lawyers paid 1+ million, 11% judges/CPAs/'Fortune/S&P 500' CEOs, 35% of Media CEOs, 15% of CFOs, 22% of Tech/Software CEOs, 18% Wall St execs & Commercial Real Estate Execs/Brokers, 30% Major City Developers, 30% realtors paid 1+ million, 35% realtors paid 2+ million, 40% realtors paid 4+ million, 20% Mortgage Brokers paid 1+ million & Major City Residential Realtor Brokers, 21% of Wall St Index traders (pay $ 0.1-2 million), 30% Quantitative Prop Traders ($0.2-10 million), 37% of Republican, 42% of Democrat Finance Committee & Top Donors (who pays decides policy of both parties, One Party System: Talmudic Sharia Republic, Torah/Bible forced @ gunpoint on all), 25-35% of cabinet/advisor positions in every recent administration of either party, 24% of senior editors, columnists, magazine writers, 18% of TV-radio bullshitting hosts who make 1-90 million a year for spreading lies, slavery for the 90%, 22% of $20-90 million hosts – these clowns have 0 shows on 0 violent crime and zero war in 3 years

Jews are 20% of US surgeons (25% of highest paid surgeons: plastic surgery, cosmetic mutilation, Ophthalmology, Orthopedics, Otolaryngology etc, only 15% of rural or trauma surgery), 30% of US concierge MDs (membership based primary care, in wealthy areas), 60% of concierge MDs in wealthy zip codes with more Jews (NYC, SE Florida): ☺☺☺the more money, the more Jews☺☺☺

►►► Talmud: Abodah Zara 23b.9: "it is forbidden to heal a gentile", ◄◄◄

Talmud explains Torah quotes on Genocide, Mass Rape, Enslaving, Beating to Death Gentiles. ☺☺For more on the Jewish control of US medicine, see the US Jewish Plan section, with Talmud quotes on gentiles being worth 20-200$, think how Talmud fits with being an MD. 0.9% of Afghanistan (23 out of 2459) dead were Jews, so Jews are overrepresented in US high paying jobs (comedians making 50-1000 times gentile min wage, comedian Zelensky made less), but not in defending US on frontlines lower paying highest sacrifice jobs, since that's for gentiles to love America, Jews only get the benefits: 20 times the pay of frontline dead. Russia's # 2 person, Jewish Yuri Kovalchuk called for Russian invasion of Crimea, Ukraine and Ukraine Jewish leaders allow endless Jews to run to EU using bribes to avoid the draft, as dying is for gentiles, for Jews is reserved the reconstruction as CEO Slave Masters of disabled left over Ukrainians. In 2026, 1 million draft capable male Ukrainians (Jews included) enjoyed EU peace, via bribes. Jason (English for J starting Jewish names, Jews name first name of the local gentile nation that has the first letter of an ancestor's name, even if that name is Jewish) MDs born in 1970s in the Southeast Florida, Montgomery County (next to NW DC) where 40, 43% MDs are Jewish, are about 60% likely to be Jewish for example. NW DC is where ►►56%◄◄ of MDs are Jewish (same % as Palm Beach County, FL and other areas of US with 17% Jews), 17% of NW DC, the wealthiest half of US capital, is Jewish. 33% of the upper NW (top wealth) is Jewish: here homes cost 2-40 million. 2% of national population, but 33% of the wealthiest area of DC. In ghetto DC, a house can be 200K. 8% of all DC is Jews, so maybe 60K (300K in all surrounding towns, no wonder we hear about Israel daily in the news, Jews run the USA to a great degree). Most DC Jews live in the wealthiest area of DC, called NW. In Southwest Florida, where only 10% of MDs are Jewish, a Jason MD is 20% likely to be Jewish. In Westside & SFV LA (22% Jewish, where most LA Jews live) about 65% of MDs are Jewish, while in Encino-Pico-Bev Hills, 76%. Google the name and see if it's common with Ashkenazi, the middle and last name to know from Jewish demographic data and MD Jewish % if an MD may be Jewish – AI gives ample examples of Jewish first, last names. If a last name is 12 times (e.g. Stein) more common among Jews, the first name twice as common (Jason, Lauren, Steven) in an area with 40% Jewish MDs, then an MD named those 2 names is very likely to be Jewish (90+%). Ravick is 30x more common among Jews vs gentiles, Arnold 4x. Sometimes you can even tell from the appearance. At least now you can choose better. Ask Gemini AI to compute the probability of a full name being a Jew MD in a given area and it can tell you in 2 minutes, using Bayesian formulas, etc. AI will share exactly which are the Jews who make 1-90 million among TV-radio hosts, etc. NW Washington DC (wealthiest area) has about 35% Jewish MDs. 1933 Berlin had 4% Jews, 50% Jew MDs, Germany 1% Jews, 14% Jew MDs, Poland 10% Jews, 50% Jew MDs, Italy 0.1% Jews, 2% Jew MDs, Romania 4% Jews, 38% Jew MDs, France 0.5% Jews, 8% Jew MDs, USSR 1.8% Jews, 18% Jew MDs. The Jew never changes. Today, France got 0.6% Jews, 7% Jew MDs, Canada 1% Jews, 6% Jew MDs, Argentina 0.4% Jews, 3% Jew MDs, Australia 0.5% Jews, 2.5% Jew MDs, USA 2% Jews, 15% MDs, UK 0.46% Jews, 2.2% Jew MDs, Brazil 0.06% Jews, 0.6% Jew MDs, Italy 0.05% Jews, 0.5% Jew MDs. Poorest area of DC, Ward 7 & 8 got 12% Jewish MDs, Jews go where the big $ is, not need. Same for all Big $$ professions, Jews are 5-10x the population %. It's called the Jewish Religion: "Money we Chase, Capitalism we Worship". That's why 30% of concierge MDs are Jews, they don't care about anyone, except making money. Not about universal healthcare for all, equal pay for all. Jews go in fields where MD private practice is easier, so they can charge more and be a "Jew". You will understand this far far better if you read the 11 Talmud quotes and Karl Marx quotes on Judaism. Google MD name to figure out their middle name as that gives further clues into Jewishness. Then give that to AI. The % above for professions show what Jews value: $. The lower the pay, the fewer the Jews. Bible Ethics 101. In Jesus we trust…? Wait a second, legal Muslims are 1.5% of USA, and 7-9% of MDs per some estimates (5% in 2015, more now, at least 6%), how can this be so? For the love of Cash, Allah heals all. Must be fun to make 20-40x the minimum wage… Google Jew founder spent $0.1 billion to defeat Wealth Tax for Billionaire law.

Sadly, in the US of fraud, hospitals have carpets many times in waiting rooms, which are known to hold 1000 times more microbes than tile, linoleum. Immortalists will ban carpets instantly. Before visiting a doctor, check their name and title on Yelp, as the really revealing negative reviews are always on Yelp, not google or hospital sites. Google reviews are done by average low IQ, everyone has a google account. People with yelp have higher IQ and will provide far more useful info. Medicines, pills, vitamins will be properly packed in opaque bottles (glass if not capsules and a liquid or powder). Between 1975 and 2010, MDs grew by 150%, administrators by 3,200%, with today's admins being 10 administrators per MD, admin cost waste 1 trillion a year, or 25% of national spending. Hospitals spend twice as much on admin as on treatment. Healthcare has become a fraudulent capitalist Ponzi scheme. MDs will be replaced by ►►► 1). ETs (Eternist), 2). NPs (Noninvasive Medicine Professor), 3). NDs (Nutrition Doctor), 4). MDs, since most MDs are memorization machines, who don't understand. The Eternist, respected more than that of MDs, will be a profession 9000 times more important than MDs, as these geniuses are tasked with discovering the eterni nutrition or chemistry-DNA-physics method that increases lifespan 40 times to 50 billion times, like the bees living 40 times longer by mere nutritional changes, with the minimum Immortality Credit Score & IQ being much higher than that for MD and any other profession. A genius eternist can postpone diseases of aging (most get diseases when they're 40 or older) for 8 billion people for 2000 years, while an MD, of much lower IQ, can only cure 8000 folks, giving those 8000 5 extra years on average, so the MD contribution to humanity is 8000*5, 40000 lifespan years, versus 16 trillion for eternist, or 400 million times higher. That's a huge difference. Immortalist Credit Score/Pay (until all pay is same for all) and society management role is

1). ET (Eternist) > 2). NP (Noninvasive Medicine Professor) > 3). ND (Nutrition Doctor) > 4). MD

1). ETs (Eternists (highest paid people in USA) who help postpone all aging diseases (most disease that affects most only after age 40) by millennia (all humans living to 4000), as they create 50, then 50000 times longer lifespan via mg level precise atom tracing fetal stage nutrition (by mom's food table 1000 times mode detailed than this) and eterni food for the rest of life, besides other gene expression change or biophysics etc tech, later chemical physics total human engineering shapeshifting tech that makes all live to a trillion via restore point age reversal done hourly and shapeshifting to withstand collapse of universes) ☺☺☺

> 2). NPs (see next 3 pages, Noninvasive Medicine Professor (highest paid faculty in USA > any Univ President) doing research with many grads, like sugar reader without pricks but using IR, no needles, no injection of nutrients by discovering oral delivery, no surgeries (see how many surgeries were useless and still done by highly paid MDs who justified them without any proof), all vaccines become oral or nasal (like FluMist) to prevent artery/tissue damage that later causes "turbulent flow initiated recurring local inflammation cytokine storm creating local and far away clots, plaque rupture that can lead to strokes, infarcts", clot removal without wires using sci-fi lasers that bypass tissue between skin surface and the location of interest via "quantum effects of teleportation", no antibiotics, no antivirals but use of quantum weapon physical chemistry chemical physics to wipe out all bacteria, viruses within a human body to cure all infectious diseases in seconds for people, rooms and even towns if not too expensive to deploy for a town, new advanced procedures that only dissolve unwanted buildup in the body via new chemical physics tech (like one that makes any chemical in one step 1 billion times faster than today, which basically makes synthetic multi step organic chemistry or biochemical reactors using bacteria useless) facilitated by sci-fi lasers, etc, so you need be a physics, engineering or physical chemistry genius to even begin. Ultrasound guided by MRI to the brain stopped it all tremor, an overactive circuit was turned off without surgery, or medicines, in 3 hours, after decades of shaking. Today, MDs give Mg pills to dissolve Ca joint deposits, but we have no oral pills to make hard plaque or brain waste, amyloid protein disappear in days like with calcium deposits; today they do blood filtering to remove in 3 hours heavy metals, breast implant silicone, pesticides, inflammatory proteins from the blood that before took 5000 pills, 20 years, one pill regimen at a time, surgeons will become outdated, just like today they give pills for many things for which they removed part of the brain with a scoop in 1700). MD explains how noninvasive CTA can prevent surgeries, but the corrupt medical system prioritizes stents/surgeries, not CTA or MRA (zero radiation, no dye Magnetic Resonance Angiogram MRA☺☺☺ in the reverse heart disease section). The murderous system today kills people with their "stress test" and other cow IQ procedures ► SMJ 2003;96(11):1151-3: 3 "cases of fatal cardiac rupture". Millions are damaged by these tests, even if they don't die. The criminality of the system can't be greater. Today, "cow IQ" MDs injure billions of veins and nerves with blood draws when it's clear that finger pricks, hair and dried urine samples are available for all main tests (plus stuff way more important they never test for, which they need to since 90% have sky high values), but they don't care about noninjury. The immune cells rush to the arm and prevent the healing of regular daily wear and tear, wasting immune cells to fix the puncture location for 1 year. The 700 million companies ensure any change from puncture to finger prick or wrist IR, etc pic will take 99 years, instead of 6 months. That's why all nations need to grow up, unite as 11 companies & One Anthem. Finger prick (using 0.03 mm needles of sugar meters, not the 2 mm wide 'blade'), etc:

1). $80: ApoB, ApoA, Lp(a) (see definition), HDL, LDL, TC, TG, hs-CRP, Homocysteine + others
2). $10: HDL, LDL, TC, TG, Glucose in 3 min, finger prick with Curo L7, etc FDA approved devices
3). $125: dried urine Cd, Hg, As, Creatinine, Li, Se, I, Br or finger prick Mg, Cu, Zn, Se, Cd, Pb, Hg.
4). $124: hair 17 good, 22 bad metals or hair 31 bad, save 3000$ wasted with predator labs. This test is useful, centenarians had 9x the Mn in their fingernail, as MnSOD, CuSOD are key to long life. Test shows if Cu, Zn, Mn, Mg levels are low due to not soaking legumes and grains. Zn/Cu ratio of 12:1 or higher indicates potential copper deficiency. Ideal Zn/Mn ratio 142-3542. Take the root of the hair, first 2.5 cm, as that one is the recent months and can tell if diet is OK. Low Ca due to phytate blocking minerals means tooth bone loss and teeth turning crooked with age. Today, even with the hair, nail, feces, urine, saliva, blood, RBC nutrient tests we can't really be sure about the lack of a nutrient in an organ as we lack scanners to show nutrient level in every cell, so it's much cheaper and faster to buy/take the nutrient to see if symptoms vanish. You'll be shocked what symptoms magnesium deficiency can cause, all of them from One Mineral. High heavy metals means low G-SH (low Gly, Glu, Cys, the 3 glutathione peptides, and/or Se). ☺ Half US adults are sedentary, so sudden heart stress can damage it. Another thing they do is "heart catheterization" (barbaric surgery like procedure that sticks a probe (see clip: damages your endothelium, creating 100s of injuries in the artery wall where plaque will form later) to "see" if you have a block or not in the artery, procedure condemned by thousands of MDs who're into CTA or dyeless MRA as a reflection of the insurance profit driven medical system that removes all say from the patients or MDs), which can turn into lifelong damage or ever death: BMJCR 2013:bcr2013008753, CMAJ 1993;149(2):165-9. If no heavy exercise last 3 months, avoid stress tests, as the sudden burden could break something in the heart and hurt you. Just so you understand, insurance companies and hospitals make much more $ by damaging customers with catheterization: especially via the radial artery, it causes mechanical damage to the endothelial lining, ranging from minor rubbing to severe trauma. The guidewire frequently touches and rubs against the vessel walls throughout the procedure, with higher risk of injury during forceful manipulation, potentially leading to spasms or perforation ► JCC 2017;16(5):158-61. Dyeless MRA is way cheaper, 500$ and way safer than CTA even. MRI, CTA existed for decades, but with decentralization, you can't change everything fast to have machines be used to see arteries, heart, etc: today many machines sit idle, when with central planning, you could have them be used far more, from 5 am to 11 pm, until new ones are built. The system is run by criminals. We need one central company to crush all these gangs that do 1 million catheterizations in USA alone a year, which is a genocide, given the damage each one does, that they hide from the people, when 100,000 times safer dyeless MRA exists. They lie to us that we don't have "enough money" to make "MRA machines" or "nurses to help run MRA tests, etc, but MDs make on average 27 times the federal min wage of 15k/year (some MDs, new ones in poor clinics and towns may only make 150K, others can make 1300K as neurosurgeons), Big Pharma and other insurance manager/CEO parasites make 40-2000 times the minimum federal wage, so definitely we could have a real democracy, with 10 times more real doctors, not serial killers (1000 bad procedures that shrink life by 3 months each, means 3000/12=250 lifespan years lost, same as killing 6 people around age 40 or SERIAL KILLER) and thieves (steal money from the masses with the aid of criminal insurance gangsters, genocidal politicians who OK max salary 50-50000 the minimum, do nothing to get out of the system, like many MDs starting their own practice with MRA) and a real country of ethics, not banditry: max pay 5 times the minimum pay, there will be $$$ for MRA and 10 times more healthcare professionals in no time once the genocidal psychos are out of power. The aristocrats in every industry duplicate, education is not free, so we have 10 times fewer MDs paid 10 times more than they should be paid if we have 10x more, doing 1000 times better job than today, as we got a lot more engineers and scientists, due to the 11 companies centralization that eliminates the parasitic middle man the and the need for 4 million retail stores selling poisons and useless products at the rate of 3 trillion/year. If we shall give the best dyeless MRA to all, we will need the best anthem and music for all too. So, come and join the World of fans of Eternal Universal Peace and Immortality for All. MDs didn't wash hands after autopsy in 1840s, going to deliver babies with dirty hands and when Ignaz S explained MDs need to wash their hands and that MDs killed many by not washing hands, Ignaz was sent to a mental asylum and killed by a guard there. Can MD associations, Big Pharma CEOs be as good as in 1860 in truth suppression, when they're accused of genocide? Scurvy cure was known for decades before lemons were available to sailors, but bureaucracy prevented its use. Imagine how many cures exist already for 500 diseases, all published, but not mainstream or insurance covered, known only to 1 guy without $ to reach the masses of patients of that disease. That's why we need a Central Company to analyze and catalog all known cures for anything, with every researcher being able to submit theirs so it can be tested in a large study and covered. ☺☺☺

Cases of capitalist healthcare fraud (4 out of 4 billion): 1). You go to any CVS, etc and all you see in the eye section is artificial tears, that you need to by over and over, forever. The 500 times less allergenic 0.9% ocular saline is not there, as it can be 20x cheaper if mass produced, and the moisture glasses are not there either, nor are the moisture night masks, day glasses which would solve dry eye for many people without even saline being needed. This happens is because Pharma doesn't make billions for palaces with dirt cheap products that are 10$ instead of 10,000$ for eyedrops. The gov doesn't care, the rich own the government and put their frauds at FDA and in Congress. CVS, etc got huge sections for cosmetics, 0 products about stuff 9000 times more important: living to 4000, moisture glasses, saline vials with no extra ingredients, etc. Odd how we have endless sections at CVS, etc but no "Living to 4000" section.

2). 60% of folks get toenail fungus, usually when older. Insurance covers only liver-kidney destroying antifungals, that, like terbinafine, can kill you or leave you without sense of taste and smell. Instead of having the cheap laser at CVS like we have Blood Pressure stations at Walmart, you have to pay 1-2K out of pocket to go to an MD who does tasks a 3 year old can do: wave the laser 3 mm above the nail. So, here we go, MDs waste 10 years to get trained, get paid 50x min fed wage to wave a toy at our nails that we can do ourselves at CVS or the Immortality City Centers of free biomarkers and healing stations of all sorts. Insurance covers 30-300$ antifungals to enrich the Big Pharma pockets, that harms the organs, but doesn't cover a 20 min laser waving that would take a 20$/hour tech to do it, well, uni $/hr, universal pay. In any ethical society, given the laser works much better than topicals and even most oral pills if couples with topicals, this should be the first line of defense, the first choice. Instead, what is done if genocidal, all to enrich the 30 million estate owning Big Pharma CEOs in Rancho Santa Fe etc.

3). You go to dry eye doctor and they say IPL works really well and is the best, but there are many other tools out there, known and unknown, to cure dry eyes. Everyone buys IPL now, it's so amazingly profitable. Instead of doing research and figuring out what is the best way to cure dry eye ultra fast, instead of doing preventive meibography (required at annual physical exam) to catch meibomian gland atrophy at age 5-18 as 42% of kids develop it, they push IPL on all, as

it's the quickest money making thing. In reality nutrition with the right knowledge, could solve all dry eye cases, by stimulating self-healing of affected glands, but nothing is done, no research, just 3 year old waving of a toy laser. This is why these optometrists are paid 150K, instead of 15k min fed wage, for waving lasers at our closed eyes... Oh, ophthalmologists used to charge 6K for IPL recently, so they can make 400K/yr... big business to enrich Israeli Lumenis while keeping people dependent on these "lasers" that can cause clots and by extension, cognitive issues or even pulmonary embolism, death, via a clot. Must be very stressful indeed to be an optometrist these days, imagine how much more than risking life daily in a steel plant and making 40K only. Why can't USA give salaries of 100K max to all CEOs and MDs and then we have money to mass produce in USA, without Israel imports, all IPLs we need for lowering prices from $2000 today to 10$ or free with all insurance plans (the universal plan) if it's safe for all and etc? The list is endless, in every medical area, profit is 100 times more important than adding the max lifespan years to USA as a whole, so we end up living to 80 on average instead of 150. Pathetic. Greed.

4). You go to a dentist, show insurance and they do an ultra fast superficial cleaning in 6 minutes then bill the insurance a lot of money, for doing the most ridiculous cleaning that removed virtually no tartar and plaque. These animals will never tell you: can you close your mouth and tell me when you normally sit, where your tongue position is? If it touches the bottom teeth it confirms that you have crooked teeth on the bottom row due to pushing them slowly with the tongue over years. The animal decentralization means they don't see your teeth were straight years ago when you visited other dentists (since it's not a centralized one universal medical system, with access to all dental pics you ever took that have the crookedness score, etc) and because of lack of education and fraudulent capitalism TV ads, you never learned anything useful from TV, except how to buy 3 trillion/year worth of useless products: nobody ever taught you as a kid, teen or adult, in any visit, that the tongue is meant to rest on the roof of the mouth. Everything is about making millions by useless preventable orthodontics that nobody needs with proper education since age 3 via the centralized educational system for kids age 0-18 and parent license lessons, all watched from home. People a lot of money at the dentist/MD to solve the crooked teeth that emerge due to wrong tongue position pushing on the lower teeth causing them to come out, crooked nose (another pic here: be blown away what a tongue does, see how he explains fixing asthma, poor breathing, bent nose, without allowing the evil cosmetic surgeon MDs doing damage to make money), etc, when there is a natural noninvasive way that 100s of youtubers and MDs are presenting. Why do people get such forward lower teeth and crooked teeth as they age? One reason is lack of education: because of gravity, we like tongue to sit on lower teeth and this pushes them out creating one or several to come out. Your tongue should rest gently against the roof of your mouth, with the tip just behind your top front teeth, rather than low against the bottom teeth or in the middle touching both upper and lower teeth. The perfect tongue position at rest involves suctioning the entire tongue, not just the tip, gently against the roof of the mouth (palate), with the tip resting on the alveolar ridge just behind the upper front teeth (like when you say sing) without touching them. A video explains how billions can avoid crooked teeth: lips closed, teeth slightly apart (1-3mm), promoting a wide palate that prevents crowded or crooked teeth, and keeps the airway open, wide to prevent faster aging due to lack of oxygen. Otherwise, one lower (usually) tooth or more will be pushed out, erode the front tooth unevenly and cause food to rub on top of it and cause debris in the back and top, causing cavities that later develop into infarcts due to bacteria invading the arteries. You never learn this in school or college, only useless things that add zero years to your life. The centralized education will change all that, so we don't waste trillions with orthodontics. Colgate also explains this tongue on roof thing, as does Healthline and Ahava advice for kids, etc. Sleeping on one side will also cause that side of the face to swell at night and over time you can cause the lower teeth on that side to shift and become crooked too, besides the face to become asymmetric (unless you alternate sides each night), one eye to become vascularized. I'm not suggesting you follow the advice of Oscar Patel (the guy below who shows the corruption of the cosmetic surgery industry and orthodontics) on diet, eating 250 g of saturated fat, eat high cholesterol foods etc, that he talks about in some videos (his acne was not due to plant foods, but due to allergens in certain foods he ate, since many removed a few allergens and got rid of acne via veganism, acne didn't vanish because he ate saturated fat). One can't say "let's spill blood of humans or animals to get rid of acne", when there is a more ethical alternative: veganism. It's all about the Immortalist Anthem ethics. A high saturated fat diet is not too bad in the short-term for people who do 4 hrs/day of endurance training and want enormous amounts of energy to lift, push, construction work, etc, but the rest of people will get a heart attack, stroke and high plaque from a high fat diet as it's not used as energy and becomes belly fat: he's young and doesn't measure the plaque effect of his exercise routine, many papers show intense exercise and high saturated fat creates more plaque than low fat diets. However, he made some unique videos that show how corrupt the beauty industry is, since he can fix some issues without any surgery, which is the essence of Noninvasive medicine: watch Oscar change his appearance dramatically via a few exercises, how he fixes posture that can cause strokes, infarct, dementia later in life as we get older via pinching of blood vessels (blocks nutrients and oxygen from reaching the brain, the master aging regulator) during sleep or even while awake. A few exercises or tongue on roof habit changes can remove asthma, sleep apnea and other conditions that shrink the brain, impede cerebrospinal fluid flow, and cause dementia, stroke (partial block of neck vessels due to bad posture cause turbulent flow, leading to silent strokes or real visible stroke), infarct 4-40 years earlier than you want.

One lady slept the wrong way and changed her position and all strokes ended. All disease is related to bioelectrical signaling, they used the proper frequency and got eyes to grow in any area of the worm, so the body is very fluid and changeable when you're younger, they could use that before age 60 to cure so many things, but resources are wasted with endless useless cosmetic procedures that solve nothing, add zero years to one's life, actually shorten it since all that money and time could have been used to create a nutrient powder to add 10 years to everyone's life and on other planets how you look now is hot and after plastic surgery is UGLY. Unless the change helps you breathe or sleep better, it's pointless. It's useless unless you have a really big issue that can't be solved with a few exercises over 2 years (tongue etc), but most doing it have no real issue, it's insanity. Some diseases can be cured by similar stimulations as in salamanders growing eyes anywhere via electrical signals, like eyelid glands, where the neural signaling and stem cell tenocytes, eyelid lipid forming cells, etc need a reset to return to earlier function. Watch Oscar's total transformation, and how severely crooked teeth became straight in 2 months with no dentist Invisalign, etc. He fixed his overbite without a dentist, and nose too, as well as horrible posture that caused asthma, knee pain, sleep apnea, etc. Check this out: tongue position determines this wide change in appearance and breathing ability: same guy. Check out Will's transformation without any doctors, showing how junk food impacts health. As salamanders can grow eyes anywhere with electrical stimulation, so can our eyes grow new meibomian glands to replace old shut ones by a LipiFlow type of device that stimulates the growth of new glands there, to cure the MGs atrophy. Currently, MDs tell us "your face is fixed, only surgery can modify it", which is a lie, and that "dry eye is incurable, it only gets worse, the only way is expensive IPL and other treatments every 4 months". While Oscar claims we were meant to have palates of 50 mm vs 34 mm today, I think as we evolve, our eyes and brains will get bigger, palates smaller and mouths ever smaller until teeth disappear, since we slurp on this thick liquid, eterni powder dissolved in water. The point is not to expand palate for the same of 'beauty' or to go back to chewing hard foods, but to know there are easy ways to fix things that shrink lifespan noninvasively (asthma, blocked airway, sleep apnea (kids or adults), pinched nerves or arteries due to bad position causing strokes, turbulent flow plaque buildup etc), though most people will do Invisalign for crooked teeth as it's far easier than having to do these exercises of myofascial nature. When sleeping on your back, gravity acts on the tongue and soft palate, pulling them down toward the rear of the throat, narrowing the upper airway, causing turbulent airflow and vibration, which produces snoring, cell death, short life. MDs care about innovation as you care about the diet of bacteria in an Amazon forest, they're too busy. We need a new profession, above MDs, the NPs who actually have access to all videos of all MDs, dentists (required by law, as with cops) and the medical records to be able to track the effects of new noninvasive methods, to develop new methods by watching what happens during existing methods, etc. When you go to an optometrist they don't do 300 biomarker tests to determine your 40 nutritional deficiencies and determine which ones may have the largest impact on dry

eye development, besides other factors like 1. bad room light (squint), 2. extreme tension around the forehead and ocular area that causes a short circuit of trigeminal nerve reflexes of tearing and lipid production in the eyelid, 3. lack of constant 45% humidity at home or work, as per Building Inc guidelines, 4. working in windy areas (fans, etc) without glasses. ☺☺☺

An ethical MD, would quit the system, start his own practice, lower his salary to US average, so he can hire an assistant at half his salary and offer dyeless MRA at half price of the lowest in USA to grow his model and business and bankrupt all catheterizations that damage 1 million Americans a year. MRA allows us to see what's wrong without invasive procedures, carcinogenic brain damaging dyes, or any radiation, the essence of NPs. With centralization and 1 company, once a better tech is discovered, you can implement it 10000 times faster, but with 10,000 healthcare systems, hospital management teams and bureaucracies, officers of policies, etc, you have a disaster that takes 40 years to do a small change. He and his team could have by now bankrupted all catheterizations and team up with lawyers to sue all hospitals doing it too and a real gov would give all fines acquired to this new company to expand in other areas to eat all criminal hospitals doing criminal procedures. But because almost everyone is such a bandit, this doesn't happen. The top bandits create unemployment, which doesn't exist with 11 companies and then cities become unsafe, as unemployed join gangs, which shouldn't exist with an efficient national police department replacing 18000 paraplegic police departments unable to do a thing. All they do is update their 18000 different policies, instead of bringing violent crime down 1 billion fold. Why do we need 18000 different policies? To waste time and let gangs rule USA.☺☺☺ The same corruption in the MD field took over the police field, everyone joins police, for easy amazing pension at 55, and some towns get same cops for 300 times more violent crime. Way to go, IMBECILITY AT ITS HIGHEST, Corruption at every level, industry and profession with no end. How can MDs live in an area where they shoot all day on average salary? He dies, and then the company that would have ended 1 million catheterizations ends. We need to turn the screw on all violent crime, music and all bandits, crush all gangs, ban 99% of music, which is Infernal Violent PURE DEMONIC FILTH, inciting the uneducated masses of mindless zombies to crime, and enable Death Penalty, in weeks, when proof is clear via the 5 trillion camera system, for any violent crime if we set max salary 3-5 times min. You can't just reform Healthcare, it requires ALL NATIONAL REFORM. It's all One Mafia Network. The Gangs operate across multiple industries. The Food Mafia sickens the workers, makes them obese, the MD Mafia then sickens the sick even more, pretending to fix the Food Mafia Damage, then the Disabled people Mafia sickens them more and then they die. You can't go after MDs, CEOs, ☺☺☺ parasitic managers, only, need to crush all gangs and give all a job so they don't smash stores and kill attack people as police section explains in detail. We need a comprehensive national reform that the paraplegic Dems and Reps can't do, they just talk all day. Ethics doesn't exist, all we get is Bible training in theft, genocide, rape. Any ethical MDs? All we have is Presidents promoting sports and stadiums, and we build stadiums in USA, even though we already have 1 million basketball hoops we don't need to live to 4000. All sportsmen need to make maximum wage of minimum federal wage, $15000 a year. That's Ethics. For every other disease, they have many similar useless diagnostic or invasive procedures for which a much safer alternative exists, but GREED of the Aristocratic MD class (the higher paid MDs, not the lower paid ones who live almost paycheck to paycheck if mortgage is high) prevents progress, like the Big Pharma, Device for catheterization, etc, Big Insurance/Lawyers prevent progress too due to Genocidal Aristocrats in the CEO Scumbag Class. Those CEOs give themselves 400 times the average worker pay, as a reward for Smashing USA. Look at the comical☺ infernal parasitic leeches of University Presidents, $8 million a year, when education could be free and centralized. No wonder almost everyone is so low in IQ, that violent crime is a 1 billion times higher. Bring those Uni Pres thieves to the Immortality for All Court. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

> 3). NDs (Nutrition Doctor, see below, geniuses who discover nutritional ways to prevent/cure any disease, even though this may take 1-30 months instead of 3-8 days as with Noninvasive Medicine Professor techs). The ND adjusts the intake of 1-40 macro or micronutrients 1.5-40 fold, to achieve disease remission via a new science greed didn't create yet, as modern medicine is all about stealing $ via pricey pills, useless tests, surgeries. The ND profession is the basis of 4000 year lifespan design strategy too, using the amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ tech of Eterni Foods given to us by the 11 companies system. These nutritional biochemist NDs know 900 times more diabetes biochemistry than a typical diabetes MD today, if they're a diabetes specialty ND (that you only go to if the general ND sends you to, before you're even allowed to visit the MD), not a general ND, just as tomorrow's 5th graders will know 9,000 times more biochemistry than today thanks to new textbooks (that have basic B2 related pathways or citrulline concepts like these) that explain 2nd grade IQ level concepts that people study in college only today, due to a retarded educational system focusing on pure garbage, like history and endless humanities and body parts of insects, plants, etc in biology. We need new vitamin regulations, anything in the pack needs to indicate the form and 1000 tests done on each to measure possible contaminants. Today, the supplement industry is a jungle, with fraudulent products that are not checked by FDA at all: Chinese softgels with pic of the label that doesn't indicate the form of zinc, B_6, B_{12}. The supplement industry is run mostly by con artists who buy cheap from some nations and then make their own brand by using a US contractor to pack it and sell it on Amazon at higher price. The culture of "small business" low IQ parasites means that they put the most toxic or useless stuff in too, without proper storage, cold, and proper labels (opaque, not white or clear bottles). Millions of frauds do this, raise the prices that would otherwise be so low and 100% US made. The softgel oil issue is explained in the food section about oxidation, and vitamin light, opacity.

When you have half a million charlatans, you have lethal pills, since you don't get mass production advantages of low cost to make the best product, they cut corners and put poison ingredients, in, poor opacity and storage, vitamin/nutrient forms. Everything needs to be formulated by one company, which has 5 million PhDs, so every pill is 100 times better. You get a pill in oil from China shipped over 3 months or 2 months, in hot weather, all ingredients go bust, oil oxidizes, instead of making it in USA, being it fresh 4 days before you eat it, store all in fridge. It's a travesty, people have no clue what the Chinese put inside, such loose regulations there: they do some silly tests in USA for heavy metals, microbes, etc, purity, but what about 400 other weapons, like carfentanyl, fentanyl, etc. A small mom and dad company can't test anything, you can't test 5 million versions of B_{12}, that's why you need centralization for maximum security. It's like 2nd graders run the USA, all in the name of "capitalism". All pills need to be made in USA. The criminals who run the vitamin industry do nothing right: inactive ingredients, shipping & storage temp, label, opacity, insufficient/poor quality or bio/chemical weapon testing. The imported ingredients, say lycopene, is full of impurities and reaction byproducts that could cross the blood brain barrier and cause serious health effects our bodies are not used to, unlike the plant extract form, if plant extraction was done in a safe way that didn't create toxic compounds. None of this is checked for safety and it's a total disaster. We build stadiums instead of chemical synthesis labs to make 100.00% pure lycopene, etc in USA, not 96% purity in China. All these rat IQ Republicans and Democrats need to be fired, we need a real party of Science. We need turn all university stuffy classrooms into labs, since all theory will be studied online. Please read the magnesium section first 2 pages, as it's the best example of how one single (among 50 important ones) nutrient can cause such a wild variety of symptoms that can be misdiagnosed leading to 90,000$ worth of pills taken over decades and later even surgeries for damage done by useless pills. Having only 1 company means the drone will deliver the flu, cold or covid kit within 1 hour, like Amazon delivers Whole Foods, that contains 240 pills (5 taken each hour to keep blood level to the max all the time for those powerful antivirals, 120/day, polyphenols, and many of Ch 12), extra lozenge, nasal saline, etc to create a natural antiviral antibacterial mix that shrinks the cold, flu duration from 10-28 days to 10-28 hours via 250 pills that go way beyond RDA (D3, MK7, etc) for 1-3 days, taken every hour for 3 days. Colds are costing US $40 billion/year and early powerful intervention will save 39 billion.☺☺☺ Today, everyone is left to their own devices using infinite ignorance and lozenges that don't work due to garage "gnat IQ" formulations. With the Immortalist Party Nutrition Education on TV, Immortalist Nutrition subject from 1st to 12th grade, people will know 4000x more nutrition and how to try live to 4000 via nutrition, and be thus so much healthier that their daily pills will prevent getting a cold, flu 100x better. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

erythrocyte testing for all fundamental nutrients linked to the symptoms, so misdiagnose and wasting trillions is the result as explained in detail in the magnesium section. The hair/nail level can be low for 80 years, even if blood level is perfect for 80 years due to tight regulation, and MDs never check Mg, Mn, Zn, Cu in nails or hair at a routine annual to see the 4 most important minerals for antioxidant defense and living to 110: lazy, low IQ medical system run by clowns and profit. On a mass scale, this test for nail or hair would cost only 25$ for the 4 minerals, important to test due to people, food industry not soaking grains and legumes, leading to phytates, etc blocking absorption of minerals by 40%. Soils can be depleted in minerals too, so intake can fall even further to deadly ranges. This leads to diabetes (low Zn), infertility, neurological issues (Mg), high oxidative stress (no Mn, no Cu for MnSOD, CuSOD), etc. A real comprehensive test would cost 100,000$ today, but 400$ in the immortalist 11 company society. Today's medicine is like magic pills of 1st century, mixed with cow dung and goat urine to lift the soul, versus the future immortalist medicine of the Logical Immortalist Anthem and Immortality Party, that creates a picture 1000 times more complex for nutritional status and 20 page report with 500 nutrient values and 25 deficiencies needing correction each year. In an efficient system of one insurer, one system, one medical company, etc, we cut the middle men and focus on super efficient, fast delivery of 50 times more data and 10 times more doctors who provide healthcare 50 times better quality than the pure trash today, where you wait 9 months to see the PCP, who then sends you to a specialist, to wait another 6 months, on cheap insurance you die first. These 6 tests, via finger prick, etc should also be a home kit anyone orders online, send it to the lab and get the results without having to waste time with MD visits, just test based on symptoms. For ocular issues, eye tears (2100 chemicals usually, so tear tests will tell us how to fix the dry eye by the chemical signature) are useful, as low Mg there can indicate issues. Bacterial growth in urine, feces and saliva can indicate systemic colonization by bad species (that often cause plaque too) that needs to be eliminated by friendly good bacteria and microbiome change after antibiotics killed the good bacteria and allowed the brain/artery damaging ones to grow. Poor oral hygiene can cause severe rises in CRP that damages all arteries and causes vascular dementia. Can you trust most MDs who say Lp(a) is forever fixed and you can do nothing about it, unless you take a fancy drug that "lowers it only 10-20%"? That's 99.9% of them killing us via disinformation, and ignorance, as we lack NDs to do real science before MDs touch any patient. 95% of MDs don't even know about Lp(a) latest drugs they try to approve to lower it 20%. Lp(a) dropped from 236 to 143 or 39% by 10 day water fast that reprograms metabolism ► FN 2024;11:1418705. Lp(a) and other lipids are detailed here. There you go, fast 10 days, lose 9-50 lb and live 5 extra years. Real return on investment. Never trust MDs fully, do read 400 papers, you will always find stuff MDs have no clue about, or that they're 100% wrong. MDs also kill us slowly in another way, besides stabbing 80% US male penises (vs 0.1% in nations with 7 years longer lifespan) required by the Ayatollahs of America, the Gentle Speech Orthodox

Rabbis who took over CDC to impose Judaism on all, while pretending to be Atheist Demon-crats or Christian Re-pub-licans: trimmed penises cause shorter lifespans and a rise in violent crime. MDs love to stab veins, in tune with the sadistic cruelty of medical education mirroring the Jewish Bible 1450 torture Quotes. Vein stabbing that MDs term "blood draw/test" (similar to cracking skulls open in 1700 to scoop brains out, instead of giving nutrients they miss as today we can) is a recurring inflammation site of eternal aging that acts as a trigger for turbulent blood flow (needle for blood draw is far larger than glucose finger prick needle, and is an injury requiring 1000 times more neutrophils to heal and that bump on the vein is forever, it causes turbulence) that generates new clots, strokes, infarcts, cytokine spread and is not ideal in any high tech medical system using advanced imaging of hands to picture molecules passing thru hands. Most health can be evaluated with gentle tender soft nurturing loving kind eterni tone like methods of testing (like eterni music), like gentle finger pricks, (with small needle of 0.04 mm diameter of glucose kits, not the big 2 mm finger blade methods), urine, feces, hair, nail, saliva, eyelash, leg, toe hair, hand/nail pics to see nutrients. But we're of a violent scripture, a violent music, a shouting yelling culture, so gentleness lacks, as well as the new "no vein stab" markers science to cure, evaluate without injury. "Do not harm" is a platitude with no meaning. The macho overwhelming force "low IQ" is evident: nobody does proper testing, as the blood level is a very incomplete pic of what is really going on.

> 4). MDs (Medical Doctor) who promoted smoking in 1950s. They do irrelevant tests, like LDL, which can never predict plaque (hs-CRP & Lp(a) can), MDs order useless angiograms because insurance covers it up to $20,000, while the far less invasive and exact 1700$ CT plus AI is covered only $378, Medicare promotes the lowest IQ tech, as Texas MD explains the latest tech that few know (see also his youtube). CT says plaque is there or not. LDL can't.

> 5). RNs (Registered Nurse). These nurses never follow the protocol consistently, for example, when you visit clinics they are supposed to have you sit still 5 minutes on a chair before they take the reading for blood pressure, not simply rush you from waiting room to take weight and then immediately place the cuff. If they do that and you rushed to appointment too, it will be a sky high useless reading. You have the right to ask to rest for 5 minutes, and you can roll the sleeve before you sit still 5 minutes, to get the best, but a thin shirt won't alter much a reading. Also, the nurses within the same place don't follow exact protocol: most take reading with sleeve on, a few ask you to roll the sleeve to measure it on bare skin (most people have no idea that's the ideal way). Others don't even ensure your sleeve is all rolled up and place the cuff over bare skin (80%) and the sleeve (20%) giving a sky high reading. The American Heart Association (AHA) and the CDC state that the cuff must be placed directly on bare skin. Taking a reading over thick clothing can falsely raise systolic by 10-50. When you leave a rolled-up sleeve under a portion of the cuff, it triggers blood flow restriction and uneven pressure, both leading to high reading. You know it's a fake reading, since the pulse will be the pulse you have at 110/70, not at 135/85, that low 54. They do this by hacking electronically or placing the cuff the wrong way to harass or raise anxiety, if you are a newbie. This is how spy MDs can brainwash people that they have diseases they don't have, in order to destroy their bodies by medicating them with deadly stuff that damages other organs. The more ignorant the people, the easier to manipulate by criminal MDs or nurses. They manipulate how they do readings, so it comes out as out of normal, and then MDs medicate, or present abnormal as normal. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The best 8 ETs are Co-Leaders of Eternia, the Council of Eternia, The President advisors on science, health, tech. It takes 12-15 years to get an ET degree after college, not 7-9 as with MD. ETs have the highest Ethics score, though IQ may not be 250, could be 150 minimum as setting. Only one ET degree Uni in all USA, where they do lab work most of the time, on animals mostly, to triple their lifespan, though humans who want to volunteer for new treatments or pregnancy meals are always welcome. The graduates, 800 a year perhaps, go to work in some of the 5000 Unis related to odd techs. Their rank is above all Uni presidents, professors and can use all Uni resources for the research to increase lifespan 40x like queen bees, via multidisciplinary Uni-Uni joint projects of 5 to 40 Unis. The highest IQ/IS of any profession is ET. US got only 50,000 with IQ 150+. Most will be ET. The 11 companies section first paragraph explains how a scientist ET can do more good than 100 million MDs, so ETs, NPs, NDs, MDs, RNs develop a new healthcare. The national ET degree Uni produces all food in house thru vertical farms, greenhouses and the most advanced techs, to prove its ability to create the eterni food system replacing agriculture. By 2055, the Eternia Ruling Council of 8 ETs will aim to feed half USA with Eterni Foods that increase average IQ and lifespan by 20 points and 20 years, and 50 years by 2100. Live to 130. The ETs have the highest pay in USA, because if they can make all Teslas live to 4000, not 86, then he had 33,000 patents not 700. Life is first. If we're not alive, nothing else matters, no discovery has any use, no tech can be used. So the USA is reborn into Eternia, the happy land of kindness and peaceful music, 222 weeks off for parents at baby birth, no more overprescribing lethal antidepressant use to 7% of men and 15% of US women, when depression can have 100s of other causes, mentioned in the alcohol, smoking, nutrition, beauty chapters. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The universal health care is available to all citizens (who confirmed their citizenship if it was by birth to noncitizens or to parents born to noncitizens). Green card holders receive less care, as they're not yet citizens, not 100% loyal to USA. Reducing vastly the amount of tiny medical offices, admin staff, to reduce useless jobs such as "receptionist" etc, and enable new jobs to appear: RESEARCH. Sleep is the most important thing, yet among 100000 alarm apps on their Android, Apple, Microsoft etc stores, not one is a decent one allowing you to lock screen for 5 minutes after the alarm and say "Please stop working on your word processing (if that is what you were using) on your tablet, laptop, desktop", etc. The alarm that comes with phones or

Windows computers is pathetic at best. The most important thing is to break the digital time addiction, go to bed during dark hours to produce melatonin, sleep well, wake up with sunrise or nearby, sleep at least 10-6 very restfully to repair the body and live to 120. This is not in national goals, political speeches, only being galley slaves is important, everyone creates junk for aristocrat profits, no new products: 90000 ways to pack milk, but no new milk. Thus, for any condition, the first thing MDs recommend, is better sleep, 10 to 8 or so, extra hours to repair more, using the app to stop digital screen addiction. ☺☺☺

The medical industry is full of useless jobs due to decentralization and 100000 ways to do or insure/bill the same thing, due to greed. Did you know that big Pharma wastes more money with useless marketing to shareholders than with research and development of new drugs/therapies to extend healthy lifespan, cure diseases, etc? Big Pharma in US gets 75% of Pharma world profits by stealing from 4% of world population to finance PALACES in Mexican Cartel Style Trillion $ Thefts. Odd isn't it? It's no surprise, since possibly Freemason 1839 born Rockefeller has jailed doctors and banned natural treatments, manipulated medical education, to sell Big Pharma products he created to enslave the working class so much easier, instead of an evidence based medicine which shows that sometimes diet prevents the very diseases (vitamin D, ω3, etc prevent depression and the bad MDs from making 26x the minimum wage by prescribing poisons to "depressed" people who would not become "depressed" with central free education and proper nutrition, and poor kids incited by violent music to aiming guns (they shouldn't have if taking such meds, nor overweight people whose carotid (see pic) is blocked disabling 50% of mental function, evil MDs didn't give her a food table to lose weight, her primary doctor is guilty, he makes no money with a free food table to count calories and a 12$ scale) at cops and then being shot dead) caused by junk food that then make trillions for the rich selling Pharma products to manage diseases these Big Food Rich Mafia companies were creating. Rockefeller took over the American Medical Association, medical school education, Federal Reserve, created the federal income tax, and the tax exemptions for Big Business (by donating shares to charitable foundations), while everyone pays taxes. US kids are now 90% more likely to die than other rich nations due to Big Pharma, Big Junk Food. Aristocrats kill us all. If you get some cheap insurance, the first hit on their ☺abysmal IQ☺ network search is a doctor that will often take 3-9 months to deliver you the glasses, etc, or even to see your primary care doctor wait 8 months. Big Pharma won't make money for Jewish, British palaces with vitamin D, omega 3 and other cheap nutrients, so the way to 1 million palaces is genocide via lethal medicines. Why have 1 company and not 10000? Because humans are good at lies, so when a company needs to make a profit, to pay its employees, after investing $2 billion in a poor idea drug, noticing clinical data gives some alarming side effects, it will often hide that data and submit only the better studies, because otherwise, the guy will be fired, or company will go bankrupt.

So, millions will die 3-30 months earlier from the bad pill, due to the for profit system. When you have only 1 company, you don't care if one study/drug failed, you only approve what works, you're the only company, you're concerned with longevity and truth, not shareholders and profit. A small company wants to make untruth appear true, it will fudge the data until it can sell something. Classic capitalism = lies and death. Immortalist capitalism = Truth and Eternal Life.☺

To avoid medical mistakes that end lives 30 years early or amputate the wrong leg, leave stitches and instruments inside bodies after being paid 500-950K a year, it's essential to lower their workload by 50%, so they can rest more and have a better work life balance, since when they only make 3 times the minimum wage in immortalist systems, they're less likely to strive for the best if the more corrupt type who is the old system (before the Immortality Credit Score system), that allowed every greedy thug to become a doctor if they passed some basic knowledge test. We need to avoid surgeons suicide (common issue) and burnout that leads to catastrophic outcomes. Same for MDs who have no time for continuing education, etc. Stress makes mistakes and given that 75 million jobs are redundant in current classic capitalism, there is plenty of applicant pool to create new surgeons and MDs to lighten the load☺☺☺. It's inconceivable that doctors who undergo shorter training or have 9-5 short hours often get paid more than others who have 50% more stress and 30% longer hours. Current filif IQ rat race capitalism means most jobs relate to retail, admin and sales, marketing, redundant 0 contribution jobs. The reality is that 90% of surgeries today are preventable with an immortalist culture and system of 11 companies, 0 fat people (no bypass surgeries), low fat diets, better weight control, low AGE diets, 0 risky sports and behaviors cultures, low stress civilization by proper distribution of work duties and physical exertion in jobs, etc. Thus, as we move from cannibalism to civilization, 0 violent crime and fair pay, there are 10 times fewer surgeries than today and the relaxation of MDs allows them to focus more on the development of alternative procedures, protocols and treatments that minimize invasive surgeries (like this nasal spray). For example, the bypass surgeries on coronary arteries are mostly not needed, if you educate kids via the centralized free education about proper diet and everyone has body fat under 15%, a healthy diet, as profit from genocide is replaced by break even of Immortality for All. Any typical procedure, from CPR to others, can be improved once the scientist mindset is applied and profit is not a goal. Today, money is the goal, not minimizing damage, so MDs have 0 incentive to develop new protocols and alternatives to surgery, it's an ultra corrupt system, like the food industry. The highest paid people in healthcare would be eternists, ETs, followed by those who develop new procedures (Noninvasive Medicine Professors, NPs, with 10-20 undergrads, PhDs, postdocs in the research group), praising the Name of Perennial Life, NPs), not MDs. MDs are often folks who want to become millionaires in 3-8 years, so we need a total revamp of this parasitic system. Merit will go to those who develop nonsurgical, least damaging to lifespan (best diet, pills, etc) treatments for existing diseases. It's odd surgeons get the highest pay, it's a criminal system that encourages the most stone age methods, when with biophysics, advanced nanochemistry and precise quantum tech no surgery would ever be needed. The present classic capitalist system rewards the greediest lowest IQ conmen, instead of people of immortalist character, integrity and real IQ as in immortalist capitalism or immortalism. Today, researchers (higher IQ than MDs) who discover the best nonsurgical method get paid 9 times less than the pigs who cut people left and right when not needed at all via free education that ends the MD aristocracy via the NPs prevention systems such as the monthly Immortality Park Free Biomarker & related scans based on new particle physics that damage 1 trillion times less the body vs CT. ☺

The more you read the nutrition chapter (10$ vs 100K) and see how doctors want patients to go thru useless avoidable procedures or even surgeries costing well over 100K, the more you realize the current healthcare system is ultra corrupt, as the people who become doctors are not the best, but simply the greediest among higher IQ people, since you can become millionaire ultra fast as a doctor, a mere 4 years. The medical school entrance exams are pathetic, since they don't test any knowledge of nutrition and ethics. Additionally, Big Pharma dictates medical school curriculum and MDs receive perks for prescribing expensive pills, surgeries or treatments, tests, etc that are completely useless. For example, 100K Americans have coronary bypass surgery that's not needed with an ultra low fat vegan diet and once a decade ultrasound scan or, if any odd events, a CT angiogram. Obesity rates went up 3 times last 50 years. Diet is the cause of many vision and dry eye issues, so a 3$/month vitamin A solved a problem that 5000$/month medications would not solve (AJO 2022;26:101471). Likewise, the interactions of vitamins and minerals are so complex, that if you raise one vitamin (A or D, etc) or mineral, you can create deficiency in other nutrients (D or A) and you need to make a change that won't create a damage bigger than the benefit: for example, unsoaked legumes, grains lower mineral uptake and screw vitamin D, etc status. Sadly, most MDs are clueless because food labels don't include the basic nutrients in food.ods, and nobody creates a food table, so then no MD knows what patients eat or take as pills, making it impossible for any MD to evaluate total daily intake of 30 important nutrients, to correctly diagnose anything, since many symptoms are nutrient imbalance or deficiency, not a disease. The status quo only enriches Big Pharma and Big Food, who're not listing the levels of basic ingredients concentrations in most food or medicines. The argument that it's a trade secret is bogus, since nobody will live to 500 if we're ignorant. 70% of medical diagnoses in USA are wrong to some (10-100%) degree (meaning AI would easily detect that a symptom could be caused by 3 nutritional causes, with slight variations), MDs are brainwashed grad students forced to work in a system of total insanity, because MDs can't correctly diagnose when the same symptoms can be caused by 500 nutritional issues stemming from food table lack of nutrient labels that would alert patients "your diet is low in vitamin A".

Cat filif IQ TV personalities with 4 lb makeup, eyelashes, hair dyes tell you "eat kale" and then all thrombotic people drop dead next day, clot formed as they ate no other blood thinning things and vitamin K in kale caused a clot to form. Another "fruit fly" IQ☺ 4 feet long eyelash lady with dyed hair, the "celebrity chef or MD who teaches deadly cooking methods" told people to "eat healthy avocados" then the naive audience eats avocados, some die next day as blood was too thick, clot formed, pulmonary embolism, etc... The gnat IQ MDs making general statements like "eat more of this", that's only true in certain people who don't have issues that could kill them if eating that, is a perfect illustration of how US medical care works: totally clueless MDs kill people. They say "garlic is good", then a guy who takes blood thinners eats garlic and dies of hemorrhagic stroke next day. But rest assured, patient safety is last, makeup, long eyelashes, fake hair dye, loaded with heavy metals and carcinogenic pigments are way more important, that liner, mascara to cause dry eye and cause optometrists to waste time is key, the stuff we need now. After all, the 40x min fed wage has tons of money to go to beauty salon, where peasants waste their life washing the hair of insanely lazy people, dying their hair, etc. ☺☺☺

So, what is one of a trillion solutions to this 1st century methodology and healthcare ethos? First, honesty, MDs realize how little they know about the gigantic effect of diet and supplements on symptoms and disease, so gigantic that all would be cured if you gave patients the right molecules and they would also live to 4000 disease free. Second, MDs would actually be required to read the ND report, the Nutrition Doctor Report created by a nutritionist (who deals with sleep too, making sure the offline sleep monitor is informing them of sleep problems (lack of deep sleep) that could prevent healing or cause strokes or death via hypotension etc) with AI help (AI runs this food table where patient enters his daily food intake in order to receive universal free healthcare), before the MD does anything, if the ND suggestions didn't fix the issue. It's the epitome of ignorance to have ND make less $/year than MD, when with correct nutrition we can postpone all diseases by 2500 years as the ET (Eternist) discussion above mentioned. The ND will analyze all the AI reports the person got via email recently when they took this or that nutrient and added it to the food table, telling him high a can lower D and cause issues, or vice versa, high D depletes A and affect eyes, etc… If one takes high A, one needs high D, but no MD ever checks these things carefully, much less even order the blood panel of all important vitamins. They can't, since all chemists do is make tattoo ink and makeup, mascara, liner ink, they can't make these tests 30 times cheaper. Or they design useless fancy paints for cars, etc and other things guys don't really need. 99% of MDs are clueless about nutrition (some naturopaths know a little more, so they make endless youtubes, but these are not like a paper with 400 references, they're more like a case report or study of 10-500 people suggests "this stuff works in some, hey why don't you all try it, you may die tomorrow (since it won't work for some due to stuff he didn't even think about in his youtube), like the chef on TV suggesting kale", there is so much to know, that one needs 10 years to get an ND of the new type vs 8 for an MD. An ND can also become an Eternist later by taking extra degree, since one part of Eternist majors is using nutrition to increase lifespan by 3 to 50 times, or even more. The body is like a space rocket, one wrong wiring or one wrong fuel or mistake and it all explodes in mid air, same for life, it ends fast when we have a fruit fly IQ society, when greed runs everything. Everyone chases money, so MD salaries 15-80 times the min wage, so it causes everyone wanting to become an MD, who obviously acts as sales guy for Big Pharma... pills, procedures, tests (30K each, big money for hospital), surgeries, while nutrition would have solved it all for 400 times less money to the taxpayer. When the gangster runs healthcare, disaster is the result. The reality is that, due to education, almost all people are essentially like ants and chicks, they run wild towards the rice or sugar grains, like flies go to feces, except in capitalism the rice is money or high paying jobs. The mob behavior takes over, all thinking/ethics shuts down, everyone goes into hyper drive in the eternal chase for highest paying job. Nothing matters, except better pay. How do we solve this mental illness that affects 99% of humans to some degree, some 200 times more than others? This mental illness causes physical illness, as the rush for money destroys their health and family. A paper bill is more important than living to 90000? They kill, steal, cheat, lie for a better paying job, or to maintain an image, an ego, etc. One solution is more equal pay, as the Immortality Credit Score section explains in 50 pages, and the most far reaching, impossible to trick and cheat, and complex ethics, MRI, tone tests for ET, NP, ND, MD, RN that weed out the greedy liars, clowns or even "cannibals". ☺☺☺

Another solution is TV-radio reform. We create AI based "Mitochondrial Immortality TV", "Genes to Quintuple Lifespan", "Eye TV" (everything about ocular health, how to keep eyes healthy, etc), "Eternal Ethics", "Ear TV or radio", "Teeth", "Brain", "Heart", "Liver", "Legs", "Diabetes", "Immortality Biophysics", "Eterni Foods TV", each dealing with all the latest research for health related to those organs and concepts. Initially, the lack of content means most slots are lectures on these topics from the centralized education tone course set of 20 quadrillion combos, to double human IQ and turn the human today into the most eterni tone sky high super genius IQ of tomorrow. Present TV-radio stations are centers of IQ destruction that turn all into a serial killer supporting bombings etc: they never have any gov official say the sentence above May all live to a trillion years in Eternal Universal Peace & Bliss. Your food table template you enter pills/foods/weights ingested and it sends an AI message, "this raises D_3 deficiency risk by higher A without D intake, so be careful with colds and flu and etc... from low D", or "5000 IU D_3 causes A to fall, causing dry eyes. X got dry eyes when he started taking extra D_3, since A fell, he fixed one deficiency to cause another. Watch for drier eyes or take extra A, 900-2000 IU/day."

Capitalism encourages suggesting unnecessary treatments, to increase hospital profits, as this video on Chinese corruption explains exactly what happens in the USA too. Plain capitalism also incentivizes the greediest to "become doctors" to get a good salary, sometimes obviously 5-10 times more than the average salary. This created an ultra corrupt healthcare system, where people live shorter even if US spends double per capita versus other nations. Not only that, but many doctors are gangsters who intentionally hurt their patients to make $$$. We need to consider allowing only the people with the highest Immortality Credit Score to be MD. The irony is CEOs of hospital systems can make 26 million a year, like Eugene Woods, a black guy, while millions of blacks suffer from contaminated moldy carpets etc... and buildings with mold going thru gaps. He makes 26 million for a nonprofit, imagine that... nonprofit is supposed to help the people, not loot them of 25.8 million. Funny how Oprah can't create a real company to replace carpets of blacks with LVP, she is busy with making billions, like billionaires are. Love the music of CEO today.com..meet-the-health-care-ceo-chasing-his-musical? Change you can believe in: black lives don't matter for many black CEOs, they are after all like the rest of races: 25.8 million is 1711 times the federal minimum wage. Way to go. Any black CEO lobby for 1 universal pay? Vote Democrats, the Republicans in disguise? CEO pay rose 4 fold in some systems in the last 10 years. They fire people to provide lower quality care via mergers and waste 20 million on CEO pay, his pay was 5.4 initially. 20 million that could have replaced all carpets (hold 2000 times more microbes than linoleum, tile, LVP) that transmit viruses, replace air filters more often, to limit disease spread, do a real merger of all hospital systems into 1 company to prevent waste and too much admin so we get 10 times more 'doctors', with 90% being not MDs, but ETs, NPs, NDs, RNs, the 5 categories above. This is criminality, we need 11 companies in USA, zero unemployment, efficient use of resources, proper procedures, like MDs order nail or whatever tests for fungal organisms, without first having a procedure to ask if they used antifungals daily last 1-3 months to determine if PCR will come as false negative. They act as if they don't care. Money wasted. MDs commit murder in disguise, paid 10 times more than chemists who're fired if they don't follow a protocol, but doctors never fired or fined 10K even. Did any Jewish MD lobby for universal pay and real ethics? No, they love to be aristocrats, while "calling for reform", fake reform, i.e. "hospital CEOs making less, but MDs still making 10-80x min wage".

In the US, Jews, who're 2% of population, made up a 14% of MDs in 2005 (17% now?), for evident reasons. The US system is geared towards aristocratic subjugation of the population by lawyers (many of them Jews), MDs, CEOs, etc. It's not geared towards 500 year lifespan for all. Muslims, 1.2% of USA, make up 5-10% of MDs. Imagine when Torah or Islam meet intentional harm. In 2018, the US had 6% Asians, 17% of MDs were Asian, so the Asians too look for $$$. The Jewish example of being 9-65% of certain jobs/awards is detailed in CP 2014;3(8):1-7. See a video on Jewish (covertly or openly Jewish) MDs inserting stuff in gentile body and teeth to later kill the gentiles, think twice what you do in an office, with what MD. This is accomplished via the criminal educational system that favors the criminal type of Jews and other bandits who give themselves millions in salary or 10 times the average, 30 times the minimum, 5 times that of generals. Since MDs can hold power to destroy the population, it's a national security danger to have so many people who obviously love Torah, Islam more than democracy in charge of US health. Immortalism would change that. Perhaps, until 0 violent crime and World Peace are real, it is 1 billion times safer for the USA to limit % of MDs to % in population, i.e. only 2% of doctors being Jewish, etc. Israeli newspaper claims Jewish doctors were snatching kidneys out of gentile kids without their consent. What if under anesthesia as they do some 'surgery' somewhere for something, they steal a kidney, nobody would actually know you only have 1 left if you're in deep sleep or don't see what they do? Jews crowded medical schools forever in USA, look at the old debates about 20% of medical school students being Jewish. When the rats charge 1500-5000$ for a 2 hour IPL procedure (30 min consult, 20 min each session after that, 110 min total), what is there to not like? Sit in an office and move a device around one's face with instruments made by an Israeli company? Read the torture section to understand how spies who know what medical history or something that ails you can then use that area to focus their lasers to cause organ damage or symptoms, in order to create plausible deniability and blame it on family history, to achieve a slow murder via attacks of those areas: to let any healthcare system, company that is not local, but foreign, to handle patient data is to subject your nation to blackmail by evil serial killers who will use the knowledge to annex or 100% enslave your citizens, don't be fooled. Wolves and killers come in sheep clothing, as pastors, missionaries and noble doctors, etc, as we saw in Spanish Conquest of America, who killed 90% of all natives dead as a result of the discovery of the continents. You know, they hide behind a white coat or religious garb, but the intent often is the same: harm and exploitation, or, outright murder. Religion and medicine can be used to wipe out entire nations, covertly. Medical info is powerful in the wrong hands of Mossad killers. The same % limits need to apply for politicians, CIA-FBI, military, police. You know, the 'bad type of Jews' are very clever: they use, like Muslims, left wing and equality parties and ideas to get equal rights for themselves when they're very weak and just invaded a nation, like USA in 1890, and later on, Equality is thrown out of the window. It's no longer about equal Jew-gentile pay, no longer about equal representation of % for doctors, professors, politicians, lawyers, judges no longer about gentiles being 98% of media, movies and music as population is, but the Jew being 50% of it, to destroy and subjugate the gentile, with violent movies, depraved hooligan music and the like. The ideals of Equality have been completely destroyed by the clever 'bad type of Jew', who only uses them to make himself rise at the top at the expense of the society he destroys…: check out how genocidal MDs use false billing codes to commit homicide like violent crimes of minor mutilation, for which they deserve death penalty or at least lifetime labor in mining, canal building and roads jobs.

practice, while talking about it and playing victim forever, as explained in the credit score and communism (happily kill torture millions of gentiles) sections. In any decent society or immortalism, real EQUALITY EXISTS, there is one language, not 200, so the 'bad type of Jew' can't instigate one group against the other. The bad type of Jew's double standards are so evident in 2025 USA and 1933 Germany, with half the doctors in Berlin being Jewish☺☺☺ and 80% of US males being circumcised, while none are in nations 5-7 years living longer than us, as Jews run the US healthcare system with that same genocidal cruelty of the 1500 Torah quotes. The Jews thrive when people don't realize they took over the host nation. Torah, Bible, Quran are texts that glorify genocides, covert violence of MDs on patients, not texts worthy of 'scripture status' in democracies. Any doctor found, after patient complained at reviews.gov to be intentionally harming patients would have license revoked for life and receive lifetime labor, as for all violent crimes, since it is a covert violent crime (they pretend to be low IQ). We see many ruthless bandits, serial sadistic killers of animals who love to hunt, drink blood, do no research, keep no real records, make no efforts as the centralized system would allow every patient to be part of the national 1 million automatic studies, and inflict pain on animals on their 200 acre hunting property with the stolen money (undeserved high pay) obtained by maintaining the rather pathetic healthcare/nutrition system. Such abomination is only possible when banditry rules supreme and ethics is nowhere on TV, not even 5 hours daily, let alone 20 as in the state of emergency. The sad part is that the idea and methods of the 'bad type of Jew' have been copied by pretty much every 'bad type of ethnicity X' person out there working for dozens of spy agencies. Thus, one needs to consider, what is a truly democratic society of equal rights, duties, rewards? It starts with education, centralized, efficient, needing far fewer vampire teachers making 100K for repeating the same crap in a horrible tone that the 1000 times better tone and content video would explain 100 times better via the central education.gov classes. Money corrupts everything, even education, so now US students are way behind other nations. Why is US so backwards? No research or critical thinking, just low IQ teachers repeating same crap, reinventing the wheel instead of researchers. With centralization, you need 10 times fewer teachers and can retrain 90% of teachers for research, some helped by students grade 3 to 12. In many areas, people become teachers to get a $$$ job, so greedy ones hover around it, like MDs. Centralization means equality, the end of Jewish hooliganism, Bible-Torah genocide Supremacy.

☺☺☺The Centralization of MEDICAL CARE VIA STRONG SPECIALIZATION☺☺☺

If you got dry eyes, you may know that Cliradex (covered in the 392 page eye chapter), or tea tree oil 4-terpineol 2% is used as a foam to kill (takes 40 min at least) Demodex mites that live inside the meibomian gland that prevents eye dryness. Demodex "folliculorum can be found in the lash follicle, whereas (Demodex) D. brevis burrows deep into sebaceous glands and meibomian glands looking for sebum which is thought to be their main food source (see video,

75% of those over 45 have these mites, they can cause even baldness)". To understand the immortalist reform detailed below, we will use Cliradex waste of time as an example of medical ☺abysmal IQ☺. Cliradex foam sprayed on the closed eyelids irritates eyelid skin, so it is sadly washed right away (as your optometrist will suggest you do), so there is no time to leave it on 80-120 minutes at 2% foam Cliradex foam spray concentration to kill mites. It doesn't work, even 50% tea tree oil fails, as a paper explains, so many use 1% ivermectin ointment. The strangest thing is the doctors don't even test to see if you have Demodex or bacterial blepharitis, which can be confused. Then they prescribe IPL to make money and xdemvy drops you don't need if it's staphylococal blepharitis. They can look similar: Demodex blepharitis pic or Demodex pic 2 vs bacterial blepharitis pic. This complete banditry, lack of standard operating procedures, lack of national optometry standards to take the dandruff analyze it to determine how much of the blepharitis is Demodex (0%?, 90%), how much is bacterial (what type of bacteria, then what eyedrops need be used to target that strain?), lack of National Optometry University and of 50 steps for every diagnosis of which of the 5 types of blepharitis one has, etc, is due to the anti-science, anti-proof ostrich IQ Republican party. Our kids' filif IQ is drastically lowered by fraudulent "religion" schools and become puppy IQ puppets with no critical thinking skills. But some mites will remain after using shower/sink water to wash it off, it will kill some surface Demodex but not the guys deep into the skin that imaging methods may miss in our stone age. The problem we have today is a lot of products have very poor testing and evidence that it does what it claims to do: sure, in a Petri dish Demodex dies in 40 minutes and people wash it off in 2 minutes, but inside the meibomian gland these eyelid foam cleaners will have 0 effect and that's the main issue. Think about the low IQ of many eye doctors, their Review of Optometry and Review of Ophtalmology articles are like those of a 6th grade student, orders of magnitude less scientific than a Biochemistry paper of 70 pages on PubMed. Everything is so watered down, simplified, without any real references as to how the 'Geniuses' came up with the idea of washing Cliradex right after application if it takes so long to kill Demodex, with too few references to support their suggestions and take into account the complexity of Demodex burred deep inside the meibomian gland. Not to mention, optometrists don't usually take before and after pictures of Demodex (in vivo confocal microscopy IVCM & high-definition optical coherence tomography HD-OCT), or even of all 4 eyelids meibomian gland 940 nm image, for meibography, before and after each IPL treatment set or other procedures, don't take videos of every expression, like cops are required to have cameras on, etc. It's like you talk to a 6th grader science class average student, not a scientist interested in before and after, and being required by Universal Immortality Inc to follow a set protocol 100 times more advanced than any today, so advanced, with so much data, people don't need to even make so many studies anymore, as the data is there for all developers of the best Demodex or dry eye new procedures. The waste that happens with decentralized medicine is enormous. The data is used by Universal

Immortality researchers to provide the best free healthcare for all. With the Eterni tone Reform of Education, the end of all Universities as they are, the creation of National Zinc Quantum Chemistry and Field of Study named Universities, we move into the same pattern in the Universal Immortality Inc, in universal healthcare. You go to OD, and he notices you got a Demodex issue and if his clinic is not specialized in that, he sends you there. Jack of all trades master of none universities and clinics, eye/ear/diabetes etc practice are a disaster. You can't have "Dry Eye Clinic", but "Demodex Dry Eye Clinic" or "Meibomian Gland Probing Dry Eye Clinic", "IPL Dry Eye Clinic", "Initial Evaluation Dry Eye Clinic" (Demodex pics, gland pics, general eye test, ocular pressure, vision test, glasses), who sends people to other clinics, everyone needs to be a specialist early on in medical school. We have physicists working on space propulsion, not molecular biologists, so they do a good specialized job. Why can't we use the same logic in medical clinics, hospitals? You see today how these genocidal aristocrats living in palaces steal trillions from the state and everyone, create certain software packages and products that everyone could have, yet most can't have them since they're "more expensive". So, as a thank you for their genocidal thefts and subjugation and poisoning the planet, they also withhold the free software and hardware (often the same cost to mass produce, since at scale, costs come down a lot, one big efficient factory) obtained by the sweat of slaves living 20 years shorter due to their genocidal foods, housing and medical procedures. The audacity of these gangsters (creating communism to kill 130 million by destroying Russia and China empires not to help the working class, etc and 2 world wars to get rich and become the sole superpower for their clan of aristocrats) is huge. What most forget is Nazism and communism (a trick to seduce masses), the 250 million dead of last century was created with planning, support, money from USA, French, British Empires. To hide covert control, they criticize regimes. Like US created Al Qaeda, then it fights US, created communism that fought US: same thing, plan went wrong, aristocrats failed to dupe 2 billion people as they duped Americans. The genocidal aristocrats don't give a crap about 7th generation Americans, let alone about foreigners or immigrants to USA. Go to a stingy optometrist, see what complete trash of an image the meibography yields on software packages due to his avarice and trying to save 9K while milking all of 2K, unable to tell what is going on.

Time to Clean up the Pharma Industry/Medical Profession, fire the Evil 'Bastard'☺☺☺types:

Many MDs behave like Patricia Holloway (this may be an AI fake story, with video generated by AI, to illustrate what happens in real life at times), meaning they don't pay attention or care about poor people, which ends up killing the poor patients. Sometimes, the courts and hospitals take no action, so angry relatives of the killed end up shooting dead the MDs, as the real or fake AI video shows. This happens due to a society that has no ethics, where the greediest folks with no ethics training hours weekly till age 25, become MDs. Just as we got violent crime 1 billion times higher than it should be, we get medical malpractice 1 billion times higher than it should be. So, we need ethics training for all existing doctors and of course, counseling for MDs, and fewer hours, so they sleep very well daily and thus make fewer mistakes due to poor sleep. Max surgery hours ought to be limited to 30 with huge breaks, naps, rest in between. On all optometrist webpages, you see links to very expensive treatments costing 1500 (and a yearly tune up of 500$ after that) or whatever, but never to the moisture retaining glasses 20$, or moisture retaining night mask 1$, or the ultra cheap saline drops (no drug store has it in USA, since Big Pharma can't build Rancho Santa Fe etc Palaces if they sell eyedrops costing 20 times less, they live off the suffering of the masses) that provide 0 side effects and instant relief vs the deadly artificial tears and ointments. Everything is about stealing the patient's money, managing disease (not so much curing it, since then Big Pharma can sell nothing, sales drop 100 fold). USA will have only one National Police Department (like Singapore has only 1 and 100 times lower homicide rate) with 2,000,000 times better procedures and efficiency, so we eliminate crime by secure borders (10 trillion drones, 0 illegal crossings, instant death for any crossing, end the bringing of slaves by Big Aristocrats when with efficiency and no parasitic aristocrats we need 0 illegals), like Poland began shooting the KGB paid hordes, and inspecting every single mail package, product, box, container, etc and every single letter with dogs, since USA got 90 million dogs we can use to free USA of drugs and planet of gangs in no time, as American Spirit of Helping Fellow Humans Becomes the Focus and Ethics Runs Supreme on TV 10 hours daily during the State of Emergency to Rid USA of violent crime and Corruption. The future of the world depends on 0 violent crime in USA, as without 0 violent crime we can't prevent the 2 capsule scenario of 8 billion dead and USA can bring it fast within its secure borders. A few dead migrants is nothing versus 8 billion dead. This Unified Cop Department, 1 million times stronger than any cop department worldwide, rightfully named Immortality Nurturing Agency, helping all live forever (in some future century) in this and maybe even another world if their soul is not destroyed by sin, will destroy all gangs and reduce violent crime 1 billion fold, so we can finally dedicate cop resources to go after the Biggest Criminals of All, that we have never gone after for 20 million years, the Aristocrats, The Doctors, the Pharma CEOs, Managers of every company in USA. Likewise, we have only One Optometry Department in the Whole USA and Planet one day.

Some MDs illegally used their sperm to inseminate ladies looking for donor sperm, causing diseases in those people who believed their father was someone else. This is evil and grounds for firing an MD, since genetic risk is unknown when you randomly mix sperm with eggs, can cause debilitating diseases. Today, the aristocratic brain doctors making 600-980K give very bad toxic anti depressant pills to kids of 40K a year parents, to fix what the Republican Party created: a country without centralized gentle tone ethics education daily since birth for kids and since preconception for parents who need classes to obtain parent license. In the absence of proper education and good nutrition, some kids become a little more hyper and then MDs prescribe useless pills that make kids worse than before, like this kid who ended up killing a 64 year old in a church parking lot, where Republican God angels didn't protect the guy being killed. These pills don't address the issue: lack of education, they just make money for MDs and Big Pharma. ☺☺☺ To prevent this and many frauds, 9000 cameras exist in any hospital, every doctor visit is recorded, not just the whole room and every word said and movement by doctor, but also instrumentation, procedure done on any body area, and patient gets this video so he can find errors and keep doctors accountable via reviews.gov, the universal one and only review site in USA for all employees of all companies, and one day, the only left, the 11 companies. Currently, the Genocidal Big Pharma Mafia, ruled by Infernal Palace Dwelling Monsters, has bought 95% of doctors (well, has brainwashed them via setting curriculum for medical schools for example, with most doctors not even realizing they're robots of the system) and they commit Trillion Dollar Fraud against the American people, killing everyone 25 years before their natural time if they had real unity born of universal altruism and efficiency. The Infernal Big Food Mafia Dwelling In Golden palaces destroys the American people, who then are destroyed further by the Big Pharma Mafia and Big Doctor Mafia. The Mafia of the doctors and Big Pharma has no accountability, they're above the Law, the Emperors of Hell, cops are required to have cameras but these greedy doctors and nurses (most become that to make 200-980K a year not because they're smartest or most ethical people; you can be very low IQ and pass medical school entrance exam and get a medical doctor degree) are not, there is no centralized way to follow 50 steps for a procedure according to a 20000 page PDF that was agreed upon at the National University for Intense Pulse Light or whatever the Procedure might be for Dry Eyes or whatever one does, no way to record in the Universal National Database, One and Only for that Test covering all Optometrists or Specialists performing that Procedure as we're One Nation, All Data belonging to the American People, not Genocidal Psychos Living in palaces in Rancho Santa Fe, California, Texas, Florida gated cities and estates, no way to record the 10 tests/steps/data taken after a procedure to prove that it was done correctly and that it worked, besides the video of it all, that makes it impossible for any nurse or doctor to cheat and not do what is required and record they did X, Y and Z but did nothing. For example: you go do some IPL or eyelid tear gland expression, the video of the expression showing the exact amount of meibum coming out of each area expressed, following the safest protocol that all IPL focused clinics will implement, instead of 100 other poor protocols. Before and after IPL, the retina scan is taken to make sure there is no damage to retina, etc, perhaps, just as an example, not that this will be done, since if you protect the eyeball with metal or 100% opaque cornea shield, no risk to retina exists when flashing the light on the eyelid directly. However, with advanced imaging, you can take before and after meibomian gland expression pictures (or at least Meibograph pic as LipiView offers) to prove you extracted 124 or 289 µL of meibum, with 3D pic of all 75 glands in each eye, not hear say like "I did an expression" and the unethical OD did it in 3 minutes, a rushed poor quality one, without antibiotic or forceps, with dirty q-tips that scratch the cornea, 100 times worse than what you can do at home even, after charging $1000 for some IPL session. Without clear data we don't know if he expressed even 1% of what can be expressed. The Universal Optometry Department is in Charge of all Specialized 90 types of Optometry Clinics, each doing 1 Procedure to Perfection. We're One Nation, all Data Belongs to the Entire Nation, it's Used to create 1 million studies daily so all may live to 1 trillion, which is a second in Eternity, God can do this miracle if he did the Jesus miracles too. The Bible says our bodies must become immortal. ☺☺☺

Universal Immortality Inc is in charge of ensuring the health of all, longevity, developing trillion year lifespan technologies, curing, managing all diseases, supervising, centralizing, unifying (like the building corporation) all medical facilities nationwide, providing universal healthcare via maybe 20 monthly plans ($100, 200, 300, 400, etc up to 2000), being the only insurance company, it has 800 types of insurance (40 for each of the 20 price points, if you got diabetes, you opt for the diabetes option that gives more discount for those procedures). It acquires slowly all insurances and retrains everyone, like the building corporation does as hinted at below, builds 1 million biomarker testing, preventive health education locations. This way people who drank alcohol, smoked, etc and made bad choice get to pay for their insurance more, to avoid forcing society to support genocides. If you damage liver/lung by alcohol/smoking, then your insurance rises monthly to the next price point (20 price points globally, simple) until you stop drinking, smoking, plus the Immortality Nurturing Agency sends daily videos on meditation and how to achieve bliss without drinking, which must be watched and quiz taken to avoid monthly increase of insurance by 300, with the option to visit a healing meditation learning center immediately if you can't stop the addiction or pay insurance rise: simply put, your job will be on hold until you quit drinking alcohol bought by friends or others, your life is frozen until you quit furthering genocide of the human species: all stores will deny (for the rest of your life) any alcohol, tobacco, vaping, smoking products since there is the universal ID called Eterni Bank card, recognized by the Eterni Bank, the only Bank. If one can't cope without alcohol etc, one goes to healing center to deaddict 24-7, until one comes out sober and free and ecstatic. Due to high tech neuroscience, all would be free from addiction within 1-2 weeks. The fine for buying alcohol, vaping items for others (banned from buying) to use, when they were notified by the Immortality Nurturing Agency that their family member is an addict who damaged their liver, will be steep, maybe $20000 as it's assisting slow but certain premature death, before one's natural lifespan. Everyone banned from alcohol needs to listen to peaceful music, use appropriate music shared in the classes to understand compassion and how to be happy without alcohol, etc. People who suffer injuries during very selfish sports, will have the insurance increase until they volunteer with volunteer.gov in one of 900 altruistic approved sports linked to the 11 companies and quit their sport, or until 5 years of raised insurance have passed. Every action also affects the Immortality Credit Score, how fast one quits an evil sport, how fast one quits alcohol, vaping, etc. Thus, in immortality capitalism, as mentioned before, sports players can only earn minimum wage max, as they don't volunteer (get certified to safely replace windows or something easy to do as volunteer in 20 minutes or so) to take care of urgent needs: transforming 200 million US houses from crap to civilization: gas stoves emit gasses that kill all, dirty electricity shortens the lives of all, RF gives us endless disease, etc. ☺☺

Why are people often injuring themselves on the job? It's due to the pressure: while others relax and do nothing (sitting all day isn't healthy, shrinks lifespan) physical in their job, dancing wildly in 'music' causing strokes via headbanging in millions who imitate their headbanging (causes strokes), or injure themselves in a rushed 1-4 hour a week 'barbaric' sport, others do physically demanding jobs 50 hours a day damaging their ligaments and bodies. This is due to a criminal system that misallocates physical competent of labor to certain job categories, instead of evenly distributing physical labor so all get to move on the job at least 1 hour daily, and others get a maximum of 30 physical job a week to not break their back, legs or hands, and we get better health outcomes. The silly wild dancing energy or the rapid sports calories could have been used to relieve the pressure on others who work 50 hours a week ultra physically demanding jobs, all listening to soul elevating tones music. Both live shorter due to egoism and the current capitalism model: little empathy, much yelling, like in USSR, other dictator like regimes. It's not healthy to exercise strenuously and cause rapid heart rate leading to strokes, to rush so much (it ages fast, due to cortisol). Extreme exercise shortens lifespan in many studies. An ethical government ensures every job requires a physical task of 10-20 minutes every 2 hours, to give your eyes a break from the computer and exercise long distance vision, to walk every 1-2 hours instead of being glued 4 hours to a screen, to prevent strokes and heart attacks. We need develop a higher cortex brain. Relax, learn to speak in a relaxed way, so war is less likely. Both the selfish sports, 100% idle folks and the over pressured worker suffer injuries that drain America's medical system: everyone rushes, due to egoism, while with some empathy, all are more relaxed and free from suffering, needless injuries. Thus, the immortalists create more empathy, via the new housing system. Immortalists remind all to avoid useless chores: some are washing/detailing their car 50-100 times a year 25 minutes a day (total waste of time, not helping anyone live longer, no credit score rise, no virtue rise) or mowing grass 50 times a year to make noise, damage ears if no earplugs, disturb meditative space and inhale toxic fumes if mower not electric yet. The Health Department becomes Universal Immortality Inc and the health section of the Immortality Nurturing Agency, which supervises all 11 companies, all music, books, etc to ensure Lifespan Maximization, etc. Universal Immortality Inc produces inside of USA, using US ingredients, all medicines we consume, for meeting the 100 times more stringent requirements of the Immortality Nurturing Agency. Due to streamlining, mergers, we can increase RESEARCH, reduce admin again. Every pill, hygiene product (even toilet paper, acne creams, etc) sold in the USA would have written on it Universal Immortality Inc. Eternal Beauty Inc products can only be developed based on plans approved by Universal Immortality Inc health experts, to make sure all cosmetics are safe to use and won't cause health issues. ☺☺☺

In immortalism there are no shareholders (aristoc-rats), since no stock market exists, We the People of Earth own the 11 companies of the Universal Nation on Earth (All nations may join USA to create this Mega Nation), All Nations as One, they're state owned companies belonging to all citizens☺☺☺. Thus no marketing is needed, all is spent on research. The Immortality Nurturing Agency runs free TV ads for the best medicines that 5000 studies have shown to work, ads on the TV-radio stations which are no longer owned by evil aristocrats (pushing slavery of the 99%), but by the state. A video shows how 25 weight loss drugs (+ 9000 other drugs) caused deaths, cancer. Lady explains Big Pharma corruption. The MDs are trained to give prescriptions, to enrich the aristocrats who own Big Pharma. For example some headaches, pain in 100s of areas of the body can be caused by 90+ things or simply atherosclerosis (caused by microwave attacks on that body area or by constricted blood vessel; vessels constrict when it is cold to save energy, so this causes high blood pressure; keep area warm), but often the MD says it's disease X. The Big Pharma makes trillions by poisoning the working class, without any money spent on education to prevent disease, so this can definitely change once these parasites get pretty regular salaries not 40 million. In reality, it could be something way simpler, like poor blood flow to that area (heart rate increases when you exercise, do chores, etc, blood pressure increases and the blood tries to go thru a partially blocked blood vessel, so this pressure there causes the wall to push tissue and cause pain, in any body area (brain, etc), so don't think there are always 50000 new diseases, they can often be 5000 forms of atherosclerosis) due to thermostat being low, the person not taking showers or baths daily to improve circulation and due to sitting in front of the computer for too long, which causes a lack of circulation and the pooling of blood in legs, etc. The MD, who got many gifts from Big Pharma sales rap, will give people lethal pills that damage other areas of the body, not understanding poor blood flow due to atherosclerosis can cause damage to that organ, causing 300 liver diseases or 400 pancreas diseases, all due to high fat, high AGE diet that damaged the insulin cells of the pancreas or other cells of the liver or other cells of the joints that leads to "arthritic pain". Gently hold toes parallel to the ground when doing house chores (buy shoes/slippers that got a flat shoe tip (toe area) if you got some toe injuries and pain exists if shoe is raised), to not lift the sole of the foot while the toes remain on the slipper or floor, keep foot soles firmly on the ground at work, so that the foot-leg joint is at a normal 90 degrees, not 40-80 (feet placed under chair), as that squeezes the nerves and vessels there, causing malnourishment of the toes and feet and inability to fight arthritis etc. Feet issues, nail fungus risk increase if you block blood flow via wrong desk work position, causing cold feet: for 2 million years our legs got optimized for feet to leg angle at 90° and knee angle 90-180° (not 45° for knee causing knee pain and the cold lower leg due to restricted blood flow, and other leg issues, arthritis, etc), so don't change it now 8 hours/day of desk work, don't cross feet either, then go to MD to get 50 useless pills for leg pain that ruin the brain via side effects. You may need aluminum barriers if spies attack the feet. This leg angle is one of 50000 examples of simple things that prevent intake of 90000 pills, due to a medical system created by profiteering psychopaths who look to make $, not cure you. All funds for reviving old animals are removed. We already have farmers spend trillions to control populations of hogs, mice, snakes, insects, big cats that decimate crops/people, the last thing we need is to bring back big animals that will inevitably injure/kill humans, like dinosaurs. The ☺pet IQ folks☺ who want bring back the mammoth need to be sentenced to lifetime labor. Colossal biosciences (trying to bring back huge animals) genocidal company stealing national resources needs to be made illegal. The criminal investors (Hollywood infernals who relish violence and violence scenes of violence against humans, no wonder) who funded this company ought to pay $900 trillion in fines, for inciting people to murder via reviving the Tasmanian tiger known to eat us, like others eating 400 folks/tiger. The first priority of a government is one world, 1 language, 1 currency, 0 violent crime via 11 companies worldwide, 0 wars for a trillion years. It's genocide to waste national resources with such crap when billions of people live in shacks. After that, you can bring maybe something back, but never animals that are bigger than 1 lb that could hurt humans. ☺☺

Please ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ read the reversal of atherosclerotic plaque that can damage 5-20 organs (thereby causing a million diseases and misdiagnoses) and joint/cartilage (arthritis) areas of your body, the reversal of heart disease without bypass surgery to see how thick plaque (see the picture of ATHEROSCLEROSIS blocking 90% of nutrients to one organ, the brain, thereby causing one of 1 million atherosclerosis diseases, ALZHEIMER, MEMORY LOSS, to be SHOCKED) becomes normal by a low fat vegan diet, no fat except some ω3 EPA-DHA☺☺☺, because this blocked blood flow via shrunk artery hole means less nutrients and fewer toxins transported back and it is the slow death of a person. If you're poor, create a cubicle so you pay less for cooling and heating by 2-3 fold, and still have temp always at a comfortable 78°F for maximum cognitive health and stroke-infarct prevention. Simply buy some 20"x30" white foam boards (1.25$ each at dollar tree stores, etc), which you can cover with Bomei 8"x150ft 3.2 mil aluminum tape on one side (white is best, to see the dark ticks, which can kill people via a single bite via Lyme Carditis bacteria from deer ticks) and 8"x435ft clear tape too on top of aluminum to prevent damage and peeling off, to prevent Cell Phone Tower damage to your organs if high in your area, as Microwaves cause Atherosclerosis too) and create a cubicle or smaller area of sorts to heat or cool (in the summer) only one area of a studio or house or room and save lots of money (so you can eat better, but organic kale, since conventional has lethal pesticides that cause Alzheimer, atherosclerosis and asthma), so that you get with humidifier and the silent oil heater (that produces 100 times less toxins of certain types than most popular heaters today) a perfectly comfortable temp of 78 and humidity 55-70% to ensure the best outcome for lungs, eyes and the entire body, so your body doesn't work overtime to heat the body, as that causes enormous needless DNA multiplication, transcription errors, short telomeres, senescence, DNA errors. Cold winter/spring/fall weather, thermostat < 77°F raises blood pressure, heart rate and risk of infarct, stroke, as vessels constrict and heart pumps more to warm us. 100s of papers explain winter hypertension. Likewise, strokes, heart attacks increase in cold weather months, while cognitive deficit, dementia post any vascular event are higher. Russians have poor heating and freezing weather, so they lose via brain strokes, vascular events, and related dementia, etc 12 years versus Canada (lifespan 72 vs 84), itself a nation with pretty cold weather too. We have 9000 *mini*vascular and *micro*vascular events thruout life without even knowing them, we can get 500 white matter silent strokes (that cause dementia) alone). AHA explains stroke-winter links. All studies show that heart disease (one type of atherosclerosis) is the number one killer worldwide. What few realize is that the 2nd killer is other diseases caused by atherosclerosis and wrongly attributed to "aging of liver, pancreas, kidney" when it's atherosclerosis mostly, so 50+% of deaths are due to atherosclerosis or poor diet. Poor diet that causes atherosclerosis also causes cancer, diabetes, asthma, kidney failure. That is why knowing basic things in Chap 11 & Chap 12 can save $1 million. 90 days reading online can save Earth $5 trillion in medical bills. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Sudden weather changes lead to strokes and heart attacks. That's why we need a government of science, so we can create perfect constant weather worldwide, no storms, hurricanes, etc, so all live 20 years longer. On top of that we have a ☺very low IQ☺ government who wastes trillions building facilities for depraved sports, when all these materials, money, energy, time could have been used to make all US homes very well insulated, so we prevent $3 trillion in medical expenses from cold weather strokes, dementia, amputations, heart attacks every decade. How is that for logic? We're not even mentioning the $1.4 trillion we waste yearly in the pursuit of selfish ☺abysmal IQ☺. The Republican Party of Genocide is against green building codes so all freeze to death, literally. The phony private companies create lethal vitamin formulations (see B6), because after a 2-500 people company has no clue versus one with 15 million employees. A Republican Party led government of thieving aristocrats makes an FDA 100 times smaller than it should be, so lethal products are sold as safest amazing cure all formulations.☺☺☺

Today if you need the simplest thing, you need to call the specialists, say optometrist for yearly eye exam if you moved into a new area and don't know doctors etc, and waste 1 hour calling Friday at 5 pm, to see which office has appointment today or tomorrow, because if you google "optometrist near me open now" you get what is open not what has appointments today. Why not have universal insurance and you ask or type in the immortality.gov AI search engine "which optometrist or eye doctor is available to do eye exam or whatever you need NOW (or in x days)" and first available doctor gets a message that you will call and the system calls doctor and put you in touch, plus gives you other doctors on a list of 10, in order of distance from you, if this one doesn't have the services you want at the price you want. Typing "walk in eye exam" or "walk in whatever you want" on google doesn't give true results, those offices aren't walk-in clinics. In 2025 you call only a few doctors in your network and the others waste time waiting for new patients, getting no call, while you call offices that are closed or booked. Everyone wastes time. We need a central immortality.gov that one day all people worldwide, in all nations, can use, as we're one. You waste 2 hours, 1 Saturday morning, 1 Friday evening. The abysmal IQ of the system can't be greater. You have to fill 40000 forms for 40000 doctor offices and reenter same info instead of entering immortality id or SSN (social security number) and having all medical data uploaded with 10 times more info than the custom forms that often lose all info if you click back by accident or to review something. How dare anyone share a form? This immortality.gov will also have a widget to search for pills or treatments for various conditions and tips on longevity and immortality, the physics of trillion year lifespans, etc and how to build Immortality for All with biophysics and 1 trillion other methods. Our goal is not to simply stay healthy or avoid death from a disease tomorrow, but to live in perfect health to the age of 1 billion trillion years. With such goals, the whole discussion changes, the ethics of it all.

In the immortalist system, we move our society from majoring in architecture and web development to majoring in life sciences. The aristocrats who designed this nation have created 2 million contractors who design 2 million house types, requiring an insane amount of architects, so we have no chemists and physicists/engineers, just house designers. Lazy aristocrats needed endless restaurants too, so duplication of everything was enormous. Thus, centralization was to be fought at all costs, sharing forbidden and non-aristocrats mere animals to be worked to death. We need to realize how things work first: today, some of the main USA jobs are fraudsters, genocide promotion via Bible-Quran, marketing pathological liars (conmen on TV saying "this is the best thing that does that, we're the leader in this field, the best company, etc", without any references and 50 studies covering 10 million people or 50000 at least), reselling vampires who charge big fees for lying all day, developing 3rd grader websites for parasitic realtors we don't need via housing.gov 2-4 day house buying-selling, parasitic doctors charging huge fees to build palatial estates (not all doctors are leeches, some did not choose that career to make money), parasitic insurers and Pharma companies, parasitic lawyers doing the same (not all lawyers are vampires, a few did not choose that profession to make money by lying all day), stock traders making 200 million a year selling options, import-export filif bulldog IQ☺☺☺ traders chasing money while allowing inside USA the most lethal, toxic, crappy products imaginable, designing bad products to be made by slaves in China, products that destroy our brains but allow aristocrats to microwave all and spy on the working class. Aware of this cruel reality, we appreciate the start of global reforms for world unification via 11 Infinitely Compassionate Companies via the immortality.gov, the website of the Universal Immortality Inc ☺☺☺, where any MD gets an username of 10-15 letters, sets up immortality.gov/ john.ed.smith webpage, with a web tool, all designed by the doctor or health expert himself using a tool that people of IQ 80 (retards) can use even, as colorful the background as eterni the background music and as colorful the individual letters or words in menus as he wants, as individual and with as many links to 1 million youtubes and pdfs he wrote or found as he wants, without any trampling on individualism and creativity. For after all, we're one family, USA or Eternia if we rename ourselves, and we value Trillion Year Lifespan Life instead of software engineering for the sake of writing code to die at 90. Why major in architecture or web development, if you can major in how to live to 1 million years old? Why be so low IQ? Any doctor is free to ask their kid or patients to design a nicer page if he's busy or use the template that comes so different with a few clicks that all think he's the master develop of web. Why do we need 3 million sites, if one suffices? Should we discover how to live to 5000 or how to design each house differently and website differently, so we have 50 million web developers and 50 million architects and 0 living to 500 specialists? With one efficient system of AI making appointments, and informed decisions about which techniques or hypotheses the doctor, longevity scientist, immortality via biophysics PhD biomarker monitoring for Higher Credit Scores on immortality.gov website subscribes to, WE HAVE 5 MILLION TIMES MORE RESEARCHERS INTO 9 BILLION YEAR LIFESPAN. With AI, we reduce staff 100 fold, increase research 100 fold in some areas by retraining these phone answering lifespan wasting young people, we make appointments based on virtue, Immortality Credit Score, and on the fair work ideal of one doctor works on a set glasses appointments a day everywhere in USA if optician and not one does 5 and others do 100 a day and get the same pay. By proper AI distribution of work, we get perfect pace for all, avoid burnout of some overworked doctors who often commit suicide if a surgeon, and also boredom by others who stress about lack of customers and start making up lies to attract customers or taking risky shortcuts that screw everything up. Many go to doctor once a decade, so if doctors screw then, it's bad, so all doctors deserve some cognitive tests and 8 hours of sleep, making sure they're rested, taking breaks of 1 hour at least every 4 hours and more often as wanted by him or her. We no longer have 2 million realtor websites with housing.gov and 2 million doctor sites with immortality.gov, for all can setup appointments via AI with one system and gives us 500000 new jobs wasted with 0 IQ phone calls of rescheduling and appointments and web development for unintelligent folks who have no sense of national or species unity and just want to "waste eons to design/maintain a unique site" because ☺☺ filif IQ folks ☺☺ need to live paycheck to paycheck by charging astronomical fees for designing and maintaining 4th grader sites for Imperial Palatial Doctors who need 50 assistants to manage the 50 medical billion and appointment setting systems of infinite waste and aristocratic ☺abysmal IQ☺. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

☺☺ For God said "I so much loved the world, all we do is design sites, answer phone calls, invoice templates, medical billing, and reinvent everything, while healthcare innovation and efficiency of regular visits are minimal. Because it is MINE and MY medical billing GOT TO BE different than YOURS, important is how invoices are created, didn't you know what's important in life, it's electronic money or paper money. Sharing is a sin and aristocrats win, since the brainwashing is complete". Since we got reviews.gov all healthcare practitioners are reviewed after visit if patients want, this gives instant raise and subtraction that is adjusted later by the supervising doctor of several doctors who look at patient outcomes, not patient testimonials too, long-term, to decide which doctor does a better job and knows what happens and how to cure something. With this system, there is a checks and balances system for the ultra corrupt doctors who exist and also for the semi corrupt ones that are more frequent, though in the new immortalist system, the incentive to recommend a treatment because you get paid by Pharma or device company is not there, since all are paid within a given range and fraud won't make your income go up 10 times as it can in today's world. The same universal company owns all healthcare enterprises and only the kindest most passionate immortalists will choose and be allowed to be doctors, not ☺filif bulldog IQ folks☺ who did it to get rich or because dad said so. People don't become doctors because they're so gentle tender soft nurturing loving kind, they choose to be a doctor only to make a very secure high income many times, and no other reason AT ALL. Only those with highest immortality credit scores will become doctors. ☺☺☺

Since we have one healthcare system and one universal hospital (like one universal police department with one software for all), every time someone uses the software, it is a 200 times better software than any today. With 90 Windows operating systems, we get 90 fewer programmers for each. Likewise, every hospital uses a software that tells MDs to check 1-5 things, but not all, before doing a blood draw or any procedure, with not enough screens doctors has to (How many mg of biotin via vitamins taken last week total?) type answer for. Nurses or doctors can say "let's do a blood test for this", but it may give false results, as guy used biotin from multivitamin, and walkinlab.com, Lab Corp doctor approved it without a question. All experts in that field, plus 2000 regular doctors and patients with the disease, are asked to give input in the design of the universal software for that disease, and the unified version is created that is 200 times better than all worldwide. That's why we need 1 language & 1 healthcare software, 11 companies, not 33 million: efficiency, longer life for all, a software that is way better for the 'richer' people too. You see, with one company absorbing all companies, the least known product to cure a disease will be subject to a real, the first real study, on that disease, done according to the immortalist guidelines, and discover sometimes that the least popular remedy nobody knows about, except 1% of doctors, is 10 times more effective than the main remedy used now, due to historical inertia and 4000 times more sales people. In 1950s, doctors told people smoking is harmless and they smoked packs daily, like today doctors tell us many foods with high AGEs are good for us. This merger allows truth to come to the surface and us to figure out who knows and who pretends and makes lethal junk, by testing/diagnosing products, protocols, instruments. The way medicine works is whoever is the greatest bamboozler and receives most sales money from Pharma can influence entire groups of thousands of doctors and that becomes clinical practice. But truth is not social skills. Truth is what triples lifespan. Youtube allows people to brainwash others that this and that works, but we need real science with 15 million participants, not just hear say from 4000 people comical☺ 3rd grader IQ studies. 12.4. explains how all healthcare facilities need to be upgraded for B7, warm shower checks.

4.5.6.6. Eternal Peace Inc: buying, unifying all defense companies into one, to signal to the world what America stands for: ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months. Nonviolent eterni positive brand names (ban all negative names such as predator, reaper, vampire) and such can remain, just reduce redundancy, admin staff, to increase innovation via goals. We need to turn animalism into immortalism, dissolve the world infamous War Dept into Eternium and FBI-CIA into the Immortality Nurturing Agency instead. We defend the human right to trillion year lifespan, Eternal Life for all, end of all violence, wars immediately, we defend the vibe of Immortality for All. This company promotes nonkilling weapons, the need to end killing in wars.

4.5.6.7. Eternal Utility Inc buys all utilities in the USA and brings EFFICIENCY LIKE NEVER BEFORE, in tune with the 11 and only companies in the Immortalist USA. Criminal CEOs of utilities make millions, 7 of them made 20-37 million (36.6 million is 2427 times the min fed wage), while 350 million people are being poisoned by dirty electricity, just as billions were poisoned by coal smog, and fossil fuel smog, acid rain, heavy metals, etc, all for the profits of pigs while scientists died broke, like Tesla who told those monster Wall St financiers that we can power it all with solar and wireless power, free electricity for all. The rich didn't care about lethal smog, as the enslaved 99% lived in ghettos, in LA, etc, while they lived in far away estates with amazing air filtering. Thru genocide, they make billions☺☺☺☺, the essence of capitalism: fake the elections with the CIA and then loot everyone, at gun point they will be robbed, they own the courts too. Millions live in the filthiest places that haven't been renovated properly in 100 years and rot with 9,000 times the microbe safety level due to carpets, but no, trillions are spent in palaces, renovations for the Robbers of All Americans. Instead of adding 10 million lifespan years to USA, we subtract 10, so much for being "a pro-life Republican". ☺☺☺ The Logic of Capitalism. ☺☺☺ Eternal Utility Inc will make internet routers free from cancer causing WiFi or any microwaves but using LiFi, visible and infrared, that replace all cell towers and reduce microwave pollution 1 billion fold in USA and fines all phone/hardware companies 500 trillion for killing billions early via WiFi, Bluetooth, cellular. The terrorist Google, Apple, Microsoft, Dell, HP have turned every US city into a concentration camp of microwave extermination via WiFi devices, cell towers, phones, so aristocrats can easily enslave all USA. Nobody needs GHz to bring 0 violent crime/war in 5 years. It manufactures all Home Depot items, all phones/computers/electronics in accordance with The beautiful☺ National Unified Biocompatible New Electricity Guidelines, The National Unified Microwave Guidelines (minimum wireless devices for protect brains and bodies of those under 25), keyboards, with amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ decibel listing for every house appliance and computer, silent mice created only. Eliminate redundant jobs, procedures, policies, bring on the RESEARCH, end the depravity of lawmakers, presidents who always approve one law, then undo it (this evil role playing where Republican Presidents undo all Democrats passed and viceversa 40 times in kindergarten IQ executive orders, that divide the nation/planet, as if you can't have one and only policy, The National Unified Policy, Regulation, Law not 2 or 20000 laws for 20000 cities or 50 for 50 states dissolved) and approve the opposite to PRETEND they're doing "work for the people" (when in fact they work for the GENOCIDAL Aristocrats dividing the global working class into 2 camps: left and right to create endless riots, violence and war: left says max salary is 5,000x minimum, right says 50,000 the min wage), have The National Unified POLICY to get all single family homes off grid as much as possible to be ready for supervolcano eruption that brings the end of the grid, or for all out nuclear war. When you buy a house using housing.gov, the government knows the new owner and turns on the utilities automatically in your name after it renovated the house if needed, after the required inspection by the Immortality Building Inc at each ownership change. So you don't need to waste time with calling various companies, you're simply informed they turned on everything or when you close escrow on the website, you click if you want only electric, as you will replace water heater from gas to electric and gas stove to electric stove, by calling Immortality Building Inc to do it for you, or government requiring any house change of ownership to upgrade all houses to 100% electric and solar panels. Ban all gas appliances from all renovated (after ownership change all go to electric) houses to prevent deaths by explosion. We need HUMAN SPECIES RESILIENCE. End the policies of Big Utility against solar, allow the people to be free of the greed and natural gas poisons, in the land of the FREE. This company is born by fines of 900 trillion to Apple, Google, HP, Dell, Huawei, all phone/tablet, WiFi companies for producing microwave radiation in phones, tablets, WiFi routers, laptops that causes 5000 diseases to occur 50 years sooner, plus all utilities for endangering national security by brain and organ damage via fluoridated water, by killing all slowly via disease with dirty electricity from phone/laptop/EV chargers, electric wiring, dirt cheap unsafe solar inverters, etc. That way, the palace dwelling genocidal aristocrats can improve products, provide warning labels, etc and design better wiring, instead of playing golf and "500 trillion $ thief". ☺☺☺

To save time for meditating and being happy, for researching longevity, for taking care of your health, if You need utilities on, there is nothing to do, since at any house sale there is always one utility and automatic transfer to new owner, they charge new owner checking account (the main one at the central immortality.gov or eternity.i with all your loans and data, the Universal Immortality ID*)* for all 3 (gas, water, electric), the account on file for your social security number. If you want no GAS or to turn it back on if you had it off, ANYWHERE in America, YOU CALL TOLL FREE: 800-TURN-GAS if you elected to not let it be automatically turned on when you moved in, because you planned to use electric pressure cooker to save the planet, inhale fewer toxins from gas stoves. You need electric, you call 800-ELECTRI if you opted NO when moving in, due to the house having a power bank, solar panels, able to usually support being off-grid. 800-WATER-ON for water and 800-ON-THE-NET for internet, 800-PHONE-ON for cellular service, with choices such as Samsung, Apple, etc, and Eternia or Eterni, a new carrier for those who want phones with 10 times less radio frequency, such as always used in airplane more unless calling someone, so all Internet is mostly wired desktop at home to protect the brain, fetus, etc. No longer 500 phone numbers for 500 utilities to recall, 500 phone prompts, etc, one super high quality tone for water, gas, electric, etc. Actually, we can make special numbers that are 3-5 digits, not 10: GAS, WATER, ELEC, NET, PHONE, HOUSE (sell, buy, clean), DOC (health issue). The games are over, Freedom is Born, freedom to focus on what matters: nonkilling, 0 torture, Eternal Universal Peace, 0 spanking (causes aggression & anti-social behavior), 0 mutilation, 0 jails, gentleness, grace, trillion year lifespan, 0 violent/crime of any sort, good quality sleep, health, good tone, quiet cities, longevity, bliss for all. Reduce business, law, political science, drama, humanities majors 50 fold, increase biochem, biophysics, materials sci & eng, quantum physics, chemical, particle physics, physical chemistry, subatomic physics, nuclear physics/ chemistry, biomedical sci & eng, chemical synthesis, ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ maintenance majors 50 fold.☺☺☺ RESEARCH to live to a trillion, not fraud, deceiving others with marketing and cheap tricks.

Eternal Utility Inc tests the environment, the soil, water, air for RF, EF, MF, contaminants, NI, so the Environmental Immortality Division buys all environmental labs, etc and unifies the 500 water testing labs for example into one lab, to prevent having 500 SOPs for the same EPA method, etc. The best method and SOP is chosen or created out of the best and everyone uses the best, not just one company. Buys all environmental remediation companies, and they form the one unit of Utility or Building Inc, to have one vertically integrated company, that does all testing and everything. This means remediation of 8 billion people's brains, bodies partially destroyed by the phone companies, cell phone towers, WiFi devices too. Thru Eternal Utility Inc and Immortality Building Inc cooperation, all rooms in all houses, hotels, condos, businesses come prebuilt (before anyone moves in) with ethernet wired Internet and later fiber optic. The wireless radiation limit will become 10000 times lower in public spaces at least: see how you can lower wireless 1 million times by yourself for only a few dollars. This ensures the safety of all people, the sanity of Americans for eons to come. The LiFi cameras replace WiFi ones that emit deadly 2.4 GHz. The spy agencies want to destroy everyone who wears WiFi connected clothing, giving them cancer, just so they can record video easier. No wonder billionaires like Facebook one, want this type of stuff, so they can remotely control everyone. It buys all phone, internet provider companies and creates new Immortality for All, World Peace in 3 months, ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ required apps and priorities, national standards for any phone imported to USA, radiation emissions, etc. It provides wired Internet to all, for true longevity and brain health, develops new LiFi to end WiFi genocides. It then fires many people to create LIFE GIVING, NOT LIFE DESTROYING DEVICES... to enable them to get new 1-2 year fast track degrees and work on New Health Devices that all can use at least once a day (no need to wear it), to monitor arterial plaque and 100 biomarkers. Phones are used as spy tools and torture tools, they're the expression of our hooligan global police state of eternal genocide and terror. All trillions go into them and not one dollar to create a healthy device to tell you real things. Even the watches are used for spying and experimenting on guinea pigs. Since the government builds everything, they test everything, to ensure the electrical wiring, electrical lines, solar inverters, etc don't cause dirty electricity, RF (phone makers, towers subject to far more stringent rules, pushing for LiFi). Eternal Utility Inc will manufacture safe full spectrum light bulbs, because popular bulbs emit too much dirty electricity. The 12$ 2700K full spectrumGE 10.5 Watt is bad, since Stetzer GS units increase 25 with each bulb plugged in. Full spectrum LEDs in most USA in winter are good, due to the lack of sun and the fact many LEDs have mostly a huge blue light peak. GE also sells 5000K daylight bulbs, but they also cause cancer via dirty electricity, so the Eternal Utility Inc will require all electronic products to indicate microsurge GS units (1 GS = 24V/s), the RF produced at 1", 10", 30", not just audio noise (decibels). Norb bulbs (4.3 Amazon rating) have CRI of only 96, instead of 97 for GE, and they flicker more than GE per some reports (see the graphs of full vs normal bulbs). Norb doesn't even have an exact full spectrum graph on their website.

The existence of many carriers using the same network, for example Verizon, Sprint or T-mobile network, is due to the fact aristocrats need exorbitant profits and salaries, and they charge high prices, so then something like astound.com mobile gives same service at 2-3 times lower price, using the same T-mobile network, they even give 1 year free. Then when people switch, the ☺ pet IQ folks☺ at customer service give you a transfer pin to port your number/phone to a 3 times cheaper carrier, then it doesn't work because, they let you know after the transfer when you call them, your phone can't be unlocked before 6 or 12 months, because they want to extort you of as much $ as possible FIRST, they don't even allow you to pay a small fee to unlock the phone (cheap trash that costs just twice the monthly plan), as if we're not ONE Country. Companies place aristocrats first, our national wellbeing last. Then you waste 2 hours trying to find a new safe unlocked phone, to order it via Amazon, install SIM in it, call new company again to go over install all over again, etc. Instead of longevity, good sleep, taking care of ourselves, we waste endless time with useless stuff due to the greed of a few CEOs. This is felony theft by Aristocracy from the American people and these criminals living in huge estates never face prosecution, only slaves go to jail. This is subjugation of the poor by the military-industrial complex that defends these aristocratic leeches, who engage in massive theft from the poor to finance their estates and 2300 acres palaces, or even 2130 ones, or Larry Ellison got 98% of Lanai or 85000 acres. Why do we need 150 mobile carriers in USA? For the same reason we got 2 million realtors, to be exact: maximum vampirism. We need 150 aristocratic families and associates vassal families to run every network and milk the average loser or slave. With housing.gov we eliminate 2 million realtors and 2 million realty websites, efficiency like never before. With 0 TAXES, we eliminate 100000 tax preparer jobs. Finally, we get some 2 million RESEARCH jobs, instead of tax and realtor jobs. With Eternity Mobile Network we replace all existing ones and people have the best service anyone could ever dream of, absent today. The poorest get the same amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ network as the richest. ☺☺☺

To end millennia of parasitism, we need to give everyone a basic phone and phone service, a smartphone that has the least radiation of any made today, so all have a cheap 10$/month service, for emergency, unlimited text/calls/data, until you connect to the way safer wired Internet that is also included for free, without a need to call to switch address, as when you buy house phone, internet, electric, phone are switched in your name or are by default free as all are working, with nobody being unemployed. All cars would come with basic GPS navigation that produces 5000 times less radiation than using a phone cellular data (most people forget to turn on airplane mode once they downloaded the directions, GPS will still work), just like phones do in GPS mode when airplane mode is on. This ensures the poor can't be put at higher risk of car crashes by having to stare at a tiny phone lying somewhere and can briefly gaze at the console, without having to pay to subscribe to Onstar or other manufacturer connectivity options that introduce endless extras that increase radiation 500 fold on top of minimal GPS that is present in your phone too. All cars ought to allow playing mop3s on a flash or SD card, to avoid having to pay for streaming music, just like Nissan Leaf instantly plays mp3s on a flash drive you insert. All houses would come with wired Internet for safety and without WiFi router, as WiFi causes cancer, Alzheimer, healthcare costs of $500 trillion, beside birth defects and etc that future generations will fix. Those who're suicidal, can certainly get WiFi router, but their Immortality Credit Score is lower as evidence is clear, you're destroying the human quantum field due to laziness, you're not a surgeon or etc who might need a little WiFi for some device during surgery or something. The redundant existence of 100-150 phone carriers ensures no safe smartphone exists (as admin jobs far outpace RESEARCH), only predators trying to rip everyone off without any regard for human life, DNA damage. The bastards have exterminated so many millions (middle ages, 19th century, etc), killing 5 million 50 years early and 5 billion 2 years early via cell phones and WiFi ubiquitous use is just another day for them.☺☺☺

Talking of efficiency, speed, centralization: check out Wuhan, centralization turns villages into huge cities with 1.2 million students and 92 universities, ready to discover how to live to 900. How can ☺filif roundworm IQ Europeans☺ fighting about religion or language compete with 1.2 million students in a city? EU got 50000 students in arts nonsense in big cities. In Chengdu (2024 GDP $320 billion), new mega research centers are born, while EU and 5 eyes network nations fight among themselves, instead of making one 1 billion people nation made of USA-Canada-Australia-UK-EU, with English only as language for maximum efficiency, able to innovate 500 times more, due to 11 companies only. In the US, EU ☺pet IQ folks☺ in government promote donkey IQ sports and gambling, lotteries and violent 0 IQ lyrics music concerts that destroy the ethical fabric of society. Central planning birthed the largest building in the world and huge cities, subway in record time, 5 years what took America 50. Unless we centralize, we may become as different from the Chinese, as monkeys are from us. EU forgets that, so they promote their glorious chimp music and languages. Kindly read the language section. Only a self-sufficient civilization, free of any imports, can bring true ethics of nontorture, 0 violent crime, Eternal Universal Peace in the world. When you need nothing from others, you don't need to compromise, you simply refuse dealings with any nation that tortures. When you have simplicity, efficiency and self-sufficiency, you're able to free the world. The real danger is you got 33 million companies, but no self-sufficiency, so your imports are full of poisons and disguised weapons in electronic devices that torture people. Thus, self-sufficiency becomes important, because you don't want your citizens to become robots, sick/dead from Chinese/other products.

The Amnesty International, a front for the CIA global disinformation war to make US rivals look bad and USA look democratic, reports some cruel torture of some guy, while conveniently ignoring the equivalent torture USA does on millions of its citizens that the Amnesty InterCIAnational or CIA controlled media never reports. If you listen to some of the more recent Western style pop, rock, heavy metal, rap Chinese music and watch the depravity of the Chinese society which spends so much on useless events and luxury goods by the rich, while others live on 30 cents a day, or in very bad conditions, you realize the level of corruption of the fake communist party in China which is as communist as I'm a wolf myself: watch the video. Prisoners peel garlic until their nails fall off and then have to use their mouth, for 15 hours a day, and reportedly, holiday decorations are often made in prisons in 14-16h/day shifts 7 days a week, with prison officials making millions of dollars while inmates get 1$/month in a feudal style fake communism. If you go to Xinhua channel of the government, you see endless useless activities, like painting walls with sugar, honey and milk, while others starve in cave like dwellings underground or live in unfinished buildings (100000 contractors, many go bankrupt and leave unfinished buildings, people spent life savings to buy the condo and now are homeless, living in unfinished apartment, due to lack of Immortality Building Inc, a central company for all of China) without utilities never shown on TV or main youtube channels, others live as homeless under bridges, be extorted by corrupt local officials, or doctors do street massages to make money, protest for unpaid wages, etc, top 1% parasites own 90% of wealth, while the 99% own 10% of wealth, or are victims of harsh torture and abuse via long restrictions even after uselessly sitting in jails to peel garlic 14 hours daily. ☺☺☺☺☺

You see endless dilapidated buildings destroyed or damaged (mold, etc) by yearly floods on other channels just like in Southeast or Midwest USA, while Xinhua promotes endless useless, low IQ or even violent martial arts or other festivals, traditions, and events. Sadly, China has no policy to not damage the human quantum field, like immortalists who're against wrestling and other similar sports, so China built an arena for wrestling in Senegal, which encourages the lower aggressive nature of humans to pollute the human quantum field, like with all martial arts and UFC Donald Trump promotes to destroy America's image in the world and to take us into the energy of cannibal chimps who worship sports instead of kindness, sharing, cooperation and innovation that comes from the liberation of Americans from the yoke of the vampires who sucked us dry for centuries. Immortalists view martial arts as violent and an expression of primate cannibalism, backward society, obsessed with cruelty, macho values and violence, pain. We all need to ban wrestling sports, and martial arts, if we want to be called human. The Chinese government is more interested in wasting millions of dollars with endless rather macho music and fire shooting, etc, shouting events (like the typical garbage in USA events, most Protestant churches, 99% of USA concerts, etc) than in creating an eterni gentle tender soft Tao Te Ching like civilization where every citizen is like the man of Tao, infinitely kind, infinitely gentle, tender, soft, etc. It's ironic they claim to be way more peaceful than USA. The false sense of pride in the past Chinese dynasties of endless violence, no different than the psychopathic dynasties of Europe with Inquisition, is anti-eterni and a redirection of the human quantum field towards past violent energies, recreating the past, not the peaceful future. See the complete disaster of China's copying the US model: homeless on the streets, just like US. A 'communist' country that became 100% feudal capitalism, while pretending to be fair and communist. ☺☺☺

Under the total mismanagement☺☺☺ by those ruling America and China, 2 people are often unemployed for 4 years, depressed, while a third one works 80 hours/week until he dies early of exhaustion at age 35. In an immortalist society, everyone is employed, so that same 80 hours work is evenly distributed among those 3 people, so each works 27 hours a week when less work is available and has constant pay, and can go home to relax or work a little extra at one of the other 10 companies of the 11 that is busier at the time of the year. With central planning, compassion, fairness, gentleness, humanity and kindness towards all can emerge, while with 33 million companies only chaos, callousness, cruelty, homelessness, and fraud can occur, as no common ethics policies, standard operating procedures, etc exist. We see the frauds on TV showing endless good news in endless countries, ignoring that millions of Americans (or others in other nations) are unemployed doing nothing and 25 million act busy and waste time at work for 40-80% of the time, while 50 million work themselves to death. This blatant disregard for others, this total lack of national family ethics and sense of compassion and caring is a result of ruthless capitalism who invents all these complex systems of unemployment and crap, when 11 companies or max 20 is all we need. The guy who works 60 a week would want lower pay and only 40, but no such position is easy to find, so he's stuck, dies early, while others are depressed for ultra low pay and not finding a job and losing their house. Both lose due to a government of criminals who places aristocrat's looting of the nation above everything else. The news is irrelevant, some ☺abysmal IQ☺ aristocrat bought a depraved sports team to stupefy and drastically lower the average IQ of the zombified slaves watching a ball move and shouting like Hitler, the news don't talk about half the houses having 200 issues that demand instant fixing, with no Immortality Building Inc to fix them, and the food having 3 million problems with all low IQ folks starting a food company. Their phony economic theories are cruelty institutionalized: the stress of foreclosure, losing home is huge so all they do is just get even sicker due to stress, the whole nation is sick, stressed, mean and regresses, taking down the aristocratic leeches too, who steal all money and fly overseas when it all collapses. The aristocratic vampires, the murderous capitalists who work millions to early death, steal trillions from the state and pay themselves 50000 times more than the average slave, don't care, they own the government, set up fake elections and laugh as the poor die. Some of the mini-aristocrats are so low IQ, they fail to realize if we had way fewer companies the stress would be much lower, everyone would work less, even the so called "paycheck to paycheck" living 2 person company owners would work less, live 20 years longer, as stress and lack of good sleep, malnutrition are the main drivers for living to 80 instead of 120. All the hard core brainwashed anti-China enthusiasts, who forget China is anything but communism, fail to realize China is a carbon copy of failed USA, the same cruel heartless society of USA: ruthless individualism, chaotic decentralization, 0 cooperation, everyone for themselves, without any mercy, compassion, kindness for fellow co-nationals. Watch the evolution of ethics as capitalism and everyone for themselves became China's rule, with people fighting over cardboard and plastic bottles. This is like USA with endless fights over black Friday discounted products that leave people with severe injuries, in the "$$ is God society". Starbucks occupied by aunties too. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

All jokes aside☺☺☺, China dominates many critical sectors that could enable them to build world's most formidable war machine that would conquer the entire world. If capitalist ethics and the desire for world power meet, WW3 is sure. Especially, when you see American military ethics in action with their evil black Friday event, to cause endless stampedes and what not, like Halloween grotesque body parts plastic simulations sold, etc. You can see the demonic logic of the aristocrats: give people a small discount on a Friday, instead of real housing.gov houses for all, 100% home ownership, 3 day house sale, purchase, 0 taxes, free public transport, free basic medical insurance, 0 unemployment, etc, they give slaves endless fights, and even show it on TV to make it normal and spread it to more nations, as more ☺pet IQ governments☺ adopt this depraved black Friday tradition to create the false illusion of getting a deal, when they get nothing but slavery. The rich are such bastards, all they do is program the masses to worship money and do anything for $, to rush, to go like soulless mobs to fight and overcrowd stores, spread germs and cause traffic jams, in an act of crime creation done on purpose by the aristocrat thugs spreading such traditions. A civilized nation would ban such grotesque things like black Friday, they would have prices eternal and changed only when the product contribution to living to a trillion years old changes its ratio vs the CPI, based on the latest research, meaning the consumer price index is eternally constant and the average expenses for living are constant, as are wages, unless wages are adjusted for those contributing more or doing more dangerous jobs. No inflation, one bank, not 50000 as today, when bandits rule the planet. Let's free the planet from aristocratic bandits.☺☺☺

Why does Xinhua spend so much time with useless ego-boosting past glorification, when we could end all torture in Chinese prisons and high RF in Chinese phones and WiFi devices? Or end these widespread fights over food, where people grab more than they can eat only to discard it later making a mess around? This is more of an old generation from Mao's time habit. Isn't the end of torture, violent crime and war the very goal of life, so all workers of the communist international can enjoy a life free from war, torture and beatings at the hands of Chinese and other regimes? What about these violent aggressive pranks at weddings that are not punished with lifetime labor, $1 million given to wedding couple or at least 2 years community service, as they're evidently violent crimes against all ethics of gentleness kindness and tenderness? Check out the Hitler like tone of the Chinese bride family asking the groom to drink the foot wash water or give the bride family 600K, yelling like a Nazi guard, this is China folks, perhaps you understand why the Chinese boats ram the Philippines boats who travel in their own economic zone, much closer to Philippines than China. Aggression on steroids, and also, Uzbek Muslims values at a wedding. We need a total 180 degree turn towards peace in every nation, not just USA. What we see is swords and military style energies that will only fuel China's downfall in the long-run, after the current rise. They obsess with the past, the horrific emperors and their reign of terror, instead of the world of the future of no torture, no death penalty, no jails, only healing oases for anyone, 1 out of 1 billion who commits violent crimes. Check out the Chinese wedding that tie brides to telephone poles, and it seems the Chinese leadership has totally lost the Way of Tao Te Ching. It's like USA all over again, where selfishness rules supreme, people engage in endless useless festivals, sports, etc while 200 million live in houses in serious need of cleaning, repairs and upgrade or lifting by 8 feet or 5 ft to prevent flood damage, that is 60% of people in USA. The torture is happening, as clearly evident from 1. the depravity of sending fentanyl or other precursors to Mexico and 2. Western style music depravity, 3. odd PLA tone which contradicts the vibe of Eternia, tone of Eternia, 4. the aggressive attacks in South China sea against boats of many nations, etc, 5. copying the American depravity and the torture by the hooligans running the USA perfectly, they copy everything US does and many videos online like this one from Germany or Australia, or 5 punishment system of ancient China or foot binding (obsession with beauty via extreme pain and torture of all women) or USA stories of Falun, death by 1000 cuts (reminding us of the European Inquisition torture), endless useless needless cruelty by the emperors who often executed 9000 concoubines when the emperor died, torture that is totally anti-eterni (torture is banned in all immortalist societies, but not in most nations in 2024). Check out some Chinese emperors' actions. This means all electronic Chinese equipment could be used to torture and enslave Americans in a covert war of revenge for USA messing in "China's waters" near Taiwan, etc. While China has progressed, there were obviously many issues last 30 years that many heard of with food scandals, etc, which indicate issues with quality and ethics of imported products outside electronics and why we need to centralize and stop imports, just as we banned Huawei products used to spy on countries using their routers and Internet stuff. There are always issues in any nation (not sure if any videos on youtube are staged to make China look bad, though no evidence really exists, since all these videos can be created outside of China even using paid Asians who're not even Chinese, and most accounts are just stories) that are buried under the carpet, due to the fact that no communism or real immortalist super centralization actually exists☺☺☺☺, but a semi-centralist socialist capitalism that doesn't fully take care of all citizens, with corruption of officials (live in nice estates, as billionaires, while others live on 30 cents a day), like in all nations and a strong lack of gentle tender softness and immortalist ethics among cops, etc, like in most nations. China is not communist at all, they're a little more overtly centralized USA style nation, almost identical to US in every way, except for the censoring of immoral content being stronger and less federalism. China is now like USA, so everyone chases profits (exploding mooncakes), at the expense of health, as you see in endless youtubes about sewage used for food, etc. This is due to the total chaos of decentralization of capitalism (fake eggs), where longevity/health are secondary to profit. If you eat processed foods, don't think USA is free from crazy things, it's just less reported by USA. Mooncakes are toxic due to the very processing of eggs, even when prepared the normal way, not by a faking machine. After these videos you realize we do need to stop imports in 2040 and to focus on RESEARCH, so we can centralize testing better our own foods, car RF, etc and imports. Without self-sufficiency and ending all imports of electronics in the USA, there is no chance for any freedom to ever emerge as now anything that plugs in can be turned into a spy and weapon. Watch the endless scams and fraud US capitalism copied in China leads to: street fights over territory to sell junk low tech products, etc. Just like in the lawless USA with endless gangs, fraudulent marketing, etc. A perfect copy. All these are preventable with reduction of companies from 33 million to 11 or 100, with each product having more researchers optimize it, leading to fewer products of way higher quality and no such fights as they're punished with lifetime labor or even death penalty. ☺☺☺

Eternal Utility Inc will take care of our air quality and noise pollution by buying all mowing companies, firing 50-80% of people and hiring new grads (or existing employees get 1 year degree, fast training program) to design new products while banning in 5 years most products sold today which are trash making 20 times the noise they should, not to mention all need to be electric (no more gas mowers in USA) and generate no dirty electricity. Every product sold in USA has a decibel rating if any moving part exists and noise above 20 dB is made, every fridge, etc. This will save people endless trips, returns, etc of loud mini fridges unsuitable for a bedroom. Today's cordless battery push mowers can reach as low as 56 dB, almost as quiet as 55 dB manual ones, so buy those. 90% of people have too much belly fat and 67% are overweight even, due to bad sleep, obsession with mowing grass weekly and not taking of HEALTH AND QUALITY SLEEP FIRST. Obesity is enhanced by interrupted naps due to noisy gas/electric wired mowers. We benefit from 0 dirty electricity SILENT manual (55 dB usually) lawn mowers to lose belly fat: $70+ on Amazon, choose one with bags that has a higher rating, on Amazon, like this 1895 USA company (not a 4 year old Chinese company) 4.3 star 144$ 14" that comes with sharpening kit for some sizes or order it separately, cheap ones with no bag and 3.3-3.9 ratings frustrate many. The manual one takes same human energy to push as the powered ones, since it is way lighter. The cordless have less dirty electricity than corded ear destroying 85-90 dB electric mowers. Some exercise for every home owner (everyone owns a home, no longer will we have aristocrats owning 40 homes and using slaves to mow grass and harass the enslaved tenants, everyone can buy/sell house in 3 days), so sedentary today, is much healthier and kinder than destroying one immigrant's eyes, ears with 40h/week mowing, as he wears no eye protection, not even a face mask sometimes. The reason many landscaping companies exist is because of the pathological selfishness of our society: since a huge number of aristocrats own 2-50 properties, companies employing slaves are needed to mow lawns of 50 houses, so using quiet lifespan enhancing 55 dB mowers is not ultra PROFITABLE, as those batteries need to be changed too much, reducing profits by 5%, a big no no. Hence, these 2-8 people companies buy the people killing, people deafening mowers with gasoline or electric cords, and Amazon doesn't even tell you a cordless one is much quieter, healthier, much less destructive to blood vessels, internal organs as that quieter sound or infrasound doesn't disturb cellular homeostasis. America's immortalist future government can stop the holocaust of humanity by aristocrats via single family housing for all, where all cherish being at home in their quiet neighborhood, made so by the Quiet Cities Laws. Did you know Big Business damages the ozone layer with thousands of Starlink, China etc satellites that create aluminum oxide ozone destroyer on reentry?

Immortal Souls, please wake up from the trance, have more compassion, look at these landscaping galley slaves,☺☺☺ whose damaged eyes, ears entrain by quantum entanglement your own very eyes and ears to get sicker, you're destroying the quantum field in the merciless cruelty style of slave owning George Washington. Having mercy for slaves, you mow your own grass, quietly, neighbors are happier, your universal gentle tender soft nurturing loving kindness, the well-wishing very polite behavior (of not shortening someone's lifespan by ruining their sleep, of not inflicting psychological pain on others by waking them from nap, meditation, sleep) comes back to you since manual mowers create 500 times less dust that ruins your lungs/eyes, the quantum field evolves past anger, you lose belly fat that makes you short lived, WIN-WIN. In 2023, only very few battery lawn mower brands are somewhat quiet, most tech is savage, like the design of our society. Gently kindly educate immigrants centrally, help them design a quiet mower, don't kill/blind them slowly as that damages your DNA due to quantum entanglement of all humans: we're resonating as one. Let the softest most motherly love for all beings, like a mom loving her only baby, prevail on Earth. ☺☺☺Gently kindly☺☺☺ recall verses 8-40 of Immortalist Anthem, the essence of spirituality. Lovingly recall that noise can kill, most lawn mower noises shorten lifespan, so be kind because all returns to you. Tenderly wear earphones with calming music, while using a quiet mower, so that your emotions remain even, perfect, serene, not messed by traffic. War starts with emotion. If you have no desire to mow, due to an exhausting physical 40h/week job, use artificial turf or drought resistant plants that need 4 times/year trimming using the world's quietest landscaping tools (manual/electric) designed by world famous Eternal Utility Inc☺☺☺. This amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ company also buys all vacuum and cleaning equipment, to ensure all such devices make maximum 60 dB, with more robots to be used while you're out of the room to avoid acoustic damage via infrasound to your internal organs. All see how destructive mowers, gas/diesel cars and normal vacuums are. To increase its utility or usefulness, Eternal Utility Inc accepts items you want to sell to others or donate (as with Goodwill in old times), and they give you an instant deposit on your Eterni Bank account (known via your ID or credit card), they will do the selling for you, to save your time.

4.5.6.8. Eternal Beauty Inc creates the Eternal Inner Virtuous Beauty of Immortality for All, encourages (later, in 1-2 years, bans 100%) all to stop using evil tanning beds (which cause 3 times the cancer of sunlight tan), evil nose/ear rings/piercings that become fatal infections or lead to amputations (no different than terror groups and organized beheadings by Mexican cartels, piercings shops are weapons of mass destruction, terror and psychosis (mutilation, like this tribe) that have no place in the USA & NATO), evil mascara while millions of Americans pull all teeth out in free clinics because of high price of dental care and because "US got too many female beauty salons and too few dentists, doctors" (selfish bastards on TV and etc wear endless useless colorful eyelashes, makeup etc not needed at all, while others can't see or chew, pulling all teeth out: it's called "making yourself look ugly (long eyelashes, unnatural colors that poison eyes, skin, drinking water supplies by these companies making these poisons) so others are toothless and crash while driving due to zero or outdated prescription), evil nail polish (toxic chemicals that poison bodies, cruelly give debilitating birth defects to offspring and prevent daily pic of nails to measure health status to optimize eterni foods, frequent nail/hair analysis to optimize health), evil hair dye*/styling that causes* brain damage thru heavy metal poisoning (dyes block frequent hair analysis needed to become a shapeshifting Immortal who can change hair color naturally, when needed due to visits to alien planets and posing as local to avoid fear, to spread the Gospel of Immortalism), evil online beauty filters that deceive everyone, evil leg/etc hair shaving, evil vanity plastic surgery (see before and after, one of 20000 cases, unless face was deformed by some severe accident, plastic surgery is genocide: see more damaged faces), evil hair wigs (not just Orthodox Jewish female wigs, but everyone), evil breast augmentation or reduction, evil liners evil excessive makeup (OKs skin color under eye makeup only to help nourish that thin skin for dark circles if proven safe for eyelids tear lipid glands*),* evil tattoos that cause blindness, infections, etc, evil parabens and other additives, evil heels that cause MD visits and damage to all leg joints (heels fail on flat floor (20 sec video) and can cause lifelong kneecap damage and pain if concrete, missing a step is 20 times more likely, for high narrow heels (1 cm^2 has to hit step instead of 80), which can cause injuries to kids if mom falls, heels shift center of gravity forward making falls easier), endless treatments, etc. Let's be honest, a woman who looks 35 and is 4000 years old, wiser than all humans combined, without any beauty salon products, makeup, heels, just natural, is 1 trillion times hotter than all cow IQ women of today wearing endless piercings, makeup etc. Ladies let's face it, you're dumber than a cow☺☺☺ (who lives only 4 times shorter than a human) versus this wise woman who is 4000 year old, due to her eating the eterni foods powders that enabled her to live 50 times longer as a queen bee can. Let the powders of Eterni Foods be that which which you adorn your fetus, your mouth (not toxic lipstick), so the fetus grows to live to 4000 years old by you changing the gene expression before birth, the time when it makes all the difference, not toxic makeup, for beauty is being like God, meaning closer to Immortality, longer lived, not placing poisons on your hair or face. What is God like, God is like what we're not, meaning Immortal, the Central Quality of God is Immortality, to be spiritual, like God, is to live for eons: when you live short, you prove to yourself you're as far away from God/ethics as possible due to toxins in cosmetics that shorten your lifespan, worthless pursuits versus creating a baby who lives to 4000 years old and helps you make it to 900 too perhaps by his/her sky high IQ. Let's say aliens from another place look scary to us, but are 5000 times longer lived and 5000 times kinder, why waste time with changing appearance to look perfect, when you could just live longer, bring zero violent crime, World Peace and other more worthy goals? Either face looks scary to an alien anyway, why even bother to change it a little? Nobody cares, most life doesn't care, only a few lowest IQ humans might. An alien living to 90000, like some sea grass or tree, may only view beauty in people who're peaceful, nonviolent and a nonkilling adept.

The universe is not attracted to our outer 'Beauty' since they all look different and humans may look to them as some scary (that cause allergies, sickness) disgusting dust mites look to us. The only Beauty they see is character, nonviolence, they're 99.999999999999999999999999999% of the universe, of God. It's funny how people want to impress the boss, the human boss, but the real boss of our universe is not humans, it's infinite spirit and even beings who're not yet beautiful☺☺ genderless shapeshifting Immortals. Trying to have a plastic surgery when millions are killed is selfish, egomaniac, seen by the universe as evil. Girls who worry about beauty too much need to read again the first book sentence. People who do useless 5-300 (yes some did 300) plastic surgeries shorten their life dramatically, because each surgery is like a big injury that causes the immune system to go to those areas, instead of to the blood vessels, heart, brain, internal organ maintenance. The reality is that humans living 800 times longer than us, as we live 800x longer than fruit flies, view us as fruit flies and they don't really care about our face, just as we don't really care about fruit fly faces. Trying to impress fruit flies (earthlings) is pointless, and many plastic surgeries can make people uglier, since everyone has a different idea of beauty: we see that in many celebrities who look more macho and mean. Many aliens would find your natural look hotter than modified one. We need 10 times more doctors today for them to properly screen, prevent, do a lot of research before diagnosis, more tests, more advanced investigations by a committee of 5 doctors per diagnosis to avoid errors, etc. This is not possible when men demand fancy cars, baboon IQ sports facilities and women demand plastic surgeries and endless beauty salons. We have limited resources: you either "look good and die at 80" or "live to 2000 and look normal". Get real, have some IQ and kindness. Not to mention, most hair dyes out there contain hydrogen peroxide (H_2O_2) which produces superoxide O_2 radicals to damage the melanocytes in the hair follicle that give the hair its color. The more people use these hair dyes, the grayer their hair becomes, it a marketing trick to get people to buy the dye ever more frequently. It's suicide, since you deplete body catalase essential to preventing Alzheimer, atherosclerosis, stroke, heart attacks. One reason hair turns grey is the age decline of catalase production, an enzyme responsible for trapping O_2 radicals. As we age, our gut no longer makes the microbes that produce B vitamins and PABA in large amounts, so without PABA, there are fewer antioxidants to fight free radicals missed by catalase and SOD (the main

O_2 catcher). PABA aids catalase and SOD in neutralizing radicals they miss. If you want a natural return to normal color, take 10-20 mg PABA to help catalase delay aging of the ENTIRE BODY, not just the hair follicle and use some of the oils and antioxidants mentioned in the hair loss section to stimulate circulation to the hair follicle and overall body antioxidant defense strength. PABA is actually already present in many B vitamin complex formulations in 10-100 mg amounts. Avoid taking large amounts of PABA as some suggest to improve joints, since you may damage the kidneys, liver, etc. We don't need PABA per se, if we take many other antioxidant pills. PABA prevents the formation of hardened tissues around joints, hence MDs use it for that, while carefully routinely monitoring the health of the kidney, liver, etc to make sure all is fine. Immortalists would ban hair dyes that have H_2O_2, as that causes infarcts, strokes indirectly.☺☺

This insanity is coming from the marketing of trash products made by small aristocrat companies done by "chimp IQ mom and dad businesses" with zero PhDs vs 1 million PhDs with a real company among the 11, look good obsession of the sales guys, market capitalism that runs on deception like Big Pharma ads promising the world without telling you side effects may kill you like 38000 dead from Vioxx, women try to look good, like lots of deadly products in nice packages: dating only rich guys. The time spent in useless cosmetic procedures for girls who have no pimples or any issue could have been used to add 5 billion lifespan years to humanity, but this is irrelevant to their Galaxy Size Egoism. Devils. Check out another gold digger, big eyelashes, but no concern for humanity's zero wars/violence. Check out a guy meet endless gold diggers who want him to spend money on their beauty and shop for them from day one, ultimate jerks who don't care at all about humanity, but want to use for money benefits (never to date or marry really) "ugly guys" who have a car. Guys, realize girls who spend so much time with their appearance are evil, because an ethical person is so busy helping humanity she has no time for beauty salon, for eyelashes, for makeup, like endless youtube MDs who became doctors only to get rich, like these gold diggers; they're not into you, only stealing your money via "friends with benefits" or fast divorce after marriage. It should never be about money for her, but what she can do to make this book come true. Let her show. In 2023, 6 million cosmetic procedures (1.5 million surgeries and Botox fillers, etc) were done. Some claim it's common even among people like Ivanka Trump who looked perfect before, but allegedly gave in to peer pressure from the people around her (no proof she did it). That's why USA is so backwards and lives so short vs Japan, all women care is about meeting some supposed "ideal" of face shape or boob size, etc, complete insanity, a country going down the sewer due to a government of clowns who allow such crap. Guys are equally ostrich brained, all they chase is race cars and sports events. The women and men then complain no money exists for zero violent crime, but 7 trillion/year exists. Women say they want guys to be honest, but what is this? Isn't this dishonesty? Trying to appear so different than girls actually are? No intelligent being cares about

Earth fruit flies faces. Many US women think they're so smart, but they're very low in IQ, very gullible, just like the guys: CDC says 15% of US women are being poisoned with antidepressants by criminal MDs, all they need is lower ω6 intake, antiinflammatory nutrients (vitamins etc) in diet, less processed fatty foods full of AGEs that damage the brain, less mercury from vaccines (many adults/teens got endless mercury from flu shots early on), fewer vaccines by age 12 months when immunity is almost zero and brain doubles in size causing a lost generation of low IQ depressed citizens, 11 companies in USA (not 33 million) to reduce stress, 222 weeks off for parents when having a baby, serene music to reduce violent crime 1 trillion fold, no pills or makeup. "To destroy a nation, just ruin female eggs with makeup products, hair dye and antidepressants…" the MDs know: antidepressants can "reduce the probability of a woman with a history of depression to conceive" ► AJOG 2016;215(3):314.e1-5. Alcohol depletes brain ω3: "DHA losses in brains..." ► BC 2015;1(1):63-8. Drinkers become depressed due to low brain ω3s: "drinking 7 to 13 drinks/week endorsed significantly more symptoms of depression" ► PPRP 2005;36(2):203-7. 20% of US women are totally destroyed by alcohol, vape stores, tobacco sales, weed, caffeine, makeup products, greedy MDs prescribing poisons instead of abstinence from sex, vaping, alcohol, makeup and other lethal poisons that damage egg DNA. The religion of some MDs is "get an MD to make 15-80 times the federal minimum wage" quite literally, (MDs earn 150-1200K) so the results are catastrophic to say the least. Makeup damaged sperm, eggs will lead to a retarded kid unable to help you when you're old.

Those who want to exterminate Americans and take over USA manipulate TV women to wear as much makeup, liners, mascara, eyelashes, hair dye, jewelry as possible, in order to make women appear concerned with their appearance, when there are people working full time living in cars and issues 1 million times more important than placing poisons in the eyes that double the rate of dry eye in women vs men. This makes women appear full of vanity, deceit (dishonest, trying to appear beautiful to seduce men, bitches), selfishness and stupidity, so as to make more men gay and misogynist, women hating, to increase LGBTQ %, lower birth rate and enable Jewish and British takeover of USA. Any decent gov would ban any visible makeup (only healthiest skin color makeup to help under eye skin would be allowed, meaning invisible that it's makeup on TV), jewelry (incites violent crime: 1000s of attacks to steal necklaces, very dangerous falls), etc until all have decent diet, biomarkers, sleep, health, housing. When a gov of rapists & caterpillar IQ folks runs the "cow IQ" NATO nations, every young person has 50 tattoos, 10 rings on their nose, vagina, belly, face, brow, ear, fingers, etc… and 50 lb of makeup used a decade to poison the water supplies, waste people's time, shorten lifespan by ingesting so many lethal poisons via the skin. Imagine if all beauty salons for "mouse IQ" ladies, stadiums used by rat IQ men, would be free health centers… Botox and many other toxins also shorten our life, so they're incompatible with immortalism and plastic surgeons need to change to other specialty, 99% of them, because this is pure insanity and genocide, not medicine. You need to realize the character of many doctors is not that good, they just wanted to become millionaires quick, which being an MD makes it ultra easy. If you read the food industry section, you'll fully understand the criminality pervading the medical industry, especially beauty procedures, plastic surgery one. Wearing mascara and liners, around the eyelid destroys the tear glands that produce wet eyes and makes all such women uglier (than they would have been without these terrible purple, blue, black lines around the eyelash line) in old age as their eyes become redder and redder due to the destruction the makeup has done to eyelids. The idea that looking like a raccoon with liners around the eyelash line is sexy is false, it's ugly and a sign of ultra low IQ☺☺☺, selfishness, since it destroys one's body, and makes all ladies/guys obsessed with looks instead of World Peace in 3 months and zero violent crime in 3 years. Not only that, but the eggs girls get at birth from mom are maintained and affected by the stuff the girl eats, breathes and puts on her face, eyelids, lips, skin, etc. Birth defects can emerge, low IQ too. Today, we have CGI, filters, AI that can make model pictures for Amazon, etc, so there is no point to have any person use any chemicals to take photo shoots, to make movies or any crap, because the only ethical thing today is zero violent crime and World Peace in 5-10 years. After that we free trillions of $, 50-90% of human energy, to longevity, instead of war/espionage. Your brain sees an average girl who is very kind to you as beautiful and a supermodel who is mean to you as average, because character has a huge influence, and honestly, would you rather have an average 45 year old looking 8000 year girlfriend who has IQ 50000 or a hot 18 year old (lifespan 80 max) supermodel with IQ 65? You would prefer the average look, the longer lived.

Eternal Beauty Inc sets up Dating.gov and buys all cosmetic, Botox, jewelry (diamond ring worth 17000 is now 200, jewelry taxes will rise to 500000% to help us build real healthcare for all, because jewelry items got 5000 times the safe level of nickel, causing cancer, miscarriage, acne, dermatitis, cadmium at 90% or 9000 times above the max 0.01% safe level, deadly asbestos (causes lung cancer and death), lead which aborts or deforms fetuses: even dads exposed to lead can have sick babies; fake jewelry costs 4$, but it's sold for 900$, jewelry stores invite violent crime (see owners being hurt) due to highest return of money per pound of product), (breast implant, penis implant, nose or body piercing, tattoos are outlawed) dating, and personal care (safe shampoo, soap, toothpaste without fluoride and essential oils that kill nitric oxide bacteria and cause infarct, stroke, dementia) companies and requires 1000 safety tests for any product. China exports lead rich products to various nations under the guise of beauty products. Want to have purple hair or live to 5 trillion? In China, all beauty salons are closing, they should do so worldwide, so we get Nutrition Research Centers to learn to live to 9000. What if your makeup, mascara, liner, jewelry contain heavy metals that destroy your eyes, give you dry eyes, styes, vision loss, blindness, glaucoma? Only demons wear jewelry when we still have any violent crime on Earth. Guys/girls don't need to tell anyone they're married by wearing a ring because dating.gov is the only way to meet the co-parent of your child and you can only date people who allow people of certain scores to even contact them. If upon evaluating the dating.gov profile with 900 times more data than today (of course, each person can allow 0.1% or 4% of the data to be shown initially, as they choose, to protect their privacy) after some exchanges, they like you, you can finally meet them in person and then they can show more, maybe 1.2% of their profile (100% would be 400 pages at least). Nobody needs to let anyone know they're married by wearing a ring (which is evil as it takes resources away from solving real issues with gold and silver, engineering, medicine), since all initial contact happens on dating.gov, to ensure zero fake profiles, zero fraud and to reduce rapes to zero since only sex between parent license approved folks is legal defense against "someone claiming you raped them even if it was actually consensual, but then they changed story and claimed it was not". The parent license acts as the protection against "frauds who claim you raped them" and proof via the joint application via dating.gov, that make their profile unsearchable, to become parents by choosing to live together and try procreate a few months or years to see if God really means for them to raise a kid together. Of course, sex for procreation can only occur at ovulation time, so each partner is free to write when that time is to protect themselves, in case the other person is a beast who tries to force them to have sex outside of procreation, which is grounds enough for terminating the coparenting status, cohabitation per immortalist law. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The Immortalist Law is not the demonic mass rape Deifying Jewish Law of the entire Christian-Islamic-Hindu theology, that says women or partners are sex slaves of the other and a Jew or Muslim can rape all nonJews and non-Muslims one wants or Guy can have all tantra he wants with his wife. The Zion Elder ideas of divide and conquer via lack of ethics or via religion is seen perfectly in USA where racism discussions (articles, shows by Jews posing as whites) are referring to white racism against blacks, but never Jewish racism against nonJews, evident in the fact at 2% of population, they're 10-50% in Ivy League schools (instead of free education for all), politics, medicine, academia, law, many money making industries, "education" (brainwashing to be a slave of the Jews), enabling them to cut everyone's penis via brainwashing the low IQ gentiles per their satanic sewer Bible.☺☺☺ These mutilation worshipers pose as atheist Democrats to push far right Orthodox Judaism disguised as atheism: far right means nonJews are inferior. It's different, it respects the Freedom of All Immortals to Evolve to the Immortalist Anthem Stage of the Precipitating Matter Beings by the Transmutation of the zero IQ animal into the beautiful☺☺ telepathic radiant teleporting genderless shimmering shapeshifting Immortals, as the first paragraph of the book also clarifies. This is world's first system of ending Islamic, Hindu, Tantric, Buddhist, Christian, Judaism Rape that was deified by fraudulent clergy for millennia under the rule "the partner is supposed to have sex if the other wants" which is not true and violates the free will of the other, as their only purpose is to raise a child for the Civilization of Immortals, not to be a sex slave of wild beasts. Today, we have wild beast (usually some macho UFC type of bipedal pig or hyena) claiming to be human, coming to Courts and having a "cow IQ" trial in which he demands his wife have sex with him outside of procreation, as if she's his property and some kind of sex slave. Unbelievable. Such animals belong to hell, and they can find themselves a cow to pursue their primal urges or another partner who is as "rat IQ" and animalistic as he is. Dating.gov enables all such low IQ monkeys to find their soulmates and have as much sex as they want until their brains run out of nutrients. This system eliminates sex outside of procreation as anyone else can be sued for rape and receive death penalty for rape. This is such a simple system to avoid all anxiety around dating and to avoid all fraud and make all relationships outside procreation platonic, dedicated to the Universal Immortality for All Goals of 11.1.1. Civilization begins when 0 violent crime exists, wearing metals won't make you civil or beautiful. Eye creams are known to contain phenoxyethanol and other chemical compounds that destroy the eyes tear and lipid glands leading to dry eyes, styes, etc. Intense Pulse Light, IPL, promoted by Israeli company making IPL machines too, used by 1 billion women worldwide, causes approximately 20 billion silent white matter strokes that lead to cognitive decline, Alzheimer, heart attacks, infarct, heart failure, stroke, pulmonary embolism, ER visits, asthma symptoms, diabetes (block pancreas blood flow), liver damage (clots block liver blood flow), kidney failure (no blood flow, blood clot blocks nourishing vessels), lifelong dialysis.

Low IQ folks overdoing beauty routines for perfect skin, hairless armpits, legs, face get 5-25 years shorter lifespan. This section explains the dangers of piercing, jewelry (a $85 billion infernal industry, need tax them 4000% and use that money to bring healing sealed cities that replace all jails to reduce violent crime to 0), hair styling ($60 billion, do it at home, build shelter for long lives for all, be kind, not a vanity guy), breast implants (see how silicone goes into the blood, this is video of the silicone in blood that was filtered out) and endless cosmetic procedures (another 25 billion), makeup, mascara, liners ($8 billion, mascara, liners taxed 200,000%, makeup not natural skin color 400,000%), eyelashes (9,000,000% tax). We also need tattoo tax 9,000,000%, piercing tax for ears or any body part ...1 billion%... to secure America's borders, sniff every letter and package from drugs that cause violent crime: true Inner Beauty, care about others instead about Looking like a Cow with nose Ring and Tag.☺☺☺ Nail stores, hair dying stores, leg shaving, hair styling, hair dyes would be taxed 9,000,000% too for every pack of hair dye and nail session, as nobody needs such ☺abysmal IQ☺, when all humans could disappear in 10 seconds in 5 years, same for leg shaving and other filif worm IQ activities, businesses setup by murderous aristocrats who don't give a crap about those jailed unfairly and killed in wars due to rampant violent crime and aristocratic banditry ruling every industry and local/national government. These hair salons are a depravity of no bounds, when others are homeless, visited only by little adorable naive brainwashed pigs aspiring to become civil humans. ☺☺☺ All males and females can trim hair at home in the mirror or with the help of a friendly neighbor, relative who needs to raise their Immortality Credit Score from that of a hyena to that of a civil human. These filthy hair salons infect visitors with the viruses, bacteria and crap from all people who used the same scissors and combs to get a haircut, because 99.999% of stores don't properly disinfect those trim tools. For male hyenas who don't partake in beauty businesses of demons, taxes need to be raised 9000000x for their race cars, hunting gear, evil sports (many need to be taxed 1 billion%), flipping homes, buying more than 1 house so renters live in horrible places, etc. The male hyenas waste more than female ones on retarded activities, destroying all families, since 60% of millionaires and 87% of billionaires are male.

So, the benefits of hair salons, nail salons, leg shaving salons are the Spread of Death and Disease. It's the epitome of gentle tender soft nurturing☺☺☺ graceful universal loving kindness and RADICAL HONESTY, of desire to move away from one's own beastly chimp nature, from dishonesty, and embrace the Truth that We Age too fast, so we can Spend 1.4 trillion dollars in Chemistry and Physics to Live to 500 instead via Immortality for All Culture of 0 Violent Crime, 0 Wars, Be Healthy INSIDE, not Look Healthy by Chemical Poisons. Doing your nails will cost more than 3 houses. That way all people have single family homes, instead of aristocrats having palaces on 3000 acres and the rest having to go to these ☺abysmal IQ☺ stores to waste $1.4 trillion a year in lowest IQ activities/purchases that have 0 or nothing to do with 0 Violent Crime, World Peace, the beginning of civilization and beauty on Earth. Tons of money wasted while others live like rats and lose 5-45 years of lifespan due to terrible housing (90 million Americans) or lack of, humanity's depravity reached apocalyptic levels of hypocrisy. Ladies, 150 billion a year would build the border wall that allows endless rapists to come in, reduce violent crime 100 fold with the Immortalist Party state of emergency (fight against aristocratic terror via media) policies. Beauty products overspending is only making the genocidal aristocrats richer. The acne section explains safer ways (than Intense Pulse Light) via dietary change, good sleep, meditation to reduce acne breakouts, besides the typical doxycycline you may take 3 weeks. The problem with showing tits, chest, shaved by blood clot, 15 IQ points lowering IPL (laser), forming lasers, is that when you reveal shoulders, legs, chest, etc you attract the more lustful animalistic lowest IQ males towards you and by this quantum entanglement, your information field becomes more filled with garbage/death information, moving you away from life, knowledge, science. UV oxidative stress makes your skin age faster, ruins blood antioxidants and destroys your health.

Trying to be a seductive bitch is therefore inflicting a double whammy on ladies: you will cause the man to reflect back to you your animal self, not your spiritual higher cortex of bliss, you will destroy your own spirit and brain becoming an ever lower IQ lady whose ideas are ignored more and more. You sexually objectify yourself and destroy the human quantum field by not letting humans evolve to asexual reproduction as in the Immortalist Anthem of materializing shapeshifting Immortals, which helps the species to expand to more stars and survive. As a result, the human species diminishes the female role, so ladies undermine their role, not that it matters, since gender will disappear when we become shapeshifting beings. Additionally, heavy metals and toxins in beauty products cause dry eyes, they can't read papers to become smart due to dry eyes, they get silent strokes due to blood clots via lasers, they get lower IQ, and will only hold smart conversation with ☺abysmal IQ☺ animalistic men and end up living shorter. Lustful men want sex, not having kids, so they will destroy you, as sex outside procreation destroys us. Lowering one's IQ means more arguments one can't win with a spouse, more divorce. A little healthy makeup to help dark circle skin is fine as it can help the lower eyelid glands if designed by the future Eternal Beauty Inc to prevent their damage (those glands die first causing dry eyes), if made in USA and healthy nutrients, but not the 900 times more stuff ladies do today that is simply toxic, doesn't protect ocular/body health. The immortalist governments need to fine mascara liner, etc companies at least 1 trillion dollar fee for selling one such makeup kit in their nations (such as the Eternia new nation made of 20 former communist nations), to prevent their countries' destruction by the Imperialist Aristocratic Leeches who enslave every human for their insane profits and palace building.

The Protocols of the Zion Elders explain how Jewish TV ladies reveal their tits (instead of hiding their chest as normal men T-shirts do) to gain trust, make you believe Jewish lies, corrupt men, appear attractive, brainwash men/women that what they say is true, and take people from the brain into the animalistic penis/vagina energy. It's a covert genocidal war against gentiles, like Mass Rape-Genocide Christianity, Islam, Quran, Bible are too. Religion destroys intellect, so Talmudic Jews can take over your nation faster, while lust makes people slaves of carnal desires, easier to manipulate by Jews or enemies. The 'bad type of' Jews brainwashed gentile men to sexually objectify gentile women, to make gentiles low IQ animals, unaware of the bliss from meditation is 1 million times deeper than from sex. Because we need to prevent all humans dying in 10 seconds via the capsule device in 2 years, we need to win the war against the demonic type of Jew, the Talmudic Jew who wants to rape 3 year olds, who wants to sexualize adults and children of gentile nations, who wants to destroy the immortalist culture and greetings by the infernally evil music he co-creates in 200 nations. Kindly question why the filthy rich Jewish Billionaires push LGBTQ and revealing clothes: it's because it destroys the chest skin, the gentile brain, family and nation. Funny how abysmal in IQ some ladies can be: on one hand they want to be treated with respect, to not be used as prostitutes, as sex slaves, to not be a sex doll, a "stupid doll", to not be sexually objectified, yet on the other hand, this is exactly what they promote, the image of a whore trying to seduce guys, to show her tits/chest as much as possible. You see the contradiction: they don't even think about their choices and demand real clothing to protect their skin, they look like mind control "baboon IQ" beings disconnected from reality and their demands for respect, they don't have any self-respect. The chicken IQ of these women fails to realize that the drop in chest temperature causes damage to their entire immune system there, as there is less circulation and body has to work hard to warm that very important (to immunity) area. Bad Jews (not the good ones) want to make more money, start a business to con gentiles, because that way they get all the power so easily by being evil, instead of having no power in an ethical society of equal salaries (or at least, at first, max salary being 4 times the minimum salary) for all, with fines and bonuses weekly for mistakes and good deeds, with ethics credit score giving access to better products and more roles in management. The bad type (religious) of Jew wants to enslave the gentile, the Bible explains it. The Bible is a trap to dupe the gentile, so Jews feverishly promote it, even if it is pure evil, has 1500 violent quotes and condones the genocide of 8 billion gentiles. Lady explains how Jewish Rothschild family allegedly hired 9 year old girls to seduce gentiles (brainwashed to become pedophiles), use the video to blackmail politicians into doing the Zion plan for world conquest. A video shows how supposed Jews (who role play being gentile Republicans) worship the 50 ft tall Molek God or Baal or Satan, the owl in California, offer an effigy or real child Care for human sacrifice. The demonic Bible has many cases of human sacrifice or even ladies eating children. It's useful to connect the dots, because we certainly don't want human sacrificing Jews to rule the world. Little babies (and even guys in bed, lol) don't like when moms have their skin near tits or chest so rough and damaged by UV, so it's essential for ladies to understand that breastfeeding, kid health, depends on the softness of her skin, its health. Rotten carcinogenic skin repels the baby who smells it as burned flesh or death and then you wonder why he breastfeeds less: he hates death. So, don't worship burned babies sacrificed to Satan, and burned chests by the Sun created by cruel nature, but the very Life Eternal of God☻☺☻☻, who is far more than UV. Babies have twice the neurons, smell way better. Ladies, respect yourself, fight against sexual objectification of ladies by misogynist men, who design women clothes and T-shirts to show the chest and tits, and cover it for the sake of kid's health. The bandit type of Jews actually want to make every gentile woman a prostitute who has sex outside of pro-creation, in order to destroy all gentile men.

Many women (especially Australia, where they use more Botox face lift than anywhere in the world per capita) inject themselves with the botulinum nerve toxin that when diffusing will give these ladies paralysis, inability to breathe and death (it's called botulism and many die from it and filif camel IQ☺ ladies put it inside their body). Catholic Ireland town makes most Botox used worldwide, showing the true ethics of Catholic Ireland reminiscent of the Inquisition torture, though the crime is made by AbbVie genocidal North Chicago Big Pharma company via their irish facility. Someone needs to fine AbbVie 5 trillion. Doctor explains in 30 seconds videos how to fix face without Botox: how to get rid of wrinkles, by releasing muscle tension, glass exercise helps you get rid of under eye wrinkles, crows feet, droopy eyelids, nasolabial folds can disappear with a simple exercise, prevent breast cancer by this simple technique, prevent Alzheimer (reduced brain blood flow) and death by stroke or headaches due to muscles shrinking blood vessels by relaxing the neck muscles which makes face look younger too, since neck blockage can lead to stroke, exercise to prevent asymmetric undeformed face, relax brow muscles to get rid of frown lines at the top of the nose. The milder Botox effects are dry eyes which are more common in ladies of course as they're 95% of Botox users and makeup, mascara, fake eyelashes (another dry eye cause) users (PDA 2020;37(6):853-61), blurred vision, diplopia (double vision), strabismus (also called squint, one or two eyes look away from the center, see pics, crossed eyes, nobody likes you anymore, you become uglier than ever, thanks to greed to look "perfect" to deceive self and others), retinal detachment (the stuff that happens in glaucoma before blindness), and even blindness (JCAD 2016;9(12):E5-7). Some say people become less able to read others' emotions, less empathetic. Another video shows other brain effects of botox – nearby brain regions, near the one related to frowning, change and you perceive touch, etc differently. A less known effect is called retrograde axonal transport: the nerve toxin prevents the muscles from contracting and producing wrinkles and frowns for 3-4 months, but what happens is this toxin can migrate slowly in tiny amounts to the brain, destroying the brain itself, making neurons incapable of functioning the normal way, lowering IQ by 10-30 points. 30 points means the difference between average IQ and a retarded person. We got enough gorgeous ☺ bulldog IQ folks☺ in this world, please stop it. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Instead of focusing on ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months, living to 1 billion years old via immortality capitalism, low IQ folks inject toxins that shorten lifespan and make them APPEAR better for a few years. Ladies, nobody cares about your looks if you're ☺abysmal IQ☺, and if your tone is not eterni. A little makeup to hide dark circles or cream to help that thin skin regenerate or nourish that skin if they got any brand that is healthy (most are deadly toxic), seems OK, but to use tons of makeup, mascara, eyeliner, Botox, etc is the epitome of selfishness, when millions die every year of preventable disease, war, violent crime, etc. How will placing makeup above eyes, on upper eyelid (where no dark circles exist, except a few blood vessels in some older people with rosacea), end the wiping out of every building in cities of Ukraine and Syria? Aren't we all one human family? How can people be so cruel to not care about eternal genocides? Each year 90 billion unreported violent crimes occur, yet ladies seem to not give a dime about it. Just get more fake eyelashes. That is a national travesty, a complete trashing of money. Wrinkles and frowns are there to promote honesty (very important in scientific research on how to live to 1 billion years, so we age less naturally without Botox) and to let us know when our skin inside the body may need more elastin generation via healthy nutrition to increase longevity, when we need relax and meditate and smile more, so we frown less. If you hide all wrinkles you don't know if your diet is healthy or not, you're just preventing self from knowing the health of your arteries. Immortalists would prioritize spending national resources on free monitoring of 5000 biomarkers, so we prevent disease 25 years before it can emerge, and shutting down all Botox clinics worldwide. See how Botox makes people less empathetic, perhaps, this fuels conflict and violent crime and must be banned unless one has a serious medical condition or disfigured face due to some car accident or congenital condition or acquired neuropathy that can't be cured with safer methods.

It is criminal to inject people with such poisons known to damage the body. If one has a serious disease or truly unsettling twitch or nerve issue, it may make sense, but to insert this every 3 months for cosmetic reasons is insane. On other planets people look different, so who cares how your facial shape is? Are you that ☺abysmal IQ☺? The whole point of life is to meditate with every breath, be happy naturally, and not frown naturally, by being in a state of universal peace with all workers getting good sleep (the single most important thing to your appearance) via quiet cities, 0 dogs (dogs wake you up at night more than cats, and they can cause wrinkles, dark circles due to bad sleep), good food and 0 wars, 0 violent crime. Just using Botox to look perfect is an act of theft, as it shortens our lifespan, we waste doctors, facilities with appearance, instead of with eterni food and living to 8 trillion years. Ladies, please have some IQ and stop Botox. It may even cause birth defects and they may only discover that in 2 centuries. 200 years ago, doctors gave people various poisons that they thought are "good for you". Don't be so naive, the foreign spy, will lie in waiting, to pounce like a tiger, tempt you to come to his clinic, inject you with Botox and cause disease, knowing fully how to cause it, and because it happens years later, you won't know what caused it. When kind men see ladies with fake huge eyelashes, for men it is a sign of ☺abysmal IQ☺ or complete lack of education, compassion, scientific literacy. Not only is that depraved lady tempting other women to get dry eyes and damage their vision and ability to read science papers and research, but she's promoting shorter lifespan from the oxidative stress those fake eyelashes cause. Why do some ladies need mascara? Because they have the IQ of a pig. ☺☺☺ Mascara, eyeliner etc cause dry eyes a lot more than makeup, as it gets too close to the ocular glands that maintain the lipid layer of the tears that prevent dry eyes. Mascara, eyeliner cause eye infections, deaths of people neglected by doctors because infected or dry eyes prevented doctors from majoring in other fields of medicine (instead of the dry eye, conjunctivitis, styes epidemic due to mascaras, Botox, eyeliner, insane levels of makeup), to heal those people, who died due to shortage of preventive care. Only the most monster like women do those things, empty souls void of any compassion, selfish devils, and they're not just some "celebrities", but everyday people too. Should we appear a little younger for 5 years or 30 and die at 85, or appear normal and live to 250? What kind of ☺abysmal IQ☺ person focuses on looking good and living 3 times shorter? Look in the mirror.☺ Wrinkles above nose are often caused by aristocratic terror, the complete neglect of workers lighting conditions, which cause the eyes to tense up the muscles causing under eye wrinkles or above nose between eyebrows wrinkles. It's not that the person is angry, they just read a lot of stuff on computers in bad lighting conditions sometimes. So, why risk death to look happy, when you obviously are unhappy with your appearance? Dishonesty has catastrophic consequences for scientific innovation and even managing one's emotions. The most basic quality of societies of Immortals is their honesty, which is wholly absent on Earth. What if on another planet, people who're 5 trillion years old, look like a 60 year old today? Are you going to think they're beautiful? Of course, you would find that beautiful, how they can be so perfectly Immortal, yet look 60. You would immediately try to emulate their immortalism, instead of appearance capitalism. Please ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ think thrice before using Botox.

Eternal Beauty Inc will test even 'amazing' toothpaste additives, like DIM, pulegone neurotoxin in peppermint oil added to toothpaste and millions of products, hydrogen peroxide 4% in toothpaste that damages gums and enamel, too much fluoride, blue 1 that killed a woman, colors that damage organs, teratogenic chemicals, that are absorbed sublingually fast and damage our body), to make sure they don't destroy any organ via skin absorption (lead in skin products or aluminum hydroxide, etc in stick deodorants), via lung absorption (sprays ladies and men use to 'smell nice' contain highly toxic chemicals that enter the blood stream via the lungs and then destroy every organ), doesn't cause dry eyes via clogging of the meibomian glands, doesn't contain toxins, etc. This will result in bans of some dangerous formulations, perhaps 80% or more. Right now people use a huge amount of toothpaste to brush teeth, but we may discover it's too much and a huge waste. Not to mention, we may discover that other non-fluoride chemicals are safer, better. Fluoride is only 0.2% of enamel, while $Ca_{10}(PO_4)_6(OH)_2$ is 75% of enamel, with $Ca_{10}(PO_4)_6(X)_2$ being another 20% of enamel. When we brush teeth, with so much toothpaste, we swallow some, damage the throat, the vocal chords and we can damage the esophagus, stomach, etc too, leading to poor digestion, chronic digestive issues, as the stomach lining is damaged, etc. Obviously, there is a way to keep teeth healthy without so many chemical treatments: Eterni Food Inc creates powders that dissolved in water produce a thick liquid we can drink with a straw to no longer damage the teeth. We become humans, the first primates who eat in a high tech different way, who no longer chew or shed blood of animals.

Heels shorten lifespan. The ☺abysmal IQ☺ of our societies is shocking: to make heels legal is genocide, due to health issues. This is due to wars, when cavalry needed heels in battle, but then it spread to all males/females, before it lost popularity among males (today no male wears high heels, except medium rarely). The aristocrats wore high heels (red sometimes), to flash their status. Today, women with 0 IQ, also wear heels, even after reading that heels shorten lifespan, to flash their selfishness, not caring about the burden on the entire society coming from fixing preventable health issues. Any new US product of any kind, sold online or offline, must be first approved by the Immortality Nurturing Agency. Makeup products are used to infect, destroy and damage the ultra important ocular glands that produce tears with 2100 nutrients, tears essential for ocular function and longevity. People need to sleep better and take care of their health, so they look good naturally, not to apply makeup to hide the total depravity of our world where everyone is so stressed due to pathological selfishness and endless duplication, wheel reinvention for the sake of "everyone must be a small business owner". With these redundant tasks, everyone works harder, 3 times more, than with centralization for the same outcome, they get no good sleep☺☺☺, so they use tons of makeup to "look good", while they wax their legs of hair, manicure their nails, etc that nobody honestly cares about, except the homeless who wonder what kind of spirituality is that: 1.2 million beauty salons while 2 million Americans are unfairly jailed and 0.6 million are homeless (15 million empty housing units). An outer beauty, but an inner shocking lack of beauty. Be happy, smile, sleep well, and the beauty of the tone of speech and thought would give 15 extra years of life. What is nice, a dead spouse or one alive? A blind spouse from dry eyes or makeup causing a series of infections and herpes virus caused blindness? This centralization ensures all tests are done in house, all ingredients produced in USA, with 100 more stringent criteria of longevity, to prevent the company from making people ugly via destroying their brains, bodies, eyes thru glamorous lethal products, as we see China exporting to the Philippines skin whitening products with lead in them. Why not dance or exercise in the chemistry labs, instead of hollering like gorillas on soccer fields? Our eyes allow us to read 4 times more papers, when they're healthy. With makeup, inflammation can go up and damage the eyes. We're 50-500 years from even creating a simple natural like artificial tear, so how far are we from creating a safe or ocular health enhancing makeup? Even further away. Please ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ think twice before poisoning your eyes to "look good". How we look has no meaning, it's how we sound that decides & tells EVERYTHING. Why? Because appearance is easy to fake, our voice can't be faked, when tired, we can't hide it in our speech, but makeup hides the dark circles instantly. Because makeup products are used around eyes, and eyes can be a route to transmit viruses, it becomes essential to test these 1000 times more, for the sake of biological security of the USA. We ensure products like creams, lipstick, soap, shampoo contain healthy chemicals only. Recently, they found many tampons contain heavy metals, and due to the wet vagina, the lead, arsenic can leach inside the body easier. The safest hygiene products need to be developed to prevent infections. Heavy metals increase oxidative stress, impair immune function and can thus lead to infection, TSS.

1000s of science papers on eyes (Clin Opt 2018;10:33-40: BAK tear/makeup preservative causes MGD) show that eyelash makeup, eyelash serum, mascara, makeup close to eyes, destroy ocular tear lipid glands, causing dry and red eyes that make a woman far less attractive (so eyelash gels, boosts, fake eyelashes are a waste of $), vision problems, lower ability to read science of longevity papers, shorter lifespan, eye and body infections due to lowering immune function of eyes (viruses from air enter body via eyes quite often), deprive 1 million of "living to 90000" research lab space wasted with "☺abysmal IQ☺ creating"☺ eyelash businesses making poisons for selfish, mentally challenged filif "hen IQ" women to "look worse, live 900 times shorter than kind smart ladies of the Immortalist Youth", nail stores to make all live shorter from chemicals inhaled and the chemicals that are absorbed thru the skin and nail to skin border area. All nations need to close 98% of beauty places except the high tech clinics for serious injuries from accidents, congenital growths or new blemishes that interfere with eye health via oxidative stress and out of control acne bacteria colonizing the eyes (like maybe blue light mask for acne, etc, do it at home). Sleep is more important than makeup, since it makes you look naturally nicer without dark circles. In our super high stress insane macho world of "eternal emergency" that aristocrats create for the subjugated masses, nobody gets decent regular sleep. Sleep not only makes you have less dark circles, but helps you live 10 years longer. By using makeup, you deceive yourself, hide how poor the sleep quality is and how little you take care of body repair during sleep. Doing your nails and shaving legs is a waste of time*, we need to THINK, increase lifespan☺☺☺, not appearance,* who cares how you look if you live 60 years shorter? Beware of hybrid wars of national extermination by foreign spies who mind control donkey IQ folks to create fads to use toxic chemicals around eyes, in order to damage the eye health, body health of the nation. We need huge fines for such destructive beauty businesses, that make people uglier sicker long term. Let's tax eyelash products 90 times the price of the product by federal law, to shut down all businesses and use tax revenue to build free ocular health monitoring centers, since 42% of kids have ocular lipid glands dysfuction*, worsening every year.* Anyone caught trading illegal banned products on the black market, eyelash ones, fined $400 million or lifetime labor if they can't pay it. Confiscate all offices that go bankrupt, use those spaces to establish free eye clinics, new housing maintenance offices of Immortality Building Inc, one of the 11 companies, the eye clinics run by Universal Immortality Inc Office of the Immortality for All Government. Well, all beauty businesses would be taken over by Eternal Beauty Inc anyway eventually, but not in 1 month. These are some ideas to give to regulators in case the 11 companies model is not applied fast. Humans may disappear in 10 seconds, due to irritability/anger from bad sleep, so what is better: 'good sleep' or 'makeup to hide bad sleep'? Perhaps, ladies can altruistically prioritize quiet cities free of barking sounds, so all sleep well. Perhaps, women can gently question why they have more dry eyes than men: mascara, eyelash, liners? Dry eyes cause endless national resource wasting, and they're also due to bad sleep habits, low ω3 or high AGE intake, that prevent proper repair of the lacrimal and meibomian glands, etc. Why do we get dark circles? Because we all work extra to reinvent the same things for 33 million companies, instead of only 11 companies. We need millions of different payroll systems, HR departments, etc long work hours, no sleep. In immortalism, we get one HR for all US. To prevent dry eyes, increase beauty, let's bring the immortalist reforms to all nations, as dedicated people of the Immortalist Youth.☺☺☺

Too many women are horrified that they don't have a single family home, yet they pay the same genocidal aristoc-rats who produce deadly products and steal materials from the border wall and housing for all needed for 0 violent crimes. We see too many doing mascara and endless beauty procedures that shorten lifespan (brain damage, blood clots from those intense pulse light to remove leg hair or etc, etc). The masses, brainwashed by the government of aristocrats, are incredibly selfish too, you see it in White House Spokespersons even, and all depraved TV anchors almost who have long eyelashes and horrible tone of speech, uneterni, because nothing speaks of World Peace more than shouting and having 0 gentle tender soft nurturing☺☺☺ graceful universal loving kindness and doing endless beauty salon mascara or eyelash trim ☺ abysmal IQ☺ procedures that damage the eyes to "look good" (actually worse, depending on whom you ask). Eyelashes are critical for the meibomian gland health in the eyes, to prevent dry eyes, so trimming them is eye SUICIDE, these guys are mind controlled by evil foreign forces who need to be given lifetime labor sentence for destroying workers with mascara, long/short lashes. Short eyelashes allow junk to enter eyes, long ones damage the eyelash base and meibomian glands, don't mess eyes with the meibomian gland area via long, short eyelashes or liners, mascara, makeup too close to eyelash base, it's criminal. The depravity of these aristocrats selling products that shorten lifespan or ruin eyes ((42% kids, 72% adults have ocular meibomian gland damage, and these beauty products make these percentages way higher than they should be) is encouraged by a criminal genocidal government of ☺puppy IQ folks☺. Only a government of thieves and killers can allow the females or males to show themselves with long or short eyelashes in public on TV, especially at the White House, since this destroys the body via ocular damage, infections and promotes outer "fake beauty" over health. It's like free ads for killing people slowly with smoking. Eyes are key to reading papers and such, national security via ocular health. It's enough to have some makeup, as long as it contains only ocular nutrients for the body's thinnest skin, the area under eyes that needs to be kept healthy, strong, to help eyes by preventing oxidative stress from aging that damage meibomian glands (which prevent ocular dryness that makes our eyes red as we age), but to go with lines, ultra toxic mascara and other things right on top of the critical glands on the eyelid base is genocidal. Immortal Souls now dwelling a woman, please gently recall that the mascara and liners close the BLINDNESS PREVENTING GLANDS (yes, dry eyes can cause blindness in some cases via complications from treatment or etc or endless suffering, lost productivity as an adult with dry eyes for 50 years, using eyedrops, special treatments, ointments, moisture retaining glasses, etc), the glands that produce the lipid layer the prevents tear layer, eye water from evaporating, glands and causes dry eyes, faster eye reddening as you age, you look uglier as you age. Ladies can gently WAKE UP next day as the gentle kind intelligent female wanna be Immortals and become Immortalists whose descendants one day shine as shimmering genderless shapeshifting Immortals a trillion times more beautiful than a chimp human today with mascara, who looks like a rotting stinky skeleton at age 150 and like dust at age 20000, while the Immortal is shining and beautiful at age 1 trillion. Parents will have to go to doctor with their kids 40 times now to cure dry eyes, because the 0 IQ ARISTOCRATS sold them these useless products nobody needs before age 30, if they sleep well, as skin is not red if you have a democracy with good sleep, jobs schedule and shelter for all. We need to change out culture to prioritize good sleep 9 pm to 7 am for kids who need long sleep hours. We can't have sleep deprived girls who use makeup to seduce 13 year old guys. This is genocide. Makeup, liners, mascara, fake eyelashes, tobacco, alcohol, weed need to be sold only with ID, for those aged 30+ and used only up to 2 mm away from the eyelash base on upper/lower eyelid. Proper labels need indicate all these eye products can cause blindness, dry eyes, itchy red eyes for the next 90 years of your life. Ladies, please develop altruism: due to your makeup, mascara, liners addictions, millions of people don't get to live to 80, but die at 70, due to the shortage of doctors taken to treat preventable dry eyes, made dry by these vanity products. If you want to be loved, care for all, ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺, not like TV ladies tone. ☺☺☺ No safe ocular cosmetic product even exists today, only a few less damaging, 0.1% of all makeup, contains some safe ingredients to help that skin near the eyes, but even those have irritating compounds so they shouldn't be used too close to the eyelash base where the meibomian glands are. Why are long or short eyelashes more beautiful, when they're actually uglier*?* ☺☺☺ Simply evil foreign spies destroying America today. Brainwashing. Ladies die, due to drugs coming over the porous border, or they become homeless. To be kind is to use national resources to seal the border and bring illegals in USA to 0, not to use mascara.☺☺☺

Special Awakening of Jewelry Lovers: today we see people spend a lot of time, money to adorn themselves with jewels, not realizing this doesn't in any way bring real civilization with 0 death penalty. To create a decent society of 0 Violent Crime and Banditry, we need to adorn ourselves with virtue, ethics, intelligence,☺☺☺ with the virtue of Mk 10:25, Mt 25:35-6, so as to remain humane. Any alien with any intelligence watching humans wearing jewelry might think that these glorified monkeys adorn themselves with the gold obtained via genocide: endless people worldwide work like slaves to dig gold (and other jewelry metals) we don't need (1 min (mine collapse), 9 min (20 dead), 5 min (mercury), so that ☺filif IQ☺ ladies adorn their selves with it. 44% of gold is used for jewelry, 49% by banks, 7% for tech, so man's and women's greed/abysmal IQ account for 93% of gold extraction by slaves. ☺Puppy IQ folks☺humans☺☺☺ extract 14 times more gold than needed. Humans can't realize how abysmal their IQ is yet. Why do we need gold in banks and central banks? We only need one bank for all humans, no gold bars. 65% of diamonds are used for jewelry, lots of people waste lives with that, lots of theft and injuries happen because of diamonds and other precious stones. Guys are equally low IQ, they need "gold rings" to let all know they're married: why not wear a little cloth yellow ribbon off your shirt or clothing if you're so low IQ to imagine it matters if anyone knows about your marital status? Nobody cares,☺☺☺ since dating.gov (next paragraph) fixes those issues well, plus marriage is more of a paper and outdated tradition. These enslaved gold/diamond digging poor people, waste their entire lives with that, instead of building the 11 companies in their country, the healthcare and food/shelter infrastructure to live to 87 like in Singapore. Each person not living to 87, but to 60, like in many nations, is the equivalent of killing a 60 year old who would live to 87 in better USA areas. Bankers and governments are equally genocidal, they store gold obtained by equally genocidal actions. The gold frenzy causes suffering and the destruction of the human quantum field. This is all due to the lack of universal 11 companies, 1 language, 1 currency, one salary for all. With no stock markets to steal trillions from workers, no gambling, we can finally have some science of nutrition going on, instead of fake papers. Animals are too ☺abysmal IQ☺ to realize that if they stopped fighting for their rat IQ (rats are cannibals) cultures of violence/death, theft/gambling, they can create one Trillion Year Lifespan For All Culture of 0 Violent Crime. True kindness/spirituality is taking real steps towards 0 violent crime, 0 war, spending more time with that than with "beauty" routine. These 'humans' don't care, the whole culture has devolved into piercing their bodies with 30 rings, wearing 50 bracelets and 80 necklaces, 90 hair pins and 10 ankle bracelets, in the hope, someone would recognize their infernal 'beauty'. Even Americans have to waste lives to maintain plumbing, electric and buildings for these filif worm IQ jewelry stores, import-export businesses, sections of big stores, to satisfy the infernal depraved selfish desire to kill for gold and appearing beautiful, while being a demon: nobody brings violent crime to 0 by jewelry stores that prompt thieves to harm others. GoLd has replaced God, they left God and got gold. The 11, e-leven, e-leave the gold, return to God, (left-ist) companies, are calling beasts to become humans again, to join the leftists, to leave the gold and return to God, i.e. the science of immortality for all. Nobody cares about their tone of intent, emotion or speech, only about jewelry and piercing more areas of their navel, vagina, penis and nose. Every TV station is like a market stall or stock exchange before computers, shouting and mean aggression for all, ethics for demons, big eyelashes, high makeup, eyeliner, mascara and the tone of demons☺☺☺. All gentle tender soft healing nurturing universal loving kindness has been removed from any public broadcasting. 'Satan' rules Supreme with His Violent Crime 1 billion times higher than in a decent society, with his Infernal Tone of Murder, even the ladies wearing crosses, as symbols of aristocratic torture of the working class (Jesus, the useful fiction self-sacrificing himself to make the rich richer). The violent depravity of society is so high, that nobody even knows what is a kind tone anymore. Oh, and the cross wearing "Christian on paper" ladies try hard to show as much of their breast as possible on TV, so UV rays damage their chest area and make them look 5 billion years old, their only chance to get closer to God's Ethics.☺☺☺ Eyeliners, mascara, upper eyelid makeup (under eye to hide dark circles is less toxic), etc are very toxic for the eyes, causing dry eyes and other conditions that burden the healthcare system. It makes ladies spend too much time with appearance, instead of modulating the tone of speech, it teaches billions who watch TV to care way too much about appearance (even males) instead of ethics and substance/quality of one's actions, sleep, good nutrition, etc. Because almost everyone is scientifically illiterate and low IQ in our society, we haven't figured out how to get rid of acne very easily for all, via proper diet, sleep, etc, so we spend trillions on makeup and other acne removal lotions, etc. We can't become real humans until violent crime is a billion fold lower in USA, and it won't happen with this demonic vibe on TV-radio and music-movies, which incites the criminal within to act fast and strong. Jewelry stores fuel violent crimes, arrests and infections from piercings, lots of necklace theft, injuries (youtube got 100s of clips of thieves pulling necklaces, while running and causing injuries, and the breakage of the necklace), jewelry is for idol worshipers, worshiping gold objects who value gold more than God, the fake Christian who wear crosses instead of wearing the Spirit and Eterni Tone of God, worship the spirit of Immortality for All, kindness for all, healthcare, decent shelter for all, immortalist eterni food tech that grants all immortality.

4.5.6.8.1. DATING.GOV the start of Honesty, Inner Beauty, Peaceful Happy Relationships, Families

Please read the dating tips in the sex for procreation only section too. Dating.gov focuses on promoting honesty and avoiding predator women and men from trying to use dating or marriage to steal other people's property via the Marriage-Divorce Big Business scam. As one pay takes effect and assets equalize as Immortalism of 4000 year lifespan is the central goal of society, the professional gangster thieving women or men disappear. PROMOTING Inner Beauty is important for Immortalists so Dating.gov will allow singles to check real honest pictures (meaning no makeup no photoshop pictures are required in the profile) and 900 inner (not outer beauty) features (for your and his/her profile, all optional) of the ideal spouse to co-raise your kids, to ensure a perfect match that current stone age aristocratic terror sites don't offer, causing 4 years wasted because you didn't want to spend 4 hours to fill the 900 questions and check which one(s) applies. Just as today we have endless "realtor" sites and it takes 300 days to buy a house you like instead of 3, today's dating websites allow you to waste 100 times more time. Immortalists want to work smart, not hard until you collapse, achieve the same results 100 times faster. Immortalists love the workers, they don't want to kill the workers. It's all about efficiency: if we can produce the same electricity with 100 times less labor, by using a different resource, we go for it: solar, we make solar panels once and they last 90 years or more, using 20 lb of material, coal, you work hard to dig 20000 lb of coal every year to produce the same electricity, to transport the coal, burn it, create acid rain with heavy metal to poison all crops, ruin miners lives and live shorter. Same thing with dating, immortalists score against fascists about 9000 to 1, in the soccer game of life, of efficiency and speed, the united world workers defeat aristocrat run societies 9000 to 1. Check out the centralist education scores. It's all about how you use existing resources, based on new inventions. Most first dates are just the 2 trying to figure out the 900 questions anyway, so to save carbon emissions, and endless years, they just answer them beforehand so you know from day one whom you're talking to. Profiles are private and only show up if the person who meets your criteria (say you want 98% of the criteria to be met) also set criteria met by your profile (dual match). This is how all initiate any contact with anyone, and then you no longer need jewelry to "let people know you're married", like rings and other ☺abysmal IQ☺ things that shorten lifespan by restricting circulation. If you want that, get a collar pin that says married to wear at a social event, from dating.gov. If the other is interested, they reply. No more chasing people in nonexistent bars. This system is better, because this Dating.gov has way more info than 50 private sites combined:

With 900 features you can specify: religion, denomination, spiritual, agnostic, atheist, "age, height, weight" range, number of people dated so far, natural hair color, using fake eyelashes?, using makeup?, using hair dye, natural eye color (blue, green, hazel, brown, grey, etc – if applicable, changed color due to contacts to appear 'blue'; this is helpful, because if you got blue and marry blue or grey you're 4-900 times more likely to have offspring with blue eyes; if you marry those without recessive blue-gray-green eye or blonde-light brown hair genes, then all offspring will have brown eyes and brown/black hair), sex habits (lifelong abstainer, virgin, or sex with 50 guys so far, etc, indicate number of guys, gals, etc), sex beliefs (sex is for pro-creation only, as immortalists say, or etc), pets you want them to not have (barking dogs that annoy neighbors and make you endless enemies, biting dogs that kill babies after you work 10 years to raise them), location (within 50 or 5000 miles), job (science related or realtor fraudster), diet (vegans only, junk food lover, healthy vegan only, lots of soda and meat), cooking style (pressure cooker only, protects body health, baby, etc, no frying, dry air cooking to kill baby lungs with fumes, brain, heart, give him 12 times thicker plaque before he's even born), fumes from cooking can damage babies as much as smoking, always recall that, eat veggies steamed, fried, boiled or raw (smoothie), use microwave oven, regular oven, boiling, regular restaurant foods (deadly), alcohol (lifelong abstainer, 2 drinks/year, 2 drinks/month), smoking or weed or coffee, vaping (lifelong abstainers, 1/day last 8 years, 3/month last 3 years, etc), soda/chips/cookies or chocolate (causes miscarriage, stillbirth, low IQ, birth defects like coffee) (0 last 20 years, or 3 a week), processed meat (lifelong abstainer, or once a week), sleep habits (regular 10 to 8 or erratic, night owl, 3 am to 10 am), music preferences (eterni music only, meaning ultra peaceful, meditative, etc), education, voice (deep voice, high pitch soprano, etc), sports hater (educated ladies who realize all sports today are subhuman violence of cannibal chimps, or ever punching baboons, in the context of wars, products of genetic memory passed down from baboons, chimps) etc… Everything checked with a mouse click or drop down (for a number selection, like coffee cups a week) is verified by the Immortality Nurturing Agency, INA, to make sure no profiles are misrepresenting, as Agency knows all purchases last 90 years and can detect lies and take profiles off the network for fraud. One Bank exists only and 1 spy agency only, INA, cash is illegal, to ensure no spies can destroy the nation. No tourist, visitor, etc can buy anything, except with the Eterni Bank issued biometric credit card, approved after serious Immortality Test (30-70 hours of testing, nobody can pass without studying for a year full time at least) was passed. This prevents frauds from using dating sites for criminal activity or espionage. Before you date a gal, you see her public profile, then with each date, you see more of the 900 parameters and videos, and pics, etc… that the women uploaded for showing after date 2, 3, 4, 5, 20, 50, 100, etc.

This enables everyone to become super-efficient and maintain privacy, setting up this profile would take 2 weeks for most people 80 hours total, because they want to have a perfect match, not one that lasts for 2 months before fights erupt. Also, single dads with 1 kid and 50% custody would be encouraged to date single moms with 50% custody, instead of guy with 1 kid and 2% custody dating a gal with 9 kids with 90% custody. Equal rights means fairness, so if you want to raise immortalist kids who're immortalist since fetus stage by learning about it, it may be best to avoid single dads and single moms. In fact dating.gov would discourage that, meaning childless guys dating childless gals to ensure a better harmony, no ex revival, etc. Equal pay for equal work, equality means the end of discrimination against males who never almost get custody of a kid for unmarried couples living together who split. Today, most single dads get way less custody, so what happens is marrying a single mom means the guy has to take care of the other kids way more than a woman marrying a single dad. Again, unfair. For an immortalist, that's a disaster, as the kid may take 20 years to become an immortalist, and without all immortalists in a family, no harmony can exist for World Peace in 3 months, super efficient Immortalist Goals Achievements. Sometimes a single mom and her kids never talk to the father and are immortalists, but this would be the exception, not the rule, the more passionate immortalist is the one raised so since fetus stage and he alone can achieve the most unbelievable goals. Custody % needs be based on the immortality score as the 14.6.3. section explains. First 2 years, when breastfeeding is important, lady can get more custody, maybe 100%, but the government isn't ☺abysmal IQ☺ to create issues for kids and before 2 get parent license to procreate and have kids, they will be assessed via many tests and etc to measure their long-term compatibility via free tests and etc 10000 times more than these filif cow IQ match.com and all dating sites today made by profiteering parasitic aristocrats who honestly could care less about kids affected by ever yelling parents or moving apart, etc. The present dating website/app model is membership and profits, they don't care if you get a successful relationship, in fact, they want you to be single forever, then you need to pay for their fee forever. It's like Big Pharma has no incentive to cure you, as then they need find new customers, so they manage sickness. They want an unhappy guy and gal who is always looking for a backup, or side secret date. Women want equal pay, but where is the equal custody? If equality exists, this extends to custody too, not just pay. The eggs are limited for ladies, so if a lady has sex with 100 men, she can lose eggs and when time for kids comes, the genetic traits will be worse, as the best egg may have been lost to a miscarriage due to birth control that makes eyes dry and causes cancer. Likewise, when a guy has sex with 100 ladies, the best of man's body goes into the ejaculate, causing nutrient deficiency and quantum connection to 100 bitches of pig IQ, which lower his IQ in subtle ways many don't understand (especially, since no kids came out of sex). Thus, dating.gov suggests sex for pro-creation only. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The sperm DNA was found in women's brains 50 years later, so ☺pet IQ folks☺ have sex with 100 rats. Do you want to marry a lady who got 500 diseases from her sex with 200 men? Should Sex and the City and other programs not be banned and those guys receive lifetime labor? Think about it, they do it to destroy the gentiles, watch this video. Eggs ruined, vagina damaged, etc, blood poisoned with the garbage sperm and horrible foods (blood drinkers) that contaminated sperm.☺☺☺ Sex outside procreation is promoted by those worthy of lifetime labor who want to destroy USA. They encourage rape, which what this "one night stand culture" is essentially, guy/gal buys some food, then they go have sex, ruin reproductive organs, nutrition, ☺☺☺, so since rape is death penalty in the immortalist code, this is similar, as it causes 10000 rapes per TV program. Since sex outside of procreation becomes the focus, procreation is # 400 on the list, so procreation never happens. The genocidal killers of Sex and the City and other rapist programs are creating Mass Rape (Bible Quotes), because sex outside of procreation, outside of the parent license system to protect the nation's future is not consensual, but a product of cultural brainwashing forced by these alien Genocidal Rapists owning TV stations, who deserve nothing but produce pickup for life, to free the migrants who want to return to Mexico, the genocidal rapists brought as no kids were made to invent robots to pickup produce. Young adults are easy to influence, being like 1 year old, naive, gullible, etc vs the 3000 year Immortals. Viewing workers as cattle, any TV programs making $ was approved by the demonic pieces of garbage in charge of US TV, radio, newspapers. The genocidal aristocrats have created the media, TV, radio as tools of mass indoctrination that deliver millions of sex slaves for the 30 million aristocratic rapists at the top. The slaves working 4 jobs and changing location 400 times as they're fired by rapist aristocrats sitting in the same location and job for 50 years, don't really have time for dating and one night stands as the rich. So the glutton aristocrat fills the nation with restaurants and sexual imagery, to provide plum☺☺☺ bitches for their demonic appetite of pure animalism worthy of execution for national treason, but thankfully receiving only lifetime labor in a lithium or copper mine to make up for genocide by rape they caused, since let's be real, the one night stand culture creates endless rapes too. Men are filling the void dating.gov doesn't provide: financial audit (avg debt 104K, some 900k) & prenups are worthless (20% are thrown in court, 'she was forced to sign'). Marriages make no sense. The system allows prenups to be invalidated "duress" (prenup needs be signed many months before wedding, so her lawyer can't argue that you pressured her before the wedding, before any expenses were made for wedding). Setup a trust before you date anyone, etc, assets that are not yours can't be stolen by a gold digger, 2-10 years before marriage. Don't ever marry, if you had your kids or plan to have no kids, as the legal system favors women. Live alone if you had your kids and divorced. Recall that some women can be as evil (stupid) as enemy spy agencies, using the ultimate psychological warfare, being 30 times more macho than some males. Trust funds need not be used for marriage expenses. Best is to not marry, since kid won't be your main contribution to society (in case courts give it to her if young, as they often do) and kid will see she's a psycho when growing up and choose to live with dad. Thus, one needs to be careful, since we're not in an immortalist society of justice, but one of 50000 interpretations and sentences of the same situation based on whims of a judge, due to different laws and banditry infinite as with any industry. Never allow a psycho woman to distract you from building the Immortalist Anthem paradise, make sure she has brains and true dedication to immortalism, otherwise, you will be destroyed by a whore. This video shows America has become a psycho society where everything revolves around theft of $, as each state creates all their laws and it's impossible for honest people dedicated to humanity to be taken advantage of or destroyed by predatory parasites disguised as spouses. So, the courts need to change to take into account immortality credit score and contribution to longevity of all human beings, we need one law for all cities and states, not 20,000 laws. Every parasite is a lawyer, system needs be made efficient, simple: no marriage, just contributing to the kids, anything paid to help with one's mortgage is returned to the receiving spouse; never joint accounts to prevent parasitism and frauds trying to get married to steal money. The current law is criminal and allows gangsters to team up with gangster lawyers and steal millions. That's why more equal incomes prevent fake marriages or parenting, just to live like a king/queen. Check out the fake women modern media created, why many avoid marriage or joint accounts. Don't let a spouse turn you into a slave, as suffering won't bring World Peace in 3 months. ☺☺☺

Sadly today, due to a sewer culture of "bipedal insect IQ" we have these 1st grader dating profiles "I'm Lucy and I love playing with my 4 dogs and 5 cats, 3 salamanders and 45 doves, plus 29 squirrels and 900 praying mantis, because I want to deprive people of the 100 times more often and 100 times less invasive testing in facilities required to live to 9000☺☺☺, so we have huge numbers of pets, maximum death and short lives for humans. I love seeing humans drop dead at 80, living 5 times shorter than the best turtle☺☺☺, I just love seeing people die quick☺☺☺, so I support endless pet hospitals and stores. In my spare time I also play tennis, soccer, hockey and other things that waste huge materials, so nothing is left for 8000 year life research centers, I love visiting National park Z, where I can cook lethal food for my kids, using barbecue to create AGEs to kill them at age 80."☺☺☺ instead of "I'd love making melatonin analogues to create immortal mitochondria enabling humans to live to 9000. My favorite hobbies are understanding the Ethics of Trillion Year Lifespan Immortals, their Gentle Tender Softness, happyimmortals.com Anthem, and how we can make all fetuses born in 2 years live to 4000." Look at many doctor "about" pages, online and you see more of this plain stupid Death Adulation and Fruit Fly IQ Hobbies list. Isn't it time for people to feel comfortable placing the talk of how they love to bring 9000 year lifespans for all (yes, that's the unique thing about their hobbies) in every "about page" instead of the rat IQ "hobbies are playing with my cats and dogs, hiking, listening to (c)rap".☺☺☺ Wait a second folks, we pay MDs often 80x the minimum federal wage to write such stupid "about" on their medical office site (as if reading a 17 year old dating profile) that sink the planet into a mass hypnotic trance of "nematode worm IQ"?☺☺☺ An MD supposed to be the most ethical, inspiring human who takes us towards Immortality.

This saves years and prevents arranged marriages by spy agency thugs, terrorists and phonies. Everything is under total central control, so that all spy networks, gangs, mafias are crushed 100.00%. No movie, book, song is approved to be released on radio-TV unless it meets immortalist criteria. Why waste years to ask each 900 questions, if you can do it once for all? The search automatically matches guy to ladies who would not birth offspring with severe diseases, due to both carrying some recessive gene for something, so as to diminish the risk of a depressive 20 years raising a mentally retarded kid or worse. Since everyone has their saliva etc tested, the dating.gov can scan for catastrophic combos and eliminate those search results, for those young enough to have kids. If both are in their 60s, this doesn't matter. Housing.gov makes sure if two want to live together for a few weeks or months, they can buy a house in 3 days and move there and if it doesn't work out, they sell house and each gets the same % out of the sale as when purchasing it. No games, no marriage. Marriage is for filif bulldog IQ☺☺☺ people, like pastors who teach genocide, rape, beatings with rods are the word of God. If people get along, they stay, if they don't, they part their ways in a polite friendly compassionate way. You can't know a person until you live with them for a while and the future is unpredictable, so the government's duty is to prevent crime by making it ultra fast and ultra easy to split and choose another partner. Billions of crimes happen yearly, billions of kids grow up in insanely tense families, due to a system that forces people to stay when it is obvious going to be pure hell from the first few months before the two have even kids. This is due to the Torah and other texts in other areas, the clergy, the Christian clergy who created Islam too (Islam was Bible recycling), clergy who create a psychological torture institution called marriage and guilt trip anyone into staying even when one is unhappy daily: this is the same church who says genocide is the way, when there are always trillions of ways to peace without war or even a slap, that they have not thought about. Clergy is thus guilty of endless violent crimes indirectly by fueling this marriage institution that is not needed for intelligent and compatible people who will stay together 90 years if they live that long and all is fine. Yet nobody prosecutes these "Israel God of Holocausts of 8 billion people" proponents and criminals who say Beating Kids with Rods is Word of God and that if you look at another lady who is obviously superior in every way, your hands and eyes should be cut, per Jesus the Conman who said all Genocide-Rape quotes of Torah are still Valid Eternally. Jews control USA totally, brainwashing the gentile to do the lowest IQ things. When people divorce, the Jewish lawyer, judge and witnesses will have a field day to inflict maximum profit taking by wasting everyone's time with marriage and divorce. The bestiality of these clergy frauds is evident in their megalomaniac temples, synagogues, churches, mosques, (built all while others are homeless), evident in the marriages wasting endless time, energy, money, resources, better spent in maintaining all houses (so kids and couples live in safe houses, free of fleas, ticks, bed bugs, millipedes, mold, lead, cold or dry air, etc) every 6 months via the Immortality Building Inc 11 companies plan to free USA and Earth from these bandit clerical criminals who kept humanity in the dark ages forever, burned scientists at the stake, fought the translation in local languages of the Infernal Word of the "God" of Israel, the Bible.

Today is not the 1st century of arranged unwanted spouses decided by power hungry parents who wanted more money, or fame☺☺☺. The murderous aristocrat is full of money and he can move out any time in another property or whatever, but the working class people only have 1 house and they often have to remain for months until the parasitic "bad type of Jew, etc" clears divorce, and that takes so long that one spouse already kills/injures the other due to tension building up. The religious Jew taught the gentile to hit his kids with the 'noble' Bible examples, to beat slaves even, to take slaves, the low IQ naive gentile did that, the kid was angry, the parent-kid or spouse-spouse relationship devolved and sometimes violence was the result. The Jew makes money by divorces he caused, for how can divorces exist when no marriage exists as the filif "Fruit Fly" IQ pastor, rabbi, imam, Hindu, Buddhist clergy Shouts Worldwide "God has ordained marriage". God did not, the Bible is a horror human sacrifice, mass rape, genocide thriller about eating one's kids, these "clergy and saints" have never been able to predict one thing verified by science (all mind reading miracles were staged, they knew thru informers their "sins" and etc) and they're able to predict 2 people will be happy together for 90 years? Where is the science proof? Pure liars. Then if we want 0 negative emotion, the basis of 0 violence, why do we have the marriage expensive industry? Because Jews want to sell Jewelry and live an easy trader life? The 170 Jewish billionaires could care less about that, some just push Bible at gunpoint on all nations to steal from the gentiles using the very Torah methods the Bible to directly explains in plain view of all. Now, do you see why the Jewish clergy posing as local gentiles didn't want Bible translated??? Everyone will learn a lot via the parent license too, so as to make it more likely for 2 living together to overcome minor disagreements. The Jews were too "toad like in IQ" to even comprehend the Tao Te Ching principle of "the more you try to possess a person or relationship by more promises, rings, papers, institutions, records, weddings, etc, the less harmony there will be in the relationship as you FORCE, as in Bible Genocides… instead of allow". People will rebel against the marriage cage/tension, feeling trapped and break the relationship. The criminal parents, pastors, society create a huge psychological tension and stress on the couple, to perform, to produce offspring, etc even when the two have 0 in common and nothing but hate. This is the typical genocidal forceful vibe of the Jewish Bible. Without an easy escape route, the tension becomes 100 times bigger than without marriage, than with total freedom to part ways fast, the tension to not make mistakes, to not do x or z, etc, everyone fakes everything, since they fear reproach from the dictatorship of the cow IQ clergy, who kept humanity in the dark ages forever, this ultimately spikes violent crime 1 trillion fold, since everything in society is a microcosm of the family. We're one Family of Immortals☺☺☺, we're all part of one family, no need of tribes, of papers, of rituals, of weddings, just honesty and freedom. So, this is the thing, people need to be free and the gov duty is to not allow frauds to post fake profiles on 1000 aristocratic trashy sites of dating. Dating.gov will have 1000 times more PhDs than any dating company today, people of much higher IQ than the fraudulent clergy of any religion, who don't know intellectual and scientific honesty and integrity, only blind worship, memorization of banal quotes and 1st grader IQ sentences and gnat IQ writings "proving the miracles of Jesus faked with great skill".

The 900 questions explain thru links why the dry air cooking question is asked, etc, the studies, the etc, so it becomes very educational, as the evidence of damage from sex outside of procreation is explained too thru links and studies. Currently, spy agencies, militaries arrange marriages based on spying needs, while criticizing other nations for arranged marriages. This is hypocritical. Not only that, but those who lie to the tens of millions of people about "free will", "God", "freedom", "democracy", covertly arrange millions of marriages: they're spies who fraudulently claim to be "special representatives of God", clergy that is, and use the church to spy on people and set them up in marriages via manipulation, often in combos neither party likes, without the 2 having a clue every step along the way was staged by these professional liar clergy spies. These liars often don't believe anything they tell the ☺abysmal IQ☺ church goers, they're simply there to manipulate the youth. They're only vampires and parasites, whose goal is to undermine the nation. Clergy hijack our government, plunder our treasury of funds claiming they're entitled to no taxes for their work of human quantum field destruction, of brain damaging our youth with their Cult of Negligible IQ, anti-critical thinking (never asking for unfakable proof for any of the miracles or claims about "live forever with Jesus or etc in heaven" claims), blind adulation and guru worship, credulous obedience to frauds, Lies, Torture, Useless Ritual, Fake Miracles, Eternal Violence Quotes. You think people got to choose? A lot of royals, billionaires, etc are only so in name only, they got very little freedom to choose, being mere puppets used to prop the state. This scam is ultra old, stems from Judaism, Hinduism, etc and extended itself to marriages for aristocratic or royal power and military alliances and then filtered down into modern era: everything about military. So, it is helpful to ask yourself: are you being setup to marry someone you don't like for an ulterior motive that you're not even familiar with that has nothing to do with what is best for the human quantum field, Eternal World Peace, etc? ☺☺☺ Let's focus on substance instead of on appearance:

Just as couples without rings, weddings, marriage certificates are a trillion times more beautiful than couples with "a trillion times more violence and rings, papers, weddings",

Singles wearing JEWelry are a trillion times uglier than folks with no jewelry, but 1 trillion times lower violent crime. Jewelry is for toddler IQ folks, who need to Grow Past Toad IQ level☺☺☺:

Jews love to trade diamonds. Jewelry provides 0 benefits and you waste time to put on and take off anklets (India, etc), bracelets, necklaces, earrings, bangles (made of glass in unsafe horrific factories by literal slaves), karas. Allegedly, there is a big scientific reason for bangles, from Ayurveda (same guys who gave people mercury and lead filled poisons) which, may explain why India's average lifespan is 68, versus 85 in bangle and anklet free Japan. They got rings for toes too, for rat IQ folks. Americans and 200 nations are equally brainless, and don't realize, people of the future, who live to 500, find today's necklaces and earrings as comical as non-Indians find 20 bangles per hand, nose rings and anklets. Jewelry stores attract robberies (small size, big price), violent crime and make people worship idols, the mythical gold metal that gives unproven 9000 year lifespan. I'm all for scientific jewelry, but show us the data. Necklaces attract injuries, see how guy pulls a necklace in an event that could hurt the victim's eyes even.

Jewelry shops are criminal and anti-World Peace, and an atrocity, since they distract us from preventing atrocities of war and torture. Immortalists ought to ban or tax 5000% jewelry shop products until we have 0 jails, 0 violent crime globally. To compensate for lack of metals/stones "low IQ" ladies/guys love (or wear, not knowing jewelry cause injuries, infections and drain of medical resources), immortalists will make clothes more colorful, (20 colors/shirt, endless math, physics, chemistry and good quotes on them), so people can express their artistic unique self thru one of 90000 designs. We got enough shops and nonsense. What if Mossad places microphones, WiFi and GPS in your jewelry? If you believe in tourmaline emitting negative ions when rubbed being truly lifespan increasing by 1 year or even 1 month, then use it, if no other better tech can be made to increase lifespan 200 years, but where is the proof? Let's face it, only 0.0001% of people wearing jewelry, wear tourmaline necklace because of these science studies. We need to have 0 tattoo (they destroy kidneys, the colon, cause cancer, further impending healthcare for the poor) and body piercing stores while others are homeless and 2-3 per room, where is the compassion☺☺☺??? Why do we need nose piercing shops? Even wedding rings are dangerous (finger rings, read here). Even rubber one, the much safer ones, block circulation and need not be worn. Just wear a nice cloth piece with a heart or something to indicate you're married if you care to let others know about it, make a new tradition instead of this cow metallic chains thing, we're not cows to be chained with metallic stuff. Instead of solving real problems, Chevron exterminates people with loud sound; the police join in and pretend they can't do anything, in a typical example of American hooliganism, where every city is a fiefdom of the local mafia, meaning local police who're the Gods of terror without any federal policy for quiet cities. Police doesn't do anything when torture by others happens.

Tattoo ink travels inside the body, destroys the immune system, the brain, lowers IQ and these holes from piercings create eternal systemic inflammation that shortens lifespan, so tattoos and piercings, even earrings, need to be banned worldwide by the UN. China puts lead in face cream exported to Philippines and lead, cadmium and other toxic metals in tattoo ink rat IQ aristocrats import into USA to mutilate, destroy the brains of 100 million American crocodile filif IQ folks who "love tattoos", as retrograde transport ensures the brain will get some of this lead to cause dementia, Alzheimer, so they don't recall their name or birth date: "Exceedances of EU limits were recorded for Ni (24 samples), As (20), Cr(VI) (16), Cu (10), Sb (8), Co (6), and Pb (lead) (5)" ► Toxics 2025;13(11):934. Hg mercury, Pb lead are the most lethal neurotoxic metals, found in all tattoo inks ► MO 2017;23(3):210-4. "the ink used for a 3 by 5 inch tattoo contains 1–23 micrograms of lead" ► EHP 2005;113(9):A590. They "detected the presence of pigment particle aggregates in lymph nodes (immune system) and blood vessels (goes to all organs) near the site of tattoo application" ► JPHP 2023;44(2):242-54 . Reminder: most food and vitamin, tattoo dyes are lethal. The industry makes "use of about 4000 dangerous chemical compounds in tattoo and permanent makeup inks that cause cancer, genetic mutations or are toxic to reproduction, are allergenic, corrosive or irritating to the skin and eyes" ► HSR 2023;6(9):e1360. People die from ear, nose or body piercings ► BMJCR 2011:bcr0520103020. Piercings lead to serious infections, so serious that they may lead to TSS, known to lead to amputations. People are not livestock, nose piercing lowers immune function destroys the body, creates inflammation, shortens lifespan, is anti- Immortality for All , anti-longevity, 0 IQ, even ear piercings are anti-life, why do they need to do low IQ things people did eons ago, have we not evolved past Neolithic? We need to tax all piercings $1 million, as it drains national resources, medical and others, they're a way for aristocrats to destroy the workers' brains and minds, and use that tax to give decent housing to all. Why not use gold for some medical gadgets to increase lifespan 500 years instead of shortening it by a few weeks? The "☺abysmal IQ☺" today has become too common: people pierce their genitals and nipples even, leading to so many issues. To undo 50 years of genocide of the American people by tattoo and piercing companies, The Immortalist Party Government can offer free safe (10000 times safer than the crap companies today) removal to all after all these criminal tattoo/piercing/jewelry businesses are banned by federal law. A video explains the dangers of folks with tattoos, besides low IQ.

A common side effect of this "beauty" technique is that girls develop nickel allergy and acne, looking not only like a cow, (cows have piercings on nose) but also full of zits and less attractive to males. In male and female "0 IQ folks" who pierce their penis/vagina, they often become infertile. Even rings people wear are quite useless and can lead to accidents; they can constrict blood flow and contribute to shorter lifespan. People need to invent new ways to show they're married if they want to show that, like a little symbol on their collar or color combo or something. Why not drill your head to insert a ring? Do mothers who force drilling into their daughters' ears realize how 0 IQ it is to drill holes for 'beauty'? Do adult PhDs, professors, Nobel Laureates, etc realize how 0 IQ it is to wear wedding rings or crosses, medals, bracelets? Why restrict blood flow to live shorter? Is that a Nobel recognition? Mothers, do you want your daughters to get ear infections, go visit the doctor in the future, waste national resources with such nonsense, instead of helping her live to 500? What is your ethics and priority? Following tradition? Why would the immortalist government consider drilling holes into people any different than violent crime that depletes medical resources of the nation? Let our vocal tone and words be beautiful, not metalic parts, gently wear a colorful shirt, made by Eternal Clothing Inc (longevity clothes), if you want decoration of self, don't shorten lifespan. For intelligence's sake, we got a million tattoo/piercing shops and not one free biomarker for atherosclerosis station in the whole world, like the blood pressure one at Walmart. Where is the soft compassion for the sick? Can all evolve past the cave age? Atherosclerosis is the number one killer, it's not "not having piercings and tattoos". Can we ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺ care about those dying at 40-65 due to atherosclerosis?☺☺

Beware: the parasitic vampires (spies from many vampiric nations, not just the mythical 'Zion elder bad type of Jew') who create cultures to destroy nations use piercing as a weapon to destroy a nation or ethnicity too: people get no sleep, just lots of jewelry with mind control devices inserted in them. Jewelry is promoted by Jews who controlled the world diamond market and may still control it in the top 5 nations thru Crypto-Jews. These Jews corrupted people to want such useless worthless stones, to steal them, to kill for diamonds by high prices, to hoard wealth. It's time for Jews to do something more productive for society than trading diamonds for 0 IQ gentiles. Jewelry will eventually become forbidden, with fines of 1 billion for any wearer, like tattoo 1 billion fines too, since they shorten lifespan via encouraging of theft, crime and immune system collapse. Ethics demands the end of this insane trade controlled by Western and Indian Jews, parasitic Jewish hyenas doing Jewelry diamond trade instead of ending violent crime via nonviolent scriptures impossible to find in Jewish "spiritual" (genocide to plunder) traditions. Breast implant, penis implant, nose or body piercing, tattoos are outlawed too, 1 billion $ fine. Time to fine Jews 1 trillion for trading these items to recoup all trillions stolen by Jews from the American people they destroyed with the infernally violent Bible and the infernal music, movies, banks. Jesus was right in a way, some Jewish/gentile guys are like devils: while Americans die in tornadoes and due to Jewish companies selling terrible foods and Google selling deadly phones, Laptops and other WiFi devices, the New York Jews make billions☺☺☺ trading diamonds nobody needs to solve the housing issues of a government controlled by Jewish parasites who can't build domes to withstand tornadoes. Jews own both parties, debates are a scam to loot gentiles. Elections are truly fake, but most gentiles have no clue how Jews, Brits dupe gentiles. You don't elect anything, except the fraudulent policies Jews and Brits craft to enslave the rest. We can only elect 99% slavery (Democrats) or 100% slavery (Republicans), but not 0% slavery. We need the new Immortalist Party, a new nonviolent gentle tender soft kind healing 'scripture'. The bad type of Jews/Brits/etc know exactly how to destroy gentiles, so they support the creation of endless piercing shops, to defile and mutilate our children, with nose piercings, violent music, drugs, etc. The Bible Torah section reveals their genocidal hate for gentiles around them clearly, and that's why they avoid those quotes so well in the Jewish Catholic Church (Bible removed from pews). The moment the bad type of Jews (or other imperial entities, not just the Empire of the international Jew) find an Aborigines like 0 IQ ritual-tradition, they will promote it as if it's the ultimate truth in order to subjugate the preyed upon nation, remove all critical thinking, deceive the nation, take over all academia, law, education, ministries, using the cover of Islamism, Christianity, communism, capitalism to dupe the locals. WW1 & 2 were hypothesized to have been created by highly deceptive Jews/gentiles who manipulated entire nations and empires into starting wars they could not win, but which enabled Israel to end Turkish occupation of Israel and then found itself in 1948, you wonder, did US Jews co-plan 2 world wars to make America superpower and Israel a state? Who knows? To gentiles, they give the intellect destroying Christianity, to make their IQ ☺abysmal & make their parasitism easy. Do you realize how aliens view the primitives who pierce their bodies and wear crosses, religious objects, jewelry? Just like we view ants or the aborigines. Think, question.☺☺

Everything is used in hybrid warfare against gentile nations, by enemies or even Jews. Even toxic hair dyes, skin tone changing pills or dyes, makeup. Tanning beds that give cancer, the whole nation wants tan, going to the beach, get infected with poop. Breast/penis implants (to make it

big) and other things of that sort are destroying the immune system and shortening lifespan, since no smart person cares if you have big breasts, “medical silicones used in breast implants, can cause an autoimmune disorder known as Shoenfeld's syndrome" ► AD 2014:152428. Penis silicone injections are deadly: silicone doesn’t stay in one place; it pools, drifts, and migrates down into the scrotum or groin tissue, causing severe asymmetry and gross disfigurement; the immune system attacks the silicone, forming hard, painful, gravel-like lumps of scar tissue that can permanently destroy penile anatomy; injections can block blood vessels, starving the penis of oxygen and causing the skin and underlying tissue to die (gangrene); the resulting chronic inflammation and scarring often pinch nerves and blood vessels, destroying the ability to achieve or maintain an erection; if the silicone enters a blood vessel during or after injection, it travels to the lungs, heart, or brain, which can cause sudden stroke, respiratory failure, or death. Knowing this, how can the gov allow any MD to perform such genocidal procedure? All MDs who did it must retroactively pay 2 trillion to the victims and the state, for wasting national resources and be banned from being an MD ever again. Same for breast implants. An MD is supposed to do no harm, not to mutilate people. Why would government allow breast implants at all, which are unproven to extend lifespan of anyone? Why would national resources be wasted with this, instead of increasing national IQ and longevity? Implants make it harder to breastfeed the baby, leads to nipple infections, poor milk supply, low IQ for baby, national destruction: implants poison the milk with inflammatory cytokines from silicon reaction, etc: it is insane how people want such lifespan shortening changes of their body due to brainwashing by aristocrat businesses peddling to the slaves new snake oil products to keep slave lifespan short, IQ ever lower. This extreme burden on public health, the use of doctors to do such filif comical☺ procedures that shorten lifespan, lower IQ of offspring who had a harder time to breastfeed and bring suffering of early death ought to be illegal in an immortalist society. We’re obsessed with appearance, not lifespan. Gender change surgeries for fully female/male people are insane wasting of resources (millions stolen from federal funds via false codes, these MDs deserve death penalty for mutilation of kids), even if approved in Australia for 14 year olds, because they do shorten lifespan, waste healthcare resources (since they got insurance) and resources are better spent helping people to do atherosclerosis checks, etc. They're a genocide approved by the UK Royals, US Freemasons and other “leaders” who rule the Commonwealth nations. The only people who use these things may be criminals and spies who try to change their identity to harm USA, or gullible mind controlled victims of terrorism by those with mind control gadgets who rejoice in torturing people and messing with their brains. For people born half female and male where a slight change can help due to some complications half an organ can sometimes cause (1 in 80 million cases, some papers explain such complications), it makes sense. There are cases where an MD thinks an infant is more female, but at age 14 she's obviously more like a male, except for her genitals, but really is neither female nor female, having neither testicles, nor uterus, so in such rare cases these nonsurgical, paper only gender changes will help the mental health and happiness of kids. But for normal people this ought to be illegal, to waste time to remove/add via surgeries anything, for obvious reasons this video shows. We will retroactively fine all who sold piercings in any area outside of the earrings $20 trillion for body mutilation and shortening life by infections and rerouting body resources to hole healing. These murderous low IQ folks, unaware of the damage they cause at times, can work for one of the 11 companies to pay the fine. No person employed at the 11 companies should have any piercings, except for earring if female, all who still have 2 earrings ought to be encouraged to remove them or wear the tiniest ones that remove any danger of injury by getting caught to other objects.☺☺

The livestock have a stamp and nose ring, as 32% of Americans do have tattoos and 17% have non-ear piercings, thanks to the Indian 'culture' promoters con artists who equate these 5 pages of 'chimp IQ traditions' with universal love, who try hard to associate piercings, an act of violent mutilation and mentally ill sadomasochism, with God and Yoga and meditation, virtue and goodness, to deceive the global youth. In India, they have more bangles or bracelets and ankle jewelry than anywhere, so the disease is now destroying youth worldwide, everyone gets more jewelry, becomes ever lower in IQ. It's a hybrid war to destroy all self-respect, human dignity and self-worth of the slaves, done by Brits/Jews who import these 'abysmal IQ migrants' to destroy USA, to revenge for the 1776 revolution that became a farce, as the migrants surely refuse to integrate, learn science, critical thinking and want to turn everyone into lovers of these "vibes". The 2nd chapter explains in a billion years nobody will know about you, so being famous via piercings is pretty much a waste of time, nobody will care about that. The only thing that matters is if we can discover how to live longer and help the eternal quantum field of humanity bring immortality. Many fads came and went and this OCD with tattoos and piercings will vanish too. Tattoos and piercings, makeup, mascara, liners, etc are the ultimate humiliation and mockery of the slave who thinks he's free, all he has is piercings, no house, no future, no kids, just tattoos, the ultimate British aristocratic deception to distract the slaves, who have 94K in debt each, from overthrowing the palatial cannibals in charge of USA for 3 centuries, in charge of destroying the workers and making them as sick, abysmal in IQ and clueless as possible. Slaves think they're free, because they're free to mutilate and stamp/tattoo themselves and mock, humiliate themselves, fully brainwashed. ☺☺☺

4.5.6.9. Immortalist Toy Inc buys all toy companies top produce the gentlest nonviolent character building games and toys, labs of feeding mice 50000 diets to see which one makes mice, or insects live 50x longer like humans will live to 4000 soon, instead of the soul destroying violent toys today that perpetuate our mental asylum planet vibe. It develops a research scientist mindset of much higher intelligence in service to Immortality for All, instead of the trash ideas in 99% of toys and games today. Toys were found to contain 1000 times above legal level of lead and other toxins, and kids love to touch, chew toys, leading to issues. More testing of heavy metals, etc needed for any toy. All toys build the gentle tender soft nurturing loving healing Ethical Homo Immortalis, making every kid a happy immortality scientist from age 3.

4.5.6.10. Eternal Altruism Inc (sports & entertainment, scientific and peaceful videos) buys all entertainment to make nice movies (not evil), sports equipment companies, all stadiums, all sports facilities and gyms and ensures everything diminishes risk of becoming a brute, inciting others to brutish behavior, yelling, shouting, and that everyone knows about Eternia Volunteer Network☺☺☺ for simple physical tasks that can provide physical exercise, lab glassware washing, lab cleaning, etc, basic painting, etc, things done under supervision of a building expert so no nails are placed thru pipes by accidents, etc. Every exercise area in USA has mandatory flyers about the volunteering opportunities that are available for badly needed upgrades to terrible housing and materials science factory development, so all can enjoy a quiet sleep, fresh air, etc. This ensures the government can correct assign Immortality Credit Score, as everyone has seen the evil gyms and other "sports" do, versus the rest and is continuing to freely choose 80 year lifespan instead of 80 trillion one. This company also buys all sex shops, strip clubs, etc in the USA, and places gigantic posters all over on virtue, altruism and what are the consequences of say volunteering at the Trillion Year Lifespan Institute versus attending these strip clubs, etc… with talks given before each performance on Ethics in eternitone explaining the selfish evil they're about to engage in. After the 5 minute required talk, the show can occur and their Credit Score (determines what immortality tech one can access) goes down a lot if they don't leave. Why do the rest of the people have to support egotists to live to a trillion? While we work hard to increase lifespan, they watch breasts in strip clubs and waste space. So, essentially, we're explaining to all there are far more species evolving, species benefiting forms of blissfulness, such as meditation, etc, and we teach that for free to those who after the 5 minute talk want to quit to avoid the Credit Downgrade. The company will buy also all vape stored, recreational weed stores and post posters and equally informing lectures over the intercom, equally amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ music to deaddict, raise awareness "I loved my Immortality Score was so strong, Allowing me to try tech to live so long, But now I smoked this selfish vape cig, and my score is so low indeed. 4.5.6.11. Eternal Clothing Inc: buys all clothing/shoe companies to introduce world's most advanced clothes, shoes, and keep the healthiest types that aid in negative ion generation, biomarker optimization, new matter-particle generation to provide a force-field that enhances the 24-7 rejuvenation of the wearer. The garments are powered by 0 point energy, they gradually enable us to transform human biology from food eating into cosmic energy-new matter feeding hybrid matter-energy beings, teleporting shimmering genderless shapeshifting Immortals. As far as 100s of colors, positive gentle tender soft nurturing loving healing words on the clothing, read 5+ pages here. To prevent 100000 deaths from skin cancer, we label all clothing with the UPF rating. UPF = 100/% UV transmittance, so UPF 50 means 100/2=50 or 2% of UV passes. 16 oz twill weave denim can block 10 times more UV than 8 oz twill weave denim. Same material indigo/purple jeans can block 3-4 times more than white. The thicker and tighter the cloth, the less light you see when placing the cloth between a light bulb and eyes, the higher the UPF, 2000 for good jeans. See the birth defects section on a long discussion about heat, UV and clothes that prevent baby defects: tightly woven denim, blue jeans, dark blue, purple block 3 times more UV than white or loosely woven fabrics. Eternal Clothing Inc ensures the UPF rating remains the same, unlike "Two brands experienced a significant decrease in UPF value (70% to 78%) by the completion of 50 washes", a 5 fold decrease almost in UV protection. Today, all junk companies make clothes and sell them online. By centralizing clothing production, all clothes are scanned (with the million dollar instruments that no cheap garage company can afford) for thousands of toxic chemicals, UPF longevity, etc. We can design amazing clothes that heat up 54°F after 10 min in the sunlight, to warm the body, by converting light into heat, so clothes turn from red or other colors to white or other colors. Check out why cotton is safer, video shows safer brands and organic cotton certifications, why using max cotton is best, all synthetics release microplastics (Amazon got a lot of these products, certified, that are way cheaper than the ones pushed by the video). A purple T-shirt may have 4% dye or 40000 ppm, ultra dark purple 10%, light purple 1%, and some colors give cancer. Non-organic cotton has 0.001-0.1 ppm carcinogenic glyphosate, so use lighter colors for direct skin contact clothing, ideally white, since the "safe colors" don't really exist in reality, the industry is as corrupt as the food dyes industry. 100000 ppm is .1 billion times bigger, so .1 billion times deadlier than 0.001 ppm if similar toxicity, so choose accordingly. Choose white socks, underwear/pants, bra. The stuff not in contact with the skin can be pastel/medium. Cheap factories in China, etc often put lead in skincare products, so why not in cloth dyes too? Always keep real, discerning and watch the Chinese fake food for its own citizens, before you trust all colorful direct contact clothing made for "inferior" foreigners. See other fake products. Polyester clothes are made of plastic that now can be instantly turned into chemical factory fuel. A few dozen companies worldwide are recycling clothing, but it's not mandated by the gov. All clothing needs to be recycled into special containers, people keep clothes in a bag and it is picked up by the Eternal Clothing Inc once it reaches 20 lb. Carpets are replaced by new materials (can't be eaten by termites, not vinyl, as that kills us via microplastic, possibly some soft rubbery foam, easy to clean, wipe that absorbs joint shocks) + washable rugs that function as soft sock replacement, 24-7 1 million biomarker monitoring to alert the AI about health or changes to the eterni powder mailed weekly by Eterni Food Inc, with antiaging tech for legs (the moment a leg is detected, it activates a shower of IR (800-5000 µm, the best um values), sound, u-sound, other waves/techs on soles for Lepton-Quark-Boson-Immortalion Chart Restoration, as explained in the section on the evolution to zero carpet and zero blood eating civilization. ☺☺☺

The Complete Reform of the Shoe Making Industry (11 page discussion):

Before you discard your old shoes in case you get a new pair, keep the old shoes and slides for 6 months to fully test your new shoes and ensure a slow gradual transition that won't stress your joints, wearing the new ones a few minutes daily only if a different type with a vastly different heel to toe drop. When driving, use cruise control with auto breaking often (standard in newer cars), to avoid stressing your right leg ankle joints. As we live longer we can't but notice more old people need walkers, cane, wheelchair, due to a genocidal shoe industry run by clueless capitalists who destroy the knee and foot joints of people by the most longevity inappropriate shoes delivered to 99% of humanity. We notice the waste of trillions in leg care, in knee and other replacements that would be prevented by a scientific shoe industry, as explained in the next pages about shoes. The New Immortalist Shoe decision is done with a podiatrist for orthotic or insole employed by Eternal Clothing Inc, who can see if you overpronate or supinate, if your joints that are worn are knees or feet ones (MRI), though most people get knee joints worn first. In fact, if you pay close attention to your feet when you walk, you will see if they bend inwards or outwards, confirmed by the way your shoes wear out (as the videos above explain). In today's world of "religion bullshit", decisions are based on impulse, like the ultra impulsive "genocide and mass rape for all" Bible. With the Immortalist Anthem, we create a science based healthcare and society, TV-radio, with data and 400 references for any TV-radio ad, new medical system, 10 times more doctors of 4 types: ETs, NPs, NDs, MDs, to increase lifespan 50 times. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

In the analysis of shoes below, we'll see that 50% of shoe industry predatory aristocrats never got the memo from 5th grade biology that Altra shoe brand got: feet widen at the middle and especially the toes area (Joomra slide, see below, ignored this anatomical fact). The "preying mantis IQ" companies☺☺☺ only got the "How to Prey on Workers" Memo from the Luminaries of nematode worm IQ capitalism that wastes 90% of human labor by duplication of failed destructive technologies and trends in their corruption run industries. With Eternal Clothing Inc, all go to a lab, wear a shoe with 1000 sensors, that adjust to avoid any pressure, you also take 3 D pic of feet, dyeless MRI, etc and you then get one of the 9000 types of shoes of the Eterni Shoe Brand that fits you best, we don't need multiple brands, only one, and the best shoe for your activity and 1000 related foot and walking and musculoskeletal peculiarities, biomarkers, knee and vascular, inflammation medical parameters. Eternal Clothing Inc will create slides that fit perfectly for every foot on Earth and cause so much less damage, 900 times better fitting and joint protecting than anything today, as 90,000 PhDs work on it, not 1. Eternal Clothing Inc will work with your MD too (access the records), the immortalists will end unscientific decisions about shoes: they'll do dyeless MRI, podiatry lab gait, etc analyses to examine foot shape for a perfect fit, and, if none of the 9000 sizes/shapes fit you, it's 3D printed for you so no vessels are damaged, unlike today with huge damage due to only 10-30 sizes per brand. With these "cockroach IQ"☺☺☺ companies, we only get trash and disability for the enslaved working class. The clown scorpion IQ companies today are nothing like a company that takes into account 20,000 health data points about your heart, brain, vessels, feet, joints, etc in designing a shoe. It's like the difference between a chariot and SpaceX rocket or between the genocidal mass rape infinite violence Bible (the basis of our fraud based "civilization") and the peaceful zero negative words (vs 1500 evil quotes of violence of the Bible) Immortalist Anthem. Real science, not "Jesus is Lord" type of bullshit shoe "science" today. The 1 million Immortality City Centers have these podiatry labs, examining gate, etc and you get shoes from there, not from these retarded aristocratic shoe companies. Today, we get the most destructive shoes sold at exorbitant prices, like many Nike Air Giannis Yellow blue, etc, so harsh on your joints and so inflexible, as if designed to smash the workers' feet.☺☺☺ The dress shoes are usually so hard on joints, since the foam that a few have, wears out in 3 months if that's the only shoe you wear for months. With aristocrat terrorists, you only get a few soft running shoes types you can try for a given size, often only 3 pairs at Walmart or etc for softer cushion and more flexible outsole and no pressure on upper foot from a super rigid structure on top of the sole, though even those have endless issues: too tight in the toe area, or upper foot when walking (harsh inflexible rubber or leather, etc) or in the middle or the area 2 inches above the heel on the inner (facing other foot) or outer (facing away from us) area, etc. Everything seems designed by "gnat IQ" folks without any knowledge of vascular health. You can't press so hard on vessels and not create oxidative stress and clots that travel to the brain creating white matter silent strokes. These serial killers shouldn't start shoe companies, the shoes need to be designed by a company with 90,000 PhDs and 1 million employees, the universal worker liberation Eternal Clothing Inc, the only Shoe

Company in USA, (not 0 PhDs for most of these pig IQ companies selling junk slides/shoes today) not 2-500 employee companies run by "cow IQ" folks, none with any MD, other degrees, ETs, NPs, NDs of the reformed medical system. Today, one has to waste so much time to find a soft perfect shoe that won't destroy vasculature on one foot area, and even then, sometimes there is no info on any website about heel height, toe height and 50 other parameters that ought to be on every shoe via a website of Eternal Clothing Inc, to prevent damage to joints, depending on the peculiarities of your joints, musculoskeletal issues. This is due to a psychopathic society of macho hooliganism that deifies toughness and death at the expense of Life and the gentle tender soft loving healing nurturing loving kindness that sustains it. Even Altra, size 13, which is way better than most due to having such a soft shoe above the sole that adjusts to the top of your feet a lot by you loosening the shoe laces completely (that trick doesn't work on rigid shoes), is tight on the area 2 inches above the heel on the inner side facing the other foot, 2 inches towards the midfoot, showing how wasteful the model of shoe purchase is in worm IQ capitalism: they simply don't have wide or extra wide. Small companies capitalism is genocide, clueless peasants turned 'podiatrists', have now made endless useless products that would cause endless vascular events for the gullible folks wearing them, microvascular stress, clots, oxidative stress, but 80% of US is so fat, with obesity rates 4 times higher than decades ago, that they don't feel anything in the feet anymore or ignore it. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

As we get older the body's ability to heal our joints decreases 5 fold☺☺☺, as collagen repair ability weakens, so it becomes critical to wear better shoes that cushion the joints and last 2 years, which, while expensive initially, can cost the same as 4 pairs of Walmart junk that wears out (unusable) in 6 months if worn as the main or only shoe for minimalists. If you have little muscle, keep BMI low, 17-18, like many Japanese centenarians, as this highly reduces strain on the joints (especially for taller people whose spine joints get more stress). In the long run, you pay the same, but you also save your legs and prevent being a burden on society (wheelchair, etc). A review of the best shoes in 2026 shows New Balance won, more on these shoes later and why they're the best for those with knee pain. If you suffer from any pain or want to live to 150, it's best to not wear slippers, but buy a wide version of the softest shoe (the next pages explain the best ones) and use that indoor pair instead of sandals and slides, because walking shoes provide much better cushion for the joints and less wear over 40 years: just trim them if needed to make them a more "slipper like thing and wear the laces ultra relaxed, getting ones that have perfect ventilation. This is especially critical for vegans, because they don't eat collagen, though some "mostly vegans" (99% vegan) eat marine collagen. One video explains why many walking shoes can cost you half million later (the stuff everyone uses and will use as a scientist living to 4000 working in labs, since few run every week or month) because damage can take decades to build, just because we're not seniors, we can't ignore these videos, since living to 150 means you need to prevent the issues of 65 year olds for decades. Wrong shoes and you end up in a wheelchair for 10-40 years. A video explains why the shape of your shoe wear tells you if you're completely destroying your knee/ankle (see X-rays, shocking) joints 30 years early, making you unable to walk in your 70s and needing a wheelchair. A knee replaced costs 80K sometimes. That's why fixing it at 30 is better than never, so you don't need to replace knees. It's far cheaper, 30$, to change the shoe or insole, than using wheelchairs and endless knee procedures costing 200K later on. Seniors don't have 300K for joints, insurance often won't cover it, the nation suffers under the burden of care, don't be a burden. We already have enough headaches due to lack of education about diet, costing 1 trillion a year in avoidable procedures. If your heels wear on the outside (away from the other foot), it means your feet don't roll inwards enough and you have underpronation or supination. If shoes have a slight wear (10 times less than overpronators or supinators have) on outer heel, and nowhere else, you have a healthy gait. If your heels wear on the inside, you have overpronation (you roll too much inward). Crocs and most slides on the market without foam on the strap are harsh without socks or with thin socks, the comfiest slides are Under Armor memory foam slides below. ☺☺☺ There are 3 types of feet: normal, high arc (see treadlab pic) and flat with no arc (meaning if foot is wet, the cardboard it sits on would reveal a moist entire foot shape, unlike arc that lacks wetness in the middle). Each foot needs a unique type of insole or shoe shape for max comfort.

The 3 levels of heel to toe drop: 0 mm, 4-6 mm and 8-16 mm, and their effect on knee health:

1). For those with no joint Pain now, some choose shoes with a 4-6 mm heel to toe drop, that are not stressing the ankle much. Some 4-6 mm drop shoes: 38/32 New Balance NB Foam 1080 V14 38 heel, 32 toe, so 38-32 = 6 mm (softest NB) - NB is the only major soft 4-6 mm brand that has Wide, Extra Wide to fit more shoe types (buy Extra Wide (10-12 mm extra vs regular), since NB normal & Wide (4 mm extra vs normal) are much tighter than other brands, so the side wall will hit the lateral (outwards, not facing the other foot) malleolus, causing blisters even on Wide, NB is NOT for everyone, 100s reported this issue),37/33 Altra FWD Via 2 (softest Altra, most relaxed fit of any shoe I tried: lateral malleolus is not blistering as with NB 1080 v 14, and the base is not narrow like Altra Via Olympus 2, etc, meaning the sole area below lateral malleolus (male soul if you forget this odd word) won't be crushed causing pain when walking; wider toe area than all top brands, less raised toe box than NB, etc, optimized for walking, not running, for lab scientists, not runners), 36/30 Hoka Gaviota 5 (tight), 43/38 Hoka Bondi 9 (softest Hoka, but quite tight vs Altra FWD Via 2 which is far more natural), 45/39 Brooks Glycerin Max (softest Brooks, but quite tight vs Altra), 50/44 Sketchers Max Cushioning Elite 2 (softest Sketchers). Outsole (suspension) softness for the softest model: Hoka>Balance> Asics>Brooks>Sketchers. Altra FWD Via 2 is on Amazon and is about as soft as NB 1080, just a lot comfier, as it has a lower heel to toe (4 not 6), more natural flatter heel that doesn't make you feel you fall backwards like with Hoka and NB. Hoka Bondi 9, NB 1080 are much softer than 20$ Walmart shoes, but they don't have stability (all weight goes on a part of the shoe, which many will dislike, I did, especially the Hoka Bondi). Altra FWD Via 2 is much more stable than NB 1080 or Hoka Bondi 9. If you like feeling the whole sole, Asics Nimbus Gel 28 8 mm is fine too, but still quite tight vs Altra FWD Via 2. NB is comfier than Hoka, more stable. 99$ NB Wide, Extra Wide is generally like a soft sponge compared to wood shoe like Nike Air Giannis Yellow/Blue, etc that cost 140$ on Amazon, but will completely destroy your joints. You don't know what current shoe tech offers until you try NB 1080 Extra Wide, Altra FWD Via 2, way softer sole than most shoes.

2). For Knee & Busted Toe Pain and For Being Able to Walk without a Cane or Wheelchair at 100-140, choose shoes with a 0 mm heel to toe drop that encourage a more natural midfoot, forefoot strike than 4-12 mm rather than a heel strike, reducing the peak patellofemoral pressure on the knee joint. It reduces the "knee extension moment" (the force causing the knee to straighten) and significantly lowers patellofemoral joint stress. "Compared to running in shoes without a drop, running in shoes with drops > 5 mm increase the peak patellofemoral joint stress significantly, which is mainly due to the increased knee extension moment." ► Gait Posture 2022:93:230-4. The closer to zero, the less knee joint stress. Some 0 mm drop shoes: 33/33 Altra Via Olympus 2 (softest of all 0 mm shoes, way softer than Altra 30/30), Via Olympus 2 may be the best shoe on Earth for knee pain, the Olympiad of Knee Pain Reduction Winner. However, the best show is not always 0 mm if outsole is rigid: for some people Altra Fwd Via 2 may be better, since it's softer sole than 0 mm Via Olympus 2, and for some people this softness of each step affects the joint more than the 4 vs 0 mm. More research is needed in each case to determine the ideal shoe, provided it fits without discomfort, blistering (Altra Olympus doesn't fit many people, being too narrow on the base and the other 0 mm brands are too rigid to protect the knee joint, the sole is not the softer foam of Altra Fwd Via 2 or NB 1080, Hoka Bondi 9). Due to narrow area around the lateral malleolus, order Via Olympus 2 a size up (2-4 mm extra width 14 vs 13) or maybe 2 (15 if 13 and 14 are crushing your midsole, and if not too big, though 14 is also 8.5 mm longer vs 13, 15 is 17 mm longer than 13, 15 may only be 4-6 mm extra wider, not enough to remove vascular damage for wider feet). The newest replacement of this is FWD Via 2, which is 4 mm drop, Altra is moving away from 0 mm drop to more and more 4 mm, to compete with the main brands that have 5-12 mm. We need to do a lot of MRI imagine and analysis of gait, etc to determine exactly which shoe damages the knees less, but definitely avoid anything above 5 mm, Hoka Bondi 9. Youtuber explains New Balance midsole is too soft and Altra is better, longer lasting. Hoka Gaviota 5 is in real world tests 2.2 mm, not 6 mm as advertised, that's true for 1000s of shoes (see table of popular brands, middle of page, showing how off these heel to toe drops are), so Gaviota may work better than Altra, as it's softer too. Via Olympus 2 is 35/35 in real world tests. Knee long term health is far more important than anything. If knees break, you need wheelchair. Half people of age 90 have severe knee joint degeneration (grade 4), and knee joint failure is far more common than any foot joint failure, so to be able to walk when you're old, you need to wear zero drop shoes for life to minimize knee stress. Get ready to Lead USA to 130 year lifespan.Don't confuse Via Olympus 2 for walking with Olympus Hike Low GTS or Olympus 5 Trail Running Shoe, those are harder shoes with firm sole foam, even if 33/33 also. The higher the mm, the softer the shoe, the less damage to knee joints. Altra dominates the 0 mm shoe market, no other rival exists, see more of their shoes. You don't want anything 0 mm but the Via Olympus 2, since the other ones don't cushion your knees as much and living long means you need to be able to walk. Unlike NB 13W, the Altra 13 won't crush your lateral malleolus, and has more stability, being ideal for supinators who tend to roll outwards, as its shape makes you roll more inward. It's so soft versus most shoes in the materials above the sole, that it's the second comfiest shoe I ever tried after the latest Altra called FWD Via 2, you can make it wide or extra wide by simply loosening the shoe laces and it's so flexible, so as to fit all narrow feet shapes, very smart, unlike most rigid shoes or slides that will press hard on one side of the foot. FWD Via 2 fits wider feet too, so it will sell more.

This just shows how corrupt and "fruit fly IQ" our society is, humans spend $90 billion on knee issues, wheelchairs, surgeries, etc when they could mandate all shoes to be 0-2 mm drop unless one has a need (due to weird foot shape) for 5-8 mm due to some ankle joint issue (due to injury etc) that is far more severe than knee joint. Running is not important, but walking at 120 is. 0 mm drop also helps our toes☺☺☺ after toe injuries, to remain straight instead of bend, reducing pain. The more above 0 mm, especially above 3 mm, the more toe pain. Wearing 0 mm (zero-drop) shoes from a young age can help strengthen foot muscles, increase ankle mobility, and improve balance, which can lead to better, more functional feet in old age compared to a 5 mm drop. By promoting natural foot movement, these shoes encourage muscles to act, reducing dependence on supportive, cushioned footwear that can weaken the feet over time. However, some podiatrists recommend 5-8 mm drop (so ChatGPT says to avoid knee/ankle injuries, 5-8 mm seems best for most, while 0 mm works for some only, with 10-12 injuring the knees), because the sudden shift from 12 mm to 0 would cause foot injuries, so you need to gradually ease yourself into it, maybe wear them only 5 minutes daily and increase over a year, or get a 4-5 mm shoe first for a year or two, then a 2 mm, then 0 mm. Most people have no clue what heel to toe drop they're using and could make mistakes by impulse buying, causing foot injuries. Everyone is so clueless, in a civil society, shoes would be bought after extensive measurements at the doctor. Additionally, some choose shoes whose forefoot is ultra hard to bend and offering little cushion (that, even when thick, often lasts only 3 months before flattening and causing injuries to joints). Bye Hoka, go Altra FWD Via 2? Why are Hoka or Altra not making a Bondi 9 level softness zero drop shoe? The immortalists need to mandate this new shoe to help people preserve knee function at 120. Please ask Altra to make a Hoka Bondi 9 or Altra FWD Via 2 softness with 0 mm drop, or offer wide For Olympus Via 2 0 mm since the base under the alteral malleolus is too narrow, side walls too rigid. You'll thank yourself at 90. The problem today is the gov doesn't require companies to write heel to toe mm, like 45/39. It's evil. Youtube has 5000 exercises one can do to strengthen legs, core muscles without destroying knee joints by running. Some claim that running/walking is the best, search google/youtube to find out 1000 alternative to knee joint destroying running/brisk walking indoors on a machine or outdoors. The running promoters don't care about the statistics, 50% of 90 year old have totally destroyed knee joints. To prevent damaging joints, you need some real discipline to avoid 1. jumps, 2. hard shoes 3. running/jogging. Repetitive strain injury of wrist causes pain, damage to joints, so does excessive running. Not everyone eats collagen or has perfect knee joints genetics. Walking gently helps the joints. We don't need to burden joints to pretend we're invincible. Leave shoes on a shoe rack, don't bring shoes in the house, because the outsoles of shoes are lethal microbe infested objects. Have shoes for outside and slides for inside or separate shoes for inside only.

3). For Achilles, Calf, Heel Pain, some choose 10-12 mm drop to reduce the range of motion required by the calves and Achilles tendon, providing relief for tendonitis and similar, while cushioning the heel. Some 10-12 mm drop shoes: 35.5/23.5 Brooks Ghost 16 & Adrenaline GTS 24, 38/28 Brooks Glycerin 22 & Glycerin GTS 22, 43.5/35.5 Asics Gel-Nimbus 28 (softest Asics, 8mm, ideal for those who want a slightly lower height), Walmart/cheap 20$ pairs. Never choose 8-12 mm if you have no foot joint pain, because you will wear your knee joints faster.

For brand names to google and research, please visit here, to see why low drop helps the knees. Altra Via Olympus 2 seems the only shoe ideal (due to 0 drop) for most narrow feet without severe foot joint issues, if you don't want to become a burden on society, needing a wheelchair. Which mm is the softest of all? The 4-6 mm. The 4-6 mm shoes with the highest heel are the softest cushion for knees and overall within a 4-6 mm brand, so Bondi 9 is softest within Hoka, Glycerin Max softest within Brooks. For New Balance, Foam X 1080 are the softest, for Brooks, the Glycerin line. See a 40 sec video on New Balance (NB) Fresh Foam X 1080 (the softest NB and best Foam X is the 1080, Foam is not as good as Foam X, Amazon has 14W for 85$, 13W for 130$, 14XW 135$). Nortiv has shoes for 48$ on Amazon, that offer 65% of the NB softness: Nortiv 8 MovePlush, MovePropel men / women, ActiveFloat women / men. Podiatrists (leg MDs) recommend New Balance over Nortiv to relieve joint pain. The Immortalists will require all slides and shoes are at least as comfy as top 2 shoes, and require most to have 0-2 mm drop shoes to avoid burdening national medical facilities with knee issues due to 4-12 mm drop shoes. All high heels will be banned to prevent $1 trillion in leg injury expenses. Rei.com physical store has discounts, but they don't carry the Altra Via Olympus 2 (that the biggest Nordstrom and rarely Nordstrom Rack carry), only the tougher on joints Altra Via Olympus. Rei.com membership of 30$ a lifetime gives you the ability to return shoes within 1 year, instead of 90 days usually, plus 10% off any purchase. Go to Nordstrom and Nordstrom Rack (discounts) and try see what works, though these stores don't carry Altra shoes usually. Then buy that brand online if cheaper.

Slides ideal for tile or wood floor around the house:

A good shoe is much nicer in cushioning joints than any slide on Earth in cold weather, so you can just walk around the house, if no carpet, in some shoes that you trim (if not comfy or too hot) or looses the shoe laces of completely for ventilation, to be more like a slipper and use indoors only, getting the wide/extra wide version and maybe trimming the upper part that may hit the ankle bone protrusions too much. People wore very tight shoes or learned to walk on tile or flat floor and then babies learned to avoid walking on the front of the feet that have way more tickling and pain sensitivity due to more nerves there. How did babies get such crooked gait? Simple: to avoid pain on tough shoe, floor or tile, babies learned to walk on their heels and then their shoes will get wear on the inside or outside of the heel. Never teach kids how to walk on hard floor/tile since it will make their gait roll inwards or outwards and ruin their joints later. Look at people standing, self in kitchen, etc or teachers, workers, often they tend to lean all body weight on one foot and the other leg is just bent at the knee: this is why one heel can be 20% more worn, as they supinate or pronate more on one foot due to the habit of leaning on one foot. Because shoes (the cheap regular at Walmart) were so tough, in 1960s-2020s, people learned to avoid pain as kids by walking on their heels, damaging their knee joints, but it's all reversible with modern ultra soft shoes that cost more and gradually become more common at Walmart and cheapest stores. We as a society end up paying more by making cheap tough shoes later in the 50-100 year old stage, it's a short-term saving of $500 per person first 50 years, but then costs $9000 in 50-100 stage, all preventable. It's not knee arthritis, but GREED BASED KNEE JOINT DAMAGE. Poor long-term planning of the industry, hence we need one Eternal Clothing Inc to centralize everything and remove 95% of shoes, which are catastrophic, especially women's heel shoes. Uneven heel wear obviously will cause some joint to be damaged 10 times faster than the rest, so you need to fix the way you walk with the correct orthotic, insole, better shoes, posture or both. See why barefoot shoes or flat shoes are a very bad idea if you want to live to 150, due to aging ligaments and joints unable to absorb the harsh impact. Viakix Acadia is thought of as the softest Viakix, with Viakix Samara 2nd softest, Siena 3rd. Vionic (evil 10-16 mm drop), Hoka Ora Recovery 3 slides (6 mm drop, bad for knees due to being very hard), Birkenstocks (0 mm drop) slides are too firm. Most Crocs are very hard, like Hoka recovery slide. The softest Crocs slides are Mellow Luxe (more heel sinking than LiteRide or Adilettes) and LiteRide, with 8 mm drop, but these are heavy and exert a huge pressure on blood vessels that come out of the leg into the foot each time you take a step, effectively creating oxidative stress and damage. Crocs LiteRide, 304 gram per shoe, is good for gardening/outside the house where mud exists so you don't damage or contaminate the indoor slides; however, it presses against the toes, being bent upwards too much, but it's a softer EVA (cushion the heel) than most slides.

Joomra (biggest size on Amazon, 12.5) weighs less, 203g, but it is pressing against the upper foot near the big toe, due to a design that denies the shape of human feet (too narrow where toes are, the third area of the foot near toes), designed by "pig IQ" folks, who failed to realize the ideas of Altra, Under Armor and other companies that make the shoe wider near the big toe and whole upper foot, meaning the area shifts to the inside of the feet, not outside. The Adidas Adilette Comfort 2.0 Slides, size 13, 231 g, are supposed to be Adidas' softest slide (part of their cloudfoam slides, with a heel to toe drop of 0-2 mm, possibly 0) and they're quite soft, almost like LiteRide Crocs, and the picture shows Adidas strap is much softer on the feet vs Roll Recovery and other fixed strap slides, due to those foam pieces on the inside of the strap that makes it WAY better. It definitely is softer than others, but still fixed, nonadjustable strap that crushes your blood vessels (vascular damage and poor toe blood flow to get a nice toe amputation for diabetics, anyone?) on the area next to the foot to leg joint and generally is very uncomfortable, due to being so tight even at size 13, very poor design from Adidas, and this is their best softest slide, shows you what crap Adidas has become. Google AI and ChatGPT both say Adilette Comfort 2.0 is softer on knee joints than Under Armor Ignite Pro or Pro 8, not sure if true, but Adidas surely crushes our blood vessels triggering vascular events, clots and oxidative stress body wide as it depletes body resources from more important heart areas etc. Google AI says Adilette Comfort 2.0 is softer than Roll Recovery Superflush too, though ChatGPT claims Roll is softer, I tried them both and Roll is a disaster, the strap is like the most inflexible rubber that crushes your midfoot inner side. Roll Recovery slide has 6-8 mm drop, but because the heel is soft, people don't notice it with any of these soft slides, and the actual heel to toe drop can fall to 0 mm due to the sheer weight on heels, that's why the heel to toe is not that important. We don't want negative heel to toe, so if a shoe is 0 mm or slide and too soft on heel, it will create tension on the Achilles tendon. Most slides have 4-8 mm, that becomes 0-4 mm once heel presses. However, Roll Recovery weighs a whopping 288 g, too heavy for a slide, and it has a fixed, hard, inflexible, strap that crushes your middle foot area facing the other foot, even at maximum size 14 I got, pure junk, as if you walk in some metal shoes as part of the Catholic Inquisition. Chimps can design better slides probably.☺☺☺

Most molded EVA (ethylene vinyl acetate) slides are uncomfortable compared to Under Armor Ignite Pro, the only slide among 50 I tried that seems to be safe for blood vessels:

Dockers Sunland Slides are memory foam and may be softer than Under Armor Ignite Pro, even if less known, but lack adjustable strap. The Under Armor Ignite Pro 8 (latest iteration, see 2 min youtube, of the world famous memory foam slide Ignite Pro) weighs 323g (size 15, 318g size 14) vs 225g for Ignite Pro size 14 (men) old model, has a very inflexible outsole due to its thicker nature and it's strap is far less comfortable, crushing the blood vessels a lot more than Ignite Pro, due to the sole not bending easily. So, avoid the Pro 8, unless you want vascular damage. Sadly, many companies "improve" a product, to make it far worse. The only advantage of the Pro 8 is a 15% (barely noticeable) softer and thicker memory foam, softer and thicker outsole (softer EVA) to diminish impact on knees, and slightly raised sidewalls for better stability and comfort than Ignite Pro, toes are more straight, but it's heavier, so many will need Pro to avoid pain or injuries if their feet muscles are weak. Find the old style Ignite Pro, since heavy slides make your feet work harder and crush vessels more. People who slip and trip a lot, may like Pro 8 as it prevents slips more. Good slides weigh max 230g. The Pro 8 EVA outsole features a more aggressive grooved pattern for better traction, increased friction (traction) means less effort is required from the leg muscles to maintain stability needed to prevent slipping, but Pro 8 high grip increases the force required for movement, so a different set of muscles related to propulsion work harder, while others relax; however, too much friction can cause ACL tears in the knee, so weak knee people need avoid the Pro 8. For older people with balance issues, Pro 8 is a must, as falls would be bad. The thicker outsole of Pro 8 absorbs more of the impact with concrete, etc. The memory foam allow your soles to breathe much more and get oxygen in the summer versus the enclosed EVA foam rubber feel ones. This maintains a better skin quality, protecting the collagen layer. So always wear socks as contact with EVA rubber or foam will deprive feet of any breathing when standing. The heel is where most impact travels up to the knees, so the softer the foam there, the less force reaches the knee joint. Always get the versions with straps to adjust and prevent vascular damage to toes (no amputation) by restricted blood flow. Ignite Pro being thinner bends easier in the forefoot, providing a clear advantage, it all depends on what you need, with Ignite Pro Freedom having more colors and a slight better cushion on side walls, but essentially being an Ignite Pro almost 99%, so much thinner forefoot sole than Pro 8. ChatGPT (since company has no data) says the heel to toe drop for Ignite Pro (1 min video) is 0-4 mm and 2-4 mm for Ignite Pro 8 with no official data, so Pro is for those wanting 0 like Altra that helps knees most. You can measure it with a ruler yourself too. Even the old Ignite Pro is way comfier than all EVA molded slides that you see everywhere. Most molded EVA slides have very harsh rubber fixed upper foot area that crushes your blood vessels, creates daily tiny vascular injuries and potential for blood clots from injured endothelium, while the soft foam straps on Under Armor protect feet vessels. For color, get lighter colors for foam and slide, to see ticks (can kill via Lyme Carditis) or deadly insects, the lighter, the more likely it is for you to clean it often.

EVA Slides from OOfos (OK for 5% of folks only, overrated by every search engine):

Oofos slides, shoes, are 6 mm heel to toe drop, not ideal for knee pain which is more like 0-3 mm. Most Oofos are for those rolling inward. For normal foot arc supinators, Oofos are bad, Oofos have too high of an arc, being only suited for people with high arc feet. After a day of wearing the Oofos Sport Flex slides, my feet felt sore in the leg-foot joints and 3 times pain emerged in the plantar fascia. Oofos are overrated and the other slides are so hard. For people with very high arc feet, 5%, OOfos slides allegedly work well according to several sites like this one explaining why outer edge wedges in insoles are not the best way to fix it, but rather the counterintuitive Oofos type of heel cup and arch support slides. NBC explains these 3 types of feet and why MDs say you need to buy shoes or insoles specific to your foot type. You may have heard of recovery slides, like OOFOS Ooahh (SOFT Whoa, Wow, Awe, Ooh, Ahh), OOFOS (3 Os) SOOOFT Foam. The Oofos line has earned the APMA Seal of Acceptance. But 6 mm drop is deadly for knees in the long run. The idea behind Oofos is most slides are flat, which allows the foot to overpronate (roll inward) and provides no support. Dress shoes for men and heels for women are catastrophic for the joints and muscles (increase chance of knee surgeries, wheelchair, chronic leg pain, cane use): they need be banned planet wide, as a remnant of the age of 0 IQ of feudalism. One doctor says OOfos and similar slide, shoe shapes (endless popular ones) are bad, due to the angled heel outsole, that is vastly more bent in OOfos than other slides. A podiatrist selling his own slide, says not everyone needs such a soft slide. Hoka is firmer and easier for some foot shapes ideal for outside the house for many, while OOfos ideal for in home walk, as yahoo explains too. Marathon agrees OOfos are the softer than Hoka. We need see what the data shows in labs on pressure and joints, MRI scan of joints (see if any uneven wear exists in one place due to uneven gait), analysis of gait in the lab to see how much your supination or pronation destroyed a joint, etc. Angled heel caps (last part of heel that touches the ground) are worse than flat for some. She argues that the heel edge not being parallel to the ground bends everything backwards and strains muscles, changes walking posture, increases risk of accidents as balance is weaker due to more weight on the rest of the foot: the heel outsole doesn't support heel weight entirely, so the balance suffers, folks fall more often. However, most shoes today have this angled heel cap to make walks or runs easier, so her idea is "flat is safer, but it makes walking harder too". If you like wider or more relaxed fits, then shoe size being bigger means your foot won't need a flat heel cap as much, as weight is distributed evenly. 80$ Sport Flex (website offers all sizes, colors) is the upgrade of OOahh since it's the exact same slide, with the extra comfort of a velcro strap to avoid pain (due to swelling on long standing days at the end of the day for people with venous insufficiency or an injury) or looseness (they slide off or are too tight) if your foot doesn't fit perfectly. Velcro types are better. Amazon has the OOahh Sport Flex in common sizes for 40-60$, Fleet has extra Flex colors. Some feet swell after 8 hrs of standing, so velcro strap helps. OOahh slides have 23 mm of foam, regardless of size, OOyea slides 29 mm of foam, softer than OOahh on joints, OOmega OOahh (softer than OOahh), 38mm foam total, which provide the highest recovery from joint injuries (due to extra 15 mm of foam). Some may like OOFOS shoes (scroll down to see cheapest on sale, 30-60$ vs 140$ the pricier ones), not the horrible sandals, the cheapest 30-40$ of any OOfos on sale at any time not or Oofos Clogs the widest Oofos for toes.

SLIDE & SHOE HYGIENE: Under Armor Ignite Pro & Pro 8 (memory foam footbed), providing a pillow like feel that is way softer than molded EVA slides (Hoka, Oofos, Croc LiteRide)

When taking your 5 minute daily shower, after you wash your genitals/anus, etc you can plug the drain so some of the soap and water will soak, warm and wash better the feet, with the warm water to improve circulation. Otherwise, feet won't get washed well, many people forget to wash feet at all in the shower. With Under Armor, the softest slides are the open foam ones, so you need to wash them often to avoid smells. You may need to use a heavy object to bend the top of the slide in the correct position, if you want to have the toes be more flat than how it comes from the factory. Wash these memory foam slides biweekly, to prevent infection of foam with microbes that infect your socks or toenail, clothing via washing machine and socks: soak them in hot water with detergent for 2 hrs (not the washer, to prevent microbes infecting the washer/dryer and then eye/face towels). Add also peppermint/clove oil or water obtained by soaking cloves into water. Cloves in water yield a powerful mold killer you can add to this water to sterilize the slides often. For closed foam, you can probably wash them the same way every 2 months to sterilize them well, you can also dissolve cloves into water and use the brown water you get after 12 hours of soaking to spray the slides as it kills the mold, or use essential peppermint or clove oil to kill fungus, mold, etc every week. All slides would ideally need in the future to have sealed covered foam, not exposed that is impossible to clean very well, so soft it is as soft as exposed memory foam or at least they need to give a removable memory foam that we can replace every 2 years, so we don't trash them due to odor. A material science challenge.

To protect the foot, don't wear tight shoes, as squeezing the blood vessels and tissues creates cellular damage, oxidative stress. Try the wide size or 1-2 sizes up, to give feet a relaxed fit, to prevent toes getting closer than 1" from slide end (big size means toes won't get busted by objects). For socks, use socks 1-3 sizes bigger to prevent restricting blood flow to toes and feet, and 3-6 sizes up for 70+% cotton socks which shrink 5 sizes if 99% cotton quite often, e.g. size 15-18: XL 3 pair (91% cotton)/29$, 12 pairs 13-16, 24$ (use a wide bottle to set them all on that to expand them if they leave marks, do that for 3 months), XXL (50% cotton) 3 pair/18$. Read the 1 star reviews before purchase, as most 13-18 size are actually 10-12 after wash or even before, made in China, where males are 5' often. Rely on China sizes/fraud and get tight socks. Cotton shrinks massively (see pic), bamboo nylon, polyester doesn't.

Other Clothing Issues:

Amazon only indicates the inseam for pajama pants only in maybe 1% of cases, with the length of pants being more common, maybe 5%. This causes people to waste time ordering, returning, etc. Amazon also have the millions of products not matching the product description on Amazon, with 100% cotton being 0% cotton, etc. In Australia, go to the most popular site news.com.au and see mostly naked or semi naked ladies. TV anchors promote skin cancer by wearing naked chests, and this is in a country with highest skin cancer rate globally, due to sunny weather and a government of "a trillion times lower IQ☺☺☺ than the IQ needed to love the worst person a trillion times more than the best mom last decade loved her most beloved infant, as the Immortalist Anthem calls us to", a government unwilling to create safe clothing of UPF 50 for all, so 67% of Australians get skin cancer at some point. In the West, every lady shows her tits or chest on TV☺☺☺, the clothing companies owned by ☺puppy IQ women create these so called women style T-shirt and shirts that expose the chest to increase the chance of skin cancer 2 fold and of 5 months shorter life by 90%, as those sun rays reaching the sin make their chest horrible looking versus men, who wear clothing that protects that area. The IQ of women can't be lower than to wear something that oxidizes blood, depletes glutathione and other blood antioxidants just to seduce men who must be the "IQ primitives on Earth" to be fooled by such an abysmal IQ selfish dangerous (to her kids) woman. Ladies, kindly use your brains and realize that you don't need to have skin looking like a 120 year old lady around the chest to seduce men, nor do you need that area empty, since you get the face, hands for vitamin D. Immortalists take over all clothing companies to end these tit and chest life shortening fashions. On the issue of tight socks, we have a lot of scam companies selling socks advertised as wide and not blocking circulation, but when you get them, they're fine only before the first wash. After that, they shrink 5 sizes and then leave marks and block blood flow each time you wear them, even if skinny and BMI 17 only. This is unbelievable, due to 4 million products and no quality checks, which would work only for fewer products of much higher quality. Take these socks as an example, the Amazon reviews indicate the tags causing holes issue, but no change is happening. Other socks advertise 15-18 size, but that's before the first wash, after that they become size 12. This fraud is so pervasive for 1000s of 70+% cotton socks, they shrink 3-4 sizes. Feds need mandate pre wash so cotton doesn't shrink from size 16 to 12. No fine, just fraud eternal. Dickies claims it's size 15-18, but 16 feet feel crushed, another example of fraud. Most socks today develop holes right away, check this pic out, US design quality at its best. One wash cycle and holes emerge. Just like Walmart ones I bought, within a year 10 pairs had holes. XL size shrinks with each 2 years to scam the consumers. Need XXXL.

In conclusion, the 11 companies, in about 20 years, end 40 million jobs and create 40 million high tech jobs to improve the health and lifespan of all. It's the total transformation of America to prioritize Immortality for All, a metaphor for universal healthcare and decent living conditions for all, so all live a nanosecond in the life of an Immortal, i.e. a trillion human years☺☺☺. The healthcare field, food industry, transportation, car industry, etc are as inefficient and chaotic as the building contractor one. There is simply way too much focus on appearance, nothing on longevity and living to 700, many products shorten lifespan, but sell wildly.

4.6. Increase 30 times the alcohol, weed, amalgam, casino, lottery, tobacco tax to fund kindergarten, school, university Immortality science labs

Our "aristocrats steal everything" government doesn't even give people decent jobs and allows the most genocidal jobs to even exist. Instead of making sure everyone is employed in decent jobs of the 11 universal companies for ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months, we have the ultimate murder presented as a job. If the USA doesn't abolish taxes right away, plus ban weed, alcohol, smoking, gambling, etc, as detailed here, then they need increase some excise taxes 30 fold at least, or call it health fee if they abolish taxes and don't suddenly ban alcohol, smoking, etc. Brazil may ban sports gambling. Romania county (equivalent to US state) banned gambling. Other forms of gambling include stock market, a scam to enrich the aristocrats by theft of trillions, and psychic readings, whereby spy agency liars try to manipulate people telling them a "desired direction of their life" (which often means false info to waste your time or deadly info to trap you). Such fraudulent psychics (who help FBI enslave all) need be banned, since they're all liars who work for the marriage arranging forces of the aristocratic Gods who pose as clergy, spies, mega psychics and other fortune tellers who're mind controlled by the spy/military agenices. Traditional clergy are spies, comical liars who preach free will, while always trampling on it, conmen who work hard to fool church goers and trap them into certain relationships by advanced electronic mind control techniques, that FBI-CIA or foreign spy agencies provide. UAE has betrayed Islam's ban on gambling and the immortalist ban on gambling and allows another casino to take hold, thanks to American Wynn Resorts conmen who say casinos in UAE in Dubai, etc are for foreigners only, not local Muslims. The founder of Wynn resorts is Jewish (at least on Wikipedia, he could be German or Brit, who uses a Jew cover, and casinos to catch criminals who launder money) Steve Weinberg who made his name more gentile Wynn, and Japanese Kazuo Okada, billionaires who ought to be fined 50$ billion by America's future immortalist government for destroying American education and ethics, undermining research and endangering national security via hybrid warfare in conscious or unconscious cooperation with Mossad and the Japanese army. 80% of offenders abuse drugs or alcohol. As the Protocols of the Zion Elders explain, the goal of the rich 'bad type of' Jews is to corrupt and destroy every nation, every race, every ethnicity, every language, so they install Hebrew as the language (as they tried to ban English in USA in 1780s), and Jews ruling the entire planet. Nearly 50% of jail and prison inmates are clinically addicted to alcohol, drugs or gambling, thanks to Jewish and other aristocratic parasites selling nicotine, alcohol, drugs and gambling, with ample support from criminal type of Jews infiltrating every branch of US government and making lotteries legal nationwide, circumcision free by insurance nationwide, etc.☺☺☺ 40% of violent crime is linked to alcohol use. ☺☺☺ We lose 3 million humans yearly to alcohol worldwide, think about how many car crashes happen due to alcohol alone, how many get lung cancer from second hand smoke and waste hospital resources. The alcohol section explains how we can increase beer tax from max state tax of 1.29/gallon (TN) to national 30$/gal and spirits from 37/gal (Washington) to national 800. All alcohol will be gradually phased out over 5-10 years, except for medical reasons with prescription if treatment of an issue with alternatives failed and it's proven alcohol can do fix it without causing damage to other organs (impossible, but we'll say that to help staunch believers into the mythological alcohol benefits to feel good until the total ban after huge research studies are done into the alleged 0 damage by tiny levels of alcohol). Wyoming taxes beer only 0.02$, which is too low. It ought to be 1500 times higher, 30$/gal. We're talking about a holocaust of 400 million humans dead last 200 years due to alcohol sales. Where is the OUTRAGE? 6 million Jews was big? GENTILE LIVES MATTER, not only Jewish CEOs selling beer, wine and spirits to shorten gentile lifespan. Lifetime labor for all caught selling alcohol, after its full ban. Taxing companies that produce mercury amalgam that lower IQ and nervous system health, casinos, lotteries more could be another source of $, until they're all demolished to build single family housing, etc. It makes sense to tax it more, even 30 times more until all casinos and gambling go bankrupt, become illegal in USA (due to lowering IQ, promoting laziness).

Gambling in any form is anti-Immortality for All, it's pro-entropy, pro-random chaos, against focused immortalism effort, it needs to be wiped out immediately, by creating Immortality Parks with far more colorful, interesting, science of longevity gadgets, ecstatic bliss (instant bliss via meditation centers), biomarker monitoring stations, free simulations, pics of your own arteries, etc that would make gambling be perceived by all as boring, criminal, genocidal, 0 IQ, the past time of a mentally retarded civilization of baboons. Granted, some may find this comparison offensive due to a cosmic ego of infinite proportions, but compared to 200 year old humans of the future, we're all like baboons (avg lifespan 40), living half their lifespan. Gambling is the tool aristocrats use to keep masses low IQ, entertained, enslaved, happy to die at 80, uninterested in immortality capitalism that ends the Age of 20 millennia of Aristocratic Terror. Unsurprisingly, gambling ads are ubiquitous on TV-radio in many nations, Australia spending more on gambling per capita than any other nation. We need to use $ to teach basic chemistry, physics and biology since age 5 (help school library be open until 9 pm so kids have a silent place to study if noise at home) to reach trillion year lifespans, brains are most plastic before age 10 and kids can learn so much more useful stuff than chess, Sudoku, too many sports (that destroy eterni tone, gentleness, eterni qualities and build selfishness and not caring about the millions made homeless each decade via wars, as cities are wiped out); it seems like the whole world is so preoccupied with teaching 9 year olds condom use, and nothing about the gravity of war and barbarity of war, and how humans could disappear in 10 seconds one day if we don't achieve World Peace within 1-2 years and how the number one goal of human civilization, culture and spirituality ought to be 0 wars, 0 violence and 0 prisons, the beginning of civility and kindness. Yet, how can we do that without a universally kind gentle healing soft tone of speech? The most important lessons in kindergarten and elementary school, middle school would be about manifesting World Peace soon and maintaining it for 1 trillion years, ending all violence, torture and equipping the youth with the character traits to build that world of peace. One of the things kids could see at age 5 might be some ultra basic science experiments, like the simplest ones shown at 12, in order to arise a deeper interest in science, e.g. a colorless liquid, appearing as water, is not water, but phenolphthalein solution, and when placed in a water looking colorless NaOH solution, it turns purple. Nothing is what it seems, if you look at water with a good microscope you see hydrogen bonds and the molecules. Instead of playing with legos to build basic things, or in addition to that, kids could build molecules using atoms or amino acids of a chemical set that is very colorful and lovely like legos☺☺☺. They would be explained that a certain peptide acted as a factor that turned one cell into another, without using stem cells and renewed organs, so grandma looks young and healthy until 200, the kid next door lives 10 times longer because of a molecule that neutralized a virus that would have otherwise killed him.

As the kid realizes how powerful molecules can be, giving life or extending it 10 times, the love of science becomes stronger than the love of guns, tanks, weapons, soldiers and other typical toys of boys that perpetuate the violence filled short lives of ignorance we have on Earth. Look in any toy section and you will almost never find atoms to build molecules, amino acids to build peptides, DNA bases to build DNA, elementary particles to build new forms of matter (hadrons), things that explain the standard model of physics, a small set that replicates the discovery of the neutron by Rutherford, of quarks, etc. The amusement parks for kids require maintenance, cause accidents, as kids move in high speed, up and down, raise their anxiety, ruin the peace vibe, while teaching kids to have fun while being selfish and not benefiting anyone, on the contrary, harming their own eterni tone vibe, which is at least improved if one kindly listens to eterni music and also helps build a house like Habitat for Humanity type of charity for the homeless, build little useful things in the Immortality science lab, paint or draw a colorful Immortality for All quote, quality on a foam board for people to decorate their new home within a healing center, help build (under adult supervision, only simple tasks, like eterni art, some basic ultra light duty chores) a healing center to replace prisons, nicer homes to replace terrible housing, do nice small science projects, to help this and that plant, develop altruism, understand reality instead of living in a fake bubble, vertical farming veggie garden to grow food on site in a healing center (this would be free of residents, before anyone moves in, for kid safety) etc. These things teach science and movement, and still allow kids to play around a little bit, express their creative drawing skills, etc. Carousels teach kids to be harsh (that plastic fake horse is very harsh on the body, it's not soft, creates oxidative stress and shortens lifespan), loud, yell, shout, anti eterni and be a mortal primitive human (primitive versus Immortals of the future, primitive = more physical, more chimp, low IQ like, fast and even medium horse riding causes traumatic brain injury of a small less detactable type vs mental levitation remotely controlling the antigravity field device) who rides horses, whereas the science of Immortality Center building in every school, healing center, etc help kids envision the day of levitation, when we don't ride horses, but levitate via anti-gravity tech and Immortalist Soldiers; riding horses quantum entangles people with the soldiers of dark ages who killed everyone left and right, very anti-immortality; the singing performances for prerecordings to help build Qualities for other kids and people improve tone, develop the intellect and emotion according to the eterni vibe. Equally anti-immortality, negative emotion building, are roller coasters, (or related ferris wheels) which are very dangerous, in the USA 4 deaths a year, with 30,000 injuries a year and probably half a million invisible strokes from the high heartbeat, these are silent strokes that parents won't know happened that cause brain damage and lower IQ in their kids or adult friends wasting time with such selfish thrills; given the terrible place where many people live (whom the society scapegoats to jails or terrible neighborhoods), it's very selfish to even build such things, not to mention irresponsible since people can die so easily and it's so preventable: don't go there; life is way more valuable than such an incredibly useless thrill; be thrilled about helping other people live in a better way, discover something in a lab, etc. joy can be doing something humanitarian; perhaps, it would be illegal in an immortalist world, just do selfless service that has 0% risk of any injury, help adults build single story house, nice green space with beautiful plants, Immortality for All quotes, colorful 2 inch long stone arrangements to make words, plant flowers, drought resistant plants, or help build a nice Immortality lab☺☺☺, as charity to exercise, help adults with small tasks, don't ride, it helps nobody, belts can break, people will die, is such a low IQ thrill worth the end of a 9 million year long life?

In India and many countries, people starve or are malnourished, yet the government is importing cheetahs that eat 5 kg meat daily on average, to save a species that destroys the human quantum entanglement field - but causing daily bloodshed on Earth to survive. India even chose tiger as national animal in 1972, we need to choose 100% vegan animals, not ones that shed blood, like big cats, bears, eagles, etc. Mahatma Gandhi was all about nonviolence, so what happened to India? Why not choose a dove, something about Peace of the Upanishads? Eternia chose a different animal. Tigers kill people (see video), they're violent. Perhaps, only keep carnivores in one zoo per continent too, given them fake vegan meat. It's odd how important blood spilling (and meat wasting) big cats (Biden banned big cats as pets, finally, thank God), too many zoos (while people are homeless, kids overcrowded), circuses (that waste society energy for maintaining them, Hawaii banned wild animals in circuses) are versus school kids who go hungry, by the millions in USA alone. Uzbekistan banned tigers and 60 plus species as pets. Thank God. Big cat cubs can kill/injure small kids. We need to conserve good education, good nutrition at school, not big cats. If we teach kids to be selfish from age 5, they will be so all their life. Due to AI and video cameras everywhere, there won't be violence anywhere, no prisons, only healing and learning centers, no Lego toy police cars, helicopters, etc needed, as a hologram flies in the form of the most stunning angelic being to a person and sings in healing tones☺☺☺ to them that the Elders of the Civilization would want to invite them to a healing-learning center, and they would always comply, as the hologram infuses the being with the happiest feelings of wellbeing and love and the Courses there for the rectification of Civilization's failure would be taught by the most amazing people (they watch the prerecorded classrooms and AI interactive things, etc) who realize any crime is a total failure of the entire Civilization also, of the system, not of an individual only. The last thing an enemy alien group would want is peace on earth and the focus on lifespan tripling and space travel, a strong focus on science since age 3 months, with intelligent scientific experiments simulated (via new toys not created yet). Divide and conquer means they would want eternal war and total ignorance about living to 150 or 700. In 2013 Sci 340(6139):1434-7 (google it to get full pdf) reported for the first time the non contact atomic force microscopy imaging of a benzene ring by Berkeley physicists and chemists, confirming the (sp2 hydrid orbital 120 angle) hexagon structure that August Kekule proposed in 1865, even though with IR spectroscopy 1,479 cm-1 etc peaks we could confirm the structure before this 2013 imaging (google "benzene IR spectrum" for spectra). If we take onion, add iodine and look at it thru a microscope, the iodine will react with starch and lead to color being more intense in starchy areas of the onion cell walls, and we can see the onion cell walls. When we explain nothing is what it seems, they get it better, since they realize everything is as it seems thru out normal eye lenses, but thru different lenses, it appears so different. This then stimulates questioning everything in science and every field of human knowledge and leads to more creativity and innovation, that speeds up the advent of the Immortality Civilization, just like Rutherford questioned and discovered the electron, neutron.

A microscope at 30x, 4,000x shows vastly different things. A binocular or telescope also allows 4 year olds to look at the sky, stars, etc and realize the sky is not what it seems or a tree in the distance or a bird, it's different if you look at it thru a different lens. So is with everything in life and people, spirits/Immortals of the future (our descendants) can look thru the microscope of their advanced knowledge and perceive the details of a soul in ways we will never be able to with our existing technology. These simple physical science ways to perceive the relativism of perception thru a $10 7x50 binocular or a small microscope, or a small chemistry, physics or biology experiment can help kids to understand that reality is far more complex and everyone perceives the world differently. They even have 1 dollar magnifying lenses that kids can use at age 2 to magnify an insect or some object. Some kids speak at 9 months quite well. They don't understand what the magnified insect means maybe fully at age 1 or 2, but even looking at a microscope at age 3 or 4 can be very enlightening, as then the science of it is explained, the red blood cell maybe, its role in the body, how it helps us to live to 400 one day, etc. These early encounters with the unseen and the unperceived, the subtle and the seemingly not, will develop a deeper interest in knowledge and discovery and create a different Civilization. This is easy now, since microscopes are much cheaper than 100 years ago, some are just $20 (portable), $60 for a real microscope (a set of prepared slides is $10-20 and that can be exciting, motivating the kid to learn to prepare one's own slides, etc), a chemistry experiment that will fascinate the kid forever can be done easily over and over for just $10-20 or watched on youtube. The binocular is looking at the galaxies, stars, etc, at the future of our Civilization when we will be on so many planets having much bigger-longer lifespan, nobody will even know what Earth (a tiny village of the human civilization) is, since today nobody knows almost some obscure village in America. We almost perform a psychometry exercise of remote viewing the future when we look at night at the sky via a binocular. It's also a good way to motivate people to walk (exercise).☺☺☺

4.7. Using 95% of athletics spending + increase 2000% tax on sport events, bars, strip clubs, brothels, vape stores/discos/restaurants and hotels (especially the more empty ones, tax depends on occupancy)/cinemas to build research centers, single soundproof rooms on campus & at home for all school, college, grad, postdoc students

1. ON-CAMPUS

Do we need that many hotels if all had single family houses and lived in decent conditions, with the most stunning backyards that make Disneyland pure garbage, with decent stress free houses maintained, built all by the Immortality Building Inc? When you're happy, stress free, full of love and bliss, loving all people, hating nobody, you don't need to travel that much to destress, but Immortality Research Centers we call the Immortality labs of the Centralized Tone National Online Education system, the 1 million labs, can have guest researcher rooms nearby, nice tranquil mini-hotels where the meditative geeks can spend time, and even the City Hall Immortality Parks can have a small Eternal Bliss Relaxation Guest Rooms, to replace the business tradition of hotels, with the focus on happiness that reduces crime and anger in society 1 billion fold via the most intelligent and advanced system of relaxing restful rejuvenation, wholly deifying the Eternal Education of the Immortality for All Ecstatic Bliss, the number one thing we need to sustain Eternal Universal Peace next 5 trillion years. Let's face it, most people would prefer to live close on campus, walk to classes (labs actually, since theory classes are online) and not spend 30 minutes or 200 min in traffic to get to the only lab doing something within 70 miles? Yet, we have these stadiums and sports facilities, wasting building materials and money, when they could provide decent housing to all students. Why don't we cut athletics spending by 95% and use that money to convert doubles into singles and build more soundproof walls and give people more science based nutrition and free earplugs in orientation week and free 5 hours course of the Immortal Civilization during Orientation Week? In a Civilization of "Immortals" (souls are Immortals) living to 200 or 900 everybody has a single room as freshman or any year (not a reality at most universities, who don't even give earplugs to students when they put them in rooms with people with different sleep schedules so they can't sleep properly, and the walls are so thin and lacking soundproofing at MIT even in many dorms).

Every year we hear some guy dying in a hazing ritual at some fraternity in some college due to alcohol overdose or something related. How many dead teens in college rituals does America or the world need before something is done about the housing situation? Alarmingly, some for-profit colleges increase spending more on athletics than on academics, as explained better and with references in Chapter 5.5. The housing situation is far worse in many other countries than in America, when it comes to college students: 8 per room. This doesn't mean things are perfect in the US or the best. We can ban alcohol, smoking, drugs, weed, other things in the state of emergency, due to the threat of all humans dying in 10 seconds, and also make all taxes 0. In the transition period to 0 taxes, we can tax sports events, like we taxed cigarettes to provide more funds for education, the Immortality EDUCATION Visa category and these Immortality UNIVERSITIES (or Immortality Departments or Schools within the top 20 Universities) that cure diseases, aging and discover ways to end many billions of dollars of destruction yearly due to hurricanes, tornadoes, etc by preventing tornadoes and hurricanes from forming early? Playing a lot of football, soccer, rugby, etc won't help humanity cure Alzheimer or live to 500, it actually makes people 3 times more likely to die of Alzheimer as explained in Chapter 5.5, due to brain damage and lifelong education damage resulting from this brain damage. Sports that can damage the brain can be illegal (balls hitting the head, etc); any sport where head impacts (or serious body injury) can occur could be changed to avoid it or be made illegal. ☺☺☺

2. OFF-CAMPUS (when a primary, middle or high school student)

Billions of families live in noisy housing conditions where, due to the way of historical inertia (the chaos of our history with no priority on learning and peacefulness), the living room is gigantic (we need reform the planning and the city codes to allow for smaller living rooms and more rooms) and there are too few rooms to allow every kid to have his own bedroom, so then it becomes harder to study or meditate if there is noise around the house or apartment complex. One would think at least high school students would benefit from their own room. This is not a an issue of space or materials, as it is of historical inertia, culture, policy of a Civilization that doesn't value Longevity and Learning. A company, like Immortality Building Inc, can make the same profit by building hotels (many hotels are more than half empty and use huge amounts of energy for heating and cooling), liquor stores, stadiums, vape stores, restaurants, etc or by building housing with smaller living dining rooms and more bedrooms, triple pane windows, better sound insulation. Even if it would not be as easy or as much profit due to owners not being used to that business and not wanting to change, the goal of a Civilization is not profit while people die at 80, but profit while people die at 200 and travel to 500 stars due to youth doing more intelligent things than parties, sports, drugs, alcohol, etc. Today we see solar companies hiring coal workers and retraining them, just as tomorrow housing and Immortality research center building and maintenance companies (they need a lot of things, plumbers, electricians, etc) hire hotel, liquor, vape, disco, casino, restaurant workers. 70-90% of housing in the world doesn't meet decent standards of sound insulation, so while we turn all buildings to 0 emissions and 0 energy to prevent a climate catastrophe, producing their own energy thru solar panels, walls, windows, etc we can also put more heat/cold/sound insulation (energy efficiency) and retrofit all housing and improve it and create millions of jobs, because housing needs maintenance, plus build all new housing with the higher standards of producing its own energy, being soundproof, having more rooms, etc. Over time, as new policies exist, the new generations adapt, investors invest in what is more profitable (decent housing not liquor or hotels, due to government tax structure), just as we moved from wood burning to coal and then to solar and wind. The role of the government is to guide the Civilization of Immortals towards tripling lifespan or longevity and scientific discoveries in the short term, kids studying☺☺☺ and discovering things instead of doing drugs, aggressive sports or alcohol loud parties.

We have millions of liquor stores, millions of restaurants which are not needed, since 10% of restaurants or so have very few customers and with a pressure cooker and some weekly shopping trip to the store one can eat healthier than at most restaurants. But the culture is not there, education, learning, meditation (or comtemplative restful prayer or listening as some call it), gentleness, tenderness are not CENTRAL IN OUR CULTURES, so decent housing for all is not in the culture, without good sleep and silence one can't focus and nurture the essential qualities of a Civilization of Immortals. We have gigantic empty restaurants, hotels, dozens of useless businesses, empty places of worship etc when people could have a decent meditative place to live, make their own room their temple of peace and make their spirituality every hour using earphone music as a guide, not 1 hour on Sunday at church. We spend trillions for gambling, alcohol products a year, yet maybe a millionth of that on researching really soundproof drywall, roofs, construction materials, cheap triple pane windows for those in noisy areas, etc. Even with earplugs in some areas the noise is huge. Many houses come with some strange layouts, with the living room 4 times bigger than the smallest room, and dining room bigger too than smallest room. Why is that? Then this family places 2 kids in a room, while the huge space of living room is wasted. As a result, the 2 kids fight (maybe not listening to headphones, different sleep habits, etc), they get poor grades and World Peace becomes a pipe dream as mass consciousness has been pollutted by the animosity that starts at home first, as always. The lack of harmony at home or the housing complex (HOA, neighbors) becomes the lack of harmony globally. Even if the kids don't fight, they distract each other and study less, creating a negative feedback loop that leads to poorer academic performance due to poor sleep. Establish fines of $2,000 to 90,000 for every house party or event that makes noise in town, to fund triple pane windows for all areas of town (so people don't need to hear sirens and traffic all the time) and also to fund research into soundproof drywall, nanotreated wood, etc materials, that block 3 times more sound for the same price almost (being required everywhere once discovered).☺☺☺

4.8. SILENCE HALLS to Improve Ethics & ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE

A good idea might be to have silence halls in every school, college (and company) or, at least, to begin or end every class with a 2-5 minute meditation/contemplative prayer silence period before asking what was learned during meditation via telepathy to help build the Civilization of Immortals deeper. Just as we have baths to wash our hands and take care of our physical body needs, we have a need for silent inner time to calm down our occasionally restless minds, souls, heart rhythms, develop tender soft gentle empathy and compassion for self and all.

Visitacion Valley School in San Francisco suspensions dropped 4 times after 30 min of silent meditation. Imagine if, in all schools, we would have 10-30 minutes of meditation or contemplative prayer (as it's sometimes called, or contemplation or conscious breathing), to center ourselves, close the eyes and breathe and forget all the worries and stresses, experience altered states of cosmic bliss, etc. Research could be done on which quiet forms of relaxation would be best. But since doing 5 minutes of telepathy after each class, may not be enough for some, it would make sense to have a place of silence where students can go during classroom breaks, to meditate, center, listen, just as we train our physical body with the basketball, soccer and other facilities in high schools or universities, people could have these Inner Time places of peace, where they can center themselves. Many kids don't have parents with habits of consciously breathing or meditating together with family or contemplating as they might have habits of eating together or playing sports together or doing various activities together. The Silence Rooms where we relax, meditate, contemplate, breathe, pray, listen to God's ideas too as in contemplative prayer instead of always asking God for x, y, and z as in "classical definition of prayer"; thus, we center ourselves in any kindergarten, school, college, company, etc to ☺☺☺ dramatically improve academic performance, science discoveries and even the chances of World Peace and 200 year lifespans. It would also give kids new ideas on the design of drywall materials that block sounds better and windows, to protect people who live in noisy areas from outside or neighbor noise, and ensure a good sleep which is absolutely essential for the best brain performance, highest IQ score and grades possible, etc. The importance of sleep can't be underestimated. Many teens who consume energy drinks, coke, coffee a lot ingest huge amounts of caffeine, develop insomnia and poorer academic performance as a result. Add to that noise made that made sleep improper, interrupted, and it's a perfect recipe for being very tired, irritable, mistake-prone, aggressive next day at school. Not to mention, many soccer, rugby, football, etc players damage their brain due to the impact of balls and falls. If we build a civilization of 900-year-old people, our brain is more valuable than being used as a way to push a ball or stop it as in soccer, our youth's brains are more valuable than this, as the brains are to last a long time. At least we can see that we have so much acreage dedicated to sports facilities in schools, yet 0 dedicated to quiet contemplation time and prayer, telepathy, centering oneself into more positive vibes, etc. There are very few schools that have 24-7 open chapels or 7 am to 9 pm open churches where people can enjoy a quiet time, those places could encourage quiet time, but it's not the standard for students to go there (impossible since the chapels are tiny), even when such quiet places exist. Many of these places where students could pray, meditate, etc, churches, etc are very noisy as people come in and out and soundproofing is very poor (windows open), with all traffic noise heard from the street. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The European Union has some regulations about maximum noise as they noticed the noisier the area, the more health problems. We invest so much in teaching kids to play this and that sport, requiring them to play sports against their will, while not giving them classes in conscious breathing, smiling, being happy, contemplative prayer altered states, meditation, telepathy, creating a real imbalance where the center of our focus becomes the physical body and the spirit is neglected, the moral, emotional and ethical development of compassion rooted in inner peace and happiness, in quiet time and unity with divine energy or the subtle laws of the universe for atheists that bring a world of peace, harmony and joy. Of what use is knowing sports playing if one is so unhappy, angry and restless? We deify sports, physical fitness and totally ignore telepathy (and subtler intuition that discovers hidden things about the universe, as scientists do, as they question every model about everything), developing gentleness tenderness softness, compassion, empathy, happy contemplative states of union with the Immortal Infinite intelligence of the Universe (which is ever happy☺☺☺), ecstatic states that don't depend on drugs and weed or outer things and conditions. Ethical behavior by force is very weak and temporary, some people often forget it when angry or when they feel other negative emotions, while ethical behavior developed out of personal happy experiences of contemplative prayer, meditation, astral travel exercises, conscious breathing, smiling exercises, contemplating on God's or Immortals' infinite gentleness tenderness mercy forgiveness compassion as explained a little in Chapter 2, is much stronger and long-lasting. If we teach kids to play sports they recreate this world, but if we teach them to create a world of Immortals they create that world and that is the center of their life, their goal, curing diseases, ending violence, war, natural disaster deaths, etc so we can all live to 300, then maybe 500, then 900, etc. The human being is formed mostly in the first 16 years of life, the first 16 years of life have such a huge effect on who we will be the rest of our life, so it's important to focus on education if one wants to make the world a better place. Sports tend to take people into a "stadium or sports facility (like they got in schools) surrounded" world that is very disconnected from the real world and the challenges others face, enabling the kids or people involved to grow less aware of, empathetic, compassionate, perceptive of the things we need to do to improve our healthy lifespan and wellbeing as explained in Chapter 5.5 in detail: build better housing for 90% of people living in houses where sound insulation is minimal between rooms and neighbors, making our food production more sustainable (Tyson Foods pollutes waterways 6 times more than Exxon Mobil), replacing stone age electricity generation with 100% renewable one and oil based transportation with electricity based one to avoid millions of premature deaths due to power plant and car smog that cause Alzheimer, heart disease, respiratory diseases through 2.5 micron particulate matter, educating people about the need of truly lead free water pipes (right now PVC can have 0.2% lead even in the US), countless Americans have tap water go brown or catch fire due to ground water pollution by fracking which was banned in France, switching to a vegan diet that feeds 10 times more people using same land since 1 in 6 Americans struggle with food insecurity (pay all bills, and then little left for food) per this 3 minute video, ending of child hunger (one meal a day) and malnutrition instead of building more stadiums, ending coal fired electricity as many Americans living near coal fired plants live 10-30 years shorter due to lung cancer causing chemicals, replacing all gas stoves with electric to prevent so many deaths from natural gas explosions and carcinogens present for hours after cooking. We can't know what we really need and work to solve it by playing current sports, but we could if sports could be redefined as inclusive of or mostly physical activity that addresses the above needs of the civilization. ☺☺☺

TELEPATHY or Immortality HALLS FOR Lifespan extension Inventions in EVERY SCHOOL

Scientific discovery depends on the tranquil patience of scientists who try out different ideas that "just happen to come in their head" via intuition or whatever brain process of telepathy or realization during a relaxed meditative state. If kids are taught from early kindergarten and primary school to use interdisciplinary team efforts to solve the big problems of humanity, such as every cause of death, they will become much more effective at emulating the Ethics of a Civilization of Immortals where instead of making money, for example, the goal is to extend everyone's lifespan and wellbeing, healthy lifespan the most. In these telepathy labs or halls, people can come from the SILENCE HALLS, after they listened to Telepathy from spirits and discuss ideas about their project, be it building an electric car or finding the best nutrition mix for living to age 200. They can research more if lack of ω3 fatty acids in the diet, high caffeine intake, lack of quiet housing to get a quiet sleep, bad music (see Chapter 7) cause a lot of violence in the world by inducing aggression/anger/irritability in people. What are the true causes of violence and bad behavior? Can we discover more of them each decade? In medicine, we try to find causes of diseases, not just treat symptoms, so in healing the world of violence we need to look at real causes not just a few symptoms. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

4.9. SPORTS, SLEEP, GENTLENESS, ALTRUISM, EMPATHY, TELEPATHY

Bad behavior can be due to too much caffeine in tea, coffee, energy drinks, soft drinks, lack of nutrition knowledge, or earplugs and double pane window for quiet restful sleep or whatever. Students could be reminded of this and even asked about sleep quality and what can be done to improve it. If a problem is found, the head teacher can ask all students if they want to donate $2 to help a guy in a noisy area to buy a double or triple pane window (since earplugs are not enough) to sleep better and behave better and get better scores, as a dog or neighbor or something makes noise and the guy is woken up in the middle of the night, etc. This would create a universal loving compassion vibe in the school and make this poor performing angry student feel much more loved and he could become an A student as a result of this altruistic love, not as in soccer, but as in really caring about the wellbeing of others, their suffering, having empathy for the endless misery countless students endure at home due to bad conditions or inhumane city noise building codes that allow stadiums to be built, but no decent housing. It's this compassion that really builds a Civilization of Immortals, not really the sports. 20% of centenarians don't do any exercise, many are college professors who advance knowledge. Imagine what a forgiving loving kind adult individual would develop, full of compassion, gentleness, softness, sweetness, tenderness, nurturing grace, sweet tone of speech, if kids would learn gentleness, tenderness, etc in action from an early age, the age of 3. The most saintly people have taught compassion for all living beings, altruism, and the saints who did miracles were very gentle compassionate kind soft angelic spoken, selfless. So if kids would create a beautiful Silence Hall, a beautiful Music Healing Hall, a beautiful "Hands on Healing" Hall or Chapel in every prison, hospital, school, like we have habitat for humanity, they would develop a much more different idea of physical movement and exercise, one that is gentler kinder and dedicated to alleviating human suffering and one of the root causes of "violence, slow scientific progress, alcohol-drug addictions, crime and war", i.e. the lack of love and happiness. These people who're for 1 day, week, month or year in a hospital or prison or rehabilitation center have grown up in an environment where love was very rare, love like the universal loving kindness of the saintly people. And they sometimes got love, but neighbors were loud and they didn't get enough sleep, they never got to relax, consciously breathe, do hands-on healing on someone, hug someone more than once a year, or any form of affection that would bring a gentler quality to their emotions, thoughts, intentions. People would benefit from a Healing or Silence Room where people can meditate or listen to healing sound or have volunteered to do remote healing or hands-on healing on others or have it done on them.

The people in these amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ halls (entry would be time-limited based on size of community and size of the room) filled with healing fragrance and serene music, soothing calming colors, would learn that happiness can be achieved without drugs (by relaxation), that joy is easy with contemplative prayer, meditation,☺☺☺ hands-on healing, healing other hospital members or prisoners. These people, after 1 day or more in prison healing room for 1 hour, would be so amazed, even if they were in prison only 2 hours, at the healing energy there, they would want to create a healing space with gentle healing music and beautiful positive affirmations, smiley pictures, beautiful sceneries in their room at home and be even helped to decorate their room with some of the positive affirmations, images, things by the prison rehabilitation program. Imagine if anyone who goes to prison would have to spend at least 10 minutes in the healing room to heal, even if they're there only 1 hour. They would come out as a new person easier. School teens who're into weed or prisoners would realize that there is no need to find happiness in drugs, crime or whatever got them there, or in eating bad foods if this got them into hospital or rushing in rough “pushing rich” sports if this got them into hospital due to an accident due to a culture that unintentionally "institutionalized" in a very small way violence "brutality" "cruelty" (may be a little too tough of a word, but it can lead to that later) subtly without realizing, while removing or not introducing more expressions of compassion, service to humanity, altruistic love, gentleness, tenderness, softness, gentle tone of speech with all. We taught kids for millennia brutal cruel simulations of martial arts which can cause so much suffering harm and organ damage in fellow human Immortals, and we accept this as normal, when a Civilization of Immortals may look at this as pathological. And the weird thing is that we cheer our kids as they learn to be less and less like the saints and gentle healers who did miracles and hands-on healing and crueler, more like someone punching and shoving people, as it happens in many sports, and lacking gentle tender altruistic loving affectionate kindness for all beings. We have physical education teachers in schools, but no emotional eterni tone or speech tone that calms everyone, Longevity Education, Immortality Ethics or Longevity teachers. We don’t need any physical education teachers really, youtube can teach us how to stretch and do some aerobic exercise, pushups, squats, situps. Youtube can also teach, together with ebooks like chapter 8, the basics of intoning, the basics of ethics of thinking, emoting, filtering, speaking. We need science labs where we see all brain areas activated by eterni tone, the parameters, the

MRI, etc, to help people understand the basics of Trillion Year Lifespan: eterni tone. Some people laugh at this as some 'comical☺ rant', but if war exists | | Immortality for All | | is not possible. Movement or exercising is possibly only 10% or so of what makes one reach 100. Sleep, diet, nutrition, vitamins, phytonutrients, avoiding huge risk taking or dangerous sports (climbing Everest, etc) or activities, kindness, smiling, conscious breathing and gentle peaceful music for easier and better emotional regulation, Immortality ethics, gentleness, tenderness, softness, negative ions in the air; they all contribute to longevity. Emotions are central to our future wellbeing, relationships, health, intellectual performance, ability to heal, bring a world of peace. Conscious breathing, developing energy radiation, things that develop empathy like trips to troubled areas to create healing centers, interacting with victims of devastating diseases, (with parents who lost kids at 7 due to lack of understanding flu, with prisoners, hospital people who jumped too much at sports classes) can develop the emotional self, and yet it's not required. In a world where we want peace, emotional education would be so important; everyone would try learn turning anger into joy. Violence comes from negative emotions. ☺☺☺

Not until I was a very grown-up adult, I myself realized how I too, have been the product of these same "institutionalized" very tiny subtle forms of "cruelty", "brutality" or "lack of gentle tender softness", just like every other person almost, because some things are the same in most schools in all nations. In physical education I was forced as a kid to play soccer, basketball or volleyball, one of the 3. Naturally, most of the time I chose volleyball as it is less cruel and more civil, you don't hit others' legs by accident or get hit, you don't shove accidentally into people causing them or you to fall down, etc. One time the requirement was to jump over a trampouline like thing and of course without much practice you can break a few vertebra too, an unacceptable risk for a Civilization of Immortals, and I dislocated the vertebra in one location slightly and then for 15 years there was pain there until it healed; this is what happens in other forms to countless kids harmed by our 'overwhelming force, minimal grace and IQ' educational system, forcing kids to do so many dangerous jumps or sports (concussions can lead to permanent lifelong brain damage). If the Educational System forces all kids to shove others in a sport as part of the physical education requirement, the system is subtly "institutionalizing" uncivilization, delaying Longevity and a Civilization of Immortals, institutionalizing lack of gentleness tenderness softness, being rough with others or being insensitive to doing rough things a little more. It's a very subtle programming, wholly unintentional, but our brains don't have dedicated neural networks for everything. There is way more sharing among neural pathways and brain regions for tasks, decision making and this sports aggressiveness affects all behavior, just like watching violent movies was shown to make many people more violent, aggressive. We imitate the tone of speech of those around us, so if we hear only rough tones and experience only rough sports, rough is our definition of human speech, touch and human relations due to neural overlaps. This sports influence is much subtler than watching a physical aggression filled movie. An eterni tone or speech tone that calms everyone, singing skills are far more important than "sports", since we develop the brain, ethics that keeps the progress 1 million times faster due to Peace. We can exercise while doing 100s of chores around our houses, longevity immortality centers. The new speech conditions our brains to think and emote in more complex and intelligent ways. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Civil people don't shove and push. It's present in all nations and sadly, in many forms even on campuses of religious schools teaching kids to play this and that sport (it's different in every country), instead of having kids do hands-on healing, having a chapel of serving fellow people on campus or having weekly trips to build the chapel or silence-healing rooms in prisons or within hospitals or silence or healing halls, where they can practice gentle speech tone (anyone can modulate their tone to be gentler, more healing and lower by a huge amount via will alone), healing energies radiation, universal compassion. Instead of gentle healing merciful forgiving kindness, they're taught to push, shove, yell, as in many of these sports, disconnecting from the nurturing tender healer within, from the gentle speaking like an angel of telepathy and empathy, lovingly speaking kid who heals a traumatized prisoner, or fellow school member or a kid in a hospital who has never heard such a tone of speech, never seen such joy, such love, as that of a kid, teen, adult full of the love of universal kindness. If people would see how difficult the lives of those affected by natural disasters (house wiped out), diseases, flu that kills kids at 7, wars, or being in a prison with poor conditions (not the nice ones), they would also become more empathetic compassionate and happier with their life, and more willing to do something for these people instead of maybe say play another match of whatever sport they might happen to "be programmed by the ungentle educational system to like" the most. Volleyball, basketball would be much better than football or boxing/martial arts, less pushing and shoving and head impacts. A fire is 10,000 times easier to extinguish when really really small, so when the fire of aggressive behavior, rough handling and physically aggressive behavior is only very very tiny, extinguishing it is much easier too, by prevention of anything like it or remotely related to even take shape in human mind via movies, tone of speech or sports. ☺☺☺ If we want to build a world where no evil intent or thought exists, one has to create the most angelic vibe at all levels, to educate, guide human consciousness towards the most gentle tender soft healing altrusitic vibe at all levels. This is Heaven, and the Heaven of "Immortals". When we build a Silence, Healing, Music Healing room or chapel in a prison, hospital, school, we do physical exercise, we develop much healthier emotions, thoughts, tones of speech than when we play soccer, basketball, football rugby hockey pushing, occasional or frequent shoving sports or the much worse ones like martial arts, boxing, judo, karate where violence is simulated.

If we want a Civilization of Angelic Kind Immortals, we give up the shoving sports, just as people gave up bullfighting in some areas or gladiator sports; or we bring gentler versions of these sports or create new sports that are reflective of the Wisdom, Kindness, Grace, Gentleness, Forgiveness, Compassion, Tenderness, Softness of 90,000 year Immortals who know no violence, no yelling, no harmful intent, no evil, no shoving of anyone, no pushing, no rough handling, only healing touch at the most when needed by the other and the other wants it. We can teach the values of the heavenly "Immortals" Civilization (Civil-ization, being civil, not pushing, shoving, punching, kicking people, as this is not civilized) so the conditions for the scientific discoveries that bring Long Lives about can occur, and we can make physical activity a way that heals the historical inertia. As prisoners, fellow school members from tough families, hospital people, rehab people experience this love, this gentle music, tone of speech, these WORDLESS (the most effective teaching sometimes) teachings by living examples they can follow from kids, teens, adults, these less lucky people realize everyone loves them, and as a result their fear, negative emotions/thoughts are replaced with the healing power of universal loving forgiving compassion; they become new persons, just as the selfless angelic volunteers who help these unfortunate individuals become better people themselves, much more different, empathic,☺☺☺ telepathic than kids or teens who play karate, rugby, football, soccer or basketball, much more compassionate, tranquil, able to understand human suffering and the need to cure diseases and bring The Kingdom of Immortality, of Heaven on Earth, to prevent hurricanes. We don't even realize how our fun activities are often disconnected from alleviating the suffering of others, what we define as fun is often maybe watching sports or a comedy, but it could be redefined as mainly making others happier and seeing the amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ transformation of people, the elimination of all violence, short lives, rehab centers, prisons, wars, calamities, natural disaster deaths, etc. It's not always easy to perceive how the lack of gentle tender softness in our schools and in our relationship with spouses and children is potentially a major cause of all the warfare, violence and crime in the world. This lack of gentle tender compassionate empathic softness indirectly and subtly precipitates so much negative emotion, the beginning point of all misbehavior usually (sometimes it is pure lack of knowledge, but most of the time it is negative emotion). How many kids are practicing hands-on healing when a fellow kid got a leg, hand or fall injury? It's not very common, even if it's not touching, but doing it 1 inch away, sending positive energies, IR waves (chi contains infrared waves, see Chapter 10.3) and vibes. On the contrary, what we see on campuses sometimes is people laughing or being happy when someone they mildly or strongly dislike has suffered some minor fall, injury, etc. How many spouses do hands-on healing daily on each other, to teach themselves and the other gentle tender emotional energetic radiation, nobler intent, empathy, telepathy and universally good intent, and whole soul development? Loving a pet is different than loving a human and doing hands-on healing on them, it requires a subtler telepathy and empathy.

We see spouses kiss but the kiss often lacks that universal forgiving compassionate whole body radiation that happens when one does try to channel the infinite spirit of loving kindness and infuse the other person with it so the other can become an angel of Immortality who brings the Civilization of Immortals, Heaven on Earth and turns enemies into friends, angry people into happy people, sad people into joyous one, hopeless people into hopeful ones, etc like in that prayer "make me an instrument of your peace." And because of this lack of these expressions within the immediate circle of family and school peers, it becomes much harder to practice universal loving kindness towards all human beings, and then being physically aggressive becomes much easier to fall into or much easier to justify via any philosophical or religious form of argument. To build a human being, to teach them, to help them live to 115, takes so much effort, that living to 115 is so rare. And it's so easy for the flu, violence in some area or war or some accident in nature to wipe them out before 115. Imagine how much more care, grace, gentleness, softness, tenderness, loving kindness, nurturing tone of speech, ethics, education, soft music (Chapter 7) and culture (Chapter 5), effort, attention, etc it takes to build a human being who makes it safely to 500 or 900. To be able to reduce child mortality by 20 times humanity had to go thru so much change in its society, culture, in its understanding of the universe, thru the birth of science, chemistry, physics, hypothesis testing thinking, instead of assuming or believing in something without having much of any proof or evidence. Our world now looks different than 500 years ago. So will the world of 500 year old humans look so much more gentle tender soft, back in the medieval ages people were killed for nothing (sacrifices to the "gods" of crops); the cruelty was big compared to today, just like today the cruelty is big compared to 2500. It's easy to see how over time people will become smarter and softer. Parents or teachers, who teach the kids these rough sports, complain when the teens become “less ideal”, ignoring the role they played in shaping their neural pathways/behaviors by the living example provided at school, play, by letting them play the area cruel sports or games, allowing their subtle conditioning.☺☺☺

There are many books about psychic ability, like "Your psychic child, How to Raise Intuitive Kids" by Sara Wiseman, that talk about how kids are often pressured to train so much for this or that sport, they lose their capacity to center, to relax, to consciously breathe, to regulate emotional tone and vocal tone output thru the filter of gentle tender soft healing universal compassion, to just be, contemplate and also their ability to be precise in telepathy and empathy as a result of this off-centering. The parents sometimes are unintentionally cluttering the kids' schedules with so much stuff, that the kids lose their soul connection, have no time to just be, to receive telepathy, to pray, to be alone with God or their spirit guide, to invent new things, being forced to memorize cruel things in history classes (programming to repeat history unintentionally, as no discussion of a world of peace, 700 year lifespans exists) and practice so many ungentle sports, there is no room to be themselves, manage their emotions, move gently as a healer does during hands on healing or remote transmissions; then they explode in anger or other negative emotion of course, as they're force fed what is against their soul nature, universal loving tender soft kind grace, divine spark, the memory of Heaven claim report to have. They lack any living examples to follow at school of being really very very gentle tender soft in tone of speech (few teachers have it), behavior, movement, intent, thought, emotion, energy radiation. That's why schools could combine physical and emotional education into Physicoemotional class that uses these ideas of movement and emotion as one. This movement and gentle healing benevolent tender soft emotion as one seems to stimulate the synesthetic cross brain regions connections anyway better, enhancing telepathy. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The future world has no war, violence, prisons, crime; the worst thing that happens is some people get into a negative emotional state for a few minutes or hours, it becomes clearer that the skills that are most needed in this future world to maintain this perfect paradise (it's never going to be "perfect" as people will always evolve to an even more graceful state as lifespan triples forever) relate to the ability to be the most amazing telepath and empath, able to go around people who're in a frowning or negative emotional state, cheer them up, ☺☺☺ anonymously or as a passing by stranger, without them realizing that this is done on purpose by the most saintly persons on the planet who're the most telepathic, empathic healers. Naturally, when these telepathic people (who may be teachers in a high school too) notice someone is in a negative emotional state (the state before something bad happens days, months, years later), they alert closest relatives to infuse them with the most positive emotions... without them having to physically encounter the person. Not all people can correctly read others, so there would be a need for these people, often times moms and dads have NO CLUE about what the kid goes thru (and are shocked when something happens), exact empathy and telepathy is ultra rare today and in this world of the future it won't be everyone having it at first, only few people who work at it for decades or centuries. In the future Civilization of Immortals, the function of the guardians of "elysian harmony, Immortality and nonviolence", is performed by these healers with the ability to turn enemy into friend, negative emotion into positive one, anger into compassion, sadness into joy, etc; these could be the school teachers (education being for maybe 120 years instead of 12, since we live to 900), some staff at hotels or different public places, or even the "police" of the future, and this shows us how far we're today from this Heaven, because countries have to have so many weapons and things for police or teachers to defend themselves, most countries allow guns, all these things that are inconceivable to have (except for planetary defense force if any bad alien shows up, but very few people would be part of this force anyway and wear these only on the motherships in space defending Earth) on a planet of perfect harmony, tranquility, nonviolence, compassionate loving kind empathic

telepathy. In that future world, when someone commits the greatest "crime", a frown, (minor crimes are not being happy, smiley, having a dull neutral expressionless face, meaning poor sleep or lack of kindness for all, and risk of falling into frowning and negativity, so all need help that person fast) the teachers help the student immediately energetically thru smiles and a gentler tone, and the "police" doesn't even wear uniforms, they're unknown and they could be some of these angelic healers who approach the person in distress and try to cheer them up, give them their favorite food, music, etc talk about their favorite time, happiest experience, etc, to heal and bring about the most positive memories, emotions, etc, especially if a relative or best friend in high school can't be reached immediately to lift that person up and nearby peers didn't notice the slipping of this person into a negative emotion.

Because everyone is very empathic and telepathic in these future primary, middle, high schools of the Immortals (compared to today, due to these sciences being far more developed), they're usually immediately able to sense when someone is in a bad mood or shifting towards one, and immediately heal the person, and if they don't succeed to heal the person, they can gather the best friends of that person to have them cheer the unhappy person up, and send energies, before even the teacher has to do the same or before they have to call a special healer if these efforts fail, like a stranger who is actually a police wanna be ("teen" of the Immortals who is expert in that entire high school, the best in that building at negative into positive emotion transformation) trained in the most effective transformation of any negative emotion into positive one. The cheer up can be a phone call, even, etc. Everything in the civilization and even the teacher, hotel, checkout clerk, business, police training and everything is about infusing other people with more love, compassion, kindness, joy, grace, etc... So, to get to this idealistic world of the future, which may be a true reality quantumly entangled with ours, we would have to prepare for it and act as if we will experience it in a few decades, manifest it and move towards that world where the educational system is focused on the most angelic benign role models, historical examples, visions of the future and intents, etc. and gradually internationally get to this state of perfect almost heaven. People in this future wouldn't have to be any kind of superhuman able to read every thought and emotion, since even today many people can use body language to tell immediately when someone is angry or happy. However, for subtler smaller more hidden forms of anger and negative emotion, hidden behind a fake smile done out of kindness, it's not always easy to discern that clearly even in this future world (let alone ours); the need for an expert to clarify, heal, etc may exist if the ultra positive infusions of others fail to rapidly shift the emotion from negative into positive. From age 3 in kindergarten, when they see a sad/angry/unhappy face or voice, people would be taught to smile ☺☺☺ and look at that person, speak like an angel (Chapter 8.1), softly healingly, tenderly to aid them to return to a happy smiling state and not fall into deeper negative emotion territory. With such training, from such an early age, it will be a very rare thing to even have anyone angry or sad in any high school, and a lot of disciplinary actions and bad things that people say and do in schools at times would be non-existent. This is because Empathy, Telepathy, Compassion, eterni tone or speech tone that calms everyone, Emotional Education (not just Physical Education) would be required subject in all grade levels, these being the cornerstone of harmony and advancement towards a higher heaven like future Civilization of Immortals. It's not easy to imagine such a future within 100 years, where we would live a little longer, maybe 120 or 130 on average and World Peace, harmony, etc would exist, and then in 200 years the average lifespan being 170, etc. If we look at the people 100 years from the past in 1900s, they would have never imagined that today we can send letters in real time, via email, that we can talk face to face via a device we call phone, that we can fly with Voyager 1 (38,610 mph) at 161 times the speed of fastest bird flight (240 mph), that we can walk on the moon, etc. So one can see from these examples of science fiction becoming reality before, that things that are unbelievable or unlikely, can be achieved in 20 years. Simply because something sounds unachievable to us it doesn't mean our kids can't achieve it or experience it: a world without any war, prison, lifespan of 500 later. Educating our kids to bring about that world of the future, in their lifetime, or preparing so that it comes true in their kids' lifetime, would speed up this future, much like the walking on the moon was sped up by national GOALS to get there. This would be a moon shot to manifest a planet free from violence, war, disease, natural disaster deaths, short lives. ☺☺☺

ARTIFICIAL intelligence and video cameras leading to the end of violence

In our present world, where we can't have these deeper telepathic empathic abilities to read others so easily from a distance and sense without seeing them when they shifted into a negative emotional state, we could use video cameras, with an AI system, artificial intelligence of emotional recognition based on body language, heart rate or breathing rate fluctuations too perhaps, to alert people when their facial expression lacks a smile, as smiling prevents negative emotion. Cameras everywhere are already a reality in the UK which has about 1,000 times more cameras/capita than many nations, being the most video camera dense country. The AI could be programmed also to send an immediate text message to closest relatives and friends that his facial expression shows tiredness or negative emotions, so peers, best friends, spouses can propose the person to get some rest, take a nap, or go to sleep or cheer them up. For people without such friends or relatives willing to get instant phone call or message 24-7 any day and night, there could be a non-profit of angelic people involved in this outreach. Or even something that every city or country creates as their Immortality Building and crime fighting strategy, the Ministry or Department of Immortality Emotions or Immortal compassion or kindness, just as we have Education Department and Ministry in all countries, it could even be part of Education Department, since we're self-educating about better emotions. The user could program the AI to remind them when they did not smile for 5 minutes or 10 minutes or whatever, and when they forgot to consciously breathe slowly for more than 3 minutes as the video camera can calculate breathing rate and for skinny people heart rate based on the volume changes in veins on the outer body at times, many people got a lot of veins on their hands, neck, etc. This becomes then a powerful biofeedback that helps the person to remain in a smiley, happy, tranquil consciously breathing state (see Chapter 10.1 about tranquility arising from this breathing) of maximum serenity and evolved trans-linguistic telepathy, for maximum empathy and spiritual progress towards the manifestation of the Kingdom of Immortality on Earth, "Thy Kingdom of Immortality come on Earth as it is in Heaven". This can be used to overcome many bad habits, like rushing, if we want to become a 24-7 ocean of tranquility and conscious breathing and smiling☺☺☺, with more precise telepathy free from rushed movement neural networks noise, due to shared brain pathways and regions for several cognitive functions, not just movement. The historical inertia has created brain pathways where shifting into "fight and flight" and fear is so easy to do that we need powerful technology to undo the damage of millions of years of living in fear of lions, wolves, snakes or whatever animal eating us.

Today computers are billions of times more powerful than 50 years ago, per cubic centimeter, we have this huge advantage to use technology to create vastly new epigenetic changes in our brain architecture and assist our spiritual development and the rise of an anxiety free Civilization of 24-7 smiling (even in sleep) Immortals. Crime would also be lower when cameras are everywhere and our concerns are loftier, like how to make all live better to age 500, instead of how to steal something without the camera seeing it or whatever (people often steal with a noble intent, to do something for humanity, etc, or even to help some very noble cause, but this happens because they don't realize intent is not enough to be good, action has to be good too and there are trillions of ways to achieve a goal, most of which don't involve stealing, just we there are trillions of ways to peace without violence or wars; with this awareness, people definitely won't care about cameras being more present). For just 20 dollars anyone could buy a camera that helps them become a smiley person, or quit smoking, as it would tell them about catastrophical effects of smoking every time they pick up a cigarette the camera detects. It can also be used to change habits of nail biting or finger skin biting or whatever unhealthy habits people may have (saying bad words, program AI to remind when a bad word was said), which are so hard to overcome, without an AI reminding you of when you do it. Same thing with eating bad stuff or too much on a given day if one wants to lose weight or whatever. As telepathy tech evolves, it can even detect perhaps certain silent mental words and the AI system can immediately say positive words if those negative thoughts are detected, reminding the person to focus on positive stuff. This becomes then a powerful method to practice Evolved Telepathy of Trans-linguistic type as explained in Chapter 8.2 about the evolving of our speech and words to only positive ones or mostly positive ones. Of course, such technologies will take many decades and centuries to perfect, but the primitive ultra basic video AI could be implemented today (if a company develops it) by anyone at home or even work and they can program what the AI would tell them to help them become a better person with a better emotional makeup, better tone of speech (program AI to remind them when they don't speak in a gentle tender soft healing tone as Chapter 8.1 explains), better vocabulary (if they used the word "stupid", AI can say "not the most intelligent perhaps" as suggestion for next time ☺☺☺), etc. We have used technology to reduce child mortality rate 20 fold, why can't we use AI video to cut negative emotions by 30 times? This may lead to a 10-30 times drop in crime & war effect worldwide. Most crime, wars, violence are caused by negative emotions or unhappiness.

Happy students are much more curious and eager to learn also and they perform acedemically much better, so an AI system can improve IQ and academic and social performance, as relationships become much better between smiley people than between angry people. It's interesting how in China they use some kind of brainwave or emotional state algorithm to prevent accidents and improve harmony between people. Imagine if we have a world of peace where the clothes flash over the shoulder with a sad face when AI detected sadness, or a Rapid Heart when heart rate goes up, etc notifying people about their status (it would be very useful to the person too, if the flashing happens on their hand, closer to wrist on the clothes, so they know how to better breathe and create the most positive divine ecstasy state; this also enables people to work as healers of everyone around to prevent any tiny negative emotions or health conditions from becoming unfortunate events. A world of pretend would be replaced with a world of honest kindness. Others can help the person whose clothes are flashing "less ideal markers" with the most gentle tender soft loving kindness to get out of that state. Nobody would feel bad being helped, since people understand, as explained in Chapter 2 that we're not the body, mind and emotions, but a much subtler soul structure and people understand telepathy diffusion can mean our emotions aren't even always caused by us, but by genetics, beliefs, things we read, other people. There is nothing private about our suffering and the fact we have so many negative emotions in the mass consciousness field. If we want no crime, we need to transmute negative emotions (causing crime); it helps to know when negative emotions arise better, beyond seeing a face. If you think about it, we're so close to being able to end all wars, violent crime, the tech is there.☺☺☺

If we would have an angelic being try to score every physical activity based on their gentle healing tender radiation in all human beings, perhaps many people would agree that the angel from heaven would score building the silence, relaxation, napping, healing or music halls (in hospitals, prisons, schools, maintaining them and doing hands on healing there, even without touching, remote healing☺☺☺), as a much more selfless activity than all sports today, even the least pushing, shoving sports, like stretching, moving up and down, and sideways, all kinds of gentle fitness systems, gymnastics, walking, gentle yoga (video on yoga injuries), tai chi, stretching, jogging, lifting small weights, etc. This building of silence halls solves the karmic accumulation of negative energies which have led to the existence of prisons, violence, rehab centers, hospitals, as we have not healed millennia, as we have not conquered disease and we need so many hospitals, as we have still having to deal with so much violence, alcohol and drug addictions, etc. We could make our sports avoid all pushing or shoving of other people, making all movements gentle, because the brain centers for movements are shared with those of emotions, intents, perceptions sometimes, and when one trains to kick, punch, shove, as in many sports, or becomes desensitized to pushing, shoving, being in combat almost, it makes that behavior very natural and makes people forget that God doesn't want anybody shoving, rough handling, pushing any human being, as this doesn't exist in heaven or a Civilization of Immortals on earth. This excessive training (unconscious programming, unintentional) to be tough removes much of the very core of all spirituality/ethics, which is gentle tender softness loving kindness healing grace and the ability to replace negative emotions thru empathy with positive ones, fear with joy, sadness with happiness, fear with courage, despair with hope, violence with soft love, etc. We take pushing, shoving, etc for granted as "normal" even they're things that the most amazing saint-like people would never do and never did, or maybe did them once in their life at their worst time. It's like in optical or all kinds of illusions what's part of the background we can't notice, it's so ingrained in our growing up, culture, schools, everything, we don't ever question it. I never liked sports or viewed them as very useful, but I never realized they became like a form of "institutionalized" "lack of gentleness and healing tederness" or "cruelty" (may be a little too tough of a word, but it can lead to that later) until 2018. Every little thing out there contributes to the whole individual formation, and whom we become as an adult, and what happens in the future in our world, how much peace, nonviolence, empathy, telepathy exists or doesn't exist; just like Chapter 16 talks about veganism as an expression of this universal tender softness. Moving away from omnivore to veganism is a little bit like moving away from rugby to walking or stretching, because it's less shoving and pushing, and when you eat no animals that were tortured, you eliminate the horrific experiences of slaughterhouse humans, with highest turnover almost of any job, who have to endure that stuff, become so full of negative emotions, contaminate the whole humankind and then the energies and emotions of animals, thru the blood that never can be fully drained from 1 µm microcapillaries, affects us.

Some of the catecholamines, cortisol and chemicals released at slaughter are in the meat. The animals are treated so badly, making it look so bad to treat pigs one way and pets another, cows and chicken one way and parrots or bird pets another, cows living 20 years normally, but only 4-5 in factory farms, or even 2. For many vegans, a pet is like their family member, and therefore they view eating cows and pigs as eating their kids or siblings almost, like cannibalism. For some people who listen only to very gentle music, listening to aggressive (even if lyrics are not that bad) music (that pollutes the mass consciousness field with aggressive tendencies, multiplying war unintentionally) is like a tiny complicity to genocide. In factory farms, millions of cows are killed on day 4 of birth, billions of male chicks are shredded alive on day 1 of birth.☺☺☺ The cries of pain of animals as they're killed, enter human mass consciousness thru slaughterhouse workers who diffuse it, being like a music of killing that brings war. If we go to a place where in past times 1,000s of people were tortured or killed, the energy there is sick, even if there is no torture going on now. Likewise, when animals are tortured, they create an energy in the meat that contaminates the meat with a little more fear, terror, rage, anger the animal felt at death or during its life, just as the locale is contaminated by the torture that happened there for humans.

If we want God to help us live 10 times longer to 800 on average, would not God want us to stop taking the life of animals and stop making animals live 5-10 times shorter? Many chicks live 4 years, but in factory farms, they only live 40-50 days. When we shorten the life of animals 5-30 times, and we ask God, cure our war, disease, etc that make us live so short, isn't that a little bit of a contradiction*?* If we cultivate ever longer lifespan, immortality, it's not very coherent. Some may say this is esthetics of the passionate vegan folks, because plants also suffer, which is true, if we cut them (not fruits, seeds, nuts), but eventually we will live without animals and plants as food. An animal eats sometimes 9,000 plants accumulating 9,000 times more pain than 1 plant eaten by us. Many who're cruel to animals are in general a little more likely to be so with humans too. Vegan or omnivore? What sport teaches more gentleness and healing grace: tai chi or Shaolin martial arts smashing bricks off one head, causing brain damage? Boxing or a little stretching and aerobics? Chapter 5.5 explains 110 out of 111 NFL players had brain damage from concussions in one study. Is that gentle loving kindness for self or others? Imagine if all nations would agree to these educational reforms (like climate or cessation of hostilities agreements) to phase out gradually all sports that are incompatible with universal healing kindness tenderness towards all beings. It would be doable, heralding a new era of loving care and soft tenderness in human affairs. It's impossible to achieve a world of 0 violence overnight, so naturally, since having some physical skills is often very useful in certain professions, like police or heavy construction workers where more physical demand is needed, thru a government approved license, when people want to or consider maybe to become those professions, they could get approval to enroll in a special school that teaches rougher sports that are not legal for the rest of the people, as they promote "tenderness healing grace universal kindness lacking" or "mean or negative" emotion and behavior unconsciously, due to the shared brain neural pathways of movement and ethical-emotional-intentional behavior. The people who enroll in these rougher sports facilities would be taught to overcome this neural movement programming, so they don't themselves become more aggressive or escalatory, by several methods: practicing very gentle tender movements, developing highly empathic energy radiation skills, helping altruistic causes too, deescalating situations thru energy radiation, empathy, thru silent smiles or healing tone of speech, so no force is needed. Over time, as technology improves, having physical ability for construction or for police or planetary defense force won't be a need, because with a telepathic thought sent to a belt, a laser beam or jet of unknown particles will immobilize and freeze in space any person who has somehow started acting aggressively or levitate any object that needs lifting in construction, especially now as 3d printing of houses is becoming popular. But eventually, violence will be unheard of obviously, as it is removed through international agreements from all media, movies, songs, as explained in Chapter 13 about World Peace, and "physical or verbal aggression filled media" is only allowed for the planetary defense force soldiers to watch in defense of the Civilization of 200 or 500 year old Immortals who're not at the super-grace level of nonkilling and nonviolence, due to lack of knowledge of the much older "Immortals" with much longer lifespans.

Defense would become 100% nonlethal painless harmless though as people evolve towards much longer lifespans with much higher intelligence, so "violent media" would disappear totally then. It all can happen fast with international political will to agree to these things, especially as neuroscience makes these relationships very clear thru randomized double blind placebo-controlled studies. Some people won't switch from rugby to soccer or from football to soccer because there is less shoving or pushing in the other sport, or because this has a 1-5% lowering effect on telepathy precision and loving kindness depending on how often one plays it or has balls hit the head as players do in soccer a lot; it is beyond their motivational threshold. ☺☺☺ Once someone is in love with a sport, they're not easily going to switch to a gentler one like basketball where they shove less into people. Just as we have these 50 year climate plans for gradual replacement of fossil fuels with clean stuff so we live longer (as smog ruins brain function), governments can cut all funding from rough sports over 50 years, in alignment with the GOALS of the Civilization of Immortals to cultivate gentle universally kind healing soft emotional states, tones of speech, behaviors, intentional radiations and sports (Chapter 5.5) that are nonpushing, less dangerous for the head (no concussions acceptable in sports in a Civilization of Immortals, as we have that brain for 900 years). No Immortals push and shove, have any harmful intent for anyone, and thus any pushing sport would be illegal. As people can fly, move objects with the mind via the belt force fields, etc they no longer need to be runners, and strong physically. All time wasted today with fitness will be used to prevent violence and crime by happy states, the 20 telepathy habits and many others, instead of addressing it after it happened. Playing soccer can cause brain damage that makes that kid more mean or aggressive without even anyone realizing; every individual little thing has such a small contribution to short lives, that normally we ignore it as negligible. But if add 100 small factors, they become a main obstacle to achieving a Civilization of Immortals who live to 500. ☺☺☺ So, one can completely understand why most people don't pay much attention to individual items, like music, movies, sports, history classes, physical education classes, chemistry (teachers not asking "what is the use of what we learned today for making us live to 500 or cure this disease?"), etc, because each item has such a small impact, especially, as many people are not engaged in that particular activity more than a few times a year. But if one would want to take the long view of the 200 year plan to eliminate all violence and crime and bring 180 year lives, one would have to look in minute detail at everything that could shorten lives. Which person will be a more effective mind reader, empathic healer, someone who practiced hands-on healing, built silence, healing rooms for others, etc or someone who played rugby? World Peace and scientific progress are totally dependent on telepathy and empathy being more precise, so then to achieve a Civilization of Immortals or Heaven on Earth, telepathy and empathy become truly the central aspects, not the body, but the emotional body, mental body and spiritual body, not the physical muscles. People will probably research the impact on ESP/IQ of different sports, movement styles, lifestyles or the physical aggression crime rates in certain populations based on sports choices made in their first 18 years of life and see if the hypotheses above contain some truth. ☺☺☺

4.10. SLEEP STUDIES, Good Sleep = Long Life; No Food/Drink 4 hrs before Bed, proper position can prevent death by stroke or infarct while sleeping at 50

Bad sleep means arterial plaque, the number one killer worldwide. Sleep position can reduce life by 20 years, left and 15° elevated back sleeping can help. If you don't move and change position etc because of fear of waking spouse up, sleep on a different mattress (like Germans do) or a different room even. Stop meals/drinks 3 hours before bed to protect arteries. Even preschoolers with irregular sleep hours have poor verbal and cognitive outcomes; teens who don't sleep regular hours are more likely to be in a hospital at age 22. Microsleep is when you're so sleep deprived, due to sleeping poorly and only 5-6 hours for days in a row, instead of 8 required, that you doze off, eyes closed, and your head or hand might drop for 1 inch for half a second (can be even 1 minute for severe exhaustion), before you bring it back in position, the brain shuts down and tries to sleep, to microsleep. This is deadly if you drive a car as you could fall asleep in traffic and end up dead together with others. So, get your sleep and if microsleep ever happens, sleep 8 hours for a week so it never happens again. Shorter sleep means shorter life ► Sleep Adv 2025. Sleep is body repair time, 6h is bad, 8-10h is good. Short sleep = knee arthritis. Don't breathe thru the mouth while sleeping, if you sleep on the back and this causes mouth to open, just fold the center of your blanket in 3 and push it under your chin, so the chin stops dropping (the lower jaw). This method is far safer than placing some 3M Nexcare mouth tape (or 1 pack to try it). Mouth breathing is bad because you damage lungs if you don't filter air thru the nose, causing blood pressure swings that form clots, strokes and pulmonary embolism instant death during sleep, and your throat becomes dry damaging your voice: it also causes irregular heart pulse and can increase risk of heart attack and stroke 50% over time. Side sleeping closes the mouth naturally, so you can try that before mouth taping. Don't sleep with bent arms, as it can ruin your nerves and cause lifelong hand disability, wrist pain, etc. Please see the melatonin section if you want to know more about sleep, taking melatonin is essential after age 20 to protect mitochondria from oxidative stress, as bodies peak melatonin production at age 15, and by 45, our body makes far less, so I take 20+ mg to help mitochondria (it helps body to recover next day after a short night sleep of 5 hours previously, to sleep 11 hours next day, so you get 8 on average, a task that is impossible without melatonin for many). Some people used to sleep 4 hours, wake up 1-2 hours, then sleep another 4 hours for millennia, see BBC article on this odd sleep pattern, this hypothesis was true, for some at least, see NIH paper.

Melatonin is the most important antioxidant in the mitochondria, without which we have no way to prevent 100s of diseases, dementia, atherosclerosis, brain/organ aging, etc. Go to bed early, 9-10 pm, 3 hours after the last meal or glss of water (hydrate early on in the day), to sleep in darkness on a regular schedule, by using an 8 PM desktop/laptop clock app to remind you to wrap up your day. Melatonin pills (20-300 mg) will increase REM (Rapid Eye Movement) sleep, to the long duration of your childhood years when you produced 4-10 times more melatonin. That's why old people forget things, their REM sleep vanishes and it's the key dream state for repairing memory. REM sleep helps our brain remove cellular waste and prevent dementia (increase working memory ► PO 2015;10(5):e0125752, meaning reduce forgetfulness which is the way Alzheimer begins), process new memories, erase junk memories, deal with emotions better while awake. Monitor your regular BP and HR, to turn off clock or other electronic devices that could be HR-BP-dream-thought modifier devices in disguise to disturb your sleep. Clocks are classic spying devices, that can record info, write brains, avoid them at all costs, turn off power strip with all electric appliances when going to bed except maybe the heater or humidifier. Avoid alarms as much as possible, and keep phones off (not just airplane mode) due to microwaves and remote phone control while in airplane mode. It's better to sleep until you're rested by going to bed earlier, instead of by clock, so clocks are not really that useful at all. Clocks make you not listen to your body's needs for rest and wake up based on clock, thinking you "slept enough". A beautiful desk clock is none or, at worst, one made in USA, using minimal power, to prevent top secret spyware and hidden scalar, sonic, brain writing, RF weapons. Wear XXL size 15-18 socks on top of regular socks, if needed to keep feet warm and circulation is not blocked if it's winter and room is colder. Toenail problems from blocked circulation can happen due to tight socks. This will save some 5000$ in medical treatments for nail issues stemming from poor circulation by tight socks, or for diabetics, save their legs from amputation. Big trouble starts small, with cheap 1$ socks. When wearing slippers around the house, choose much higher size, because it's much thicker and cushions your joints much more, for example Under Armor 15 size, just tighten the velcro. Wash them biweekly, to prevent infection of foam with microbes that infect you later, so soa them in detergent 2 hours, and add also peppermint/clove oil or water obtained by soaking cloves into water. If your socks leave any mark on your feet after 15 hours, they're too tight and will damage the feet.☺☺☺

Google and some papers say sleeping on the left side is the best for heart, stroke prevention and body circulation and for clearing brain waste products via the glymphatic system. Here are 5 habits to facilitate brain toxin clearance: movement before bed to get lymphatic drain, staying hydrated, lowering temp at night by 1-2 degrees, evening content needs to be familiar not new, make a list of all good (never the failures) things accomplished today before bed. These conclusions are based on rat studies on brain waste clearance and on associations (correlation is not causation) between back sleeping and dementia/Parkinson/neurodegenerative diseases. You can watch a simple video summarizing the benefits of left side sleeping. The "side sleeping hypotheses" are not proven and more human studies are needed to confirm these hypotheses are actually universally true in most people. Right side sleeping may drain brain waste slightly better, though that is uncertain, but right side sleeping applies pressure on the vena cava deoxygenated blood return to the heart and this creates poor circulation to the heart and internal organs, brain, causing potential issues not present with left-side sleeping. You can try left side sleeping (doesn't work for people with severe heart issues) or back and see how your cognitive or heart health go. If side sleeping, use the comforter or some pillow between the knees to reduce pressure on the spine and to improve circulation and reduce clot risks by turbulent flow. Knees touching can cause blood flow restriction and weaken knee and lower leg health (knee pain due to arthritis caused by poor circulation), raising risk of leg clots (or lung/brain clots if they travel from knees elsewhere, causing instant death during sleep) that could create plaque, causing over time poor foot and lower leg circulation (cold feet/lower legs) and issues with toe nails, etc). Google uses most papers to conclude, like Dr. Mandell, that left side is ideal, unless you have heart failure. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Left side is where pancreas, heart, stomach are (prevents heartburn), so it also helps improve digestion, kidney health, lymphatic detox (the lymphatic system works better due to gravity if you're on the left side, so your blood is purified better), pancreas, stomach/colon health (less undigested junk gets into colon, meaning less gas and toxic dump into the blood when it's lingering in the colon), blood sugar control and heart health. The food comes from the intestine into the ascending colon located on the right side and then gravity pushes the feces from the right side ascending colon to the left side descending colon, enabling smoother bowel movements for left side sleepers. Left side provides better blood flow to the uterus and kidneys, so if pregnant, your baby will be much healthier if you sleep on the left side, higher IQ, longer lived, more able to take care of you when old. Left side alleviates neck pain, and keep head slightly raised to enable better glymphatic drainage of brain waste. Left side sleeping exerts less pressure on the right side liver, so it may help people with liver or detox issues, like acne due to liver issues. Amyloid protein forms in the liver, heart, kidneys, brain and it is transported by the blood to the brain, hence pineapple bromelain destroys this amyloid in the blood, etc before it can even reach the brain (amyloid is good for liver but bad for brain). Left side sleeping is supposed to provide the best overall circulation, meaning the best cellular repair and slowest aging. Left side allows airways to be more open, also, meaning more air/oxygen intake, for more cellular repair again. Organs die when there is low oxygen, oxygen is as important as nutrients coming from better blood flow. Make sure your CO_2 is not above 600 ppm in the vicinity of your nose, as that means low oxygen. If your carotid arteries are partially blocked, sleeping on the left side is even more critical, as blockages reduce brain blood flow during sleep, due to a much lower heart rate and blood pressure during sleep. Sleep loss causes the neuron myelin sheath to thin itself, which slows the speed of nerve impulse transmission, meaning you think slower next day. Cyclodextrin reversed this thinning in mice, by getting cholesterol back in circulation.

The main mechanism of brain shrinking, damage or dementia/Alzheimer is often insufficient blood flow (blocked carotid) or insufficient pressure to properly nourish the brain during sleep when pressure is much lower. So, try to eat well (not too much fat), fast if belly fat exists, etc if your carotid is blocked. Back side sleeping provides less brain flow than right/left side sleeping. Right side sleeping is the one that provides LESS brain flow than the left side sleeping, per most papers, and if you sleep on the right side, there is another issue, gravity makes blood linger more on the right side of the brain, so the left side of the brain gets less blood flow due to 1. gravity 2. lower circulation vs left side sleeping. Thus, for people with low blood pressure or heart rate, the right side is the worse side position, as it could cause the left brain to get insufficient nutrients and oxygen, leading to damage to the left side, seen on MRI as white spots of dead neurons. This can even be felt by some people on certain days following poor sleep (brain repair, etc), when sleeping on the right side, the left side of the brain can feel some weird pain, while if you sleep on back or right side this doesn't happen. Not only that, but back sleeping provides poor heart circulation, just like right side can to a lesser degree, so the vena cava restriction during right side sleeping or poor oxygenation during back sleeping can mean angina can happen due to low blood oxygen caused by poor ventilation and back/right sleeping. By moving to left side, the angina disappears, make sure CO_2 is 500-600 ppm, not 900-1300. To further prove this theory, these people also can notice the left knee have more issues due to the similar poorer circulation on the left side. It all depends on so many things, but if any issue exists with the left side of the brain, don't sleep on the right side for sure, switch to the left side right away and see if anything changes. Likewise, if right side has issues, it could be that if you sleep on the left side, blood barely reaches the right side of brain or body, your pressure is too low due to too much magnesium and potassium and low sodium, leading to issues or even pain. Things are complex, you see, high blood pressure or heart rate shrinks lifespan by vascular damage via clots, heart wear, while low pressure starves the brain/heart of nutrients/oxygen if not sleeping on the left side. To live the longest possible, one has to have everything just in the perfect range, sleeping position included for one's DNA, diet, issues. Vegans have lower blood pressure and heart rate, so for them, sleeping on the left side is even more critical for brain and heart health. If low blood pressure and heart rate, then left side > right side > back sleeping. Stomach is bad. A+ blood types have an even higher need to sleep on the left side if a lot pressure/pulse vegan, because A+ is the most prone to clotting (planned COVID19 death), strokes, having the stickiest blood. The sticky blood not reaching the left side of the brain would cause problems and clots faster. Sticky blood is slower to reach the thinnest capilaries, so A+ has poor peripheral circulation and absolutely need the left side sleeping position that is maximizing brain, peripheral circulation. A+, 30% of humans, need drink water often to dilute blood to decrease its viscosity, stickiness. A, B blood types got 50% higher risk of lung and leg blood clots, which can also become strokes. Eating garlic, raw onion, ω3, polyphenols, etc is key to keeping blood less sticky, and kale produces NO to relax blood vessels so arteries are more flexible with the sticky blood, preventing injuries that would otherwise start arterial plaque leading to fatal events. Never let one day go without eating 100 g of kale, even if not A, B type. MDs explain left side sleeping is the best for overall and heart health too, though the right lung is 50-70g heavier than the left lung and the heart may work harder in overweight folks, leading to atrial fibrilation or hypertension, in some people. The right lung is heavier, because the heart is on the left side.

Universal Immortality Inc will monitor every citizen's the brain flow and blood flow etc cellular repair etc biomarkers for sleeping positions in the mattresses of Immortality Building Inc and decide which one is best for each person next 5 years, everyone goes to sleep lab required every 5 years since sleep position is as important as diet for brain health etc. Sleeping perfectly means spine is perfectly straight, since bending it by odd positions, cna cut blood flow by 3 fold, meaning only 7% of brain blood comes, instead of the normal 20% from the spine artery. So, they will create a custom body shape mattress to ensure the measurements in the lab match the position at home, with grooves to guide you where to place your legs and buttocks, shoulder and custom pillow and perfect bumps to rest shoulder without pillows, so that you can live to 125 by better sleep repair. They measure MRI to see white areas damaged by hypoxia if any, etc. Today, we have TV news show some ridiculous MD give a 3 min explanation of his opinions, but nothing intelligent like a 5 hour presentation of 5000 references and a PDF for all about the best sleeping position, just mattress makers conning everyone to buy their product, just like fake dietary science papers push avocados, coconuts, olives, olive oil and other junk. Side sleepers can easily use extra pillows to avoid shoulder pain and clot/plaque causing turbulent flow, eddy currents, etc from the abnormal squeezing of blood vessels in the shoulder. Healthline explains nobody really knows which one, left or right, is really better for most folks, though left side sleepers cause some unusual electrical activity in the heart and some turns of the heart, even if the aorta turns to left, indicating an easier flow on the left as the aorta blood flows with (not against) gravity for left side sleepers, meaning heart has to work less to beat, but is also more pushed by the 50-70 gram heavier right lung. We need thousands of scans to know.

Body fat or muscle buildup or even some weird anatomical difference that can occur since birth or age 10-40, can cause a pressure on the inferior vena cava (right side sleeping can cause the return of blood to heart to reduce and this will cause insufficient blood flow to the brain) or other blood vessel when sleeping on the right side or left side, or back, which would then cause abnormally low circulation for the entire body or one side of the body, or organ, brain, etc. Thus, you need to listen to your own body and change sleeping position to alleviate a pain that may occur due to this lack of blood flow to that organ, limb or side of the brain. Left eye could develop more eyelash dandruff due to lower blood flow when sleeping on the right side or back, due to lower white blood cells fighting the staph bacteria, demodex mites or whatever is causing blepharitis on that eye. After all, you need to read 500 papers to decide for yourself and try diferent positions to see what is best for your body or brain. The reality is there is no consensus among MDs. For example, some MDs say sleeping on the back is the most protective against stroke, and give 5 examples of side sleeping and stomach sleeping that cause the risk of stroke to increase 2-10 times, because back sleeping creates far less turbulent flow, thus far fewer clots. Other MDs strongly advise against sleeping on the back, as this causes the most heart attacks, with left side sleeping being best due to these reasons (heat sits higher, works less to pump blood, aorta turns left and heart pumps less, breathing is easier), with Sleep Breath 2025;29(6):326 reporting mroe angina attacks for back sleepers. However, for low blood pressure people better circulation is MORE important, to prevent brain hypoxia, so you need to sleep on the left side, without the hands supporting the head, without the elbow above the head, without the elbow under pillow, without a twisted position, etc. More importantly, sleeping on the back with only 1 low pillow prevents turbulent flow, since if your pillow is too high, it creates restricted blood flow, bends your neck and causes the mouth to open, causing bacteria to enter lungs and your throat to dry, voice to become hoarse. Many people report on youtube comments by the tens of thousands that sleeping without pillow works best for them, this may be due to poor blood flow due to blocked carotid artery, which then becomes stronger blood flow without a pillow. It may be a sign of atherosclerosis (go check via ultrasound your carotid plaque for safety and stroke, dementia prevention) if one sleeps better without pillow or a sign of brain injury from sleeping with too high of a pillow that led to poor brain blood flow during low pressure night sleeping. Sleeping on one side causes a serious turbulence in all blood vessels as blood is kept more by gravity on the side you sleep on, creating a rise in blood pressure to get blood where it doesn't go enough and depriving the other half of the body of proper blood flow and tissue repair, leading to brain damage on the other side and the damage to the heart itself sometimes by venous return blockage (right side sleep) or by squashing the heart (organs push on heart when sleeping on the left side, making it work harder, shortening your lifespan). The correct position depends on one's health issues, for stroke patients, they recommend no pillow, and back sleep to provide better flow to the hemisphere that got affected for faster healing. If you got dementia, a hypothesis based on some small studies claims left side sleep clears amyloid plaque and brain waste faster via the glymphatic system, but there are always risks much higher than dementia, like instant death by stroke during sleep. This is a very complex issue that requires the most advanced AI and evaluation person to person, but stroke can kill/disable instantly, so keep that in mind before side sleeping, especially if aged 45+ and having a low blood pressure that may be insufficient for one side of the brain to get proper nutrients to do the brain repair. After 55, stroke risk doubles each decade. When you're old the vessels are far less elastic, don't cope well with pressure and flow changes. Avoid hot long showers in the evening, shower in the morning with warm water (never cold or hot as those cause sudden rise or fall in blood pressure which can cause clots) for reasons explained here.☺☺☺ This advice is for any 20+ year old, since during a bad tiring week of poor sleep a 20 year old's body becomes as weak and incapable as that of a 65 year old. When you twist hands, spine, head during side or stomach sleeping, you cut blood flow to the brain. Side sleeping means you place more kg/square inch than on the back, so you constrict certain vessels more (the same 150-200 lb weight rests on an area 2-3 times smaller, creating real organ and artery/vein damage), creating much higher flow turbulence, which promotes clot formation as explained in video 1, video 2 on atherosclerosis (plaque starts with clots).

We need regular deep sleep, constant temp, humidity year round. Avoid eating and drinking 4 hours before bed, otherwise, your heart rate (HR) will be 54-60 due to digesting a high fat or protein meal for 5 hours, not 47-50 during sleep, and it will wake you up to pee. Each time you wake up, you take the heart rate from 48 to 55, so don't drink too much water before bed. If you have a bottle near you (quart detergent etc), you won't need to stand up to pee if male and HR will rise only 1-2 bpm for the last 2-3 hours of sleep. Going to the bath by walking is bad as it raises HR by 3-8 bpm for the rest of the night, ruining the sleep quality. If you check phone or do other activities after peeing, the sleep will be totally ruined, the brain detoxification will be weaker, your IQ will decrease more with each bad sleep day. While you think that bottle of detergent you buy is odd, it will dramatically improve your brain performance next day as you didn't interrupt the sleep by walking to the bath: walking to the bath often causes you to sleep 2-3 hours less, by just causing you to decide to stop the sleep altogether and that's a recipe for disaster, as Alzheimer risk rises 3 fold if you sleep 5 hours instead of 8, in some studies. Reagan President and others who played Macho Hero and slept 4-5 hours developed Alzheimer. Eventually you won't pee at night anymore, but until you get disciplined enough to no longer eat or drink 3-4 hour before bed, it helps you a lot. If you pee even if you don't drink water, it may be because your sleeping area is cold or you have some issue with the bladder. When I don't eat/drink before bed, I can sleep without bath trips for 8 hours. If the sleeping area is cold, or if your head, feet, legs, knees, hands, shoulders or any body area is cold, it causes blood vessel constriction (higher blood pressure too via constriction, damaging your brain & heart) to send blood towards the core of the body in order to avoid blood cooling. So, wear thick pajamas or blankets to stay warm. This shift in blood creates the illusion of extra water in the kidney and the kidney will filter out water from the blood, causing your bladder to become full, waking you up suddenly and raising risk of blood clot formation due to a thicker blood and a sudden rise in blood pressure during the bath trip. So, keep your area at 70-79°F or whatever you're used to so that no body area gets cold to the touch when wearing pajamas and the blanket. Obviously, if your risk of dementia is huge, sleeping on the back may add fewer years to your life, since sleeping on the right is alleged to clear your brain of toxic waste more than back. If stroke is your main risk, then back sleeping is better. You need to do what is right for you. Try both and see which one gives a better sleep. The science is fuzzy. But don't sleep in a given way to look good, as many youtubers say "sleep this way to improve looks", recall that health is above all, not looks. 90000 year old alien faces may be asymmetrical, like we have heart on left side, they may have one cheek thinner as many side sleepers have, due to blood falling by gravity to the other cheek. What is the point of looking good if you lose 20 years of your life? Being alive and well is 9000 times more important. Research and choose what is best for your sleep quality. Have a bottle of water by the bed to drink at night, to avoid waking up and to drink before finally waking up in the morning, as the blood is thicker after 8 hours of sleep and stroke risk is high if you don't dilute blood with water, the first hours of a day after the sleep. Thick blood = stroke.

So, make it a "religion" or iron clad habit" to never stand up (walk on 4 to bath if possible, as standing up raise HR so much, especially if fast, it will take 2 hours to lower it), to pee before bed, so you never have to wake up to pee and if you do, use a bottle by the bed if male that you always clean when waking up. Sleep means 3 times more T-cells if good vs poor interrupted sleep, so you need to make UNINTERRUPTED 7-8 hour Deep Sleep your number one priority, since all body, brain, etc repair happens during sleep and bad sleep means fast aging, 3 times weaker immune system, lower IQ next day, poor productivity, performance, terrible decisions. Sleep is as important as diet, so read the section on heart rate wrist watches. If buying this 3 sec rebound (the soft 1" blue side, the only Amazon that has a soft (for 70-110lb folks) style mattress vs a medium (for 120-140 lb) firm mattress to select from), 3" Amazon topper or this 1 second (faster) rebound (with wavy support foam beige 1" layer) 3" topper (if back pain, buy 1 with 2" memory foam + 1" dense foam, not the 2" dense; flip it on firm side if too soft) nobody complains about smell in the review. However, for most other toppers, some 1-2* reviews say horrible smell that takes 5-25 weeks to get out, not 3 days, (use Ctrl+F "smell" and find them quick to save months of airing it out, buy one with slow rebound memory foam). Amazon search has many firm ones for 145-200 lb. Yet even the least smelly ones need to be aired 3-5 days to protect your lungs, so to do that, align 12 toilet paper rolls in 4 rows of 3 about 2 ft apart to get raise it 5" off the ground to let the mattress ventilate on both sides with 2 powerful 20$ 20 inch by 20 inch fans, in a room where nobody sleeps, that has all windows open. Spend time to read all 1-3 star reviews, so you don't waste 1 year ruined by bad sleep. Thin people report a given mattress as firm, fat report it as soft, so choose well. Lazy cat is a 3" memory foam, perhaps too firm for thin folks, Amazon video shows fast 2 sec rebound. 8" Olee seems comfy for a full mattress for those weighing 140 lb, while 10" Neo for 120 lb.☺☺☺

Our society brainwashes us to take flu vaccine, etc, but when we walk into a pharmacy it doesn't ask you "Have you gotten 3 hours of REM sleep and has your HR been 49 during sleep last night as is ideal?". Instead they push chemicals, "Did you take the flu shot?". Strong immunity means no vaccine needed. All vaccines have side effects. We want natural immunity to live to 4000 without issues, discover the quantum weapon to take out all viruses, insects, bacteria, dust mites, molds, etc from our planet too. Avoid sleeping pills as they can cause Alzheimer. Resting heart rate is lowered when you move from sleeping 6 hours to 9 hours like Dr. Berg explains. Waking up at sunrise or right before it makes you happier and may extend your life. It's good to lower heart rate before going to bed, so no exercise or eating 4 hours before bed, so your heart rate goes to a healthy 48 during sleep. Turtles have slow heart rate (20) and live to 400, mice have high heart rate (600), and live to 3. Benefits of sauna are achieved by poor people by using winter clothing when going out to do gardening or exercise or when inside a car that sit in the sun (3-12 months of the year in certain climates), to sweat all toxins and microplastics out of your body. However, don't overdo it, if you didn't have kids yet, as it can ruin your eggs and sperm. Ladies only got 1 set of eggs at birth. ☺Cockroach IQ ☺ladies don't protect eggs at all, wearing WiFi, cell phone or other devices, ruining baby DNA and all their eggs. The freedom to be selfish, low IQ means genocide. Guys make new sperm every 3 months, ladies get most eggs at birth. A lady selling IR saunas claims you'll sleep better. Makes sense if fewer toxins in the brain to mess sleep. Doctors remind everyone why good sleep is essential to avoid getting sick. Less deep sleep leads to brain shrinkage, low IQ, shorter life (since brain controls many body aging processes) and dementia. The indoor air quality worldwide is catastrophic, truly bad, due to a pathological habit of keeping windows closed all the time (without any AC to bring in fresh air and filter air), which makes all carpets and belongings acquire that horrible smell of dust mite/mold/bacteria feces, etc. All dirt, dust, etc settles in carpets and rots, get vinyl wood that never rots and never is termite food, just use rugs and get a clean air, leave window open 1 cm even in the winter, or half cm in cold winters, to get that fresh air. Cognition declines, sleep body repair declines, when window is closed. I went to look for a room one time and all 15 rooms stank like crap. So, for your health's sake, be charitable, give 5$ on electrical silent heater costs, but save your body $5 trillion worth of damage to fix with today's monkey tech. Replace that intake filter monthly too if using central heat (central is a terrible idea). Sleep allows the brain to clear toxins, so get a good sleep. The next few pages explain sleep disturbance is used for perfect mind control (and torture of various body parts, leg or heart, stomach, anus muscles using RF, sonic weapons to make stool hard and affect breathing muscles, to make you think you got the man made COVID19 maybe, even eyes, to get them red/dry) by evil people. The Silence Halls in schools can help some to catch up on sleep, by taking a nap for 15 minutes, and become less irritable, more connected with their soul divine center of tender soft healing grace and the healing soothing sweet gentle tone of speech of Immortals and of healers. ☺☺☺

Guardian explains if we don't get enough sleep, there is a 70% drop in immune T cells next day in the blood, allowing an easier acne, infection and catching of colds, Alzheimer, heart disease, atherosclerosis, aging. With too little sleep, we get amyloid plaque harder to clear (in healthy people it's cleared during sleep). A 20x mirror used 2 seconds daily, 15 hours total over 75 years can add 40% to lifespan. Going to bed early increases longevity and creativity, when you stay late, you're tired thru the day, so your creativity and vocal, emotional tone are pure trash. Society is ruined by these 3rd shift jobs and 2nd shift, as well as terrorist cops, military who don't let people go to bed at 10 pm for 20 years. Don't believe that "going late to bed makes you more creative", that's just lies to get slaves to work 2nd and 3rd shift, so their brains are destroyed. You need darkness to sleep well, so go to bed early. A 20x mirror can tell you immediately if your sleep was good, the eyes are not red, new red-purple vessels don't appear when sleep was good, something impossible to see on 1x mirror. Data shows cerebrospinal fluid, allowed to wash neurons by the glial cells canals opening during deep sleep, clearing beta amyloid much faster (20 times) during deep sleep (as long as you did not eat 4 hours before, as glucose blocks this glymphatic cleaning) & why naps can help us when we didn't sleep well prior night. Similar videos, like DW documentary on this topic, etc explain big meals or even glucose rich snacks before bed (bad habits of eating an apple or etc before bed) or in our 8 hours of sleep turn on the brain and prevent daily cleaning. This glymphatic system was just discovered in humans in 2019, so it's not clear if sleeping on the right side helps you prevent cognitive decline or not, as some claim. Between 10 pm and 8 am or whenever we eat first meal, we better have only water or very low calorie food, like cucumber, veggie. Overeating leads to high sugar spike and triglycerides which cause atherosclerosis and brain inflammation; overeating can confuse the immune system so much via chemicals crossing the damaged blood-brain barrier (RF also damages this barrier, allowing brain cancer, Alzheimer and all kinds of brain diseases to start), the brain microglial cells can even start eating live neurons (like in many autoimmune diseases when immune cells start attacking the body), an abnormal behavior; the immune cells in the rest of the body can't get to the brain due to blood-brain barrier, so microglials (from glue or glia in Greek) do all the cleaning neutrophils do elsewhere; microglials are the primary immune defense of the central nervous system; microglial immune cells normally eat dead neurons pathogens, waste, etc by phagocytosis, like neutrophil innate immune system cells eat bacteria in this 1 min video to defend the body (see 4 min neutrophil video here, to understand how immune system cells clear cellular debris in our body and brain), see this 3D animation 1 min clip too; this phagocytosis of live neurons by microglials during sleep deprivation destroys our brain IQ, memory, knowledge (for brainwashing, see below, creating a robot without independent thought, except obedience to gadgets used by others) etc and an in vitro example is shown in this video (after watching the 30 sec neuron eating, you can listen to the 3 minutes before to understand how overeating even one single meal that interrupts our sleep can destroy our brains, especially if WHR is high). ☺☺☺

Berkeley Prof. Walker explains in this talk all statements in this paragraph: men who sleep 5 hours a night will have smaller testicles vs 7 hours sleepers; infertility for both genders is higher; women suffer more insomnia and 25% of caffeine is in our system 12 hours after a cup of coffee, reducing the quality of sleep, the amount of deep sleep by 20% (it takes 20 years of aging to have such a drop). Alcohol sedates and undermines sleep by fragmenting it (very bad idea to interrupt your sleep to eat, work on computer, etc), leading to more inflammatory white blood cells that cause the hardening of arteries or atherosclerosis. One night of poor sleep means 40% lower capacity to learn new things. Amygdala (emotional center) becomes 60% more reactive during sleep deprivation, so violent crime rises, thus loud music playing after 8 pm is a violent crime. The chimps playing loud music during day are also guilty of violent crimes, as some take naps during the day. Daylight savings causes 1.6 billion people to sleep 1 hour extra or 1 hour less and heart attacks, car crashes, etc rise and fall about 23%. Kids who start school at 8:55 had 70% fewer car crashes than those starting at 7:35: the ideal school start for older kids is 10 am (better grades, better behavior). Rats die after 11 days of sleep deprivation; there is a sewage system in the brain, the glimphatic system*, that is more active at night, it's a glial cell controlled drain* of beta amyloid which increases 20 fold during deep sleep vs daytime*; without this, out short-term memory and hippocampus are weakened*. His google talk explains sleeping 5 hours makes you 4 times more likely to catch the flu versus sleeping 8 hours (similar results for the common cold, <5 h vs > 7 h, 4.5 fold difference ► Sleep 2015;38(9):1353-9). Poor sleep damages our eyes too making cornea less transparent, eyes more red. After a flu shot, the 5 hr sleeper (for a week before the flu shot) produces only half the antibodies rendering the flu shot useless (possibly COVID19 vaccine too). One hour of iPad reading vs book reading halves the melatonin amount, disturbs the all important REM sleep. Without melatonin pills many older people sleep only 5 hours, which crushes their immune system, killing them 10-20 years earlier, via poor body repair, dementia, brain damage. "those with <7 hours sleep 2.94 times more likely to get a cold than those with ≥ 8 hours... those with < 92% sleep efficiency 5.50 times more likely to get a cold than those with efficiencies ≥ 98%", those with sleep efficiency ≤ 85% 5.4 times more likely to get a cold than the > 85% group ► AIM 2009; 169(1):62-7. ☺☺☺

Sleep regenerates every organ. So, wake up late when you went to bed late. Being awake 20 hours can lower some people's cognition the same as if being semi-drunk. Some studies found both too short and too long sleep were associated with higher mortality; perhaps long sleep is useless if no deep sleep for deep regeneration of organs, so long sleep due to torture (harassing of heart, ass, legs, etc to keep you awake, or induce you to eat a big meal before sleep to make it harder to sleep well) during regular sleep hours may lead to shorter life if no deep sleep occurs every 24 hours; knowing this, spy agencies use sleep deprivation to achieve perfect mind control, torture, brain destruction (poor memory key to manipulation, destroying the safety mechanism that stops us playing out our dreams during REM (rapid eye movement) sleep – i.e. they use gadget to beam a dream into the brain and then the person acts it out, not the funniest thing to start running while sleeping), slavery, easier robotization, see next few pages. Sleeping during the day if at night torture happened is essential to rejuvenate every organ. Many studies show that losing sleep leads to loss of brain tissue too, even if it's only 1 night lost. Kids form lifelong habits; being taught about sleep is helpful. Good sleep prevents hypertension & diabetes; it prevents weak immune system and endless diseases.☺ University of Pennsylvania found that getting enough sleep each day (some need 6, others need 9+, especially younger people) is a good way to prevent brain cell death and permanent brain damage. Getting enough sleep daily improves telepathy/brain performance ► NS 2014;34(12):4418-31 ☺. ☺☺☺

Telepathy and good behavior are dependent on serenity, happiness and loving kindness, on order and low chaos. When our sleep habits are very chaotic, even if we get say 8 hours of sleep daily, it can diminish brain and telepathy performance too. Hence the old adage of "getting more regular going to bed hours, more even amounts of sleep daily, having a regular sleep schedule is better", is confirmed by science. Irregular sleep schedules harm attention and creativity in young adults: "The more variability they showed in their night-to-night sleep, the worse their cognition declined across the week," said study co-author Michael Scullin, PhD☺☺☺ Telepathy precision goes to 0 when one didn't sleep well the previous night. Scientific discovery happens via good telepathy. One could use telepathy (like the exercises in Chapter 16.2), to discover what existing natural compounds (or man made, starting from a natural that is optimized) that once eaten much more, help all live to 500. There might be molecules, in plants, that increase lifespan 200% if we eat them daily, or in 20 times higher doses than normally. We can't find these molecules if our brain is half-dead, as it is after poor or irregular sleep. We need amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ sleep every day for months in a row to reach super-ESP and figure out correctly which molecule intake or chromosome, and area of it and gene, among the 30,000 known genes, is the one that changed leads to 500 year lifespan, just like a gene change or two made worms live 5-10 times longer. Then this can be tested in dogs, cats, monkeys for safety/longevity and later aging markers in humans if safe. Some slept reportedly 2-5 hours and lived to be 86 or 90, like Tesla lived to 86 and slept little. Einstein slept 10-11 hours, was more creative than many, and lived to 76. Avoiding drinking liquids and eating watery fruits or veggies before bed means fewer bath trips, a longer deeper sleep; sleeping on a comfortable bed (a foam mattress is today cheaper and for some people at least more comfy than a spring one and it prevents movement propagation for beds for 2 persons, not feeling when the other moves) means getting a longer deeper sleep, the restorative deep sleep that restores brain and body to health. 1% of the population can be 100% healthy if sleeping < 8 hours. Most people develop health problems if they force themselves to be a short sleeper. As people get into a routine and get older, they sleep less. There seem to be mutations in the DEC2 gene allowing some (not most) humans, mammals to be fine with less sleep ► Sci 2009; 325(5942):866-70. ☺☺☺

SLEEP IS THE MOST IMPORTANT THING: they deprive you of it to manipulate every major life "decision" (they decide for you, tired = 10x easier to manipulate; see below). If you have trouble falling asleep, try THESE in order; they helped me and millions of others to sleep better:

1. take warm shower and/or use cold compress for 5 minutes on back of neck and 2 minutes on eyes to remove the over excitation of eyes/neck from heavy computer work.

2. use warm white lightbulbs (2700K), not 6500K daylight (6500K got 15 times more blue light)

3. use 1-3 hours before going to bed a 0 blue light LED (wavelengths NASA thinks improve sleep, make melatonin), $1.5 3000K 1 W LED (8x less blue than 8W) or $2 purple 1 Watt LED. Use a white keyboard that has easy to see keystrokes in 0 blue light LED above, like the quietest desktop keyboard on planet earth, the planet's quietest keyboard: Apple Magic keyboard that blew me away; I explain here how to assign F12 to 'delete to end of word' on this small keyboard (that comes with USB cable, so can be used as wired too), enabling your productivity to increase as you delete entire words, not just one letter at a time. This reduces eye strain and allows you to sleep better due to having less tired or dry eyes. If you got the numeric pad Apple Magic keyboard, you don't need these shortcuts. Other quality white keyboards on Amazon are Logitech K380 or HP, but those are low quality vs Apple. Cheap models made by 'never heard of companies' double type characters. See eye section for more.☺☺☺

4. wear 99.8-100% blue light blocking glasses 1-3 hours before going to bed, and that will help, since the low blue lightbulb emits about 500 times less blue light than 6500K daylightbulbs, and this light can go around blue light blocking glasses and also affects the skin, which is also signaling melatonin production inhibition, since our palms and face are exposed usually;

5. lower blue light from your desktop, tablet, phone 20-25 times too (like me), making your room very yellow and darker; blue light from monitors acts as a daylightbulb, so if you use flux software to change screen light temperature from 6500K to 1200K, you can lower blue light 25+ times. In the summer T-shirts/shorts cause more skin exposure (wear long pants/long sleeve shirts before bed to reduce blue light contact with skin). In the morning, to wake up and regulate circadian rhythms, get plenty of blue light, so you're awake; only do these extreme steps at night to help you sleep better. If you go to bed 20 minutes after driving a lot at night, they got clear glasses that block 45% of blue light and still allow you to see at night perfectly, since you can't wear 99+% dark orange glasses at night, you won't see much on dark roads.

6. use a 100% blue light blocking monitor filter. Blue light is like coffee, it keeps people awake, causing insomnia if too much. For eons, our genes have adjusted to going to bed when blue light (sun) is out; our candles/fires had very little blue light, mostly yellow/red. Only in recent decades, due to blue light fluorescents, LEDs, digital screens, has insomnia become common.☺☺

7. be aware of "silent sound" and "telepathy simulating inner voice simulating" technologies that spies/militaries use (to create fake miracles, religions, cults, dreams, experiences too) to get you to sleep at irregular hours "let me do this extra web search, then stay up another 50 minutes", or take a job that does that to enhance their mind control over you (sleepy and easier to manipulate, don't wear too much blue blocking all day, as it makes you sleepy), to eat late at night (lots of watery stuff sometimes, so they wake you up to go to pee and then suggest via gadget to be online a few hours or minutes to disturb sleep) so you go to bath or they can use their full urethra (where urine is stored) mechanism to cause sperm release (to disturb sleep and drain brain of nutrients) via dreamless or simulated wet dream used as plausible deniability of neuron activation technology. Gone are the days when undercover spies instigate people to do things in person, now they do it via people's inner voice simulator gadgets, that way it appears the person does it (speech, action, thought, motor action, etc), and they can hide their crimes and torture, while in person pretending to be friends and making only good suggestions while talking. They may even suggest going to bed at 10 pm as it's healthy but coverly use heart rate raising tech to make you unable to sleep of dream projecting gadgets or harassing of eyes (dry/red eyes) or leg twitches, etc. When in a zone where such gadgets exist, you're in a total

hidden war for your own survival, since when tired you can make deadly mistakes. Not just about things that are immediately lethal, but later on (lifespan shrinking) – like they make suggestions to buy a brand new more expensive car (24K not 18k or something), while at the same time renting in a noisy (hard to rest) place that saves a little money (1k a year maybe or 1.5k a year) – but gives poor sleep quality for perfect mind control; you think you save to buy a house or for a "better day that never comes", since even if you buy a house, "the American dream of owning a house and being tortured inside like in a prison with invisible gadgets" they install gadgets in the house to harass you even if it's quiet, using microwaves, and all kinds of weapons built in walls or hidden in normal objects (since they intercept all mail and swap them, etc), or deploy weapons invisible from neighbors"; a cheaper car (new or almost new) would have allowed a better quieter sleeping place with more resting capacity, provided they didn't disturb sleep with their weapons and "idea harassment via silent sound, etc". Ideas to change place of residence often, or room (if within your house where they harass you) are ways to create a neuron wastage, since each time you change place of sleep it takes a while for you to get used to perfect sleep, etc and you get less done as your neurons have to adjust to everything new; changing car is another thing – all to keep you busy, tired, distracted and perfectly controlled. Spies, once aware you found out they enslaved you covertly for decades (making "your" every major decision, by manipulating your brain, surroundings, social interactions, keeping you tired, distracted, in the "trance" zone of perfect puppettering), may try to kill you or "destroy your brain by sleep deprivation for perfect slavery" if you don't do their bidding, as "land of freedom" becomes "colony of slaves to death symbols" sort of. July 4, US' dependence on the military industrial complex of ever more profitable wars day? What about other countries "independence" day? Aren't we all depending on our historical inertia that repeats the past ad infinitum? Independent? I doubt it.☺☺☺

7. take iodine/multivitamins with iodine before noon, since iodine keeps our brains awake. Google "'foods/pills you eat after 2 pm' keep us alert or prevent good sleep" to find out if what you eat may disturb your sleep; it's not just caffeine and iodine. ☺☺☺

4.11. Education on the 1 billion killed by smoking + alcohol last centuries:

4.11.1. Smoking (kills 8 million/year, a Holocaust/year)

4.11.2. Weed (injures via car crashes and brain damage)

4.11.3. Alcohol (kills 3 million/year, a Holocaust/2 years)

11.8. shows how coffee kills 20 million/year via miscarriage, torture kills millions too.

Introduction (2 warm up pages): The next 29 pages explain USA spends 100 billion a year on alcohol and 80 billion on smoking. This 180 billion waste costs USA another 0.85 trillion a year in healthcare expenses: 600 billion smoking and 250 billion alcohol abuse. 1.03 trillion total wasted each year. Yeah, they say 'we have no money to bring free education for all' and decent housing. A million articles online explain the false evidence that alcohol presents any benefits, such as this 2024 article. When the Immortalist Party wins, all smoking and alcohol products ads in USA become illegal on day one and are replaced with the free government ad horrific videos of what alcohol, coffee, weed, smoking do to society, and ads about how to be 1 million times happier than orgasm, tobacco and alcohol via meditation, good sleep, happy breathing. In the 1 year transition period, a national deaddiction program is rolled out, so as to ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ show all those who're addicted to alcohol, smoking, weed, etc that their brain can make them happy, via happy breathing classes, etc. This is done so the country is free of the criminal mafia (who has no respect for any human right, except their 'divine' right to torture and subjugate everyone) than ran the USA for 250 years (perhaps, a less evil mafia, more covert than the British overt rule), who has been enjoying destroying millions of people by torture of heart, brain and everything, just like the British tortured millions from many nations and still do covertly, albeit on a smaller scale hopefully. After the transition period of free training for all, free classes one can take 20-50 weekends online and in person, which will last as long as it takes (perhaps 1 year) to kindly help all be free of the alcohol, nicotine, weed mafia, the new law comes into effect: all caught selling tobacco, drugs or alcohol, which already have killed 1.2 billion people worldwide, would be sent to a healing center for the rest of their life to enjoy the lifetime labor sentence like all violent crime offenders, meaning eternal service to Immortality for All sentence (details here: distribution of alcohol or nicotine, vape products will be a felony and violent crime, and in the future all jails disappear even for the really violent crimes, being replaced with healing centers where people can relax, heal, smile, be happy, learn and do simple jobs, so as to protect the human quantum field from bad thoughts and energies and not waste people's time). The young brains are very plastic and ultra easy to deaddict. We need better housing for all, and roads, etc for new towns, so there you go: they can create new housing heavenly places for the "inmates" and others, instead of just sitting around smoking weed in jail. We want Eternal World Peace in 3 months and 0 jails/violent crime within 10 years, so to accomplish that, we will shift all global resources towards that and we can't feed the aristocratic habits of enslaving workers to produce wine, while millions die in aristocratic wars. Only the cruelest vilest persons choose to waste 8 million of acres of land for useless nicotine and more millions for wine, when millions get ultra poor sleep due to overcrowding and the noise it brings, leading to violent crime (which fuels wars too). Kindly realize this cruelty is sponsored by the aristocratic mafia running the nations, as they don't want compassion to replace cruelty, since compassion requires the end of the aristocratic class. People are not choosing to be evil, out of the blue, they're being misled and tempted to be evil by the TV ads, stores that offer these poisons, by aristocrats who want to turn one group of workers against the other, to control by 'divine and conquer' both groups. Keep people 'happy and addicted' is the mantra that keeps the parasites in power, so they can enslave all. Workers are too tired to realize what is going on and they think their addiction is normal and hard to cure, when it is not, but it would end vast profits for the tobacco and wine mafias. So, people are not vile of their own, they're being made so, against their will so to speak, by crafty aristocrats. Thus, we need to be kind to our fellow family, human family members, who have been destroyed by the aristocrats.

Breathing is free and can help everyone to reach ecstatic states of cosmic bliss. It's kinder to reflect on our choices daily and choose to bring World Peace now. It doesn't matter if you believe in God, but the most important, urgent ethical action is to stop all killings, all wars. Why aren't Americans, Europeans and others kind, why are they not stopping being alcoholics and smoking so much, and work instead to give single family housing to all their fellow Americans and Europeans? Why is Japan so alcoholic, like Europe, with 9 million empty houses, yet many Japanese living as homeless people in tiny 40 sq ft cells? USA is the land of alcoholics, with 16 million empty houses, yet 0.6 million homeless. Why build a house if one can smoke, torture others or have wild parties with alcohol slaves produced? What a selfish nation, learn some basic breathing, meditation and be 1000 times happier than wine and nicotine, vaping, etc. This is the fight between good and evil, humans may soon disappear in 10 seconds, all of us, which side do you choose: good abstinence from sex, alcohol, smoking or evil praise of wars and violence? TV will also explain the bad effects of WiFi, wireless devices, phones. Thru Eternal Utility Inc, all houses/hotels/schools in USA will get ethernet wired Internet and later fiber optic. Youtube has millions of videos of people who explain 100s of the benefits of quitting drinking alcohol. The healing objective effects of quitting alcohol are explained in detail in this video. Watch several such videos daily to keep your motivation up and quit for 10 days, then 10 years.

The laws will be simple, as Lao Tze recommends in Tao Te Ching, so that everyone knows them: theft fines 9000 times the amount stolen, all nonviolent crimes big fines and educational healing courses. Laws can be ultra simple, so all 1st graders know them and the consequences. The greater the number of laws, the more chaos in the land, Lao Tze. The greater the number of banks (30000 in 1920s before the stock market engineered by banker criminals), the higher the world chaos (World War II from great depression). Thus, immortalists bring the one and ONLY Bank, Eterni Bank. The greater the number of contractors, the worse the life of the people who live in crowded, moldy, filthy, leaky houses destroyed by storms, fires, floods, quakes yearly. Thus, immortalists bring Immortality Building Inc, the only insurer, builder and maintenance company of all buildings in the USA, so we have 100 times more research jobs instead of useless sales jobs. The greater the number of businesses, the less research, the more cunning, deception and fraud, as we have 100 times less real innovation. Thus, immortalists bring 11 companies instead of 33 million. The greater the number of languages, the more fights, misunderstanding. Thus, immortalists promote one world language as a number one priority (initially maybe 10, but not 7000 today). The greater the number of schools and education curricula, the less equal the opportunity, the less research, the worse the tone of teachers, leading to violent crime, war and conflicts, double standards, factionalism. Thus, immortalists bring one centralized free for all gentle tone education system unlike any today. The greater the number of middle man jobs (2 million realtors for example), the poorer the quality of real estate services with all these 2 million sites. Thus, immortalists bring housing.gov, the only way to buy and sell real estate (takes 3 days max to buy or sell a house) and with 900 types of search options (not 50 as on the best sites today) and 100 times more info on any house than today. The greater the number of nations, the higher the redundancy and conflicts. Thus, immortalists promote one world nation as the final goal, with maybe 10 nations max in the transition period. ☺☺☺

UK banned those born after 2008 from buying tobacco. Halpern made CDs and mp3s that helped thousands to quit smoking. You can quit too, by autosuggesting yourself you quit, relax on the bed and, if not too silent, maybe listen to some peaceful instrumental meditative music (search youtube for it if you need more samples) to help you autosuggest yourself "I am happy without smoking". Smoking is the biggest contributor to cognitive decline for 1 billion people. France gives fines of $0.4 million and jail up to 5 years for nicotine pouches users, pouches promoted by the "gnat IQ" Swedish government worldwide as a "way to quit smoking". You only need to read a few pages to learn how to breathe with awareness in order to quit smoking, by doing something far more blissful than nicotine. Nicotine pouches kill people by causing hypertension, arterial plaque (which causes strokes, infarcts, death), vessel constriction, organ and brain shrinking via less blood flow, gum recession, gum infections spreading bacteria that form plaque. France is the only sane country when it comes to pouches, all nations need similar fines for all nicotine products, and meditative free classes to attain bliss that way. Saying "e-cigarettes or pouches" help people quit is like saying "beating people until they almost die" is a good option for those who want to stop killing people, so they don't experience "withdrawal pain from having the joy of beating people to death withdrawn". Vaping and e-cigs are still killing people by second hand smoke, it's still murder in disguise, albeit slow murder. How can Sweden propose pouches to destroy the planet? The next 7 pages explain tobacco kills 8 million people a year, a yearly HOLOCAUST, as WHO article states. Pregnant moms who smoke are more likely to birth babies with crossed eyed (strabismus). "For each cigarette a pregnant woman lights up each day, she raises her baby's risk of strabismus by 5 %". Mexico will jail people up to 8 years for distributing vaping products. Smoking and vaping are more like acts of violence against babies, pregnant ladies via second hand smoking, oneself, as it sickens your body, damages the your lungs and others' lungs via second hand smoking/vaping, and makes you a burden for others who will have to take care of your lungs and every organ damages by tobacco or vaping chemicals. It's a selfish act of disregard for the welfare of humanity, an antisocial act of hooliganism. Smoking makes your teeth yellow ("Tobacco (and vaping) smoking causes dental staining" ► CEDR 2023; 9(1):150-64), stimulates the growth of cavity bacteria, ruins teeth, makes you unattractive, and looking like a genocidal psychopath.☺☺ Gently aware of this, all can ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ tell all those who approach them romantically that they're only interested in chats with nonsmokers, who have proven their loyalty to immortalist principles of universal single family housing, decent food for all, ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months, given to us by the happy immortalist parties worldwide. This unfortunate addiction forcefully violently imposed on society via hooligan TV ads by genocidal aristocrats to make trillions in sales by destroying the working class, can be gently compassionately overcome easily by learning how to be happy, breathe happily and find joy in helping others via the ultra happy immortalist sports of helping others fix stuff or build houses for homeless, etc. God will be proud of you, you did something for others, instead of killing your lungs and everyone around you with second hand smoking fumes. You shall not murder is the most basic principle of ethics. So, please, don't murder self and others by smoking. Every immortalist loves you, God loves you, don't hate yourself. God appreciates action, not going to fake churches of eternal violence and fake miracles, kind actions not words. The state of emergency section explains each puff, each vaping, each smoking session is the beginning of a chain of events leading to planets being blown up during star wars. This is due to the anger caused in nonsmokers and the brain and body damage smoking does, which leads to violence. In Australia, the secret lovers of public health and haters of 8 million dead yearly tobacco caused genocide are setting tobacco shops on fire under the guise of "gang wars". It seems even pubs (which they call hotels in Australia) are being torched, on purpose, to help Aussie spiritual development or make room for single family homes. The cops say nothing, as they approve of it, since tobacco murders 8 million a year, watch how smart the cops are to frame it as "gangs set shops on fire because they refused to sell illegal cigs" (they may be all paid gov agents to help people smoke less, check how illegal tobacco from Asia and Middle East enters Australia where smuggling is only punished with 10 years in jail instead of lifetime labor or death penalty). Smoking may one day be classified as a mental illness or violent crime requiring taking time off to learn how to live without it for 30 days in a meditation bliss learning healing center. Smoking tobacco finances gangs that kill, abduct, traffic people, etc, deprives millions worldwide of decent housing due to millions of acres lost to tobacco growing, with 1 billion cigs being trashed in Australia alone each year by the border force. Vaping is as bad as smoking basically, so it needs to be banned too. How can someone who says they're a loving kind atheist or agnostic or following God or "Thou shall not kill" commandment smoke and kill themselves and others via second hand smoke? Well, it's also because of a government who doesn't teach by Immortality Nurturing Agency email pdfs and videos ways to attain bliss and happiness without smoking, a bliss way higher than smoking and free. US President Trump tells people to not smoke, to not drink. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Gracefully show the people via TV these charts of brain function, happiness, etc after meditation versus smoking and the huge difference and how easy many quit with the meditation program. Gently allow the virtuous immortalist government explain that every time one smokes and damages their lungs, they damage the entire humanity's quantum information field and make it more likely for the lungs of all humans to fail, so smoking is an attack on all humans' lungs, an act of subtle, yet pure less known terrorism, but we never realize that, nobody dares to use some metaphor like that to bring more honesty, gentleness, love. We have 50 million people worldwide severely damaged by smoking each year, and the health system is forced to deal with it, instead of with building a truly prevention based system for maximizing healthy ☺☺☺ and total lifespan. Likewise, any time acts of violence or even border skirmishes happen, the entire humanity's quantum field is ruined and world wars become more likely. To attain peace, the end of wars and leveled buildings, we need healthy lungs, love for all beings, not the hate that destroys all lungs. Our planet is in a state of war and humans may disappear one day in 10 seconds, we need all resources to bring health, sanity (depends on oxygen to brain via healthy lungs) and tranquility. When a house is on fire, we don't pour gasoline on the fire, yet today, the violent movies 'generously' created by British Jewish Hollywood aristocrats, promote cigs sold by the British aristocracy controlled British American Tobacco, British Phillip Morris. The rich bomb us with tobacco ads to burn our lung cells and restless music that is so far from eterni, mostly anti World Peace, that it increases the imbalance further, making war even more likely, chaos and poor health more probable. Smokers can make a huge difference, end the millions of war amputees, war maimed, homeless refugees and injured each decade of war, by quitting smoking today. Let us free the health workers so all work towards the Peace all deserve, so all Americans have single family housing, 500 year lifespan, not just British royals. New Zealand planned to ban tobacco sales for all born after 2009, but later repealed the law before being implemented in 2024, showing what a dysfunctional 0 IQ system the multi-party system is. UK plans to ban sales for all born after 2009, aiming to reduce vaping to 0 too: by 2024, 90% of tobacco selling entities will be closed. Bhutan banned all tobacco sales in 2010. Thanks to regulation, smoking teenagers went from 83% in 1979 to 7% in 2021 in Germany. Adult smoking in 2022 was 8% in New Zealand (teenagers 2%), 22% EU, 35% China, 11% US & Australia. The charts and policies show it all can go to 0, without any black market 'rise' argument.

If the ethics of non-violence, loving gentle soft sweet☺☺☺ nurturing kindness was strong, and taught in every place of worship and school worldwide, and via emails from Immortality

Nurturing Agency, nobody would smoke, as it is an act of violence and slow murder. We could perhaps try to run an experiment in a county, city (such as a city near the Immortality for All Megalopolis, that houses millions of temporary students and workers to build World Peace and Immortality for All*)* or state to teach ethics, eterni tone and music via TV-radio, maximum gentleness kindness for all humans, compassion for all, explain quantum effects of smoking and how nuclear and star wars spread from it, how it is like a big genocide. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

After we ban smoking during the state of emergency, all taxes can go to 0 eventually, alcohol and tobacco, strip clubs, casinos, stadiums, etc vape stores, uneterni music, would be illegal and nonexistent; the☺☺☺ Megalopolis is the Land of Infinitely loving Kind "Immortals to Become" whose virtues overflow into all nearby citizen cities and transform the entire USA into a smoke free alcohol free (can cause brain damage in fetus) zone of 900 year lifespan people.☺☺☺ The virtue 24-7 programs via radio-TV would force everyone to seek a smoking alternative provided freely by the government which is a free meditation course to listen to eterni music and attain deeper happiness, a course that is 2 hours long and people can listen to these meditations daily relaxing in bed or when wearing headphones, etc, can include even positive statements, 'i am happy, happy, Immortal, my health is improving a lot as I no longer smoke', etc. Those trying to create black market for it, would be caught, as well as the smokers of illegal products and lovingly taken to a healing center where they build 200 houses with others to house inmates in much better healing conditions and rid USA of prisons which act as incubators for perpetual violent crime and etc, due to the way they're run without healing eterni music, proper education, ability to grow their own food in vertical farms, to get thus better nutrition, sleep, etc. All prisons would be demolished slowly and replaced by the most amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ heavenly healing centers, nicer than most cities today, more virtuous too. When people realize how bad smoking is, it will cause 100 songs about a world of nonsmokers, people with happy bliss via meditation, etc... and eventually, the government will fine Philip Morris, British Tobacco $200 trillion each (Canada will fine tobacco companies $32 billion, so USA needs to fine them at least $330 billion for all USA tobacco companies, because it was a 10 times bigger market), so the people they destroyed thru their ads can be helped by new health centers of Immortality for All who distribute good air filters and supplements, free healthy fruit shopping cards, etc to undo the damage they did. The Criminal MI6, British Army, UK government would have to pay reparations to USA for all genocides committed via TV-radio smoking ads. This can also enable Immortality Building Inc to upgrade the houses of smokers, give free healing retreats and install better fans and air filters within windows using the new tech here. We see how ☺filif flea IQ☺city planning places restaurants right next to houses and all those toxic PAHs go destroy the lungs of the residents like second hand smoke does too. They're like chemical factories, since they use dry heat. The regulations are loose, they don't ask for any PAH filter. As society progresses, distributing vaping products that destroy lungs would be as bad as murder today with lifetime healing center labor camp being the fix, since all jails disappear and become healing centers in immortalism. You may see in a movie some mental psycho (religious fanatic) harming himself and then think it's violent crime, especially if he would use hammers and such to tap his lungs and be afraid. Honestly, if you were on the street and someone started pulling some objects to harm himself you would be afraid. The same happens with smoking, smokers engage in violence that destroys the human quantum field. Thus, smokers need to be treated with gentle tender soft healing compassion like "mentally retarded IQ 40 people" need, they're dangerous people to be around. Studies show, those who smoke, are more violent on average, as they come from more violent families. Help smokers, but don't socialize much with them, as you become like those you hang out with. Kindness is virtue, but that has to refer to all humanity, not just one smoker. Smokers are unintentional terrorists, they make all hotels stink, even the so called nonsmoking rooms, due to the common AC vents, etc the clothes, breath smell etc. We need smoke detecting devices in each room that automatically detect it and then take pic of the person smoking and then apply a $50000 fine to the guy smoking in a nonsmoking room. To protect the planet, only 3% of hotels ought to allow smoking rooms, 97% ought to be smoke free outside or inside. The individual fans that most hotels have for each rooms are not enough if not used often: new international regulations to open window and air out room after each person checks out are needed, since most hotels acquire a terrible stench from the carpet that sits there for 7-20 years and the common dining areas with coffee smoking, etc smells. New high tech detectors of air pollutants can turn themselves on every week or month or be used by staff if not installed in every room, to detect 5000 common contaminants to indicate the need to open window more often, use fan all the time when people are not present, etc, so that people can have a decent sleep. Hotels who don't check these often will be fined $5 million, $ sent to the Immortality Nurturing Agency who will then give it to Immortality Building Inc and Universal Immortality Inc too. Any citizen can buy these detectors from housing.gov and test any rooms if any odd smell exists and anyone can request a room certified free from any chemicals that are typical in rooms where people smoked various products, not just nicotine, weed, etc and the walls emit that smell for years due to not being cleaned well. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The central Eterni Bank, the only bank, knows what each renter or owner who lives there buys, vaping or nicotine products taxed 4000%, so it would know even without an air quality test, but certified by AI. No cash exists, so no smoking products sold illegally exist, as anyone caught receives lifetime labor. Carpets ought to be removable for highest hygiene, meaning they're rugs that can be washed well when detectors beep. Windows ought to be easy to open, at least the top 30%, to get more fresh air when needed. This will improve air quality a lot. Doors ought to be sealed better, it takes 3$ to install some door foam that prevents slamming noise and reduces air exchange with stinky hallways 100 fold at least. No hotel room can be built without certificate of seal, that does a smoke test to see if it's detected while in the hallways a certain easy to detect harmless odor is sprayed. All new hotels will have split ventless AC and the least airborne toxins generating electric silent oil heaters, no central anything. Only USA has a lot of the deadly central AC/heat systems that spread viruses, noise, entropy for biological systems from noise, mold, smoke, pathogens, cooking smells, etc. All the world's smartest engineers will gather to create with scientists world's most silent AC, fridge as silent as a modern laptop, as well as world's most heat reflective paint for building roof and exterior, to reduce the need for active cooling, by creating the most perfectly insulated building that reduces AC use during the summer. In cold areas, all building exterior is made of IR-VIS light solar panels of 35% efficiency, used by NASA, just thin film to reduce the need for active warming inside the house (the panels turn light into electricity to warm the walls for a very gentle heat that produces 2000 times less airborne free radical generating chemicals than the best heating method today, the electric silent oil heaters) and use passive warmth and local electricity, no more EMF from transmission lines, all houses off-grid. Reviews.gov allows all to report when meters don't detect some toxic smells and lead to device upgrade nationally. The stone age greed for all capitalism is unable to come up with separate ventless split AC systems (way quieter too) and window units as the Immortality for All capitalism will thru the Immortality Building Inc. By 400 billion fines on smoking companies, we get to replace 200 million central AC systems in houses (that everyone has, not just aristocrats) with mass produced by Immortality Building Inc, 100 years in the future, most advanced on Earth, split AC or window silent units that filter outside air, pushing fresh air on one end, sucking stale air from the other end 1-2 feet away. Instead of 10000 con companies, we get one that makes real quality. Central heat in houses is creating hot element oxidized products and destroys lungs of millions, their organs too, besides the incomplete burns of gas for non-electric furnaces, microbes in vents, etc. It's much quieter too, and noise kills, so we can finally take steps to improve lung health of all Americans. We ban gas and electric furnaces and create the most advanced small silent sealed oil heaters. As tech improves, ventless heating cooling becomes the law even for big commercial buildings, since it saves more healthcare costs in the long run, even if initially, it may cost 10 billion extra, given the 100 billion Americans spend on poisonous alcoholic products.

The final paragraphs are about smoking in public spaces and second hand smoking. France banned smoking near schools, in public parks, beaches, forests, etc as they want to create the first smoke free generation. It's about time all nations follow suit. A lawless government causes limitless dishonesty, so when I went to hotels, I was told the most disgusting smoking rooms are "nonsmoking rooms". How can this be? Lies and also, improper standards by the filif comical☺ private companies, thousands that build trashy hotels, without spending 5$ on door foam to ensure true energy efficiency and freedom from odors, noise, viruses of people on hallways, or the city toxic air, noise, etc. They make 25000$ a year on a room, and can't spend 5$ on some foam to protect the lungs of nonsmokers. As soon as the Immortalist Party wins, all hotels in USA will ban indoor smoking areas and anything 50-330 ft from the hotel (everyone who wants to smoke, needs to go to special places free from kids, whose outside air is filtered; all smoking could be allowed only in special areas of some parks, the smokers eligible parks. These areas are surrounded by air filters that take the smoke and filter it, so it can't reach the nonsmokers. The special rooms ventilate the air and simulate a natural environment and allow nonsmokers to be free from deadly compounds. Smoking will be forbidden in all venues, streets, public spaces except these special indoor places of relaxation and meditation bliss teaching for smokers. Anyone who smokes inside their house needs to filter air with a special air filter, before letting air outside to drift to neighbors. Nobody is allowed to smoke in a multifamily housing, condo, apartment, etc due to vent sharing that poisons all rooms. For smoking, anyone with kids or pregnant wife needs to go outside of the house all the time. Immortalists will also ban all ads for any vaping or tobacco products, replacing them with the ads about the horrific effects of smoking, alcohol, weed, etc. The government can fine hotels $1 trillion (the wealthy aristocrats who loot everyone) retroactively for destroying the bodies of people who visited the hotel hallways, front desk, rooms, etc and got so much smoke inhaled. Anyone smoking in an unauthorized place can be reported easily to smoking.gov to prevent hooligan local cops from doing nothing about it. With centralization, action is taken immediately by the feds who become bigger than local police in every town and state.

Nobody should be allowed to promote smoking indirectly via movies and videos, news reports etc. All instances of smoking/drinking alcohol on TV must be removed to prevent desensitization to such cruel actions. Already many hotels, claim to be 100% smoke free and they only allow smoking 25 feet from the hotel only, but this doesn't work, as smokers breath smells and after done smoking outside, they bring in the odor inside ruining every hotel. The system is ☺abysmal IQ☺ deified, thanks to the lack of Immortality Credit Score, lack of 1 trillion cameras, lack of a database for who is a smoker from the Eterni Bank data. If we had these, we could ban all smoking products users from all hotels except the Smoker Cruel Killer of Quantum Field Hotels. Smoking in the presence of kids is a violent crime, since it destroys the kids. In a society that is eons ahead of ours, it requires going to a meditation center to learn how to meditate and stop smoking. All job and activities end, until the person is smoke free, by going thru the meditation program to experience bliss without smoking. Going back to smoking and smoking in the presence of pregnant women or kids repeatedly could, if all agree with after debates, bring lifetime service assignment (not a labor camp, 1 million times nicer) in a city of healing. Third hand smoke is the smell that comes from mattress, pillows, walls, furniture in a hotel; this can be because hotels allow people to smoke inside and the doors don't have proper foam trim around the door to seal it perfectly; since they won't do much about it, take some toilet paper and fill in the gaps around the 4 sides of the door or a towel for the bottom if gap is too big; gently recall that change won't happen any time soon without the Immortalist Party, these vampires have developed a global enslavement system for millennia and it won't disappear overnight. We need to become pro-life, not pro-smoking. Immortality Building Inc builds all hotels and makes sure for small hotels, a lot of doors open to outside air and that windows are open on hallways to allow maximum ventilation, so people can open window and door at once and refresh room air in 10 minutes. A good idea, until all are free from smoking via the federal meditation bliss program is to create hotels for smokers only and keep all smokers away from nonsmokers. If smokers smoke in a nonsmoking room or people smoke in unauthorized places, they ought to be fined at least $500000 to deter it and use the funds to bring high quality filters to all. We need to teach society smoking is a form of slow genocide and free society from this curse within 25 years. Repeat offenses of smoking in unauthorized places ought to be grounds for deportation. We can also prevent anyone from immigrating to USA or Eternia until they have become smoking habit free, by implementing the meditation bliss program to all applicants before they're allowed to become permanent residents or citizens. Anyone caught smoking in public places or hotels will get a $5 million fine eventually, as smokers become 0.1% of the population. The foreigners who smoke are invading USA with smoking habits and this ruins our cities. Today, the fraudulent churches steal government taxpayer money, meaning they steal from all Americans, to build temples that sit empty, while fellow Americans (yes, even whites) are homeless and there are no funds to renovate the hotels that need upgrades and 5$ door trim, better filters, better faucets (not leaky ones), triple pane windows to block sound better, 32 dB AC units that block sound more effectively. Hotel staff give new visitors the smoking rooms.

Largest study of its kind found medicinal cannabis doesn't help with anxiety, depression or PTSD as many believe. Weed ages your brain, kills neurons, causes premature aging. Weed constricts blood vessels and thus deprive the brain of nutrients, leading to a smaller brain, lower IQ, like caffeine does too. Weed destroys everyone's heart health. Weed and tobacco combined drain the bliss molecule (anandamide, a pain canceling chemical our body produces naturally) in the brain. Weed is toxic for everyone's brain (lower brain activity in every brain area and short-term memory hippocampus), and needs to be banned except for medical use with lifetime labor for any weed dealing, legalized only for medical use, for those with severe brain issues who tried 100 other cure methods and none worked. The most important thing is to replace all recreational weed stores with free meditative centers by federal law, to teach people happy breathing, if online stuff doesn't work. Whoever is caught distributing executed if amount exceeds lethal dose and lifetime labor otherwise, for endangering the brain quantum field of humanity. That's why Jews pushes weed on gentiles for 2 millennia and also why Brits pushed various drugs on non-Brits. Singapore people live the longest, to 87 in 2024, and the weed use prevalence is 0.004%, the lowest in the world, vs 19% in Nigeria where they live to 62. This shows long life and weed are opposites. Many studies show driving after weed intake causes car accidents. Alcohol causes about 1 million lethal car crashes and ought to be banned globally too. This alone is sufficient reason to ban it globally. Medical weed causes psychosis. Daily weed raises the risk of head and neck cancers. A civilization of Immortals would probably immediately ban the use of recreational marijuana if many studies confirm this one ► mortality is 1.4 times higher for weed users and 3.8 times higher for users with psychotic disorders ► AJP 2016;173(8):790-8. Weed weakens memory ► JAMANO 2025;8(1):e2457069. Similarly, heroin users had 2.4 times higher mortality than non-users ► DAD 2017;171:31-8. Marijuana causes psychosis. For more on the health effects of weed, watch this.

Weed may cause defects in human egg cells. A 20 year study explains: "1 in 6 teenagers who regularly smoke the drug become dependent on it; cannabis doubles the risk of developing psychotic disorders, including schizophrenia; cannabis users do worse at school. Heavy use in adolescence appears to impair intellectual development; 1 in 10 adults who regularly smoke the drug become dependent on it and those who use it are more likely to go on to use harder drugs; driving after smoking cannabis doubles the risk of a car crash☺☺☺☺☺☺☺, a risk which increases substantially if the driver has also had a drink; smoking it while pregnant reduces the baby's birth weight". Weed using pregnant moms have 50% higher risk of autistic offspring. TIME magazine reports that weed users lower their IQ versus non-users. Teenagers get their brains destroyed for life with weed. "marijuana smoking more than once per week was associated with a 28% lower sperm concentration and a 29% lower total sperm count... combined use of marijuana more than once per week and other recreational drugs reduced the sperm concentration by 52% and total sperm count by 55%." ► AJE 2015;182(6):473-81.☺☺☺ "Periconceptional cannabis use seemed to be associated with an increased (70% more) risk of anencephaly" ► Epi 2009;20(1):60-6. "Prenatal cannabis exposure was associated with fetal growth reduction" (7.5% lower weight, Table 3) ► CC 2010;56(9):1442-50. "women who used cannabis during pregnancy had an increase (36%) in the odds of anemia", infants of weed users were twice as likely to need neonatal intensive care and had 77% higher odds of lower birth weight ► BMJO 2016; 6(4):e009986. Pregnant weed users had infants with more esophageal atresia (70% more), diaphragmatic hernia (80% more), gastroschisis (70% more) ► PPE 2014;28(5):424-33. Infants born to fathers who used weed before conception, during pregnancy or after birth were 2-3 times more likely to experience SIDS (sudden infant death syndrome) ► APAM 2001;155(7):765-70. Pregnancy weed use predicts offspring early weed use and offspring

4.11.3. Alcohol: 3 million people (WHO estimate) die on Earth each year due to alcohol

About 20 million are crippled by alcohol each year, 275,000 killed by drunk drivers yearly, meaning over 100 years, 27.5 million people will be killed, if we don't stop the instigators, by Jews, rabbis, pastors, atheists thru the national policies, Torah, Talmud and Bible that deify alcohol drinking, by Catholics deifying Eucharist wine drinking, legitimizing alcohol drinking by faked Eucharist miracles, committing acts of global terror and genocide that pale vs the Holocaust, besides the 9 million killed by drunk drivers since 1920, not 27.5 due to lower car number on the street. Are clergy guilty of genocide? These bastards say the son of God (demons?) turned water into wine, to lure people into drinking, and asked disciples to drink wine to have Life of Evil in them (John 6:53), to drink daily if possible, in memory of him, not God, in memory of his Infernal Cosmic Ego (Luke 22:19-20) and these evil devils also stole trillions in taxpayer money to get "tax free status" while destroying all nations. We were 1 million times (million x) smaller and lived 1 million x shorter, as bacteria, and in the future, we may be 1 million x longer lived, 1 million x bigger as some particle cloud, as first page explains, without having any of today's comical☺ religions, rituals of gnat IQ. Nazis only killed 6 million Jews, Jesus' alcohol killed 300-1200 million people since Jesus' arrival, Jews even more as their advice preceded Jesus (killings via violence, car crashes, beatings, lifespan years lost due to medical resources diverted, wars started by brain damaged alcoholic leaders). All Jesus supper was a typical Jewish daily meal, like Jewish Sabbath in demonic synagogues today, which are guilty of conspiracy to genocide, as are all churches and many other entities with genocidal scriptures that incite people to violence or alcohol use. This genocide of half a billion people dwarfs the Nazi Holocaust and is enough grounds to fine each single 'clergy, staff, church, temple, mosque' (members of church may get some $ back from sale of assets for all the $ the bandits stole from their donations to build useless palaces) and $1 BILLION at least, to finally walk the talk and house, feed, cloth, shelter all properly via the 11 companies, since Jesus said to shelter, feed, clothe the poor not to build churches or mansions. This includes all singers with lyrics that promote drugs, alcohol, violence, sex outside decent norms (to contribute to society by having a kid), fined $1 BILLION too. With 400K USA worship places, we get $400 trillion to ~~MAKE AMERICA GREAT AGAIN~~, pay our National 40 trillion debt too and MAKE EARTH GREAT AGAIN TOO, via Immortality for All and ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~. The next 25 pages will shock every decent person, and help them become the most anti-alcohol person on their street, since alcohol damages all brains. We shall remove any trace of knowledge of alcohol making, so no alcohol is made in USA and worldwide for drinking. Alcohol can lead to blood vessel constriction (due to boosting hormones that constrict vessels), which shrinks brains by nutrient starvation, lowering the IQ, besides giving heart disease, as heart needs to work harder to deliver blood; by promoting weight gain, this further shrinks the brain. The more alcohol, the lower the IQ: alcohol shrinks your brain, ruins the white matter (the brain highways), lowers the impulse control (front lobe), etc. Alcohol lowers heart rate variability, meditative bliss increases heart rate variability, heart rate variability is 40 after a drink, versus 150 ideal, 40 is what you get after a bad sleep night when you're tired and foggy all day. The American Cancer Society says ANY ALCOHOL increases cancer risk and the Surgeon General said alcohol drinks need a "cancer label" on them. Alcohol shortens lifespan, increases Alzheimer, ages your brain so much faster, as heart rate variability is needed for a long life. No amount of alcohol is safe, any amount depletes brains of ω3s, increasing brain inflammation and lowering IQ. Stalin and Hitler had alcoholic fathers that beat them often, especially Stalin. It's known that kids beaten heavily by parents become more paranoid and to avoid the pain of those moments, they will kill anyone they deem a threat, so the victims are not able to ever inflict pain on them. That's why Stalin killed thousands around him, with a cruelty and paranoia far above average. Pastors, clergy, aristocrats, politicians, rabbis who drink or OK alcohol, Eucharist wine are guilty of genocide, but they refuse to admit they co-killed the 100 million people killed by Stalin and Hitler: all need be fined big for instigation to genocide, since we know once alcohol sells, many will abuse it. These frauds posing as clergy, etc are one spiritually and ethically with those alcohol promoters, sellers, who made the Stalin Hitler fathers alcoholic, one with millions alive now who commit 50 million violent crimes every 3 months due to alcohol today. These beasts are not ashamed of their diabolical depravity, they raise their toast or Eucharistic wine as demonic leaders of nations or random folks. People are homeless or beaten often by spouses or parents due to the Clergy who OK drinking wine, even a drop of it, wasting millions fo acres for wine to poison us all. They will go to hell and purgatory if it exists, not to heaven. They are pure conmen. Poland will ban alcohol advertising and alcohol sales 10 pm- 6 am for off-premises consumption. All alcohol containers must explain the lethal effects, we need ban alcohol ads worldwide. Criminal Google and Facebook, run by the Jews who fought to undo prohibition, allow alcohol ads. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Wine during pregnancy will increase chances of crossed eyes, strabismus in the baby ► BDR 2023; 115(13):1208-15 meaning eternal avoidance of baby by everyone and social isolation, lack of career opportunities, and less help received by parents in old age due to mom's greed for alcohol while Ukraine and Syria are wiped off the map. This section explains the "benefits of light alcohol drinking" are negligible versus the damages it causes in people worldwide: potential all out war that will kill all humans alive. 40% of violent crime is done when people are drunk, and 95% by people who drank in the past decades, having destroyed their brain empathy center via a simple chemical reaction. WHO says 3 million a year, that's 300 million in 100 years. The HOLOCAUST of 400 MILLION HUMANS via alcohol, last 2 centuries, has GOT TO STOP NOW. The semi-HOLOCAUST of 4 billion victims of violent crime by alcoholics has GOT TO STOP NOW.

These victims suffered severe injuries and lifelong disabilities that shrank their lifespan and caused the equivalent of another 3 million dead each year today in lifespan years lost by humanity, so another 400 million dead in 2 centuries. On top of that, the destruction of 4 billion brains worldwide leads to many wars and violent crimes when one is not drunk, the indirect DELAYED violence coming from the destruction of the brain empathy centers, so we get another 400 million dead equivalent, THAT IS INCORRECTLY ATTRIBUTED TO OTHER FACTORS. By now, you realize ALCOHOL KILLED up to 1.2 BILLION WORLDWIDE, or eliminated 60 billion lifespan years in the last 2 centuries. When you sip your alcohol, do YOU realize you take part in the KILLING OF ANOTHER 1.2 BILLION PEOPLE in the next 2 centuries? Please stop being a genocidal killer, because it's never too late to change, otherwise, hell awaits you, if afterlife is real. Not only that, but the countries that first develop the mother of all bombs may wipe alcohol users out. 95+% of violent crime is not reported. It's never too late to stop being a "selfish devil from hell on Earth in human form".☺☺☺ Once you read the next 15 pages, you will understand what this metaphor means. Alcohol causes violent crime which causes wars, which cause the final war, the one that kills all humans above or underground in seconds. So, with each sip, you draw the human species closer to its extinction, if you care at all. Do you have empathy for your fellow human beings who work daily for you to have techs, devices, water, food? ☺☺☺ MD explains why he never drinks alcohol (any amount is toxic), how you can drink lemon water at the bar without friends knowing it's water. The most dead/hour happen in falling order: Sa 6pm-12am 6.69 dead/hr, Fr 6pm-12am 6.27, Su 12am-3am 6.20, Su 6pm-10pm 5.67, Sa 12am-3am 5.53 due to drunks after 6pm Fr-Sa-Su. Sa 8-11pm = 6.87, Sa 9-10pm 7.08 dead. Safest daytime is Su: 8-9am 1.9, 9-10am 2.1. Sa 6-10am 2.60, Su 6-8am 2.56. Dead/hr (wk avg) in daytime rising order: 8-10am, 2.51, 9-10 less collision, 10-11am 2.84, 7-8am 3.08, 11am-noon 3.32, 6-7am 3.54, 12-1pm 3.66, 1-2pm 3.96, 2-3pm 4.34, 3-4pm 4.77, 4-5pm 4.78, 5-6pm 5.11, 7-8pm 5.36, 6-7pm 5.54, 8-9 pm 5.55, 9-10pm 5.57. 1-6pm Fr/Sa are the week's worst 1-6. Sa (then Fr/Su) is the worst, best is Tu (We 2nd best), best 3 hr slot (of BTS.gov selected) is 9am-noon, 3-9 pm the worst. Try drive mostly 9 am to 12 pm (9am-2pm long trips), the safest time of any day, avoid sunrise/set, night, as low light means drunks crash. Use daytime, 0 fog/rain. See hourly data. When dead/hr is < 3, there is no traffic, it's stress free.☺☺

Japan will suspend driver licenses for those drunk while cycling, jail them up to 3 years. Many lose their coverage for travel insurance if they got high blood alcohol, while people lose 3 times more brain mass when taking resveratrol (the so called miracle compound in wine) versus placebo. The resveratrol scam is well explained in this video. That may explain why alcoholics got lowest IQ. Indeed, it's all whining, whine about the wine benefits. Out of 10000 polyphenols, the only one they chose to write a lot of fake papers about is *RESVER*ATROL, reverse troll… of course, the wine industry tries to prove that the tiny bit of resveratrol will help you live to 900 if only you drink 4 gallons a day. Many studies show resveratrol pills can raise LDL 25% in humans, can lead to atherosclerotic plaque in high cholesterol rabbits and other negative outcomes. Other studies show adding resveratrol to boron supplements cancels the group 3 boron LDL drop of 9.3% to 4.5% drop ► Ntr 2013;29(1):178-83. So far, it seems resveratrol can do a lot of harm. Today, this same compound is extracted usually from other plant sources, as it's cheaper than wine. USA drank 14 million bottles in 1934 and 445 million in 2021, showing that as the brain was wiped out by alcohol, so did the US decline. As alcohol went up, so did the US violence against civilians inside or outside USA and today USA is on its way to 3rd world country status due to alcohol, drugs, violent music and vaping. Drinking some beer 35 times a week shortens your lifespan 2 years at least. As the Associated Press and 1000s of articles explain, alcohol causes 7 types of cancer, heart disease, insomnia, anxiety, epilepsy, low IQ, brain shrinking, mental disorders, cirrhosis of the liver, ☺abysmal IQ☺ babies, millions of car crashes and violent crime incidents. Wine has 790 times less anti-oxidants than cloves (avoid basil, cloves if pregnant or trying to conceive though), 672x less than (<) cinnamon, and 400x < turmeric, 503x < oregano, 250x < pure unprocessed cocoa powder or cocoa beans, 100-160x < cocoa rich chocolate, see below. Alcohol weakens our immune sytem, causes dry eyes, makes us susceptible to flu, cold, COVID19, plus 1 million other viruses, molds, bacteria. Beer is very potent in causing breast cancer as a 5 min video explains ► youtu.be..LA; his 2018 video explains why alcohol at low/moderate levels may not help at all. The antioxidants in wine, beer are much lower than the wine industry ads have many believe, as the polyphenols section explains. Walmart Supercenters in many locations, just like Publix Liquors in 20 states, got "Wine and Spirits" area and sign seen from outside, possibly to keep alcoholics away from the rest. Why are alcohol sales legal? Pepsi poison is the Florida drink ad on there to lie to all that Pepsi is healthy for the slaves. No healthy longevity and immortality names for any Walmart area, only Jesus wine and spirits loved by Jews. The hypocrisy can't be more evident. Isn't it fair to fine Walton Walmart family 1 trillion for causing millions of domestic violence incidents and child neglect (parents fall asleep drunk, kids go outside, etc) via alcohol they sold retroactively? Same for the evil UK Royal Family, who now wants to establish a new Whiskey plant in USA, UK made trillions by murder of 100 million US people via alcohol and tobacco, they profit from genocide. All alcohol aristocrats need to be fined retroactively $50 trillion, since millions lowering lifespan by 10 years for 40 million become the equivalent of killing 10 million 40 year olds (40 years lost). Alcohol turns males and females into the most dangerous people, watch video of drunk girls. Never date a guy/girl who drinks, as they can kill you when drunk, or your kids, youtube has 50,000 videos of women killing people under the influence of alcohol, so no, it's not just men...

EU spent 200 million to destroy surplus wine, in 2023, so all that work to grow grapes and turn them into wine is wasted. Meanwhile, people could have eaten the grapes, instead of the junk sodas. Parents need to know that grape, apple and orange juice can contain 0.05-0.08% alcohol and some bakeries 1%. Grape juice is high in alcohol, so only eat fresh fruits (implement national policies to replace grapes with blueberries, etc), as everything starts to form alcohol if juiced and sitting in the shelf many months. Grapes (especially green), oranges, apples (especially green, yellow) are not that nutritious at all, having mostly sugar, they need to be replaced with berries in agriculture: in reality France dedicated 57 million to uprooting grapes and replacing them with other crops. Russia's % of citizens who never drink alcohol moved from 27% in 2004 to 48% in 2024, 33% preferred vodka (40% alcohol) in 2004 vs 11% in 2024, when people prefer beer (5% alcohol). Australia decided to replace wine grapes with olives. Olives, if processed correctly, and sold as salad addition, can be way healthier than any olive oil, providing fiber, protein, far more polyphenols and much more than the least processed most expensive extra virgin olive oil. Obviously, walnuts are way better than olives as a fat source, but these farmers use the same tools and everything to grow olives, making it way cheaper than switching to walnut trees. The main reason some studies noticed red wine drinkers live 5% longer is that they compared it with the typical American pure poison diet so void of polyphenols, that a few polyphenols in red wine (2-10 times more than white wine, depending on how dark the grapes are, the process of fermentation, etc) have made a huge impact on longevity. It's like the Big Meat, Big Egg sponsor 90000 studies where they compared eggs, a burger or cheese with the worst foods on Earth and they "show no increase in cholesterol". It's a scam. Once you know how the Big Food mafia works, you know how the wine industry does too. With all those trillions they could design a drink 1000 times healthier, but nobody cares, tradition forever, ☺abysmal IQ☺ eternal. If you watch many videos linked in this book you will see how the fake science and conclusions work by the PhD choosing the worst foods to compare deadly foods with. Likewise, we saw in the CHD section medicines improved parameters, but lifespan was shorter; just because in some people moderate alcohol improves some parameters doesn't mean those guys will live even 1% longer. Russians live the shortest of all high alcohol drinking nations and the vodka (whiskey), their main drink, has 1 million times less polyphenols than red wine. The distillation for 2-10 times ensures every healthy compound is destroyed, except the toxic ethanol. Is their short lifespan due to other causes or a possible suggestive evidence of the toxicity of ethanol, whiskey, vodka for most? The beneficial polyphenols in wine and beer may cancel the damage ethanol does, so at moderate levels, not much is observed. One can appreciate that some centenarians believe they lived to 100 because of alcohol; however, it may just be their body simply adapted and developed a mechanism to deal with alcohol toxicity and got only the benefits if any in their wine polyphenols, meaning they lived to 100 in spite of drinking alcohol not because of it. You can read 10,000 papers about it and see. Our brains are wiped out by alcohol and vodka, whiskey can contain traces of blindness causing methanol, a deadly chemical that can also actually kill people: now you know why alcoholics die. Israel males live to 82, drink 6.8 L/yr

(mostly beer), Singapore males to 84 & 3 L/yr, Russia males to 67 & 18 L/yr, Japan males to 82 & 15.6 L/yr *(mostly beer, 5% alcohol, which has polyphenols,* way healthier than 40% alcohol vodka*),* China males live to 75 & 9.4 L*/yr* (35-60% alcohol, baijiu strong liquor, toxic, with a whole Maotai city wasting lives of endless Chinese to produce this poison and the unethical government of China promoting alcohol, just like another 150 unethical governments that legalize its sale). Clue into the deadly nature of alcohol, high % alcohol drinks & vodka? Adventist vegan centenarians drank no alcohol, so we can reach 100 with no torture, good sleep. Toxicity depends on how much is ingested at one meal probably and concentration too. ☺☺☺

The ORAC values published by the USDA show the amount of anti-oxidants (that neutralize free radicals) in food: most foods have 8-800 times more anti-oxidants than white wine (ORAC 392 at the bottom of the list). Orange/Red wine has only 2-5 times more anti-oxidants than white wine. ☺☺☺ The super-centenarians (people who live over 110) of Loma Linda don't drink at all their entire lives, proving that you don't need any wine-beer to live to 112, i.e. far longer than the average human who drinks. A PNAS study found a reduction in hippocampus neurogenesis in monkeys after alcohol use. Hip 2010;20(5):596-607 found that in a rat model of alcohol abuse, neurogenesis is impaired and hippocampus degenerates. Studies found alcoholics have a smaller brain than moderate drinkers ► nih.gov...8.htm, the link has many studies and pictures of neurons in mice and humans. Alcohol damages the brain, as it reduces the brain ability to produce ATP using magnesium, and it creates magnesium deficiency, which causes many issues. Alcohol reduces neuron dendritic growth. Pregnant women who drink a little have lower IQ kids, so leaders raising a toast encourage the mental destruction of the nation? ► PO 2012;7(11):e49407 and ScienceDaily. Those drinking a lot have mentally disabled kids ► syndrome. 10 g alcohol or 200 ml/7 oz beer 5% alcohol or 83 ml/3 oz wine 12% alcohol, between first period and first pregnancy increases breast cancer risk by 11% ► JNCI 2013;105(20):1571-8 or HealthLine. Life expectancy was 24-28 years shorter than average in alcoholics ► APS 2015;131(4):297-306. Wine got 3 times more fluoride than fluoridated water, about 600 times higher than breastmilk, enough to damage the brain. "the pervasive presence of arsenic in wine (and beer) can pose a potential health risk" ► JEH 2015;78(3):16-22 and the Univ of Washington. 1.2 million people die yearly on Earth in car accidents, compared that with 1750/year dead in 2014-2022 in Ukraine frozen conflict (before it became bigger in Feb 2022). Every 5 years, it's like a Holocaust of 6 million people. In some countries about 70% of fatally injured drivers have excess alcohol in their blood. So, why don't we talk about this HOLOCAUST? This is an indirect Holocaust in addition to the 3 million due to alcohol use. All news is about one Holocaust, while other holocausts are never mentioned, like all recent 150 year wars, genocides in which 230 million died, not to mention the 1 billion alcohol and smoking killed. Perhaps we need a better centralization of the education curriculum to inform people of all holocausts. Alcohol raises blood pressure, triggers epilepsy, mental disorders, cancer, cardiovascular disease, cirrhosis of the liver, weak immunity, millions of fatal car crashes, violent crimes, suicides.

Alcohol depletes brain ω3: "DHA losses in brains of chronic alcohol-treated" ► BC 2015;1(1):63-8, "The detrimental impact of alcohol on DHA (ω3) impairs synaptic plasticity, particularly N-methyl-D-aspartate (NMDA)-dependent long-term potentiation (LTP) in the hippocampus and medial prefrontal cortex, two brain regions enriched with DHA" ► FN 2023;10:1068343. Drinkers become depressed due to low brain ω3s that keep us healthy: "drinking 7 to 13 drinks per week endorsed significantly more symptoms of depression than those who drank at lower levels" ► PPRP 2005;36(2):203-7. Depression leads to antidepressant use (CDC: 15% of US women), which will "reduce the probability ... to conceive" ► AJOG 2016;215(3):314.e1-5. This causes more depression, more alcohol use, then more depression in a negative self-reinforcing loop. Alcohol leads to depression, which leads to antidepressants, which accelerate cognitive decline, dementia: "antidepressants disrupt normal biological processes with potentially devastating consequences" ► EPS 2019;29:e56. "psychiatric drugs may cause permanent brain damage... prenatal exposure to psychiatric drugs can lead to altered physiology and behavior later in life" ► IJRSM 2019;30(2):59-71. Immortalists, never date alcohol drinkers, they're serial killers, as alcohol ruins the baby and causes others to imitate their fruit fly filif IQ of sewage worms from hell. Ignore the fact some rats are MDs and make 80 times the minimum federal wage: some became MD to make $$$. The evidence is clear: 4000+ foods can achieve what alcohol does (a temporary relief in some cardiac patients), without the brain, organ, liver etc damage and cancers, or all traffic/domestic violence. The great misconception is that alcohol makes you violent only when you get drunk, that's not true, you become more violent even if drinking once a month or quarter, even if not killing or injuring others. This can be a subtle form of violence that very few notice, but still ruins all.

40% of violent crime is done under the influence of alcohol in the US and other countries. 13% of humanity goes hungry and millions die of hunger every year, while a third of food is wasted. $30 billion could prevent this waste of food per some studies and solve hunger, yet the planet spends $400 billion on alcohol. Therefore, it is kinder, more altruistic, compassionate, gentle, etc to favor strict alcohol regulation, for medical purposes only when proven, outside of faked science papers, to be safer (a little alcohol as disinfecting mechanism) than all other foods with 100 times more antioxidants or probiotics (beer etc). This is logical, since alcohol causes millions of domestic violence incidents, millions of lethal car crashes every decade which are wholly anti-Immortality for All. Until people learn how to be happy via peaceful music and meditation, it is harder to regulate too much, because we have basically 1 billion alcohol addicts on Earth, explaining the peace. We would need to very ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ educate people on alternative bliss and of course increase tax, show 3 trillion TV-radio ads about alcohol induced violence and car crashes, to appeal to people's compassion for their fellow humans, so they do it out of love. France and UK experience a rise in sales of alcohol free beers and wines, which is predicted to replace alcohol versions within 40 years, due to efforts from people like you who care about global health, innocents killed by drunk drivers, spouses and kids beaten by drunk folks, etc, people who're worried about millions of tons of glass, aluminum being wasted on bottles, when at home with a juicer you can drink something far healthier.

The US beer tax varied wildly in 2023 from $0.02/gallon in Wyoming to $1.29 in Tennessee. Insanely, US distilled spirits tax varies from 0 in Wyoming to 37$ in Washington. This disparity is shocking, an affront to the Democratic Ideals of Equal Opportunity for All US Workers to prevent alcoholism and get more money for safe food products by an equal beer, tobacco, federal, income (remove all states, merge state and income tax) tax in every 'state'. It shows why all Demon-crats, Re-pub-licans need to support centralist capitalism to raise federal beer tax to $200 a gallon, or 10000 times above Wyoming state tax, and spirits tax to $900 a gallon, not $2 as in Missouri, or $2.5 in Texas. These conmen alcoholic Texas Re-pub-licans ought to be ashamed of their Holocaust. The lowest alcohol taxes are in Republican states which also drink the most. Anyone caught distributing and making it illegally, would be sentenced to lifetime labor and $9 billion fine. In Australia, the beer tax was 227AUD/gal or 149$/gal in 2024 which is about 45% of retail price, while Norway and Iceland had a higher tax (> 155$/gal), so Norway and Iceland got the lowest alcohol intake in Europe (except Greece), at 7.4 liters vs 12.2 for Latvia, 6.3 for Greece or 0.1 for Indonesia. Finland beer tax (151$/gallon) is 7550 times higher than Wyoming, 33 times higher than Germany, Israel got about 300$/gallon, so Israel alcohol use is half of USA. Jews own so many alcohol selling businesses in US and EU, yet they drink far less, and live longer than EU-US. Jews profit off our death. Why not remove the Jewish and other beer middlemen to boost US lifespan? Finland (with harsher climate than US) has unmatched worker benefits, lives longer than US, thanks to its highest EU alcohol tax. In 2019, 66% of 14-17 year olds in Australia never drank alcohol, versus 28% in 2001. This shows Australia's steep taxes on alcohol, far higher than USA, work. Kuwait, Saudi Arabia have banned alcohol sales, and those caught face deportation, fines and jail. So, Saudis may drink at home, but the level is about 10000 times less per capita than than 150 nations who got shorter lives, including many so called 'civilized' Eastern EU nations who drink 10000 times more than Kuwait. Russia drinks 10000 times more and lives 8 years less than Kuwait. Let the violent Jewish Bible allow you to drink more, and kill you faster, the "Lord of the Universe", Jesus the Jewish Conman, drinks at weddings in Luke 7:34, and then tells his credulous or role playing disciples in Matthew 26:26-8 to drink to remember Jesus being violent in Mat 21:12 forever. Amen. All that alcohol went to his head, making Jesus violent. US drinks about 9.5 liters/year. The immortalist national ban on alcohol means it's sold by prescription only (no parasite CEOs), if you tried 30 other treatments first, provide proof it helps with a disease (not fake studies big alcohol makes). May Germany, the big EU superpower, recall that Israel beer tax is 65 times higher, Israelis live longer, as they drink half what Germans do. It's never too late to end bad habits, to shut down pubs Ashkenazi Jews and all others created in Germany and all other nations. In USA, the Tennessee beer tax is 64 times higher than Wyoming, so these wild differences are common. Among US states, Utah drinks the least, 3.6 times less than New Hampshire who drinks the most. The EU/US seem to be run by Jews who profit from selling alcohol to the fools worshiping Jesus. The Hollywood Jews & Hollywood in general wage Genocidal War against Gentiles, with or without intent of doing so (that is subject to debate, you decide), programming them to drink alcohol, gamble, do drugs, smoke and engage in violence thru the depraved content of movies, music, media. People become desensitized, that's the new normal. Social engineering. They corrupt, promote sex outside procreation, destroy ethics, brains as Zion Protocols explain. They even pretend to be conservative at times, to lower IQ of locals enslaved into Jesus worship. Controlling both Republicans/Democrats, they rule USA. The justice system they created is also designed to never eliminate violent crime or drug traffic, only to manage the gentile nation kept in their chains, like many Jewish MDs manage, not cure disease. Like the Jesus movie, with the clubs of the Bible made up religion of torture and bloodshed, they beat the gentiles, lower IQ, chain them ever deeper: millionaire actors from Hell show in movies to the ☺puppy IQ masses☺ a Jesus head full of blood from the crown of thorns, as this will "really bring World Peace, 0 violent crime, decent houses for all". It's a way to program all gentiles to: follow Jesus, shed blood, be violent, you will have the same fate: Jewish lunch. Hollywood movies glorify, deify sex outside pro-creation, violence, drugs, smoking, gambling, not single family houses, decent conditions for all, as with immortalism 11 companies. All miracles were faked, crafty Jews turned water into wine with red dye to further addict gentiles. They made wine drinking a holy ritual, to get gentiles drunk and take over their nations. Discern. The Vatican Jews/Italians, Jewish Kippah wearing Popes, made up endless Eucharistic miracles, lied that wine became blood, wafer became flesh, to destroy the gentile intellect, increase naivete, obedience, slavery, and addiction to alcohol, a perfect tool to destroy brains, take over nations. They take over every city, legalize drugs, weed now, used by Jews for millennia to dupe gentiles. Once they hook up all nations to tobacco, drugs, alcohol, sex outside pro-creation, violence, it's all in their hand, nobody can escape their Banking Control.

Parents need to increase IQ and not be fooled via the Jewish Nazi method of a "lie repeated 900000 times becomes established historical fact". If all kids around the kid, all teachers at Christian schools claim that Jesus miracles are true and there are 500000 fake books naive folks or charlatans wrote in the last 2 millennia to support the unifying cult for the Empire that destroyed all prior cults, it doesn't mean any miracles are true. Credulous Christians, hear about 9000 Marian "apparitions", 20 "books with 3000 miracles" for 500 saints, etc, that they're so hypnotized, they fall for it so hard, hook, line and sinker. It's hard to debrainwash and realize some people just LOVE TO LIE 90000 times more than you do. Believe it or not, some people are just ☺filif spider IQ☺ chimps, pure animals, doing anything to deceive and enslave others. They behave more like tigers, vampires, parasites, ready to pounce others once they chained them for life into a belief system. They say this is a low IQ conspiracy theory, it's not, look at your ancestors, the chimps. You see, exactly as they forged the Robe of Jesus, the Bible/Mormon tablets etc to make it appear as a real historical event, so can they fake alcohol benefits studies to get people to drink. Jews gather, some paid Jew lies that his disease was cured or that he was dead or etc, and those not familiar with the trick believe it, due to the incredible acting skills of the mob of paid "believers" who were to create global Israel. Don't believe anything I say, test it. Look, you don't have to believe anything about alcohol being useless, just consider the fact that exactly as we manage to travel 9000 times faster than nature gave us ability to, we can create via science a drink that helps us to live 9000 times longer. Bees who eat royal jelly live 40 times longer. This is in nature, we can do better than nature. If we just drink, worship alcohol, we remain these filif bed bug IQ☺☺☺ folks who can't even live to 500, due to "alcohol help you live long" ads, that remove the truth that "Other drinks can help you live 1 trillion times longer". We have yet to have studies large enough, to eliminate the 100,000 confounding factors in present nutrition studies, to prove alcohol improves people's lifespan across the board by even 1 week, if they eat a polyphenol rich healthy vegan diet. If you can eat healthy stuff, and not have the violence of drunk or brain damaged by alcohol people, why legalize alcohol? If we can get the benefits in other ways, from foods with 10-500 times more polyphenols, why not remove the minuses by banning alcohol globally across the board? Skeptics say we're even wasting our time with this, since it's not important: live and let live. No, it's very important,☺☺ since most violent crime happens due to alcohol, bad music, movies showing alcohol, violence, and without 0 violent crime we can't prevent the 10 second end of all humans soon. ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ depends on a global alcohol ban. Thus, the Immortalist Youth avoids alcohol. Not only that, but they're using every opportunity to explain why it's evil: Chapter 4.11 or 900+ books.

"Plasma IL-6 concentration increased significantly (P =.01) during 6 hours after ingestion of red wine (56%) and white wine (63%)" ► Met 2004;53(3):318-23. IL-6, a pro-inflammatory cytokine (marker for blood vessel inflammation), increased 56% and 61%, while after blueberries it decreased 50% in dozens of studies. The unethical Demon-crats and Re-pub-licans have encouraged alcohol sales for decades, leading to about 1 million dead Americans, this holocaust has got to stop, vote for the Immortalist Party.☺☺☺ All local govs need to be dissolved, in order to increase efficiency and have only 1 law, not 20000 city or state ordinances. The system today encourages short lifespans of rats (we live 40 times shorter than aliens who live to 3200, as rats live 2 years vs 80) and "hen IQ" is mainstream. What kind of species uses alcohol to decimate its planet and do holocaust against itself of 400-1200 million last 2 centuries? Where is the outrage about a holocaust of 400 million Gentiles*, way larger than* 6 million Jews*?* Why does the media have such a double standard? Why not cover the violence in the Jew created Bible? The answer is plain and simple: media is Jew controlled, as are all Christian churches. Tobacco killed 800 million last 200 years, yet the media never mentions it, Jewish CEOs sell alcohol, tobacco. So often when I walked into Catholic Churches, all having the same Missal that removed 1450 bad quotes to hide the truth, I hear about The God of Israel. It's become really an Ode to Israel itself. For Protestant Churches, it's even more insane, the Zionism and adulation. It's repulsive. ☺☺☺

"In the 1930s, Jews controlled about 70% of Germany's important hops industry". In Romania of 1900s, Jews established endless pubs and bars, as they do today worldwide, to corrupt the youth, less educated peasants, get them into debt by suggesting big loans in bar chats to take over their land. "A 1764 census of Polish Jews found... 80% of Jews living in villages worked in the alcohol trade, distilling and selling wine, vodka, liqueurs and beer". Holocaust by Alcohol? Outraged? Is that not a profit from killing others? Let's be real, if we want World Peace, we need 0 violent crime, most of which is done under the influence of alcohol, 40% under the past hour influence of alcohol, 95% under the past years influence of alcohol (brain empathy center destroyed). Why is the Catholic Church encouraging wine drinking by giving people wine at service? Boycott them. A Russian priest whose brain was destroyed after years of sipping wine, brutally tortured a baby, during the needless baptism ceremony of making babies cry and making babies hate their mom for abandoning them and placing them in the hands of a psycho priest. Too much vodka. Watch the Russian drunkards bomb, demolish cities in Syria & Ukraine. It's compassionate for the whole world, to joyously, kindly boycott the Christian churches until the 1400 violent quotes are removed and the wine is removed, plus fake miracles too. Talking about Jewish control of the media, thru a concerted campaign to cause brain damage, the evil forces have introduced scenes of choking during movies, and now, allegedly, half of young Australians did it at least once. The evil Jewish Hollywood elite of Los Angeles and their minions all over the world are pushing for ever higher depravity, which obviously won't go unanswered by the eternal physics laws. Those who incite 2 billion Holocaust *(*400 million alcohol, 800 million smoking, as last 200 years, plus 800 million in wars) next 200 years via smoking, alcohol, sex outside procreation, violence in movies/music, will find it always comes back to them. How can there be Peace when almost everything Hollywood makes is full of violence/alcohol? Hollywood, Bollywood, etc Jews and gentiles are responsible for millions of rapes, violent crimes (scenes of violence program) by deifying sex outside procreation and rape is a violent crime penalized by death penalty in the immortalist nations eventually, if lifetime labor sentence won't reduce rape to 0 in 2 years. Thus, in immortalism, alcohol, violence, smoking, sex scenes in movies are forbidden. Gay sex leads to rapes. USA needs a state of emergency to take over Hollywood, bring true nonviolence, order. USA is not a devils den of rape, depravity, kid beatings, choking, getting drunk, slapping, Bible violence, Bible rapes, etc. Singapore is not a real democracy, people are happy with 1 party, and they live to 87, the longest of any nation. Each nation has a choice: you allow those who want to destroy your nation to take power or those who want your nation to be the longest living nation. ☺"Fruit fly"☺☺☺ IQ folks☺ abound in every nation. No democracy exists anywhere, it's all a scam, all elections are fake. Aware of this, people often want no political parties, just leaders who help all live to a healthy 500 year old.

A video shows a famous youtuber Levi (mostly Jewish name, though Mormons, some Christians use it too; Matthew disciple was Levi, a tax collector, but to dupe gentiles, he changed his name as Jews do to pretend being gentile), waste enormous public safety resources by refusing a sobriety test which leads to his car being towed and him being taken to the police station to do the test and show off his "knowledge about rights". He acts as if he has no moral obligation (given the fact that otherwise all humans die in 1 minute in the 2 capsule scenario), no citizen of Earth responsibility to help bring violent crime to 0, only rights to confuse gentiles with his youtube videos. What Levi does is typical of some Zionist Jews: come and pretend to defend your rights, but actually, in reality, take away your rights to a decent society of 0 violent crime by making everyone a violent drunkard in lower income lower education communities. Levi has no mercy and compassion for millions who died at the hands of drunk gun owners in the US alone. Due to the infernally violent Bible Jews imposed on the planet thru trickery and violence, in the US now we have 1000 times more guns per capita than some nations, instead of a centralized education (not Yeshiva, Christian (basically Torah insanity), etc) that prevents violence via 20 min ethics daily, etc. 48000 die yearly in USA from guns alone (many due to alcohol that damages brains and makes people more violent and suicidal), thanks to Jews, who're behind both the gun lobby (fanatical hard core Orthodox Jews who helped many become the "Christian right", ☺puppy IQ folks☺ who don't realize they're Jewish puppets for the infernal Torah) and the anti-gun lobby, controlling both sides to perfectly dupe all they live in a fake democracy. 48000 times 100 years becomes 4.8 million folks, isn't this a Holocaust? Where are the superior chosen Jews, 170 Jewish billionaires, hunger striking daily to create an alcohol free USA, nonviolent content, central non-Torah violence education, ban all guns so gun deaths are 0? Nowhere, Jews create some of the most violent movies on Earth. Jewish youtube also has too much trash music, violent music, violent depraved content, and 1 billion fake AI channels with dramas and fake stories and movies that depict acts of violence disguised under a 'seductive' story of wealth and beautiful CGI animated characters that appear real etc to condition people that salary inequality, of 5000-50000 fold is normal, to normalize slapping, violence, shouting. The addictive youtubes prevent good sleep and become as deadly as alcohol sometimes. How come nobody fines Google for creating such trash: immortalists would ban all slaps, violence in any AI channel, as it allows criminals to hide their genocide content creation. Such AI content is attempted murder, since one slap imitated could lead to a shooting when escalating in real life. The seductive CGI actors are used to make genocidal behavior attractive, like Jews tell gentiles alcohol prohibition is bad. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Some Jews are so evil, they deify Alcohol at Weddings even, dancing with Bottles of Wine on their Head, these are the deadliest Jews: Orthodox Torah Genocide lovers. How can such ultra low IQ folks take over 4 billion people? Aren't gentiles ashamed of being a puppet of such ☺filif worm IQ folks☺ who deceived billions for 2 millennia that Jewish Jesus miracles of water into wine, etc were real? Easy: people don't read the Bible or Quran. Levi doesn't care his role model of "no field alcohol test" will cause endless violent crimes to happen as officers waste time with ☺puppy IQ folks☺ like him instead of preventing arguments turning into almost lethal beatings. Levi claims he has the right to refuse the alcohol test, which he does, but this law was passed by the Jewish Mafia in USA politics with aid from 170 Jewish billionaires (more details here) and many Jewish banks within the 4500 terror banks in charge of eternal terror of USA. In any sane society, anyone would be required to take a field sobriety test to save time, prevent car towing, prevent extra trips to a police station and prevent real violent crime from happening by having cops deal with real violent crime threats, not ☺filif IQ buffoons☺ refusing a field alcohol test. Levi is like this East Asian guy who wasted 2 hours for 3 cops because the Jewish demonic law of the USA says "he has the right to not provide ID when asked and play endless games": laws made to create endless crime. In a real nation, anyone who loiters for 10 hours etc who freaks out a store manager (willing to bar him for 2 years from that store, due to arriving before store opens) would be required to produce ID or cops would need to search him and his car for the ID WITHIN 1 MINUTE OF HIM SAYING I DON'T WANT TO or not providing it. Not only that, anyone stopped by police (in a moving or stationary vehicle) needs to provide ID if asked WITHIN 1 MINUTE, no special reason required (just to make sure he's not illegal with fake ID or not impersonating someone during a crime). When ☺low IQ clowns☺ waste the time of 3-5 cops for 24 hours, it's a lot of money, energy. It could be 10 violent crimes that ruin 10 families prevented. The Asian was not a Quaker, but a jerk deserving a 20000$ fine for wasting 3 hours of police. How could such a selfish pig become US resident even, there are tens of thousands like him, who're not citizens? We need new immortalist tests for residence/citizenship. Levi types are a disgrace, promoted by Jewish youtube (saying this because google founders were Jewish, and youtube seems to have a pro-Jew bias): the time wasted by cops and doctors dealing with 1.3 million yearly deaths from car crashes (half of them due to alcohol) and 15 million grave injuries (screwed for life), prevents cops from bringing violent crime to 0. A cop being late 5 seconds or 1 minute can make a difference between life and death or a verbal fight and a real violent fist exchange, as seen in youtubes. Cops attending to many alcohol caused car crashes makes it impossible for cops to prevent real violent crimes. This is irrelevant to the bad type of Jews who think "genocide, rape, theft, mass rape, beating kids/slaves with rods, slavery, sex slaves" is the Word of God and who imposed that "belief" on 4 billion people, thru the Jesus and Mohamed cults based on the Jewish Torah, indirectly causing up to 270 million dead via Islam.

Some Jews abused America's hospitality by fighting tooth & nail to destroy USA's puritan move to ban alcohol, simply because in their selfish ☺abysmal IQ☺ drinking tradition of Sabbath that 'God' dislikes in Isai 1:11-6. Jews also took over the government/media/religion and at gunpoint imposed circumcision on most males. Jews have caused thru world governments infiltration up to 50 million dead people at least in the 20th century alone, people who car crashed due to alcohol influence, praised by the evil Bible that deifies the Fraudster in Charge, Jesus the Jew, whose depravity could only stage a water into wine miracle to confuse gentiles and steal everything from them (can't pay mortgage or loan, so sell thy land, O zeo IQ gentile) once they sign a loan under the influence of alcohol. This alcohol Holocaust done by Jews against gentiles can be kindly ended via knowledge, now free on the net. The alcohol crashes also took so many police resources away from preventing violent crime, it caused millions of divorces as spouses got drunk and attacked their partners, all due to the 'parasite type of' Jews, all too happy to become lawyers, judges to waste everyone's time in endless trials. If this isn't enough, millions of kids worldwide suffer endless violence by drunk parents, as the Jewish Bible says to beat kids (quotes), or beat kids (Quran) for not praying, Quran being Jewish Torah recycled, see 100 videos on Quran evil. Having taken control of our political parties, courts, government and laws, some Jews turned US into a type of strange concentration camp where gentiles are covertly tortured by the Jews who covertly control our nation's banks, media, music, gov, courts, religion. 4 billion humans are under covert Jewish control: Christians and Muslims. The Jews has transformed our places of worship into terrorist organizations that preach alcohol drinking, mass rape, genocide, beating slaves/kids with rods, slavery are God's Word. Girlfriend vandalized the house and set the boyfriend car on fire because he broke up with her due to her unwillingness to give up alcohol. The Jewish gift to USA, with German-British aid. All these religions spend so much time with endless rituals, but nothing on zero violent crime/war in 5 years.

That glass, plastic, aluminum used to hold alcohol could help give decent triple pane sound proof window, decent building materials, vinyl window frame, good sleep for better lifespan to many people who live 2-3 in a room, so it's kind of governments to talk about this and motivate people to be less selfish, so all feel cared for, thereby reducing anger, irritation due to bad sleep that leads to war and crime. With an obesity epidemic, non-alcoholic drinks with 33% of calories only, would boost longevity. Many people are excited about "max 0.5% alcohol" kombucha or other "low alcohol" fermented beverages: what they don't know is that chronic alcohol use can cause brain, fetus, liver damage, 7 cancers, etc; also, improper fermentation or storage can lead to mold, which is not healthy, it's like eating rotten fruits every day. There are even cases of death from kombucha. Those with weak immune systems or red eyes, need to avoid it, since bacteria can cause issues and histamines can cause red eyes, swelling, allergies. Its very low pH will ruin your tooth enamel, so use alkaline mouthwash afterwards or a straw. The kombucha is fermented black tea, you can eat soy, cabbage fermented products without alcohol, black tea that is not fermented to get roughly the same benefits, without the alcohol. Dr. Greger warns of liver damage, lactic acidosis, coma, and of several studies that concluded the alleged benefits are bogus. FDA found in 2010 that many brands have 2.5% alcohol (home made one can have even 4%, be moldy, infected with bacteria from the seller) since shipping/storage outside of the fridge means more fermentation, more alcohol building up. Thus, to avoid fines for mislabeling 2.5 as 0.5%, companies started to pasteurize it, destroying most polyphenols, all probiotics that are the MAIN REASON for drinking it. Pasteurizing it removes the need to refrigerate, summer heat turns polyphenols into new toxic compounds that cause oxidative stress, grey hair.

As you recall from high school chemistry, or can read in 100s of papers now if you missed that class, the reaction of oxygen from air with polyphenols (heat required as in 180°F kombucha pasteurization or 90°F summer storage) leads to free radical forming compounds that generate the deadly AGEs. What do you think happens with those "magical wine polyphenols" during hot weather??? The ☺puppy IQ men☺ of the genocidal wine industry make the bottles transparent too, so light oxidizes those polyphenols too, doubling the lethality. Now you know why wine can kill. The kombucha and beer fans, 'vitamin enriched drinks', 'orange apple cider' fans are equally brainless, they sell those in transparent bottles so nutrient loss can be 50-99%. Why waste so much store fridge space on this alcoholic drink, instead of blueberries known to have strong benefits? Store fridges got 90% deadly cheese, meats, alcohol, dairy, and the really healthy foods are left to rot at high temp, so we have to sort the bad berries out to avoid mold. So ☺ abysmal in IQ☺. Drinking some kombucha alcohol to increase inflammation won't turn your grey hair black as they claim, it's the whole diet that counts, not a few black tea polyphenols, read how inflammation causes grey hair, not just poor intake of polyphenols. Grey hair can be caused by stress, 50 nutrients being low, not just one (polyphenols) nutrient being low. If they heat it to 180°F, the grey hair may become more grey actually, since the bad oxidized polyphenols offset the good ones left. On top of that, unheated kombucha has 25 mg polyphenols/100g, (AOXI 2020;9(5):447) vs 560 for blueberries. Why are you wasting your money? The blueberry polyphenols are more varied than tea ones. One more reason to stop drinking alcohol. The so called "0% alcohol" alternative beers are often heated at 173°F for 3 hours to remove alcohol (but not kill all alcohol producing bacteria perhaps), which creates a ton of oxidized polyphenols, etc. You save the planet and your body by avoiding them totally and eating fruits and veggies for now, until eterni industry develops, instant drink via powder into water. At least avoid "artificial beers" and "0% alcohol wine etc imitations", as they can be deadly, unless you know how they got to 0% alcohol, at every step of the chemical or boiling process. These are cops trying to get people off alcohol cheaply, and doing less damage, until people drink juices only. It's a transition beverage to help wean off wine, beer, not an ideal beverage. Drink H_2O, ginger, chamomile, hibiscus tea that has 0 caffeine. Kombucha has about 10x less deadly caffeine. Pregnant ladies drinking kombucha may get gas (due to fructans), miscarriage, low IQ, heart defects in offspring due to alcohol and caffeine synergistically wiping the quantum field of humanity in genocides. Alcohol is lethal for fetuses, so is caffeine, but addicts don't listen, because guys are addicts too, not knowing how to love, kiss, massage ladies, teach them ecstatic breathing, meditation so they're so ☺☺☺ happy ☺☺☺ , they don't need the caffeine or alcohol high. People forget alcohol damages their brains, so they drink it like the Korean dynasties did (watch 2 minutes on ritual sacrifices allegedly done by the Chinese envoy and Korean kings, after getting drunk with 5-10 glasses). Indeed, '0 IQ offerings of food' (animals, vegan, etc, see blurred images of bull, goats, the inhale toxic fumes to burn off foods) are more likely after some drinks, as the 0 IQ folks don't realize real/imagined 'Gods' don't need burned organic matter or wafers. Alcohol is popular in 100 countries, which may explain why peace, peaceful music, IQ are absent. After centuries of alcohol and monarchy, in 1900 Korea was like this, before science came and lifespan increased 50% on average as a result.

The $ spent on alcohol could help people live longer, improve personal, global health in some way more. I abstained all my life from alcohol. In over 100 nations, 7-40% of people abstained from alcohol all their life. As we live to 900+, people will realize there is no point in drinking, as people will be eterni and all foods be ultra high tech and vastly more complex than today, nobody eating animals or plants; any drink will be far more complex than today, as a rocket has 8 billion parts, while a chariot has 30 parts. Using the atomic/molecular simulations of humans detailed in the previous chapter, it will be able to test a quarter million chemicals commonly found in foods or made by man to see their effect on the aging speed biomarkers. This will enable us to decide which out of these 250K chemicals are the top 7,000 to use in quantities greater than 7 mg a day, and it may be proven, as hinted above, that some of the antioxidants in wine-beer may make it to the list (the ones found in 10-100 times the amount in other foods, which we synthesize in labs without agriculture), while the ethyl alcohol itself won't make it to the list. As the simulation section explains, all current nutrition studies suffer from the unknown confounding factors☺☺☺, and it may be not the wine that helped some live longer as they believe. When people drink darkest color wine, that has 100 times less antioxidants than other foods as shown above, is it because of ethyl alcohol (CH_3-CH_2-OH) or because of those polyphenols (people can get from other foods) that some "heavily deficient in polyphenol" people get some benefit in some studies? When and if it is proven to the hardest skeptics via thousands of simulations and really advanced nutrition science, that ethyl alcohol does more harm than good even in 3 g a day quantities (much less than the 14 g in a standard "drink" of 12 oz 5% beer or 5 oz of 12 % alcohol wine) to the goal of 900 year lifespan, people will no longer add it to their diet and later eterni foods, just as today we don't drink gasoline or anti-freeze, just as today we no longer use lead in dental fillings, as we did in 1800s. Until then, the controversy about the "benefits" of light drinking of red wine or beer will continue probably, as always. The antibacterial effect of ethyl alcohol can be achieved also through hundreds of other foods which kill germs as rapidly or even better, without the side effects. In the stone age, our books and written knowledge was just a few papyrus papers, our transport a chariot. Today the written knowledge (books) is far bigger and complex, chariots replaced by far more complex airplanes, rockets. The same will happen with our foods, drinks.☺☺☺

The vitamins section explain billions of people worldwide are malnourished and don't get basic vitamins in their diet, including more than half of Americans for some nutrients, and yet we need ALCOHOL and turning grapes into wine? Get fermented veggies and fruits for fermented foods, and spices, purple veggies (kale, cabbage, etc), fruits, berries for polyphenols, mint spices, etc, onion, etc for antibacterial action. 5 billion suffer from vitamin deficiency and people waste time making wine due to our society not focusing on 200 year lifespan; isn't that a little contradictory, especially when seeing sometimes even leaders raise a glass of alcoholic beverage to celebrate some victory or at some meetings? Isn't that out of touch with the terrible condition of the poor who can't even afford wine? When people want to live to 150, they know nobody lives to 200 via wine; thus, they will quit it of their own will, without the government trying anything – this is the beauty of "Immortality for All" capitalism, people become 20,000 times smarter about what triples human lifespan, since TV talks about it all day and radio too; in Immortality capitalism totally different from profit capitalism or communism, all food and drink is sold based on the amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ 100s of studies proving its longevity/health benefits, etc, not based on how 'tasty and colorful it is'; in our 'not so smart' society, all is about increasing sales via all unethical means, all about profit (like Karl Marx idea of capital, etc, in his 'Das Kapital', like sad capital book that led to communism killing 100 million people), so the food is poisoned with chemicals to make it look various colors and tastes, while longevity is not even a thought; same with vitamins, they add all kinds of toxic colors to 'sell more of them', because the public is so low IQ (due to low IQ music lyrics and 'culture'), they buy colorful cake more than cake that helps you live to 200. ☺☺☺ Well, if they can prove ethanol in wine/beer can solve some medical conditions when nothing else can (sort of like medical weed), they can give people therapeutic medical drinks with 20 times the polyphenols and good bacteria in wine, perhaps, made in eterni labs, but other than that, the idea that one can double lifespan via wine is a pure lie and fraud. Thus, the sage of Tao Te Ching, when a leader of nations or planets, doesn't raise a toast with wine, or beer, but with the scientifically proven elixir of longevity that, once perfected, will bring All inhabitants a trillion years lifespan; chapter 26 says "the people's leader is not flippant in his role, nor restless, for these could cause the loss of the roots of leadership." To be close to the God of Immortality or the 8 Chinese Immortals (& other Immortals in Hindu-Buddhist-Christian theology) for example, we can't lead people into temptation (to sin) to drink wine, do that which is like a Holocaust of 6 million people a year via alcohol deaths, see above. Likewise, bishops and popes, can't use wine or wafers made of wheat, just because Jesus reportedly did, since we know wheat bread can be deadly due to gluten and alcohol too, so we forgive Jesus for not knowing. The toil to make wine, bread can be used to house the homeless, to feed the hungry, to help the poor get better vitamins. For birthdays, weddings, people can use fruit juices instead until eterni drinks 50x better are made. With a pressure cooker we can get all nutrients from healthier grains, not wheat itself, stuff way healthier than bread. It only takes 1 sec to press start and it cooks it, and gives us nutrition superior to all bakery products; which, made mostly of wheat, increase diabetes risk in a lot more than celiacs. The time waiting in drive thru daily is way longer than to buy grains once 3 months and press a button at home once a week (and clean up), why not place health above convenience, and turn also that phone in airplane mode more often to protect our brains and bodies: health first? We value instant gratification (save time now), at the expense of health, ignoring that in the long term you waste a lot more time, by getting sick, buying pills. If we build drive thrus, how can we have materials for eterni labs? Why not bring the world of radiant shimmering genderless shapeshifting Immortals, who live for a trillion years on the drinks of eterni science☺☺☺?

Did you know Australia made it illegal to smoke in public places, to drink in public places (except pubs) and illegal to get drink in public places AND pubs? As far as alcohol regulation, Australia is many years ahead of the "United States of Alcoholic Psychopathic Torturers" and the "European Union of Drunkards", but they do drink about the same 10 liters of alcohol as all EU nations. All nations can finally, once enough are educated, ban alcohol sales unless prescribed by an MD, due to 20 other methods failing to achieve alleged beneficial effects on some biomarkers that allegedly do more good than the damage done to other biomarkers. This 20 cents a gallon alcohol with some polyphenol extract from blueberries added ends the alcohol business and its 100 billion dollar a year economy of mass violence and car accidents. In Darwin, some Australia, city, 88% of violent punching incidents that damage the face are related to alcohol and happen outside the bars of the city. That town is the world punching capital, due to drinking more alcohol than anyone else on the planet. This means all nations need to ban these bars globally immediately and get rid of these horrific crimes. Countries are simply too lenient, they need to institute lifetime labor for any teens punching to deter people from drinking alcohol, from slaps, spanking (causes aggression & anti-social behavior) and other psychopathic behaviors. Generally, it's easy to notice the violence of verbal tone in public (not when mad at home) of alcohol drinkers, who often are serial terrorist torturers: this is the macho culture and it related to the alcohol changing the human brain empathy centers. Isn't it odd how Australians are homeless, while endless people waste eons in bars and getting drunk and into fights, due to government laws that favor this kind of societal collapse. The government is busy with fake political parties and fake elections, while ignoring the toxic food imports. Australia produces huge amounts of food, yet most is exported, while some locals are food insecure. All that alcohol has produced some wild effects perhaps, in fact it's known it makes nations more violent. 60% domestic violence is alcohol related. Northern Territory people in Australia lived in 2018 to be 64 on average (aboriginals 56, they make up 30% of population, so they skew average data downwards slightly) vs 81 for all Australia (see page 9 of 18 statistics), alcohol is a contributing reason of course, since most people in this 250000 people state live in Darwin (150000 people), the state capital, where people drink 15 liters/year vs 1.8 in Singapore (where people live to 87, the longest of any nation (a village of 37000 people called Monaco live to 89, but those are rich people retiring enclave, not a nation), even if Singapore are the densest nation in the world almost, showing that land and alcohol don't make people live long). Non-aboriginals lived to 67 on average. Do you want to live 22 years longer? Then, drink no alcohol. Singapore homicide rate is 0.3 vs 7 in Northern territory, a 20 fold difference due to alcohol. Singapore life expectancy was 87 in 2024 (drinks 1.8 liters alcohol a year), vs 75 for Belarus (drinks 10.6 liters alcohol/year). So, how come people believe that alcohol makes you live longer? 54 Indians died after drinking alcohol contaminated with methanol; methanol can exist in 'good brands' too in trace amounts, leading to gradual onset of blindness and early death. Drink happily and drop dead☺☺☺, in God's kind gentle soft nurturing compassionate name?

☺☺☺Why alcohol selling places (bars) turn People into Cannibal Chimp DNA, as monkey videos below show. Guys drink 2.5x more alcohol than gals, commit 4x more violent crimes☺☺☺

Drunk guy beats many at a wedding and then punches unconscious a cop who failed to tase him, showing what alcohol does. In order to make understanding this section easier, above was detailed how alcohol killed 1 billion innocent folks at the instigation of Jesus, who was correctly described in the Bible as a drunkard by fellow drunkard (in immortalist definition) Jewish rabbis, since only such a person would tell his future 10 billion followers to drink wine in the Bible knowing fully it would cause 1 billion dead. 1 billion % alcohol tax is overdue. We ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ wish or pray that Re-PUB-lick-ans (who remind us of Nazis & immoral Oktoberfest and beer festivals worldwide) WILL tenderly gently FOLLOW THE REAL God, and not the Jewish Jesus faker of water into wine staged miracle, and advise people to abstain from alcohol until all violent crime is 0. 60% of violent crime is done by drunk people. Those bars, drinking PUBs, etc (like sports arenas and barbecues, as explained in the next 4 paragraphs) also act as primary "drastic lowering of average IQ" centers where "*sub*pyg*mies*"☺☺☺ gather, where their status as low IQ cannon fodder (or slave labor) is enhanced, in the view of tall aliens who look with surprise at those bipedal baboons drinking their "alcohol" so they can beat their spouses and kids later at home when drunk, or kill people while driving drunk or torture others as part of their military/spy agency job. Video shows baboons eat deer alive over a long period having no concept of compassion, empathy for the long suffering of the deer, like chimps (99% of human DNA) cannibalize an adult chimp or eat neighbor chimp kids often, or eat small monkeys, just like humans in Britain cannibalized each other, like humans torture animals in factory farms to eat the meat due to no eterni food tech, "eat alive others" via war or torture that kills slowly. Brits, Jews drink alcohol and the Bible describes many cannibalism instances. Alcohol turns people into physical literal cannibals or spiritual cannibals. Watch these human-chimp hybrids, the future of alcoholics, who morph into chimps. Hey, beer fanatics in Germany and other places who love Nazism, do you want to morph into these 'inferior' facial features? Watch how different they look, the forehead is not at 80° vs Earth like humans, but at 35° angle, we have the frontal cortex more developed and alcohol destroys it. So wake up gorillas, before you sip that Jesus drink, think AGAIN, to prevent your frontal cortex becoming like the cannibal chimps. Science has shown diet can morph appearance and IQ over centuries, so beware what you drink. We're all evolved gorillas, nothing personal, do you want to devolve into chimps?

The clever parasite predatory☺☺☺ vampiric Jewish Jesus knew that with alcohol, he could conquer the world, control "clergy", use "clergy to spy on drunk people telling secrets signing documents without recall", destroy by alcohol endless people ruling various nations, use his "drink my blood" (notice the cannibalism evil blood drinking imagery, suggesting to all younger more gullible gentiles to give themselves in human sacrifice to thirsty blood drinking Jews just as Jesus 'gave them his blood') religion of Alcoholism, and take over the continents. Get one gentile (non-Jew) ruler more violent, and a war starts, Jewish banks loan money to the gentile governments, both sides, the war kills gentiles, Jews buy properties and companies at 10-50% of price after the war, as all are desperate and need some cash to eat. Got it, they repeat and take over nations, replacing all aristocracy and royal families with Jews who pretend to be locals, Arabs, Asians, Europeans, Hispanics, Blacks. ☺Snail IQ folks☺ in EU, Russia, US think the real (not public) governments are Caucasian, just as Middle Eastern ones think they're Arab. What if they're 10-60% Jewish? Immortalists want to ban alcohol/all pubs and bars in USA.

Alcohol makes people PSYCHOPATHS, easier to deceive by Jews, meaning people devolve into CANNIBAL CHIMPS, unable to activate the EMPATHY brain centers, LEADING TO CANNIBALIZING THE SPIRITUAL or Compassionate Caring☺☺☺ *ESSENCE IN OTHERS by making grotesque sounds that induce others to also devolve, making anti-*eterni tones, while drunk or semi-drunk. It's no wonder Jewish Jesus and many Jews always push alcohol on gentiles, to destroy and enslave them all.☺☺☺ Thus, it is best to avoid alcohol drinkers & those parasites promoting it.☺☺☺ Baboons are low IQ (94% human DNA), while chimps are smarter (99% human DNA) as they first try to kill animals fast, perhaps to diminish animal pain and risk of injury. Bars act as loud places where people are forced to raise voice and lower the vocal level of kindness*, the place where* devolving into an ape, of the shouting baboon type*, (like sports events too) is facilitated.* The 'demonic' vibe of many sports is detailed in the sports section and the 'demonic' vibe of bars and barbecue is below. The bar visitors are like pigs (hence the subpygmies analogy) who waste eons to turn grapes into poison instead of ending the use of bombs wiping out Syria and Ukraine. They're like folks who often gladly practice boxing (and torturing others via diverting resources for peace to wine making and drinking that leads to boxing like violence against other humans) like chimps without any concern for damage to human quantum field as if they're 100% animals who simply can't understand a higher empathy☺☺☺ level of gentle tender soft healing nurturing universal loving kindness. They don't care about the 0 violent crime (alcohol causes some of it) needed for Eternal Universal World Peace in 3 months*).*☺☺☺ Look carefully at the baboon/chimp videos, how animalistic, cruel and void of empathy those apes are, and you will see the same exact pattern (less intensity though) in human behavior of billions, who don't care at all if we don't have World Peace in 3 months, do nothing to achieve it, to stop bar fights, bar shouting, violent sports (the hideous violent cannibal (of the soul gentleness) chimp like sports are thought of as 'fun and entertaining', th*e violent similarities to baboon behavior in them, as if they're 99.99% chimps, who do the same things chimps do in other days when they don't cannibalize chimps)*, the daily boxing, hooligan crocodile sports, ungentle emotion gorilla shouts on TV and music, etc, and the cruelty in general – the generalized institutionalized global violence, hyper aggression, complete lack of gentle tender kindness, the quality in Immortalist Anthem: trying to be a trillion times kinder than the best human mom last decade. We need a new music to evolve out of chimpness. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

As we watch the Internet, it dawns on us that Earth has about 8 billion baboons (soccer, rugby, football, basketball are very much like this baboon fighting, like boxing and bar fights are similar to this) and 10,000 humans of the future gentle tender soft healing nurturing universal loving kindness. People have big egos, they thought Earth is the center of the universe and stars are spiritual beings of heaven, so if we joke they're like baboons, they get very offended sometimes. Apes beat each other a lot, with the same barbaric cruelty soccer players kick others' legs as a "collateral damage" of their 0 IQ, 0 gentleness, 0 empathy for the quantum field unbalance by another painful experience etc. The only difference is the intensity of savagery. They're pure ferocious beasts, but in their brains it doesn't register, because billions cheer and praise their "chicken" IQ. We're not even talking about wrestlers, boxers and the ultra mean violent martial arts sports, just about the more “human” sports of shoving shouting like basketball, soccer, rugby, football, etc. They behave just like apes cannibalizing each other, not realizing it’s grotesque for other species watching human brutes. Some egos got too “rough” via torture by the TV tone to even be affected by this paragraph, the TV has incited them to be so cruel, mean, used to generalized violent tone and behavior, all nuance vanished, since no government has mandated to create the worst allowed tone at least 100 times more eterni than today, proven by MRI. Pain is their God, cruelty the way of life, violence the ethics, 0 empathy their motto. War is just ‘another soccer, rugby, football, wrestling or boxing game’, with its millions of beatings, atrocities and painful injuries, something to be proud of, to support, as if 1 war creating 80 trillion deaths later doesn't matter. Sports were made by warlord aristocrats to increase killing abilities of slaves (soldiers need muscles to lift artillery shells, to run, to wrestle, hold swords, jump, etc) used as cannon fodder to expand imperial wealth: the thought of World Peace in 3 months and of preventing war is totally secondary, 0.1% of time spent with that. Recent sports inventors had a mostly brutish military motivation in inventing them, disguising the ‘sports’ as a ‘keep youth busy activity to prevent them from doing bad things’. That’s a lie, since there are 50000 much better physical exercise things than ‘sports’ one can do, detailed here that end all wars 900000 times faster. When people realize alcohol is like violence, sports, they abstain. ☺☺

All we see 5000 times a year, in 150+ nations, is baboon barking (32 sec) disguised as “military parade”, or angry baboons (listen 16 secs) bullying others with “threat of killing”, ‘angry baboon’ like tones (examples are in the billions, from 150+ nations, just 2 more known ones: military yelling (Putin) one & military yelling (Shoigu) two), and 0 events, parades about ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months or trillion year lifespans for all. Pure gorilla energy, no gentle World Peace in 3 months music, or soprano World Peace songs, only baboon tone macho, cruel, merciless, ruthless, void of any gentle kind tender soft grace marches of genocide. (hear #2) Why can't militaries have gentle loving songs of nonkilling peace? A humane military is like this. Sadly, these tones are in every nation and almost every military march (marches of genocide, as any decent person would call them, that destroy the soul of any listener), nothing specific to Russia examples, and most people have a bad day in their life when they use them, since it’s part of the global culture. For soldiers and cops, the “system” forces them to yell like that a lot more, due to tradition, so they're helpless in making themselves look bad. Why can we call them “crocodile sports or hooligan like behavior”? Cities are wiped out, and we waste so much time moving balls? Isn’t that immoral? It’s thug like behavior, not caring about the planet disintegrating in anti-matter war. By hooligan we can mean in these fast punch sports players have the same brainwaves as when thugs break into houses, beat people, load artillery shells, kill; due to these sports, people rush in their jobs and don’t breathe to be happy, don’t move into higher brain functioning, but in the cortisol fast aging modes of ☺abysmal IQ☺, rushing a lot, so they can “make it to the ultra fast boxing match or rugby, etc”. All higher thinking is destroyed. They're nothing more than a species extermination strategy. Millions are tortured, millions are beaten, millions die in wars & they drink & play bad sports that magnify the aggression and meanness in the world 9 billion fold versus selfless activities. A Civilization of ‘want to be’ Immortals, Eternia, would focus all entertainment, video games, news, research, education, TV-radio, music, ‘sports’ on the ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months, 0 violent rime in 15 years and after that, Longevity, Happiness, Immortality for All. We spend so much money, energy into creating fancy phones that irradiate our brains and bodies (WiFi kills) and act as spy devices for the military, and no money in making the AI system in the tone chapter that takes our whisper or telepathy and converts it into the most amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ tone by LiFi into the amplifier near the shirt collar or sleeve the other person wears, so as to make every sentence improved in content 8 billion fold, tone 9 billion times and reduce 50 trillion fold the misunderstanding, anger, fights and wars ‘baboon speech’ leads to (not to mention acting busy in companies, inventing nothing, due to boss tone. The AI receives ‘give me that paper’ whisper and tells target person ‘Most Compassionate Sweet Nurturing Graceful Kind Immortal, would you be so kind to give me that paper, if it’s not distracting you from your amazing work for the happiness and Immortality for All ?’, if the request receiver’s emotion is sensed as more negative by the AI, the AI can have the most divine ecstasy inducing tone and brainwaves, known to cause like states in that individual when needed. The AI can automatically ask an angry spouse or closer friend who needs some sweet words, “beloved darling precious gentle soft nurturing angel baby sweetie of ever pampering bliss, may I sweetly suggest that your cosmic grace practices conscious breathing to exteriorize bliss to all beings and feel happier, or do you want a kiss, happily let me know, I love you baby angel, 2 second old Immortal baby’ in the voice of their spouse at the best AI tone, and then spouse gets a message if he wants to be kissed, so she will call and text and talk to him). Note that the AI is so smart, it detects negative emotion building due to being tired etc well before the person himself is aware of those brainwaves of conflict arising. We have endless useless gadgets, alcoholic drinks, bars, stores, but the most important application of tech, that creates peace, is not there. All we have is baboon shouts, torture based, fear terror based societies. 0 love. It’s like a sick doctor would give us the worst possible diet that kills us 50 years early, they do that to us daily on TV-Internet via low tech stone age recordings that don’t have any science, MRI of the gentle nurturing kindness inducing tone. The cops and soldiers who're supposed to protect us, simply ruin us with their libertarian “any tone goes” policies for police press conferences, military training, and TV-politics tone, classrooms. Can we evolve past the glorified big ego baboon stage? ☺☺☺

To have Peace last 1 billion years, we need to bring violent crime down 10 billion fold at least: odd how we got so many bars and programs on wine tasting and other gluttony, and 0 programs on TV about compassion for animals, eterni food to avoid killing animals, etc, which is essential in order to avoid contaminating human quantum field from pain or like lifeforms. If people don't kill, torture animals, they won't do that to humans, but the folks on TV are too busy reporting 24-7 about 100s of topics, except compassion, gentleness and the need to avoid barbecues, pure 'satanism', the gross display and proselytizing of 'satanism' in bold display of public cruelty, of cannibal (cows are people almost, so are pigs, chicken, we're chicken brained ☺☺☺apes) cruelty and of lowest IQ (AGEs from dry heat), ultimate egoism, as it forces USA to spend trillions on treating diabetes, cancer, heart disease, stroke AGEs cause. It's so sad to see Germany being so addicted to beer festivals, like Oktoberfest, while their homicide rate is 0.82 or 11 times higher than Qatar's 0.074 (drink 10 times less alcohol a year than Germans). EU average is about 1.0, with nobody below 0.48, Latvia 3.6. What kind of 'superior' Europeans love their homicide rate is 6 to 49 times that of a Muslim nation? Aren't EU folks ashamed? Isn't it time for EU to embrace Immortalist anthem, English (like Isle of Man with 0.00 homicide) and principles? Why can't Germans, Chinese (who now got a huge beer festival too) lower their homicides and domestic violence by drunk people by alcohol bans? If you love beer, make it with 0% alcohol, just a beverage with polyphenols. Make an immortalist drinks festival, don't even call it beer, call it Eternal Youth elixir, with chemistry and physics labs and lessons, experiments taking place to educate kids, adults, into its production, etc. Where is the German kindness for fellow Germans, why repeat the same WW2 mistakes that got 9 million Germans dead? Have compassion, be gentle, be sweet, be nurturing, kind, soft. Isn't it ironic Germans claim to be antisemitic, yet do what the Jews do: drink like an alcoholic. Germans are so naive, so easy to fool by some of the crafty Ashkenazi Jews, who claim to be German, and create traditions, beer festival beer fads and other things that will ruin and wipe out the nation. Wake up.

Imagine how low the IQ development is versus an immortalist country where bars are outlawed (unless they sell no alcohol, or only via credit card system that monitors intake so that only 1 ounce sold anywhere in a month to anyone who got drunk, nobody would as TV would be 100 times more intelligent than the low IQ stuff today and everyone would know from TV ads the 100 studies proving the toxicity and overall harm done to society). People vote, so they can vote to outlaw any product proven to shorten lifespan when all effects are taken into consideration. Since vampires no longer can brainwash the masses to drink and live shorter, by using spy agencies to social engineer music to exterminate, while aristocrats amass billions on the bones of the dead victims of violent crime and drunk drivers, it would be easier to educate people and do that 50 billion dollar study to measure 1000 biomarkers for 1 million drinkers to see effect of wine, wine without alcohol, wine looking water plus alcohol, etc to prove to all skeptics the effects on 1000 biomarkers of aging and longevity, cognition, and cancer, etc, not just 3 biomarkers like most studies, that ignore 1000s of confounding factors. In our stone age world of eternal lies, decent studies are 1 in a million, the claim wine makes you live longer is not true universally, especially if you have a healthy diet and sleep; when compared with the worst diets getting 0 polyphenols, a little wine may help, but manipulating data like that is not science if for 99% of people, the society as a whole, with great eterni diet of the future when they do this study, or healthy diet today, alcohol shrinks lifespan (directly or via violent crime and car events) and cognition by 4%. Today the rich build casinos to sell their poisons*, etc, since it makes them money, while* shortening the lives of the slaves. Bars can be replaced with the immortalist centers of monitoring 100s of biomarkers in real time after you dissolve in water an immortalist powder and the music is immortalist, everything 9000 times healthier than the junk sold in bars. There they see science simulations, learn how to reduce violent crime a billion fold, talk about science and how to live in happy bliss to 1 trillion, with "Living to a Trillion" posters required everywhere, the immortalist greeting "May all live to a trillion" in bliss and peace☺☺☺ etc. In solution, chemicals react and decompose faster, so it's a lot better to make it fresh. ☺☺☺☺☺☺

As quantum weapons wipe out all bacteria, viruses on Earth, we evolve to new biology and the need of 'fermented products, wine, beer, miso, yogurt, sauerkraut' vanishes. Today, everyone obsesses about fermented products and foods. Alcohol drinking attracts mosquitos, (see papers), gently avoid it, since you do smell like a drunkard, while your brain is being wiped out (see above), hence the violence in our world. mosquitos carry deadly diseases (plus are hard to kill sometimes even with an electric racket), and you're far less attractive to decent people, smelling like a drunk drug addict on the street. The 'beasts' drink beer and alcohol happily, while producing violent depraved hooligan gangster like (whose long-term effect on humanity is worse than bombing to death 1 to 900000 innocent people) music that incites the youth to a depraved life of violent emotion and thinking, to crime and others are being bombed into the stone age (Syria, Ukraine) with the weapons the drunkards produce in their highly "developed or superpower nations" of pure violence & depravity. Peace shall rise with immortalism. An immortalist nation has 1 billion times less violent crime than our planet. Alcohol breeds war, chaos, jails, violence. The perverted practices and hooliganism of US spies, military are evident in the US music. The US/UK singers promote alcohol use, they got endless liquor/vape stores, gambling, 0 IQ 'entertainment', nothing related to Immortality for All, Immortality & Longevity Meditation Parks, any health parameter science, just your average stuff to sicken, lower IQ (for easy exploitation), and loot the poor by the aristocrats, while others use food banks (documentary on the UK). Alcohol breeds violent music, many violent music "singers" are alcoholics. Alcohol creates brain fog, allowing the vampiric aristocrats to further lower the working class IQ with lotteries, casinos and slot machines to "raise funds for "education" (brainwashing on how to be a low IQ slave)". If all is centralized and online, why need so much money for education? It would take 100 times less money or 500 times less, but the conmen need to loot the people. Just centralize education to save $ and fund the 10 million Immortality for All research centers, etc, the mini-universities so the poor can live to 120 and check health for free: the mafia system today makes it too expensive to do any preventive health checks for all. They need some nice ads on TV, "Recall 50% of beatings are done by drunk people, make a commitment to quit today, drink healthy beverages that will keep you from 90 year labor sentences for hitting of spouses" to bring the age of nonviolence, with violent crime 1 billion times lower, which is necessary to sustain ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ for trillions of years.

Notice everywhere you go they try sell you useless products and Walmart Supercenters have Grocery sign, next to Wine and Spirits big sign. Health and Longevity, ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ are nowhere to be seen, nor are such products important on the TV networks where Jews/others brainwash gentiles on which war to wage next to ensure better Jewish or aristocratic planetary control of the slave workers. The soulless $ chasing aristocrats don't care about the qualities needed to bring that world of gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kindness, but endless alcohol, wine, spirits, bars, vape stores, etc, strip clubs, etc are very important, so important to get drunk or high, versus to stop wars and bombings. Endless written words to sell useless products, but not one single word like Gentleness Nurturing Softness. Everything reflects that macho Bible energy running the whole planet, pure consumerism and war to impose will violently on others. The whole world is kept in ignorance by the Christian mafia whose aim is to make everyone as low IQ as possible, just like CIA uses fundamentalist Islamic regimes to keep others in the stone age and loot any resources available in the area, per MI6 tactics. No Eternal Universal Peace stores exist, but we got a million pet stores and alcohol selling stores, wine and pets are way more important than ending the bombings that destroy the human quantum field. Families are being destroyed, since instead of loving people, they love pets, getting drunk (domestic violence starts when drunk, etc) and things start very small. Dogs and cats, descendants of tigers and wolves, are more important than humans USA, and 100 other countries indirectly or directly, bomb to death, innocent civilians or brainwashed soldiers. A soulless America who thinks wiping anus of dogs and wasting hours weekly with them is way more useful than ending all wars in 3 months. A soulless America who places wine and alcohol beverages a million times higher on priority list than ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~, as we got a million depraved stores selling alcohol, but none selling ~~ Eternal Universal Peace~~ products. Everyone is brainwashed by the useless products sellers, who don't care, as only slaves go to war to die as cannon fodder. EUP.gov could be the site selling online products about ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ and every store in USA that is very big, like Walmart, ought to be having 20 big posters about ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ and Gentle Nurturing Grace for all (no jails, 0 violent crime within 10 years, after 0 wars within 3 months) inside, while 25% of clothing with anything written on them ought to include these, to focus our society on peace, not the violence from alcohol. We need new products that enhance the Peace, by requiring endless industries to create new products that contain the names of the qualities and world outcomes we lack. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

How can a disciple of God drink and support the alcohol industry leading to so much death, low IQ/mentally disabled kids, car crashes, domestic violence? We need to price it differently until the ban, (with a health fee of 2000%☺☺☺ going to Immortality Nurturing Agency) so those who drink it pay for all damage to society done by alcohol abusers, since nobody needs alcohol to live to 110, as proven by Adventists. Allow all to gently become more tenderly compassionate and pay their share. If alcohol is sold, then it can be abused, so those drinking it must pay for all damage coming from alcohol, millions of mistakes, accidents, violent incidents, etc. Let us build a world without worries about fetus brain damage from 1 drink/wk. Nicotine pouches need to be banned as they kill kids. Having seen above the genocides weed, nicotine and alcohol do, we develop a new moral imperative: lifetime labor or, if people are too selfish to build healing centers to house all lifetime labor folks) death penalty for anyone trafficking/selling nicotine products: same for weed, drugs, alcohol products, unless weed is given at a pharmacy with prescription after 200 other methods failed to solve the health issue, after 10 years of trials. The holocausts of millions yearly can't be allowed, just as we fought Hitler, we must fight this as if it's WW2 all over again, with the same intensity and national mobilization, where every American makes the "missiles" of meditation or happy breathing that end smoking, drinking and weed. China may start giving death penalty for fentanyl traffic. This can only be implemented of course, after everyone was taught how to be happy via breathing on TV-radio for 10 hours daily (the ethics, nutrition component of healthy habits part of the 16-23 hours ethics of Eternal Universal Peace and 0 violence crime time slot during the state of emergency) during the 2-4 year transition to a smoking, drinking, violence free society.

4.12. Heart Rate (HR), Blood Pressure (BP) monitors, warm bath (last page)

Turn off GPS on all smartwatches, as GPS, WiFi, BlueTooth cause Alzheimer, cancer and facilitate killings (spy killed by tracking device) by spy agencies, tracking by hackers and spies using invisible weapons to damage but not kill. All smart watches can be turned on remotely and most of them produce a huge RF signal when turned on of 10 mW/m^2, and even when not doing an activity just sitting, with no GPS and no phone connected, they emit deadly radio frequency causing headaches, which you can easily measure as 0.25 to 0.7 µW/m^2, enough to cause headaches in many people. So, you can buy a normal Omron HR/BP meter, sleep/eat well, lower stress by simplifying life (donate useless objects, keep minimal stuff needed), these watches are useless, they do more damage than good, nobody lives to 3000, 40 times longer, by using such low IQ watches. They allow spies, hackers to track you, to use satellites to attack you, and just increase free radicals in all blood passing thru the wrist, which is obviously all the blood every 4 hours. They're another mind control method by the aristocrats, who now have an ankle device like prisoners, just a willing one, around the wrist, to program them into eternal slavery. It's like a dog collar. You're not a dog of the Rich. Like with cell phones always on to destroy everyone, a cell tower near each brain to make USA a nation of ☺puppy IQ folks☺. Turtles live to 400 sometimes, their hearts beat slow. Longest lived people have slower heart rates (HR), see how some people use conscious breathing to lower their HR. Resting HR >90 meant 3.06 times higher mortality than resting HR ≤50, after adjusting for physical activity ► Heart 2013;99(12):882-7. HR 81-90 meant 2.04 times higher mortality, 71-80 1.51 times higher, 61-70 1.46 times, 51-60 1.40 times compared to HR ≤50 as seen in Table 2 (5). Always use an ac adapter for a home BP monitor, since batteries can be partially drained, give very false results, especially for heart rate.

I've always been ultra sedentary until 2025 when I started exercising a little in August, but my bed rest HR, when waking up etc is often 44-50 (if nothing unusual happens, if good sleep, no bath trips, etc) and BP 105/62 since 2015 when I started measuring it about 10-20 times a year, always being shocked it's a healthy 53 even sometimes when I think it's 65, but it is often a higher than normal blood pressure that makes you think the HR is 75 instead of say 62. If I sit at the computer, it's about 49-60, like for most people, though sometimes it can be 47 even on a quiet 6 am morning after being up 3 hours using incandescent 2700K light 25w. Studies and my experience shows that incandescent light bulbs with full spectrum solar like light lower HR, while blue light daylight LEDs raise HR. 25W incandescent are inducing a more relaxed state, while LEDs raise cortisol and HR, so avoid bright blue LEDs at night to sleep better. To live longer, we may need 2700K lights used daily part of the day, not 5500K. However, if I pee or wake up to do something 3 minutes at the desk etc, the whole sleep is ruined, by an HR of 55-58 and BP of 115/72 instead of 103/63 (a low fat vegan diet of no salt). When sitting in a chair at the computer desk, it is usually 104-107/68, with HR 50-61 or if having done a lot of exercise or chores HR 67, if sitting 10 min, it drops to 105/67 or 100/70 with HR 49-62. On Aug 31-2025, I slept 6 hours, woke up at 8:15 am and then did some computer work, etc and relaxed with soothing music, eyes closed in the chair in front of the desk, and this passive 'meditation' (just relaxing, breathing really) gave me 100/66 with HR 47 at 10:00 am, the lowest ever recorded while sitting on a chair (lowest is always when sleeping of course, but can't measure it as you sleep, so probably 44, close to some athletes, shows the benefits of low fat veganism). To see if plaque exists, sit in bed 5 minutes, then take the 4 arm/ankles pressures, see a video of the 4 points to measure @ home & how hospital machines do it. Divide the highest arm systolic over highest ankle systolic; mine on 9-1-2025 was left/left: 116/68 over 101/60, when HR was 48 on both. Right and left arms were within 2 of each other, so healthy. Veganism=safe. You choose the values that have similar HR if you measure twice. 116/101 = 1.15. Don't divide ankle pressure @ HR 50 over arm @ HR 44, as it meant you didn't rest equal minutes after placing the cuff. Close eyes, relax, so no distractions raise the pressure more for arm than for ankle etc. This 1.15 is the ABI, the ankle brachial index, used to determine if you have atherosclerosis (0.9<ABI<1 a little plaque, 0.8<ABI<0.9 some plaque, 0.5<ABI<0.8 medium plaque, ABI<0.5 severe plaque call doctor, ABI<0.3 emergency can lose leg) or calcified/stiff leg arteries (ABI>1.3). The arm systolic differences need to be within 5 of each other ideally, when HR is equal, but 9 is OK. You can't take the ankle pressures while sitting relaxed in a chair, as values will be 30 mm higher, you need to be horizontal in the bed as all 90000 youtubes on ABI show.

My HR was 65-90 with high blood pressure (militaries have 2 weapons modes: one that raises HR mostly and one that raises BP mostly, one raises BP to way above your normal, while HR is 60-70, another raises the HR to 70-95 and BP too; that's why often times you may use a ginger device that says HR is low, but you know it's actually high BP even if it doesn't show the value, and you confirm it with the BF cuff) when militaries-spy-agencies attack citizens to cause heart attacks or simulate torture to see how people react. This is how it all works, the main torture method is HR-BP change using EM fields. They did this in frogs many decades ago. To reduce anxiety and improve habits to get better sleep, avoid the China made 35$ Omron BP cuff (seller took down Amazon listing a week after my 1 star review). Omron also made the Walmart ReliOn, though the Vietnam made Omron BP5000 (bought 2025, returned 2 weeks after) gave Sys 2 points lower, Dia 6 points higher than China made Relion 7400REL. The clinic 114/71 (not 104/80 omron) showed Relion (bought 2013) is way more accurate than Omron. In Aug 2025 I bought the Vietnam made 2025 27$ Walmart Equate UA-4000WM (free ship if adding 3 alcohol pads or etc for total $35+, price said 29, but once added, it dropped to 27) which gives the same results as 2013 ReliOn (or actually BETTER, closer to ACTUAL, but still a little low on Systolic, so the actual is 2-7 higher (not sure yet, will do more tests) on Systolic than what Equate says). Amazon sells a lot of overpriced junk meters, Equate is reliable. Equate 2025 is no longer made by Omron, as the old 2013 ReliOn. I don't suggest buying anything with bluetooth app that may connect to Chinese or other space weapon satellites (especially made in China). Equate is far safer as it has no connectivity, unhackable. Beware of the aristocratic wolves offering death disguised as convenience, meaning "BlueTooth, WiFi, cell phones"..., while they ban cell towers near their mansions as they know they're deadly. These living devils know how to con the 99%. Why do we need so many towers where the workers live☺☺☺, why not LiFi or wired cameras? Because "working class dogs" are disposable cattle, 1000000 workers are worth less than a cat. ☺☺☺ Many workers see a hospital 3 times a life, but cats and dogs in USA, maybe 30 times. Anyone can hack the smartwatch company servers, sicken/kill you with microwaves slowly from space. You can then see if your BP is also 102/62 when relaxing in bed (meaning 115-120/70-75 when on a chair at the doctor or Walmart BP station). The only FDA-cleared BP watch in 2025 is the 800$ Omron HeartGuide (made in Japan, Omron is a Japanese company, on ebay 497$ used, which has an inflatable cuff within the watch band, similar to arm cuff sphygmomanometers; it monitors heart rate, sleep, and activity. However, google explains the regular 35$ cuff is far more accurate (way higher values) than the $800 wrist watch by Omron and a 2020 paper says "HeartGuide is only accurate when the device is positioned at heart level". So Omron watch is useless. After eating and exercise, values are higher. You can also bring your portable cuff at the doctor when you visit for a check, and compare it there. ☺☺☺

Google Pixel smartwatch is a rip off, as you need subscribe to Fitbit 10$/month plan to access full sleep data. Google Pixel/Apple etc have no BP data. Garmin 255 (Amazon has 100$ off sometimes) works with both OS/Android, is a US company watch (safer), battery is 14 days, not 1 day as with Apple/Google, destroys everyone's blood, biomarkers, brain via Radio Frequency, as all smartwatches do, even when "GPS/Bluetooth is off". Garmin watches are made in Taiwan, not China as with most other companies. It's important to realize that any gadget (anything electronic, be it a BP cuff or watch) can be modified, intercepted during mailing, and then it can actually modify your HR too, so use your discernment. Basically, nobody lived 10 years longer due to destroying their blood with radio frequency, the data you get is useless for discovering how to live to 1000. Measure your BP/HR with a cheap not connected to Internet device once a day or even 3 times if worried, and you'll be fine. Be simple, exercise to build a world of Immortals. In many studies, sedentary vegans had better lipids and HR than athletes who ate salt/meat. However, some athletes get 38 HR at rest in bed, so they can live longer if all else is good (many die early due to being low IQ, pushing things to extreme to show off, be macho, collapse after a marathon, etc and eating too much protein forever). HR 70 means 70*60*24*365=37 million beats/year, or 3.7 billion beats/100 years. If one has HR 90, and his heart can only beat 3.7 billion times, he will live only 78 years. HR 50 means 140 years. JACC 1997;30(4):1104-6 found that most mammals got "10 x 10^8 (billion) heart beats/lifetime and suggest that life span is predetermined by basic energetics of living cells". One biomarker doesn't tell everything, some hearts can beat 78 bpm 4.1 billion times to make it to 100. Almost all crime comes from negative emotions. When we have negative emotions, our heart rate goes up, so always listen to peaceful music and tones to lower HR/BP. For the first time ever, it's $18 to buy a fingertip HR meter. Read the ECG electrocardiography vs PPG photoplethysmography based HR explanation on why ECG is more accurate ☺☺☺: ECG capable watches can take an electrocardiogram and provide a heart rate variability HRV report. But you can measure HRV yourself in a better way, just do some exercise, let HR climb a lot, then wait 1 min, HR needs to drop by 18 if you have a healthy heart. Omron comes with adapter and batteries, for using it outside while you exercise in the garden or doing some chores. The first wireless HR monitors were made in 1977 by Polar.com, with 12,000 employees in all subsidiaries, from Finland, see

Wikipedia. You need to find a device that measures these things without any connectivity, like a finger device or other stuff if HR is something you care about a lot. Otherwise, you're a dog on a leash of space powers attacking you with their 8 million towers/satellites.

Many watches also ESTIMATE☺☺☺ BP with some accuracy, but we need the traditional $35 cuff for accurate BP. The watches have to be offline, GPS/Bluetooth off, airplane mode on, (except when downloading data for last month in 1 min if you want to upload it to cloud for others to spy on it) to prevent microwave pollution effects, such as blood cancer due to irradiating the blood vessels passing thru the wrist, wrist area tumor, like the brain tumor the shape of cell phone antenna for sales people on the side of the head they used to place the phone against. The cancer is explained better in the radiofrequency pollution section. The watches can be used without the phone, without even installing the app, just to measure HR, but even those pollute. Vegans and meditators have lowest HR & BP. When we don't sleep well, our HR goes up next day and when we don't sleep well, we're far more likely to get into car accidents, factory, house chores accidents, misunderstandings. A huge amount of fights, arguments, accidents, happen due to the brain not being in top shape due to poor sleep, which is easy to detect via HR. You need low HR and to stop eating hours before sleeping, as low HR before sleep start means better quality sleep that clears brain of toxic buildup. Live 10 extra years via HR monitoring, teach 3 year olds to use BP cuff and a safe, not yet created, unconnected to the Terror Network (internet, cellular networks, blue tooth) device that only Immortalists can bring. Nobody needs a watch to consciously breathe, meditate, achieve divine ecstasy states (happiness) (eye mask is $1, earplugs ultra cheap). Every college freshman or even student in 1st grade could get a free eye mask, earplug, a gentle tender soft Omron like BP/HR device. Eye masks are ideally worn loose, made of breathable material to prevent warming the eyes (evaporate water) and causing dry eyes when winter heat is on (or summer AC is on and sucks humidity from the air, avoid AC if possible, it dries lungs/eyes). See special masks for dry eyes, avoid dehumidifiers or eye masks if your eyes get dry, everyone is different (get a window curtain to make the room dark, lower HR by deeper sleep, more melatonin production). Rest if BP cuff says HR is high, don't drive or do exertion. High BP damages the brain/every organ. IQ score drops in young adults due to high BP: your IQ score can drop 20 points from week to week depending on HR, BP, diet, sleep quality. To create a heart centered loving kind compassionate civilization, filled with tranquil kind emotions, intents, thoughts and no panic, listen to immortalist music, or meditative peaceful one, and it will lower your HR/BP 10000 times more than wearing these lethal watches. Don't transfer watch data to cloud, see it on watch, to avoid hacker access. ☺☺☺

If we take a 20 min shower to lower HR, diminish negative emotions, we use 20 gallons of water

if 1 gallon per minute (gpm) shower head (that we can save and bath in afterwards for 2 hours to reduce anger and negative emotions), or 50 gallons if the typical 2.5 gpm shower head. Small tubs fill with water with a person immersed with just 20 gallons, or 8 minute shower at 2.5 gpm. The (hopefully) rare anxiety, anger and high HR disappear much faster if folks listen to peaceful music while immersed in water for 1 hour (or more if needed), than if they listen to the same peaceful music while relaxing in the bed. Many times people are so stressed and hyper when coming home, if they would take a bath for 30 minutes while listening to peaceful music they would create a much calmer and healing, nurturing☺☺☺ home environment than by watching the ultra restless TV content today. Their emotions will be more benign, softer and the whole planet become much more positive, peaceful, if millions do the same. They could become very nurturing compassionate by massaging their spouse (we are all 2 day old babies compared to an Immortal, so imagine having the healing compassionate understanding forgiving unconditional love of a mom for her 2 day old baby when massaging spouse) in the bathtub while listening to eterni tones or peaceful voiceless music instead of getting hyper and starting arguments over nothing. The builders of many studios, places where there are tons of things except a bath tub – shower only – when tons of materials are wasted on the gigantic studio or other areas of houses or dwellings without tubs, could change their thinking and help the world attain peace by installing more tubs instead of showers only. Endless houses got a living room 20 times the size of a half bath with shower only, what a waste, when with a few extra square feet, it could have a tub to calm people, enable them to break the historical inertia hypnotic power over emotions. This "shower only and gigantic useless living rooms, studio spaces etc" is a missed opportunity to improve heart health of millions of people, health which is decimated by negative emotions and sometimes simply lack of good water baths habits to relax and breathe, take it easy, close eyes, relax, instead of watching the uneterni tones of writing, speaking, feeling and music on TV, internet that hype people up to start fights. Water is soft and yielding, the symbol of eternal life. Tao Te Ching "Nothing is gentler than water, yet with its yielding power it dissolves the hardest rocks". Before we lecture or yell at others, let us ask ourselves, do those people we're so eager to "teach a lesson" have basic knowledge of the diet effects on behavior, music effects, or even water baths effects, or do they even have a tub in their living place to use with free youtube peaceful music when more upset? It's easy to lecture or "teach a lesson" by some "stick (not carrot) method" or subtle "threat, intimidation, little torture or harassing", etc, but far more compassionate to create 11 companies, the Immortality Building Inc to give all decent shelter and tub/shower, to educate centrally (free education for all) with proper music/sections on web-TV-radio that lowers HR and teaches healthier sleep habits, HR lowering diets low in sodium. When normal breathing exercises, soothing music don't bring HR down, longer sleep, regular sleep, etc, water helps us to calm down and lower blood pressure, pulse. We look inward, meditate, chill out, heal, be less criticizing others, when they could be malnourished, misinformed, lacking knowledge about water effects on the most important organ we have, the heart, without which we can't live. Water, if full of chemicals, can damage us too, via skin, so if using it often, get a shower filter. I take showers 99.9% of time, no baths.

CHAPTER 5 - IMMORTALITY CULTURE

5.1. Telepathy & ending jails 5.2. Media, movies, AI, websites 5.3. Kind literature, lyrics, fashion

5.4. Monuments, parks 5.5. Sports aiding Immortalism 5.6. Quiet pets (no loud barking)

5.7. Quiet city & sleep: 90% body repair done in sleep: no fireworks, no loud mowing or parties

Introduction: The 1 Language Culture of Hypothesis Thinking, Immortalist Anthem☺☺☺, Eternal Learning of the Immortals of this book gives us world's first real culture, since culture means eternal zero violent crime and 0 war. Our so called "cultures" are pure filth that produce endless war/violence. Civilization begins when violent crime and war end. Why is Culture so important? Because we imitate others around us and because of Telepathy Diffusion. We want a culture where everything is the kind sweet gentle soft vibe of Immortalist Anthem. ☺☺ You might wonder what is wrong with the "cultures" on Earth. This introductory paragraph will explain 0.1% of the issues: US is not interested in World Peace in 3 months, such talk is illegal. What the USA "superior Judeo-Christian fake culture"☺☺☺ exports and wants: dog shops, cat shops, pet hospitals, pet stores buildings wasting materials while humans are homeless, without medical care, killed and maimed by the millions, pets valued way more than people (they never bomb and torture pets as they do to humans, why not love all people first by ending all wars, torture and jails in 10 years and only after we achieved that, we have pets, why not tax pet ownership 1000000 a year if we really follow God and want to love ALL PEOPLE, are we worshiping idols, cats and dogs? Isn't the end of violence against people 1 trillion times more important than having a pet?), super loud cities where nobody can sleep, infinite cruelty against animals when we could easily design eterni foods to complement vegan ones, alcohol shops, wineries taking space while others are crowded and can't sleep due to loud parties or music or central AC making 20 times louder noise than split ventless AC, etc, 100s of wine bottles in every grocery store to cause millions of accidents and domestic violence incidents that lead to generalized war vibe, work mistakes, power plant explosions, useless nail shops and barber shops to style the hair in endless ways (anyone can use a mirror and trim hair at home to use materials in kinder ways, better housing that doesn't collapse during tornado or hurricane, dome houses, etc), shops to take care of nails in endless ways, remove hair from 3000 places, arrange eyebrows in 8000 ways, piece 5000 places in the body to create outer beauty while the monster hides within giving no thought/action daily to ETERNAL World Peace in 3 months, pet grooming businesses while others are tortured daily by the millions by CIA, violent music, smoke shops (6 million die from nicotine products yearly, 3 million from alcohol) by the millions to encourage the destruction of billions of hotels rooms by smokers and disturb the sleep of billions of people who live in hotels apartments ruined by smokers who terrorize nonsmokers with second hand smoke and walls that stink for years after his "3 month visit", fake religions (Italian fraud) exported at gunpoint to lower the IQ of every nation and praised in fake military songs, gambling shops, casinos, lotteries to lower IQ of all, to distract them from focusing on longevity for all, achieving certain results instead of wasting time, ☺abysmal IQ☺strip clubs to entertain the enslaved masses and lower their IQ, lower their vibe with violent uneterni music, rat (cannibalistic when hungry) like filif IQ fireworks to deafen many partially and shorten their lifespan via poisons in the air to entertain the slaves and make them believe the lie that American revolution brought real freedom when nothing happened except one aristocrat group took over from another, a useless system of housing to enrich aristocratic profits (100000 trash realtor sites instead of one real site to search houses by 900 criteria not 10, misuse of national resources, same houses would not have allowed water in many cases if shaped as a dome, no damage would have happened, leading to endless diseases, billions inf health care costs, etc) and reduce efficiency 10 fold in creating truly safe housing, etc… phony education that promotes crime, selfish sports that promote a callous soulless ethics giving no thought to the living conditions of others and World Peace, prisons to jail the scapegoats for the aristocrat crimes against humanity, blatant unity of state and religion in state sponsored terrorism of babies who cry and suffer during full immersion baptism at age 3 weeks or during circumcision 3 month long pain that leads to higher psychosis (male or female), the list is endless. The problem is the other countries are very similar or have other issues and nobody cares about World Peace in 3 months. Everyone who calls for peace is seen as crazy or a spy for the losing side, but it destroys the quantum field of all humans to kill and bomb people in war, so all people lose not just the attacked country or losing country. Americans spend $1.4 trillion a year on the most useless things and not even 1 TV sentence, 1 dollar on Immortality for All, Eternal Universal Peace (0 wars for Eternity) civilization, the depravity of this culture can't be greater. Sadly, everyone copies USA. The selfishness that has infected all societies is so deep, nobody cares people are bombed 9000 miles away because top guys didn't prevent war and people cared not.

5.1.1. Telepathy Diffusion

5.1.2. Sexual content laws (death penalty for any rape)

5.1.3. Who does the Crime?

5.1.4. Emergency State to End Violent Crime in 3 years

5.1.5. The merger of all courts, using the same law: fine 9000x the stolen value (nobody steals if all purchases move to online via advanced AI fitting of everything), lifetime labor for violent crime, death penalty for injuries that cut skin, or don't heal 100% (0% red scar) after 2 weeks (this includes death penalty for attempted (but unsuccessful) murder/injury, such as arson of trees, that can kill or injure – fire injuries cannot heal in 2 weeks, they are permanent scars)

5.1.1. Intro and Hypothesis on Telepathy Diffusion in a Telepathic Immortals Society

The next 160 pages explain how we end the Demonic Movie Industry, how we will bring violent crime down a trillion fold (including crime by aristocrats using bad products that kill millions of users 10 years early, meaning equivalent of 1 million kids killed), as aristocrat class disappears (when some are paid 10-50000 times for the same 40-60 hour week, theft and violence will be the outcome) and how we will eliminate in due time all theft, fraud and dishonesty via the implementation of immortality for all ethics, or immortalism, that which is free from liars, phony frauds who promote scientific dishonesty to gain "low IQ" naive followers. Unhealthy diets can lead to spikes in blood glucose, which cause impulsive reactions and violent crime, the Stanford/Harvard top of class explains how changing diet to complex sugars,no soda no simple sugars, reduced recidivism 7 fold. We can see in this chapter how aristocrats who murder millions are free, and how the victims of their criminal system are in jail. Below are the reasons why the state of emergency will start to prevent the "10 second end of humans", and maintained for as many decades as it takes to bring violent crime to 0. First targets of the state of emergency will be movies, music aristocrats (bad music examples are in section 7.9.4.). We reduce number of radio-TV stations as we have no staff to produce high quality programs in a tone of 5000 times more eterni vibe. Local stations don't repeat central news in their bad tone, but simply replay the central news from World's Most watched and respected station, Universal Immortality TV, the central station for USA & also of the Immortalists Worldwide. USA becomes the Mecca of Immortalism Worldwide. Only people with the top 1-10% Immortality Credit Score would be allowed to have guns, the rest will be able to only when violent crime is 0, if they need to protect self from dogs, mountain lions, foxes, etc. We'll euthanize all dogs who bite any humans, so nobody needs guns for defense against 90 million dogs in USA. Here is a list of celebrities few know as Jews, due to name changes, A video claims Jews built the Hollywood industry (all top 5 Big studios were founded or run by Jews in the 1930s and hired lots of Jews), which makes sense if they wanted to truly take over the world and practice the Zion Protocols. Skeptics argue that these are fake videos on youtube and Jews didn't create Hollywood, but it was Brits posing as "Jews faking their names to look British". The reality is that every US movie and music clip almost reflects the diabolical energy of the 1450 demon quotes of the Jewish Bible. So Jews do control, directly or indirectly, the demonic Hollywood, for 100+ years. Check out the secret plan to make to make Judaism the main religion in USA using the movie industry.

GENOCIDAL HOLLYWOOD FROM THE VERY START (next 2 paragraphs show it all):

Skeptics will laugh and say aristocrats are not criminals, they're simply successful businessmen, inventors, film directors, singers (see section 7.9.4. for genocide charges, 500 trillion in fines at least, no jail needed, against 25000 US celebrities and their "concert crew"), millionaire or regular lazy do nothing except preach genocide parasitic yelling pastors, imams, rabbis who incite people to genocide via promotion of genocidal slavery deifying scriptures which ought to lead to prosecution (leading to at least 500 trillion in fines, forfeiture of all church property, etc, no jail needed) for slavery, beating of slaves, rape and genocide instigation, etc. But, let us look deeper into the aristocratic actions of trillion dollar theft to build their palaces. The criminal murderers of USA, who're never in jail, but cause millions to visit jails by their genocidal actions, include Hollywood and the Music Industry which create the Most Evil Macho Pure Trash to flood and pollute the planet with infernal vibes of macho hooliganism and violent depravity. Chapters 7 and 8 have plenty of examples of this trash called "music" and "movies". The need to fire 99.9+ % of Hollywood and musicians is highly clarified in Chapters 5.2 and 5.3 too, you can't EXPECT A DIFFERENT OUTCOME, with the same Monsters in Power to Corrupt and Destroy the planet. When all income is from wages, when musicians can't make more than 3-5 times the minimum wage, like any other profession, then it is clear that only with the science based proof of eterni tone lighting up MRI of kindness brain centers in listeners among 50 million 2 min song sample submissions will qualify, not these ☺filif IQ folks☺ (most musicians and actors, paid terrorists unaware of the evil they do) today who, honestly, have caused each 1-100000 deaths at least via their movies and music. DRAIN THE SWAMP as they say. It's these soldier remotely controlled robots and their Military-Industrial Complex handlers that need to be brought at the International Nuremberg Style Trials for all crime (via serial theft crime depiction and prison (not education and prevention) glorification since the very first 1910 silent film, as it has been the 2 millennia Bible tradition in the West to glorify crime in literature and the press), Genocides and Wars (WW1,2, Nazism, Communism (0.25 billion dead) planned well by US, Brits, German, French,etc aristocrats for imperialistic reasons) they fueled last 110 years thru Hollywood, singers, musicians, mind control of artists to destroy nations, groups, etc..:

1). The first all-talkie film with sound thruout was in 1928, all about illegal alcohol use, killing people, crime all over again, and earned the criminal film mafia a 5000% profit, obtained by the genocidal act of polluting the minds, brains, psyche and souls of USA, instigating subconsciously millions to crime by making it seem so natural. 1928 had the first all-talkie films, before they were silent or 1-10% sound, and in 1929 all movies became all-talkie.

2). The second all-talkie movie was The Terror, a horror murder full film, to further destroy USA and the human quantum field, the profit was 900%, they made profit via genocide, these monsters and their offspring creating similar trash were never tried or even fined. ☺☺☺

3). The third all-talkie film, "Melody of Love" was about a bullet injuring someone, leaving them permanently disabled, another DEMONIC programming to expect bullets, death, suffering and normalize it, as World Peace in 3 months and 0 guns would be unthinkable to such genocidal aristocrats powerless to loot all nations without armies of compliant suicidal low IQ workers.

4). The fourth all-talkie film was glorifying murder, and was called Interference, another crime full complete garbage. Nobody was tried for this genocide disguised as film production. Nobody even dares to propose that these monsters be tried for crimes against humanity.

5). The fifth all-talkie film: On Trial (for murder), the Title says it all: murder is to be expected, kindness nowhere to be seen, never present in film titles, only courts, punishing and murder.

6). The sixth all-talkie film was Conquest (suicide and two people get their legs broken, very negative, a dispute over a girl could not be solved in a kind way, only evil is shown), demonic programming again, how to be evil and cruel again, how to engage in crime again.

7). The seventh all-talkie film In Old Arizona, is about bringing someone dead or alive, incitation to murder again. All 7 films with sound were about MURDER of self (one film) or others (the rest). This is why Adolf Hitler wanted Jews killed or deported from Germany, because the more evil Jews have taken this Genocide of the Working Class, of the gentiles, to a whole new level with the movies and music. The Aristocratic Mafia uses the Courts to Terrorize and Subjugate the planet. First, the aristocrats give people ideas thru evil literature, newspapers, news, TV, and movies, to engage in crime, then they try people for committing crimes, in this case, murder for 1928 On Trial film. The programming works like this: you, the 99% slaves, should expect to be beaten, tried and killed by the mobs we control to bring you in line forever and steal everything from you via pay 20-50000 times higher than the average worker: crime and banditry are here to stay, we create it to enslave you, we program you ☺filif IQ workers☺ to do it daily with the media, to keep you in fear and no ethics and kindness shall ever reach your minds: We're the Zion Elders who Live the Zionist Protocols faithfully and causing Hitler types to emerge to rid the world of Bad Type of Jew like murderers. These “music” and movies” psychopaths never tell you you can have 0 violent crime and 0 war in the movies, as the violence is their tool to steal trillions from all 200 nations. Today, they have 40000 music artists to create garbage to do the same even faster via radio and youtube music, for less money than a full movie.

5.1.2. Depiction of sex outside of procreation = GENOCIDE worthy of death penalty or lifetime labor for actor, writer, singer promoting it. The math is below, recreational sex images lead to:

1). smaller brain: blood flows to genitals instead of the brain, so daily judgment becomes impaired, ability to learn becomes impaired, it’s like fight and flight hormones take all brain blood and send it to legs and hands to help one run/fight, decisions and learning are poor, guys look at a girl instead of paying attention to the teacher, kids develop the animal brain and stunt higher brain functions, becoming a burden on society, a parasitic useless phony. Brain is starved of oxygen, nutrients and blood and shrinks over time, neurons die. Thus, one LUST post on social media, in a song, book, etc that glorifies recreational sex means 4000 people lose 8 years of life by that arousal repetition due to habit being formed from that one post, lost due to ignorance of the initial poster who needs to pay $90,000 fine and $90 billion if having many followers of their music, books, etc. Thus, we can estimate the life loss to be about 4000×8=32,000 lifespan years

2). rape (fear, trauma, abortion causing cancers, damage to uterus; future offspring has more birth defects from that trauma or abortion): 1 post = 4000 rapes, 4000×5=20,000 lifespan years

3). sexual diseases acquired by frequent sex with many partners: 4000×5=20,000 lifespan years

4). poor grades and low IQ due to no comprehension of science, nutrition due to poor brain blood flow, cumulative comprehension deficiency (i.e. once you missed some homework (late night party) and understanding, due to all building on prior homework, you never understand physics or chemistry or math and learning becomes memorization of ways to solve an equation to pass a test, 0 comprehension, lose 5 yrs of life on average): 4000×5=20,000 lifespan years

5). wasting time with risky behaviors (lack of self care, of homework time) to seduce the guy/girl (late parties to seduce, poor sleep, sleep is the main way body repairs itself, these teens age fast, have acne due to immune T cells being 3 times less abundant after bad sleep), making mistakes, leaving appliances, cooking devices on causing house fires, cars on due to obsession with the sex target, engaging in risky behaviors to impress or to please the girl (drugs, alcohol, etc) that cause car crashes, brain damage via smoking (second hand smoking destroys self, inhale because you love her, your kids inhale it too), weed, drugs, vaping, alcohol, leading to wasting 4 years on average for 4000: 4000×4=16,000 lifespan years

6). vitamin/nutrient deficiency, especially brain, eyes (see list): 4000×4=16,000 lifespan years

7). infantile personality, compulsive dependency develops as the person remains incapable of achieving happiness on one's own, depending on sex for happiness, getting frustrated his 'spouse' doesn't want to have sex. The 5 year old in a 30-50 year old body becomes depressed his spouse wants no sex. This 5 year old mentality person, like a kid who wants candy to be happy, due to lack of centralized ethics education, can't wrap his head around a simple concept: bliss is in the brain and one can achieve it by bypassing the genitals and using the brain itself while breathing. The glorification of sex as a source of happiness (which is the main cause for rape) is fraud since meditative bliss is much higher and evolves a new cortex of the human brain the 2025 human animal almost entirely lacks. This emotional anguish, and unfulfilled desire of sex daily makes people grumpy, emotionally immature, dependent on others, seeking brothels and affairs, causing social issues, divorce, family conflicts, social issues, negative emotions, etc. The infantile adult is feeling lonely and craving companionship all the time, instead of relying on conscious breathing for bliss, he's too filif fruit fly IQ wise to comprehend he's always surrounded by the Eternal Human Quantum Field of the future Immortals at least. We can thus estimate this lifespan loss due to negative emotions, divorce, sexual objectification of humans, human sex trafficking at about 4000×4=16,000 lifespan years.

8). violence/choking during sex causes strokes: choking is becoming popular in "cultures" the deify recreational sex, as explained in this article about "banning violent choking during sex" as with the depraved UK government, instead of banning any sex/alcohol/violence depiction. Choking can cause death, stroke, lifelong paralysis, inability to speak/recall anything, IQ 50 points lower, so choking during sex videos, clips, romance/thriller novels, is far worse than recreational sex, it's pure torture, sexual battery, attempted/involuntary murder of 5000 people, since strokes can kill. All celebrities depicting sex outside of procreation in movies, literature, song would have the movie, song, book outlawed, destroyed and need to pay some fines too, $9 billion per item and lifetime labor to pay the fine if not able to pay. We need to swiftly stop the criminals who create 20,000 educational systems to divide and conquer,☺☺create chaos in NATO/Australia (evil land of 50% of sex having choking per UK teaching it to Aussies). NATO/Australia needs only 1 educational system, 1 language, 0 aristocrats. Due to mini strokes during 5 second choking, trauma, this sex leads to 4000×5=20,000 lifespan years, due to the association of sex with violence in some "cultures" like Australia where the most visited news site is all about appearance, 0 IQ celebrities, gossip, useless products, vanity, recreational sex.

9). cancer (faster aging, uterus damage, meaning birth defects for future kids) from abortion of unwanted fetuses, plus destruction of human quantum field by killing of fetuses, which causes quantum disturbance that favors more deaths of fetuses and miscarriages. Most women today drink caffeine (tea, coffee or soft drinks) that causes miscarriage (unplanned abortion). Another 300 foods also contain certain compounds that abort fetuses, so to have sex all the time is to abort all the time. This creates a highly destructive instability in the quantum field that weakens the healthy embryos. Caffeine doesn't just kill fetuses, it also damages the IQ, lifespan and health of adults coming out of these weakened embryos that come out alive as kids after the caffeine assault. To have a miscarriage free society, you need eterni foods, where every chemical is known in µg quantities and you can avoid these 300 chemicals that abort, sicken, maim people before they are even born (many unknown to us today, that cause low IQ, organ weakness, or other issues). Eterni foods are only possible in a highly efficient scientifically honest society of 11 companies (not 33 million), one gov (not 20000), one pay (rewards given via longevity products and management positions), one (zero) tax, so the waste of bureaucracy and redundancy (plus 1.4$ trillion junk/yr) is replaced by a million times more research into health, 4000, later 4 trillion year lifespan. Thus, to be prolife is to be a leftist. Fertile ladies (under 50) and partners who have sex outside of procreation are usually MURDERERS, because they abort way more fetuses via mint family spices or caffeine, etc, way before they would know they're pregnant. No more millions of accountants with 11 companies, zero tax. We have chemists instead. FDA warns common contraceptive causes brain cancer. That's why all rapists deserve death penalty, because it takes a lot of prep to get parent license and to make sure the foods males/females eat before conception or during pregnancy don't abort a fetus or lower its IQ by 30 points. That's why the Catholic Church is the Satanic Church, as are most, as they Adore (even Popes and Bishops OK sex outside of procreation within a marriage) Coffee, Tea, Caffeine and Sex outside procreation. Most religions are for low IQ gullible (fake miracles) folks who never read the scriptures and the mass rape or genocidal violence they contain. Sex outside pro-creation means random pregnancy and abortion, which is killing the fetus and damaging the human quantum field (each murder makes it more likely for another to occur by quantum inertia), besides cancer for the lady, damaged uterus, faster aging, as the uterus is worn. The world of Immortality for All is against killing. Sex outside procreation is attempted murder of the fetus that can easily emerge if sperm gets out of the condom or condom breaks. This unwanted baby will be unwanted (less taken care of, parents will do it out of guilt, not joy or desire), or aborted. We need parent license with centralized education in eterni tone months before conception attempt, to prevent creation of violent criminals which lead to 5 trillion dead in future star wars. This is a loss of 4000×5=20,000 lifespan years, mostly birth defects from worn reproductive system of the female, by growing/then aborted fetuses, even dead rotting fetuses, who don't fully dissolve fast due to frequent sex release of orgasm liquids, causing systemic low level sepsis. The body is not designed for daily sex, after fetus forms, it needs time to dissolve.

10). species extinction: humans are likely to disappear due to cosmic events, unless we move out in space to other stars, galaxies, universes, so to do that we need to evolve billion year lifespans that can travel large distances, via the etlif IQ trillions of times higher than present filif IQ, via the shapeshifting Immortals tech of the Immortalist Anthem allowing materialization of offspring from 1 trillion parents with each donating a billion atoms to make a kid, as humans will become fluid lifeforms living in stars, etc void of sex organs/gender, a Family of Immortals. When we understand the brain can give us higher happiness than sex by a million fold, sex is viewed as a boring necessary chore of creating offspring and the hype goes away☺☺☺. Sex is overrated, pure hype. Sex can also cause death via heart attack, rapid pulse rise. It's not bliss. It can actually be very dangerous for people with heart issues, their route to the grave. This lack of evolution causes shrinks humanity's life by 4000×5=20,000 lifespan years per each sexual post.

11). delays the Era of 0 violent crime and ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~: the main cultures (Christianity, Islam, Judaism, most Hinduism, etc) place sex within a marriage or partnership well above World Peace in 3 months and 0 violent crime in 3 years, as couples have sex often, but take 0 actions to achieve these goals, showing a selfish mosquito IQ mentality of rodents.☺☺ The evil nature of Muslims, Jews, Christians can't become clearer when we see their claim that clergy are God's representatives, when in fact, they're the Reps of the Genocide, Rape quotes and sex above end of Killings/Wars ethos of their fraud based religions. It seems as if they love to encourage rape, like rapist pedophile priests in the news, not Peace. The ideal form of romantic love is altruistic universal love, the joint bringing of World Peace, 0 violent crime, not kissing, massaging, erotica which help only 2 people, not 8 billion. The Vatican is a fraudulent entity who encourages belief in fake miracles and in sex outside of procreation, since they're animalistic peasants living in the 1st century who hold humanity hostage to chimps. This blatant stagnation, perpetuation of violent crime/war means all resources otherwise dedicated to longevity/health are used up to spy/wage war, so another loss of 4000×5=20,000 lifespan years.

12). increased trust/credulity/gullibility due to oxytocin for easier marketing deception (the more you activate those arousal circuits, the easier for partially dressed ladies/guys in ads to sell you stuff by hijacking your subconscious mind), for easier subjugation by the aristocrats selling $1.4 trillion/year of life shortening junk products. So for each social media video, post reaching 90 people at first share, 4000×5=20,000 lifespan years. The Zion Elders want gullible people who have lust based marriages or relationships, as these have no depth and revolve around massage, erotica, kissing, sex, and nothing deeper that would threaten the Jewish vampirization of the host nation. You see, via facebook stream and friend suggestions, via youtube video suggestions on the right, the Jews who own youtube and facebook can manipulate all 100%, as all forget CEOs of Meta, Alphabet parents of Google, Facebook are Jews busy taking gentiles and turning them into obese transgender clowns with aid from Democrat "Freedom to Masturbate Party" of Big Food Fake Science, Seed Oils to Fatten Gentiles and Lower IQ of Working Class, and AGEs for a final blow to Gentile Brain. Thru simple things such as ads and suggestions, they start a mind control program to steer you exactly in the brainwashing direction they want you to succumb to. This applies to way more than the social media, even online shopping, which items show in results. The rich make their trillions by duping the working class, making it naive, credulous and instant short-term gratification seeking, impulsive, ready to buy fast, pay later, to take on debt that the rich will use to keep the workers in chains forever via the fraudulent 9200 banks/credit unions. This debt causes workers to not take care of their health, and to eat worse food, etc. Smart workers are the end of the aristocratic parasites, so anything to dumb us is used. Thus, we can now add another 4000×5=20,000 lifespan years.

13). increased environmental damage from increased "one use consumerism" of 12). and the purchase of sex toys, sex shop items, condoms, etc, so another 4000×1=4,000 lifespan years. The Eternal Beauty Inc section explains how we eliminate all rape by the parent license system of ensuring that only people with parent license are free from rape accusation by a frustrated "bitchy sexual encounter partner", for only that procreation agreement (the only way to get any tax benefit, as marriage is not needed anymore with this system) gives permission for sex among

2 people that is consensual as they live together to attempt to procreate and raise 1-4 kids.

14). lower fertility, embryo quality when the time comes to have babies. The sperm travels thru the vagina towards the uterus thru an environment of a certain pH, chemical composition, etc. This perfect ideal ecosystem of the vagina and its connection with the uterus is made of fine tissue, chemical species, bacterial species. Its pH is damaged by frequent sex, birth control pills, so fertility drops as ladies have more sex outside of procreation, and the quality of offspring too: it is thus against the self-interest of the lady to have sex outside of procreation as it creates a dumber, sicker, shorter lived offspring, less able to help her in old age. The embryo is less healthy. Sex outside of procreation can be a bad habit that wastes the egg before the monthly conception encounter occurs, since dad didn't prepare well and his sperm was less fertile due to bad sleep. Before conception, both need to rest a lot and eat very well, otherwise, kid will be sicker, live shorter, etc. The most important events in life are the first few days or weeks before and after conception, anything after that is 100 times less important. Bees live 50x longer by a different diet right after conception as larvae, so is with the embryo, first days so critical, that implantation that depends on overall health, vagina-uterus path is. 4000×1=4,000 lifespan years

The 14 items above add to a total of 248,000 lifespan years lost via the ripple effects, over time, of one single social media post, or sentence in a book, video or song, depicting sex outside procreation. Given the average life is 80 years, this is the same as killing 4,000 teens at age 18, taking 62 years off their life (4,000×62=248,000). Thus, when we evaluate this, we see a few "harmless lustful posts, clips" could cause '4,000 teen deaths' or, 24,000 deaths if people are 70 and lose 10 years each (24,800×10=248,000). Killing 24,800 seniors is not a small matter, but an act of mass murder. To prevent this this hybrid war or covert GENOCIDE, we give lifetime labor to spies/misinformed folks who promote recreational sex, alcohol, weed, drugs, vaping, smoking and many other dangerous activities that shorten human lifespan. By now, most will agree with immortalists that such videos, content deserves the death penalty or lifetime labor at least. You can read the 30 page section on why sex needs to be for procreation only. No more porn stars or Nevada brothels. India or China frauds teach about tantra sex, India is a 3rd world nation, with lifespan 17 years below Japan since tantra doesn't extend, but shortens lifespan. Sex obsession creates societies of "rat IQ folks". The bangles, nose/brow/body rings, ankles, etc Indians wear didn't give them 90 year lifespan like in Singapore or Japan, but 70 year only (see the power of bangles, jewelry, rings, tantra sex outside of procreation, yoga, Hindu scriptures: daily beatings, bulldozing shops, bulldozing houses, set Muslim houses on fire, defecate on beaches, throw cow poop at each other, calling for genocide), what other proof do Western youngsters need that jewelry is useless and harmful? The Western youth has been destroyed by these parasitic rapist Indian gurus who have defiled our youth/adults, turned them into cows with nose rings (cows have these tags on their nose or ear), as they promoted 50 nose, ear, belly, lip, brow, penis/vagina rings, besides becoming obsessed with sex outside of procreation, tantra. Check out how many sexual predators are among the Indian gurus: Bikram (arrest warrant, 40 luxury cars, fled to India, after making millions off fools in USA), Bapu, Osho (RollsRoyce, millions made), Jois, Vishnu, Prakash, Govind, Akhan (starve, torture, rape) see Guardian article, 133 page pdf. Those too addicted or attacked by military Jew/Brit vampires brain weapons that induce sperm emission during sleep (Sony dream creation gadgets etc) and unwilling to practice conscious breathing, etc, can sleep in separate beds from wife if that keeps sperm from building up, as he can help sleep better, since when one moves, the other wakes up and sleep is disturbed, leading to shorter lifespan. The truth is with parent license any 2 people who want to try have a baby have to get that license and then they can have sex to try to have a baby, after they agree to move in together for a few months of "tentative procreation attempt per license approval", and can split and part ways if no baby comes out in 5 months/years. That way nobody is pressured to marry and waste 10 years with the wrong partner who simply won't do the dietary changes to boost fertility 2-30 fold. Two serious people know fertility window is short (29 years, 21 to 50 for ladies mature to be a mom) and can't afford to wait forever, they need boost fertility by supplements 5 fold so it takes 2 months to get pregnant, not 2 years. Life is short, one can't try for 4 years to have a kid, so they will move on to the next person, because fertility shrinks fast in ladies after 35. This will be accepted as normal, no hard feelings, because the point is not a partner, but the kid who brings the invention to make all live to 9 billion. Today, people are paralyzed, the evil pastors, imams, rabbis, etc brainwash all to stay together, when no kid is born, which is criminal, since violent crime rises when a couple has 6 kids who're not properly educated and one has 0, leading to violence and stress that makes parents unable to hold eterni tone of speech, behavior, kids become very erratic emulating their stressed parents, their wild emotions, tones. Marriages become outdated, since all are parents of all sort of in a world of Immortals, as the Anthem explains it will be the case one day. If a baby is born, the two remain together as long as possible, ideally till kid is 18 at least, but anyone should be free to donate sperm (or eggs) to infertile couples in a clinic, so an MD can insert it and help those guys have a kid, to help distribute the kids raising more evenly and not burden others with 5 kids, while others have 0. It depends on health and IQ of the donor, as infertile couples would naturally want a better DNA if stranger, to minimize risks. In the end nobody belongs to anyone, we're all one Family of Immortals helping all live to a trillion years. People live together because of kids and tax advantage is only for parents who raise kids, though taxes will vanish one day too as centralization makes life simpler and thinking deeper.

The Chinese garbage literature by gnat IQ "Taoist Masters" and "Confucian Philosophers" has led to numerous sewer books (nonsense from dark ages to keep people short lived and clueless, instead of living to 9000) translated into 100+ languages about "self-touching, arousal" disguised as cultivating Qi and other junk that leads to masturbation to release sperm building up during self-touching, in a flagrant violation of NATO nations sovereignty by Chinese torture loving profiteers, a pure form of indirect torture (like Chinese police stomping on citizen's heads) mass rape/head brainwashing of Western youth, similar to Chinese fake communism where 58% of wealth is in the hands of 0.01% of families, the communist elites. Additionally, the Western youth was brainwashed by "sexual education" crafted by pedophile Demon-crats and other filif flatworm IQ experts on youtube, etc to believe sex outside of procreation is good for your health. The human being adapts, just like some animals have sex 5-9 times in their life, so can humans have sex 9 times to have 2 kids, without the genocidal teachings that "having no sex will give you prostate cancer" or other lies. Question the media lies, the fake science, don't just believe. These teachings are harmful especially for people who overeat in the evenings, due to lack of education centralization, which causes sperm buildup at night, when combined with pressure to do many extracurricular nonsensical activities that build up cortisol, pressure and sperm production, in our society of pure animalism, useless sports, sexual literature/movies, etc gluttony and abysmal IQ, a society who doesn't realize each big meal with more calories than needed can damage the lifespan, speed DNA replication, overproduce sperm, speed aging as sperm is wasted during "normalized masturbation etc". The youth may be curious and then become addicted to it, not having understood since age 5 that immortalist breathing is a million times happier than any human activity, calmer and longer lasting than sex or masturbation (whose meaning they don't need to know until age 21) ever will be. The human brain who is not arouse won't produce sperm or have a need to release it, plain and simple. Don't make it complex. Any perceived high from sex is in the brain and one can achieve it without the genitals involved. For these animal types (the animalization is due to the death penalty worthy criminals who approved foreign or local improper literature or internet content giving ideas to youth to masturbate/have sex as teens), the evolution back to human stage can occur rapidly, via the 14.6 chapter, they break the media animalism induction trance.

The aristocrats intentionally create violent pop, rap, heavy metal, rock, metal music that incites the workers to aggressive emotional states, entrains kids and parents to get into an argument between parents or parents and kids, as there is no calming decent tone, melody or lyrics song or free centralized ethics education with 10-20 hours continuous TV education on all TV stations until all violent crime is 0, parent license training program, no 222 weeks off (that the aristocrat can easily get by designating someone to manage a business). This small argument due to emotional states created by the evil tone of music and TV-radio talk can often escalate to shouts, slaps, or violent crimes used by aristocrats to jail millions of people or to even take the child away from a parent who shouted, being too tired, getting no 222 weeks off, and maybe forgetting the door open and falling asleep due to exhaustion and then an evil neighbor reports

3 year old is alone on the street as a kid went there out of curiosity. These "females" with "feminine" alcohol, smoking, violence, drugs pushing songs cause millions of women to be jailed each decade, millions of families to be destroyed. Where is the compassion? The state has to pay trillions to jail parents, kids or house, rehabilitate these families and deal with the damage done. Where is the justice? For the murderous aristocrat living in a gated estate of 4 acres, if he does drugs even and falls asleep and child runs and is in danger due to a mountain lion nearby the area, they never get arrested since nobody can see it, unlike the worker who lives in a tiny 500 sq ft apartment with 50000 neighbors. Here we see Pure genocidal Bestiality of the Aristocrat in full action. The Working class is jailed while the depraved rat from hell, who incites the planet to war is free. When the fetus hears the mom speak, the dad starts an argument often, and soon the voices are raised like in the diabolical Bad Blood song (by T. Swift) and 50+% of US music songs (actually 99% of US music is too aggressive to create 0 violent crime fast), and soon the mom feels negative emotions, then baby feels them too and learns that if mom is quiet, no such emotions happen that make baby feel bad. So, when born, baby is the quietest baby on Earth, the Jewish and British murderous doctor, a gangster who became MD to steal gentile money, making 250-990K a year, tells mom that kid has autism, but MD listens to rock, goes to these rock concerts to destroy all families, like a devil in human form. So, the baby gets lethal chemicals to "speak", and it just so happens that the pain of the medicine is so bad, he speaks to stop the pain. Then the bulldog IQ MD believes his lethal poison works to give speech to kids. US tech. Other times, violent music, tone caused bad emotions during fetus stage and hyper music and TV at home caused the kid to become hyper and then the MD gives him deadly pills to "treat autism", when the kid has no disease, but poor education, emotional contagion (all humans subconsciously, without trying to, imitate the voices, emotions of the people around them or in the music, TV programs), emotional mimicry and imitation of 10 years from listening to aggression instigation 1-5 hours daily since conception. These Jewish, etc MDs then prescribe to millions of kids deadly poisons made by Big Pharma British Aristocrats, when they could instead review Singer and Clergy Violence against USA, their demonic shouts of: pastor, rabbi, imam, that normalize aggression and shouting by kids who desperately try to imitate everything around them to "stay relevant".

Kids imitate the violence on youtube, practice violent boxing and etc and end up in fights that sometimes even kill people. The kids become gangsters before birth even, as their develop the like of demonic music from the womb stage and then violence is their second nature. This is intentional, as aristocrats need violent thugs to use as cannon fodder in wars. The pills move that violence one step up to bipolar ultra high extreme emotional states and soon they do mass shootings, etc which is what aristocrats want: workers exterminating workers while the rich live far way in tranquil estates. The aristocrats need to make trillions by selling anti-depressants or

"hyper activity" pills for restless teens, ADHD caused by rich singers, pills that lower IQ 25 points, instead of treating the cause they treat the symptom: the cause is the aristocratic terror, ultra violent music, movie tone that everyone hears daily. See the science of music-MRI-tone and how we'll approve only music/speech shown to activate the ethics brain centers, the bliss, happiness, ☺☺gentle tender soft nurturing loving compassionate healing kindness, fluid intelligence, high IQ hypothesis thinking, out of the box thinking brain areas. ☺☺

ADHD (which can cause violent crimes, etc) and autism can also happen due to aristocrat run food companies, restaurants that sell poison, keep everyone ignorant of nutrition via fake industry funded science papers, high omega 6 intake via too much oil, due to lyrics void of science, while aristocrats eat healthier organic food, since lasers killing weeds are too expensive to use vs pesticides due to decentralization and wasting of the labor force via redundancy of 33 million companies. Pesticides cause autism, they're for slave workers only. Odd behavior from music, pesticides, DE, RF act as pretext for drugging the working class to get IQ to 70, genius chimp. No vertical farms in local community, instead, we ship kale from 1500 miles away, causing traffic tire particle pollution, smog if not EVs, etc that kills people, but we got stadiums every 10 miles to sit and shout like Hitler, that don't make anyone exercise or get healthy food. Sitting doesn't help anyone, and gyms are useless if you exercise in kale, etc vertical farms, eterni food labs or immortalist sports done while being more relaxed and listening to peaceful music. The aristocrats made 1 billion coffee places and tea places to lower working class IQ 20 points, via caffeine in sodas, energy drinks, etc that slow neuron migration and causes ADHD too. The coffee causes hypertension, dry eyes via dehydration, and diabetes via statins used to treat pressure. Statins can also screw the brain. The diabetes is used to cause high A1C, which then shrinks the brain twice faster, so that aristocrats can exterminate the working class and tighten the chains around their neck ever tighter while talking about freedom and democracy all day. The perpetrators of all US crime are free on 2-2000 acre estates, while the brainwashed puppets are in jail, the people with 0 quality education, totally screwed up by aristocratic products all are brainwashed to buy. The murderous hyenas establish 1.4$ trillion/yr product selling businesses, restaurants, coffee places to sell poisons to the human brain, while claiming there is no money for "0 violent crime, border wall to stop drugs, singe family homes for all☺". There is money (taxes churches don't pay), there is space/materials to house all condo dwellers in homes. Overcrowding and paper thin walls can lead to fights too… No money for workers, only for useless businesses with thick soundproof walls to sell poisons to lower our IQ, raise crime? Is it not about time for the Americans to take the country back from these monsters? ☺

Border is not sealed, as aristocrats want slave labor, so drugs pour in, parents take them, fall asleep, kids go out while mom sleeps and then kid is taken from mother to child protective services, the whole family goes against the parent, everything is destroyed, with aid from drug pushing music who leads to working class arrests etc. Because of violent crime existing in USA due to aristocrats, we have these weird laws where parents are arrested if kids are not with the kid all the time, which is insanity, as in communist nations with 10 times less crime kids went to school alone daily walking even 3 miles daily, getting good exercise. US has 2 laws, one for slaves and one for aristocrats, for aristocrats never get arrested, as the kid is in the 4 acre property, not on the street where neighbors can see them and report the parent who is too poor, works 80 hours 4 jobs a week, to live paycheck to paycheck. This brutality, by these devils with tall gates, security guards, 30 cameras, etc happens because they don't have any desire to have 0 violent crime, but We the People can quickly bring 0 crime by the 11 companies system of 1 bank (not 9200 by gangster aristocrats), 1 law, no landlords until all own a home, etc. Aristocrats make billions selling alcohol that killed already 1 billion people early, then workers get drunk and fight with neighbors, strangers, even spouses or kids, and cops arrest them. Aristocrats laugh as they decimate workers with drugs, open borders to bring slaves, alcohol, music, the rich wage eternal war among workers via political parties, drunken states, etc, so workers fight each other, instead of fighting the aristocrats. Why are the people causing crime free and the victims of their genocides in jail? This is not justice by a Holocaust by Jewish lyric creators and other "geniuses from UK" against USA. Aristocrats murder millions with drugs they bring via open border, Democrats work for the aristocrats to bring in slaves, drugs, alcohol for 80 years, they're leftist in name only. Democrats (Republirats) praise these infernal "actors"/"singers" who simply exterminate the working class. Border could have been drug, alcohol and crime sealed with 1 million dogs sniffing every person, box, letter, airport, ship since 1950 with a few army troops. Phony criminals claiming to be Democrats make 10-900 million a year and yet these scumbags only donate tiny amounts to the Democratic cause, because they're Republicans in disguise. The naive followers of these scammers feed them with concert tickets, instead of donating to the Immortalist Party that would end the aristocrat run Democrats/Republicans or clean up the Democrats of the Republican spies controlling 90% of Democrats. If they make trillions, how come all they donate each election cycle is 2 billion max? Stingy Republicans in disguise. ☺☺☺

The abject failure of communism, socialism, social democracy, free market capitalism to bring down violent crime 50, 500 or 5000 fold, let alone a million or a trillion fold, prompts all ethical people of this world to say in a resounding unity, enough is Enough, let us now try Immortalism. You can't get different results by using the same methods and system. For too long palace dwelling aristocrats have created justice systems that serve death and lifetime labor or etc only for slaves, for workers, while the frauds running the nation never go to jail. To prevent this blatant abuse, the aristocratic class is eliminated via the employee owned 11 companies. Aristocrats living in huge mansions can use brain gadgets to induce workers to commit 'odd actions' so that they have a reason to jail workers and suppress humanity's liberation. This is called remote (2000 miles away even) synthetic telepathy. An immortalist culture is one that loves workers, doesn't deify punishment as in the bad Bible quotes (death penalty for saying a bad word etc), only gentle penalties after extensive education into the consequences (today no such education is given as the system protects the genocidal CEO aristocrats selling alcohol, tobacco, weed, drugs, bad food, phones, etc) that apply to all and all penalties are fines and education courses (no jail for nonviolent offense), except for violent crimes, which will require some drastic measures at first to bring down fast (all jails disappear eventually, but not in 1 day, as new healing centers are built over time, can't house 2 million jailed people in new secure (some may try escape to become thugs again) healing centers overnight, but can release some nonviolent offenders after courses taken, exams passed for course knowledge, and fines paid). The alcohol-weed-smoking section explains that aristocrats have killed about 1-2 billion humans last 2 centuries via their fraud companies that cold alcohol, tobacco and weed and that the aristocrats obviously never criminalized those committing such genocides. Immortalism cares about the people's health and criminalizes tobacco, weed, alcohol production and distribution, besides dissolving all such companies ultra fast to build decent housing and healing centers to replace all jails populated by slaves, and not by those who committed the greatest holocaust of all time: 1.2 billion dead. Immortalism is a culture of shared responsibility: we let all aristocrats, generals, military/spy agency/FBI chiefs, serve on the frontlines, not just the poor, let many "aristocrats" live in 100 square foot houses, not just poor workers. Why keep 15 million housing units empty when half a million are homeless? Because aristocrats want huge profits? ☺☺☺☺☺

War exists simply because the military-spy chiefs are PIGS who never actually have to die on the frontlines. Stalin knew it, so in 1936-8 Stalin executed 35,000 military officers, who were, most of them, from the Tsarist regime, rehired by Trotsky in 1918, due to the ongoing war: these were spoiled aristocrats (the 9 million Tsarist army soldiers were slaves, serfs, forced to fight, who quit the army in 1918, as they had no desire to die for the same Infernal Beasts who subjugated them for 900 years, and workers and peasants won the 1917-22 civil war with a few rifles, etc). The officers had little risk, just as today, the top brass sits in offices far away from any danger and have zero incentives to create zero violent crime and war, being exactly as corrupt as the Tsarist aristocratic military elites. The serial killer officers were doing that for 5 centuries sometimes (endless genocides to expand empire), so God found a way to end some of those monsters from hell, using Stalin (a psycho who attended seminary as a kid, got beaten by his alcoholic father a lot and then viewed violence as normal: Stalin also killed endless Poles, Romanians, Germans, etc and others, and yet these evil NATO animals still legalize, produce, deify on TV-music, promote alcohol, the main reason Stalin may have become so violent: due to demonic possession, NATO rulers (military brass) refuse to see the alcohol-Stalin genocides connection, since 80 million slaves dead in WW2 is not important vs getting drunk or high on alcohol, and the Entente Powers actually loved Stalin killing as many as possible, as they were not Americans, Brits, French, technically using spies to encourage that when possible to suggest it via carefully placed Jewish agents inside the "people's revolution paid by foreign powers to slaughter all engineers and everyone possible to collapse the empire". Absolute Power of the Military Terrorists creates Absolute Genocide, decade after decade, so the only way forward is the realization of the risk of all dying in 10 seconds one day due to a simple weapon test that kills all solar system people. Then God killed all 25 million soldiers who wanted to kill others, i.e. to enroll in the military, via WW2. Why enroll in armies led by demonic aristocrats who fill almost every popular movie, book and song with rape, drugs, alcohol and murder via their 100% control of all companies and agencies in each nation? WW2 was a tough death penalty to those following Satan (the Aristocrats posing as "benefactors" of humanity) instead of the God of World Peace in 3 months via the implementation of this book's every media, TV, movie, education, business policy to turn cannibal serial killing beasts into actual humans, who unlike cannibalistic rats, don't kill their own. What people forget is the atrocities by those 35000 officers over the centuries, son and grandson: terrorizing of the civilians of the Russian Empire or plain extermination. They used cannon fodder ☺☺puppy IQ workers☺ to wage their wars. They torture billions with impunity, so the workers need to stop this planetary terrorism by aristocratic militaristic royal families, clans and conmen gangs that basically slaughter the rest of humans. The Immortalists dissolve War Dept into Eternium, CIA-FBI into Immortality Nurturing Agency. who're the aristocrats? The guys who also run the military-industrial complex in every nation, plus a few other lower ranking mini aristocrats who're not always military or cop types.

Healing serene music, pleasant cheap videos, not just virtual reality expensive headsets, can also lower infractions, maybe by 96% as reported by ABC News. Recidivism is 60% for the jailes, 20% for the unjailed. Netherlands noticed that community service sentences reduce recidivism, while jail time increase it, so over 2004-2024, their prison population went down 40%, due to short sentences. 'Prison' time makes sense only for violent crimes, such as the trillions the USA cops, CIA-FBI-soldiers did. However, even for these psychopaths, it is unlikely they become better, they need eterni tone education, healing centers (something 1000 times nicer than prisons) and transformation into humans from brutes. Their psychopathic mental illness is hereditary and imposed at gunpoint by bandits (due to inciting 2 billion people to violence indirectly and telling them lies without any evidence to attract donations while humanity collapses due to wars) disguised as pastors who deify violence and cruelty, in tone and scripture as the 1400 violent quotes of the Bible brainwash them all. The pastors have the military support of religious fanatics who run our government and promote scientific fraud and fake miracles. Once a culture of psychopathy emerged millennia ago, it created DNA that created violent cultures, so the negative feedback cycle continues until people realize the sources of these genes and cultures.

USA is a Bible psychopathy culture of infinite violence, so USA got 16 times more prisoners per capita than the Zen Japan society where Bible is thought of as made up. ☻☻☻☻☺☻☻

The bandits who run USA and UK for 980 years (read their laws since 1349, 3 pages, same royal family and the 200 aristocratic families run the show in UK and in US (plus a few slightly different families)) allow politicians and conmen clergy to swear on and promote the Bible, a horrific manual for depravity, slavery, subjugation, feudalism, terrorism and genocide that claims God wants his disciples to commit genocide, human sacrifice, mass rape, etc: Bible/Torah beatings quotes (kids, workers, sex slaves) like the Quran beatings (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives). Culture is created by psychopathic scriptures too. Mythologies have different levels of violence and cruelty to them, the Jesus cult is torture rich, the religion is centered around violence around the hero, the psychopaths who invented it wanted that to enslave all workers abused by aristocrats, and make suffering at the hands of these royals and conmen aristocrats a virtue, and emulation of Jesus the fictional son of fiction by genocidal aristocrats. Iceland, got 16 times fewer prisoners/capita than USA: they're far less religious, have only 4% Catholics. Iceland crime rates are so low too vs USA. Norway got 10 times lower incarceration rate and homicide rate than USA, due to some prison reforms in 1980s that took recidivism from 80% to 25% today, 3 times lower than USA's 75%. Norway, Iceland and Nordic prisons are way nicer than USA, actually, some are nicer than condos some live in the USA, free law abiding people. This makes prison a more healing period of rest there, leading to lower recidivism of course. For 7 centuries, the British Royals and their aristocratic friends (200 families from Normandy, France, who were given most land in UK by William the Conqueror) passed mutilation and execution laws to punish the enslaved peasants (99% of Brits) for simple things such as trying to recover from terrible serfdom and trying to take a break, maybe be jobless for a while. These same murderous psychopaths who still rule the UK-USA could not create an 11 company system of 0 unemployment, 0 aristocrats, with all employed a little in jobs that spread the stress evenly, so maybe 40 hours a week max (workers can choose 5 hours a day, 7 days a week or 8 hours a day 5 days a week) for ALL positions, 30 minimum: they simply worked peasants to death and then they beat them till blood came out if they didn't find a job with a factory, that often was not available. Welcome to UK Royals values, so common in royal families. Besides the smiles and media glitter, lies the murderous reality, so evident to any sensible person watching the grotesque London parades, where horses and shouts of guards, resembling Hitler yelling, selfish sports are more important than gentle tender soft nurturing healing kindness, single family homes for all. Check out UK music exported worldwide. Today, London is hiding behind endless banks, as do their criminal friends in USA who need 4500 banks to loot, beat, subjugate and enslave every American. This subjugation was done by the nobility, with the blessing of clergy in every monarchy almost worldwide. In Germany, aristocratic clans "only" need 1500 banks to loot, subjugate and enslave Germans. These historical traditions of violent murderous psychopathy fully explain the rampant police-military-spies violence against US/foreign citizens. Folks without a job (unemployed) are only present in modern fake societies with fraudulent stock markets and aristocrats making 50000 times more than others. Unemployed have time for scams. The 11 companies system ends all time to scam people, engage in gang activities.

The whole USA justice system was a mere British tool for maximum enslavement of the workers, non-Brits or for pure extermination, so it is different than Norway or Finland. Skeptics doubt this, but look at the way Brits treated people they enslaved: murder. This was the cruel way of the empire for 1000 years, so the US justice system needs huge reforms to get rid of British psychopathy, which they learned from the psychopathic Bible shoved on UK by Italy thru the genocidal wars of the Roman empire. The entire West suffers from Bible induced mental illness, cruel psychopathy. This is evident to any mentally healthy observer who watches the Western music. Once the West realizes Jews/Italians conned them for 2 millennia, they can discard the Bible/Torah and embrace basic kindness, such as that described in the first page of the Immortalist Anthem. Tao Te Ching or Dhammapada Buddha scripture are so peaceful, vs the Bible. The difference explains it all. It's important to question these things, since out of control covert violence can lead to Hiroshima Nagasaki like events, with future Hiroshima being a new weapon that kills only people and covers the whole North America core (USA and some Mexico and Canada) and Nagasaki the strike that takes out the whole EU. 2 strikes, 1 billion dead in 2 minutes, NATO gone. Is that why they spread the violent Bible? Some in the West always think we're the superior ones, but we're savages vs future humans. When you praise a Bible that calls for genocide, such continental strikes are a mere application of the Bible preached worldwide.

To achieve fairness, and true scientific conclusions about what works and what doesn't work to reduce crime a trillion fold when we change some things, we need to eliminate the 1 million confounding factors, as in nutrition studies, where you adjust for many parameters. The issue today is that we can't adjust for education differences due to 1 million tones of teachers and styles of teaching, 1 million parental tones and styles of parenting, 1 million languages and accents and dialects, etc 1 million banks, 1 million this and that. We need a uniform, equal opportunity, the best for everybody system not just 0.1%, detailed in the English as only official language section. When all get same opportunity, there is no more complaint possible, all know it's fair and nobody can cheat anymore, not even pastors telling people lies without any scientific data to support their claims. We eliminate fraud and aristocratic parasitism in all fields of endeavor, education, business, religion, etc. The youth of the world is amazed at our integrity and realize even religions were often made by aristocrats to increase the efficiency and scope, breadth and yield of theft from 7 continents. As such they join the global immortalism wave and no longer support wars and criminal covert attacks on other countries or attempts to create crime in other countries, since finally, a just nation with a kind gentle ethos emerges. We can't lower crime a trillion fold without first bringing World Peace, as other nations will hire 1 million spies to start crime in our country. So, many reforms need to occur simultaneously as the governments implement the global state of emergency to reduce violent crime via UN Treaty, meaning more similar laws to give a clear signal to transnational gangs that their end is near.

Telepathy Diffusion (perhaps far less damaging than bad stuff in media, music, etc) is totally different from synthetic telepathy, being a phrase used to describe the process thru which, even in a world of mortals, if guy Reader reads a newspaper in London today, about some guy Slammer who slammed a door and woke guy Awoken as a result, making the sleep of guy Awoken worse and causing guy Awoken to be tired at work next day and make a mistake that leads to some damage to an industrial machine for example and maybe someone being hurt. What happens if the people look to find the culprit for the industrial machine breaking, they will blame the guy Awoken. But a very nuanced and observing Immortal knowing exactly what has occurred will know and understand that the human way of seeing things, lacks the Trillion Quadrillion Years of Wisdom and Experience, so as a femtosecond baby, the human assigns blame to someone who did not really deserve the blame. But this is not Telepathy Diffusion, this is the beginning of explaining it. What diffusion is when this Reader guy reading the newspaper about this story in a park, accidentally without wanting has his story picked up telepathically partially by a visitor from US who visits London that day in that park or even from miles away due to some unknown resonance. It's a quantum entanglement of brain images if we could call it that way, where the exact meaning and details are not always transferred fully. But as we're visual brains, the American has for some brain reasons, happening even in healthy people, this story of Slammer and Awoken in his mind, and the story plays now and then. Months later, American is back in his town in America and the story plays like a blurred less clear memory and he doesn't recognize the source of that idea, thinking it's a fresh idea, so in a circumstance his subconscious mind will believe he's the Slammer, just as people who read a book 10 years ago believe they're the reincarnation of that person 10 years later when doing a past life regression. Because of this, he identifies with the Slammer in his brain and decides it's a good idea and slams a door and causes similar trouble almost unconsciously. What can occur is also someone picking up an image without identifying with it subconsciously, finding that image or thought as a good idea (due to weaker moral strength), even if it is bad. One doesn't even need to get to the stage of unconsciously identifying with the action, just the "bad idea, event" coming into awareness and someone picking it up randomly deciding it's a "good thing to try". In this circumstance, nothing really that bad happened, but in other circumstances, things far worse than slamming a door can be diffused and who is to blame? The movie creator who created a movie where people are unkind or slam doors, the journalist who created the story, the guy who read the newspaper months ago and accidentally we read his mind without realizing, or the slammer? As one ponders on multiple diffusions, one can easily see that when a bad act occurs as a result of bad upbringing and Telepathy Diffusion and violence in media, TV speech, tone of speech, the most ethical system of healing☺☺☺ and restoration can't put the blame on Slammer, but on the whole humanity who created all circulating thoughts too, even if mainly the blame belongs to 900 than the whole humanity. So, the question arises, what is an ideal way to fix things when mistakes happen? The next section tries to summarize possibilities.

5.1.3. Consequences of Telepathy & Media/Music Diffusion: WHO DOES THE CRIMES?

Who is the Real Doer: the entire civilization or 1 guy? 500 people fined, enrolled in ethics courses (listen to 500 hours of ethics on earphones, then test speech tone) or 1 guy? System changed or just treat symptoms (not the causes: housing, food, culture, music) by scapegoating workers?

The Immortals, our descendants if you will, having seen the effects of Telepathy Diffusion explained above and being even more unified, empathic, telepathic and kind to each other than human mortals are, understand that when something bad happens the real doer is their ENTIRE CIVILIZATION, not an individual. Thus, no jails exist, only healing centers (for violent crime) initially, later all healing done from home if home, neighborhood has a high vibe (if not, special far less restrictive healing centers can exist until all live in decent neighborhoods) and violent crime is 0 globally. Why do we need these cruel prisons, which don't achieve anything (they don't even give people eterni loving tone, only yells, even in the best cleanest ones, so how can people learn to be loving, if all they get is bad tones? Healing centers replacing jails gives all an opportunity to do some labor, contribute to society in exchange for better living conditions. It would be far more productive and far less damaging for the human quantum field. The culprit for crime is mainly the government who fails to create preventive programs: peaceful kind compassionate eterni tone, rhythm and lyrics music, free of copyright, at music.gov, filtering criminal ideas and un eterni tones from music, TV-radio, literature, daily emails since birth (for parents before conception, for kids since age of 5 months, 1 minute, gentle tones, basic words like gentle, explained via a video) about ethics topics and Immortals' qualities, creating videos, street signs with "gentleness, music etc", etc that nurture compassion for all, helping all understand every human, even at age 70 is like a 3 day old baby compared to an Immortal and we don't really punish 3 day old babies for spilling a cup of milk so we can't really punish anyone, only educate and heal (have them watch videos on qualities that evoke compassion for 10 weeks*, etc and help them build gentle tender soft nurturing loving healing kindness. Look at* this video of a Norway prison (relaxing apartment), or Finland one, and compare it with USA (see the violence). See another explanation. Lifetime labor sentence (happy job one loves, that fits national needs, picking veggies sometimes too; it would be more humane than this labor, but those who traffic drugs that kill need to contribute something, in exchange for housing, food, etc, it's only fair and it's not slavery as some say, unless there is abuse of overwork in heat, limit work to 40 hours a week, etc) for any violent crimes by teens (including slaps by pastors or spanking (causes aggression & anti-social behavior) by parents) in a healing sealed normal life city (except no internet, to avoid contact and mafia activity) would reduce violent crime 1 million fold, and even 1 billion when combined with new music, literature, news, new education guidelines. We can't have people sit and do nothing, as they will start forming gangs and planning escapes, and become a drain on the nation. If they want to live, and get free housing, free food, etc, they need work to pay for it. It's only fair, after damaging the nation, to not get free housing/food and use time to create gangs.

ANIMALS COMMIT VIOLENT CRIMES: Most US violent crimes are done by the gov who teaches, encourages, creates violence by its terror, torture and laws that allow violent media. These monsters take humans and turn them into animals by the very system of eternal slavery of 200 nations they created. Bandits rule USA. They hide 99% of violent crimes. The animal government doesn't implement the 11 companies model to ensure all have a job, nor the 5 separate parts of the paycheck that can only be used for 1. food, 2. shelter, 3. clothing, 4. health 5. personal care (shampoo, soap, toothpaste, etc), etc so that nobody runs out of money and is thus made to steal or rob someone. It's imperative to create a human government who gives all a safe income and helps low IQ folks manage their finances to prevent running out of money for basic necessities. Much of all crime happens due to lack of money. Unemployed people have nothing to do, so they join criminal networks, gangs, mafias, etc. Only a genocidal government creates unemployed people. We have to prevent crime before it happens via the 11 companies system: all are employed always. These criminal gangsters called US government today are of a genocidal psychopathy that is astounding. Not only do these serial killers commit billions of violent crimes of torture with invisible weapons, but they create economic crises that cause people to become unemployed and fend for themselves, when it's the government's duty to ensure all have a job to pay for food, shelters, and basic expenses. On top of that, these beasts award themselves salaries 15 times higher or even 25 times than minimum wage at the federal level (7.25/hour since 2009), for regulating the very criminal Wall Street that makes life on Earth a pure hell, regulated so little that banditry rules every city and violent crime is a trillion times higher than it should be. The criminal banks are regulated by ultra corrupt fiendish conmen who award themselves 15 times the federal min wage. USA got 200 Generals that make 15 times minimum wage too. But millions of people make more than 15 times, including many doctors. Some realtors make 75 times more or 200 even. These bankers make even more than that of course, sometimes 1500 times more than the minimum wage. How can an ethical government allow the Wall St wolves to loot the masses like that? The ultra corrupt Congress, also give themselves 11 times the minimum federal wage. Mayors and other local government mafias often award themselves salaries 50 times the minimum wage at the federal level. University Presidents, 100 times the minimum wage, actors that teach violence via roles in movies, film producers that turn everyone into an animal etc can make well over 100 times too, for DEMONIC violence IS REWARDED WELL, CEOs even 1000 times or 5000 times, and if stocks go into account, way higher than 5000 times. A study found that right wing fanatics killed 6 times more people over a few decades than left wing fanatics. Sadly, a lot of these "deaths" are staged, faked, as videos, if any existing, clearly indicated everything could have been faked with spray red paint and video editing and the whole set of fakery strategies used in Hollywood movie creation. They show a video of a red spot (alleged area of bullet impact), then guy falls off his chair in an unnatural way as if launching himself away from cameras, then people gather there and video cuts off as they never show the details to fool people into thinking he's dead. This then is used to launch a national campaign against "the half of USA who supported the killing", in order to give aristocratic terrorists another reason to tighten the chains around everyone's neck. Since the rich control covertly both parties, both left and right wing killings are used as made up reason to oppress the working class, even if nobody even died, but it was all staged to appear so. Now they have a reason to go after anyone who has independent thought and realizes both Democrats and Republicans are the same party: Aristocratic Thieves party. People are distracted by emotions and impulse, unable to see behind the smokescreen the great deception of 250 years, that really keeps everyone on a tight leash with the fake elections.

You see, in America wolves and bloodsuckers rule, every inch of local, state and federal government and of "private business". The whole thing is run by criminal British and Jewish bandits looting the American people. So, when you have violence at such high levels, institutionalized, with 5 million cops, CIA, FBI, soldiers to torture anyone who criticizes these people who make Hitler or Mao seem like "normal", you can't have low violent crime, for people become ultra enraged at the criminality and infinite violence of the very government that preaches we should be all following the ultra violent law of infernal injustice and banditry. Thus, we immortalists, aware of the demonic nature of Demon-crats (Republicans in disguise) and Re-pub-lic-ans, who lick alcohol all day in pubs they created to increase violent crime 5 fold, want to *create a non*violent government*, where none of these scumbags that have looted* America for so long can make more than 3 times the minimum wage, including every CEO in USA. When you do that 3 times max only the most virtuous and immortalist type of ethics guy will become CEO, today only the most evil becomes a CEO. These serial killer career ultra violent infernally violent criminals in US government don't deserve a pay cut, but also removal from position, for they're terrorists that make Osama Bin Laden look "normal", for indeed they created the terrorists at the CIA to plunder various nations. 99% of responsibility for a violent crime done anywhere in the world is with 99% of humanity who doesn't care at all about ending violent crime in 3-5 years. It's not with the doers, who're victims of an infernally selfish society void of any tender gentle compassion. Until people realize that every parent, gov creating bad schools via decentralization, etc, every musician, actor, news anchor not using immortalist tone is inciting and contributing to the mayhem, there is no way to end violent crime worldwide in a few years. We also got cow IQ liar pastors brainwashing billions that 0 war or crime will only happen in some far future. To preach garbage like "When Jesus comes back in a trillion years, peace will reign" is genocide. The evil of 'communism' and Russia' current government can't be better revealed to humanity than the torture that these monsters calling themselves human are doing in the black dolphin prison. These animals who controlled half the planet are so removed from God and the Immortalist Anthem, that they fill TV with hate daily and can't admit they're 99% responsible for violent crimes in Russia. The only reason the inmates did those things is because of the criminal Russian government flooding the media, radio, TV, literature with thoughts, words, etc of violence, killing and bad tones, which affected teachers, parents, etc and led to violent thoughts. The Gulag lives on, the fake heartless Putin claims to be a Christian, but Jesus said to give shelter, not torture cell, to all, to fix the mistakes of 50 million Russians killed by Jewish/Russian commie psychos, of the educational system, of everything. The same tragedy happens worldwide and in USA: the masses live under the hypnotic trance of evil aristocrats who entice USA to spend 1.4 trillion/yr on useless stuff instead of on ending violent crime in 3 years via real education/shelter (no jails). Scapegoating all the evil of the 99% on some killers the 99% neglected is as bad as murder itself. And if God exists, he will know who is the real murderer, and often it's the aristocrat at the top.

If kids are being mean (impossible with the new educational system with ethics lessons every day till age 25), playing loud music or doing obviously unethical actions, the parents can dial 111 to ask the help of a child specialist or child healer who will explain to the kid the suffering he brings to others via a video sent to watch and via a talk, like a 3 minute response time from cops, these specialists, not angry with the child, would be able to defuse the situation and prevent violence from the child or parent – parents can't have a healing eterni tone when angry and will only make things worse. We need replace VIOLENCE, so deified in every institution on Earth via the Violent Bible-Quran-Torah, with education and communication, healing and soothing music and other technologies or methods, even letting a kid or person relax, sleep, and rest for 1 day, to defuse anger. While it's easy to spank or slap, this leads to genocides, later, as we saw, Hitler, Stalin, Mao had a lot of early violence against them. The aristocrat run concentration camps in 200 nations (based on the psychopathic Bible who deifies violence against kids, workers (gentile slaves) and foreign nations to be exterminated) have created a system of jungle individualism and selfish depravity that leads to cruelty against children and to suicides, as these kids become adults. To the shock of many, the homicide rates you always hear in the news about don't contain the suicides, which often are 10-20 times higher than the violent homicides referring to killing other people. In Israel, suicide to homicide rate ratio is 1:1, in Russia/USA 2:1, in Germany, it is 16:1, indicating a much kinder German civilization, where on doesn't kill others to vent his anger, as homicides are 8 times lower/capita than Israel. In USA suicide by guns outnumber homicides by gun. In Australia, 82% of gun deaths are suicides. Australia, Canada, France, Poland, Russia, USA, due to drinking 20 times more alcohol per capita than Oman, have a suicide rate 10 to 20 times higher than Oman. Alcohol destroys the brain and makes people hate themselves. 70% of violent crime and suicide happen after alcohol use, it's a catastrophe. Therefore, it is imperative for Universal Immortality Inc to create a new mental health website, happy.gov that asks all citizens to kindly answer every week 20 questions to gauge the level of happiness and desire to live to a trillion years old and to provide feedback to the immortalist government, so that people are helped and feel very loved, with healers immediately dispatched discreetly in that person's life; offers paid holidays to learn happy breathing to avoid drinking; this is ultra critical for people with fewer kids and friends to check on how much they drank. We want people to trust the government, to be honest, so we all help our planet prevent 0.7 million needless deaths. The happier people never commit suicide and want to live forever. Miserable people can't wait to die. So, based on statistical data, a correlation will be made: those with scores < 50 are 100 times more likely to commit suicide than those with scores > 500. Thus, the immortalist government goal is to bring the global suicides on Earth from 700000 today to 0. These insane rates of violence are a contributor to the 10 second end of all humans by future weapons, when a suicidal general decides to wipe out all humans. Therefore, the first priority of government is to bring suicide rates and violent crimes to 0, to end slaps, violence against children by lifetime labor penalties for parents. Circumcision (5-25 weeks of pain nobody talks about) is almost no different than stabbing, and a horrific violent crime, a contributor to 700000 suicides, as is any corporal punishing and needs be banned. We see a lot of Muslim countries that have suicide rates 5x of non circumcision nations. Saudis, where all religions are banned except Islam, have 7 times the suicide rate of Oman.

Singapore was a British colony and, to control Chinese rioters, in 1872 Brits introduced canning (beating with a cane) as a penalty, opting for violence, instead of education or fines. Sadly, Singapore uses beatings by cane today in school, prisons and military, but this may change if immortalism ideals spread worldwide and drown British terrorism. Decent people, who dislike the British genocide by gun blowing people, also dislike these beatings deified in the evil Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or the evil Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives). The British Empire, like many others, is known for its history of violence and militant promotion of the psychotic violence in the Bible (this is true for all Christian nations who never know the bad quotes and promote the Bible), thru the fraud based Anglican Church. Thus, immortalists want to move away from it and only use death penalty (fake or real, lifetime labor in a sealed city, but tell public he was killed) for violent crime of all else (described in this chapter) fails to eliminate violent crime fast, without any other corporal punishment ever legalized. See how Royals view fairness in UK, unequal protection of UK citizens vs Royals and aristocracy, unequal justice for all, jailed for anti-immigration stickers while rapists not in jail, jailed for a post that may offend the Royals or UK gov becoming the actual law (use pretext to arrest people for something else, but actually being for criticizing the royals or gov). The UK will soon say "Don't worry, the Bible OKs anything these guys do, if Jews control everything in UK, let us all worship them". UK jails people for watching an anti-UK gov protest? Or for making a post on facebook, while violent crimes in UK never get death penalty? Isn't that something odd? So, why is the UK Royal family not jailed, after blowing people by gun, via ancestors, and after inciting people to violence via beatings deified in the evil Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or the evil Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives)? Why are the UK people enslaved, homeless, raped by illegals, tortured by illegal immigrants?

Why are Australian slaves of the UK Royals homeless, see Aussie mom with kids living in tents (another lady with kids in tent) or cars and Australians eating from garbage bins. Why not give single homes for all? The homeless people of UK, Canada, Australia, NZ, USA (mom with kid in tent) roaming aimlessly on streets, in cars, tents, etc with kids, etc deserve better, why not give immortality capitalism a chance? For 1000 years UK has had this monarchy and passed some cruel laws… This feudal energy created UK-US-NZ-AU-CA as they're today. Give them at least a decent condo, studio or townhome for the poorest? Romanians are homeless, yet UK Royals buy 10 houses in Romania that sit empty. Reminds us of alleged extermination of fellow Caucasian Irish. Is that fair? After 100+ mini and big genocides in 1000 years, can we trust the UK royals? The odd thing with the system today is that they never seem to be serious about reducing crime, with Brits creating the most evil and demonic music and exporting it worldwide for decades. We immortalists want to reduce violent crime 1 billion fold and we don't want to pollute the quantum field with beatings and violence, to strengthen the genetic memory of that, as CIA-MI6 duo do all the time via endless torture of tens of millions of people. We want humans to evolve past cannibalism, so widely promoted covertly by the rituals of the Catholic and other Christian churches. When a person dies, they're dead and that's it, the 20 seconds of dying don't pollute the quantum field much, but when one is beaten or tortured and still alive, that experience causes violent emotion, pollution in the quantum filed that is 10^9 x greater, as that person will always recall it and recreate it. So, what USA, NATO, UK are doing is even worse than genocide.

The phony talk of "we abolished death penalty" in EU is a mere scam, since their spy agencies, military, priests, etc are supporting torture, beatings and terror inflicted on millions of people, causing the equivalent of tens of thousands of death penalties every year, but not a quick one, just the worst kind that destroys the human quantum field 1 trillion times more. Their reign of terror is far worse than that of many dictators whose countries they annihilated. Behind the so called “human rights” lie the hidden atrocities and chimp violence, under the unholy support of the Catholic Church and its demonic tradition of Inquisition that lives on thru the "Congregation of the Holy Office of the Inquisition” in 1965 renamed into the less scary, easier to hide, Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith until 2022, when they reverted to a scarier name Dicastery for the Doctrine (brainwashing without proof) of the Faith (dikasterion means law court or court of law in Greek) to Hide its history of wars and violence, using churches as military bases to spy on other nations, destroy their intellect, cultures and subjugate them, like Mussolini killed 200+K, following the footsteps of former Popes and Roman Emperors, who, in their typical brutality, killed 6000 slaves in one strike, just as Christianity soaks the planet in eternal violence thanks to its cannibalistic chimp energy, evident in its ultra violent scripture, which is 100% Jewish and where most violence is from the Jewish Torah itself (Old Testament). Sadly, Christians who never read the Bible, don’t realize Islam is nothing but a denomination of Christianity, an offshoot of the Bible, a rewriting of the Bible bad quotes priests hide from us.

As we see from the current system, violent crime offenders do it over and over, being used by aristocrats and various groups with mind control tech or by gangs to attack various groups. It's very similar to how USA destroys the citizens of enemy and allied citizens via torture. The US does it again and again, destroying endless people, decade after decade… So, it is not surprising that aristocrats don’t support the end of violence within the USA, as it is the tool of global terror by aristocrats. All nations need to consider this “lifetime labor” (happy eternal service to all) for violent crimes, so violent crime ends in 3-10 years. Unless a slap or spanking (causes aggression & anti-social behavior) will one day be viewed as murder is today, there is no hope for civilization to ever emerge. We got a lot of extreme violence terrorist cells worldwide, disguised as mosques, synagogues and churches who call for violence indirectly, as quotes detailed here (genocide, mass rape) show. Clergy say the advice to beat kids with rods (Bible), or beat kids (Quran) for not praying the Mohamed way when there are 5 trillion ways to pray, 1 alternate prayer way being here, beat slaves (Bible), beat wives (Quran) is the Word of God, which is a contributor to violent crime: the clergy indirect instigation to beatings and violent crime, by tacit approval of such quotes and miracles fraud. The cultures in other countries with other religions that don’t specifically call for violence against kids are also very violent in practice, with parents spanking and abusing kids all the time. So, we don’t need just to ban evil scriptures, but evil cultural trends too. So, why do terror groups get tax free status, why is it legal for pastors to say it’s ethical to beat kids and commit child abuse? Why are these religions legal? Why are the 400000 churches in USA not prosecuted for fueling violent crimes? We see millions of cases where kid beatings end up with parents being dead or kids taking that anger from the tense family situation out into the world onto other people they attack or kill with guns. These same evil demons disguised as clergy also praise the Gun Ownership by all psychopathic parents, whose guns are then taken by the kid from the box and used to kill the parent who hit the kid, like this 7 minute report of the kid who killed his parents and siblings due to dad bullying and hitting him several times. The ideal way to remove pathological desires to hit kids, which teach kids that Violence is the "ONLY or major or an acceptable WAY to inspire a different behavior in kids or subordinates or other people (which leads to Inquisition and endless torture and genocides later on globally)", is to prosecute it with LIFETIME LABOR in a Healing City where the parent is relieved of the stress of being a parent and can develop kindness for the rest of his life while working 40 hours in a low stress job (so he can improve the gentleness of his thoughts/feelings) in that city or until all violent crime is 0 and all offenders who pass the 'Violent Offender Immortality Test' are released. Lifetime labor away from society is kind and much better than sitting in a jail cell, due to enabling the parent to grow into an angel and to heal the human quantum field by listening to eterni music and achieving the peace via eterni breathing that he lacked as a stressed parent, while sitting in a jail is a burden for society and his negative thoughts contaminate all humanity. To prevent extreme mental breakdown and lashing of parents at kids, it's essential all parents get 222 weeks off. Without 10 hour of health and ethics on TV daily, without eterni tone on TV, with the present Hitler like tones of speech on TV, we can't create that very gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kindness VIBE needed to make everyone composed, happy, tranquil and well behaved. Also, kids deserve a nonviolent parent and the healing cities of lifetime labor are 50000 times nicer than a jail today and parents would be afraid of being removed from the family forever and abstain from being a bipedal hyena hitting his/her kids. The Bible Yahweh 'demon' and Quran Allah 'demon' are human scribe hallucinations of a 'god' in their own image, who believes in genocide, mass rape as a way to Spread the Illogical 0 IQ Religion of the 0 IQ Scribe, who advises parents to use violence to get the kids to do something now that the impatient parent wants without first trying to call the Immortality Nurturing Agency for help with a kid behavioral issue, without first trying 20 of the billion trillion peaceful methods to any behavioral outcome that God, not the Bible/Quran 'demons', KNOWS. May we ever so ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ ask all eternal shimmering shapeshifting souls why are millions of pastors allowed to say 1450 Bible calls to violent crime, mass theft, genocide, mass rape are the Word of God? Isn't that the definition of a terrorist or conman clergy, who tells all to kill, steal, rape, arson, to ignore the '10 commandments' Why are they hiding the 1450 bad quotes from Catholic Churches, that have no Bibles, just Missals? Even long lived aliens who're not Immortals, even earth humans of more loving religions (who try to save even fish from death) are 9000 times kinder than the imaginary God of the Bible, Torah (part of Bible) and the Quran. Online churches are enough, the clergy are ultimate frauds who charge people lots of money to destroy their families & planet. In reality, all we need is ethics.gov with the Immortalist Anthem, 5-350 million 10 page scriptures written by all interested Americans for USA to enjoy, plus instant bliss by breathing methods ☺☺☺☺☺☺.

Let's be real, if you have a society where working 1 hour gives someone 20000$, and another 1$, will there be more incentive to steal by the 1$ wage worker than in a society where the gap between min and max pay is only 3 fold not 20000 fold? Of course, so, all this talk about "reduce crime and reduce this" is pure garbage, if one guy can perform industrial theft from everyone and others can't do it. To eliminate all forms of crime, not just violent, which is easier to eliminate via education, one needs to have a fair society. The guy was born lucky to attend, not of his own virtue, some school, got promoted, made 20x salary, but someone didn't get access to the same education (no centralized education exists, as in immortalism), so had no way to get that 250K job, he makes 25K. It's not that that guy is a genius, he just had more opportunity. Equal opportunity = equal crime. See, rich people don't steal as they're happy, why rob anyone if they got 500x more $? To remove all theft, violence you need to make all feel rich, so nobody wants to steal anybody's stuff. That means the 11 companies make everyone roughly equally rich, via the Immortality Credit Score system. Via immortalist breathing, everyone is equally happy, and this happiness is higher than sex by 1 million fold at least, so then nobody wants to rape anyone, since they're taught since birth that meditative bliss is infinite happiness, they know how to be happy, how to avoid anger and negative emotions and sex is viewed as a very painful activity, a chore done once or twice to have 1-2 babies, meaning sex is for procreation only, unlike the demonic teachings of the Christian, Hindu, Muslim and other religions. To extirpate the demonic Bible, Quran, Talmud, Bible, Gospel, we need to educate all about the Truth that the 0 IQ Mohamed, Jesus, Moses, Jews had not known: there is a happiness out there, generated in the human brain, that is far higher than anything those malnourished heat struck scribes in 100°F Jerusalem weather could experience, or the 125°F Mecca Mohamed rapist could experience. It's the eternal bliss cosmic happiness experience, easier to experience in a more mild weather of Northern India where many of the Upanishads were written (re: cosmic bliss) before Buddha copied this nirvana idea, that ends all desire to "taste foods, have sex, hit any kids, or to have 30 concubines and 11 wives" like sex maniac Mohamed, etc. We need to educate the human animal and help him evolve his brain out of the cannibal chimp architecture that only knows cannibalism, like in cannibal classical capitalism. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Today, the real criminals are free and the victims of their crimes are in jail. Why is it so? Well, the system creates criminals, by the tone of education classes (ethics starts in nursery school, with the tone of the teacher, the online classes in school (if some taken online), etc, the 1 million educational systems instead of 1 high quality tone one, the tone of music, the lyrics of music, the crimes in literature and movies, the way people are being paid 50000 times more than others for doing nothing else than sometimes committing genocides that kill 100 million workers last decades on Earth, as with cigarette company CEO mass murderers who're never in jail, or subtler genocides by redirecting national resources to useless harmful businesses that actually shorten human lifespan versus spending on basic needs: decent food and shelter, as with Immortality Building Inc and Eterni Food Inc. The palace dwelling aristocrats tell us that we need endless bottles of alcohol in every grocery store and endless liquor stores, when there is no evidence you can live to 150 by drinking alcohol, in fact many centenarians never drank alcohol. Meditation or even simple breathing can give people bliss much higher than alcohol, weed or nicotine, yet this is not taught on TV, because free workers is not on the agenda of aristocrats, only sick and brain damaged workers. Yet, 3 million are dead due to alcohol each year and it causes endless unreported violent crimes, billions each week, so, these criminals who fuel these genocides and cultural genocides are allowed to be free and sell their poison. They even use a made up religion and fake miracles to boost sales. How about indicting all nicotine and alcohol sellers of violent crimes? A lung attack on smokers and nearby inhalers of second smoke, is a violent crime that is ignored. All non-smokers are also being violently attacked by second hand smoke, which causes irritation, lung damage and nobody is held accountable: the rich aristocrats laugh as workers attack workers: down with the imperialists. The militaries ought to raze all tobacco crops worldwide in 3 days☺☺☺ by planetary tandem decree (all governments agree to it, as with World Peace in 3 months and 1 billion times lower violent crime in 10 years), as well as all grapes for alcohol. Same for casinos, vape stores, smoke shops, strip clubs, sex festivals (lifetime labor if caught), brothels. Grow blueberries instead, which have a lot more antioxidants than the darkest grapes. All smokers can be prepared for months by taking happy breathing and planetary compassionate meditative breathing exercises classes (online videos at education.gov) to achieve bliss higher than orgasm even. Half violent crimes are done by drunk or semi-drunk☺☺☺ people, so how can an ethical government not prosecute those who make and sell alcohol? Why are they allowed to cause violent crime? Why are people drinking alcohol if it supports 50 billion crimes a year, mostly unreported and endless wars coming from local violence making everyone violent? All antioxidants in wine and others can be found in grapes and 100 other foods in higher levels. Alcohol per se can be prescribed medically for those who tried 50 other things first. Likewise, the aristocrats brainwash Americans that we need 4500 banks, so they have 4500 aristocratic families who own these banks, give themselves/top people huge salaries at the expense of national development and progress. Due to these parasites, our innovation, scientific progress, etc are very low and falling. Because these leeches have sucked our blood for millennia, we take it for granted that we need more than 1 bank in every country. These devils have owned every government, spy agency and military (top echelons of the military, not the lower cannon fodder ones) and made money from every war (they planned to expand their banking family powers for big banks lending to small governments) and criminal activity. They work hand in hand with the security apparatus to destroy, torture to death and undermine every effort in every nation for the workers to get rid of the parasites and have World Peace. They're the never prosecuted criminals, far greater criminals than Osama Bin Laden or puppet dictators they create/install, the true terrorists and financiers of World Wars and all wars.

Today, the real criminals are free and the victims of their crimes are in jail. Why is it so? Well, who created 4500 banks to loot the 99%? The aristocrats. Who created 2 million systems of selling personal items to make money from intermediates, etc? The aristocrats. Who allowed anyone to sell a stolen item easily to others for cash and not be detected? The aristocrats. Who created huge income disparity that causes most theft due to basic needs not being met for many? The aristocrats. Who created open borders to bring in drugs and cheap slave labor for the rich? The aristocrats. Who thus created all theft in the USA? The aristocrats. Who created cash and cryptocurrencies so that all their criminal networks, gangs, spy agencies can go illegally, overthrow governments to steal everything, and enslave 200 nations? The aristocrats. Now you know why they oppose cashless society, it is so that they can do the most illegal things, create endless gangs to destabilize and ruin countries to steal everything in them, etc. With impunity, they go to a country and jail anyone who resists their system of global looting and subjugation, when they're the criminals who should be jailed. In the immortalist system all used or new items that you want to sell are sold via eterni.i (Amazon, craigslist, all used items thrift stores, marketplaces, online websites merged into one; they got a warehouse in every village or neighborhood where you sell item in 1 second with your barcode), or you can simply fill an online form with the item barcode, and it recognizes your ID and that you bought it and eterni.i truck will come pick up your item, thereby saving you a trip and by picking up 1000 items, used ones, they save tire particle pollution and electricity. They check you have bought that item the last time it was bought by anyone. No cash exists, anyone uses the one immortality card that is the bank card, the one and only credit-ATM-banking card that no aristocrat controls, drivers license and all other cards all into one. This card and the database with 900 years of prior receipts proves you own the item and that you can sell it. Likewise, with housing.gov, 1-4 day house sell/but/rent. The Immortality Party gently ends the aristocratic class forever, makes max salary 3 times the minimum to remove all incentives to steal (no more rich to steal from) and thus brings eternal end to all theft, since when fine for theft is 9000 times the amount stolen or 200 years community service (if you can't pay, since no loans are allowed by the one bank to pay criminal fines) on top of your 40 hour a week job, nobody will steal. If the person is an immigrant, they will be deported, if proven to have done the theft in purpose (not by accident, meaning not forgetting to check a small item at the self-checkout or something). Any violent crime, any drug dealing, would deport an immigrant instantly too if he's useless for lifetime labor sentence (no skills, etc, professional gangster), though in most cases death penalty applies to everyone for violent crimes even noncitizens if so implemented. This ends all violent crimes ultra fast. Naturalized citizens who commit violent crimes would also be deported after citizenship removed, if not executed or not given lifetime labor. Theft happens when people make 10-50000 times per hour more than others, in societies where wages are similar and everyone has a job, no cartels, gangs or theft can exist if laws are tough and ethics anti-theft and all education is free, eterni in tone, centralized and kind. Such a centralization was impossible before, because we didn't have youtube to create a video of the same tone and content for all science and subjects as explained in the education section, nor did we have the same one language in all schools, thus access to science papers (90% are in English). Thus, the criminal argument by fascists that "leftist run cities are high in crime" is a pure lie. ☺☺☺ We have never had universal education, universal tone, universal accent. Democrats are not leftists, they're fascists claiming to be leftist, since America never had a real leftist party, only scumbags pretending so. Half The aristo*crats* are democrats, because the democrats are not leftists, they're merely the soft fascists who aid the reign of terror of The aristo*crats*.

The American revolution was a pure scam that didn't change anything, except on the surface, the same mafias ruled the country: the aristocrats. Most of the important revolutionaries were spies from foreign nations and Britain who simply allowed 'different' aristocrats to game the system. Today, aristocrats meet at military-spy agencies they created to decide who the next puppet 'civilian' leaders of every state, city, and country will be. The elections are fake. The bankers help them with the moves. Same thing in every nation, elections are fake, political parties a way for aristocrats to deceive the masses, to create strife in every town, hate among worker groups, via Parliament fist fight, runs, head falls. Why do slaves have to wear an ankle monitor that can lead to leg amputation, when it could be something far safer, 50 times smaller so nothing can get caught and drag people into machines? GPS ankle monitors ought to emit very little RF, and only send data and be on every 9 min for 1 sec to avoid giving people cancer or other disease. Ankle monitors are fine, but the point of this chapter is that the real criminals are free: they're the aristocrats who setup society the way it is, with paid expensive education, so they have excuses to jail people, to subjugate all, incite all via music, media to crime. Jail the aristocrats, not slaves, or as we would say, send them to a healing center as all jails vanish. ☺ Abysmal IQ workers☺ wear their phone on to get cancer, and be the ankle monitored by the aristocrats. Airplane mode doesn't turn off GPS, a modern ankle monitor for slaves.

Immortalists could place in a healing center the violent crime offenders (sell, make alcohol, smoke products or attack people, etc), not in jails, so that people understand a crime is done by the entire society and 500 are fined, instead of one, and everyone has to attend ethics classes and etc in that family, neighborhood, company. This helps society to move towards creating positive vibes, towards addressing the cause, not a symptom (one guy does something), instead of more negative vibes by cruel punishing. Jails are pure torture in most places, so they damage all humans outside of jail too by quantum effects, they may damage it more than even a brief killing that is painless and causes no pain in others, due to the killed having no close friends or family. Cruel jails can destroy quantum field of humans, arouse anger, negative tones in judges, prosecutors, peers, etc and never treat the cause, the lack of empathy in government tone, music, culture, economy organization, efficiency implementation, etc. Instead of these diabolical prisons, all inmates live in a beautiful village, nicer than the colorful Disneyland, filled with gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kindness, each inmate in a tiny house (200 ft^2), with trees or bushes, a small 300 ft^2 backyard, and they can work in simple jobs, get nice vitamins (that US inmates don't get), with drones or people instructing them what to do, 0 wireless devices, in picking up veggies, demolishing condo complexes to make room for single family homes for all, mining lithium, stuff that is physical, since they engaged in physical violence and love physical stuff that others don't like. No internet access to prevent gang activity, no contact with family except via video and email twice a year (via a special room for internet access, one room for 1000 houses), for a total isolation of violent vibes from the planet's field. There is wired access to the intranet that has only eterni songs, ethics, values, videos on cooking lentils, growing produce in the backyard or community greenhouses, etc. Everyone needs to be fully transformed in these places, unlike today's system of 'becoming worse'. No gangs can exist, since everyone is separate and has to listen to immortalist music and ethics in the free time for the months or years there. Since aristocrats failed to give all proper education, now we give them a chance to learn what the state failed to teach, via 4000 hours of courses on ethics, meditation, speech, thought. The placement of these healing villages is strategic, near various areas where mines, produce picking, road construction, major works happen, and are so designed, that after 70 years of transition to a 0 violent crime society, they can be easily converted into single person family houses for people who're not yet married, so want a single studio or 1 bedroom type of house. This is the beginning of society having some basic ethics, since there is 50 times the space/materials for these healing centers. Since drugs kill people, since torture using invisible no contact passing thru walls "tasers, lasers, etc" and other devices kill people slowly, the "healing center" term for such things will vary from 10 to 900 years, for deterrence (90 year for drunk hitting of spouses), people need to be educated that violence drunk or not, is as bad as killing 50 people in the end, due to side or rollover effects next 10 millennia and ending a marriage is ethical in such cases,☺since Immortality for All is far more important than living with a thug.☺☺☺ However, since in other nations the free people live in terrible conditions, many will want to come to USA, push someone so they get to live in a nice place, since penalty for shoving someone is going to be at least 1 year, or more if near the metro line or dangerous area, when it can jump to 50 years for attempt to murder someone. However, with border wall of strong tech, nobody can come in and do this. Plus, it's not possible to replace all jails in 1 year, as people are simply too selfish to let go of sports and starting acting like kind adults instead of 3 year olds… and CIA-FBI too evil to make some decent movies and music aligned with the verses 8-40 of the Immortalists Anthem. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

To deter theft, we have max salary 2 to 6 times higher than minimum, eventually equal salary for all, via immortality capitalism and immortality credit score. Via elimination of 33 million companies, we bring 33 million science jobs, instead of parasitic redundant business, manager, sales, admin, HR, lawyer, judge jobs, so that we develop better housing tech via Immortality Building Inc, better food tech for all so all get basic nutrition and basic good sleep to live to 3000. Thieves steal construction materials, etc, but there is only one contractor the government who uses cameras on site, 24-7, so all construction site thefts will disappear, as fine is 9000 times the value of stolen goods. To deter theft, all taxes are gone eventually after we ban alcohol, smoking, etc, since all products and labor are service to the government and a tax paid to the government, as the government is the people and the people are the government, the 11 companies. We're all one big family of 350 million people. Everyone helps everyone live to 5 trillion years old. People walk the talk, single family houses for all to reduce theft and crime, instead of wasting 400000 places for empty talk about fake miracles and etc that is a lot more violent than the ethics.gov Immortalist Anthem and other poems. To reduce theft by pastors, we encourage online churches free of donation and everyone to become a pastor by creating their own youtube and recording eterni tone songs to elevate the vibe and democratize spirituality, instead of just the ultra violent Bible being the only thing all hear since age 1 thru Sunday school brainwashing. All foreign companies can only sell ultra high quality products, so that is the tax, the requirement to produce or sell the very best we can't make in our country yet, it's a tax. All prices are approved by the government, so that's the tax if you will. It's our country, so we can cap prices to whatever level for any product. We don't need trade with anyone. We're self-reliant. We keep theft to a minimum by eliminating the tax profession, and reducing 1 million fold the useless ones like "business, manager, admin, HR, lawyer, judge, cop, etc", thru automated systems and maximum democracy in action, not mere words. To deter theft of textbooks, we make all education free. It will be so good, all will learn English and choose our Immortality Tests for grade level graduation. To deter theft, as in bank robberies, or rich people stealing money others make by taking it as interest, we close all banks, and make one single online bank with a cashless society, Eterni Bank. To deter theft, while no jail is given, the fines are 9000 times the value of what is stolen. Of course, today it is not fair to implement such a system of subtracting half one's salary for next 40 years if one steals a car, as he tries to pay 9000 cars back to the government, because today, the whole society is a pure scam where billionaires commit cosmic scale theft and the 20% very poor and others are frustrated because they're not allowed to steal billions, not even 300$ worth of groceries. On top of that, for a billionaire, if someone steals or damages a car it's not an issue (like a poor losing 1$), but for others it is their life savings. Theft happens mostly because of INEQUALITY (so we must eliminate salaries 50000 times higher than the minimum to address the CAUSE of theft, not the symptoms), and because of the anger that INEQUALITY brings (a guy gets 50000 more money for pretty much the same effort, 50 hours a week). Theft and crime (gangs) also happen because of the mind control of intentionally sleep deprived people by spy agencies/militaries using gadgets of computer to brain thought suggestion. If all people have the same "religion" (honesty: we admit we don't have any scientific proof of the soul and afterlife dynamics, honesty: we admit we can create a society where all are kind and help each other live longer), same income (more or less, maybe 2-3 times bigger first), same education (centralized free education, no more "I am the superior Ivy League graduate, you're subhuman rats"), same culture, same language, same nationality (eterni, not 30 in EU), same Anthem, same family size, same etc, this reduces the US VERSUS THEM which creates the conditions for hate, theft, violence. Sadly, we're descendants of cannibal chimps, whose DNA is prone to violence, so everything immortalists do is creating the conditions to prevent that expression, including removing explicit scenes of violence, war, aggressive yells, tone, behavior.

To diminish theft, after all salaries are equalized to 1.5-5 times the minimum via the immortality credit score being the decider of what products one can buy, 100 trillion cameras (wired and LiFi to prevent WiFi radiation and wired too with various sounds (possibly scary and fear generating to scare the hell out of a thief) and light that when played deter "would be intruders" such as cop siren sounds, helicopter sounds, "You are being video recorded now, death penalty will be applied if you break into the house, etc", LiFi uses light, from the much more bright streets that have solar lights and endless free electricity from all buildings having the walls and roofs turned into solar panels, so basically LiFi can't penetrate the human body to damage it, like RF does) are installed in USA, so everyone knows everything is recorded at all times. This reduces deception and improves behavior. Since all get fines for all nonviolent crimes, and educational courses to complete, or community service at one of the 11 companies, there is no need of lawyers and judges, because all submit their videos (video of all nearby streets are available to the government and anyone who reports a crime) to reviews.gov allowing easy fining of the doer. We need science and engineering jobs, not admin, HR, business (33 million companies, all filing for litigation and needing 5 million lawyers and judges), and lawyers, judges jobs. Let all disputes be solved efficiently by a new profession called "healers" who interview all those who make complex crime reports or simple crimes, all evidence and decide with cops what happened and what is the most compassionate nurturing graceful way to rectify the mistake, so all 500 involved change, not just one scapegoat. For crime prevention, lifetime labor for violent crime reduces it 1 million fold. Also, we get to have all cars electric and connected via LiFi (WiFi only on streets with no light, though infrared light can be safe, being just a little warmth) to the Immortality Traffic System, allowing Immortality Nurturing Agency to stop any car instantly, as AI cameras detect a thief going into a car with stolen goods, he's caught in minutes by car no longer working. To deter theft and all forms of crime, the media is changed. In 2024, you can go to the main news site (top traffic website maybe in that nation if small) in several nations and all you see on the first 4-8 pages as you scroll is subtle programming to engage in criminal actions: the country has been 100% taken over by the Zion Elders, who program all to worship MONEY, and a lot of unethical actions. The articles brainwash people subtly to deify money, to want money, no matter how unethical, to love naked ladies, criminal sports, to love beating up other people (while not giving lifetime labor to all those smashing windows and throwing huge bricks that could kill nearby people) to love to engage in IQ lowering behavior like strip clubs, etc, to accept brothels as normal and to love to be near brothels ("which are better than pubs because they're not noisy", according to the 1 billion articles that try to legitimize sex outside procreation as something to be desired instead of something to move away from via happy meditative bliss), to normalize unhealthy surrogacy families, to normalize cheating and chasing after erotica with others in order to break up families and have more money made by divorce lawyers (often 'bad type of' Jews who enjoy helping gentiles divorce 5 times to screw kids as much as possible, so Jews can enslave them 10 times easier), to normalize violence via violent news *(it's the way they write it, making people feel hopeless, helpless, hey "domestic violence is natural, might as well do it yourself" kind of subtle cues, government can't stop it, they won't even try; they can even manipulate the statistics for any type of crime with flashy click baits like "20% of people do this horrific act", to make it sound like it happens 100 times more often, and then readers think "if everyone does it, I'll do it too", to create a national degradation of ethics)*, to incite people to criminal violence via violent tone music, violent movies, etc and to ignore in every article any ethical education content, any mention of gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kind grace, our higher nature or the benefits of meditation, gentle music, abstinence from sex, etc. Once everyone has become a soulless beast whose target is $ alone, they're a perfect puppet, able to do any genocide, contract killing or anything the Zion Elders or foreign spies want. USA, UK, Australia, Canada, EU, etc, same thing. The way the news are written/spoken today is nothing short of shocking. No solution is ever offered, how this will disappear in 3-15 years, how jails will disappear, anything. Everything is a pure scam. Politicians are mere puppets who recycle the same phrases while making no real change to anything, with the system perpetuating the same criminality and insanity forever. The main goal is to move people into arousal and thinking about sex and naked ladies or men always, instead of using their intellect to create an aristocrat free, war free, royals free, monarchy free, crime free, jail free society, where nobility can't incite people to violence. Why do we need these 'actors', and 'models' paid millions to destroy families, promote violence in movies, destroy nations, instead

The reign of terror of aristocracy will be over. These bandits create crime and chaos, to enslave the workers, by policies that manage chaos and never eliminate it, like doctors and drug companies managing diseases to make money. All day they tell us we're helpless, by staging fake thefts of major stores (remote control of gangsters or simply paying cops to dress in order to justify FBI, CIA, cop astronomical budgets, like US creates chaos in nations to build military bases that 'bring stability' later and US dominance there, same technique) and showing them on TV, to justify the system of worker oppression by aristocracy. Every day, chaos and violence on TV, maximum fear, Zion Protocols. They have perfected their Machiavellian methods of subjugation for millennia. When all TVs notify all lifetime labor is for any slap, spank or shove, when fines are 9000 to 1 million times higher than today for non-violent crimes, then all crime ceases and aristocrats no longer make profits by genocide of all jailed people. The reign of Eternal Universal Peace begins. To end the hooliganism of aristocracy, we also need to implement the centralization of national resources, and eliminate all violence from scriptures, media, movies, video games, novels. Then we can stop aristocrats from brainwashing people to engage in crime, in order to jail or lifetime labor them. The fine for violent music ought to be 100 million at least, for movies 200 million. Only then these vampires can be eliminated and America freed. Since Immortality Nurturing Agency approves any song or movie, TV program or book, it won't even allow stuff to slip thru, the fine is more for the transition period when the filtering and censoring is not fully efficient. Same for pastors shouting or anyone shouting, shouting in public with millions seeing it, is an act of sheer violence almost, that deserves $50000 to 500 million fine, depending on how many people view it. We can end the hooligans fast, those who incite the masses to crime, violence in order to enslave the workers. We either stop the violence or we disappear as a species in 10 seconds. ☺☺☺

Watch how unjust the laws were, and still are today, how useless the punishments were leading to the collapse of many empires and the closing of 100s of churches using terror and torture: Mongols (poorest nation now almost), Byzantines, China dynasties, Mughal, British, Portuguese empire use of blowing by gun for not wanting to kill people in injust war or be a dog like slave, USSR, Japan unit 731 or beatings and killings, 'Gulag' camps where 25% died or death marches, Catholics torturing free thinkers to death via the "Congregation of the Holy Office of the Inquisition, today renamed "Dicastery (dikasterion = law court in Greek) for the Doctrine of the Faith", torture stopped in the 1870s publicly/overtly... covertly maybe in 2100 when all finally realize Bible is pure fraud?, see fake miracles and using religion to torture those opposing "global looting/IQ lowering/subjugation using the cover of 'not being Catholic enough' and made up charges in the name of fake religions"). These videos show the terrible torture (Cesar, Roman Emperor crucified many pirates he didn't have to and, when he could have healed them in a healing center with healing music*; he also crucified* 6000 rebels others wanted freed*),* and slow death of many who were entirely innocent or killed for even believing in something more logical or different than Roman religion, Catholicism, so how can anyone support the ultra cruel system of punishment of individuals today, when even today with DNA etc it's not really perfect? They can create a loving responsible way of dealing with crime that reduces crime permanently and war too, instead of create so much negativity and using the justice, military, spy, medical systems as hidden methods of extermination: once a truly loving system exists unlike the savagery of the past and today, World Peace (that can be easy to attain in 3 months) ☺☺☺ is far easier (and probably the only way to maintain is by ending all torture and jails, replacing jails with healing centers for violent crime only, rest is fines and online courses or some weekend volunteer to develop kindness) to maintain for 1 trillion years, as we address causes, not scapegoat individual nations, when 30 nations created what happened and only 1 takes all the blame, when in fact, for most crimes, the rest of humanity is responsible for most of the stuff, the individual for less, since he evolved in that toxic local environment created by 1000s of people, policies, governments that led to the lack of empathy or anger, due to poor nutrition, sleep, policies or brain writing gadgets. Most people are too selfish to realize the culprit for most crime is not mainly the scapegoats, but the rest of humanity, and aristocrats... the educational system, providing no proper tone to learn kind emotion, etc.

We reduce CO_2 emissions, but when something happens, instead of reducing emissions of negative emotion, they make decisions that damage the quantum field 2 to 300 times more than the act that was committed. How is this for sustainable development? Instead of making people so angry for being put in some terrible cell and generating 100 times more negative emotion globally than the crime itself did, you lovingly explain the need of collective healing of the situation and how 100 people got a fine and etc... give them a small fine too and maybe, if very poor, a chance to pay the fine via volunteering to install double or triple pane windows with others in the community of people of the same social and ethnic background, where he feels compassion for fellow people more perhaps and is eager to do a good job unsupervised, to improve the lot of people like him, whom he feels a deeper affinity with: this helps those guys sleep better, get less irritated, less angry and criminal in behavior (all crime comes from anger for the most part), and can also install some qualities posters and decorations, gentle tender softness, etc, and music mp3 players 24-7 to sing in background about Immortality for All; this way, richer people with a 55h/week job can pay 50K fine and attend 30 hour class online dealing with the empathy type he got missing, while those with 30h/wk job and less money can do volunteer work on weekends for 2 years and lovingly listen to educational mp3 while working and healing music, to help build character, instead of wasting so many state resources sitting and doing nothing in a cell, when thousands of projects can be lovingly done and get a healthier outcome, physically and psychologically. ☺☺☺ The videos above and many others online show the brutal punishments never addressed the causes and the world is almost as violent today as back then, look at Syria ruins or Ukraine ones.

Today, the 20+ most important qualities and videos about them in the most eterni tone can be used by all colleges and future healing centers, etc all high schools, etc, even jails if they still exist; we don't need 85 million teachers worldwide in 2023 repeating in bad tone the same stuff over and over. We can create much better classes and use a million times less energy to achieve the same education and effect on human quantum field. Due to the aristocrats and duplication, we got 80 million extra teachers (we only need lab teachers) who waste their life instead of doing research. We can evolve 1 million times faster; a few videos played often on all TV stations (mini-versions, not the 3 hr version, maybe 3 min), can totally change the planet's empathy level, same for a few well written, intoned songs; likewise, the qualities can be placed in every bus, public transport, street, etc, the music of the "Immortality for All", Eternal Universal Peace or World Peace. Ethics is universal, it doesn't belong to one religion or country only. Everyone wastes so much time to find what happened and almost 0 energy to heal the system, so much to punish and 10,000 times less to heal and improve society and address the real causes, like for example the lack of gentle loving soft tender grace. They can lovingly gently kindly create some immortality*volunteer*.gov network of volunteering while exercising to build selflessness and diffuse tension, promote friendship instead of egoism and muscle building, kindness-empathy and instant bliss brain muscles via meditative breathing building instead of physical muscles, educational programs to prevent 1. nutritional deficiency (emails about kid developmental stages nutritional needs, etc), 2. bad sleep, 3. lack of meditative bliss (hence no need of drinks, parties, bars, cinema, etc, with netflix and online sites), 4. housing overcrowding (build a habitat for humanity group 1000 times bigger than habitat, instead of so many stadiums and gyms watching balls move while others can't sleep, or are homeless), that lead to crime. As a result, the WHOLE CIVILIZATION is rushing to send healing and assistance to the troubled spot, that individual, instead of scapegoating a guy or a few guys and pretending they have "nothing to do with it". So, instead of roller coasters (or related ferris wheels) they build amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ healing educational meditative centers of ethical rejuvenation and nervous recuperation from the historical inertia force. Roller coasters give endless silent strokes that diminish cognitive capacity to know what is ethical and kind. Silent strokes are not detectable, vascular damage similar to the one that causes 2 deaths a year in US from these ☺abysmal IQ☺ parks that ruin brains: fetuses of moms with high cholesterol got 12 times more atherosclerotic plaque before being born, doctors thought it happens in your 40s; silent strokes also can happen in childhood or even during womb when mom goes to a rock concert, baby is scared (today it can be in some churches even, too loud, baby is scared) and his heart rate becomes high. That's why a responsible government protects citizens IQ, health, not profits of amusement companies. We encourage kids to build and maintain World Peace, develop empathy, gentleness, tenderness, discernment, kindness and end the bombing of fellow kids all over the world by the military-industrial complex that runs the entire planet, bombing which destroys the quantum field of all humans; roller coasters don't build character or World Peace within less than a year. With high tech discovered due to having 100 times more resources for lifespan increase, since we no longer have wars and rampant crime due to the chaos war brings, we can discover a little device or bigger one that renews all cells via biophysics (see explanation) by us spending 10 min daily using this device, and we don't need sports to keep our 90,000 year lifespan. It can be argued that most shoving and bad tone sports (that is most sports... unless serving Immortality for All causes while listening to eterni tone music and talking in eterni tone to evolve the quantum field; most sports make us more aggressive and pollute the human quantum field with restlessness, raw emotions 'lacking grace, gentle nurturing compassion' that precipitate war) are unethical when we have fellow kids dying in war, we could engage in the sport of infinite loving kindness (☺☺☺ ∞ meta; meta = loving kindness; like facebook, instagram parent company), to make little gifts or things others need to manifest peace, record a beautiful song of friendship immortal with the kids in a war zone, etc and make as we can useful objects, with adult supervision, in a happy joyful relaxed way (no deadline, like in a real job), so we know from early on, from age 3, what it takes to build peace, how important World Peace, inner peace, peaceful music and altruism are versus sports (9000 times more important, yet some kids spend 40 hours playing sports a week, 0 helping others), to manifest peace and manifest it in 5 months or 10 in the worst case, then maintain it for a trillion years which is harder than achieving it.

A 3D printer can make solar panels, made of plastic thin film material, etc, water filtration, plastic kits that allow kids to fill in with paint or special material (to draw perfect letters for pavement, buildings, solar panels of the driveway, walls, etc) or adhesive ' Eternal Universal Peace or World Peace or Immortality for All ' and other qualities of Immortals, etc things to improve lifespan of other kids and adults who then become friends of Eternia, USA, interested in visiting using one of the 50 million 3 month eterni visas to get a ☺☺☺Master's degree in Immortality for All☺☺☺, build the world of peace, as explained in the World Peace in 3 months section. Any honest person who understands telepathy diffusion and who understands also the more obvious (possibly far more damaging) verbal content diffusion, tone of speech diffusion which cause emotion, intent diffusion, etc will understand many times the blame is almost entirely with other people, not the doer (not to mention that some may be remotely influenced). The afterlife section explains that it's likely we all, if our soul went and lived into the body and circumstances of history's worst people, may have done something quite similar, becoming the same 'worst people', plus or minus some things - in fact, people who're aware of brain influencing gadgets are aware if this control is undetected, many people can be made to do things they would not do otherwise or even imagine doing ever. Here is a very very very simple example: an innocent baby is born in a civilization of fanatics who believe the purpose of life is to kill as many people as possible. He's born into that world and becomes a bad guy. Now, if that soul is a child of God who enters this virtual world, the sane people have many options to deal with the issue, one being to kill this guy who came out of that society. But another option is to transform him and discover the ways to turning warring people into peaceful ones, turning an enemy into friend, etc and then applying this to the other people and achieving a world of peace and nonviolence. God's child in the "bad guy" may have a history of 5 billion years before becoming a soul incarnated into a "bad brain and body", and we mortals see only the 4-year history of that guy or 50-year history of that guy. A bad guy born in the worst circumstances may have a total soul history that is much nicer and nobler than the total history of a soul who, in our virtual 'real' world, is a sage. ☺☺☺ Why? Because that soul chose a hard role to play in this virtual world to see if he can become a sage in a bad environment, which is much harder than becoming a sage in a noble good family. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

The Immortals see the billions or millions of thousands of years in real hyper-universe time of any soul, and we don't, and as such, we form a very warped perception of other people based only on the behavior of a femtosecond in this world of ours, so it's usually, not nice or acceptable in God's eyes at all to harm or kill anyone, no matter how bad they seem in human perception, unless one needs to disable their ability to terrorize many other people or commit genocide, but even then, one needs to find a nonkilling high tech method to avoid damaging the quantum field. When we're hurtful or unkind to another of God's children, for acts done out of brainwashing or telepathy diffusion or bad society they were born into, we may actually make the problem never go away or even make it worse, as we multiply the lack of kindness. We only see 1 trillionth of a person, if you look at the same human with IR camera you see one thing, with radio another, with visible another, etc, so what image is the human? It's much more complex. Immortals see a human from a trillion cameras so to speak, not just visible 400-800 nanometers light, and God sees even more than Immortals. Aware of this, The Telepathic Immortals don't have a culture of punishment and revenge and violence, like some mortals have, but instead a culture of infinite forgiving gentleness tenderness softness nurturing grace as the Love of the Immortal Mother of their Immortal Civilization, God. So instead of prisons, there is a healing center for a perfect attunement to the Eternal Grace and Boundless Soft Mercy and Compassion of God and of the Immortality Principle and Aspect of God. Instead of blaming one guy, they blame everyone, so everyone serves as a healer in the healing centers in semi-Immortal civilizations where healing centers are needed. Because of this diffusion of guilt and shared responsibility and shared sorrow, when something bad happens, there is no separation and everyone helps everybody, knowing everyone will come to their aid, when something goes amiss or they're unhappy, thus eliminating all desire to harm anyone, since everyone is your best friend sharing with you in sorrow and happiness and not blaming you for what everyone created. In our world we're very physical and separated, but in the world of Immortals, which is like a spirit world, the shapeshifting energy field of one person mingles with that of many and aware of how non-individual people are, people are much more flexible in their interpretation of causality and responsibility, there being a field of all Immortals that affects everyone, just as the planetary psychic field affects all humans without them being aware of its noise, or music. The Immortals are more likely to address the cause (Civilization Wide Telepathic Diffusion of mean Thoughtforms, Images, Movies, Songs for example) when responsibility is of the entire civilization, instead of addressing the symptom that appears in one individual. When mortals scapegoat a "bad guy", they quickly brush the issue aside and don't find the cause, thinking it's some bad guy, but the Immortals realize it's the entire civilization's thoughts, media, images that have precipitated that event or action born of thought, not one guy.

Thus, using the Immortality Credit Score for example or a similar idea, when something 'bad' happens, everyone nationally gets an email☺☺☺ that explains how their Immortality Credit Score went down 0.1 or 0.0005 points due to the 'bad' event, that led to a group of 'drug dealers' for example being sent to a healing center (no prisons exist, everything is healing, i.e. all prisons are transformed into healing centers, nurturing kindness centers, etc, whatever name they want to use). No event is separate and each citizen contributes to everything good and bad happening that shrinks or extends lifespan. A singer making bad lyrics (rap, etc) can lead to 100K getting addicted and 100K drug crimes being done, so then 100K in the music industry, law enforcement, government allowing that music would also need to be guilty, not just the drug network head - so you see, it's not that simple if you want to create a truly evolved world - and treat the cause, not the symptom as doctors often do - keep people sick, manage disease they often create themselves (if military spies), and cops too, manage chaos they create, be them local or foreign agent controlled cops. People are living in a fantasy world, thinking that the accuser is always the victim, when with mind control gadgets, the accuser (or cops, FBI, etc) can control anyone to do a 'crime' (sleep deprivation, mistakes, etc) and then accuse them of doing it and seem like the holy man in town, when they're the most evil one. Foreign spies can control a government 100% without them knowing, and be guilty 100% of all crimes done by a government. So then who is guilty? To move away from a scapegoat culture that never deals with the issues, the causes (lack of: peaceful music that creates bliss instead of agitation, good sleep, quiet cities, meditation education into bliss without drugs, bliss without greed, etc) not the symptoms of crime and 'bad' people, each day, Immortality Nurturing Agency would email people about the Immortality (not financial) credit score increase due to positive actions they did to increase lifespans of people globally and suggest ways to increase it each time it decreases, and it does decrease each time anyone in the nation is sent to a healing center (daily for a while until such centers are not needed and all actions can be done to remedy from home; max one such email a day, calculating the score impact in real time by supercomputers), meaning the entire nation needs to spend time to heal, meditate, act and rejuvenate the ethics of Immortality for All that is the basis of Immortality Capitalism. Because Immortalists want to get in 3 months to World Peace and no violence in 10 or 15 years☺☺☺ to no mandatory healing center stays in 20 years (the nicest centers still needed for violent crime until it disappears, 100 times nicer than average prison, or for people in super toxic circumstances, malnourished or in need of real rest due to chronic fatigue that impacts ethical brain centers), they take this commitment to a world of kindness and empathy seriously and act as one nation to bring Heaven on Earth, focusing on more positive outcomes via more positive Anthems. ☺☺

It's key to not make anyone feel like a scapegoat, or ashamed, humiliated, unfairly targeted, unloved, to love all as the most loving mom loves her only 2 week old baby, to infuse every song and TV program with gentle tender soft nurturing grace that can neutralize historical inertia megaforce of crime, to not jail anyone, help them deaddict by national programs on the evils of alcohol, since they may feel they were treated injustly, will be angry at society, peers and government for life, having low productivity, resentment, etc. Jailing, huge fines or healing centers would only be used for really violent crime more serious than slapping someone gently, slap or a slight shove or bump into someone gently in a crowded area, which would need some $100000 fine at least if gentle, $400000 if hard (Hitler used to slap his 7 year younger sister), $1 million if in public with more than 10 people around, 1 billion if in public with more than 10000 people watching it on TV, and 2 years of healing courses online. Use healing centers not jails to keep away from people they have bad relationship with or may want to revenge on due to complete lack of ethics in music allowed by the government); it's essential to not fine or require to take a course only some people (even give huge fines to people whom the government thinks are not that guilty, but whom the person feels is guilty, so help that main doer feel better, and then gov pays back that less guilty person, as they would cooperate in the healing process, to help the guy feel like someone else got a 5K fine too, but only for people who're wildly convinced it was someone else's fault mainly too), when in real life, an event was co-created by a lot more than 1 person, all the peers and family and neighbors sometimes too; it's important to make citizens who make mistakes ("crimes") feel the government is loving them more than their family and peers, since obviously, when people do something bad they do it due to lack of love and happiness in the environment they're in, lack of love, nutrition, education from government via daily emails and eterni tone ethics lessons etc, city officials promoting violent festivals, etc; thus, to heal that person, they need to make the 'educational healing' as private as that person wants it to be (take online courses and say 'it was required at work etc to study that etc, listen to it on headphones without anyone knowing what is there (can even be a secret app from Immortality Nurturing Agency that appears as an mp3 listening thing, but the song displayed is the course on the ethics issue he didn't perform great o)n; some people don't need this privacy level, but some may want it; tests on compassion,☺☺☺ empathy etc online or offline show when that person has mastered an ethical lesson and quality, so no need of huge fines and disturbances of normal life, as that person needs healing and if they need to get away from a toxic family or work environment they can state so, and the gov will arrange a nicer job away from toxic family, neighborhood and a move to a healing center near the new job (while they claim to live in a studio, duplex, house or apartment that is a secret location of a government healing center and nobody knows about it, from the appearance of the house or etc); this shows a level of love, understanding and care eons ahead of the current stone age punishment system that doesn't do anything except degrade the quantum field of humanity, increase negative emotions and waste taxpayer money on keeping people in cells for decades sitting idle and wasting time; let all choose the level of privacy of they 'educational healing journey', to not affect self-esteem of kids or family in negative way, create any guilt and help that loveless family, street, city, state, to be filled with more love from the eterni music and lessons he listens to that build empathy, compassion for all, so they know the terrible genocides a tiny crime can lead to, or even a simple yelling or bad music, via ripple effects, and that the gov helps, loves all and the era of Bible genocide and punishment is over, as God is Love.

The fact a person was found "30% guilty of something, while at least 500 others, guilty 0.01-10% guilty" can be even secret from all people except the government agency in charge of healing the nation, which replaces the word 'criminal justice' with "healing the incompetence of the government to prevent crime via right tone, music, culture, ethics education", "healing the nation" or "treating the lack of eterni vibe", they're healing the causes that led to the symptom of that 'crime' thru actions on 500 individuals at a minimum and reforming and improving the local system of music, TV content, tone, biofeedback of tone emoting quality thru gadgets, etc.. These emails from the government that educate about credit score can't go to spam folder, they bypass all spam filters and need to be read. While the score of someone more directly involved in some unethical event may decrease 20 points, even the holiest person with highest score would get theirs lowered by 0.000001 or whatever the AI calculates for any major unethical event. Bad/good people are created by all citizens, i.e. less than half of the creation is from the individual.☺☺☺ The Immortality Nurturing Agency can detect for example, via drone (or via calculating when the last replacement of an appliance occured, etc), when something in one's workplace or house etc may need to be taken care of or replaced (appliance etc) and send an email with a credit 0% APR offer to buy a part or etc or do that service using the Immortality

Nurturing Agency provider or another one, so that the lifespan of the people is not going to run into the risk of being lowered, due to not replacing a part or something. This free credit only extends to such purchases that enhance human lifespan, not to anything that may have minimal or negative impact, like less ideal music CD. Each time an item is purchased, everyone gets a free email with its impact on Immortality for All, alternatives, how to maximize lifespan increase. This system makes all citizens aware of the impact of every action on the lifespan years of all.☺

Bring Violent Crime Down 1 trillion fold, to be able to sustain ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~:

A hypothesis is presented in this paragraph: happy labor in a happy city for violent crimes reduces them 1 billion fold. A world where spanking (causes aggression & anti-social behavior) or even slapping anyone (even one's kid) leads to lifetime labor or lifetime service if the "lifetime service" word combo prevails (in a happy 'sealed from the world' healing center city nicer than most today spiritually, much nicer vibe, music, not jail), is wholly different than the barbarian savage world of pure violence today. It's surprising me that someone who beats teachers, which happens only in USA frequently, can be free, without any real change in the educational system to protect students and teachers. With truly amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ tone, learning on-lab classes on huge screen TVs or PCs (27" at least), no student can get mad, they learn to emote and behave better. A student punches a teacher again. Teacher slaps a student, need 1 million fine and lifetime labor. They learned it well from the 'angelic' Zion Elder Protocols tone of inciting the youth to VIOLENCE and later GENOCIDE of Taylor Swift and other "celebrities", watch a teacher attack a student too (again here), and both teacher and student being violent: only in America, the land of infinite violence, glorified in the scripture our politicians swear on and War Dept sings about. Wait, if we had centralized tone education, free education for all, the students don't see a real teacher, nor can fights ensue, as teacher's tone on video class is 1000 times better than the tone of teachers who get into student fights. But, with for profit education by aristocratic leeches, we can't have 0 violence, we reinvent the wheel and do 0 research; with centralized tone since age 1, we create a new world, a new music, and ban 99% of music today, for lacking the gentle tender soft nurturing healing loving kind compassionate grace quality needed to achieve 1 billion times lower violent crime and sustain Eternal Universal Peace. Create new music, to fill the void, so eliminate current music gradually, the most violent one, give people a 20 year adjustment period to like new types, etc. The ultra light sentences for violent crime, and 0 sentence for slaps, spanking, etc only encourage these violent outbursts of student-teacher fights. Drugs that can kill or shorten lifespan, when distributed, are a violent crime too. It's not acceptable to have any violence or torture, in any relationship, be it cop on civilian, cop on prisoner of war, parent on kid: all are illegal in the immortalist world and anyone caught is sentenced to lifetime labor. The violent cruelty ('demonic' as religious folks may say) energy prevailing in every military, spy agency, police department globally in 2023 is certainly not eternal. Cops don't understand they need to become 1 billion times less violent too, for the violent crime to go down 1 trillion fold, same for spies and soldiers who claim to be for "peace". The only change in life is constant, due to evolutionary pressures of human species end in 10 seconds. Change will come, one way or the extinction way. The kids must have full ability to report, so a loving parent can be found to replace the one taken away from society. Likewise, kids, who after true education, 20 min daily in proper gentleness and inner happiness (that prevents violent anger), etc unlike the trash education today, totally absent on those topics, engages in violence, he will have to be raised in a special way, with 10 times more such education (1-3 hours daily, depending on the violence act done, for a few weeks or months or years, of relaxing classes to learn to be happy, compassionate and kind) to prevent any incident repeating and if it repeats, then raised in a special community of kids who were like them, hoping by age 25 they become nonviolent, when they can be released into the free world, after intensive education (some labor too, happy part-time help, like PhDs do teaching assistant jobs or research, etc), and PhD in eternal happiness and kindness, preventing violence in Civilizations of Immortals. The thing is today kids do violence due to the world media overflowing their heads with violence ideas via TV-books-movies-music, so it won't happen once immortalists win elections and change the constitution, ☺☺☺ implement the changes and the transition period wears out where the kids who got the trash education today become adults.

Due to the fact we acknowledge that adults were raised by a psychotic society of infinite violence, in the transition period, the radio-TV-songs-media focus on educating all adults on the trillion times higher kindness of the new world we're trying to build and the lifetime labor consequences coming from it, though obviously those "lifetime service to ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~" cities would be much nicer than many in nonimmortalist countries for "free" people who work harder and live shorter. People have no idea that the nicest jail for example in Norway (check youtube) is much nicer in every way than the living conditions of 4 billion people, half of humanity: in today's nicest jails you can simply relax in a quiet place, finally, quiet, and enjoy the infinite bliss of relaxing breathing bliss and maybe, if lucky, astral travel... but don't tell anyone that you travel, just bring World Peace silently. Likewise, people don't always realize this "lifetime labor", 40 hours of work weekly like all free people, with holidays too, is 1 million times nicer than any former labor camp in history, which was pure torture. Only when a slap in the face is viewed as bad as murder is today, and 1 killing the equivalent of killing 1 billion, will violent crime rate go down 1 billion fold, we simply need to raise the standards 1 billion fold. If you read verses 8-40 of a version of the immortalist anthem, you see we aim for a level of kindness 50 trillion times higher than that on Earth: that is in stark contrast with the hooligan vibe of genocide in many anthems today. The immortalists are aiming to bring into the present, within decades if possible, the better version of humanity from the future of 0 violence, 0 jails, 0 war. So far, we had a lot of jokes about "lowering crime". We only made real progress in increasing letter exchange speed 1 billion times, due to the effort of tens of millions of scientists. Email did it. Likewise, to achieve a billion fold reduction in crime, violent one first, we need a societal revamp unlike any in world history, the likes of the computer and Internet that brought communication speed 1 billion times higher than writing and transporting letters. So, we're preparing the world citizens for that world of Eternal Universal Peace, sustainable only when violent crime is 1 trillion times lower. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺ workers as they toil to kill more workers worldwide and to work 70 hours weekly, to make elite mansions bigger, and fake miracles, promises of eternal nice heaven, if you only work and torture yourself to death to make the rich aristocrats richer). ☺☺Lovingly tenderly gently kindly ☺☺NOTICE, dearest worked to sickness and death human, THE COMPLETE ABSENCE of holidays benefiting the working average people worldwide: 1. ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ DAY celebrates trillions of ways to bring 0 jails, crime, wars without any pain, torture or violence 2. ~*~Immortality for All~*~ Day celebrates the creation of immortalist culture 3. Trillion Year Lifespan Day celebrates the latest anti-aging techs 4. Eternal Gentle Tender Soft Grace for All Day celebrates the universal end of worker torture, 0 jails, no pain inflicted on any living human or animal, not via circumcision even, not via infant crying baby baptism even (see the Russian baby tortured by a priest without mercy, psychopathic clergy in Georgia too, no ritual ought to cause any baby crying or else it's pure satanism and enslavement of the worker class), or having to go to church to eat wafers (that enslaved workers made wafers for the aristocratic church leaders, bishops and Pope) when breathing at home can bring more of God's blessings to workers since no smog kills people on the way to church and you can do it 100 times daily, not once. This 4th new holiday of the Liberated America (first time free), celebrates the scientific work for eterni diet that ends all plant and animal suffering and ending all slaughterhouses on Earth and associated cruelty of blood eating (meat is 0.2-0.9% blood) polluting humans too, converting all animals to vegan, etc. Many holidays of 2023 are subtly glorifying the Elites who send us to SLAUGHTER, being Pure 'SATANISM'. So, gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest healing kind compassionate Americans, can we gently discard the Vestiges of Imperialism and Eternal Slavery, and replace them with Immortalist Anthem ideas relevant Universally, ideas that celebrate Life for all Humans Universally, not the killing and torture of humans? Is that not the calling of God? We had these Freemason George Washington satanists guide us for 250 years, we can rip apart these chains of bondage and declare America Free, as the immortalists detail in the Universal Declaration of Immortality for All and Independence of the US and all nations.

As Immortalists we see that 1. money 2. land 3. religion have no impact on longevity. Our culture is that of Eternal Life, understanding the Eternal Laws of nature enabling us to extend life and make time to understand God too, whatever God is to you. If you live to a trillion, you have more time to understand God than cave men writing scriptures. In fact, today we live 60000 times longer than most bacteria who understand little, so at the age of 80*60000 (4.8 million) years even, a human Immortal may be more advanced than us today as we're versus bacteria. At a trillion years old, we would understand God a lot better. What is 1000 times more important than religion, money or land area/capita is the actual culture that brings free education, longevity focus in every area of life, efficiency, knowledge of science, etc. Earth ☺puppy IQ workers☺ simply can't get the simple fact of life: if their 0 IQ populations would have the technology, no matter how much money, religion or land they lack, they all could live to a trillion, or a million at least in the shorter-term. Why? Because, as humans realize, as opposed to bipedal primates, the universe is infinitely abundant.

1. MONEY doesn't give longevity: Some live on 100 a month and reach 100, others with 1 million a month live to 60. Torture by militaries, spy agencies can shorten lifespan by 10 to 50 years. The 2021 life expectancy, per World Bank and other sources was 61 in Botswana with GDP/capita 14,800, Anguilla 77 & 12,000, Tonga 70 & $6,100 ONLY, Solomon Islands 70 *(was 40 in 1950) & $*2,400 ONLY, Portugal 81 & 33,700, Lithuania 74 & 39,300, Latvia 73 & 32,100, Saint Vincent 70 & 13,700, Vietnam 74 & 10,600. Tunisia 74 & 10,400. Russia 69 & 28,000. CIA World fact life expectancy data is all fake and off for many nations. Are you happy? Does $ bring health? Or is it culture, climate (variation of temp), scientific literacy, prevention, tech deployment, etc?

2. LAND doesn't give longevity: We have Libya 3.8 people/km^2, Japan 338/km^2, or 90 times more crowded. Libya life expectancy is 72, 13 years below Japan 85. Botswana density is 4.5/km^2, 75 times lower than Japan, yet they live to 61 only, with Japan living 24 extra years, or 39% longer. Russians live to 69, but have 50 times more land/capita than many nations living to 77-85. We thus, can't understand why people on Earth have such abysmal IQ, that for a million years they kill for land, instead of helping each other discover immortality science.☺☺☺ Skeptics will argue land is useful sometimes when it has resources (oil, lithium), but we immortalists say anyone with high tech doesn't need any of our earthling 2020s "resources". Why? Because any source of protons, neutrons, electrons, like garbage, etc can be used to make any material wanted in mere minutes. They simply don't need our garbage tech, just as we don't need the "tech" of earth digging animals, their "high tech claws" or digging "know how".

3. RELIGION doesn't give longevity: We have very religious people (Muslims, Christians, etc) who live to 50-60 in Africa, and atheists and agnostics in many nations who live to 110. Once again, wafers, baptism, making cross signs, icon kisses rituals don't give longevity, much less eternal life. Once they understand that, we remove the 3 major causes of war: money, land and religion.

Kings, aristocrats, leaders only concern themselves with power sometimes, spilling blood with joy, so then the idea of a world language (created or adopted) that eliminates wars, of international deals to create nonviolent music, etc, is not a topic of daily war news they 100% control, only selfish sports and weapon deliveries to disable more workers via torture and wars. Notice how these blood drinkers never talk of the urgency of one world language, but how urgent is to bomb civilian workers in other nations. They only call for language rights in some cases, while in others no talk at all, everything to increase one nation's benefits, instead of to benefit all humans. Unlike odd (unethical?) kings/presidents who support (by not asking to ban them) the most brutal sports that torture animals and people (some detailed here), the immortalists believe in logical things proven by science, like medical tech to make every citizen a king of 100 million year lifespans. How can anyone be called a leader and they support bullfighting (Ctrl+F 'bullfighting' to see all book instances) or the abuse of 200000 kids by the Church of Jesus Blood Drinking and Jesus Flesh Eating? This daily ritual of Catholic Churches is explained more here. How are the bullfighting fans promoting nonviolent ethics? When 80% of human energy shifts from war and spying, from destroying others to helping all live to 5000, all WIN and synergy can help all to live to 5000 a billion times faster than with our violent cultures today… where everything revolves around bigger house, car, salary, war, torture etc and finally, decent diet, decent sleep, longevity, health, 0 jails/violence/war, after 500 other priorities.

A paragraph to stir the soul: We live in a society of aristocrats for aristocrats, with puppet governments that serve the aristocracy, not the people. This harsh 25000 year reality can certainly change if people start to think and question. Why are phone companies, car companies (who make bad cars that damage bodies more than phones do) CEOs free, when their cell phones cause the equivalent of a genocide via Radio Frequency shortening the lifespan of people, due to them not telling them to use phones only in emergencies? Why are computer companies CEOs free and product designers, when they know WiFi from laptops and gadgets shorten lifespan and cause endless diseases? Why is WiFi promoted if it kills? Is it a war on the workers by aristocratic mafia? Why not use Wired? 99% of people don't need wireless, it's just the culture of infinite laziness and 500 pound average weight that leads to the desire for WiFi. IN some professions, like mining, robots, etc WiFi makes sense, controlling underwater probe 2 feet under water in a pipe, etc, but not in everyday life. Aristocrats make more money by selling wireless than by selling wired, and accomplish 2 things at once: more profits to kill workers and destroying worker brains and bodies. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

If the violent crime rate is not brought down in 1.5 years via 12 hours of Ethics Education on all TV-radio stations, internet, etc to 1 million times less than today in order to prevent the 10 second end of humanity, then the immortalists would gently kindly agree to an ~~ indefinite time ~~ implementation of death penalty as explained in the next 33 pages, until the violent crime is 0, not 90 billion a year, in USA. The cops say they torture to "extract info" or turn people into mindless obedient brain damaged slaves that perpetuate the insane system of eternal war. This will require a gradual decannibalization of the cop-soldier beasts too, thru education and standards evolution: ban torture or at least reduce it 1 billion fold. When homicides and very violent crimes (except slaps etc) go to 0, death penalty is abolished (it may take 20 years) and we revert to lifetime service in a healing city, as immortalists abhor any killing. Every very violent crime will shorten lifespan of many via ripple effect by 100 years being equivalent to 2 murders, 2 death penalties. Thus, we can't stop death penalty when homicides are 0 nationally, as the devil energy will quickly come back. We will stop only when 0 serious violent crime is 0. This is the beginning of Order in USA. Better a million dead than 8 billion: violent crime fuels big wars indirectly. No deportation, but instant execution, without trial, when clear evidence by video exists of the shooting or violence. Let the illegals come to USA if they want, they will be met with instant death if they traffic drugs or punch anyone, rape anyone. No lengthy trials, maybe 1 day to show relatives what they did, the evidence will be clear as 100 trillion cameras are installed, besides 5 quadrillion microphones, if safe to do so without revealing police methods, location of cameras and mics to relatives who may be secret gang members too, though undeclared, or worse, spies and soldiers for the foreign nations they come from. Nations simply don't have the resources to keep 20 million violent offenders in a maximum security place for the rest of their lives who don't work (we can't lock 5 million people), instead of helping good people. To feed 20 million is crazy, to house them in perfect places in exchange for them doing nothing. They need to know death is certain, so they don't punch anyone, traffic anyone, etc. It's not feasible right away, as we have not built these sealed mini-cities to house all. ☺☺☺☺☺☺

Death penalty can also be ~~ secretly symbolic too ~~ (with fake recordings of a fake execution to deter the worst criminals who would never read this book anyway, but would abstain from killing if they know they will be killed), where the 'convicted' get lifetime labor instead for NOW, in some cases of minor violence like slapping. No ashes given to family, all discarded in the ocean, so the convicts can be sent to labor camp if so decided, secretly, to avoid damage to the human quantum field during peacetime (or frontlines to defend the nation if trusted to do so during war). No contact with any friend or family, so they believe he's dead, and to create new healthier vibe friendships of people who listen to ethics classes in eterni tone recordings 40 hours a week, like he's required as part of his job to change the quantum field. Immortalists are fine to appear tough to prevent a killing, while actually being a lot softer and not killing anyone if that guy wants to work and doesn't choose voluntarily euthanasia due to innate laziness or inability to serve society and pay back some of the damage done and efforts of others who built his tiny home or studio much nicer than prisons today. It's not fair for murderers, rapists, etc to get to live off the back of society having fun in a nice place, while not working and others doing maintenance and all related cooking, etc.

El Salvador decided to abandon due process and courts and arrest massive amounts of gang members, halving its violent crime rate in record time. USA would only remove trials when it's evident they did it, from many sources, like 20 cameras, 40 microphones, witnesses, etc. Likewise, with billions of new cameras to record punching, slaps and other violence and bypass 12 months of court wasting of time and with old serious violent crime records, all violent criminals in the immortalist nation or group of nations (example EU, Asean, African Union, etc) will be interned in the labor camps (possibly for life some of them, though some in prison until they build the healing centers) that will provide healing, education, rest, work opportunities away from free people to attack. El Salvador, a nation of 6.5 million, put in prison 70000 gangsters in record time, so USA, with 340 million people, may need to place in healing centers 3.7 million people, while EU maybe 1-2 million as their homicide rate is 4 times lower than USA on average. The US will need to massively reeducate for 12 months, with at least 20 min daily and 2 days of 10 hours each, 3.7 million people. This means about 25 hours a week. Unlike El Salvador, the immortalists will be kinder, they will avoid the 'in person arrest' of 'all suspected gang members' and placing them in inhumane Mega Prisons, due to lack of immortalist standard amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ healing facilities from day one Immortalists win elections, right away. Thus, immortalists start with simply requiring people to attend the ethics classes in person in many empty venues use for that purpose, on 2 days of the week, 2 days, 10 hours/day, when they can go relax, learn how to meditate, be happy, without alcohol, smoking and drugs, to prevent receiving lifetime labor sentence if caught trafficking tobacco, alcohol, drugs. Headsets will measure tone of speech, brainwaves after each meditation exercise, that will enable them to practice undisturbed by psycho family members or ghetto neighbors. These headsets ensure they pay attention and no cell phones are allowed in the classrooms. We don't want to create inhumane prisons and place there 4 million people for decades like El Salvador as that destroys the human quantum field and achieves a more temporary effect, it is more humane to simply educate 30-40 million for free. This 20 hours/week has to go on for 6-12 months, for about 40 million Americans who have been in prison for more serious violent crimes in the last 40 years, to make sure they receive the ethics, meditation, being happy classes (replace bliss of addiction nicotine, etc with bliss of meditation) and that they know DEATH is the penalty for traficking more than lethal dose of any drug, for slapping, spanking, punching anyone, even one's kid. We also need to educate them about the quiet cities policies that will draw insanely high fines. At home, these ghetto area people will be distracted and unable to focus. You can't learn how to discard tobacco, alcohol, drugs in an online course if distracted all the time by noise, kids, family, etc. They need to come in person in a healing beautiful place. These conference places can be at the city hall, in the presence of beautiful decorations and posters with these words printed big, and gently flashing in shimmering ways the words gentle tender soft Nurturing Universal Kind Healing Graceful Compassion and Immortality for All as in ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months, 0 violent Crime in 3 years. There are many venues, plus we shut down a lot of useless businesses and have tons of empty spaces, vacant places, that the government can take over first, since all companies will dissolve eventually over a few years, into the 11 mega ones. This allows us to have classrooms 7 days a week for various work schedules and accommodate all desires, like 4 days a week 5 hour shifts or 10 hour shifts on the weekend slots. This healing space is designed to smell nice and create an enchanted relaxed atmosphere, the cops turn on the video, prerecorded that has the 3-12 months module that any human on Earth can watch, cops don't need to talk, nobody talks to anyone. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Everything is the AI being talking via the video screen (huge or projected) or the person who recorded the video in eterni tone, to tame the violent tendencies of the listeners. The background serene instrumental music helps people to practice the exercises, to listen to the video, focus and get fresh clean air. A pleasant place, everyone writes their experiences on the laptops after doing it, and no talking to anyone else. Daily tests for knowledge learned, free healthy food. During this educational soft transition period of 3 months (minor offense, like slaps, shoving, small amounts of weed or drugs possession which are thought of as "attempting to murder" violent crimes, etc) to 12 months (serious violence, like punching strongly leading to real damage, use of deadly weapons, traffic of huge levels of narcotics, etc), those who traffic, buy, sell, alcohol, tobacco, weed, hard drugs in amounts less than lethal dose, will get fined $80000 on the day Immortalists win elections, then roughly doubling every month (160K, 320K, 720K, 2M, 4M, 8M, 15M, 30M, 60M, 120M, 250M, 500M) for 12 months to reach a maximum of 500 million. Lifetime labor is penalty for those unable to pay fine within 1 week, in special healing cities nicer than Disneyland. They will happily work under the supervision of cops to build these cities, 40 hours a week, while 10-20 hours is ethics classes for first 2 to 5 years or however long it takes for them to be super smiley, rested, to learn how to relax, meditate and be happy. All those who don't know English well, will have to take concomitant Spanish classes and have Spanish subtitles, so all those who don't know English must indicate so, so they get to a center that offers Spanish subtitles so they're forced to learn some English by hearing it and seeing subtitles, to integrate better with the rest of people in the 50 states who often happen to be majority English speakers (in most states), and to facilitate World Peace via one currency, one language, one education department, 11 companies worldwide. Drug selling or buying (caught in the act with clear evidence they bought it and not someone placed it in their car to get them fined) less than lethal dose leads to lifetime service in a healing center. The death penalty is discussed in detail in the next 30+ pages, together with when the conditions would be met for its implementation (11 companies, far more equal incomes, etc). To begin, we can ask 20 questions:

Why are tobacco company aristocrats free, not in jail, when they have caused 100 million deaths? Why are the wine producing pigs and aristocrats not in jail or dead for killing 3 million each year? Why are innocent people killed in aristocratic wars of theft, but genocidal mass murderers are free to pollute the airwaves? Why is death penalty only for ☺abysmal IQ☺ naive folks who're victims of a phony aristocrats first education system, and not the gangster aristocrats who kill 100s of millions with tobacco, alcohol, cell phones, fancy gas or electric car useless "connectivity products that give cancer, Alzheimer, etc", toxic foods and other unlabeled products used in the terrible housing? Why don't we have lifetime labor sentence for anyone engaged in violent crime or distributing nicotine/weed/drug enriched products (fentanyl in basic cold medicines, etc), vape products, alcohol products, promoting gambling, casinos, lotteries?

Plus death penalty for anyone engaged in violent crime while working in this healing city which is 90000 times nicer the Soviet Gulag or German labor camps? Plus death penalty for those distributing hard drugs which lower lifespan of 30 million by 10 years, meaning they do shrink lifespan years by 300 million years, or the equivalent of 10 Hiroshima bombs? We work so hard to make these special healing centers and sealed mini-cities, and they abuse the kindness again, when before they would be instantly executed? Lifetime labor for distributing weed? $8 million fine for weed possession? Death penalty for all gang members, since all gangs approve of violence? Lifetime labor for all who're promoting sports instead of building port infrastructure to scan all containers in all ports to prevent drug and other dangerous shipments? Anyone promoting selfish activities while we still have drugs entering the country via gangs who torture people, due to comical☺ border walls and nonexistent ports, airports scans for 100% of goods fined 1 million dollars, after a first 100$ warning fine? Anyone caught being a gang member executed if older than 25 or given lifetime labor if under 25? All tattoo places banned worldwide? How can NZ allow biker gangs to terrorize the streets? We need the happy the Immortalist Party who brings the end of all gangs and associated violence via massive expansion of lifetime labor, death penalty and 10000 fold increase in fines. We will expand all ports to scan 100% of goods, and use convicts (violent criminals who didn't choose euthanasia) to build amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ border walls, rivers, dams and security checkpoints, scan of anything entering any airport or border checkpoint.☺☺☺ Isn't World Peace in 3 months, 0 violent crime in 10 years a trillion times more important than being a drunkard and drug addict, a psycho yelling in violent concerts or places of worship, seemingly coming from the mythical imaginary Satan himself, the king of chimps and monkeys? If we have death penalty for so many people in USA, how come drug dealers who sell stuff that shortens people's lifespan by 10 to 70 years don't get it? They wait 20 years to die, not 1. Today only 2% of ports containers are scanned, so the gangs can ship a lot. Why? Because we don't penalize any violence almost, don't have 11 state companies to do everything and monitor everything, stop all criminal activities, drug trade.

No national security exists if any cocaine, weed, tobacco, alcohol, drugs are consumed in any nation, as these cause endless violence that destroy the planet from within. In the face of such total lawlessness, radical actions are needed urgently, to once and for all, end all gangs on Earth. Eternal World Peace and the very survival of the human species by avoiding all out war of 10 seconds end of all, depend on the 100% elimination of gangs, which fuel violent crime, so, we all need to unite to ELIMINATE gang music, books, outlaw and execute all GANGSTERS aged 18+ if caught in violence, drug dealing, human trafficking, after the 6-12 months of education mentioned above. Cartels spread in all USA now and in Mexico they execute people daily, like 190 in one day. USA ought to not trade with New Zealand or any nation that openly allows gangs to intimidate people, to wear gang clothing, make biker gang city noise, etc. Only Death Penalty for Violence? We will give gangsters 1 year to quit gangs and get a job (see below), since nobody will be unemployed anymore, due to the 11 companies system of national rebuilding from chaos. Due to the impending risk of all humans disappearing, all 8 billion, soon, lifetime labor for all gangsters who didn't quit a gang is needed, even if they were not caught yet doing criminal acts, since joining a gang is a violent crime, BECAUSE IT DEIFIES VIOLENCE, intends to use violence. All tattoo stores in USA are banned by federal law and USA too, all nose or body piercings, as these are used by gangs to brainwash their members. All Youth needs to be reminded on TV daily, during the State of Emergency that is Eternal until WE ACHIEVE 0 VIOLENT CRIME, that Lifetime Labor is Sentence for any Gang Membership. Ghetto Areas will receive Military Units Patrolling the Streets on occasion and 500 Trillion Cameras to Watch everyone, to Make Sure nobody dares to make any graffiti and wear any gang clothing, to ensure a complete debrainwashing and cleaning up of USA neighborhoods from all gangs. Anyone attacking police or soldiers will be shot dead, as we have no time to arrest people for brutal attacks on cops. All city graffiti is replaced with the Qualities, meaning gentle tender soft Nurturing Universal Kind Healing Graceful Compassion and Immortality for All as in ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months, 0 violent Crime in 3 years, to remind all how to behave. The complete remodeling and repainting of 90000 neighborhoods will be achieved to destroy any trace of GANG symbols and associated energies, to bring True Equality of Vibe, of Ethics, of Equal Opportunity to Evolve into a Gentle Graceful Kind beautiful, shimmering shapeshifting Immortal, as outlined in the 11 companies 4 page summary of the immortalists. Those who do gang or random graffiti as caught by cameras will receive Lifetime Labor. America will have 0 gang members soon. So will the EU, as EU will implement the same policies in tandem to reeducate these unfortunate victims of Historical Inertia in no time. As our homicide rates decrease 5000 fold, all nations will follow suit and Immortalists will likely come to power in every nation, with Immortalist Anthem being a popular little poem worldwide. Praised be God. Let all be reminded death is instant if gang members attack painters who eliminate all gang symbols, remodel entire neighborhoods, repair streets, potholes. Cops will be given the right to shoot dead anyone who attacks the special workers with Immortalist Clothing. Cops will be present during the work to rid USA, all nations of all gangs symbols. It will be quick. As Immortalist Corps multiply, they will get rid of hooliganism in no time. The demonic macho violent music will be replaced with serene stuff to build the qualities of Immortality for All. The time for hooliganism and complete lawlessness will come to a swift end thanks to the Immortalist Party. We the People own the streets, not gangs and We the People decide what Graffiti is there. The federal government owns the streets and regulates the appearance of businesses. The people own all companies, not gangs.

The Immortalist Party will happily encourage all youth quit sports, rodeos and instead build 500 million border monitoring stations on the border of all nations for example, to catch drug dealers, and also, 100% container scan systems for all goods, via air, land and sea. Let virtue shine in every soul, as the happy immortalism ethics of nonviolence prevails on Earth. As all gangs are destroyed in 2 years, violent crime ends in 5-15 years. It makes no sense for us to spend eons to monitor and feed dangerous violent thugs, when we could take care of improving our tones, cultures, education, and living conditions for the 99% of nonviolent people of the world. We create what we dream about, let no negative people brainwash us otherwise, we can end all violent crime in 5-15 years in any nation that puts all its resources towards that, instead of useless violent sports and endless useless businesses. Every day, every hour, for 6-12, the TV will notify all of the new laws, penalties for theft, violence, gang membership, teach ethics, teach kinder tone, appeal to all to quit, donate all weapons, end gun crime, before the executions begin for any gangster or regular person doing drug traffic, slapping, punching, road rage violence, etc. ANIMALS who threaten Immortality for All as in ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 3 months have no right to exist. All gang members are deifying violence and murder and are in a class of their own, wholly different than "someone slapping a person and getting lifetime labor for it". But, due to the violent public private educational system, we understand, so all gangsters will be given a 1 year chance to swear their allegiance to Immortalist Anthem, instead of to violence and bloodshed. Those who swear allegiance to violence (torture included) or murder have no right to exist. Once the 16 month 24-7 educational state of national and planetary emergency state moves to 5 hours daily ethics education (from 12 prior), the mass executions of anyone caught in gangs or serious violent crime aged 18+ begin, plus lifetime labor for remaining gang members under 18*, as we rebuild the* immortalist nations. When all have very equal salaries, decent homes, and equal job opportunities in the 11 companies, 0 unemployed, when all music, TV-radio tone is eterni, when boxing, UFC, martial arts and all violent thuggish sports are outlawed, when the infernal tone of sports commentators is no longer cursing the human quantum field on TV-radio, when all music on TV-radio is gentle and kind not diabolical, when free education is truly imbued with gentle tender soft healing nurturing universal kindness, there are no more excuses for violence, as aristocrats, international parasites, national thieves are no more. We immortalists play no games like many who promise a lot, but do nothing once elected. When we say ETERNAL UNIVERSAL PEACE, we mean it and it implies 0 violent crime (State of Emergency UNTIL IT IS ACHIEVED, see Quiet Cities section in State of Emergency Guidelines) and obviously the end of all wars via kind high tech nonkilling means. Humanity either disappears soon or achieves ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ (meaning 0 violent crime, 0 wars) soon, as weapons that wipe out all humans in 2 minutes will soon be discovered. Thus, given this planetary emergency, 1 trillion times orders of magnitude more serious than even climate change, ultra fast action is needed to save our species. Today, even with all our weapons, many will survive underground, etc, but one day, with only 1 device, not 1 million nukes, all humans underground and above can die in 2 minutes or 10 seconds, so it's a DIFFERENT world, where entire continents can be wiped out in seconds, with all humans gone. Since World Peace in 3 months is the goal of immortalists to save the human species, it's not yet clear what decisions will be made on the use of continent busting weapons for violent regimes, if they can't be convinced to rid themselves of all violent crime too. Those who swear their allegiance to violence, terror, murder have no right to exist, if you were to be preventing violent wars. Those who oppose Eternal Universal Peace in 3 months have no right to exist, as they condone wars that will lead to trillions of casualties in future centuries, not just 1 billion. The impending risks to human species survival will ultimately decide if 20 folks or 5 billion will die before Eternal Universal Peace comes true via the collective efforts of the 99%, the nonviolent people. With a blast taking 5 billion, one country or alliance wins and will bring one language, currency, nation to prevent further wars, as no potential rivals exist and all can be at peace. Why wait for 7 billion dead when we can do it peacefully now, before most die?

The natural question arises: if after eons some families created 25000 banks and 2 million businesses to steal all the wealth of many nations or at least 95% of it, by creating genocidal systems of looting the government and taxpayers, without paying the fair share of taxes for using the existing system to amass wealth (as the 11 companies section explains the genocides), what will happen to these small aristocrats, medium ones and the richest aristocrats before the violent crime 1 year education on TV state of emergency? Obviously, to implement those "no reason to be violent reforms", you need 1.5 years or so, when all TV programs are 90% ethics and the reforms, leading to death penalty. The rapid nationalization and merger of thousands of companies is easy to do within 2-4 years (incremental unification and mergers, first formal, the HR, the salary, one HR department for the Entire USA, then the processes, industrial processes, business processes, which takes 10-30 years to achieve undreamed of high tech efficiency and 100 times more high tech jobs), and can be completed even after the death penalty is implemented after the 1.3-1.5 years of intensive 24-7 education. Only death penalty will act as a powerful deterrent for many people who're pathologically violent, thanks to the violent aristocrats and the system they created to suck the blood out of everyone. The guilty companies will be fined and fines will be paid by owners of companies, leading to the companies dissolving as the state acquires them, these people losing a huge part of their wealth, possibly 99% if very wealthy, to acknowledge the fact nobody works 1 billion times harder than those who now have only 1 dollar saved, but were the most honest, hard working and science progress boosting person in the entire country. The rich only become rich by simply managing others' talents for maximum theft from the millions buying their bad products. There is no incentive for these aristocrat criminals to unify all food companies, to recycle everything like in Canada, to not use metal cans for food, but much easier to recycle and biodegradable containers for food. They only deify profit, trash the planet, as seen in most America where little is recycled properly. The cities are run by gangsters too far too often, so all city and state governments are dissolved to create a super centralist USA, where every local person is a federal employee and ONE Policy and Law in all USA and EU, not 20000 as in 20000 towns with 20000 royal families (like British Royal family enslaved Brits or Russian royal family enslaved Russians for centuries) and Nobility classes. Taxes are abolished, since all are paid by the USA government and receive much more equal salaries. Only 1 bank exists, so no more useless feeders and parasites to terrorize the workers.

So, to the surprise of many, immortalists want to bring fairness, by kindly correcting the unfair system of mass subjugation of workers, police, military, justice system, government, by the rich, who use these without giving back much at all. However, some small, medium or big aristocrats are decent people, so no aristocrat will be killed or left penniless like in communist times, since they have knowledge that can be used in the design of the 11 mega companies and their many efficient departments to make room for 40 million high tech STEM jobs, even if they won't be the 'boss' of the company or anything close to it. We need to be honest and admit that aristocrats are guilty of the same crimes almost as the rest: engaging in ultra selfish behavior and sports, like the useless businesses of depraved capitalism who cares not about end of violent crime and war, but only about MONEY, their Eternal GOD. Thus, while their crimes of grand theft can be easily fixed by taking away the amount stolen from the nation, the rest of the behavior can't be leading to death, since every nonaristocrat would do almost the same, as we have seen poor rise thru fraud and ambition into the ranks of the ruthless opportunists. However, once the death penalty for violent crime is fully explained, everyone will be subject to the same law of course. We can't kill people just because they made 10 times more, when anyone could do the same if they only put their mind to it and worked really hard to cheat everyone and con the system, loot the system. Since no stock markets exist (a hooligan system of gambling, fraud and looting), no banks, except the One Bank of the People, the obsessive compulsive disorder, OCD, of predatory capitalism, the MONEY obsession, will disappear, especially as salaries are going to be 1000 times more equal and moving, over decades, as immortality credit score system of access to products is created, to equal pay for all people, meaning the same universal income for all, every week, as all are employed, with the only difference being what products one can buy based on ethics and effort to maximize everyone's lifespan. This system removes any desire for theft, for violence, for revenge, as everyone knows and feels they're paid equally, and those who want to stress more to increase lifespan can get better access to some products that are or may be more useful in living longer: a better built house, a 20% bigger house perhaps, a nicer neighborhood where all match your immortality credit score plus minus 5 or nonviolence score if you so say via housing.gov, a better air or water filtration system, etc. This removes all greed, all possibility of theft, as all is monitored by the police in the 11 companies in a way impossible with today's 33 million scam companies, so that all criminal gangs can't exist and evolve in such an ultra monitored system. Naturally, criminals will try to form secret gangs and do bad things within the 11 companies, but it won't be possible as AI alerts cops to any transactions and all are cashless electronic monitored transactions, to prevent gangs from using cash to hide $ exchange. In the new era, the royal and aristocratic families who joined hands with or were organized crime itself are reduced to regular citizens status, without the personality cults they enjoyed for millennia with their brothers in crime, the promoters of ultra violent 'scriptures' to keep masses ignorant, sedated and clueless. Instead of being 29 billion worth, they would be just 250000 like most people. No more airplanes for pastors who con everyone, no more personality cults for fraudsters, when a simple ethics.gov explains to all the basics of common sense via Immortalist Anthem like 500 times shorter 'scriptures' and the 0 ethics of old 'scriptures'. The leaders, managers of the 11 companies will be councils of many people, to prevent personality cults, with decisions read by AI or special eterni tone speakers who present the debated policies that people can vote on. The end of fake elections, of political parties, means we no longer elect individuals and personality cults, but POLICIES to maximize the added total national lifespan years, not just lifespan of the 0.1% who use the system to subjugate all and undermine all ethics and science.

THE BEGINNING of Order in America, Earth or any immortalist nation☺☺☺

We ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ need to remove all violence from all media, movies, music, literature (will take 3 months, as that means 99% of content needs removal), from education, and broadcast for 1.5 years on all TV-radio stations, main news sites the tone and ethics training, music, lyrics and ethos of eterni gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kind grace. During this 1.5 year period of heavy education of all adults (basically all normal programs stop, with a few exceptions for news and science, to make space for the new programs broadcast on all radio-stations and TV so all who listen to those will see them 50 times at least), all are educated into the new penalties that will take effect in 1.5 years from the start, when 500 trillion cameras will be installed already: fine 9000 times the amount stolen for theft (half given to the victim☺☺☺), fines and 50-15000 hours of educational courses (taken online mostly over a few weeks or decades depending on the offense, with some in person tests and evaluations of tone, brain, etc) for all nonviolent crimes and lifetime labor for minors or even death penalty for adults doing violent crimes. For teens who engage in ram raids (which could easily kill cleaning people or other people not seen who fix something in the store when store is closed) where 10 year olds drive cars to ram into stores to open door and steal stuff, where the kids know they can't pay 9000 times the amount stolen or damaged in the store, they're taken to special cities and separated from parents and society, in a 'lifetime labor' (well, 40 hours a week, maybe 6.5 hours for 6 days with a day of rest, to give more time for rest daily) type of environment where the state educates them, not psycho parents, since all these violent kids are from totally destroyed families where they witness violence, unreported violent crime, almost daily. It's one thing to steal something and another to engage in a violent robbery like ramming a car which could kill someone. Today, police does little and many of these teens attack the same stores over and over. It's not fair.

We can't remove the death penalty if we want to end ALL violent crimes ultra fast☺☺☺, since many hardcore criminals would view the healing center relaxing job of the 'lifetime labor' as a nice vacation and reward, simply too soft and a free pass or encouragement to again attack or kill someone and fulfill their pathological desire for revenge even at the risk of a relaxing stress free job for life or 'lifetime labor'. Biker gangsters caught distributing nicotine after its ban, like Australia banned nicotine vaping outside pharmacy prescription, will be executed if amount trafficked is above 5 packs of cigarettes (common for retail clerks in Australia to sell illegal packs), but only after they were all heavily educated via TV for 1 year, about the death penalty for distributing nicotine first. Already in Australia, those selling vapes outside pharmacies face up to 2 million dollar fines, up to 7 years jail time, amazing, congratulations Australia for protecting the youth. South Australia has steep fines for selling any vape to minors, 1 million for one sale, 1.5 million for 2 sales. The 2022 Aussie homicide by firearm rate was 59 times lower than USA too, 0.1 vs 5.9 in 100000, I guess the USA 'Re*thuglicans* from hell' could learn a thing or two from Australia, to use a sarcastic Internet name for Re*publicans*, in reference to the fact only thugs from hell arm everyone with a weapon that makes killing 1 million times easier instead of giving everyone free education in the kindest tone, and eternal 24-7 music concert-TV-radio emotional intent tone education via a soothing calming voice and music rhythm of gentle tender soft Nurturing Universal Kind Healing Graceful Compassion and Immortality for All as in ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~. USA is the only developed nation where most homicides are gun based, since guns make it way easier to kill. Soon, they will say everyone needs an anti-tank weapon and small nuke to defend against "groups of teens attacking".☺☺☺ Australia got 15 guns per 100 people vs 120 guns in USA (see world list). Immortalists would just stick to $25 million fines max for selling 5 vapes outside pharmacies and $5 million minimum, no jail, as that would close their small business and save taxpayer money wasted with jailing. For heavy traffic, 10-5000 packs or vapes, death penalty will be used. For too long, gangsters have run rampant and done whatever they wanted in NZ/Australia, Canada, USA, UK, EU, terrorizing the neighborhoods, stealing thousands of cars (penalties are trivial, not 9000 times the amount stolen, meaning lifetime labor to pay the debt for the car stolen) to resell off-continent or locally and other areas, so something drastic needs to happen. Check out theft increase from 2021 to 2023. What? Trillions of paths or choices exist. One is not only banning motorcycles (cops ought to have them only to catch gangsters) that gangsters use to terrorize cities with noise, disturb silence and attack others on highways, but banning all gangs as we have discussed already: the complete crushing of all gangs. The gangs are not the Immortality for All government, and the government can't allow death to spread. By the way, in communist times, prostitution was illegal, today, it was legalized in all former communist nations, in an example of chaos happening after 1989, when drug use also spiked 100000 fold in some nations. Did communists do some good things? Sex for procreation only makes more sense.☺☺☺ Aussie lady makes 2 million/year, the government is publishing such crap that makes it look like encouraging abysmal IQ for all, among these men who destroy their brains with sex, and their families too. Instead of giving $1500 to a good cause, they waste it on sex. Prostitution brainwashes people that you can't attain much healthier, higher bliss by breathing, meditation alone, so it destroys the national higher cortex, being a violent crime against the human quantum field, brain of the nation, planet. Thus, it ought to be lifetime labor sentence for prostitution, death for sex slavery.

This high school teacher, if the story is true, would qualify for death penalty for making kids walk on 4 on 125°F pavement to cause severe burns and injuries, as it is the equivalent of an almost lethal punch in amount of human cells destroyed by the heat. The ethics of all teachers is explained well in the Immortalist Anthem, for all police and military trainers too: be gentler kinder more nurturing, a trillion times more so, than the most nurturing gentlest mom is with her 3 week old suckling baby. This attitude of being a trillion times kinder than the kindest mom, this principle, brings World Peace instantly, if UN agrees to part or all of this Universal Anthem for all Nations. Once again, to live a trillion times longer, we need a trillion times more gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kindness. We need to discuss at the UN how we bring this world, of one language, one law, one currency, maybe 11 companies and 1 trillion times longer lifespan for all, instead of the grotesque talks "of wars, bombings and invasions, of the violence full Bible, of the violence full Torah, Mahabharata or Quran". Notice the word HONEST, a trillion times more HONEST, we need to explain to the whole world how aristocratic parasites created religions to take over continents. The UN needs to become honest first time ever, and admit the Bible, Quran, Torah [beatings, deified in the demonic Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or evil Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives)] have no relevance or even the right to be published in a world of a trillion times higher gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kindness. We need to talk of this trillion times higher gentle tender soft nurturing daily on TV, radio, music, in a tone a trillion times kinder, so we don't need so many death penalties, huge fines, community service, educational courses sentences for crimes. We need to educate, to prevent crime before it emerges in the brain. When was this TV-radio talk done by young people, the future we try to inspire to be so? Never, everything is done by grumpy old men and women, with no gentle tender soft healing eterni tone and we want a better old? Let the gentlest Youth be the only speakers on the ImmortalityTV.com, since 99.99% of near future crime will be done by those who're under 30

now. When did the UN focus on magnifying healing gentle tender softness in all nations? ☺☺☺

Too many psychopaths get these nice jobs to torture kids called physical education teacher and all they do is cause injuries while physical energy could have been used to fix issues with 250 million houses in America, especially 50 million, and develop the eterni qualities these gorilla teachers and almost everyone lacks: gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest healing compassionate kindness. Instead of helping the human brute to evolve out of its depraved, violent, selfish nature, these ☺filif IQ☺ gorilla teachers☺☺☺ simply make the issue worse than it already is, shouting like Hitler. We need to get ethics by gentle exercise in service to others, while listening to eterni tone music and lyrics types of classes, not these physical education "drastic lowering of average IQ" classes, any rat (cannibalistic if hungry) like filif IQ cannibal chimp (from which we come, and to whom we owe our eternal wars cruelty evident in the TV-music tone) can climb/run, but few species make it out alive past the planetary weapon level. The same ultra violent energy infernally rules every gym in America and EU almost, and every military training camp, as aristocratic cannibals love to transform all decent humans into brutes via conscription. The youth simply volunteers to solve real world problems and exercise by doing that, such as "today we clean the free weekly biomarkers monitoring area of the Immortality City Center. Tomorrow, we will fix some houses with the aid of Immortality Building Inc staff, and then we sing in the Tone Hall of the Immortality City Center." Once we evolve to ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ thanks to the happy Immortalist Party, the need of gorilla military and police instructors yelling like Hitler and doing dangerous torture of trainees and causing endless damage to human quantum field and injuries of cells that pollute the quantum field, when it is not needed, will be over, so the whole humankind now unites to end all violent crime and war, in one eterni song, for the graceful end of yelling and horrific tones we so often hear in PLA and most military ad videos. These tones are unacceptable in a world of Immortals, so we need to evolve out of them to prevent the 2 second end of the human species using the all human tones ending weapons. If peaceful means of ending such verbal abuse of the human quantum field by shouting infernal tones doesn't yield peace, naturally things will lead to war, as such tones always do. What the gentle need to recall is it's not the muscles, shouting power or speed in jumping like a gorilla in a ship or anything that matters at all in combat, but who is kinder, more relaxed, more creative, more able to discover the amazing device that defeats with 1 guy 9 billion gorillas. One kind immortal can defeat 9 trillion planets of ☺filif hyena IQ☺ violent thugs who shout like Hitler. We need an army of physicists, engineers and chemists, not weight lifters, and obviously, an army of eterni tone and content TV speakers. Muscles lose all modern wars.

Take for example this very typical every day robbery story. The reason robberies happen is 1. every ☺puppy IQ guy☺ (unfortunate brainwashed by the evil violent media, music, radio, TV, violent quotes promoting officials (who swear on violent texts) and clergy, decentralized violent teacher tone schools) has a gun 2. unemployment ought to be 0 by creating the 11 companies where unemployment doesn't exist, some sit and do nothing while others collapse at 35 due to working 83 hours a week, and die 2 days later. The current system promotes violent crime by its very nature. When unemployed, what will they do? Rob of course, it is so easy, because 3. there is no death penalty or lifetime labor for a robbery, only some small fine or 2 week in jail etc. Only people with the highest immortality credit score, meaning 5% of population, ought to be allowed to own guns. Hunting ought to be illegal, left to the wildlife management employees.

We have deadlines, so we need to achieve 1 billion times lower violent crime within 3 to 20 years, we can't just be ultra ultra soft, or the entire planet my explode and kill everyone, 8 billion in 10 seconds. Thus, logically, it's better for 1 million to die via death penalty, and 20 million to be in lifetime labor cities, than to have 8 billion be killed by a quantum weapon. We either are serious about ending violent crime, wars or are not. This is not even about violent crime, but about the end of the human species. The entire planet may only need to kill 10, if reeducation via nice videos is implemented well to transform all, but we can't tell them we will limit to 10, as that removes the deterrent of the death penalty. We need to clarify, we're open to kill 2 million thugs, traffickers, drug dealers, rapists and killers (who shorten the human lifespan as much as 2 million dead times 5 at least, only distributed over a large number of 4 billion people whose lives are impacted by violent crime) on Earth within 4 years to bring order like never before: 1 billion times less violent crime. Each year 60 million people die, and even 100000 death penalties (a theoretical number) is negligible, if it prevents the equivalent of 1000 times more deaths in the long run. Each gangster distributing tobacco in the future kills about 100 people, so if we kill one distributor, we save 99 lives. Smarter yet is to not kill him, but use him for some construction project, roads, infrastructure for the rest of his life. We will see what skills he has and what he can do for the country in the labor camps. We either are serious about World Peace that lasts, which only is possible with 0 violent crime, or we're just clowns talking about Peace. The criminals who commit the most heinous crimes repeatedly, via gangs and various things shorten the humanity lifespan by more than 300 million lifespan years, so killing 1 million horrific thugs would decrease humankind lifespan years by only 50 million lifespan years. All kids are educated since birth with the eterni tone, 0 crime scenes, etc, fairness, so there is no crime. Adults however, didn't receive this education from 0 to 20, so it's harder for them to learn it from 2 years of part-time TV-radio-main websites lessons every 10 minutes. However, once the 20 million caught doing violent crimes are in special reeducation cities, the violent crime will cease, we save 300 billion lifespan years next 1000 years by doing this. Thus, it's better to lose 50 million lifespan years to gain 300-800 billion if population grows.

The death penalty would only be used for those who try to kill others or seriously harm them via heavy slaps, 10 slaps or 10 punches, not for a gentle slap within the healing city, of course. A gentle slap simply puts them in a restricted area with the worst criminals, to enjoy living with the worst criminals on Earth until death in the labor camp, as we won't want to kill 50 million people if 50 million love to slap and do stuff until they die. They can work and do stuff in factories. The super ultra softness means that we can't cure the planet of the violence disease, only manage the disease. For example the city of rapists has all those who're rapists in the area only, working on projects as part of lifetime labor, such as highway building, etc under the supervision of armed guards with right to kill if anyone attacks anyone, to prevent any decent person from being killed at the hands of a psycho. What violent crimes may receive death penalty is yet to be decided, depending on how fast crime descends and how useful the labor of these violent criminals can be. Some criminals are so bad and screwed up, they can't even do basic jobs, they're only good at violence and killing, and they deserve instant death, but such cases are very rare, usually anyone is able to learn something and change their criminal ways learned from age 1 from their gang family. The police can determine in each case if a person is good to do any labor, by giving them a probation period while they heal and listen to ethics classes over 5 weeks. No society ought to waste huge resources to keep a thug alive so he can do nothing for society except sit in a cell. Everyone needs to give back to society in some fashion, these "lifetime jail" sentences are just a recipe for disaster, as the guys just start a new gang.

Any ethical human on this planet would agree with immortalists that in the context of this planet risking complete extinction of all humans in 10 seconds via new weapons, any sport and act of violence, of kicking balls and smashing balls against the floor as in many sports, while others are homeless or live in terrible conditions, overcrowded and in jails, is selfish and criminal, an act of violence against the small, medium and large balls☺☺☺ that conditions the person to be violent, to be indifferent to the horrible fate of scapegoated humans who're homeless or in jail due to the system of 0 education for the poor. So, we may need to create a broader definition of violent crime, in order to create a truly civilized world of gentle tender soft nurturing grace. Is it not a big violent crime to waste 200 acres on a golf course, violently kicking balls, while the hope of the nation, 2 million youth, live in 200 acres? Of course it is. Let's not have the working youth support the parasite senior aristocrat who does nothing all day except play golf. Such depravity can't be unanswered, we can't have a system of retirement at 65, when many people live 25 years longer at least now, not just 10 as before, living at the expense of the super crowded or even homeless youth, while sucking the nation of resources, watching violent sports on TV, being loud, waking the 55 hours a week job youth up from sleep with their super loud TVs due to a laziness beyond compare (headphones too hard to use), a lack of concern for others never seen before, creating traffic jams and giving nothing back to the nation after age 65. Look at the heroic college professors, who work 20 hours a week, at the college, even at 104 and compare that with the fat aristocrat who plays golf and watches violent basketball or soccer on TV. We need to take our country back, to end these selfish sports facilities, excessive zoos, pet stores, per hospitals, casinos, vape stores, tobacco stores, liquor stores, nail/hair styling and jewelry stores, brothels, strip clubs, build the healing cities where those who commit violent crimes can live, and end all jails. People first, pets later. Let's practice true ethics. How many gambling facilities, drugs and smoking devices do we need to care about those scapegoated in jails? Don't you have any compassion for those in jail society uses to scapegoat the crimes of the masses that precipitated those incidents? Where is that compassion? Perhaps, sports players have never read one of the typical 1 million articles online about how prisons are run and what goes on there and what huge reforms are needed: death penalty to any prison distributor of tobacco, drugs, phones to establish gangs, etc. We either educate people in jails or new sealed healing centers with factories on site (much safer to prevent escapes and huge transportation costs via buses for everyone 50 miles to a construction site, so maybe build a 3d house printer to do houses or some on site housing (tiny houses on wheels) near a huge infrastructure project sealed from the rest, for road work or dams, etc) or etc about ethics and Immortality for All, or not. What's the purpose of jail, if they do as much bad or more than before being in jail? How can we allow such crap, then complain "crime exists"? Stop playing sports, help immortalists replace jails with healing centers, prove you care about these people scapegoated so you get no fine, no jail yourself for contributing to these acts done by them, since all contribute to every crime. Every low IQ person on TV who is yelling contributes. They never get jailed, not even fined $50000. How unfair. Well, let's be fair, if we want to live to 130, the retirement age will be raised to 110. Gradually of course. The youth can't work 3 jobs, have kids, in order to support seniors teaching Bible crap or golf or, worse yet, teaching their 50 year old sons how to torture the youth who doesn't listen to their claims of fake miracles, that they teach fully knowing miracles are fake, only to deceive/enslave the youth. Anyone can create a better scripture than Bible see 1 of 1 trillion possibilities, the Immortalist Anthem.

Any illegal drug distribution outside of healing centers, sealed healing cities (that replace prisons, since no mail can be received by lifetime labor 'inmates') would mean DEATH PENALTY if the drug transported exceed the lethal dose for 1 single person. This is 100000 times more stringent than today. This means anyone caught with 2 mg fentanyl would be dead. All the rest, who traffic less than lethal dose, get lifetime labor. Let there be clarity: shooting someone dead is often punished with death penalty, so transport of lethal dose of any drug is not much different, since someone could use it and die. A person today usually transports far above that, causing 10-200000 deaths equivalent and 500 to 10 million lifespan years lost, so they deserve death penalty 10 times, since if not killed, they will distribute a lot more and do the equivalent of more than 10 murders, plus ripple effects over next 500 years mean 1000 dead. Thus, math logic dictates that we need to kill 1 person to save 10-1000 killed. This will be explained, by the hottest nicest tone ladies and men in their 20s, on the Eternia Flag very colorful background, on TV-radio (ALL STATIONS, give 3 weeks off 1st year to all citizens to take online classes on ethics at ethics.gov) hourly for 1.5 years over 20-30 minutes out of each hour ("5 months left, deaddict now, learn bliss by breathing now"), and displayed near the news host on the right, to clarify, in beautiful colorful letters as each penalty is presented, in the kindest tone, before it is implemented, so all know how drugs kill millions, so that we prevent these deaths and they get only 'lifetime labor in a healing city' if caught with less than lethal dose of weed or any drug. This is implemented at the same time we establish UNIVERSAL JOBS FOR ALL, VIA THE 11 COMPANIES. This way, they get some income, to replace illegsl drug, alcohol, tobacco sales. All unemployment is banned forever. No more time to sell alcohol, tobacco, vapes, drugs illegally, beat wives, kids, get drunk. This way the amount of executions will be 100000 times lower. All nations who ship drugs to our countries are also sponsors of genocide, with which all trade stops (no more imported containers to hide drugs and ship poison to us) and declaring war against our nation, NATO and EU. Military action against coca, opium, etc growing nations ought to be the number 1 priority if peaceful negotiations to end cartels don't work. If any drugs found in our country coming via third country, and they don't stop it, we have a legitimate reason for burning all fields (limited airstrikes), all labs (flatten entire villages or neighborhoods known as cartel areas, if we can't find them fast, use loud speakers, leaflets to tell all civilians to get out of a village) even without the country allowing us to do it. The said countries can't do anything about it anyway, if NATO attacks, except cheer in secret while they appear to be "against it in public ways to avoid drug cartel retaliation once NATO ends the 3 to 20 day strike series". Colombia can't make money by genocide. Women soliciting as they do in Australia on the main website seen by 20 million, as they encourage prostitution, who offered their services to more than 2 men, would get lifetime labor and those who had sex illegally 2 times (men) with a prostitute would be sent to lifetime labor too. Bitches like these sluts on Australia's main website for news would not exist. Solicitation in any shape or form, secret chat online somewhere etc, would be the same lifetime labor in all USA-EU-Australia-Canada by the G20 agreement to end all such depravity. These vampiric parasitic bitches from hell need a real job, even if tomato picking using robots.☺☺☺ We thus bring the era of kindness, of the benefits of happy breathing, good sleep, meditation, smiling, and of sex for pro-creation only. This is the evolution of the human race from animals to Immortals. To be fair to all whores, drug addicts and thugs, for 2 years TV-radio-internet would broadcast "HOW TO BE HAPPY WITHOUT TOBACCO, DRUGS SEX, ALCOHOL, VAPING" programs on happy breathing, good sleep, healthy diet. This gives all time to practice and end their addiction, so we send to "lifetime healing centers" 100000 times less, only the most stubborn, 0 IQ types who simply can't get it, have no mercy or compassion. Surely, with 11 companies and everyone having a job, there is no need for brothels and pimps. Let's kindly gently clarify: humans don't punch and attack others, whether in boxing or martial arts or anger.

Only animals do that. Thus, any parent, teacher, rabbi, priest, etc caught slapping or spanking a child gets death penalty (lifetime labor if really good skills for labor camp) and anyone caught raping, punching or seriously attacking a human is guilty of potential murder by heart attack and deserves nothing else but the death penalty itself. Such savage brutes have not right to exist. Acts of violence shown on TV lead to thousands of such acts again and are illegal to show, those who love violence won't exist. For too long demonic violence has been deified thanks to the demonic Bible, etc. Therefore, all martial arts teaching facilities will be banned globally. Humans will evolve past hits. Presidents won't play judo, like Putin. Just as cannibalism was common place one time, and it's no longer allowed today, violence and hooligan sports and "martial arts", even body building, won't be anymore and be seen as cannibalism is seen today: pure evil. "Martial arts" here refers to Karate or kicking others etc, not to gentle tai chi or qi gong energy flow that attacks none. The so called "boxing loving" "spiritual" Christian chimps will finally evolve to the immortalist human stage of a new vibe: Gentle Tender Soft Nurturing Universal Kind Healing Graceful Compassion and Immortality for All☺☺ as in ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~. We let that Gentle Tranquil Serenity Eternal Shine Forever, allow all to experience the infinite nirvana or bliss of the immortalist greeting of Universal Immortality. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

We need to make the slightest punch towards any body area be perceived as evil as murder is perceived today, in order to evolve past violence. We need to ban not only guns (after we kill all animals that people may need guns to defend against, due to ☺filif IQ folks☺ wanting to conserve genocidal carnivores who shed blood daily: carnivores have no right to exist, because they kill 1000 times more animals if left to live than us killing them once), but also ban swords (only insane people buy swords, like this psycho who killed a guy), ban big/sharp knives (small knives only allowed for safety and to discourage meat consumption) and later ban all knives, as all foods are eterni powders dissolved in water, helping us live to 9000 and nobody needs kitchens anymore. Nobody can even purchase a gun during the transition period of "all carnivores attacking humans not yet dead" without having an extremely high Immortality Credit Score (3% of people max, mostly cops, spies, soldiers, etc). All swords are illegal to produce as well anything dangerous, like knives that are sharp (only professional chefs in a restaurant ought to have those and the rest removed from all stores, except the ultra blunt small knives that make a homicide 900 times harder to do and will sharply reduce homicides, attacks). We ban all cooking shows that show men cutting mammals, animals, meat as that makes it easier for the brain to view 'hated people as animals to be cut'. This desensitization to the use of big sharp knives to cut a lot of animal meat plays a key role in homicides. We need to declare state of emergency, shut down 20 million companies, create 11 and then we got 40 million new jobs to create eterni foods within 25 years and in the transition period all cooking on TV shows no knives, no meat, only vegan stuff with the smallest least blunt knives or hand prep, break carrot in two, place it in the steamer of the pressure cooker or food processor to make smoothie, etc. Eterni Foods are powders that you dissolve in water, and drink within 1 minute, as a thick gel. No more mastication, no more forks, no more knives sold anywhere, no more brain resources wasted with mastication, big teeth, etc, more resources to build eterni tone neocortex (domesticated foxes, flooded with human love and more eterni like energy vs wild life, develop 200+ genes and vocalizations within 5 decades and double their lifespan as voice changes from animalistic cannibal chimp tones of "much modern macho masculine violent music" to the gentler more feminine refined immortalist human tone, as eterni humans develop new tones and speech, language and emotional intelligence centers, 100s of new genes appear in the brain like with foxes, as the Immortals, invisible, from the present or future*, domesticate our brutish nature, just as* ethics.gov AI immortals educate and heal the genes of criminals to make them way nicer and upgrade their violent genes via mere music and video watching), a new human emerges, bigger brain, smaller jaw, smaller mouth, tiny teeth over time as all is a gel and we evolve towards bigger eyes*, smaller mouths*. Powders retain nutrients 500 times better, rot and grow bacteria 500 times less. This is another way to prevent violent crime, which often use these as 'threat devices'. Lifetime labor for teens who punch others is needed, death if done again, after the mandatory 500 hour reeducation course, 10 hrs/day, in a restricted area away from "home" within the healing center where lifetime labor is served. ☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

Girls were 14% of people involved in brawls 2 decades prior, but as the Zion Elders and others promoted brawls on the internet videos, and TV news, the % moved to 46% of brawls, almost reaching the 54% of boys. This is a hybrid war on gentiles, to create violence against kids by the future moms, violence within the family, etc. Let all the teens know death penalty for any brawl will soon be the law of the land, as well as lifetime labor for anyone posting brawl videos on social media or any website. Isn't it time to change laws on videos and scenes shown on TV-Internet? Brawls are complex events of punches and pushing, shoving, which could cause heart attack and permanent brain damage and deserve nothing but death penalty. All teens caught doing it more than once deserve death. However, we need a vast change in education, Zionist media, before such tough penalties are implemented, as well as $50 million fines for anyone posting violent movies online that instigate people to violence. If one can't pay, then lifetime labor will be the result. Once the period of education is over, nobody can post violent movies on youtube or anywhere, but they can report a recorded phone video to police who will take action if the 500 trillion cameras didn't catch it yet, and receive a 10000$ reward from the police for taking video of a violent crime and being a good fighter against violence. Any violent content in movies, songs, chat rooms, etc TV-radio needs to be removed first before any such law will become official. Everyone needs to attend the special ethics classes of 200 hours on the new ethics of Universal Immortality for All, and of tone of speech, so that everyone is on the same page. As mentioned above, the death penalty for 2 brawls or punch instances for teens and death for adult violent crimes*, need to be explained to all at least* 17000 times over 2 years on all TV stations worldwide, so all know we can't be animals anymore. We can't devolve into animals or humans will all disappear in 10 seconds. A civilization where 1 brawl occurs in 8 billion folks is not human, but one of brutes or animals. Just as we kill tigers because they kill people, we simply kill the animals among us, who do what is one step from the anger that kills people and used deadly devices to express that brawl anger. It's unbelievable how people react when a brawl happens, how much the Zionist media normalizes it, showing it daily on TV, until every girl does it. Let's get our countries back from these savages who have taken over the entire planet with their ultra violent Bible values. We're not chimps and we can't allow hooligan chimps to turn humans into chimps. Wars start with brawls, if brawls are OK, then so will horrific wars be OK, which are just one step further. Instead of using the internet, media to bring Eternal World Peace some use it to bring the end of humanity.

All negative words, negative emotions, negative actions in history, have to be gradually, over 10 years, be removed from the 1st grade to PhD, as violent crime decreases, in order to remove the genetic memory of violence, genocide, anger, rage, despair, pessimism from all to create heaven. Words like "punch", "rape", "anything for any violent crime" need to disappear, from all literature, Internet, etc, not just as images or movies online or TV. This is done easily once World Peace arrives and all nations agree to remove genetic memory of humans attacking humans. The almighty cosmic infinite energy of Eternal Infinite Life will aid the Immortalist Youth in bringing this amazing & beautiful ☺☺☺ World of Immortals. For example: instead of describing the horrific atrocities of the French revolution, they would say "people had attempted to make society more fair, with more equal pay for equal work, instead of the rich trying to make 50000 times more than the rest by doing same 40 hours of work a week. People realized that to live to a trillion years old, in their soul, it was important to help all live longer first so all become genius inventors and bring 1 billion times more technologies that would be absent if everyone was merely a slave of some low IQ guy who buys material objects to satisfy his 2nd grade desire for storing useless objects in his palace". End of story. We don't need to get graphic or mention beheadings, but summarize the important points and use 90% of history classes to talk about the history of the trillion year old Immortals, our descendants, who actually, tell us how they got there and how we will get there". Remove all violent behavior from past history, don't focus on it, just as you when you date a girl, you don't start telling her all that's wrong with her, when we date our ancestors, we don't start focus on on their insanity, but on the good intentions they had to free us all from bloodshed, short lives and subjugation by a few criminal bankers and aristocrats. This is a change, from death and negativity for the enslaved worker and gentile, to freedom for all and hope for all. History would be presented only in its nonviolent aspects, evolution of discoveries to help all live longer, cure disease, etc, no mention of any of the cruel things will be made, to prevent anyone from forming hate or despair about the nature of humans. Only those who attend an academy for police or planetary defense against bad aliens would get to learn some of the graphic events that are so well described in this book, so as to raise the general vibe, emotional content and intent quality of everyone. Each year curricula are changed for all grades to remove the slightest hint that humans are violent (since presenting atrocities in every history class is only reinforcing violent genetic memory and making us chimps), until all texts are like 'Immortalist Anthem' (which has no negative words) and nobody uses any negative words, swearing, cursing or any of the "charged words" in this book used to make a point to help us evolve past chimpism by implementing the most sweeping changes to education, media, TV-literature in the history of humanity, by a factor of 1 billion fold: entire genres and everything made illegal. To have peace, we need lower violent crime 1 billion fold. No more torture, atrocities and crime in books, no more dishonest characters (so nobody lies in 200 years, nobody steals, all are honest). Remove any knowledge of evil, any knowledge of human-human violence having ever occurred, so that all live in the mindset of Infinite Kindness towards all. Forgive and forget, MOVE ON. Don't stagnate into 1940 forever. Ethics classes weekly and only the most eterni prerecorded lectures are approved for all disciplines, no teacher can use his voice much if students don't attend lecture from home via immortality.edu (the universal education for the whole planet), except in labs, and always very eterni.

People learn from TONE 10000 times more than from the "30 min weekly church or ethics class" whose effect is canceled 100 fold by the extreme brawl, shouts, tone, violent scenes on media, TV, war news daily. Such "education" as kids receive today is simply a waste of time, a mockery of education. To educate, we need to tell all musicians, STOP, look at the JUNK you create, now is the time of real global change, when all TV has to have eterni tone to prevent the 10 second end of humans. If kids never see, read about violence, it will die down as genetic memory is slowly being removed and we're no longer evil chimps. Why do chimps, dogs, tigers suddenly kill their owners? Because they're animals with a strong genetic memory of doing it. The more you hang around dogs (watch the cruelty), the more their genetic memory goes to you, making you evil. Therefore, the pet and dog breed you get can destroy your very soul. That is why immortalists support 1 million dollar yearly fees for dogs that are too brutal to be near us, too brutal to exist. As violent crime diminishes, all big dogs that can bite would be illegal, as they only pollute the human DNA due to similarities to humans. Shih Tzu dogs would be OK. We need to clearly mention all adults need call 111 if there is any issue with the kids and not resort to corporal punishment. For serious beatings, deified in the demonic Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or evil Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives) by atheist or religious parents, death penalty needs to be reinstated. No teacher or parent has the right to punch a student or kid, it's a death penalty and all need to know it. The eternal abuse and teaching of genocide by violent adults needs to stop now. Any student who attacks a teacher or anyone severely ought to receive death penalty. Gone will be the days when ☺hyena IQ folks☺ can publish a demonic Bible/Torah that tells parents to beat kids with rods or a demonic Quran telling people they can beat wives. Such filth is good as toilet paper, not as a scripture.☺☺ Police will offer via ethics.gov free video cameras, with LiFi, for no RF pollution, to record events in the place/home that is used by a someone to attack and then use video to avoid any trial or wasting eons in courts, to simply execute the offender. 1 slap = death penalty. 1 slap = lifetime labor away from society (for the more skilled people who could do something useful, no contact with the kid that was slapped) forever. Let no parents doubt that one slap will make them never ever see their family again, for this alone will remove this slapping habit or curse ultra fast. Hitler, Stalin, Mao were beaten a lot and then they revenged by killing 200 million. SLAPPING IS GENOCIDE.☺☺☺ Slapping is too common. Same for rabbis who slap a lot and teachers, let kindness rule, not demonic violence, let kind tone and good eterni videos from ethics.gov explain to kid an issue or call to 111 (line for yelling and mean or unruly kid/parent who does dangerous things not listening to suggestions), but not slaps, and definitely not beatings deified in the evil Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or the evil Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives). In this system, the single parent who is left to care for kids due the other being taken away or killed, is quickly paid extra income if needed, and allowed to browse for singles and offered 2000 free dates of people interested, to replace the murderous parent or teacher, who taught genocide by his demonic living example. This way, we eliminate currently vastly unreported violent criminals fast, by paying the victim parent or witnessing parent, to call 111, install camera, use the video to cause the removal or execution (if severe beating) of the thug parent. All decent parents need to unite with the immortalist government and wipe out violence from the face of this planet forever. Likewise, a kid who is executed for almost killing another kid, is quickly replaced with someone from an orphanage if the parents want one. It's to be noted that the education would emphasize kindness, soft tender grace, empathy, compassion and gentleness so much, that nobody, except a mentally ill, 1 in a billion kids, would ever do such evil attacks, due to a genetic memory from ancestors that was not wiped out by good education. We need to be kindly aware that spies can control kid or adult brains with gadgets, so we need to stop imports of electronic devices, cars, computers and the like to be free from it all.

To be clear, currently the aristocratic mafia running many nations use military-spies-police to do millions of extrajudicial killings thru the aristocratic genocides described well in the 11 companies section. The way it works is simple and way beyond intentional genocides by bad products: they stage events that lead to people's death, suddenly or slowly, in 100s of ways, even stuff like 'giving idea to a guy to steal a phone and then run away fast, as a bus is calculated to hit him (bus driver is remotely controlled, he has no clue). This is a classic form of mind control to kill or injure, it can happen even while doing normal activities, without even a theft, the victim rushes to get some place and gets hit by the CIA team. The moral of the story may be, "look before you cross a street, don't punch like rabbis or don't slap like rabbis, don't strangulate, lock jaws and slap babies like a French Catholic priest, don't hit and slap adult women like this Latino Catholic priest, or like this teen (who never got lifetime labor like any slapping or punching teen ought to) slaps a kid, or like this guy who punches his bishop, ☺☺☺ because CIA-FBI-cops-MI6 may slap you lethally with a bus, everyone please behave, these are not the 500 BC Bible times". Even thieves today can get in big and hilarious trouble, since in 2020s, home entrance cameras are 900000 times more common than decades ago. You see every day police abusing people when they get angry or provoked by rude people, so it's best to not play God and punch/slap people because cops can get very mad and finish you off, literally killing you due to firing when not supposed to: remember, cops are not perfect people. We don't live in some paradise where nobody engages in violence, at least not in 2024. Cops are human, sometimes poorly trained due to the system of decentralized aristocratic terror, and everyone needs to understand civility. Kids and people are not punching or slapping bags. They got 5 trillion hidden cameras anyway and know 1 trillion times more than they let the public know. Thieves beware, they know a lot more about who is violent and thieving than they say. So, they already use the death penalty extensively on a huge scale, most people have no clue about, like daily torture described over 80 pages. Plus, we get endless cases of police needless shootings, due to decentralized training (need one national police department). Behind phony talk of "abolishing (or doing only 1 execution a year, etc or we abolished the death penalty (other countries so pretending)" lies the most cunning hypocritical system of genocide and extrajudicial killing by torture (in people's homes, not even talking about prison abuse aristocrats do). However, when other countries use the same death penalty to destroy CIA, MI6 or other agency created gangs in their country, it is not democratic and it's "extrajudicial killings". Once people realize how these scammers use the justice system to oppress the workers (who die due to car smog and coal gas oil smog and other forms of RF, EMF, acoustic, behavioral, etc smog generated by aristocratic companies), it becomes more evident that they kill as they see fit, just like during the middle ages. Then, you realize that the laws don't have any meaning actually, or even if they say we have or we don't have death penalty, because what can happen in practice is entirely different: no killings (even when death penalty given, they just build roads or do something in a 'lifetime healing center 40 h a week job') or 2 million more killings than reported. The death penalty in immortalist society is more of a symbol, the whole point is to never use it, but if people don't want to work and do more manual jobs that pose no security risk, then they can always opt for euthanasia to feel happiest. However, with the education about happy meditative bliss, they will choose life usually. It depends on the laziness and mindset of the offender. The death penalty in immortalist societies is mostly to educate people that a slap leads to genocide, and it may even be symbolic, with secret lifetime labor (on secret state projects or locations to not let enemy know how it is done), since nobody will be allowed access to the cremated ashes to create ambiguity if they're in a healing center working for World Peace or killed, to avoid giving the enemy too much info. However, the death penalty system mentioned in the previous 10 pages can be done only after we have more equal access to gentle tender soft tone education and the amazing basic human rights of shelter and decent food via the 11 companies, after the 2 years of hourly TV reminders (17500 times) of the new penalties. This way we remove all reasons for people to be violent against genocidal aristocrats who're violent covertly thru the system they setup to kill everyone slowly, except their fellow aristocrats: tired angry sleep deprived workers get more violent easily, as aristocrats push violence on TV to slaughter workers by the billions. So, we will take care of those bastards first, not by killing them, but simply restoring fairness and undoing the huge thefts done, since most were brainwashed by birth into aristocracy to be evil, not of their choice. So, don't worry, we don't mean that immediately, in 2 years of hourly reminder of the new penalties, they will introduce the real or fake (hidden lifetime labor) death penalty for the angry sleep deprived workers, we need to deal first with the biggest criminals who never get jailed or killed, who control all media, banks, etc. We give all thus, about 4 years, to reeducate themselves as 33 million companies become 11 companies (in 2-4 years) and in the transition 4 year period we gradually increase fines 5, 10, then 100 times, community service 10, 100, 1000 times, education ethics classes in eterni tone 5, 10 or 500 hours, and finally, when all incomes are very similar, we introduce the death penalties for violence to remove the last traces of violent crime and, if still happening, war. The whole point being that when all are happy, have similar incomes, all feel loved, none will attack anyone and thus none will die of death penalty, as all will get it: the immortalist government and all love you. No boxing of any bag is allowed to be shown in any medium, TV or online, the world is all sages. No violent kicking of any ball is allowed, as in most sports, no shoving of any human as in many sports today. Every action on TV-radio is selfless, HUMANS HELPING OTHERS TO LIVE HAPPIER, LONGER LIVES. To prevent the overuse of death penalty, they work to prevent it harder each time death penalty is given, 1000 other related people are fined, enrolled in education classes in empathy for failing to prevent such violent punching or brawl and the government will make national education vast changes to worldwide 'attacks' content, tone in online science classes to remove traces of vocal violence, anxiety, meanness (MRI scans of speaker), to quickly remove traces of selfishness in books, textbooks, websites, news, to vastly improve compassion, empathy content, so that all will have better role models and never attack anyone. Anyone on TV looks healthy, has nicest kindest tone and a good role model. The use of government funds to see sex workers is an absolute travesty, we want people to evolve to the state of eternal bliss and beautiful genderless shimmering shapeshifting

Immortals who have kids by materialization, without ever needing to ever have sex, to have kids or be happy. Sex work would be banned worldwide of course. We don't want devolution into animals. In a transition period to being Immortals, sex for procreation only makes sense.

Faced with an epidemic of crime and hooliganism, chimp tone and Hitler tone on TV-radio, violent slaps and beatings deified in the evil Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or evil Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives), punching and car rage, etc, all 200 nations need to consider meeting at the UN and creating the Universal Gentle Tone-Meditative Bliss Treaty for the Elimination of Alcohol-Tobacco-Weed-Drugs-Slaps-Spanking-Violent Crimes. This Treaty would use all TV-radio stations for half hour out of each hour of 24 hours daily, i.e. 12 hours/day, to teach ethics of gentle tender soft nurturing loving honest compassionate healing kindness, of the quiet cities new guidelines and astronomical fines for loud dogs, Immortalist Anthem and how to be happy by meditative relaxation, good regular sleep, eterni music and/or conscious breathing. This would run for 2 years and thousands of deaddiction makeshift clinics would be established in every neighborhood to help people get off alcohol, tobacco, vape products and drugs. After this 2 year period, the first stage of implementation begins, with education running only 5 hours daily, every hour about 13 minutes, and the makeshift clinics continue their work while penalties for slaps, distribution of alcohol-drugs-weed-tobacco increase to $1 million (twice the average price of a single family house in that nation) for average incomes and 500 million for 500 times the average income, income determines the fine, if income is twice average, then 2 million. This gives leftover addicts 2 years to deaddict, as fines are astronomical and houses are sold to pay the fine, salaries have 50% taken to pay the fine every paycheck and people given a cheap rental in a healing City of Altruism Virtue Building and Tone Education. After this 2 year implementation, if there is still anyone doing this, the next phase is 2 hour daily education every hour 5 min, and the penalty moves to lifetime labor. If after 2 years of lifetime labor as penalty global implementation, so 6 years total of heavy reductions in such crimes, free clinics, etc and endless education of the impending 10 second end of humanity if violence doesn't stop, thru nonstop TV education, still a lot happens, the next phase comes in to eliminate the last gangs and thugs on Earth: after 6 years of heavy education, the TV will explain via another 2 hours, 5 minutes each hour reminders of ethics, that the death penalty comes in for all who distribute alcohol, tobacco-drugs-weed and who slap or punch anyone, even if their kid or spouse, as long as it's not in self defense. This is run for however long it take to bring violent crime to 0 incidents of covert or overt violence, from about 100 billion today, most unreported and much of it also done by criminal government via secret police, secret gadgets, secret prisons inside people's homes, etc. No World Peace is possible with such level of violent crime or such tone on TV, such violent scriptures and hooligan clergy as shown 2 pages prior in the slap and hit videos by rabbis, priests. Another step is the elimination of all wars and covert torture by governments: if any country attacks, once again, the 4 steps begin: education (centralization of all education across nations, ideally having only 1-5 languages worldwide when possible to convince peacefully others to switch, for the highest quality tones and access to highest quality education instead of local trash in a language with 1 million times fewer science papers), fines, tariffs and no trade at all, then the quantum weapon that takes out the entire leadership or if that doesn't work entire cities where military is concentrated, etc. We need to have 0 violence to give common citizens the basic human right to a peaceful life free from the fear of being attacked by thugs or foreign bombers trying to steal stuff in their country, or people using electronic gadgets to kill others slowly, torture them from continents away by remotely turning on various hidden torture devices in everyday objects they "generously export" to victim country in order to destroy and terrorize every citizen inside. If nothing works with diplomacy and denials of genocide by torture gadgets continue, taking out a whole gigantic country or continent for gangs of countries teaming up to terrorize, remains an option if citizens refuse to overthrow the evil government and the thug 'professionals' they use to produce such devices. This is because it's better for 1 million to die than all 8 billion, and wars not ending means 900 quadrillion will die in future star wars, we simply prefer 800 million dead than 1 trillion times that number. Immortality for All means just that, an era dawns when violence is 0 and every human born has the right to 0 violence, to living forever and not being killed in wars or torture. No torture can be allowed in any country for any reason. The quantum scanner scans all nations and those who don't comply will be wiped out in 1 hour or 20 seconds after a gentle warning. This means that finally, if nothing can be done, the capsule method may be used, to preserve the human race and give it a chance to develop and flourish, if the hooligan nations devise new ways to torture and be violent covertly and force the use of scan and wipe too often, by hiding in all nations and waging holy war against the human quantum field. After all, they will have 50 years to prepare and build the capsules for 500 million even. Brutes and thugs who violently attack others covertly or overtly have no right to exist, nor the right to terrorize and damage the quantum field for trillions of years. The violence has got to stop, the demonic music has got to stop broadcasting and destroying entire solar systems of the future. If people are not allowed to live in Peace by the war starting nations, the rest of the world has to end the terror. And they have to end terror ultra fast, before all humans die in 10 seconds in 2100 or sooner.

Sports commentators terrorize the youth, incite the youth to infernal violent tones, to violent crimes, to apathy and selfishness of criminal proportions, while the nation is collapsing.☺☺☺ All sports commentators deserve lifetime labor for past crimes, in the cities they will co-build with the Immortalist Youth, who're kinder and do it out of their own free will. Sports commentators have caused endless divorces, fights, slapping, hits by dads and moms, as they emulated the hooligan tone of such 'TV people' and their energy of quarrel and shouting. They have caused half a million injuries in construction workers, that were pushed to the limits by a criminal system of "gorillas shout on TV and incite kids to kicking balls, while others work 50 hours lifting things and breaking their legs, backs, etc". This caused many to lose lifespan years, decrease productivity, drain the national longevity building healthcare resources, drain medical resources, shorten lifespan of 10 million others, etc. The aristocrat pigs own these "sports teams from hell", that make youth and adults to waste billions of hours kicking balls, instead of gently building safely decent single family homes for all, without any injury for all. There must be a balance, we need to help the builders, solar panels installers, etc, not shout like Hitler on TV. Perhaps, the united Immortalist Youth can vote for the Immortalist Party and finally Ban these filif fruit fly IQ ☺☺☺ sports from TV and instead show amazing & beautiful acts of volunteering that bring the end of jails in 8 years, the transformation of all bad cities. We all can tenderly gently kindly☺ choose to have some spirituality, move gracefully to alleviate the suffering of fellow humans, to have ethics not the Bible crap ☺☺☺that causes the depraved Vatican to allow 'demonic' basketball and soccer in every Catholic school, while fellow kids are beaten to death by parents who escaped a sick jail due to a criminal justice system that doesn't treat any cause, only puts a bandage on symptoms and fixes nothing. Nobody becomes better by going to jail, as the UK Starmer prime minister thought probably too, they need healing centers for all, all those guilty of sports watching need to gently get off their comfy couch and walk spirituality, to nurturingly stop watching those football games. Why call Vatican 'depraved'? They don't have any honesty, they teach pure lies without any evidence, teach intellectual dishonesty and rituals, instead of kindness, dependence instead of direct link, beatings are deified in the Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives), tell kids the horrific rape, genocide, beatings, slavery 1400 Bible quotes are the 'Word of God'. They also lie to people Jesus turned water into wine, promote wine drinking, when we know wine, beer, etc shorten your lifespan. Vatican promotes alcohol use, which kills 3 million a year, in a blatant attack on humanity. Why use wine for Eucharist ritual? The immortalists will require most of the free space, after 5-12 hours daily is ethics, new lifetime labor/death penalty rules, quiet cities rules and huge fines for loud dogs and meditative bliss to prevent addiction to "alcohol, smoking, drugs" to be dedicated to science, technology of immortality, of living to 200, later 800 trillion years. Today we got these filif "hen IQ" TV sports "experts" who destroy USA, keep all in the range of pig IQ, don't allow the youth to focus on more productive, kind activities to learn science, safe cooking methods, things that help people to live longer by 30000 years not 3.

Sex trafficking is 1000 rapes per girl at least, so it ought to be death penalty globally. These animals have no right to life, because of very scientific reasons: they enslave many girls, who, due to forced drug, alcohol intake and sex overwork, age fast and live 10 years shorter at least. With 5 girls, we have 50 lifespan years lost, equivalent of murdering a 30 year old. Death penalty

10 times for traffic of 50 girls then. As long as video exists of a punch, violent crime, etc or sufficient evidence, the Execution can be Shown Live on National TV at the News Hour, all 50 executions for all caught in the last few days, no deportation, instant execution. This prevents any repeat offense. Theft of a car worth 50000, means all assets sold and lifetime labor if he can't pay 450000$. This will give plenty of signals to the people interested in sex work, drug dealing that they will meet instant death (today the catch and release means they get a little fine 30 years later after 5000 crimes, instead of death after 3 weeks). We waste endless national resources to catch and release, to pay court clerks, to do this and that, instead of actually bringing violent crime down 1 billion fold as needed for Eternal Universal Peace. Let none go to jail for theft, simply have them pay 9000 the value stolen, take their house instantly if they can't pay, so they have to rent for a while and experience the joy of living in a tiny home generously offered by the government. Why waste so much money to keep them in jail? Let them work. This travesty is mainly due to Demon-crats for lenient sentencing and Re-pub-licans for filif IQ decentralized educational system and unfair pay, etc. Only the Immortalist Party eliminates these outdated anti-World Peace policies that terrorize the planet forever. Too many countries have ultra lenient sentences and poor decentralized educational systems that prevent the proper tone and equal pay, fair society that prevents crime and gang formation. We're not even counting the shorter life for the ☺filif rabbit IQ men☺ doing the sex, because they ruin their families and health. Yet, EU, US and UK do nothing, except encourage more rape by their policies. It's urgent to get these animals wiped out so we can have true civilization on Earth. Ban the Quran, and the Bible, the Torah too, all 3 of which encourage rape. Behold the "Kindness" of Islam. Show on TV the execution of all sex and drug traffickers. Drugs shorten lifespan of millions being the equivalent of killing 1 million children, so all narcotics dealers deserve death. All those attacking people with guns, axes (like this guy who almost severed a hand and had the victim die 4 years later) or knives deserve immediate death penalty, since such violence if left unchecked will create 100 times more similar incidents. Deportation is not even fair, death penalty alone is. Naturally, to prevent the extreme hooliganism of today, 2024, when thugs attack cops, punch cops etc for no reason other than asking a question or saying something, the experimental death penalty period, renewable yearly, would allow cops to shoot dead anyone who punches or attacks a cop, in order to deter such violent crimes from occurring in the presence or absence of cops: people who attack a cop probably beat a lot of people before and deserve a DEATH PENALTY for those unreported violent crimes against spouse, kids or friends too, not just the violent crime of attacking a cop for no reason other than some words. Cops are everyday people who risk their lives daily for a paycheck, something most people would never want to do.

Nations got limited national resources, and already, treating the worst violent criminals 10000 times nicer as in lifetime labor in a healing city where they get a tiny home and better food, silence, nice music on headphone, than in current jails, is a huge national drain if we have to always make adjustments for repeat violence in these cities: the music, energy, kindness will be so high, the violence rate ought to be 90000 times lower than in current jails. The situation is going to be challenging until the violent crime is reduced 1 million fold, but the things will rapidly improve as the worst are taken away via the death penalty. Not having the death penalty means having no deterrent against those who abuse the kindness of the current system to inflict violence on others, knowing their only penalty would be relaxing in a cell, while the nation feeds them, houses them and they give nothing back to society. Big wars were prevented by nuclear weapons, which are DEATH PENALTY TYPE devices, at the national (not individual electric chair) level. Big violent crime also can be prevented by THE DEATH PENALTY, by the same mechanism. It acts as a psychological deterrence for truly sick people who only care about them being alive. Yet, the immortalists realize there are 5 trillion ways to an end, 0 violent crime, without any death penalty as a direct penalty, unless one is violent in the healing center. If they kill all who do violent crimes directly on first offense, they may need to kill 25% of population, since today violent crimes are hugely under reported. So, it's not practical when you need more labor, less immigrant labor, to just kill people like Stalin killed 20 million, as you destroy your country, like Stalin destroyed USSR. So, aided by logic, the immortalists can be more detached and objective when some present data 'showing' that "death penalty or torture or punishment instead of education" led to a drop in crime. The reason is that these drops are temporary and the violent crime rate, real, not reported, is always far higher, often 10000 times higher, as the government doesn't report its billions of violent crimes a year against the citizens it tortures, the 1000 cases of domestic abuse, recurrent in 1 family, that police ignores, etc, which adds to billions of unreported violent crimes a year. This hidden torture or ignored crime will lead later to an explosive government overthrow that leads to wars and more violent crime, so a sudden decrease in the short run, may not sustain in the long run. Once again, immortalists look at the data over 5000 years, not 5. Over 5 millennia we see nothing we tried worked, so the immortalists gently offer a hypothesis: we need to try 12 different things to get a different outcome. Immortalists protect the weak who're brainwashed by the violent gangsters to smoke, drink and do bad things, eat bad foods, etc. When all feel loved, nobody attacks, nobody steals. The immortalists propose addressing the cause of crime, not its symptoms: angry scapegoats jailed by society to hide the issues and postpone fixing things. We have failed, let us try a new way. ☺☺☺ To prevent robberies, shootings, etc all carnivore animals who attack people will be killed, so that nobody needs guns, since attacks will be 0 once death penalty for 1 punch even is given. Any robbery using a deadly weapon would also be death penalty.

In China the murder rate is 10 times lower than USA due to more death penalty, media filtering (instead of US Jewish Nazism 'Jewish Supremacy' of Zion Protocols destruction of certain groups via violent music and etc disguised as 'freedom of speech') and no guns Chinese culture. Even in China, with more restrictive policies to protect the nation from being destroyed by foreign Jewish influences of 'beat kids with rods and beat slaves (blacks, whites, Asians, etc) with devilish violent music etc', the Chinese only give murderers under 14 some minor sentence of 3 years in a 'healing center', where lifetime education, healing and 'lifetime labor in a sealed city' would be needed. The dramatic failure of China's educational system in preventing such violent crimes among youngsters is evident, they don't promote enough immortalism, universal kindness, etc. China ought to promote more Confucian virtue, Buddhist gentle universal metta (loving kindness) and Taoist qualities of meditative altruism (relax, meditate, breathe, stop trying to acquire toys, true wealth is brain health, knowledge, being well-rested or in the Tao, rest, don't excite the senses so much, give your brain good rest, good sleep), and emphasize less the materialistic Jewish non-Chinese Marxism. The murderer boy's sister quarreled with the murdered girl over material objects, toys, deified in materialistic Marxism, showing an abject failure of China's phony fake communism (torturism, see the horrible housing China avoids showing on state Youtube Channels, while millions of new shiny apartments sit empty, police violence – cops steal bikes to sell them, millions homeless and tens of millions unemployed, while millionaires empty mansions sit and rot as these spies moved overseas to create spy networks) to implement centralized eterni tone and ethics education from age 1 to 25, a truly fair 'equal education and opportunity for all' society would have. The most valuable thing is not OBJECTS, but Living to a Trillion for All, Immortality for All, Life itself. This Immortalism has to be taught from nursery to PhD, not the materialistic violent Marxism. This ensures 0 wars. ☺☺☺

Berlin Muslim areas turn into war zones and lenient sentences for minors mean they do anything they want, dragging the court procedures, etc; the Berlin video shows why we need lifetime labor and death penalty for minors too. This level of violence comes from the failure to outlaw fireworks and as a result of failure to test immigrants at the EU level, and to give lifetime labor for many violent crimes (throwing firecrackers at buildings, etc), and death penalty for any violent crime against persons (firing at police cars, fireworks thrown at people, cop cars, ambulance (they do it in the video), which could kill the victims, the wounded in ambulance, etc). EU and all nations where such things occur need to take action and give tens of thousands of death penalties, without even deportation. Once video exists, then those guys are arrested and executed on local TV, live execution, for the clear warning to all to stop the violence. It may be the only way to solve it, if the 12 hour education on all EU TV stations (during the state of EU emergency, where all TV stations are broadcasting the new ethics of the EU with local language and subtitles in English) thru the EU wide State of Emergency doesn't stop all violent crime in 6-12 months. First month no law changes, then all are explained the lifetime labor sentence for any violent crime for any age. These cannibal subhumans don't deserve to live, after abusing the country that welcomes them by engaging in violent crime and pure terrorism: EU deserves Immortality for All, not Quranic genocides that killed up to 270 million people last 14 centuries, 90 million in India. Let's not allow fanatical violent ideologies of Bible, Quran, Torah, to destroy our continents thru their thousands of violence quotes fed to us by aristocrats for millennia as the 'Word of God', the illiterate masses who never read the Bible until the printing press appeared and translations into local languages appeared. We need to remind all angry youth and adults, leftists or fascists, what the Japanese did in WW2 (731 & Japanese eating Indian prisoners & beatings, starvation, killing & Gulag like torture or death marches) and why we can't allow violence, that later becomes quantum war that kills all humans in the solar system, in 10 sec. If immigrants want to stay in EU, they need to engage in 0 violent crime, otherwise, Death Penalty regardless of age. If locals want to remain alive, they too need to stop violence.

Let's finally ☺☺lovingly tenderly gently kindly☺☺ free our continents from violence by creating laws that criminalize (lifetime labor, death) slapping, spanking, beatings deified in the Bible, Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves), the Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives), any small violent act, so violent crime becomes 50 billion times lower than today, which is needed if humans are to survive. If only 7 million death penalties bring crime down after 12 hours/day on all EU or USA TV stations education for 6-12 months, then that is what will happen and needs to happen, if humans are to survive as a species. We need to end violence on all continents immediately, ESPECIALLY in the EU, which borders Ukraine-Russia War which can turn THERMONUCLEAR or Quantum (all humans dead) ANY TIME. This is especially true for East EU states (where perfect nonviolence needs to reign fast to unify the 15-20 states into one English speaking 0 Crime State), that border Russia-Ukraine. Humans are in a state of preextinction via war, when the very existence of humans is at stake. Initially, lifetime labor, before making death penalty universal for any violent crime if violent crime doesn't drop 10000 fold within 15 months, since our deadline is a trillion fold in 5 years. We don't want to kill people, but those who don't get it, that Ukraine Marinka will be the fate of all cities on Earth, deserve death penalty. Now, when thermonuclear war is about to start, is not the time to add fuel to the flames. We already got 100 million dead in WW1 and 2, the third would be 7 billion. Due to the nature of people, their chimp aggressive DNA, we need to have 1 language, 10-20 companies for the entire planet, 1 culture of Nonviolent Immortality for all, so this has to occur ultra fast to prevent the First Strike by the Ultimate Weapon discoverers that kills 99% of humans except some in a special capsule or shielded area. This First Strike becomes more imminent as each year passes, so humanity has limited time to rapidly unify as One, with One Army, One Country. We have only a few years or maybe 1-2 decades left to remove all violent crime, before the first strike. As the Internationale song went, "we will end this world of violence ans build a new world of peace", but not via torture, or via beatings like 1000s of governments before (communist or other systems), but thru education in tones far kinder than all churches today, all mosques, all synagogues, the eterni tones 12 hours daily on all TV-radio for 6-12 months. We need to eradicate torture and terror, deified in the demonic Torah, Bible and Gospel and Quran, and communist manifesto created by the Torah Jews, torture imposed into our psyche by the request of clergy to emulate Jesus' torture by the Jews who plotted with him to take over all continents. We need to eradicate at superluminal speeds the beatings of kids, wives, workers, slaves, etc deified in the Quran, Bible, Torah satanist texts of global violence, by criminalizing (death penalty for cruel cases without any trial, if video exists) torture and beatings by parents, teachers, cops, military, spies and ushering the world of Eternal Lifetime Labor in Healing Cities and painless Death that contaminates the human quantum field 1 trillion times less than psychotic Jewish communism torture, psychotic Catholic Inquisition torture, psychotic capitalist state torture. And many others of many empires, religions (Muslim general kills 900000 Indonesians for not believing in the Quran fraudulent genocidal text, plus tortures 2 million people wholly destabilizing the human quantum field with the ample support of USA), etc. However, to be fair the communists were into violence too, causing up to 100 million dead (that's why probably they attracted the violence of Suharto), while Jesus with his Bible spreading caused 2 billion dead at least by alcohol promotion alone, not to mention wars. ☺☺☺

Islam is a Christian denomination in reality, is an offshoot of Christianity, Quran being the rewritten Bible with add-ons. What Christians fail to realize is that all Quranic violence is in the Bible/Torah itself. Going to a church, synagogue is worshiping Mohamed and supporting Islam, supporting violence against kids, women and endless innocent people, supporting war, torture, atrocities, it's a crime against humanity, a blatant abuse of human rights to Life, Eternal Life, read these 70 pages to understand why. Not only that, but you can commune with God at home, and these churches, mosques, temples waste way more materials than needed to house in decent conditions all homeless and jailed people, plus 10 million free healthcare centers to help all humans live to 500 so they can understand God better, at home, without mental control and IQ destruction by the Vatican mafia or others, so all are happily transformed at home, in their own "temple" at home, by the free youtube music and tones that exist, and also that they can make much better than the clergy trash, and break the evil grip organized religion has on the innocent youth turned into violent fundamentalists by clergy. We need central gentle tender soft healing nurturing tone education, free education nursery to PhD for all, so all know how these "demonic beasts" or "cannibal chimp like primates" have seduced humanity into a demonic trance for 2 millennia with their evil texts deifying violence and child abuse, rape and genocide, how they recently hid all violent quotes from all Cathodic Churches, to ensure maximum deception (Bible replaced with Missal so all are totally ignorant of the evil inside). Eternia, East EU nation, ought to require immortality test, English test for all immigrants, once they make English official as the common language for our former communist states. Ethics is Eternal and doesn't depend on the fleeting rantings of the Bible, Torah, Quran. One day, nobody will know what Torah, Bible, Quran are, as people are way smarter. They will be as useless and forgotten, as the ramblings of these cannibal chimps. Relax my friend, listen. Become human, expand your horizons via youtube, don't let clergy turn you into a cruel chimp. ☺☺☺

There is no threat to the Chinese Communist Party or any leftist socialist regime from diminishing Jewish violent Karl Marx/Lenin ideas, Jewish violent Bible ideas of genocide, beating and enslaving, of smashing kids against rocks, and instead magnifying emphasizing immortalism, diminishing materialism and emphasizing Knowledge and Gentle Kind Nurturing Tender Soft Ethics of Immortality for All, which is a truly native philosophy, not Jewish, but very much hidden in the Buddhist scripture, Tao Te Ching and the mythology of the Immortals in China and Chinese emperors, philosophers (Lao Tze) fascination with immortality. Immortalism is found in all cultures really, from the Americas to Africa (Egypt, etc), while the convoluted economics of Karl Marx is not. The famous Das Capital by Karl Marx and F. Engels has 3 volumes, vol 1 (the one with stuff anyone ought to read, atrocities against slaves praised in the Bible made into law), vol 2 and vol 3 (boring definitions and economic theory, plus frequent notes indicating the huge abuse of the worker class by aristocrats, the horrific working conditions of the masses). Vol 1 contains an amazing compilation of the atrocities the aristocrats, monarchs (British, etc) have perpetrated against the workers of the world. Examples of criminal actions by Western European 15th to 19th century governments are in Chapter 28, page 520-523 in volume one describing the 'Holy Anglican Church' Inspired British Monarch Guidelines on how they can kill, beat and mutilate homeless workers, similar to the rules of French (Catholic) and Dutch monarchy rules), extremely genocidal violent crimes that nobody talks about today as they repeat in new forms. The direct link to Chapter 28. You realize that today, the English feudal genocidal psychopaths have been replaced by the same people who're spy agency-military aristocrats mutilating, killing people as they deem fit, to achieve their ends, because there is no self-sufficient USA via efficient 11 company system, but a complex Ponzi scheme to enrich the aristocratic families running the USA. You have to be self-sufficient as a nation to be able to have eterni ethics and not base your existence on the subjugation and bombing of other nations, whenever they don't provide cheap access to resources you want. This is a fact that doesn't register to most nations, due to brainwashing by soulless "25 generations of genocide" aristocrats that "executions of slaves and slave nations via war and obliteration is just normal", so the slave labor nations become victims of vampires who promote trade as a mechanism to simply enslave the weak and perpetrate the status quo of eternal beatings deified in the evil Bible/Torah (kids, workers, sex slaves) or the evil Quran (sex slaves, mutilated infidels, kids, wives) thru war, covert torture and sabotage unknown to the populace run by a puppet government of spies or clueless locals. Why have efficiency via immortalism, and far more innovation, when we can have infinite violence and bombings and no innovation, as everyone pretends to be "helping the nation" (their small business profits or big business)? Look at the world today, how it is run, who is subjugating others like the monarchies of France, Netherlands, UK, Austro-Hungary, Germany, Turkey etc did in the old days. This is why Peace is hard, people have no clue that the rulers are military gangsters (generational murderers who can't conceive a world without murder, as in war and evil spy thrillers they write, hence World Peace in 3 months is nowhere to be found in any media) who would use anything, war included, to perpetuate subjugation. It takes a gentle ethical nonviolent nation to be self-sufficient, one of higher nature. It takes a wise nation, since they know, more often than not, the trade partners ship products that would obliterate your nation. For all this "climate change" talk, and yet they ship things from far, polluting people, instead of making it at home. Why? They need factories as military bases of subjugation, as spy bases, and slaves to work while they preach the Word of Eternal Beatings of Slaves, of Genocide against any nation "God grants them". Oh, and they will call this collection of human rights abuses, torture, genocide, mutilation and holocausts, the "book of books" or the "holy word of God", spirituality, even a "religion", that deserves spy based called churches to brainwash locals and remove any trace of critical thinking for super easy subjugation. Nothing could be more ironic. Chapters 27 and 31 volume 1 explain some similar events. A long discussion of the genocidal working conditions of laborers who die at 42 due to being worked to death by aristocrats, is detailed in Chapter 10 over 30 pages, starting in section 2, page 164. The atrocious working conditions of these people who were exterminated by nobility are depicted in vivid detail, stuff that makes you shiver. For these compilations of abuse thruout Das Capital, Marx/Engels deserve all praise☺☺☺, as some may not be aware of these laws, having been brainwashed that only a few nations were imperialistic. 900+ predatory behavior countries, empires existed on every continent at various times.

However, a lot of the theory chapters of Das Capital would be perceived by some as boring and sometimes, as useless or, even worse, as a subtle brainwashing into ideology centered around Marx and Lenin violent or racist (they got some) quotes, in a way, because the need of the hour is Das Gentle Tender Soft Nurturing Universal Kind Healing Graceful Compassion and Immortality for All as in ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~.☺☺☺ If any leftist or fascist group becomes too angry, it can destroy the entire human species. Without these qualities (that the aristocrats lacked as Das Capital points out in HORRIFIC DETAIL) the human species may disappear in 10 seconds and all capital, Das Capital lengthy theories, etc and stocks will then be useless, including today's redundant 4500 US banks, as well as all this obsession with economics, with 20 million jobs in it, instead of the 20 million jobs of the physics-chemistry of longevity, of ~~Eternal Universal Peace~~ in 2 minutes by instant brain upload to educate all 1 million times
